Singular Presentiment of Death.

A most singular presentiment of death occurred a few days ago in the family of Mr. George Fisher, in Reisterstown, Baltimore county. His little son Fillmore, aged about four years, awoke in the night and called to his mother to know if she was awake. He then asked if his father was awake, and afterwards told his mother that he was going to die. She told his father the same thing, and when asked that he was dreaming, replied that he was awake, and knew he was going to die. The parents thought nothing more about it, and the child slept comfortably until morning. When he awoke in the morning he repeated his presentiment to his parents and as soon as breakfast was over insisted on being allowed to go and tell Mrs. Walters, a neighbor, that he was going to die. His mother told him that he had better go and see his grandmother, if he was going to die. He made a visit to his grandmother, and also to Mrs. Walters, after which he returned to his home. During the afternoon of the same day his mother was called out of the house for a few minutes, and when she returned she found the little fellow swinging burned by the clothing having taken fire. As soon as the fire was extinguished he said to his mother, "I told you I was going to die." A physician was called in, who dressed his injuries, telling him that he would soon be well. He said, "no, Fillmore is going to die," and during the night the little boy breathed his last. This was a most extraordinary presentiment, and during the whole day he spoke of dying, though he had enjoyed excellent health. The boy is said to have been a very upright and interesting child, and was believed by all who knew him.

Horrible Affair.

From a private letter dated Paton, Cape Girardeau co., the Missouri Republican of the 7th inst, makes the following extract:

"An atrocious murder and house burning took place on Wednesday night last, within eight miles of that place. A young man by the name of Buckner, some time since, married a widow who had a daughter nearly grown. Not long after they were married, Buckner seduced the young lady, or, as some say, ravished her; since which time, Buckner, the old lady, and the girl have been quarreling and fighting. On Wednesday night last, Buckner returned home, after an absence of some two months, when his wife caught him and held him, while her daughter killed him with an axe! To hide all traces of the work, they then set fire to the house, consuming the body of Buckner in the flames. What led to the discovery of the murder was the circumstance of Buckner being absent so long, and some of the neighbors seeing him come home on Wednesday evening. They saw no more of him, and they went to raking and searching among the coals and ashes of the burnt house, and found some bones which excited their suspicions. An inquest was held yesterday, and they were declared to be human bones. All the parties concerned have been arrested, except the young woman, Mrs. Buckner has made a full confession.

Terrific Excitement in a Church.—A very large congregation assembled at St. Mary's Church (Catholic), Oswego, N. Y., on Sunday evening, to hear a discourse from the Rev. H. Guerdet. When the discourse was nearly finished, an alarm of fire was sounded, and several persons went out. At this moment a terrific cry was raised at the door that the church was on fire. A panic instantly seized the whole audience; the crowd at the door rushed with terrific fright back toward the altar, trampling and crushing each other in the most frantic manner.

Some fifteen minutes elapsed before the alarm was found to be false, when most of the congregation had got out. A number of ladies were carried home in a fainting condition, and several were more or less injured, but none fortunately being hurt seriously.

The Ability of Louis Napoleon as a Ruler.

The London correspondent of the New York Tribune thus writes:

"Napoleon, with all his faults and crimes, understands the spirit of his countrymen much better. The subscription to the great loan of 500,000,000 of francs has four times exceeded the amount required, which was exhausted in small subscriptions of 500 francs each. The bankers do not get one cent of the loan. It was taken up by the lower classes, and must improve the money market of France, since the greater portion of the subscriptions comes from farmers who have hoarded the cash, which is now set free. It has been positively remarked that neither the Bourbons, the Orleans, nor the financiers of the republic, had the courage to try such an experiment. They were regularly forced by the money-lenders, the Rothschilds, and Fouldes, and Agudoes—because they feared the ill-will of the Stock-Exchange. Napoleon, on the contrary, cares little for the bourgeoisie and Haute Banque. He is well aware that the monoyed classes are all Orleanists or Legitimists, but he is supported by the farmers and the Roman Catholic priests, who like to see him allied with Francis Joseph, the young hope of Jesuitism. The Sardinian alliance was enforced at Napoleon threatening to march his French battalions from Rome across Piedmont, to restore the Prince of Monaco."

From the Liverpool Times.

Terrible Scene in a Ball.

At Madrid, a few nights back, a lady gave a ball, and among the guests were a Mr. E. and Mdlle. B. It was observed that the young man constantly kept close to the young lady, and followed her when she went from one part of the room to the other. It was also noticed that she seemed greatly annoyed by his attentions. The mother of the young lady wished to interfere, but the mistress of the house, anxious to avoid an unpleasant scene, prevented her. At a late hour, a lady of high rank and her daughter were announced, and the whole party rose to receive them. Mr. R. taking advantage of the slight confusion which this created, seized Mdlle. B by the hand, and whispered something in her ear. She turned pale, then blushed, and replied in a low voice. Thereupon, the young man, without saying a word pulled a poignard from his pocket, and stabbed the young lady in the breast, and then stabbed himself in the heart. Both fell bathed in blood. A surgeon was immediately sent for, and on his arrival he found that the wound on the young lady was not mortal, as the poignard had struck the sternum, but the young man was quite dead. It is said that Mr. R had long sought Mdlle. B. in marriage, but that she had refused to accept him, and that meeting Mdlle. B. at a ball he again pressed her to accept his addresses, but that she again peremptorily refused.

The Bird Island Guano Difficulties.

It is stated that orders have been sent by the Government to Aspinwall, requiring the United States ship Falmouth to proceed at once to Birde Island, with a view of settling the difficulties there. The Washington correspondent of the New York Post says:

"As is well known, Birds Island is a little uninhabited rocky spot near the Dutch West Indies. About six months or a year ago a party belonging to Philo S. Shelton, and other citizens of Boston, landed on the deserted place, and while the Captain and crew were loading her with guano, they were driven away with insult, and damaged by a shipof-war of Venezuela. Now, as no jurisdiction, so far as can be ascertained has been established over the island in question by any government, it has been determined to vindicate the rights of our citizens to remove the guano from it by some decisive step, and to insist on reparation for the indignity to which the American flag was subjected while flaunting over the fragrant deposits which gave rise to the trouble.

Rev. W. W. Dodge has purchased the Paducah Journal office—Mr. Moriarty, perhaps, retaining a small interest. The reverend gentleman is a pleasant writer, and we have no doubt he will add much to the interest of the Journal.—Louisville Journal.

As an evidence of their sincerity in the belief, they now pledge themselves to duplicate any regular Cincinnati bill purchased at wholesale, from the addition of carriage, or any Philadelphia bill purchased in the last year, with the addition of actual expense of transportation with the current rate of exchange added.
They invite the attention of country merchants as well as city dealers to their stock, and pledge themselves not to be undersold west of the Mountains. They will warrant their goods and the packing and boxing of the ware, to enable them to receive their share of public patronage.

The Maysville and Lexington Railroad. We published in last Saturday's Engle, an official report of the proceedings of the meeting of the Stockholders of the Maysville and Lexington Railroad, convened in this City on Thursday last to take into consideration the propositions of Mr. TYLER, who was recently in Kentucky, sent by the holders of the First Mortgage Bonds, to enquire into the condition and prospect of the completion of the Road. Our engagements have precluded us from saying anything hitherto, upon the subject of the plans and propositions submitted and resolved upon at this meeting; and will prevent us from giving more than a very cursory glance at the subject now.

The plan, it will have been perceived, in toto, is the first place, the sale of the Road, to the First Mortgage Bonds; but it looks to the ultimate redemption of the stock for the benefit of the present owners. This latter provision we look upon as being—in more senses than one—the saving clause, in the whole programme of operations. We have always been inhovably opposed to any sale, which would involve the necessity of an absolute and final loss of the present stock. The plan involves first, the speedy sale of the Road, as above stated, with the assent of the Company, and the aid of the Courts, upon conditions: The purchase money to represent, or be represented by a certain number of shares of stock, in the hands of the First Mortgage Bondholders, who it is contemplated will be the purchasers.

The new Company thus constituted, will issue bonds to an amount sufficient to complete and equip the Road. These bonds to the amount of $500,000, to be purchased by the holders of the first Mortgage bonds, who will advance the money upon them; the balance necessary to complete the road to be taken in Kentucky. These new bonds, representing the "finishing" money, to be first paid out of the earnings of the road. Then the Stock, representing the purchase-money, to come in for a dividend of six per cent. This accomplished, and the new Company thus being free from debt, the holders of this Stock and the then holders of the first Mort. age or "finishing-money," bonds, to receive lower for their liberality, the amount of which has not yet been determined, to be given in 6 per cent bonds, payable in not less than 10 nor more than 20 years. Then the present debtors of the Company to be paid in the order of their priorities, after which the present Stockholders to come in for a dividend, and the present Stock be entitled to its legitimate influence in the management of the Road.

This, we believe, is a correct outline of the plan proposed, and which is to be submitted to the holders of the First Mortgage Bonds for their approbation and acceptance. We ought not to doubt that it will be accepted, and the Road completed upon this basis.

The plan thus sketched, we believe, presents the most feasible and practicable scheme of completing the road. It is pervading feature is its strict and exact justice to all parties, and its scrupulous protection of all existing interests. It secures the ultimate payment of the present debt of the Road, and provides for its completion upon terms which will amply repay those who advance to its assistance. Lastly, it secures, ultimately, the present stockholders, and holds out to them a reasonably certain prospect of being remunerated for their sacrifices and outlays. A scheme containing so many elements of justice, liberality, and wise foresight cannot, we think, fail of being generally acceptable.

We may therefore congratulate the public upon the flattering prospects now held out, of a speedy and certain completion of the Road. Of this ultimate result, we have never for a moment despaired; but we are at present inspired with a more cheerful confidence in the speedy fruition of our hopes, than we have felt for some months past.

The River. The river at this point is almost clear of ice, and steamers are arriving or departing every hour. Five were coming, immediately in front of our Office, at one time on yesterday.

The beautiful Bostona is the evening packet for Cincinnati, this evening. Her clever clerk J. P. JACK, has our thanks for files of late papers.

Vetoed.

The President has vetoed the French Spoliation bill, as expected.

Declension.

Mr. SAMUEL L. MARSHALL, a young man hailing from Brocksville, writes us a letter respectfully declining the call made through the Engle upon Dr. SAMUEL L. MARSHALL to become the Democratic candidate for Congress in this District. He might accept, but the important fact that he is a citizen of another district forbids.

We are a little surprised to hear this as we presumed the "Bracken" SAMUEL L. MARSHALL was a Whig, and not in the hands of the Democrats to be made a candidate.

HOMICIDE.—The Cynthiana News says, an unfortunate difficulty occurred at Clifford's store, about two miles from Colemansville, in this county, on Friday evening last, between two men named William O'Neal and Green Dejarnett, in which the former was killed by being shot through the head from a rifle in the hands of the latter. We understand that Dejarnett immediately made his escape, and has not yet been taken.

Adams & Co. are about establishing a line of stages between Los Angeles and Salt Lake, to run once a fortnight, and it is thought the road, with proper relays can be traveled in six days. It now requires sixteen days to travel without relays. The line commences in February, and it is thought that before six months it will extend to Missouri.

We have seldom seen any course taken both by all classes of our citizens, with the earnestness and zeal that has characterized the movement set on foot last week by the Odd Fellows, for the benefit of the Poor of the City and Vicinity—not the widows and orphans of deceased Odd Fellows (these it is the duty of the Order in case for) but the poor of any Church, or of no Church, nation—none of these exclusively, but all of them who are believed to be deserving of help, and just so far as the means raised will extend. We are thus explicit, because it has been suggested that discrimination would be made, in favor of one class of the poor over another. Such a suggestion is unjust to the cause and unjust to the prime movers in it. All are to share in it, who are believed to be proper objects of such assistance; and will be are not too lazy, or too stubborn to work unless they can get $2 per day.

In this connection we are requested to state that funds have already certain raised, and the Committee (whose names will be found below) have begun the good work of relief. They hope to be pretty well seconded in the effort by the citizens, and request any case of need to be reported to some one of them immediately. They hope to give effectual aid in many quarters, and do substantial good.

It has been found necessary to postpone giving the Concert or entertainment that was proposed for Thursday evening next, until Wednesday evening of next week, February 28th.—The object of the postponement is to give time to arrange and prepare for such a Concert as will be every way worthy of the attention of the citizens—combining the popular with the difficult so as to suit all tastes, and to have it executed in a style of the highest excellence. It will be a Concert of home talent, rich and attractive, vocally and instrumentally; and we are very confident will be attended by one of the largest, most appreciating and delighted audiences ever gathered in our little City.

In addition to the attraction heretofore held out in our paper, we have now the pleasure of stating—as will be seen from the subjoined correspondence—that Mr. JAMES B. HARRIS, of Germantown, has cordially and heartily accepted of the invitation to take part in the exercises, and will read some of the most thrilling and beautiful passages in English literature. Mr. H. is a gentleman of far greater talent than many of more assuming pretensions, and are better known to fame, an eloquent reader of modest merit and with "a warm heart that feels for others' woes." We can safely promise a rich treat to all who attend this entertainment, and expect to see many friends from the country to share with us in its enjoyment.

Here is the correspondence:

MAYSVILLE, THURSDAY, Feb 15th, 1855.

J. B. HARRIS, Esq.:

Dear Sir—The Order of Odd Fellows have organized an "Association for the relief of the Poor in this City and Vicinity." For that purpose they are desirous of giving an Entertainment, or a series of Entertainments, the proceeds to be judiciously distributed under the direction of the subjoined committee.

We noticed your noble and generous propolition in the "Engle" and desiring to avail of your liberal offer, write to know if it would be agreeable and suit your convenience to give a reading in our City, some night next week, say Thursday. We have invited a select chorus, the service of some fine Amateur Musicians in our City, and if so, the Entertainment will be diversified by Music, Vocal and Instrumental. If successful, as we believe they must be, we will continue the entertainments at intervals of several days or a week, to give ample time for preparation, and the Musical Soirees. We will procure suitable rooms, and make all arrangements, advising you in time for an appointment.

An early answer will oblige, yours truly,

JNO. P. PHISTER,

For Committee.

MONDAY MORNING, Feb. 19, 1855.

Dr. J. P. PHISTER:

Yours of the 15th, in behalf of the Committee appointed by the Odd Fellows' Association, has been received, and while I sensibly myself of the great opportunity to acknowledge the honor that Committee has conferred upon one, who has but little merit, to gain their favour, I must record with feelings of pleasure to the prompt, and I trust, efficient measures they have adopted, and may, from time to time put forward, to accomplish so praiseworthy an object as the relief of the really suffering poor.

All that I have said in my communication to the Editor of the Engle, to which you have been pleased to allude in rather too complimentary terms. I hold myself in readiness to fulfill, at each time, as may suit the convenience of the Committee, and those with whom I am to cooperate (unless prevented by sickness or other unavoidable occasion) I am happy to be recognised as a member of an Order, who enter so heartily and unbeatingly in the discharge of the benevolent duties which they are so often called upon to perform, and whose actions are prompted, governed and controlled, by Friendship, Love and Truth.

Yes will fit your own time, and I will act in accordance with your instructions.

Yours truly, J. B. HARRIS.

To Messrs. J. P. Phister, & others.

OUR EUROPEAN DIPLOMACY.—The Paris correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune writes that within three months, at farthest, the posts now filled by Messrs Buchanan, Mason, Soule, Belmont, Owen, and Daniels will be vacant or filled by new men.

SALARIES OF THE DISTRICT JUDGES.—A bill has passed the House of Representatives which the National Intelligencer thinks will no doubt meet the ready concurrence of the Senate, as a measure of justice and propriety. It is a bill to regulate the salaries of the District Judges of the United States and provides that the yearly salaries in Ohio shall be $2,500, and in the other States ranging from $2,000 up to $5,000 in the Northern District of California.

The Paris correspondent (M. Gaillardet) of the Courrier des Etats Unis states that the French loan, which was subscribed for by the mass of small owners of money, brought from their hiding places much old coinage. The practice of hoarding their savings is practiced extensively in the departments. The objects of the new loan have been attractive enough to bring into use sums of money in the aggregate larger than have been withdrawn from circulation. To the extent this has been done will the pressure of the loan not be felt.

The Legislature of Michigan has passed an act to prohibit the use of the common jails and other buildings in the several counties of that State for the detention of persons claimed as fugitive slaves.

Counterfeit five-dollar bills on the Farmers' Bank of Kentucky (the same as those noticed by us a few days ago) are in circulation at Cleveland.

This paper has recommended for his professional and personal merits—died a few days ago at his residence in the city of Louisville at the good old age of seventy-four years. The father of Dr. Rogers was one of the early pioneers to Kentucky and was the owner of Bryant's station, in Fayette county, a military station rendered more memorable by the fact that it was closely besieged by the Indians under the leadership of the notorious and infamous Simon Girty. Dr. Rogers was one of fourteen children of this noble old pioneer. He was distinguished as a medical practitioner and teacher, having graduated at the Philadelphia Medical school, and afterwards been appointed professor in the medical schools of Lexington, Cincinnati and Louisville. He was also remarkable for his high personal merits, so one being honored in a higher degree with the public confidence and respect.—Among the children he left behind him, his son, Dr. Lewis Rogers, Professor in the Medical College of Louisville, and the talented and accomplished wife of Judge Pirtle, the distinguished chancellor of Louisville, may be mentioned. In the death of Dr. Rogers, science and society have lost one of the ornaments and props of the age.

There is some fear that Governor Wright, of Indiana, will veto the Liquor bill which has passed the Legislature. The bill was placed in his hands on Wednesday, and he has three days to consider it.

In a recent election in Burlington, Iowa, upwards of 1200 votes were cast, which proves that Burlington is the largest city in that State

Gen. Samuel Houston is announced to deliver a lecture in Boston, concerning Texas, soon after the close of the present session of Congress.

The Dubuque Tribune hoists the name of Hon. Wm. H. Seward, for the Presidency.

The Tribune thinks that the re election of Senator Seward and the mercury falling to 15 thirty-three below zero at the same time, inspirits pretty good evidence that "there is a North."

The Senate of Indiana, on Tuesday, passed a bill appropriating five thousand dollars per annum for colonization purposes.

Edward Sweezey has been tried in the U. S. Court sitting at Pittsburg, for robbing a post-office, and sentenced to the penitentiary for five years.

Gov. Helm is at Nashville, and is to address her citizens on the subject of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

The astronomers at Cambridge (Massachusetts) Observatory, on Tuesday evening last, shortly after sunset, had the rare satisfaction of seeing three planets at the same time, in the same field of view of the finder telescope, viz: Mercury, Venus, and Mars.

The Legislature of Missouri has passed a bill authorizing a loan of two hundred thousand dollars to be made to the "Pacific Railroad" in that State, out of any funds in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated. It is expected that the road will be finished to Jefferson City in August.

The New York Assembly have granted the use of their hall in the capital to Fred Douglas, to deliver a discourse "on Slavery and the Rights of Man."

N. C. Roe, cashier of the Phœnix Bank of Chicago, who was indicted for forgery on the 20th inst. has left for parts unknown.

The Senate of Illinois has passed the House prohibitory liquor selling bill, by a vote of seventeen to seven.

Mayor Wood of New-York has addressed a letter to the Belgian consul, in relation to sending back to their native country the Belgian convicts brought to that city last fall, and since then sojourners at the tombs. The Mayor expects them to go back at the expense of the Belgian government. He says that six more of the same class arrived here a few days since in another vessel, and are now at large, their character not becoming known to the Mayor in time to procure their arrest.

Thirty thousand dollars in counterfeit money of denominations ranging from $1 to $20, on the Northern Bank of Kentucky, State Bank of Indiana, and Banks in New York, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, and Virginia, was recently found in an old wooden water-station house, on the L. M. Railroad, near Cincinnati.

Dr. Blanck, a German physician in Cincinnati, has been held to bail in $1,000 for malpractice.

Petitions continue to pour in to the Massachusetts Legislature, from all parts of the State, asking for the removal of Edward G. Loring, from the office of Judge of Probate of Suffolk county, for the part he took in the rendition of Burns, the fugitive slave. He can only be removed by the Governor upon the recommendation of two branches of the Legislature, and it looks as if it would be done.

The Washington Star says that the signs that the French spoliation bill will be vetoed are very decided.

LAMENTABLE ACCIDENT.—A letter from the Postmaster at Lead Hill, in this State, states that Mr. John Robertson, an old and respectable citizen of Muhlenburg county, was killed on Wednesday week. He had gone after firewood, accompanied by a negro boy, chopped a tree, that in falling was lodged in the forks of a tree adjoining. Afterwards it fell, and one of the branches struck his across the left arm, ranging across the body, and mashing his right hip. Mr Robertson survived only about three hours. He was a member of the order of Sons of Temperance and a good citizen.

AN EDITOR IN LUCK.—The Columbia (S. C.) Times makes the following refreshing announcement:

"From a correspondent in Baltimore we have received the gratifying intelligence that Mr. M. C. Mortimer, editor and proprietor of the Southern Quarterly Review, has drawn the large prize of $20,000 in one of the Maryland lotteries, subject to a discount of fifteen per cent, which leaves the snug sum of $17,000. We are informed that the money has been paid over to him."

By the arrival of the Northern Light at New York, we have late and important news from Havana. A letter from that place, says it was rumored that British vessels of war, which had arrived at that port, had seen a fleet of American vessels crowded with men. On the 3d inst. the whole Spanish fleet got under weigh, and left the harbor with a large number of troops on board. The governor, it is said, had received secret advice of filibustering movements. Rumors of mutinies had leaked out. The second in command at Havana had left on a secret expedition. Don Ramon Ponto, one of the most influential Spaniards on the island, had been arrested, charged with conspiring against the government, and numerous other arrests had taken place. All sorts of filibustering stories were current. These things, taken in connection with the report from New Orleans of the sailing of a formidable filibuster expedition, are significant of troublesome times for Cuba, and perhaps for other regions.

We clip the following from the Charleston Standard:

We learn from the Savannah Courier & Journal that the steamer Albert Devereux, Captain Aishton, had arrived at that port on the morning of the 10th, with news from Havana to the 4th inst, of a most interesting and important character. It was reported in Havana and generally believed, that Gen. Quitman was off the island, ready to make a descent with 20,000 men. Great excitement existed, and the Creoles were highly elated, but it was not supposed they could remain long in suspense, as the mustering of the 4th, and several others were hourly expected for the defence of the Island.

This announcement may be true, and if true is highly important. Gen. Quitman will not land upon the Island, nor make an attempt so to do, without a force sufficient to sustain him in that perilous position. But we doubt the truth. We have reason to believe that measures to the end of emancipating Cuba are on foot. And we have reason to believe that they may ultimately be successful. Occurrences of a recent date in the cities of New York and New Orleans would indicate the fact that there are preparations for the location of a strong military force upon some portion of Central America, ready to provide and supply it, to the end of acting from that point upon Cuba, or any other State or Island. We know of no power and of no motive among the people of this country to prevent it; and that in some such way there may be slowly combining a force sufficient to effect a change in the political condition of Cuba, is not only probable. But or have no belief that measures have progressed so far as to move any such force as is spoken of in the advices abovementioned, upon the Island of Cuba, at the present time. We believe, therefore, that the excitement is premature, but we are by no means certain that it does not contemplate such an event, which, at no distant day, we may have occasion to record.

The New York Money Market.

The "Journal of Commerce" of Tuesday evening, says:

There is a good supply of money for prime security, but it is not easy except the inside rates only for very short paper of the first class, and show less disposition to make time contracts.

Messrs Page & Bacon resumed payment on Tuesday. The Journal of Commerce says:

We are now authorized to quote all holders of drafts on their late agents, Messrs. Dunham, Sherman & Co., which were protested for want of funds, as well as all holders of matured notes, acceptances, and other obligations of Messrs. Page & Bacon, to present them for payment to the Bank of America, where they will be paid with interest and costs of protest.

Louis Napoleon Giving the Americans the Cut.

The Paris correspondent of the New York Commercial writes:

"On Saturday, at one o'clock, all the Americans who have solicited the presentation of the Emperor will be received in the ante-chamber at the Tuilleries. The occasion of this new and unusual proceeding has not transpired. They are also informed that they may appear without a court dress or court sword—more curious still. Americans are not in particular favor at this moment at Paris, and it may be that they are not deemed worthy of appearance in full State occasion when other nations are presented.

"The first ball at the Hotel de Ville takes place next Monday. The American legation sent in one hundred and fifty names to receive invitations, and was only allowed thirty. This too, is an unusual proceeding, since at both the balls at the Hotel de Ville last year the American legation had a slice of Imperial cake right, eighty invitations. The legation has very justly chosen the thirty from amongst their persons temporarily in Paris."

A Duel.

An affair of honor came off near Moreland's Post-Office in Bourbon county, just beyond the Fayette line, on Friday morning, between THEOPHILUS STEELE, son of Thomas Steele, of Franklin, and JAMES BLACKBURN, son of E. M. Blackburn, of Woodford. Two rounds of pistols at ten paces, and the first fire Mr. Blackburn received the ball of his adversary's pistol in his leg about four inches above his knee, rendering it useless. We are gratified to learn, is not a serious one. The difficulty was then, through the intervention of friends amicably adjusted. Mr. Steele was untouched.

Both the young gentlemen are students in attendance upon the lectures now being delivered in this city—Mr. Blackburn attending the law and Mr. Steele the medical lectures. O the cause of the difficulty we are not advised.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.—The following is valuable to all business men. They are the weights and measures as found in the Revised Code of Kentucky:

SECTION 6. The hundred weight shall consist of 100 pounds avoirdupois, and 2000 ruch pounds shall constitute a ton, and all contracts hereafter made shall be construed accordingly, unless the contrary be expressly stipulated.

Sixty-two pounds of wheat, fifty-six pounds of rye, fifty-six pounds of Indian corn, forty-eight pounds of barley, thirty-three and a third pounds of oats, sixty pounds of potatoes, sixty pounds of beans, twenty pounds of bran, sixty pounds of clover-seed, forty-five pounds of timothy-seed, fifty-six pounds of flax-seed, forty-four pounds of hemp-seed, fifty-two pounds of buck-wheat, fourteen pounds of blue-grass seed, fifty pounds of corn-meal, fifty-six pounds of onions, and fifty pounds of salt, shall constitute a bushel of such articles respectively.

RUSSIAN OPINION OF THE WAR.—A Constantinople letter given to us from a Russian prisoner, offers the following explanation of the origin of the present war:

"The Turks massacred the Russian Bishop and several Russian priests at Jerusalem.—God, in his wrath, sent a squadron of angels to carry away the tomb of Christ, which remains at the moment suspended in the heavens, and he commissioned the Czar to avenge the Pagan sacrilege. When the Emperor Nicholas shall enter Jerusalem as conqueror, as by the aid of Heaven he certainly will do, Christ's tomb will be restored to its place. The phalanx of angels will line the road along which the conquering Russian army will pass, and will present arms to them. Then the Czar will be master of the whole world, which will renounce its errors, and become converted to the orthodox faith."

This story is implicitly believed by the Russian serfs.

The following we take from the last Indianapolis Journal.

The first class Free Bank paper will purchase Eastern exchange at 3 per cent. premium. The Bank of Kentucky, Stock Bank at Columbus, and perhaps one or two others, which authorize the agency to draw at the State Bank rate, which is now one, per cent. premium.

The Legislature has not yet decided upon the bank question. We predict that finally both bills will pass in forms similiar to the Ohio banking laws. The tendencies are strongly that way, and we opine such action will give general satisfaction.

The most extraordinary railroad enterprise of the present century is for the construction of 700 miles of double track and 300 mile's of single track, to connect Sydney, Melbourne, and Adelaide, in Australia. It is to be accomplished at an aggregate cost of twenty one millions sterling (one hundred millions of dollars).

The Charleston (S. C.) Mercury says Rev. Dr. Weightman, Bishop of Savannah, Ga., acknowledges, in the Christian Advocate, a donation of five thousand dollars from a gentleman of Charleston, as the nucleus of a fund to be raised for the liberal education of young men for the ministry.

EVERY FAMILY should at once procure a bottle of the great Arabian remedy for man and beast, call'd H. G. FARRELL'S ARABIAN LINIMENT. It allays the most intense pains in a few minutes, secures the unruly mule or joint water, and does cures stiff joints; it penetrates the flesh to the bone, relaxes contracted sinews, causes the action and pulsed limbs of twenty years' standing; also tumors, swelled ne k, enlargement of the glands, and is the best medicine for sidesaw and over discovered, curing sweeny, spavins, splint, and all diseases which require an external application.

Sun Pain of 10 years' standing cured by H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment.

Mr. H. G. Farrell—Sir: I had been afflicted with the "Sun Pain" for the last ten years, and could never get relief except by bleeding; but by using H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment, applied over the temples about three or four times a day, it was entirely removed, and I have felt nothing of it since. I have used the stable one night, to apply it to a horse's sore leg, and being very lame he stumbled and fell against my back, knocking me down; then as he fell, he hatchy turned back as my hat, rendering them powerless. I applied your Liniment, and was well enough in a few days to work as usual. I also crushed my finger in a shocking manner, by helping a lock leg fall upon it; your Liniment soon healed it up, well.

[Eq. Barker, of New Canton, Ill., says:]

Mr. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment has proved a valuable remedy in my family. The remedy has failed in one case, a white swelling and contracted cords in the leg of a boy twelve years old, and I had almost given up the case as incurable, but the last bottle of your Liniment, I have no doubt, has made a perfect cure. Three others had tried their skill even in vain, and I was called in at last. Yours, &c. When the boy's father was induced to try H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment. Before the first bottle was used up he was well. He's stout, active, and sound as ever were.—Mr. Barker, I want no other Liniment you have in the store; I do not doubt but they have equal to this, but I will try no more before." That boy is now well and hearty, and has free use of his legs. It is good for sprains, bruises, cuts, burns and swellings.

Look out for Counterfeits!

The public are cautioned against another counterfeit, which has lately made its appearance, called W. B. Farrell's Arabian Liniment, the most dangerous of all the counterfeits, because by leaving the names of Farrell, many will buy it in good faith, without the knowledge that a counterfeit exists, and will certainly discover their error when the spurious mixture has wrought its evil effects.

The genuine article is manufactured only by H. G. Farrell, sole inventor and proprietor, and whole sale druggist, No. 17 Main street, Peoria, Illinois. Those who have purchased the spurious must be addressed. Be sure you get it with the letters H. G. before Farrell's, thus—H. G. FARRELL'S—and the signature on the wrapper; all others are counterfeits.

Sold by MACKEY & WOOD, General Agents, Maysville, Ky. Also by duly authorized agents throughout the United States.

1 Price 25 and 50 cents, and $1 per bottle.

CAVEAT.—Warn all persons in town, village and hamlet in the United States, in which one is not established. Address H. G. Farrell as above, accompanied with good reference as to character, responsibility, &c.

THE STOMACH prepares the elements of the blie and the blood, and it is does the work feebly and imperfectly, we have cause to be sick. Whenever, therefore, as any affection of the liver is perceived, we may be sure that the digestive organs are out of order. The first thing to be done, is to administer a specific which will act directly upon the stomach—the mainspring of the animal machinery, or the purpose is strongly recommended Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Acting as an alterative and a tonic, it strengthens the digestive, changes the condition of the blood and thereby gives regularity to the bowels. See advertisement.

DEATHS.

OBITUARY.

Fell asleep in the embrace of Jesus, on the 9th Jaurry, 1855, LUCY, late consort of Madison Worthington, aged 30 years.

Sister Worthington put on Christ in Baptism, when in her sixteenth year. Being thus clothed, she walked by faith, watching unto prayer, receiving grace sufficient to her day, reflecting the light of Christian precept and example, upon all with whom she associated; obtaining a triumphant victory, through Christ, over the last enemy, passing on to her bright mansion with angelic song.

"My soul let loose from sin's alluring ties,
On wings of faith she mounts the skies,
Nor seeks on earth a home,
But high she shoots, through air and light,
Where nothing bounds her upward flight,
Her shadow gives her way.
No sin is cloud, no lure to stay:
Thy sun shine on her joyful way,
My soul, as he shines, rejoicing,
With freedom marked upon her wings,
The heavenly song forever sings,
Glory, glory, hallelujah.

Sister Worthington has parted with the visible members of Christ's church for a season, leaving a kind husband, a pious mother, and four children, with numerous friends, "who mourn not as those without hope."

Whatever is true, there is in it no cause of complaint, prejudice of the character of Rev. R. A. Dowman, of Rochester, New York, who is thus alleged to be engaged in delivering a series of lectures against Slavery in one State, in one to the effect that his sentiments and teachings are unfriendly to the rights of the shareholders, derived from an address recently delivered in the town of Mt. Sterling, which with our reference to the language said to have been spoken, has been severely handled by the Editor of the Whig, and if incorrect is not only calculated to do injury to the said Sister, but destroy the influence of her efforts in the good cause of temperance. Whereas, she, if we believed the reports alleged to, we would be so far from giving credit and comfort" to the author of such impressions, as the Mt. Sterling Whig or any one else; but on the contrary, both from her deportment in our midst and the respectable credentials she bears, we believe her highly worthy as a christian and advocate of Temperance.

Resolved, 1st, That we cordially recommend her to the kind consideration and regard of the various Divisions in the State of Kentucky.

Resolved, 2nd. We discredit the insinuations, tending said Sister Dowman with any abolition principles or sentiments, but believe her feelings and principles pure and liberal, confined to no place or locality.

Resolved, 3rd. That these Resolutions be published in the Mt. Sterling Whig, and Nat. Era, as an expression of the sentiments of Owingsville Division, No. 173.

S. HIGGINS,
T. W. EWING,
J. F. HOOD,
Committee.

On motion, it is ordered that a copy of the foregoing resolutions be given to said Sister Dowman.

Done by order of the Owingsville Division Sons of Temperance, No. 175, Feb. 6th, 1855.

Attest, J. F. HOOD, Sec. P. T.

THE IMPORTED SPANISH JACK,

MORO CASTLE!

IMPORTED into Kentucky in the Spring of 1853, by the Mason County Importing Association, and decidedly the finest animal of his kind ever seen in this country. He is now in good health and condition, and is, for the first time, offered for a public season. He has made partial seasons only in the years '53 and '54, and has proven a sure foal getter, and as a breeder from Jennets and Mares he has never yet been surpassed. His Jack colts from Jennets of his own blood that were imported with him, are greatly in advance of anything ever before seen in Kentucky breeders, and the introduction of this stock of some cause all fail to mark an era in the breeding of this hitherto much neglected animal.

He will make his present season, which has commenced and will end November 1st, at the stable of H. W. Graves, on Market street, one mile on the road to Flat Rock, and will serve Jennets at Fifty Dollars to insure a living colt. He will be allowed to serve such Jennets as are not quite so high that are of native or common stock, at prices corresponding to their value as may be agreed upon by special contract. Grass and Grain he will feed at moderate prices. He will be shown in Paris at the March County Court, and in Mt. Sterling at the April County Court.
