ROBERT McKEE, ... Editor.

MAYSVILLE,

WEDNESDAY, ... May 6, 1857.

For State Treasurer,

JAMES R. GARRARD,

OF BOYLE COUNTY.

We are authorized to announce JAMES B. CLAYBROOKE, Esq., as a candidate to represent Mason County in the next Legislature.

District Convention.

A Convention to nominate a candidate to represent the Ninth Congressional District in the next Congress, will be held at Owingsville, Bath County, Ky., on Tuesday the 12th day of May. All the counties in the District are earnestly requested to send delegates. By order of the EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The District Convention.

This body meets at Owingsville next Tuesday, and we hope our friends will not disappoint the day, but will make their arrangements to attend en masse. We believe every County has appointed delegates, and we have reason to believe the attendance will be numerously large. It is a high occasion that the representation should be full, as additional weight will thus be given to the nomination. Every delegate appointed can leave home three or four days, and none will be necessarily detained for a longer time. Omnibuses leave Maysville on Monday morning at seven o'clock, and will return on Wednesday—laying over at Owingsville on Tuesday for the accommodation of the delegates. We earnestly urge every delegate appointed and all others who can make it convenient to attend, to make their arrangements to go—and go without fail.

James B. Claybrooke, Esqr.

The gentleman has announced himself a candidate for the Legislature from this county, and is now fairly before the people.

Mr. Claybrooke, it is well known, is not a politician, has no political aspirations, and has only consented to become a candidate at the earnest solicitations of his personal friends, embracing many of the most prominent men of all parties in the county. A better man could not be found. Honest, capable, worthy, he possesses the esteem, respect and confidence of all who know him, and having lived a long and useful life in the county, he is known to every man within its limits. In politics he is a lifelong, consistent and devoted Whig, but has never affiliated, sympathized or acted with the Know-Nothings, who commenced their career by offering a formal and official insult to the party with which he had ever been identified, and last November, in common with several hundreds of the best and most consistent Whigs in the county, he cast his vote for Buchanan and Breckinridge. Sound, conservative and patriotic in all his feelings, he is, perhaps, more acceptable to men of all parties than any other person in the county. He is too liberal and tolerant to ever consent to the proscription—social or political—of any class of citizens, and hence cannot and will not act with the Know-Nothings, to whose principles he is naturally opposed.—He is thoroughly identified with all the interests of Mason County, and has the will and the capacity to worthily represent them. He will make an honest, valiant, sagacious and active representative.

He is not the nominee or candidate of any party, order, clique, or faction; but having been solicited by men of all parties to become a candidate, he is emphatically the candidate of the people, by whom he will, beyond all peradventure, be triumphantly elected.

Democratic Victory in Iowa.

The recent Democratic triumph in Iowa, was a very unexpected event. Fremont carried the State last fall by about seven thousand majority, and it was reported that the Black Republican majority at the late election was considerably increased. The returns, however, from forty four counties have now been received, and we are so much surprised as gratified to find that the Democrats have triumphed by about three thousand majority—being again of ten thousand since November. This victory taken in connection with the substantial triumph of the Democracy in Connecticut, is a cheering endorsement of Mr. Buchanan's inaugural, and of the decision of the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case, and will encourage and inspirate the friends of constitutional liberty everywhere.

The Democratic party in the Northern States has ever stood fairly and squarely on principle, and no reverses or defeats could coerce them from their fidelity to the Union. They supported the Compromise measures of 1850; and voted for and sustained the principles of the Kansas-Nebraska bill in 1854, and the series of defeats they experienced at the hands of the Black Republicans and Know-Nothings in consequence of this act, had no effect in the South, neither damped their ardor nor impaired their loyalty to the whole country. They went into the presidential canvass, and battled heroically and faithfully against Fremont; and though defeated in a majority of the non-slave holding States, they still kept their colors flying, determined to battle on for the Constitution and the just rights of all the states; and already, in six months, they have succeeded in rallying the Democrat and Lovers and other Northern States will follow when their elections come off. It is not unusual to hear Know Nothing papers sneer at the Democracy as a "Southern Sectional party"—a charge that will never be made against them when it comes with bad grace from an organization which has not an existence in a single Northern State; while the Democratic party, in addition to the whole south, with possibly a single exception, presents a formidable front in every Northern State, has an absolute majority in seven of them, and will carry half the remainder at the next election.

The Northern Democrats are as loyal and faithful to the South as to their own sons; and the South fully and heartily reciprocates the feelings of the Democrats of Pennsylvania, and the preservation of the Union. It seems strange, indeed, to us that any portion of the South are prepared to refuse to recognize, and continue opposed, their true friends.

The Dred Scott Case.

We were not surprised to hear the decision of the Supreme Court in the case, as the extracts to which they have heretofore alluded indicated that they would hesitate at nothing to promote their wholelowed object; but we did not expect their opposition would be imitated in the South, or that their denunciations would find an echo there. However much that decision conflicted with individual views or feelings, we expected the entire south to acquiesce in it.—We expected loyal and patriotic Americans every where, and particularly in the Southern States, to accept the decision as a full, final and definite settlement of the slavery question forever. We had always understood that the South was willing, and wished, to submit the whole question to this tribunal, from whose decision there could be no appeal, and to which court, of course, is final. When it was known that this case had gone to the Supreme Court, and that the decision in the case would cover all the issues made in the discussion of the dangerous question of slavery, the South, confident in the justice and strength of her position, rejoiced that at last there was a prospect of a termination of the profitless and dangerous agitation of that question. The authority of the Court was undisputed, and all parties were willing to be bound by its decision. We read that decision with feelings of thankfulness that the rights of the South had been maintained, and her honor preserved.

We believed the patriotic loyalty of the American people would sustain the Court, and in sustaining the Court, give peace to the whole country. We regarded the first mutterings of discontent heard in the North as but the expiring murmurs of baffled demagogism and defeated fanaticism; but their echo in the South sounded as a knell upon our ears, and bid us expect no peace.

Reckless demagoguery, unprincipled fanaticism, relentless hate to the Democratic party, unhallowed ambition; were motives sufficiently strong to stifle patriotic impulses even in Southern breasts, and to rally a party on Southern soil to an attack upon the palladium of our liberties—the depository of our hopes.

The Know Nothing party of Kentucky does not like a portion of that decision because it conflicts with their one idead views, and have "denounced it in unmeasured terms." The Court decided that Congress had no power to prohibit slavery in the Territories, and for this it is furiously denounced by the Black Republicans, who declare they will not be bound by it, and announce their determination to resist it. The Court went farther, and decided, that the regulation of the right of suffrage was reserved to the state—"that every State has power to confer the right upon an alien or on any other class or description of persons, who would, to all intents and purposes, be a citizen of the State, but not a citizen in the sense used in the Constitution of the United States—and as the first part of the decision has incurred the opposition and denunciation of the Black Republicans because it conflicted with their political views, so, in like manner, the latter part "denounced in unmeasured terms by the Know Nothing press of this State," because in conflicts with the proscriptive and illiberal dogmas of their party.

A defence of the Supreme Country, though no difficult task, would be unnecessary, superfluous and uncalled for. It is sufficient to know that this is a decision by the tribunal of last resort—that" from this decision there is no appeal—that opposition to this decision is opposition to the constitution. The Abolitionist has precisely the same right to assert that the decision in regard to the power of Congress over slavery in the Territories, is wrong, that the Know Nothing of Kentucky has to maintain that that portion of it to which he objects was obiter dictum, and consequently of no binding obligation. In each Court was the proper tribunal to try the issues involved, and the decision is equally binding in both. If the Know Nothings have a right to decide upon the issues before the Court, in opposition to the decision of the Court, can they question the right of the Abolitionist to decide upon the merits of those issues? The Abolitionists contend that the Court erred in its decision, and that the decision being wrong they will not be bound by it—then sitting in judgment on the Court and nullifying its decisions; the Know Nothings contend that the Court was mistaken in the issues before it, that the decision on some of these issues was irrelevant, and is not binding. Thus each one of these parties sits in judgement upon the Court, and between them the whole decision is declared null and void. If the decisions of the Supreme Court are thus to be set aside, what security have we for the future? What tribunal is left for the settlement of constitutional difficulties? If the Know Nothings have the right to decide its decisions irrelevant when they conflict with their views, and Abolitionists the right to declare them null and void when they choose to pronounce them wrong, all other parties or factions can claim the same privilege, and the Supreme Court is a farce.

We have not a doubt of the correctness of the whole decision in the case under consideration; but if we should not, it would though we might deplore it, regarding it as the supreme law of the land, we could not and would not oppose it. The Know Nothing party in Kentucky, or its leaders at least—we do not believe the honest and intelligent rank and file endorse or approve their action, or will do so—do oppose and denounce this decision, or a part of it, and in doing so they are encouraging and strengthening the Abolitionists in their assaults upon the Court. The Abolitionists solemnly assert that they will not be bound by, or submit to, the decision of the Court, and declare a relentless and unceasing war upon it. When reproved for their treasonable declarations, they point to the existence of a party at the South who believe the Court erred in its understanding of the issues before it, who denounce its "unmeasured terms" the decision maintained by the Court, and ask, if this party believes this decision wrong, why should we not believe so, too? and if wrong, why should we submit to it? The opposition and denunciation of this decision by the Southern Know Nothings is used as a justification and pretext for the opposition it meets at the North.

The Democrats, every where, North and South, indorse, approve, and acquiesce in, this decision, and are willing to abide by it forever. The Know Nothings express a willingness to submit to the decision, but people that willingness will be disposed to think that the part of it which conflicts with their opinions is not binding, and should be set aside. Nothing short of an unanimous, Country, District, or State, that we have seen, has passed a resolution endorsing it even in this doubtful manner.

The Commonwealth, the central organ, does not hesitate to boldly avow that the party in the State does not approve this decision, but, on the contrary, declares that they are bitterly opposed to it. This is the language to which, and which we are free to admit that it speaks for the Know Nothing press, we do not believe that the sentiment is approved by the members of the party in the State:

"The American journals of Kentucky have denounced in unmeasured terms, the doctrine established by Chief Justice Taney, that a State can invest an alien with the power to control at the ballot-box, the representation in Congress, and the Presidency of the nation."

Can our neighbor or his party have any just claim upon Whigs—if so, upon what is it founded?—Eagle.

We have a just claim on the Old Line Whigs—a claim based upon their honest, patriotic devotion to their country—a claim they understand, appreciate, and will not disregard. We believe as we have ever believed, that the principles of the Whig party were not those most conducive to the welfare and prosperity of the country, and hence we opposed them once, as we are free to confess we would do again; but they were honestly held, and openly and honestly maintained by the Whigs, and as openly and honestly opposed by the Democrats. The issues based upon these principles have passed away; the Whig party itself has been destroyed; and instead of the questions of national policy which then divided the parties, have arisen other questions, and graver and more important issues.

The issues now presented to the American people, are issues of life or death. Instead of opposing the principles of the Whig party, we are defending the foreign-born citizens from the proscriptive assaults of a new and secret party, and asserting the right of every citizen to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience. In doing this we are defending the Constitution from its assailants, and battling for the preservation of our Republican institutions. In addition to this, the Democratic party is now the only national organization in the country—the only one that dares assert the equality of the States—the only one that dares defend the rights of the South—the only one that acquiesces in the late decision of the Supreme Court, settling one of the most vexed and dangerous questions of the age.

Under such circumstances, when we are assailed by fanaticism and faction, and when our defeat would be the triumph of the enemies of the South, of the Union, and of the country, we have a claim upon patriotic Old Line Whigs—and patriotic Know Nothings, too—and a claim they cannot and will not disregard.

And this claim will not be reluctantly admitted, when it is recollected that the present opposition to the Democratic party, is the very antipodes of the Whig party. It is like the Whig party in any respect. It does not act like it, or work like it, nor does it advocate the same principles. Know Nothingism has changed its national platform at every meeting of its national council, while the differences in its state platforms have been as numerous as its state councils, but its now born affection for the Whig party has not induced it to incorporate a single article of the old Whig creed into any of its multitudinous declarations of principles.

They started out, we all recollect, by inserting in their first national platform, a declaration to the effect, that they were not responsible for the "obnoxious acts and violated pledges" of the Whig party, upon the ruins of which they asserted they had risen, and which had become so corrupt as to make it necessary for them to separate from it; and that is the only endorsement of Whigery we have ever seen in any of their platforms. Have they ever recommended a Protective Tariff? a United States Bank? or opposed the Sub-Treasury law, or demanded its repeal? If Know Nothingism and Whiggery are identical, as our neighbor asserts, why do the Know Nothings select Democrats, who yet cling to their old political heresies, as their candidates for office, how can they vote for them after they are selected? If they are identical, the Know Nothings who vote for Gen. Pilcher or Maj. Jones are compelled to sacrifice their principles in doing so; and more than that, they vote to place a man in power whose political principles they believe to be erroneous and dangerous; and if they do that, they are not as good patriots, or as honest men, as we like to think all political opponents are.

Whiggery and Know Nothingism are as widely different as day and night; while Whiggery and Democracy, the old issues between them having passed away, now stand on the same platform—the Constitution, and advocate the same principles—civil and religious liberty, the equality of the States, and the protection of the rights of all sections and classes. This consideration alone, when they cannot agree, and create a platic sympathy, and a harmony of interests and feelings, that inseparably blend them into one patriotic, conservative and national party.

☞The editor of the Whig betrays bad temper, and a worse cause, in his reference to the Express last week. Unable to refute the fact stated in the Express, he resorts to that refuge of weak minds—assertion, and contents himself with stigmatizing as false the statement he knows to be true. It is true that the late municipal elections in Louisville and New Orleans passed off quietly, but they did so because the opponents of Know Nothingism did not attempt to vote. "Know Nothing rule has made it perilous to attempt to exercise the right of freemen" in those cities, the fact that they had secured stands in the officers at the recent municipal elections was regarded as a evidence of their determination to re-enact the scenes of "Bloody Monday." As a consequence of this belief, not one fourth of the legal voters were polled. The entire vote for Mayor in Louisville, was less than Fillmore's majority in that city in November last.

Bayville Post Office.

We have received the following communication from Mr. R. H. Hendon, of Mayville, which we know was not intended for publication; and as we have no doubt in the world it is true, we cheerfully give it place in our paper. We know Mr. Hendon, only because his party friends were endeavoring to make capital of it; and as we thought the act perfectly proper we were disposed to justify it. We have "taken the trouble" to examine the chapter of the Post Office Regulations to which he refers, and as he may not have read it very carefully himself, we refer him to the fourth paragraph in section 215, and to sections 227, 228, and 229 of said chapter, particularly. We have no disposition to interfere with the business of others, but endeavor to attend closely to our own; and it is precisely for that reason that we noticed this attempt to create prejudice against the administration, and manufacture political capital, in consequence of the removal of Mr. Herndon, as act of which, neither he nor his friends have any right to complain. We are young, it is true, but old enough to know our duty, and have a will to discharge it, not only faithfully and promptly, but willingly and cheerfully:

The Franking Privilege.

ROBERT McKEE, Esq.

Sir:—If you will take the trouble to read chapter 30 of Regulations for the government of the Post Office Department, you will find that the Post Master at Mayville is of that class of officers who hold the "Franking Privilege" not only "as an official trust for the maintenance of official correspondence," but as a "Personal Privilege," which confers on him the right to Send and receive letters and packets through the mail free of postage.

This "personal privilege" grants him the liberty of Sending letters written by himself on any variety of private business, and receiving written communications addressed to himself on his private business the authorship and "purpose" of which it concerns no one to enquire.

I do not feel called upon to explain the object of my communications, written on a variety of subjects and to divers individuals of the last twenty years of my official experience; and if by any "hook or crook" you have discovered the "purpose" of them, I can only say you have busied yourself about matters which should not interest you, and if you would manifest the same amount of perseverance in your own affairs, that you have in your neighbors, I have no doubt, it would by equally as profitable to yourself, and interesting to your readers, at least such is the opinion of one who entertains the kindest possible feelings" for the young editor of the Maysville Express.

E. H. HERNDON.

MAYFLICK, KY., May 1st, 1857.

☞It is gravely announced by the Frankfort Commonwealth, that "the American party has discarded all oaths, promises and secrecy, has ceased to be an order, and has become an open organization;" and thereupon invites all who feel inclined to do so, to attend and take part in the proceedings of a meeting to be held at the Court House in that city.

The "American" party is exceedingly anxious to get rid of the odium attached to the secrecy of its organization, and has more than once proclaimed the abandonments of its secret political machinery; but as it has never disbanded its councils, or ceased to transact all its business in secret, the people are very properly inclined to consider it a secret party yet, and treat it accordingly. Nearly a year ago it was announced by authority of the State council, if we recollect right, that its secrecy was removed—that henceforth it was to be an open organization; but we have not been able to perceive any change in its operations in consequence of this action of the State Council. Its councils are still kept up, and the business of the order, as heretofore, transacted in secret. We have not heard of any public meetings being called to nominate candidates, or any similar purpose; and in the same humber of the Commonwealth in which this announcement is make, the "members of Franklin Council are notified to meet that night in the room of the Court House," for the purpose of attending to business of particular importance. We presume, it is true, that the invitation to all who will give their principles a practical endorsement—(that is, vote for their candidates,) to attend a meeting of the American party, is intended for an invitation to attend this meeting of Franklin council; but if secrecy is removed, why should the meeting be held in the Court House—not in the upper room—and invite everybody, of all parties, to attend, as the Democratic party does now, and as the old Whig partyormerly did? Why, the very nature of the invitation given on this occasion is as binding upon an honorable man, if accepted, as an oath, for by its terms it "demands a cooperation with the party and a practical endorsement of its principles," of all who attend.

The secrecy of Know Nothingism is not removed, and, we venture to say, never will be. They meet in Council and transact their business there, and will continue to do so. They pretend to discard their oaths, promises and secrecy, but it is only to rid themselves of the odium attached to a secret political organization. They invite those to attend their meetings who sympathize with them, but they do so in language which imposes an obligation on all who accept it, to sympathize with them and practically endorse their principles." The secrecy is not yet removed from the order; their candidates are nominated in secret; and it is only an open organization so far as to permit such outsiders as they can gull into doing so, to vote for their candidates—that is the only privilege outsiders will ever enjoy in the Know Nothing party.

DR. A. H. WALL:

The Democrats and Old-line Whigs of Mason County, anxious to secure the services of their best and strongest men in the approaching canvass, knowing your devotion to the principles of the Democratic party, and appreciating your faithful services in the promotion of its interests, earnestly request you to consent to the use of your name as a candidate to represent this County in the next Legislature, and pledge you their cordial and undivided support.

MASON COUNTY.

COL. M. EAY:

If you will consent to become a candidate to represent this County in the next Legislature, you will receive MANY VOTES

Democratic Meeting in the Lanner County, in the 9th District.

The Democracy of Morgan County met at the Court House in West Liberty, on the 27th day of April, 1857, for the purpose of appointing delegates to attend a District Convention to nominate a candidate to represent the 9th Congressional District in Congress. Dr. R. Mason was called to the Chair, and W. S. Pierce appointed Secretary. Hon. Wm. Lykins, D. N. Cottle, S. M. Parish, and D. D. Sublett were appointed a Committee, to draft resolutions expressive of the feelings of the meeting, who retired, and in a short time returned with the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That it is with thrilling delight we hail the triumph of Democratic principles, in the election of James Buchanan and John C. Breckinridge, and in the recent opinion of the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case.

Resolved, That we look to the Constitution, and the perpetuation of Democratic principles, to relieve us from the curse of wild fanaticism, and they alone are capable of upholding our republican institutions.

Resolved, That this meeting half seven hundred strong, in defiance of James B. Garrard, of Boyle, as the democratic candidate for State Treasurer, and will give him our unflinching support in August party, as a

Resolved, That John C. Mason is the first choice of the Democracy of Morgan, to represent them in the next Congress of the U. S., and that they will give him their undivided support in August next.

Resolved, That the following Democrats be appointed delegates to the district convention, viz: Samuel Hunter, Allen Wright, J. G. Trimble, E. A. Hensley, Miles Kash, J. Gardner, Caleb Kash, R. Maxey, Wm. Lykins, Samuel Hunter, Jr., D. N. Cottle, D. Sublett, D. N. Cottle, S. M. Parish, W. S. Pierce, J. W. Kendall, M. B. Cox, S. J. Filson, P. D. Lykins, A. H. Quillen, Wm. Hunter, Alexander Hunter, B. F. Garner, D. S. Trimble, N. F. Reid, and every other democrat in the County who feels interest enough in the cause of Democracy to attend.

Resolved, That the Maysville Express be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

W. S. PIERCE, Sec'y.

☞"Do you go to school now, Charlie?" "Yes, sir; I had a fight to-day, too," he replied.

"You had! Which whipped?"

"Oh, I got whipped," he replied, with great frankness.

"Was the other boy bigger than you?"

"No, he was little."

"Well, how came you to let a little boy whip you?"

"Oh, you see, he was madder nor I was."

☞A lady once remarked to Charles Lamb that she did not care for Greek—it was a dead tongue. The witty Lamb at once took a card and wrote the following lines and handed them to her:

"Dead! Madam! What lady or gentleman could remain under the curse of a dead tongue? Why, when by using the BALM OF A THOUSAND FLOWERS, the dandiest would not only render it sweet but leave the breath fragrant as Cinnamon? Many persons do not know their breath is bad, and the kindest act is so delicate their friends will never mention it. Four a single drop of the Balm on your tooth brush and wash the teeth night and morning. A fifty cent bottle will last a year.

A BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION may easily be acquired by using the "BALM OF A THOUSAND FLOWERS." It will remove tan, pimples, and freckles from the skin, leaving it soft and and roseate hue. Wet a lower lip, dipped or three drops, and wash the face night and morning.

SHAVING MADE EASY—Wet your shaving brush in either water or cold water, pour on two or three drops of "BALM OF A THOUSAND FLOWERS," rub the beard well and it will make a beautiful soft lather much facilitating the operation of shaving—Price only Fifty cents. W. P. FETRIDGE & CO.,

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

MAYSVILLE, MAY 6th, 1857.

☞We have one of Mook's Maps of North America, edition of 1853, which we will sell for $4. It is in slight dollars.

☞We have received from Gr. W. Ratterman some samples of very fragrant wine which he has lately received.

☞See the advertisement of J. A. F. M. Weedon in another column. They are the pioneers in the staging business on the road from Maysville to Mt. Sterling, and run the first line of stages between the two places, and have kept it up ever since. They have good coaches, fine horses, and careful attentive drivers, and will not relax their efforts to merit the patronage of the public.

☞St. Andrews Lodge, No. 18, of Free and Accepted Masons, will dedicate their Hall, in Cynthiana, on Tuesday, June 2nd, 1857. The Fraternity there have procured the services of an able Orator; the Rost Worthy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky and the Grand Officers are expected to be present; Master's Masons Bands are engaged, and extensive preparations are being made to make it a magnificent affair.

MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS AND PHŒNIX BITTERS.—These invaluable medicines are a certain remedy for all the complaints of the bowels and diseases of the liver, incidental to a change of climate, and of living after a sea voyage. They are the best family and traveling medicines as all experience testifies. Sold by W. B. MOFFAT, 335 Broadway, New York, and his Agents

SEATON, SHARP & CO.

BOERHAAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS.—See what the dealers, men who will sell anything in their line, and who are who are not interested in the medicine more that any other, say:

"We think highly of your article, and expect to have a large sale."

BARNES & PARK, New York.

Most medicines require time to introduce them; yours sells at the start.

HOFFMAN & MORWITZ, Phila.

It is steadily gaining ground.

Dr. D. MILES, Peoria, Ill.

The demand is increasing.

C. & W. CASPARI, Baltimore.

The lot will soon be sold—send more.

WM. THOMPSON, Riceville, E. Tenn.

We are out—send another lot as once.

D. M. & A. J. TUCKER, Fulton, Mo.

We have been selling Boerhave's Holland Bitters for some months; and, although, when it was first introduced, we did not urge its sale, being unacquainted with the article; still we found the public determined to have it, and to meet this demand we have been obliged to purchase more of this article than we have of any other patent medicine whatever. Every day brings new testimonials of its efficacy in removing the various complaints for which it is recommended, and in offering it to our customers, we do so with more confidence it its virtues than is due to most preparations of the kind.

HON. PREST WALKER.—The Mobile Tribune, of the 23rd, publishes an address from the Hon. Percy Walker, to the voters of the First Congressional District of Alabama, in which he declines being a candidate for re-election to Congress. He says that having given his support to Mr. Buchanan, in the late Presidential contest, he has nothing to regret on that score, and adds:

The evidence furnished in the late election of the sectional hostility to the South—the denial by the dominant party in nearly all the free States of our equality, the recognition of which was the formation of the Union—the speeches and votes of the Republican members of the late Congress—the determination of that party, as disclosed by their press, popular assemblies and legislative bodies, to yield to no decision whatever of the highest judicial tribunal known to our laws—should impress upon us the necessity of union in the South, the cessation of strife, either for party ascendency or personal advancement, and that it is our duty to present an undivided front to our assailants.

The not distant future is pregnant with danger to the Southern States, and the man, who, at such a time, prates of party necessities, towards our party services, and the duty of laboring for party power, instead of seeking to bring about a union of Southern rights for the protection of rights common to all may well be called a traitor. Believing him an imposter, Mr. Wright handed back the paper, saying: "I presume you wouldn't have asked me if you had known my situation; for, whether you believe me or not, every bit of property I have in the world is in the hands of the sheriff." The astonished stare of the fellow's eyes at that moment was a sight to see.

THE TEACHER POSED.—A teacher asked a bright little girl, "What country is opposite us on the globe?"

"Don't know, sir," was the answer.

"Well, now," pursued the teacher, "if I were to bore a hole through the earth, and you were to go in at this end, where would you come out?"

"Out of the hole, sir," replied the pupil with an air of triumph.

TO MAKE PINEAPPLE JELLY.—Pare and grate the pineapple and put into the preserving pan, with one pound of fine white sugar to every pound of fruit; stir and boil it until well mixed, and thickened sufficiently, then strain it, pour it into jars, and when it has become cool, cover the jars tightly and treat them as apple jelly.

☞"I always sing to please myself," said a young lady, who was humming a tune in company.

"Then you are not at all difficult to please," said a lady who sat next to him.

☞"Come, Bill, it's ten o'clock, and I think you had better be going, for it's time honest folks were at home."

"Well, yes," was the answer; "I must be off, but you needn't hurry on that account."

Telegraph Dispatches.

NEW ORLEANS, May 2.

Advices from the city of Mexico to the 15th ult., have been received.

The Archbishop and several priests had been arrested in attempting an insurrection. The Archbishop will be banished.

Two British war vessels had arrived at Sacrafiscos, causing much speculation as to their object. It was supposed they were sent to bully the Government, which would probably delay a settlement of the English question. Rumors are rife of filibustering in Sonora and Lower California.

NEW YORK, May 2.

This evening's Post says that there are surmises of an armed resistance by Mayor Wood to the new legislative enactments relative to our city. The Democratic masses have been placed in the Station-house of the Nineteenth Ward. The Democratic members of the Common Council will meet in caucus to consider upon further means of resistence.

William C. Bryant and family left for Havre to-day, in the ship William Tell.

A large detachment of marines will leave this port on Tuesday next under the command of Lieut. Browne, to reinforce the squadron in the Pacific.

ST. LOUIS, May 2.

The Democrat has advices from Fort Desmoines, Iowa, to the 27th ult., stating that five or six hundred Sioux Indians had crossed the Desmoines River, in the neighborhood of Fort Dodge, on Saturday. Fears were entertained that the Fort had been attacked.

The force stationed there was insufficient to repel the Indians. Companies were organizing to go to their assistance. Several families had sought refuge in Fort Desmoines. The greatest consternation prevailed.

MEMPHIS, May 2.

The city is crowded with strangers today to attend a jubilee of the opening of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad. Fifteen thousand persons are present.

The display generally is very fine. A quantity of water from the Atlantic was poured into the Mississippi to-day to commemorate the union.

WASHINGTON, May 2.

There are several hundred applicants here for foreign consulships.

Mr. Cass has informed his friends that the subject of consular appointments will not be acted upon until early in June. Lewis S. Pattridge has been appointed Marshal of Vermont.

NASHVILLE, May 2.

The Americans have nominated Robert Haton for Governor of this State.

PITTSBURG, May 4.

River seven feet and a half, rising. The weather is cloudy. Rain last night and this morning.

THE OLD LINE WHIGS.—It has been the custom of the opposition for some time back and especially since the appointment of Mr. Buchanan's Cabinet advisers, to prognosticate the entire ignoring of that gallant division of the Old Whig Army that rushed to the rescue of the Constitution in the late memorable canvass. Old Line Whigs have been taunted with the reproach that they joined the Democratic party simply to obtain office, and that their services having been obtained, there is now no further use for them. We shall now go into a defense of such men as Rufus Choate, William Preston, James Alfred Pearce, Thos. Pratt, James B. Clay, Agnes C. Jones, and J. P. Benjamin. Such statesmen are well known throughout the Union, to require vindication from such aspersions. Their patriotism is too well appreciated to suppose that it is the result of mere selfishness.

Our object now is to refer to the course which President Buchanan has thought fit to pursue in regard to these gentlemen, and which is as creditable to his manliness, as it is just to the party whom he thus proposes to honor. Our readers are already apprized that the Hon. James A. Pearce, the patriotic son of a noble sire, was tendered the mission to Prussia not merely in consideration of his services in the late canvass, but as a tribute to the old Whig party, of which he was a most fit representative. Mr. Clay thought proper to decline the honor, that his motives might forever remain hidden from speculation. We regret his decision, but commend his delicacy.

Still further to signify his appreciation of the conduct of the flower of the old Whig party, Mr. Buchanan has tendered to Senator Pratt, of Maryland, one of the most prominent of its leaders, the mission to Russia, and we think it not unlikely that Mr. Pratt will accept the commission. With such unmistakable evidences of the consideration in which old Whigs are held, by the party with whom they are now associated, the taunts which have been thrown at them by their enemies can well be treated with the contempt they deserve.—Intelligencer.

AN UNFORTUNATE MAN.—Sheriff Ansel Wright, of Northampton, Mass., is something of a wag. A few days ago a scurvy looking stranger presented him with a paper purporting to be a warrant. Believing him an imposter, Mr. Wright handed back the paper, saying: "I presume you wouldn't have asked me if you had known my situation; for, whether you believe me or not, every bit of property I have in the world is in the hands of the sheriff." The astonished stare of the fellow's eyes at that moment was a sight to see.

NEW YORK ADVERTISEMENTS, FROM

ALBERT G. RICHARDSON'S

Advertising and Corresponding Office,
No. 323 Broadway, (opposite the Park,)
NEW YORK.

A NEW and IMPORTANT DISCOVERY in the SCIENCE OF MEDICINE.

PATRONIZED BY THE FACULTY OF GREAT BRITAIN, DIPLOME DE ECOLE DE PHARMACIE, PHARMACIEN de PARIS, and IMPERIAL LICENSE of the French Empire, which will wholesale and retail by DR. H. A. HARPER, Member of the Imperial College of Surgeons, Royal College of Surgeons, London, who may be personally consulted at his residence, 152 Prince street, between Mercer and Greene, from 11 A. M. to 2, P. M. and from 6 to 9 P. M. (Sundays excepted, strictly appointment.)

Tricomene No. 1.

Is a remedy for Relaxation, Spermatorrhea, and all the distressing consequences arising from early abuse, indiscriminate sensuous, or too long sustained excitement. It has restored bodily and sexual strength and vigor to thousands who are now in the enjoyment of health and the functions of manhood, and whatever may be the cause of disqualifications for marriage, they are effectually subdued.

Tricomene No. 2,

Completely and entirely eradicates all traces of Gonorrhea, both in the mild and aggravated forms, Gleets, Stricture, Irritation of the Bladder, Retention of Urine, Pains of the Loins and Kidneys, and those disorders for which Copaiba and Cubebs have so long been thought an antidote.

Tricomene No. 3,

Is the great Constitutional Remedy for Syphilis and Secondary Symptoms. It has never failed to effectually cure for Scurvy, Scrofula, and all Cutaneous Eruptions, removing and expelling in its course all impurities from the vital stream, so as also, together to eradicate the virus of disease, and expel it by insensible perspiration, through the medium of the pores of the skin and urine.

It is a sweet falling remedy for that class of females which Anglesh Physicians term Nervous Debility, to the inevitable destruction of the patient's constitution, and which all the therapeutic in the world cannot remove.

TRICEMAN No. 1, 2, and 3, are prepared in the form of a lozenge, devoid of taste and smell and can be carried in the waistcoat pocket. Sold in its course, and divided in separate doses as administered by Valteau, Lalleman, Rour, Ricord, &c., &c., Price $1 each, or four cases in one for $9, which saves $3, and in $27 case, whereby there is a saving of $9.

Do. Dispensaries unless the Engravings of the Seal of the Patent Office of England, the Seals of the Ecole de Pharmacie de Paris, and the Imperial College of Vienna, are affixed upon each vial and around each case. Imitations are liable to the severest penalties of the Law.

Special arrangements enable Dr. HARPER to forward immediately, on receiving a remittance, the $9 and larger cases of Tricemar Paste or cantlets, to any part of the world, securely packed and properly addressed, thus insuring genuine European preparations and protecting the public from spurious and pernicious imitations.

Attendance and Consultation from 11 A. M. till 2 P. M. and from 4 till 8 in the evening. 152 PRINCE STREET, a few blocks west of Broadway, New York. [may 6, 1857—ann.

☞A list of the numbers that are drawn from the scheme, with the amount of the prize that each one is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, New York Weekly Dry Goods and Greenback Monday News.

The Natural Foot Pacing Premium Horse

CRUSADER, Jr.,

Will stand at my stable, 3 miles south of Mineral, Mason Co., Ky., and will be let to mares at $7 the season, payable at Christmas, which can be discharged by $5 if paid within the season; $10 to insure a mare with foal, money due when the mare is known to be in foal or traded off. The season commences April 1st and ends July 1st. No responsibility for accidents should any occur. All mares will be charged for the season unless specially directed by the insurance at the time the mare is sent. Thankful to my patrons for past favors, I hope to share their patronage in future.

DESCRIPTION AND PEDIGREE.—Crusader is a beautiful dark bay pony, 15 hands High, and 7 years old in June next. He was sired by Crusader, a pacing horse raised in Fayette Co., Ky., he by Bull Scott Jr., and he by Old Tom Hal; his sire was a London gray mare. Tom Hal was one of the best saddle horses there ever in this country. Crusader, Jr., dam, Black Fiddle, is one of the finest saddle mares in this country, she took the premium at Cincinnati, O., last fall, she was bred by Fielder Whipp. Crusader, Jr., himself took the premium as a saddle stallion, in the three jars that place, and stands unrivaled as a saddle horse. CHOICE FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R. CO.

OFFER FOR SALE IN THE STATE OF ILLINOIS

1,500,000 ACRES

OF

CHOICE FARMING LANDS!

IN TRACTS OF 40 ACRES AND UPWARDS,

ON LONG CREDIT

AND AT LOW RATES OF INTEREST.

These lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Road, and are among the richest and most fertile in the State. They extend from North-East to South-West, through the middle of the State, to the extreme South, and include every variety of climate and production found between those parallels of latitude. The Northern portion is chiefly prairie, differing only in the richness of soil, and in the middle and Southern sections timber predominates, alternating with beautiful prairies.

The climate more healthy, mild and equable than that of any other part of the country—the air is pure and bracing, while its piny streams and springs of chalybeate water abound.

Bituminous coal is extensively mined, and supplies a cheap and desirable fuel. Rising Prairies at a price ranging from $5 to $8 per acre—and Wood can be had at the same rate per cord.

Building Stone, of excellent quality, also abounds, which can be procured for little more than the expense of transportation.

The great fertility of these lands, which are a black soil mould, from two to five feet in depth, and gently rolling,—their contiguity to this Road, by which every facility is furnished for travel and transportation, to the principal markets, North, South, East, and West, and the economy with which they can be cultivated, render them the most valuable for investment that can be found. Never was the most favorable opportunity, for persons of industrious habits and small means, to acquire a comfortable independence in a few years.

Chicago is now the greatest grain market in the world—and the facility and economy with which the products of these lands can be transported to that market, make them much more profitable, at the present time, than those more remote at government rates,—as the additional cost of transportation is a perpetual tax on the latter, which must be borne by the producer, in the reduced price he receives for his grain, &c.

The Title is Perfect—and when the final payments are made, Deeds are executed by the Trustees appointed by the State, and the Land Title is vested, in the purchaser, which can ever be obtained from the Illinois Trustees. Free and clear of every incumbrance, lien or mortgage.

THE PRICES ARE FROM 60 TO $20;

Interest Only 5 per cent.

Twenty per cent. will be deducted from the credit price for Cash.

These only purchase on long credits, give notes payable in 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 years after date, are required to improve one-tenth annually for 5 years, to be at have one-half the land under cultivation, at the end of that time.

Competent Surveyors, will accompany those who wish to examine these Lands, free of charge, and aid them in making selections.

The Land remaining unsold is as rich and valuable as those which have been disposed of.

SECTIONAL MAPS

Will be sent to any one who will enclose fifty cents in Postage Stamps, and Books or Pamphlets, containing numerous instances of successful farming, related by respectable and well-known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, etc.—or any other information, will be cheerfully given on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to the undersigned, WILLIAM BOOTH, Land Commissioner of the Ill., Central R. R. Co.
