POETRY.

OH! STEAL NOT THOU MY FAITH AWAY.

Oh! steal not thou my faith away,
Nor tempts to doubt the trusting mind.
Let all that earth can yield decay,
But leave this heavenly gift behind.
Our life is but a meteor gleam,
Let up amid surrounding gloom—
A flying lamp—a fitful beam,
Quenched in the cold and silent tomb.

Yet, if, as holy men have said,
There lie beyond that dreary bourne
Some region where the faithful dead
Eternally forget to mourn;
Where the world—spirit—fetters—the chain
The burning wild—the black abyss,
I shrink from the path of pain
Which endeth in a world like this.

But oh! if all that serves us here,
When grief assails and sorrow stings,
Exits but in the shadowy sphere
Of Fancy's weak imaginings—
Of hopes, though cherished long and deep,
Be cold and hamless mockeries,
Then welcome that eternal sleep
Which knoweth not dreams like these.

Yet hush thou troubled heart!—be still,
Renounced thy vain philosophy;
Like morning on the mighty hill
The light of truth shall break on thee,
Go, search the prophet's deathless page—
Go, question thou the radiant sky,
And learn from them, mistaken age!
The glorious worth—Thou shalt not die!

SHOO FLY.

The following is the latest form of the "Shoo Fly" epidemic. It is claimed that it was not written by any of the authors of "The Beautiful Snow." We are certain poor Paxon did not write it. Major Signorney may have done so. We express no opinion as to the poetry, but will put up stamps as to the truth contained in it:

Oh the fly! the horrible fly!
Dabbing at nose, and mouth, and eye,
Over the ceiling, over the mest,
Over all that people eat.
Buzzing,
Tickling,
Crawling about,
Damnable insect, you get out!

Wading in paint on a lady's cheek,
Leaving behind a tortuous streak,
Accursed fly! From the hell below
Never came pest that plagues us so!
Dancing,
Nibbling,
Fresh from the stye,
The stinking stye where the porkers lie

And even the dogs, with a snarl and a bound,
Snap at the insects that swarm around.
The air is blue with oaths that try
To strown the bum of the ojus fly

When the weary pilgrim seeks repose,
There's a hornpipe danced on the top of his nose,
There's a vigorous d—n, and a slam and slap,
And that's the end of the Speakers nap.
Singing,
Stinging,
Why, oh, why
Did God create this pestilent fly?

Once I was pious, but fell from grace,
Played the knave once, and cupped the ace,
Made of myself a terrible guy,
When the devil taught me swear on a fly.

How strange it is that women will try
To kill with cobalt this villainous fly!
How strange it seems when a million are slain
To find the multitude doubled again!
Whisking,
Frisking,
With clammy feet,
Hunting us out in quiet retreat.

If, like Toby, at the fly we swear,
And the angel recorder enters it there,
Give us, then the welcome doubt
That the tear of mercy will blot it out.

"Shoot Him Down."

[From the Louisville Sun.]

Under this caption the Lexington Observer and Reporter republishes a paragraph from a reported speech of Judge Goodloe to a crowd of negroes, who urged upon the negroes to "shoot down any white man who should interfere with them." It is a bad and very poor rule which won't work both ways, and we would urge upon any white man who should have a brother, or relative shot down in this way, to pay Goodloe a visit and shoot him down. The Radical leaders are infamous to do any mean thing, and would mislead the negro in all things wherein and wherever they can, if they, the Rads., can reap any advantage thereby, but a determination on the part of the white men to make an example of the Rrd. who endeavors to delude the African into any act of diabolism, or outrage, or murder, may act as a wholesome restraint. The Democrats are the only friends the negroes have, and they will not be very long in finding it out. In fact their eyes are being opened pretty fast. They are not invited to office in the custom house or postoffice, or any of the departments in the city neither are they invited into the parlors of their Radical allies, and are "shut out" in the nominations for offices to be filled in August. Here is the paragraph:

"The Richmond (Ky.) Register says that Judge W. C. Goodloe, at this city, addressed an assemble of negroes in Madison county a few days ago, and in the course of his remarks flattered the negroes with the idea of their being jurors and controlling the affairs of the county, and urged them to arm themselves and shoot down any white man who should interfere with them."

Shep Rand.

[From the West Union (O.) Defender.]

It will be a gratifying piece of intelligence to many of our readers to know that one Colonel Shep Rand, an unlimited bore and ignoramus, who, for the last two or three years has been annoying the Democratic party in this and Lewis county, Kentucky, has at last been got rid of, and is now enjoying o fellowship with the filth and scum of creation, the Radical party of Lewis county. A majority of the Radical organization in that County are horse-thieves and counterfeiters which explains Rand affiliation. For the last year our party in that County have been trying to get rid of him. The other day at the Democratic Convention at Vanceburg, Rand was on hand drunk as a dog, and as imbecile as an idiot, and after several attempts got the floor and proceeded to give his reasons for leaving the party. He said that he had played with niggers when he was a boy, and nursed them, associated with them and had illicit intercourse with the females of that race. This being the case, he had no further business with the Democratic party, and like uncontrolled water, he naturally sought his level. We have long had our opinion of this man Rand, and we are glad to know that it has been confirmed. Such accomplishments are but the offscourings of the earth and deserve to be treated with the contempt they invite. There is only one set of men on the face of God's earth, who would now tolerate such a monster, and they are the Radicals of Lewis county, Kentucky, who are well known and represented on the directories of the State prisons of the country. Just such a man as Rand is their natural associate, and where moral prostitutes are above par, he is fit to be a leader. A man who would make such disgusting acknowledgements as Rand did at Vanceburg, either drunk or sober, is no man at all, but a lecherous, treacherous rascal, who is not safe to be turned around a hog-pen or a dog-kennel. We don't know who his wife is, nor do we care, but we know that if she is a lady, she will not live another day without a scoundrel. The Radical party can take him to their bosom, and embrace him, for he is fondly to be of their number. Thank God! Thank God! that he has left the Democratic party. A poor miserable, contemptible puppy who will boast of his illicit connection with negroes, on a speech. Think of the will you, white man! If there is a meaner man than such an one on the face of God's footstool, we don't want to see him. Out with such scoundrels—out.

☞ Every Democrat, every Conservative, all persons opposed to Radicalism should cast their votes for the nominees of the Democratic party — This is a duty they owe to their faith and to their country. It is evident that a few more years of Radical rule will prove disastrous to every section and every interest. Our only hope now is that the Democratic party will come into power. We are told by the Democratic Congressmen, in their address to the American people, that if we are true to ourselves and the Democratic party we will have a majority in the lower House of the next Congress, and in two years more will control the Senate. Is not such a consummation worth a struggle? Is there any sacrifice that we should not make to attain such a desirable end?

The people of the North, East, and West are rallying to the Democratic standard. New York has rolled up 87,000 as a Democratic majority, and she expects the Kentucky Democracy to show no sign of faltering now. If any bolter, independent, or Radical candidate should be elected, it would be flashed over the wires on Monday night of August the 1st to all of the Radical strongholds that they had gained a victory—that the nominees of the Democratic party had been defeated. A bolter or independent now is worse than a Radical. Let the people beware of them, and shun them as they would a pestilence.—Cour. Jour.

The Press of the Union Invited to Texas.

The Texas State Press Association, in convention at Houston, the other day, adopted the following:

WHEREAS, We, in common with all Texans, are anxious to correct such erroneous impressions as may obtain abroad regarding our state and our people, and whereas the Press is the recognized medium through which error can be most promptly and successfully met and refuted, therefore,

Resolved, That we hereby invite the members of the Press throughout the United States to meet at the city of Houston, on the 15th day of November next, to travel with us over our public thoroughfares, visit our towns and cities, view our beautiful country, become acquainted with our people and partake of our hospitalities.

Resolved, That the directors of this Association are hereby charged with the duty of making necessary arrangements.

Resolved, That the papers through out the Union are hereby requested to copy and assist in giving circulation to these resolutions.

A High-Handed Outrage.

[From the Lexington Observer & Reporter.]

Last Tuesday, in our adjoining county of Woodford, one Robt. Price, a brother of the Postmaster of this place, and a store-keeper at the distillery of J. W. Lillard in Woodford, shot and killed a brother of the owner of the distillery, and immediately fled to this place. Judge B. F. Graves, the presiding judge of Fayette county, upon learning that a murder had been committed, immediately issued his warrant of arrest and placed it in the hands of the Sheriff of Fayette county, who arrested Price, and made the following return upon the warrant: "Received the within warrent by arresting Robt. Price, and bringing him before Judge B. F. Graves, July 7th, 1870. Signed, R. S. Bullock, S. F. C."

The case not being ready for hearing, by consent was continued until Tuesday the 12th day of July, 1870, and Price committed by Judge Graves to the Fayette county jail, without bail—no application having been made for bail. The deputy U. S. Marshal from Louisville came to Lexington on the night of the 7th, and without any authority whatever, compelled the jailer of Fayette county to deliver said Price to him. This thing was done without bond or notice being served on Judge Graves, as the law requires, but was done while Price was in the Judge's charge and under examination, which examination had been continued at the request of the prisoner.

There is no palliation for this high-handed outrage, and if the majesty of Kentucky laws can thus be overturned with contempt and impunity, it augurs no good for the future. Where is security for life, liberty and property to come from when United States officers make it their business to case their authority to obstruct the course of justice? What a howl of indignation does a Ku-Klux outrage raise in rigidly righteous Radical quarters, but let an United States officer do just exactly what the Ku-Klux have done, and then the outrage at once becomes "duty," "justice" and right." We await the eulogy that will be pronounced on this crime.

Latest from Seat of War—Terrific Combat at Lexington, Ky.—The Prize Belt Awarded.

Gibbons (lawyer) offended at Gratz (editor) for an uncomplimentary article. They meet in Barnes, Ballard & Wood's drug store.

Gibbons (loq.)—"Sir, I understand you speak of me."

Second Round—Gibbons head, propelled by a counter from Gratz's right, goes through glass show case. Awful smash of perfumery bottles and prodigal waste of Holmbold's Buchu.

Third Round—Gratz comes up smiling, Gibbons groggy on his pins. Gratz buts Gibbons in the bread basket. Total loss of Gibbons' breakfast. Betting 9 to 2 on Gratz and no takers.

Fourth and last Round—Gratz seizes Gibbons by the snout and crams a copy of the Kentucky Gazette down his throat. Loud cries of "foul." Objection overruled by the referee—sponge thrown up by Gibbons. Exit Gratz, singing, "I wait to be an Angel." Prize belt awarded to the Kentucky Gazette Editor.

For full particulars, see the New York of next week.

P. S.—Since the above was written, we have had the opportunity of inspecting the gorgeous champion belt which the friends of the ring in Lexington presented to the champion. It is four feet in length, seven inches wide, and richly ornamented with costly pictures, representing famous pugilists, sparring exercises, &c. The central ornament is an American eagle of the finest block tin, with a motto. "It fight is your game, come on." It may be seen for one day only at Crutcher's hat store.

☞ In the catalogue of the Madison county fair, we see that B. H. Bruce Esq. editor of the Richmond Register, has offered a premium for the worst turnout, any shape, style or fashion. That will be a ring decidedly rich, and well worth one's time to look at. How many old gentlemen, inclined to corpulency, will go home minus vest buttons from the effects of the exhibition that premium will create, it is impossible to say.

Clark County Democrat

Parris, we shall expect you over fully prepared to bear off the prize.

☞ Know ye the Printer's hour of peace? Know ye an hour more fraught with joy, than ever felt the Maid of Greece, when kissed by Venus' amorous boy? Tis not when news of solemn note, his columns all with sadness fill, nor yet when brother Printers quote, his shadow of his blunt worn quill. But Oh 'tis when the weather's fair, or clad in rain, or hail, or vapor, he hears a subscriber say: "I've come to pay you for your paper."

☞ The Lebanon Clarion thus records the progress of ideas: "We observed that six negro wenches planted themselves in the ladies' car in Richmond yesterday morning, and refused to vacate their seats when requested. The conductors, suspecting that the object was to make a test case in the Federal Court, telegraphed to Louisville for instructions. He was directed to get them out, if possible, but not to proceed to extremities. The result was that the sweet-scented damsels held their position and the conductor succumbed."

Woman.

[From the Meridian (Miss.) Gazette.]

We have read a Chinese maxim, no matter where, but it deserves to be engraven in letters of gold, then sprinkled with diamond dust, and hung conspicuously in every home where family dwells. Thus it runs: "Woman has four things of woman—that virtue dwell in her heart; that modesty play on her brow; that sweetness flow from her lips; that industry occupy her hands." A virtuous woman, with modest mien, sweet words, and industrious habits, is a very lovely creature. She can transform a humble home into a paradise, and make the most of life. A friend to her young associates, whom they respect and love. These are all important relations which woman is called to fill in the social system, small mouth, fair complexion, round blue eyes, which she hid a trick of rolling. She had very light hair, not curly, and a bald spot on one side of the back of her head, produced by a boil, which will remain so for some time, before the hair will grow on it. She answers to the name of Moll, or Mollie, and calls herself Dada, trying to imitate her father, who always called her daughter. She can say a few words like mamma, papa, Rosy, Nelly, but cannot yet put words together in a sentence. She walks well and even dances.

DESCRIPTION OF THOSE WHO ABDUCTED HER.

She was taken by a bright mulatress, about twenty five years of age, very tall and thin, with a pretty face and strong features, almost like a white woman's. She had on a sun-side hat, trimmed with brown ribbon.

She was accompanied by a short, thickset black woman, apparently older than the mulatress; who had a scar over one eye. Though it was so reported, it is not certain that she was called Martha.

Steamboatmen railroad man, policemen and citizens are requested to try and remember if they have seen such persons. The fire bells were ringing at the time they took the child. Those who took her are afraid to bring her back to her father's house let them leave her in any church, or at the door of any house, with a note stating the name of her father pinned on her.

The promised reward will be sent to any place named, and no effort will be made to prosecute the offender. Farmers, mothers, friends, every human being with a heart in its bosom, help us to find our darling child, our only little daughter!

Her father's address is

THOMAS BIGBY,
Howard street, between Dryfus and Lafayette, New Orleans, July 7th, 1870.

All newspapers in Louisiana and throughout the United States are requested to copy this notice.

[From the New Orleans Bee.]

But more than this. If, as some suppose the child—a little girl but 17 months old—has been victimized by negro devotees of voudoism—a supposition based on the grounds that it was of a suitable age, and that it is said to have been stolen by a negress just before the day set apart for their voudoo rites—St. John's day—certainly no stone should be left unturned, let it cost the people what time and money it may to have the fact ascertained and the hellish ceremony itself broken up by the extermination, if necessary, of such licentiash worshippers.

But the friends of the parents, one of whom—the mother—is said, has been sent to an asylum while the father is almost distracted—should show courage such as idea in their minds, if possible, as that their child has been thus victimized as long as there are other equally accountable means for its disappearance—for instance for substitution as an heir to some estate to get property into the control of the kidnappers, in which event the parents may reasonably hope to recover their child.

For our part, we do not believe that the child has been sacrificed to the voudoos, and have consequently refrained from publishing such a cruel conjecture. Being of the opinion that if has other wise disappeared, and that it may be fore long be restored to its parents. They should continue to hope so, at least, and not give way to despair, and the public should act promptly in sympathy with them, and commence by subscribing in cash liberally to employ the most experienced detectives to work at this case exclusively, and solve the painful mystery if possible.

☞ In the contested election case of Barnes vs. Adams, the House of Representatives on Tuesday adopted the report of the Committee on Elections declaring Adams, the sitting member, entitled to the seat. The successful contestant is a Conservative from the Eighth Kentucky District. The House voted to allow Barnes, who had not a shadow of a claim to the seat, $5,000 to pay his expenses. This is of a piece with the injustice done to John D. Young, who was legally elected by the people of this District but was denied the seat by Congress, and to whom not one cent for the necessary expenses incurred in vindicating his own rights and those of his constituents has ever been allowed.

THE LOST CHILD.

Fears That it May Have Become a Victim of Voudoism.

[From the New Orleans Picayune.]

The mother (Mrs. Bigby) has we hear, become quite crazed, and the father is almost wild with grief, the imagination of each having pictured the most horrible fate for their lost darling.

We append the following description of the child, on account of the circumstances attending its abduction, trusting that it may throw some light on the matter, and stimulate every one to action:

LOST CHILD—FIFTEEN HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD, WILL BE PAID BY THE COMMISSIONER OF LOUISIANA—$500 OFFERED BY THE FATHER OF THE CHILD.

On Thursday evening, the 9th of June, about 7 o'clock, the only daughter of Thomas Bigby, residing on Howard street, near Dryfous, was stolen by two colored women.

DESCRIPTION OF THE CHILD.

The little girl was seven teen months old on the 14th day of June. She had rather a thin face and delicate features, small mouth, fair complexion, round blue eyes, which she hid a trick of rolling. She had very light hair, not curly, and a bald spot on one side of the back of her head, produced by a boil, which will remain so for some time, before the hair will grow on it. Scandal.

"There is a lust in man no power can tame
Of speech to speak, no power but time to shame.
On earth's wide plain immortal scandal fly,
Whilst virtuous actions are but born and die.

This sentiment of the old heathen, Horace, paraphrased by the Earl of Corke, is admirably true in the day of Christian meridian splendor. Aye, and even among those who bear the badge of a high and holy calling. The pure Redeemer gave a warning and a withering rebuke when he said, "If any are without sin, let him cast a stone," and not one dared to do so. It was his custom to allure sinners from their sins by kindness, and to treasure the penitential tear, not to blazon humanfrailty on high places of publicity, or fling it on the simoon that desolated the land. The cunning lips of woman, who would be lovely, were it not for this dark stain, are often soiled by backbiting, whispering slander, and sometimes immolating innocent victims on its fatal altar. Beware female friends! beware how you do this. Remember the flaming Bible utterance: The tongue is an unruly member, setting on fire the course of nature, and is itself set on fire of hell"—Meridian Gazette.

Pendleton's Beautiful Speech

Hon. George H. Pendleton, delivered before the Literary Society of the University of Virginia June 29, at Charlottsvile, Va., one of the most elegant and eloquent addresses ever listened to by a college audience. It is too long for our columns; it will forever place the speaker in the front rank of American orators. We annex his closing sentiment.

"I am not of the number of those who, from the present difficulties and doubts, take refuge in despair. This, too, shall pass away" was the teaching of the eastern sage. I have hope in the aspirations of man. Our race is immortal. Its progress is onward and still onward—higher and still higher—higher as the eagle's wheel, with unslacking eye, he takes his flight to the sun; higher, as it chases myriad stars, which, to the belief of faith, encircle the footstool of the eternal Throne—higher, as of the soul of man when leaving his earthly body, it seeks, throughout all the ages, the attainment of perfection in the home of its Father and its God."

The Andrews Fund.

We have at last received a copy of the record in regard to the Andrews fund and will lay it before our readers in our next issue. We regret that we were unable to procure it in time for this issue.

Democrats, Watch Them.

We understand that some of the Radicals are making an attempt to get some Democrat to run independent against the Democratic candidates for Magistrate and Constable in this district. Let no Democrat be used as a tool for any such purpose. Spot the Democrat that does lend himself to such a vile purpose.

Our Prospects.

From all parts of the County the news of the certainty of our success at the election on Monday week is most cheering. The democracy are enthusiastic and the radicals are despondent. The clamor of disorganization among democracy are fully and efficiently organized and are prepared for the contest. No dissatisfaction exists so far as we know in the county outside of this district and if there is any here it is confined to only a few. On the other hand disorganization and confusion reigns in the Radical camp. Our prospects grow brighter and brighter day by day. The people are aroused and are determined on a complete Democratic victory. They will have nothing less. We will have nothing more of the negro party in this county after the August election. Success is a certainty. But, Democrats don't let the flattering prospects deter you from visiting the polls and drive one more nail in the Radical coffin. Be sure you get the corpse into the coffin and securely nailed up before you cease your labors. The few days that are to intervene between now and the election you must work to your best advantage, leave no stone untursed, and your greatest energy and depend upon it success is certain.

Attention, Democrats!

Democrats of Fleming, there are but a few days more days in which to prepare for the contest. The question is Are you ready? if not, then go and do so. For the first time in the history of the county the negro will be a voter. Designing white men will try by the aid of the black vote to get into power. Democrats we can beat the Radicals and give them the negro vote. We must beat them. It is our duty we owe to ourselves, our families, and the white race, to beat them. Will you, Democrats of Fleming, aid in any manner, in selecting a man as County Judge who was nominated by a Radical convention as the radical candidate, who while he denies being a Radical—accepted a nomination at the hands of the Radical party—who is electioneering with the negroes—and who, if he is elected may appoint negroes judges of our elections? Are you willing under any circumstances to assist in electing a man Sheriff of your county who may be willing to summon negroes to serve on juries—to try the lives and characters of white men and women? If you believe that this is a white mans' government made by white men—for white men, then arouse yourselves and fix a nail. We have had a lively fight! See your neighbors and friends and point out to them the danger that threaten us. See that all are at the polls—assist in providing means for getting those to the polls who have no means of their own. Let us by our actions show to the mongrels and political bushwackers who is our object and aim is office, that old Fleming is the wrong place for them. We have reasons for believing that many honest white men who have heretofore opposed the Democratic party will now vote with us. There are others who are almost persuaded to be Democrats, who in fact are Democrats at heart—but, who from prejudice keep away. Gentlemen, the Democratic lates string hangs out—lay aside your prejudices. Act, act promptly! Think of your wives and daughters being brought on an equality with negroes. Oh, the shame! The shame!

The old issues between us are dead—these are new issues, let us meet them like men.

Sam McKee.

That lying, perjured pimp of Radicalism, Sam McKee, will dare to present himself amongst the people whom he has so deeply wronged, on Saturday the 23d inst. to boldly and honestly discuss the political issues of the day? What mockery! to say, that a man, whose black, base soul is dead to every sense of honor, a man who has not only committed perjury himself but has been guilty of a crime of ten thousand times darker dye, subordination of perjury on boldly and honestly discuss anything. Not content with consigning his own soul to eternal infamy, he drags others down with him. And this is the man who is to boldly and honestly discuss the political issues of the day" to the people of Bath at Owingsville on the 23d inst. Individuals are disgraced by associating with him, and the party that has him for one of its leaders need have no other sign of its corruption.—Owingsville Inquirer.

Sam McKee is announced for a speech in Owingsville on next Saturday, and the Inquirer of that place, edited by a son of John D. Young, makes it the occasion of a few expletives towards the Radical favorite. The Inquirer says that people are disgraced by associating with Sam McKee. We will not deny the soft allegation, even though we slept with him once, but we would merely draw attention to the fact that the number of people in this District who are thus disgraced is very large.—Mayaville Eagle.

We are confident if our neighbor of the Eagle, had been present at the negro pic-nic yesterday he never would have acknowledged that he had slept with any body half as black as Sam McKee. You are mistaken Tom. You never slept with Sam McKee. Did you dad—in actually—sure enough? If you did—in the name of all that is decent, deny it—YES, DENY IT FOREVER. I will never do to acknowledge such a fact.

☞The Mt. Sterling Sentinel declares for Judge L. W. Andrews for Congress in the ninth district. Judge Andrews was an old Whig—a Union man, than Conservative. The Sentinel has been quite liberal in its views of men and things for a Democratic journal, and has therefore not had the influence in that district that it should have had, and we therefore regret that it will not see Mr. Duly's name noted. The Eagle, of Maysville, will also support Andrews, but we take it that the Bulletin and the Flemingsburg Democrat will represent the party in opposition to Andrews. We would be glad to see the Democratic party select for Congress such men as Walt. Andrews. He will conduct the canvass in a courteous, decent manner. The Republicans rant and will carry the ninth district pretty easily now. Let our friends there select a good man, and Andrews will be even a greater, even if the Democratic party should, in a generous fit give a Union man the nomination.

We clip the above from the Lexington Statesman, the Radical organ of the Ashland district. The Statesman knows very little of the Maysville Bulletin's opinion of Judge Andrews much less that of the Flemingsburg Democrat. For the Statesmanal expansal gratification we will state that we are for Judge Andrews for any office that he gets a democratic nomination for. We have always been the personal friend of Judge Andrews and have on several occasions advocated his claims for office with all the energy and zeal that we possessed. Almost the first politics we ever knew we learned from his lips, the first vote we ever cast was with his party, we have voted for him several times and would do so again and we a chance. We have never been so much of a rebel that we would refuse him our assistance in a political contest. And here we would say to the Statesman that Judge Andrews and ourself have voted for the last ten years the same ticket with few very slight differences. So long as he opposes Radicalism he is our political friend and in any event we trust we shall always merit his personal friendship. It has got to be the fashion of late for Radical newspapers to accuse democrats of throwing the field should, or to conservatives, and we desire to inform the Statesman that nothing of the kind has ever appeared in the columns of the Democrat since we have had control of it. We are a conservative ourself and we are in full fellowship with the rebel democracy as you are pleased to term it, and we shake hands with all who are opposed to negro quality and negro supremacy.

☞Contrary to the general expectation of the people of this district the House of Representatives just week admitted Hon. John M. Rice to his seat. The committee reported against him and as the House has generally endorsed the action of the majority of the committee it was thought that Mr. Rice would be ousted. The House voted two thousand dollars to the contestant, Col. Zeigler, to pay his expenses in the contest. How poor are these Radicals are to one another.

Democracy Triumphs in Oregon!

The Democratic victory in Oregon, although the returns have been slow coming in, is complete. Grover (democrat) was elected Governor by 651 majority, and both branches of the Legislature are Democratic. This secures a Democratic United States Senator in place of Williams, Radical. The result is highly gratifying and it is to be hoped that other States will follow in the footsteps of Oregon. Put down Kentucky, for certain, next Monday week.

W. H. Cord, the Radical Candidate for County Attorney declines.

We have received the following card from Mr. W. H. Cord, the Radical candidate for County Attorney, which explains itself:

FLEMINGSBURG, July 19, 1870.

To the Voters of Fleming County:

Having become unexpectedly involved in pecuniary distress beyond anything possibly expected, I decline the further use of my name as candidate for County Attorney.

W. H. CORD.

☞The Democratic candidate for Coroner is quite uneasy about his competitor. He fears that his said competitor has perhaps taken himself off—and it may be has done himself some violence. He earnestly desires some information as to his whereabouts. George Henderson has turned up all righ. And the question is, where is Leforge? We saw Mr. Duly in town the other day, and he was actually looking and—on account of the long continued absence of his opponent. Any information of the whereabouts of Mr. Win. Leforge, will be thankfully received by Chas Z. Duly, Esq., Democratic candidate for Coroner in Fleming county. Persons out of his vicinity having such information, will please address him, or any other citizen of Fleming County, Ky.

☞The Peoples (Ohio) Defender has this to say in regard to Shep Rand and Morg Thomas, the latter is now engaged in preaching—this in this country—Shep Rend the new Radical leader in Lewis county, Ky., is fit to be such, as he served his term in prison. A bush whacker during the war and a dirty foul-mouthed successionist, we may expect to see him carried upon the shoulders of the sick egg Radicals of that county and State. The leadership of the Radical party is in good hands in Lewis county, while Morgan Morg Thomas run things. We don't think that two scamps more have lived since the days of Girty. Thomas will be recollected as the dirty dog who insulted a lot of Union soldiers at Concord, Ky., early in the war, when the three months men were going down the river. He was then a violent secessionist."

☞We return our thanks to C. H. Ashton of the Flemingsburg Democrat, for a—well, it was a present, and we hope that he may enjoy what we left him in possession of, as we did that which he gave us. We think of you every time, Ashton.—Owingsville Inquirer.

For fear that some of the reader of the Inquirer may think that we have been giving to the young editor a bile of kennedy we will say that it was Robacks Blood Purifier, which is warranted to cure all kinds of diseases that man is heir to, especially palpitation of the heart.

How Disorganizers Must be Treat ed.

(From the Maysville Bulletin.)

It is not in human nature, nature's laws to have things just as we desire them. It is not in the power of a single individual, no matter how superior he may be to all his fellows, to fill that constitutes human perfectibility, to regulate matters in the political, social or moral world, exactly according to his own notions of what is right. Wide such diversity of mind, tastes and character exists among men, so single one can have his own way, for is it right he should. The true philosophy of life is to make the best of that we cannot change or improve. In political organizations, if we cannot carry out our own views on the subject, we can in regard to policy or candidates, the obvious duty of the individual, is, either to defer to the majority, or cease his relations with it. It is better to separate from those with whom we have been associated than remain, in apparent friendly relations with them, while waging war against their measures or their candidates.

We take no shelter of respect for those who, while pretending to be democrats, refuse to support the chosen candidates of the party, because in their selection, they have not chanced to obtain their choice. Such men usually justify themselves by alleging fraud in the nominations, or some other equally false and frivolous pretext. It frequently occurs, that the disaffected party wanted the office himself and failed to get it or, before the nomination, permitted himself to become so elated in behalf of another aspirant, as to be unable to see any merit in the elected, and when disappointed ready to ascribe the result to fraud, corruption, or, any other cause rather than the popularity or merits of the successful nominee. Instead of adhering by the officially declared will of the party, they set to work to sow the seeds of disharmony, if they do not run independent candidates, and thus cause defeat. Men who, from such motives, while professing to be democrats, thwart the purpose of the democratic party and defeat their candidates, are worse than open adversaries, and deserve to be treated as enemies.

In some parts, of the State we hear of existing feuds growing out of alleged dissatisfaction with the regular candidates and apprehension of defeat in those localities, are freely expressed. This is no time for disharmony among democrats. The country is ruled by despotic usurpers, and the Republic established by our fathers is found no where upon the continent. The time is thought to be near when our hot liberties may be prohibited, and the despotism driven forever from power. It will require the consolidated strength of every democrat in the land to achieve this happy result. The democrat who would throw a pebble in the way of such a triumph is a traitor to the party, he is more than a Radical—and should be summarily punished. We believe in the policy of "shooting deserters" it was the rule of the party in the days of Old Hickory. We would have the rule revived and enforced now. If men claiming to be democrats will not, in a crisis like the present, when more is to be won than was ever won before, sink their animosities, yield their individual preferences, give up their selfish ambition, and conform to the ways of the party, by sustaining its nominees let them be cast out of its organization. They are unworthy to have protection under its banner. They deserved to be drummed from its camp, and hooted into the camp of the Radicals whose friends and most efficient allies they are.

Highly Important From Europe.

France Declares War Against Prussia.

The First Blood Shed.

Rumored Engagement at Forbach.

Important Speech of M. Rouher.

Hostilities in Europe have actually begun. The subject of the Spanish throne has caused the great powers of France and Prussia to go to war. We append all the important dispatches that we have received on the subject.

OFFICIAL COPY OF WAR DECLARATION.

PARIS, July 17.—A Secretary of the Embassy will start tonight for Berlin to deliver to the Prussian Government an official copy of the French declaration of war.

RAILWAYS AND TELEGRAPHS DESTROYED.

LONDON, 18.—It is stated, by order of the Prussian authorities, railway and telegraphic communication between France and Prussia was destroyed.

PRUSSIAN TROOPS INVADE FRANCE.

Last night M. Rouher announced to the Senate that Duke Gramontone had informed him of the invasion of French territory by the Prussians. A force of the enemy had advanced as far as Sarrek, in the Department of Moselle, for the purpose of destroying the railroad at that point, but retired precipitately.

SKIRMISH BETWEEN FRENCH.

There is a rumor of an engagement having taken place near Forbach resulting in a loss to the Prussians of 3,000 killed. The French loss is placed at 2,000 killed. As yet the report is traced to no reliable source.

MANIFESTO TO SOUTH GERMANY.

The Emperor Will issue a manifesto to the States of South Germany assuring them of the good will of France.

—MAR SAWS.

LONDON, July 17.—The British Foreign Office has not yet received official notice of the declaration of war between France and Prussia. Italy and Denmark assure the powers of their intention to preserve neutrality. Mr. Mahon, Bazaine and Canrobert will command the three corps of the French army. The troops of Saxony are in motion.

Lutch reserves have been ordered out to protect the frontier. The Northern Parliament assembles on the 26th to vote the necessary credits for war purposes. Belgium relies upon Britain, French and Prussian assurances for neutrality or for immunity of her territory.

PRUSSIANS RUSH TO TAKE THE FIELD.

MUNICH, July 17.—The Bavarian army, including the reserve corps, was ordered to take the field.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF KING WILLIAM.

HAMBURG, July 17.—King William sent to the Chamber of Commerce of this place a greeting acknowledgment of the patriotic address of that body. He regrets the sacrifice which the honor of Germany exacts, but still do his duty, leaving events in the hands of God.

SPANISH CORTES SOON TO MEET.

PARIS, July 17.—The Monitor asserts that the Spanish Council has notified the Deputies that there will be no necessity for a meeting of the Cortes on the 20th inst. in consequence of the withdrawal of Leopold from the candidature.

M. ROUHER'S ADDRESS TO NAPOLEON.

PARIS, July 17.—After the session yesterday the Senate proceeded in a body to St. Cloud where they were received by the Emperor and Empress. M. Rouher, President, said the Senate thanked the Emperor for permission of expressing to the throne its patriotic sentiments. A monarchical combination injurious to the prestige and security of France, had been mysteriously imported by Prussia. On our representations Prince Leopold renounced the throne of Spain. Spain, who returns our friendship, then renounced a candidature so wounding to us. Without doubt, immediate danger was thus avoided, but our legitimate complaint remained. Suddenly we learnt that a foreign power to produce our honor and interests, wished to disturb the balance of power in Europe. Had we not the right to demand of that power the guarantee against a possible recurrence of such an attempt?

This is refused, and the dignity of France insulted. Your Majesty draws the sword, and the country is with you. Eager for the occasion you have waited so long, but during the time you have raised to perfection the military organization of France by your care. France is prepared. Her enthusiasm proves that, like your Majesty, she will not tolerate wrong. Let our august Empress become again the dispensatory of Imperial power. The great bodies State surround her Majesty with absolute devotion. The nation has faith in her wisdom and energy. Let Your Majesty preside over the council of war, command of the legions he led at Magneta and Solferino.

If peril has come the hour of victory is near, and soon a peaceful country will decree to her children the honors of triumph. Soon Germany will be freed from the domination which has oppressed her, and peace will be restored to Europe through the glory of our army. Your Majesty, who recently received proof of the national good will, may then, once more, devote yourself to reforms, the realization of which is only retarded. Time only is needed to conquer.

The Emperor warmly thanked the President and the members of the Senate.

THE DEMOCRAT.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING,

BY C. H. ROBINSON,

At $2.00 a Year, INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE.

THURSDAY, JULY.....21, 1870.

Local Matters.

Subscribers who receive their papers with an X printed opposite their names, will understand that the paper is sent to the outside wrapper, will understand that the time for which they have paid has expired.

Our Authorized Agents.

The following gentlemen are authorized to act as agents for the DEMOCRAT, to solicit subscribers, and to receipt for subscription, &c.

ANDREW T. COX, Maysville, Ky.
W. M. COLLINS, Concordia, Ky.
JOHN W. NEWCOMB, Sardinia, Ky.

Public Speaking.

The Democratic candidates for the various county offices, will address the people of Fleming County at the following times and places, to wit:

On Mt. Carmel, Saturday, " 23rd.
" Flemingsburg, Monday, " 25th.

Speaking to commence at 2 o'clock each day. All the Republican candidates are respectfully invited to be present. The ladies are invited to attend.

P. S.—The editor of the Flemingsburg DEMOCRAT will attend some of the above appointments on business connected with his paper. Be prepared to renew your subscription and get others to subscribe.

PRINTER WANTED.

The young gentleman now in our employ desires to stop work about the first of August and we wish to hire a good, sober, steady and industrious boy, one who understands working a Washington Press. Must come with the best of reference, wages liberal. Address this OFFICE.

SETTLE UP.—This is our time for settling up. We must have spondulicks.

THE RAIN.—We had a very heavy rain in this locality on last Monday evening and night.

THE BRIDGE.—The bridge over Dog run is being completed. We now have a convenient outlet to the Mt Sterling pike in that direction.

HOT.—The weather for the past week has been exceedingly hot. Hot, hotter, hottest; Hotentot, hottentotter, hottenteteratest—How's that for hot.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—The County candidates will address the people of the county at Poplar Run Meeting house, near the upper Blue Lick, on this day (Thursday) at 2 o'clock P. M. Every body is invited to attend.

BEAVERSVILLE HOUSE.—This ever popular hotel in Maysville, under the proprietorship of Mr. Geo Barnes, we are glad to know continues to keep Leaders. It is the headquarters for Fleming people, and Fleming people knows how to find it in Maysville.

ELEGANT VEIN OF LIVE PERSPIRATION.—We have no right to complain of the heat while we have such a vein of perspiration as Mr. Jno. A. Kirkland is sweating out of his brow at his sidewalk office. If this did not cool us down we have tried in vain to find a remedy. We appreciate the favor.

CLOSING OUT SALE.—I will offer Saturday, Monday, July 23d and 25th, my entire stock of dry goods, hereafter, from my store room, at auction. Will continue to sell at private sale until then. Goods will be sold without reserve. Franklin's building, Market street.

JNO. A KIRKLAND.

CHAS. E. CALVERT, Auctioneer.

HOGS.—Persons having more than three head of hogs running at large in the woods, had better put them up, as they will be prosecuted against all those found in the woods for sixty days. This looks hard on the hogs, but it is the only logical.

TIPPO-NOT.—There will be a regular, old fashioned Democratic Pic-Nic in the woods of Miss Elizabeth Matthews, near Maysville, on Saturday, July 23rd. Grand preparations are being made, and a good time is confidently promised by participants. Tippo's Band has been engaged for the occasion.

STRANGE.—The Democratic Fish Fry at the mouth of Cabin Creek, on Tuesday, was pleasantly enlivened by a MAN, energetic stabbing and threatening. A man named McLaughlin had his jugular laceration by Charles Hughes. We do not know whether permanently alive or dead but we can certainly hope that the nefarious wretch will be punished for indulging in so uncouth a pastime on festive occasion in the glorious county of Mason of the old old old State of Kentucky.—Eagle.

NEW FIRM.—As will be seen from an advertisement elsewhere, the firm of E. Dinsmore & Co. of Maysville Ky., has again changed, Mr. E. D. Pierce, son of Mr. Chas. Pierce formerly of this county, enters the business as one of the partners. The Kentucky Blue Grass Mowing Machine, the Kentucky Rotary Harrow, Cornell and Cultivator excelsior, Ivy Reversible, and Moore Diamond, Peters & Co. the new firm deserve the patronage of our people. This firm will not be undersold by any other establishment in Cincinnati or Louisville, will be disposed to accommodate their customers, and in dealing firm, prompt and energetic and, consider consequently building will do well to patronize them. See advertisement.

AUDDER'S HOME MAGAZINE, FOR AUGUST.—Among the Ladies Magazines, this is fast taking the lead, not only for the high character of its reading, but for the beauty of its illustrations, and the richness and variety of its fashion and needlework departments. Miss Townsend's new story, "Jacqueline," increases in interest every issue, and the admirable series of articles on "Women's Work and Women's Wages," have a large share and command equal to that treatment of a difficult subject, worthy of all praise. T. S. Arthur & Sons, Philadelphia, publishers of this elegant periodical, are winning in their efforts to set the pace in Lady's Magazine of the country. Price $2 a year.

Let no Democrat or Conservative fail to vote the Democratic ticket without a scratch.

DOG RUN.—This classic stream, probably known to posterity as the "town branch," but we call it dog run from the fact that its dog dies he must stay enough is dragged to this stream and thrown in, to float away, but alas! he generally lays there and rots. At the present writing that "dog run" needs a corps of street cleaners set to work at it, and the boat be put to full duty between embankments. We ask the town fathers to have it remedied at once before the grandjury meets. It is enough to breed cholera.

THE PUBLIC WELL.—The public well we believe is public property under the control of the town trustees, who also believe are public property in that capacity, well, we were going on to say that the public well is a public nuisance and our public trustees will do a public favor if they will remove it or cause it out at once before some person takes a case of public cholera from using it. The water is cool well at this writing is about the color of water from a tan yard and full of filth and corruption. Let her be cleaned out or abolished.

THE CHINA PALACE.—While in Maysville a few days since we had the pleasure of a good enough the extensive China Palace of Mr. R. Albert, on second st. The China Palace is one of the largest and finest houses of the kind in the Western country and the proprietor Mr. Albert is one of the best and most liberal merchants in Maysville. The portrait of Fleming, never fail to call on him when they visit Maysville, because they can always buy a better article of him at a lower price than elsewhere in that city or Cincinnati. He discounts Cincinnati prices and duplicates New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburg.

NOTICE.—The Trustees and Teachers of the Common Schools of the county of Fleming, pursuant to the general school law, the Board of Examiners will hold their sessions at Flemingsburg on the 2nd and 4th Saturdays in July and August, for the purpose of examining persons proposing to teach the common schools of said county.

E. WILLIAMS,
July 7-tf [Commissioner.

BELL GROVE SPRINGS.—Mr. Alvin Burns, the gentlemanly proprietor of these springs has made arrangements with the enterprising livery firm of Turner & Crain to convey passengers to and from these springs at any and all times they may desire. Address vis Bell Grove will call on Messrs Turner & Crain for further particulars.

DUDLEY HOUSE.—We publish the advertisement of this most excellent Hotel in our paper today. It is under the exclusive control of that clever gentleman Mr. Marion Sharpe, formerly of Sharpsburg, Ky., who understands exactly how to conduct a first class hotel. He is popular with the public and has a reputation as a landlord second to none in the country. In fact he makes friends by his politeness and "kind of a way" he has of making all at home who stop with him. When you come to Flemingsburg stop at the Dudley House and be a living witness to the truth of what we say.

THE KENTUCKY NEW ERA.—We still continue to receive the weekly issues of the Kentucky New Era, which is ably edited and published at Hopkinsville by Messrs D. Morris and A. G. Garrett, who are also the publishers of the paper. The paper is neatly printed on good paper, and is a good 8 column paper, and at least we think should receive patronage and publicity. Look up for an X.

THE IRON HORSE.—The good people of Maysville, who have painfully waited for twenty years to hear again the shrill whistle of the locomotive reverberating through the surrounding hills, were gratified on Friday last and will first meet welcome sound. The locomotive, Hamilton Gray, made an experimental trip over the track as far as Mayslick and back, covering the entire distance of the Licking River Railroad, and returning with perfect safety. The curiosity of the people was shown by the immense crowd which assembled at the depot, and thronged the track as far as it extends. The locomotive weighed twenty-five tons, and the ground not have less than eight or ten tons of people, who crowded upon the engine and its tender. Every inch of space was occupied, and the whole weight bearing upon the frame work of the engine, as the hull passed over, exceeded thirty five tons, perhaps equalled forty. The engine worked perfectly, and the experiment has not only demonstrated the practicability of the road, but also the strength and efficiency of the bridges. In a few days the cars and trucks needed in the further construction of the road will arrive from Philadelphia. Gen. McChilds, the contractor, expects to proceed rapidly with the work of completing the track.—Maysville Bulletin.

Kentucky State Sunday School Association.

The Kentucky State Sunday School Association at its last annual meeting in Covington unanimously adopted the following resolution, viz:

Resolved, 1st—That we now appoint a committee with authority to call a convention to a political public meeting in every county in the State of Kentucky, to organize and conduct the business of said meeting, and that we also be directed to report in writing their action and their efforts to the next annual meeting of this Association, and that the committee be directed to furnish the next annual meeting of this Association with a report of the proceedings of the convention and the distribution of the addresses.

2d. That the committee be requested to distribute copies of the speeches through the press, and also in pamphlet form.

3d. That the committee be authorized to supply any vacancy that may occur in their body, by any of the members thereof.

Rev. J. L. McKee, Chair, Louisville, Ky.
AMOS BRINKLE, Louisville, Ky.
Rev. D. F. YOUNG, McAfee, Ky.
Rev. D. WHITSIT, Anchorage, Ky.
JOHN A. MILLER, Louisville, Ky.
THEODORE BROWN, St. Mathews, Jefferson Co. Ky.
M. C. McNEAL, Louisville, Ky.
Rev. T. M. GOODNIGHT, Frankfort, Ky.

The Executive Committee desires to carry out the will of the Association expressed in the foregoing resolution, with all possible speed and energy. We want, now, to appoint Executive Committees in every county in the State, that will at once organize Sunday Conventions and Institutes. None of the Committee are sufficiently acquainted in many counties to appoint the best men for the work. We therefore, request the friends of the enterprise, in every part of the State, to send us the names of the very best persons in their respective counties to organize and conduct these meetings. And, in order that the healthful influences of the meetings may to all classes, we desire the persons recommended, therefore, to be selected from all the denominations of Christians in the county.

In accordance with the above resolutions the following persons have been appointed the Executive Committee of Fleming County to call and organize a Sunday School County Convention, viz:

Wm. Fant, Wm. Grant, James M. Crain, J. P. Lander, J. D. Logan; Jas. P. Hendrick and J. W. Fitch.

And we do hereby designate and appoint Saturday, 30th inst., 9 o'clock A. M., as the time and the Baptist Church in Flemingsburg, as the place for the assembling of the Convention. And we earnestly invite all the friends of the Sunday School cause in the county to meet with us at the above time and place. And we especially desire that each Sabbath School in the county will send at least three delegates to the Convention (in case all the teachers cannot be present) and that the same number will come from each neighborhood where there is now no Sunday School but where it is practicable to organize one.

The object of the committee is to excite a higher and more formal interest in the Sunday School cause and turn that interest to the best account where aroused. In order to this the following and like subjects will be discussed:

1st. How to organize, sustain, and conduct county Sunday Schools.

2d. The best methods of teaching in Sunday Schools after they are organized.

3d. The defects in our present Sunday Schools and the methods of correcting them.

4th. What help the superintendent and teachers need, and how to obtain them.

These and similar subjects of interest will be discussed by the members of the convention when assembled and we expect to have the assistance of several distinguished Sabbath School workers from abroad.

Come then one and all who are friends and workers in this great and blessed cause let us organize and centralize our strength and our efforts and so make them tell for more effective in accomplishing the glorious results we aim at. Abundant provision will be made by the citizens of Flemingsburg for entertaining all who wish to attend.

By order of the Executive Committee
JAS P HENDRICK
Chairman

Health's Best Defiance.

"This week's catch holds," says St. Paul, in the Phonetic Journal, "the value of medicines and medical treatment. In the Old Testament botanical remedies are repeatedly recommended, but in no passage of sacred history is man recommended to swallow calomel or ink pill or any other mineral preparation. The sick were directed to eat herbs to strengthen them, to purify them, to heal them, to restore them. In that day the art of making vegetable extracts was unknown. The herbal medicines were more infusions.

It was reserved for a later age to unite the sanitary essences of tonic, aperient and antibilious roots, barks, and plants, with an active diffusant, and thus secure their rapid diffusion through the debilitated or disordered system. The crowning triumph of this effective mode of concentrating and applying the virtues of medicinal vegetables was achieved in the production of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Never before had a perfectly pure alcoholic stimulant been combined with the expressed juices of the finest species of the vegetable kingdom. Never yet, though eighteen years have elapsed since its introduction, so thoroughly great restorative been equalled. It is taken at all seasons, in all climes, as the most potent safeguard against epidemics, as a protection against all unhealthy exhalations, as a supplement to the best kind of food, as a remedy for intermittent and other malarious fevers, as an appetizer, as a sovereign cure for dyspepsia, as a general tonic and invigorant, as a gentle, potation spirited, as a blood depurent, as a preventive, as a cure for bilious affections, as a harmless anodyne, and as the BEST DEFENCE OF HEALTH under unfavorable circumstances, such as sedentary pursuits, undue debility of mental exertion, hardship, privation and exposure.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is as cooling, agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. This hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

MEDICAL.

THE GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!
Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
VINEGAR BITTERS.

Hundreds of Thousands
Bear testimony to their wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE
FANCY DRINK
Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits, and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced, and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics" "Appetizers" "Restorers", &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all alcoholic stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER, and a GENTLE PURGATIVE PURIFIER and LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the entire system, carrying off all poisonous matter, and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction, and remain long sick.

$100 will be given for an incurable case, providing the bones are not destroyed by mineral poisons or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, and Gout, Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated, Bad, Impure blood.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, which are the offsprings of Dyspepsia, are cured by these Bitters.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find it impure, by using Walker's Vinegar Bitters, and you will find health and strength. When you find it sluggish and clogged in its course, cleanse it when it is foul, and your health will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE, and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed.

For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French, and Spanish.

DONE AT THIS OFFICE.

MEDICAL.

NEW YORK, August 12th, 1868.

Allow me to call your attention to my

Preparation of Compound Extract Buchu.

The component parts are BUCHU, LONG LEAF, CUBEBS, JUNIPER BERRIES.

MODE OF PREPARATION—Buchu, in varse. Juniper Berries, by distillation, to form a fine gel. Cubebs extracted by displacement with spirits obtained from Juniper Berries, very little equal is used, and a small proportion of spirits. It is more palatable than any now in use.

Buchu, as prepared by Druggists, is of a dark color. It is a plant that emits fragrance; the action of a flame destroys this (its active principle), leaving a dark and glutinous decoction. Mine is the color of Isaglass. The Buchu in my preparation predominates; the small est quantity of the other ingredients are added, to prevent fermentation; upon inspection, it will be found not to be a Tincture, as made in Pharmacopeia, nor is it a Syrup—and their ether can be used in cases where fever or inflammation exist. In this, you have the knowledge of the ingredients and the mode of preparation.

Hoping that you will favor it with a trial, and that upon inspection it will meet with your approbation.

With a feeling of confidence,
I am, very respectfully,
H. T. HELMBOLD,
Chemist and Druggist,
of 16 Years' Experience.

[From the Largest Manufacturing Chemists in the World.]

NOVEMBER, 4, 1864.

"I am acquainted with Mr. H. T. HELMBOLD; he occupied the Drug Store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise."

WILLIAM WEIGHTMAN,
Firm of Powers & Weightman,
Manufacturing Chemists,
Ninth and Brown streets, Philadelphia.

Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu

Is the great specific for Universal Lassitude, Prostration, &c.

The constitution, once affected with Organic Weakness, requires the aid of Medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or insanity ensues.

Helmbold's Fluid Extract of Buchu,

In affections peculiar to Females, is unequalled by any other preparation, as in Chlorosis, or Retention, Paleness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrous State of the Uterus, and all complaints incident to the sex, or the decline or change of life.

Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu and Improved Rose Wash

Will radically exterminate from the system diseases arising from habits of dissipation, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience or exposure, completely superceding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copaiva and Mercury, in all these diseases.

Use Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu

In all diseases of these organs, whether existing in males or females, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. It is pleasant in taste and odor, "immediate" in action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of Bark or Iron.

Those suffering from broken-down or delicate constitutions, procure the remedy at once.

The reader must be aware that, however slight may be the attack of the above diseases, it is certain to affect the bodily health and mental powers.

All the above diseases require the aid of a Diuretic HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic.

Sold by Druggists everywhere. PRICE—$1.25 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $6.50. Delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications.

KOSKOO!

THE GREAT REPUTATION
Which KOSKOO has attained in all parts of the country

AS A GREAT AND GOOD MEDICINE,
And the Large Number of Testimonials
which are constantly being received from Physicians, and persons who have BEEN CURED by its use, is CONCLUSIVE PROOF of its REMARKABLE VALUE.

AS A BLOOD PURIFIER,
IT HAS NO EQUAL,
BEING POSITIVELY,
The Most Powerful Vegetable Alterative YET DISCOVERED.

DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.

"The life of the flesh is the blood," is a Scriptural maxim that Science proves to be true. The people talk of bad blood as the cause of many diseases, and like many popular opinions this of bad blood is founded in truth.

The symptoms of bad blood are usually quite plain—bad Digestion results in imperfect nutrition, and consequently the circulation is feeble, the soft tissues loose their tone and elasticity, and the tongue becomes pale, broad, and frequently covered with a pasty, white coat. Other indications upon the surface in roughness of the skin, then in ERUPTIVE and ULCERATIVE diseases and when long continued, results in serious lesions of the Brain, Liver, Lungs, or urinary apparatus. Much, very much, suffering is caused by impure blood. It is estimated by some that one-fifth of the human family are affected with scrofula in some form.

When the Blood is pure you are not so liable to any disease. Many impurities of the Blood arise from impure diseases of large size. Eradicate every impurity from the fountain of life, and good spirits, fair skin and vital strength will return to you.

KOSKOO!
AS A
LIVER INVIGORATOR!
STANDS UNRIVALED
Being the Only KNOWN Medicine that EFFICIENTLY stimulates and CORRECTS the hepatic secretions and functional DERANGEMENTS of the LIVER, WITHOUT DEBILITATING the system. While it acts freely upon the Liver instead of copious purging, it gradually changes the discharges to a perfectly natural state.

SYMPTOMS OF LIVER COMPLAINT AND OF SOME OF THOSE DISEASES PRODUCED BY IT.

A sallow or yellow color of the skin, or yellowish-brown spots on the face and other parts of the body; dullness and drowsiness, sometimes headache; bitter or bad taste in the mouth, internal heat in many cases a dry, tossing cough, unsteady appetite, sometimes sour stomach, with a raising of the food, a bloated or full feeling about the stomach and sides, aggravating pains in the sides, back, or breast, and about the shoulders; constipation of the bowels; piles, flatulence, coldness of the extremities, &c.

KOSKOO!
It is remedy of Wonderful Efficacy in the cure of diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder. In these Affections it is as near a specific as any remedy can be. It acts with both kindness, gently, and surely. The Relief which it affords is both certain and perceptible.

DISEASES OF THE KIDNEY AND BLADDER.

Persons unacquainted with the structure and functions of the Kidneys cannot estimate the importance of their healthy action.

Regular and sufficient action of the Kidneys is an important, nay, even more so, than regularity of the bowels. The Kidneys remove from the Blood those effete matters which, if permitted to remain, would speedily destroy life. A total suspension of the urinary discharges will occasion death from thirty-six to forty-eight hours.

When the Urine is voided in small quantities at the time, or when there is a disposition to Urinate more frequently than natural, or when the Urine is high colored or scalding with weakness in the small of the back, it should not be trifled with or delayed, but Koskoo should be taken at once to remedy the difficulty, before a lesion of the organs takes place. Most of the diseases of the Bladder originate in diseases of the Kidneys, the Urine being imperfectly secreted in the Kidneys, prove irritating to the Bladder and Urinary passages. When we recollect that medicine never reaches the Kidneys except through the general circulation of the Blood, we see how necessary it is to keep the Fountain of Life Pure.

KOSKOO!
Meets with GREAT SUCCESS in the CURE of DISEASES OF THE NERVOUS SYSTEM.

Almost nine-tenths of our people suffer from nervous exhaustion, and are, therefore, liable to the concomitant evils of mental depression, confused ideas, softening of the brain, insanity, and complete breaking down of the general health. Thousands are suffering to-day with broken-down nervous systems and, unfortunately, tobacco, alcohol, late hours, over-work, (mental and physical), are causing diseases of the nervous system to increase at a fearful ratio.

The symptoms to which diseases give rise, may be stated as follows: A dull, heavy feeling in the head, sometimes more or less severe pain or headache; Periodical Headache, Dizziness, Noises or Ringing in the Head; Confusion of Ideas; Temporary Loss of Memory; Dejection of Spirits; Starting during Sleep; Bad Dreams; Hesitation in Answering Questions; Dulness of Hearing; Twitching of the Face and Arms, &c., which, if not promptly treated, lead to Paralysis, Delirium, Insanity, Imposteme, Apoplexy, &c., &c.
