[For the Louisville Journal.]

To a Lovely Little Girl.

BY MARY NEAL.

Fairy one! with smile so bright,
Golden locks and eyes of light!
Step as graceful, light, and free
As the foam upon the sea,
As the gentle zephyr's breath
Stealing o'er the flowery heath!
Happy! happy! happy! I see—
What, then, can I wish for thee?

Sunlight of thy happy home!
Parents, brothers watch thee come,
Thanking God with heartful eyes
For this blessing from the skies!
Watching well this one bright flower
Blooming in their earthly bower;
Joy's bright self thou seem'st to be—
What, then, can I wish for thee!

Bright one! were the morning light
Never dimm'd before the night—
Did earth's fairest, purest flowers
Never fade ere noontide hours—
Could not time or dark decay
Steal those dimpling smiles away—
Had no shadows flown o'er me,
I might hope not wish for thee.

But from off the noblest trees
Leaves are torn by slight-i-breeze;
And full soon the rosy bloom
Seats the death-mark of the tomb,
Soon time's onward course begulles
From Youth's reliest cheek its smiles;
Ah, then, bright one! list to me—
This is the boon I crave for thee.

For each dimple from thy face,
Every ringlet, every grace,
Passing years shall steal away,
May some charm, which time's decay
Ne'er can taint, beleck thy mind;
So when youth is gone, thou'lt find
Then may'st still as lovely be—
This the prayer I breathe for thee.

CENTRVILLE, March, 1855.

The American Bison.

Robert Wickliffe, Esq., of Lexington, Ky., in an article originally communicated to Audubon and Bachman's quadrupeds, says:

"The herd of Buffalo (bisons) I now possess have descended from one or two cows that I purchased from a man who brought them from the country west of the upper Missouri. I have had them for about thirty years; but from giving them away, and the occasional killing of them by mischievous persons as well as other casualties, my whole stock at this time does not exceed ten or twelve. I have sometimes confined them in separate parks from other cattle, but generally they herd and feed with my stock of farm cattle. They graze with them as gently as the others. The buffalo cow, I think, go with young about the same time the common cow does, and produce every year. None of mine have ever had more than one at a birth. The cows bring forth their young, at different times and seasons of the year, the same as our domestic cattle. I do not find my buffalos more furious or wild than the common cattle of the same age that graze with them.

"Although the buffalo, like the domestic cow, brings forth her young at different seasons of the year, this I attribute to the effect of domestication, as it is different with all animals in a state of nature. I have always heard their time for rutting in our latitude was from March until July; and it is very obviously the season which nature assigns for the increase of both races, as most of my calves were from the buffalo and common cows at this season. On getting possession of the same buffalo, I endeavored to cross them as much as I could with my common cows, to which experiment I found the tame or common bull unwilling to accede; and he was always shy of the buffalo cow, but the buffalo bull was willing to breed with the common cow.

"From the common cow I have several half-breeds, one of which was a heifer. This I put with a domestic bull, and it produced a bull calf. This I castrated, and it made a very fine steer, and when killed produced very fine beef. I bred from this same heifer several calves, and then, that the experiment might be perfect, I put one of them to the buffalo bull, and she brought me a bull-calf, which I raised to be a very fine animal. After making these experiments, I left them to propagate their blood themselves, so that I have only a few half breeds, and they always prove the same, even by a buffalo bull. The full blood is not so large as the improved stock, but as large as the ordinary stock of the country. The crossed or half-blood are larger than either the buffalo or common cow. The hump brisket ribs and tongue of the full and half-blooded are preferable to those of the common beef; but the round and other parts are much inferior. The udder or bag of the buffalo is smaller than that of the common cow; but I have allowed the calves of both to run with their dams upon the same pasture, and those of the buffalo were always the fattest; and old hunters have told me that, when a young buffalo calf is taken, it requires the milk of two common cows to raise it. Of this I have no doubt, having received the same information from hundreds of the greatest veracity. The bag or udder of the half-breed is larger than that of the full-blooded animals, and they wou'd, I have no doubt, make good milkers.

"The wool of the wild buffalo grows on their descendents when domesticated, but I think they have less wool than their progenitors. The domesticated buffalo still retains the great of the wild animal and is incapable of making any other noise, and they still observe the habit of having select places within their feeding-grounds to wallow in.

"The buffalo bull is more active and fierce than the common ox, but is lighter behind. He walks more actively than the letter, and I think has more strength than the common ox of the same weight. I have broken them to the yoke, and found them capable of making excellent oxen; and for drawing waggons, or carts, or other heavily-laden vehicles, on long journeys, they would, I think, be greatly preferable to the common ox. I have as yet had no opportunity of testing the longevity of the buffalo, as all of mine that have died did so from accident, or were killed because they became aged. I have some cows that are only twenty years old, that are healthy and vigorous, and one of them has now a sucking calf. The young buffalo calf is of a sandy-red or rufous color, and continues changing to a dark brown at about six months old, which last color it always retains. The mixed breeds are of various colors. I have had them striped with black on a ground, like a zebra; some of them brindled red, some pure red with white faces; and others red without any markings of white. The mixed bloods have not only produced in my stock from the tame and buffalo bull, but I have seen the half blooded reproducing; viz: those that were the product of the common cow and wild buffalo bull. I was informed that, at the first settlement of the country, cows that were considered the best for milking were from the half-blood down to the quarter, and even eighth, of the buffalo blood. But my experiments have not satisfied me that the half buffalo bull will produce again. That the half-breed heifer will be productive from either race as I have before stated, I have tested beyond the possibility of doubt.

"The domesticated buffalo retains the same haughty bearing that distinguishes him in his natural state. He will, however, feed or lie down at the same time, and requires about the same amount of food. I have never milked either the full blood or mixed breed, but have no doubt they might be made good milkers, although their bags or udders are less than those of the common cow; yet, from the strength of the calf, the dam must yield as much, or even more, milk than the common."

HOGS DRUNK.—The Noblesville (Ind.) Patriot offers a hundred dollars worth of liquors by the temperance people. Some seventy barrels and kegs were consigned. The Peyton ale would no. burn, of course, and the Patriot says:

The next morning, droves of hogs licked the foam of beer, drank the half frozen spirits, and soon Mr. Porker began to hang his head and lop his ears, swinging head towards tail and tail towards head, showing the whites of his eyes, and opening his mouth, as if things didn't feel right in his internal arrangements. They soon took a line for the river, but occupying all sides of the street—in imitation of his ex noble boon companion, the biped. Didn't catch them at it the second time. They were seen 'or days after standing sullenly and sagacious'y inside a fence, looking a'if the Maine law was in operation.

Wholesale and retail dealers in
China, Glass and Queensware,
Next door to Pearce, Tulle & Co's, Market street,
MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY

ARE now receiving and opening a various and extensive stock of CHINA, QUEENS and GLASS WARE, comprising a variety of styles, some of which are entirely new and very desirable. Their stock has been purchased entirely for cash from the agents of European manufacturers, resident in the Eastern cities; which fact, coupled with the years experience of each and one of the partners, will enable them, as they confidently believe, to offer such advantages to buyers as have heretofore been unknown in this market. As an evidence of their sincerity in the belief, they now pledge themselves to duplicate any regular Cincinnati bill (wholesale or retail) without the additions of carriage; or any Philadelphia bill purchased within the last year, with the addition of actual expenses of transportation, with the current rate of exchange added.

They invite the attention of country merchants, as well as of families, to their stock, and pledge themselves not to be undersold west of the mountains. They will warrant their goods and the packing, and hope, by strict attention to business, to receive their share of public patronage.

British Recruiting Officers in the United States.

For some time rumors have been circulating through the country, to the effect, that recruiting offices for the enlistment of men for the English army in the Crimea, had been established in several of the large cities of the Union. It turns out that this report is true. There is no doubt that regular recruiting offices for the British service, have been established in Philadelphia, New York, and perhaps Boston. Great numbers of recruits have already been obtained at these offices, and sent off to Halifax where they are mustered into the British service. For the purpose of evading the neutrality laws of the United States, the men are shipped to Canada, under the name of emigrants. But the whole terms of the enlistment are fixed in the United States. The amount of pay and bounty money, the term of service, &c., are all fixed by stipulation at the said recruiting offices. The mere formal ceremonies of enlistment are not performed until the recruit arrives in Halifax.

On the 28th ult., Mr. Wynhoop, the U. S. Marshall of Pennsylvania, arrested a British officer and a number of recruits who had been obtained at the office in Philadelphia. These were taken before a magistrate and held to bail for their appearance to answer a charge of violating the neutrality laws of the United States; and it is probable that the prompt and energetic action of the authorities may have the effect of putting a stop to the business.

Considering the violent abuse which has been lavished upon the people and government of the United States, by the English press, for their alledged participation in filibustering operations, this open effort to convert our territory into a recruiting ground for the British service, in flagrant violation of our neutrality laws is one of the most glaring and indefensible outrages ever perpetrated by the British government. It is an act of disrespect to the United States government, which calls for a severe rebuke. It is not denied that these operations are carried on under the auspices of persons high in the official service of Great Britain; and the government of that country is doubtless a party to it. They know it is in violation of our laws, and that it is a high contempt of the authority of this government. Now that the U. S. authorities of Pennsylvania have got the agents of this high handed outrage, in their hands, caught in the very act, we hope that they will be severely punished.

Another is supposed to have fallen into the river at the same time, and if so, must have been drowned.

Important Cabinet Council—The El Dorado Affair—Spanish Naval Movements.

WASHINGTON, March 30.

The great affair, just now, in this city, is the El Dorado outrage. There is no little excitement, and great vexation out of that insult, which, by the way, has been increased by that to Thompson, the American consul at Sagua la Grande. There was another cabinet council yesterday, at which our relations with Cuba were fully discussed. The members of the cabinet in favor of immediate and energetic steps against Cuba were:

The President, Secretary Guthrie,
Secretary Davis, Secretary Campbell,
Secretary Dobbin, Secretary McClelland.

Against any decided action of the present were—

Secretary Marcy.
Attorney General Cushing.

Secretary Davis was in favor of the most decided action to compel an immediate apology from the Captain-General. I am told that Davis is very violent, and urges the strongest measures for reparation.

Orders have been sent to Pensacola, Norfolk, Philadelphia, New York, and Boston, to have all available vessels and material prepared for immediate service, and instructions have been issued to all naval officers at these points to hold themselves in readiness for sea. It is thought that a portion of the Mediterranean fleet, as well as the Brazil squadron will be called one for the emergency.

WASHINGTON, March 30, 10 P.M.

Preparations for War—Energetic Measures Contemplated.—Another consultation with his Cabinet has determined the President to draw from the different stations every vessel which can possibly be spared, and order them forthwith to join the Gulf squadron. A large portion of the late navy appropriations will be expended in providing steamers, ostensibly to transport provisions, but really to transport men and military stores to our Southern coast. A decided step is to be taken, and the consequences left to take care of themselves. War is the only theme discussed on the streets to-day.

An extra session of Congress is regarded as impracticable, as only three of the Southern States could be represented. President Pierce will adopt Mr. Polk's plan, and consider a state of war existing.

I am happy in being able to assure you that the policy now pursued by the Cuban government, has the Cabinet with it as a unitive sentiment, and the sentiment adopts immediate action for the recent insults which our flag has been made to endure under, and efforts to obtain redress have been forwarded to those who will too gladly see them carried into execution. One vastly important feature is about about by the recent transactions in about Cuba, reflecting upon our national reputation is, that whilst the government will not encourage filibustering, it will not, for the future, find it incumbent upon her to listen to the various reports of schemes on foot for invasion.

Sale of the Webster Estate at Marshfield.

The Boston Journal has a long account of the sale of Mr. Webster's property at Marshfield which we reprint in a somewhat condensed form. It will be read with interest:—

The sale was attended by a large number of persons—some say by seven hundred—quite a number of whom were from this city, and from more distant parts of the State. Among the latter were a number of the most prominent farmers in the Commonwealth, who were drawn thither with the view of obtaining some of the splendid blood animals which composed Mr. Webster's farm stock, and the rearing and improvement of which the departed statesman spent so many of the happiest hours of his life. Others were present who improved the occasion to pay their first visit to the spot where sleep the mortal remains of New England's noble son. Col. N. A. Thompson of this city was the auctioneer, which is equivalent to saying that the sale was conducted with ability, despatch, and with full respect to the interests of all parties. The real estate was divided into eleven lots, each of which was sold separately. The terms of sale were cash, thirty days being allowed for the examination of titles.

The first lot on the list and offered for sale was "sixty-four acres of cedar land, in fine condition, lying a short distance north and east of the Mansion House." This is the lot which immediately adjoins the old Winslow Burying Ground, in which sleep the remains of Webster and those that were dear to him on earth. A small strip of a few rods was reserved on one side of the burying ground, to make its shape more convenient and appropriate for the improvements which are to be made upon it. It may not be out of place to state in this connection that the improvements upon this ground, for the tasteful manner which the "Marshfield Fair" was held last fall, will be commenced this spring. The lot was sold for $18,25 per acre, to Mr. Amos G. Wetherbee. A right of way through it to the burying ground was reserved.

The next lot was "forty-seven acres of tillage and pasture land, lying near the Mansion House, on the westerly side thereof," known as the Cushman lot, and which the thousands of visitors at Marshfield, at the time of the gathered together to pay the last tribute of respect to the departed statesman, will remember as the lot on which they first entered as they left the main road to go to the house. James W. Paige, Esqr., was the purchaser at at $14,50 an acre. Mr. Paige also purchased the next lot, which was one of "17 1-4 acres of wood and arable land, lying nearly opposite the Mansion House, on what is called Blackmont." This lot sold for ten dollars an acre.

The old "Winslow House," with forty-five acres of arable land adjoining, was next on the list. This lot had no incumbrance of right of way. It was Mr. Webster's "pet land;" that on which he was wont to make experiments in different kinds of manure, and different systems of tillage, for the benefit of his neighbors, who came for the information and benefit of his brother farmers in the vicinity. The old "Winslow House," one of the oldest, if not the oldest house in the Commonwealth, still stands on the lot, a landmark of ancient days, which we could hope might not be swept away. The bid ing on this lot, was spirited, and it was finally struck off at $1,00 to Mr. Luther Wright, Webster's head farmer at Marshfield, at $36 an acre.

A lot of good arable land lying east of the road, opposite the Winslow House, in all eleven and a quarter acres, were next sold and purchased by Mr. Daniel Wright. If we remember correctly, it sold at about $40 an acre.

The Brick mill privilege, and the factory building at the head of Green Harbor river, was purchased by Mr. Henry C. Dunham, (an enterprising young man, who received the congratulations of his friends and neighbors on the excellent bargain he had made,) for $3,025.

The "Island Farm," situated on Hewett's or Blanchard's Island, close upon the sea, comprising about one hundred and forty-two acres, sold for $21 an acre. From this land extends the well known "Brant Rock." This "Island Farm," was the favorite place of resort with Mr. Webster, for gunning and fishing.

Lot No. 11 was the cats'-logue, was "all the right title and interest of Mr. Webster in and to the Mansion House, outbuildings and land immediately adjoining the same." The land amounted to 3½ acres. The lot includes, it will be seen, all the original house lot, purchase of Mr. Webster at Marshfield. It is the original "Marshfield lot"—the other lots were sold, being those which Mr. Webster added to his estate by subsequent purchases. The first purchase was made by Mr. Webster in 1835. There is a mortgage on the estate of $3000 or $4000, and a marriage settlement in favor of Mrs. Webster, which continued during her life time. The executors did not warrant any title or in ereat to the property. Whatever that right and title might be after Mrs. Webster's decease, and be determined which, it would be necessary to have a legal decision, through a suit at equity, was offered for sale to close the estate and give a clear title to the purchaser. Mr. J. W. Paige was the purchaser, at $200. This disposition of the right will give to Mr. Webster's family the clear and full title to "Marshfield," and secure the carrying into effect the great desire of Mr. Webster, as expressed in his will—"My great and leading wish is to preserve Marshfield, if I can, in the blood and name of my family."

The Cows were sold at prices ranging from $3 to $57 an acre, according to quality and location. A portion of the ground in the immediate vicinity of the house where Mr. Webster had built a dwell for the mooring of his fishing boats, was laid off into building lots of 5,000 feet each. They sold for from $4 50 to $6 a lot.

There were several other small detached lots of land sold, but we have not room to give the particulars.

After disposing of the real esta'e, Mr. Thompson sold the remaining stock on the farm, (a portion having been sold last fall,) which was composed of full and half blood animals of the most valuable breeds in this country. That they were fine animals of their species it is unnecessary to say. Mr. Webster would have no others on his premises. As a general thing, he would have bought, if possible, some one sold rather low, while others, in one or two cases at least, touched high figures. A full blood Alderney heifer, three years old, was sold for $155; a full blood Devon cow, not with calf, for $70; two full blood Ayreshire heifers, (twins) three years old, sold for $50 each; a full blood Ayreshire heifer, two years old, sold for $34; a full blood Jersey heifer, two years old, was sold for $40; two full blood Alderney bulls, sold for $49; a full blood Alderney bull, 3 years old, sold for $76; another of the same breed, full blood, one year old, from the Motley stock, sold for $50; a full blood Devon bull, sold for $88; a two year old Hungarian bull $96; a full blood Ayreshire bull calf, a year old, from the stock of James Brown sold for $35.

The working oxen sold for good prices.

They were half blood Devons, and splendid animals to look upon. One pair, 8 years old, sold for $155; 1 pair, 6 years old, $182,50; 1 pair, 4 years old, $175; 2 pairs, 3 years old, $115 and $85—the latter not "broken."

The Cheviot sheep sold for from $4,50 to $12 each. The South Downs sold for from $8,12 to $9,50.

The pigs were not in demand. The Suffolk Boar sold for $16; The others were not pressed on the purchasers.

A large portion of this stock, and especially the best animals, were purchased by gentlemen in different parts of the State, who are interested in improving their farm stock. They will be distributed chiefly in Norfolk, Bristol and Essex counties.

This sale is the closing one of the estate of the departed statesman, and it will be gratifying to those who loved him while living and venerate him now that he is dead, to know that, matters have been so arranged that "Marshfield" will be retained according to his expressed wishes, in his own family. It will ever be a sacred spot to the friends of the lamented dead. The Mansion House, to which he loved to escape from the pressure of official cares, and which is to remain as when he lived, the great elm tree in front of it, beneath which he was accustomed to sit in the shades of evening, and the old burying ground having branches gaze upon the bright stars that spoke to his great mind of the power and greatness and love of the infinite creator; the trees planted by his own and his family hand in memory of beloved Edward and Julia; the spot beneath the shade of the silvered poplar, where the multitudes gathered on that sad October day to gaze for the last time on his noble form, and which as if in sympathy with the mourning thousands, dropped their leaves silently and gently as the falling tears; that spot where his sacred dust sleeps side by side with kindred who have preceded him to the spirit world—these silvan main to remind us of him, over whose brief mortal mission, and whose loss is still so deeply felt. Let us come the statesman, the patriot and the christian, will count it as one of his chief pleasures to visit this spot—hallowed by its associations with the departed statesman.

A Truly Unfortunate Man.—The Boston Journal says:

The Ericsson experiment is at an end. The Ericsson proceeded to be a failure, and poor Ericsson is a ruined man. He has spent all his fortune in building his caloric ship, and in his experiments with it. He has lost by the enterprise, and more—he has spent all his wife's fortune, which was great, and she, too, is beggared. But the worst of all is, that it has led to unkind reproaches and alienation that they have separated, never to be united again, perhaps. Had he been successful, his name would have been enrolled with that of Franklin, Fulton, Patterson, and other men of illustrious renown. But he has failed; he has lost his all; he has introduced ruin into a once living and happy home; and the world coldly looks on, and says, "I told you so."

The Gaines Case.—Judge Lee, of the second district court, yesterday gave his decision upon the application for a new trial in this case. The trial is refused, on the ground that the knowledge of a witness of the handwriting and signature of an olographic will, by the requirements of our code, should be derived from having often seen the deceased write and sign during his lifetime. The court excludes all witnesses who derive their information from other sources.—N. O. Delta, March 24.

Very Interesting from Japan.—Another interesting letter from Silas E. Burrows appears in the Alta California, which we condense as follows:

While in California Mr. B's commercial business enabled him to obtain various specimens of sculpturing from the natives of Queen Charlotte's Island, in latitude 54 N. The natives take slate rocks from their mountains and sculpture with wonderful polish. He was impressed with the great resemblance of this work to that of Japan, and took with him to Japan some specimens. While in Edo Bay, with the Vice Governor of Uraga, and many of the chief men on board, he had these labors of the sons of Queen Charlotte's Island placed on the table, without a remark being made.

The Japanese, with evidently great surprise (as they had their police regulations so perfect that nothing could come on board the ship without their knowledge,) said, "Where, Mr. Burrows, did you get these Japanese articles?" He replied, "Are these Japanese?" "Certainly they are Japanese articles." Most of the party, and anxiously looked at him to ascertain in what manner they had been brought on board. Mr. B. replied, "It is my business to know, and this alone requires me for coming to Japan, that you recognize these articles to be the workmanship of your family, but the workmen were not born in Japan, but in America." The positions of Queen Charlotte's Island was then pointed out to them on the charts, and when they again examined the sculpturings, they now perfectly recognized they were, all were satisfied that the inhabitants of Queen Charlotte's Island were their descendants.

The noble specimens of the North American Indians, Tecumseh, Logan, Uncas, King Philip, and Pocahontas, were perfect specimens of the Japanese, and were no doubt the same blood and family.

The proof presented, Mr. B. thinks conclusive evidence that the red men of America came from the family of Asia.

Mr. Hooper, the paying teller of the Merchant's Bank in Boston, who recently committed suicide, had his life insured for $10,000, which his family cannot receive, as suicide vitiates the policy.

Great Military Expedition to the Plains.—Four thousand Mules in the Field.—We hear from Washington that orders have been issued for the early march of four thousand troops to the Western Plains, with a view to the chastisement of the Indians, who have, for years past, been engaged in depredations upon the property and the murder of American citizens. It is understood that one thousand two hundred of the troops are now stationed at Fort Laramie; eight hundred at Fort Kearney; six hundred at Fort Riley, and one thousand five hundred on the Upper Missouri. Which of these is to be commanded in this military force, the proper officers have been directed to purchase a year's supply of provisions, and everything necessary for the expedition. Everything indicates an active summer campaign, and the Indians will, it is propable, get enough of fighting and pillaging before the year is over.

Gen. Harney is to be commanded of this expedition. He was at Washington on the 21st, waiting for final orders. Col. Sumner will, it is supposed, have an important command assigned to him.—Missouri Republican.

The Wheat Crop—In the counties of Western Pennsylvania, as far as we have been, there is every appearance of a good ground covered with wheat this year. All accounts concur in representing the growing crop to be in a magnificent condition. No more favorable or very fine prospects have promised than the present one.

A farmer from the southeast part of Vigo county, Indiana, who has about forty acres of wheat coming up, says that the crop in that county is in excellent condition.

In Virginia the wheat crop is reported as looking remarkably well, having sustained no damage by freezing.

Accounts from various parts of the country respecting the prospects of the wheat crop are quite flattering. Where the snow has disappeared in the vicinity, the wheat looks fresh and green, and the general supposition is that the coming harvest will be bountiful. A friend from Tioga county informs us that the wheat fields in his vicinity look better this spring than for many years. About Detroit, and along the line of the Michigan Central Railroad, the crop is reported in a healthy condition. In fact similar accounts come from the whole western country.—[Toledo (Ohio) Blade.

A letter from Franklin county, Mo., dated March 27th, says: Dr. Cox, of Calvy, shot Allen McCreery the other day, and there is no doubt about the fellow being dead. It is reported that a Mr. Chiles killed a negro at the Iron Works on Sunday.—St Louis Repub.

The Germans have produced some very excellent remedies for various diseases. Among which may be specified "Dr. Hoofland's Celebrated Bitters," for sale by C. M. Jackson—and used with remarkable success in Kentucky, Cumberland and Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, and a general derangement of the stomach. The Sunday Dispatch says of this medicine:—

"We feel convinced, that in the use of the German preparation we have a tonic for nervous debilitated, but constantly gains strength and vigor to the frame—a fact worthy of consideration. The Bitters are pleasant to the taste, and may be taken and can be administered under any circumstances, to the most delicate stomach. Indeed they can be used by all persons of ordinary sensibility. It would be well for those who are much affected in the nervous system, to commence with one tea-spoonful in a wineglass of water, and then, if they feel inexperience, and are, of course, a proper judge. The press far and wide, have united in recommending the German Bitters, and the world at all seems cordially advise their use." See advertisement.

MUSICAL TUITION,

Original and Easy Method,

BY CHARLES DONALD.

BY Mr. Donnell's system his pupils of ordinary capacity and taste, and of ages varying from 10 to 60 years, are enabled to taught to play well on the Flute, Violin or Guitar (the latter with singing) within a course of 12 or 14 lessons, but they are enabled, with the aid of the music pages grained thereby, to become immediately and effectually their own self-instructors.

Persons from a distance can advantageously take two or more lessons daily. Mr. D. can refer to his pupils in Maysville as to the extraordinary simplicity and facility of his method. Rooms at the Parker House. April 5, '55—3t*

TO OFFICERS, SOLDIERS, SEAMEN, &c., OF ALL WARS: their Widows & Minor Children.

S. M. KNIGHT, Attorney for Government Claimants,

Washington, D. C.

CONTINUES to give prompt and personal attention to the prosecution of claims of every description against the General Government, and particularly to those before the Treasury Department, Pension and Bounty Land Offices, Patent and General Land Offices, and Board of Claims.

An experience of years, and a familiarity with the manner of conducting the easiest and most favorable action on Claims, with his facilities for the dispatch of business, justify him in assuring his Correspondents in Pennsylvania, and the Public generally, that interests intrusted to his keeping will not be neglected.

Pension, Bounty Land, Land, Patent, and Public Land Laws

He has nearly ready for gratuitous distribution among his business Correspondents, (and those who may become such,) a neat pamphlet containing a synopsis of the existing Pension, Bounty Land, Patent, and Public Land Laws, down to the end of the late Congress—including the under which, who have heretofore received less than 160 acres are now entitled to additional land; said act grants also 160 acres to all Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Musicians, Privates, Wagon Masters, Teamsters, and friendly Indians, of the Army, including state Troops, Volunteers, and Militia, and all Officers, Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, Marines, Clerks, and Landsmen, of the Navy, not heretofore provided for, who have served not less than four times prior (unless in battle) at any period since 1776; and to the widows and minor child en of all such persons entitled, and deceased.

Bounty-Land Act of 3d March, 1855,

This pamphlet contains "Forms of Application" more full and complete than any elsewhere to be found; adapted to the case of every class of Claimants under the Act, with copious decisions and instructions of the Department, and practical suggestions as to the course to be pursued in suspended or rejected cases.

Parties not wishing to be troubled by the receipt of the pamphlet will find it useful by this Office in securing prompt and personal superintendence of their claims at the Department, and will be prepared to pay the above pamphlet by remitting thirty cents in postage stamps.

Inducements to Correspondents.

Correspondents who prefer to send forwarded case for management by this Agency will be dealt with liberally; supplied with all necessary blanks gratis, and kept advised of the progress of the claims; that from time to time occur in the execution of the Trust.

It is within the subscriber's power to direct his Correspondents to the locality of very many persons entitled under the late Act; and having obtained several thousand Land Warrants under former laws, he is in possession of data that will materially assist in securing additional bounty.

Fees, below the usual rate.—and contingent upon the admission of Claims.

The highest cash prices given for Land Warrants, Revolutionary Scrip, and Illinois Land Patents. Address S. M. KNIGHT,

April 1—4tw Washington City.

BY TELEGRAPH.

ONE WEEK LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

Arrival of the Steamer Star of the West. Further from California.

NEW ORLEANS, March 31.

The steamer Daniel Webster, with advices from San Francisco one week later, arrived here last night.

The steamer Star of the West left Nicaragua for New York on the 24th inst., having on board three hundred thousand dollars in specie.

The Kansas Election.

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., March 31.

The returns from Kansas show the election in Bullock, Lawrence, Tecumseh, Douglas, Doniphan, Shawnee Mission, Leavenworth, and Hoody Point Districts, to have gone pro slavery by majorities ranging from two to eight hundred.

The election was conducted with tolerable quietude.

The editor of the Kansas Freeman was ducked in the Kaw river by a mob, in consequence of a speech made.

It is probable no anti-slavery men are elected to the Legislature.

We had a large procession here to-day, to celebrate the victory.

Municipal Elections.

DAYTON, April 2.

The result of the municipal election here to day is very doubtful; the probability is, that portions of candidates of both parties are elected.

COLUMBUS, April 2.

Mr. English, the American candidate for Mayor, is elected by about 88 majority. The balance of the candidates on the ticket is elected, by majorities ranging from one to two hundred.

HAMILTON, O., April 2.

The votes are all counted. The Democratic candidate for Mayor has sixty-eight majority; last March fifty-two. The probability is that the whole Democratic ticket is elected.

NEW RICHMOND, O., April 2.

Sanderson, the Sag Nicht candidate for Mayor, is elected by two majority; and Cooder, K. N., for Councilman, by five majority. The vote for Marshal is a tie. The other officers elected are Know-Nothings.

CLEVELAND, April 3.

Mr. Castle, Know-Nothing candidate for Mayor is elected, by 500 majority over ex Governor Wood, the Democratic candidate.

The Anti Know-Nothings carried the elections in Toledo.

NEW YORK, April 3.

Advices from Hayti to the 14th March, report Coffee very scarce, and selling at one hundred and fifteen dollars per one hundred pounds in currency. It is thought the treaty between the United States and St. Domingo, in its present form, will not be ratified by the Dominican Government.

Advices from Newfoundland say, the fishermen on the St. George's Bank have been unsuccessful since the last gale, and several vessels have not been heard from.

The questions of Judge Loring's removal has been postponed, and will come up for a second hearing before another committee.

A dispatch from Portland, Me., says the brig Rinderes was totally wrecked last night off Cape Elizabeth. The crew escaped.

Mrs. Chroiden, wife of the United States minister at Stockholm, and daughter of Col Seaton, of the National Intelligencer, is dead. She was a lady of remarkable intelligence, and swarm friend of Frederika Bremer.

Know-Nothing Victory in New Orleans.

BALTIMORE, April 2.

By mail we have New Orleans papers as late as due.

In the municipal election in New Orleans, the Know Nothings obtained a complete victory. There were but two Democrats elected.

Perfect good order was preserved throughout the day.

OGDENSBURGH, April 2.

There is a heavy snow storm now prevailing here, accompanied by a strong west wind. The thermometer is standing at ten degree above zero.

NEW YORK, April 3

In the Court of Oyer and Terminer this morning, a motion was made to quash the indictments against Morrissey, Hyler, Irving, and Linn, implicated in the Poole murder, and if the motion is not granted, a motion to admit them to bail will be made. There is some talk of increasing the bail to twenty-five thousand dollars for Irving, who is still at large.

CINCINNATI, April 3.

The Price Current publishes a full statement of the hogs packed in the West, which shows a falling off in number of 349,000 head, and in number and weight equal to 463,000 head. The crop is twenty per cent less than last year, and two and a half per cent heavier than the previous season.

CINCINNATI, April 3.

Commissioner Pendery decided Rosetta free, and she was delived to her guardian. The commissioner decided that having been brought here by the owner, she came under the operation of the Ohio law, and was therefore not a fugitive from slavery.

ELECTION.—It was found that the ballot-box in the Twelfth ward contained fifty five more tickets than names on the poll books. One of the judges insisted on throwing out the entire vote, but others would not agree. While the judges were counting the votes, a body of men entered the room and took the box containing the tickets forcibly from them, and burnt the tickets and tally sheet in the open street.—Thus the votes of the Eleventh and Twelfth wards were disposed of, and the remaining wards give Taylor 477. The American party contend that a large amount of illegal voting has been done. It is reported that Mr. Taylor will not accept the office under the circumstances.

CINCINNATI, April 3—9, P. M.

There is great excitement. The cannon taken from the Germans yesterday by the Americans, was quietly conveyed from the public landing this afternoon by the former. An immense number of people now assembled in the Fifth street market space. They sent a committee for the cannon to the Freeman's Hall over the canal, and have resolved if not delivered forthwith to go and take it. They they will do it necessarily, in which case there will be a serious riot.

CINCINNATI, April 3.—10 P. M.

The excitement is increasing. The Germans refuse to give up the canon.—Fighting has commenced over the canal and it is reported that several were killed. The Germans are mostly well armed and fortified themselves in the houses. The American party are also well prepared. The probability is that matters will be measurably postponed until morning, when it is hoped the feeling may somewhat subside.

Heavy Snow Storm at the East.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 3.

The railway train which left Binghampton yesterday morning, did not arrive here until half past seven o'clock this morning, having encountered heavy snow drifts on the way, in some places twelve to fifteen feet deep.

Horse Race at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, April 2.

The race against time, for a purse of $20,000, resulted in the victory of Lexington, he making the time in 7 minutes and seventeen and three-fourths seconds, over a stretch of four miles.

Arrival of the Star of the West. Further from California.

NEW YORK, April 3.

The steamer Star of the West arrived here at 7 o'clock this evening. She brings 300 passengers, and $2,000 in gold, chiefly consigned as follows: Howard & Co., of Philadelphia, $70,000; Metropolitan Bank, $62,000; J. Cook, Jr. Co., $20,000; Wells, Fargo & Co., $15,000; W. Helfgean & Co., $10,000; and Kent, Palmer & Co., $15,000.

The Star of the West touched at Key West, on the 29th for coal. She had severe gales during the whole passage. She connected with the Sierra Nevada, left San Francisco, on the 9th, and touched San Juan de Sur on the 22nd.

The news by this other possesses little that is interesting. Crops of all kinds continued exceedingly depressed, and money of fairs very stringent. Exchange continued, and the miners were extravagantly hopeful owing to the scarcity of coin, the dust had been bought.

The Kern river diggs were attracting considerable attention, thousands were flocking to that locality, they are represented as the richest yet discovered.

Wells, Fargo & Co., are shipping on as usual, and it was doubtful whether Page, Bacon & Co., would resume. All the other failures were bad ones.

At Sonora the deposits broke open the vault of Adams & Co., and though a committee paid themselves, leaving surplus of $8,000 after satisfying the demand each depositor.

Blake, who the Mayor of San Francisco, for swindling him, was found guilty of murder, but was recommended to mercy.

John Tabor, who killed Sheriff Lodd at San Joaquin, had been pardoned.

All kinds of merchandise is declined; all kinds of liquors had declined twenty-five per cent.

Provisions of all kinds were flat, though prices had not receded as much those of other staples. There is no news importance from the Pacific portion.

It is reported in the San Francisco papers that Alvin Adams will be held for, as a general partner, for the debts of Adams & Co.

Connecticut Election.

HARTFORD April 2.

In twenty towns heard from, Ham, Democratic candidate for Governor, lies all the others. Mr. Minor the Know-Nothing candidate is largely ahead of Dutton the big candidate, and is here a few hun. red ahead of Ingram. It is evident, however, that there will be no Governor elected by the peo.

The Democrats elect twenty-nine and the Know Nothings and Whigs twenty-five members to to the Legislature, as far as heard from. The strong K. N. districts are not heard from. The result of the election in the first Congressional district is doubtful. In the third district, Dean, K. N., and Whig, elected by a large majority. Hartford has elect one Dem. and one K. N., and New Haven two Democrats to the Legislature.

HARTFORD, April 3.

The latest returns indicate that the State goes Anti-Administration, although there will be no election of Governor by the people. In gram apparently still leads, but is hard pressed by Minor.

HARTFORD, April 3—P. M.

The returns are not all in yet, but the result will be nearly as follows: Ingram, (Dem) 27,000; Miner, (K. N) 25,000, and Dutton, (Whig) 9000. The Know Nothings and Whigs elect nineteen out of the twenty-five Senators, and 130 out of the 234 representatives. They have also elected the four Congressmen.

MONTREAL, April 2.

It has been snowing steadily here during the last fifteen hours, and drifting largely, so that the trains are impeded.

Death of Mrs. Cass.

NEW YORK, April 2.

Mrs. Cass, wife of the United States Minister at Rome, Italy, died in that city on the 3d March.

Later from Havana.

NEW YORK, April 3.

The steamer Black Warrior with advices from Havana to the 29th ult., has arrived at this port. Several additional arrests have been made at Havana, among them are Don Carlos, Castillo, the manager of the Bank of Havana, and Don Alcuzas, a wealthy broker; their only crime seems to be having expressed sympathy for Pinto.

Mr. Robertson, the acting United States Consul, is understood, has sent in such a strong protest against the so called trial of Estrampes and Felix, as to induce the Captain General to refer the matter to the Spanish Minister at Washington, before he carries the sentence into execution.

An announcement has been given forth that six companies of colored militia are to be stationed at Havana.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 3.

The election of Mayor to-day resulted in the choice of Mr. Arthur, who is claimed as a Know-Nothing, by 130 majority.

WASHINGTON, April 3

There is some excitement here to-day, in consequence of a report that Col. Lewis L. Taylor, Clerk in the First Auditor's office, and formerly of Mississippi, had forged the name of Jefferson Davis, Secretary of War, to notes amounting to twenty thousand dollars. The notes are in the hands of brokers and money-lenders. Taylor left the city on Sunday night. He was a friend of Mr. Davis, but he will not screen him from the punishment due crime, should he be taken.

BOSTON, April 3.

The trial of Theodore Parker, Wendell Phillips, Higginson and others, came on to day before Judge Curtiss.

They are defended by John P. Hale.

The defence moved that the indictment be quashed on various grounds; one was that the United States Marshal, who summoned the jury, was the party said to have been assaulted, and therefore not an indifferent party in the trial.

PHILADELPHIA, April 3.

A large new glass factory, in progress of construction in New Jersey, was blown down during the gale yesterday, and, sad to relate, twenty-five persons were killed in the ruins. Eight dead bodies have been taken out, and several persons who are seriously injured. Among the killed is the son of Alderman Palmer, of this city.

BUFFALO, April 3d.

Scattering returns from election in Ohio indicate the success of the Prohibitory Law.

PITTSBURGH, April 3—P. M.

The river has risen some, but is again falling, with four feet nine inches water in the channel. Weather clear and cool.

BALTIMORE, April 3.

There have been heavy rains in Savannah and Georgia, causing great joy.

To the Heirs of Officers and Soldiers

—OF THE—

REVOLUTIONARY AND CONTINENTAL WARS.

John S. Gallaher and Jno. R. Gallaher,

(Formerly 2d Auditor of the U. S. Treasury.)

(Attorney for Claimants.)

Todd's Marble Building,

Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON CITY,

Continue to give their usual prompt attention to the prosecution of new claims and of claims against the GENERAL GOVERNMENT. Their familiarity with the general routine of business connected with the several DEPARTMENTS, and the experience they have had in the management of the large number of cases heretofore entrusted to their care, warrants them in tendering their services, with increased confidence, to the very numerous representatives of OFFICERS and SOLDIERS OF THE REVOLUTIONARY AND OTHER WARS, who have become entitled, by acts of Congress, to COMMUTATION, HALF-PAY, PENSIONS, or BOUNTY LAND.

In addition to their experience, they possess much valuable record and documentary evidence appertaining to the numerous classes of claims.

☞FAMILY OFFICERS, SOLDIERS, TEAMSTERS, NAVAL OFFICERS, SEAMEN, MARINES, AND NAVY CLERKS, (or their surviving widows or minor children) who served in the Revolutionary War, War of 1812, Florida, or any of the Indian Wars, for a period of not less than five consecutive days, are entitled to a Land Warrant for 160 acres. Those who have already received their 40 or 80 acre warrants are now entitled to an additional quantity to make theirs equal to 160 acres.

☞NOTE—For obtaining an 80 acre warrant, $5; 120 acres, $8; 160 acres, $10.

☞Regular correspondents who prepare cases and forward them to the above address, for management here, will be dealt with liberally.

☞A COURT OF CLAIMS having been created by Congress, before which all PRIVATE CLAIMS not heretofore provided for by law, are to be presented for adjudication, the undersigned will undertake the management of any cases requiring attention before that court, and devote their best energies to the interests of their clients. They ask no fee in advance, nor do they make any charge for their services (except where previously agreed upon) unless they are successful in obtaining something for those who employ them.

JNO. S. & RO. H. GALLAHER.

N. B. LAND WARRANTS BOUGHT AND SOLD. We buy Land Warrants and Revolutionary Scrip at highest market rates, giving generally higher prices than any other market offered, except those immediately in the vicinity of Land Offices where Warrants are located. The advantage of sending Warrants to Washington is that discrepancies in assignments, which often occur and produce delay, can be rectified, frequently, at the General Land Office.

AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL

For the rapid Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

This remedy is offered to the community with the confidence we feel in an article which seldom fails to merit the happiest effects that can be desired. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of our country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs, by its use. When once tried its superiority over every other medicine of its kind, is too apparent to escape observation, and when its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs, which are incident to our climate.

Nothing has called louder for the earnest inquiry of medical men, than the alarming prevalence and fatality of consumptive complaints, nor has any one class of diseases had more of their investigations and cures. But no yet adequate remedy has been provided, on which the public could depend for protection from attacks upon the respiratory organs, until the introduction of the CHERRY PECTORAL. This article is the product of a long, laborious, and I believe successful endeavor, to furnish the community with such a remedy. Of this last statement the American people are now themselves prepared to judge, and I appeal with confidence to their decision. If there is any dependence to be placed in what men of every class and station certify it has done for them, if we can trust our own senses, when we see dangerous affections of the throat and lungs yield to it, if we can depend on the testimony of intelligent physicians, who make it their business to know—in short, if there is any reliance upon anything, then it is irrefutably proven that this medicine does relieve and does cure the class of diseases it is designed for, beyond any and all others that are known to mankind. If this be true, it cannot be too frequently published, nor be too widely known. The afflicted should know it. A remedy thus cure, is priceless to them. Parents should know it; for children are careless to such a remedy. If, for health can be priced to no one. Not only should it be circulated here, but throughout the world; in this country, but in all countries, where faithfully we have acted on this conviction, shown by the fact that already this article has become a necessity in all the civilized world, and in many nations as to this, it is purchased by the intelligent, in almost all civilized countries. I was extensively employed in the Navy of the United States, Africa, Brazil, and other parts of the sea. Life was dear to me as to others, here, and they, perhaps, more so, yet I have seen even more critically. Nothing cured me, nothing like it, and I am confident, could have prevented my being so good a sailor. But it is not for myself only, but for those who may be, that I speak.

By publishing this remedy, I have no fear of being some good in the world, or of the folly of believing that much has been done.

Let the Afflicted Read!

AN Infallible Remedy for Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Pain in the Side, Back and Limbs, Costiveness, Pain of the Bones and Joints, Dyspepsia, Fever and Ague, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Eruptions in the Skin, Liver Ulcers, Old Sores, Affections of the Throat, Nervous Debility and Nervous Affections of the Bowels and Nothing of the Sores and yet to Eight by using the genuine remedy.

For all diseases of the Blood, this has been found to compare with the Extract of all Impurities, such as Pimples on the Liver and Kidneys, strengthening the Liver, gives tone to the Stomach, makes the Blood healthy, and restores the system to health, enfeebled by disease or broken down by the ravages of youth, or by intemperance or dissipation. For the Ladies, it is invaluable, as it gives the complexion a fair and healthy complexion, brings the young maiden to the bloom of giving elasticity to the step, and improves the health to a degree that is little dreamed of, and seldom or never heard of.

The large number of certificates in the hands of the proprietors, from the most respectable citizens of the United States, is the best evidence that they have of its efficacy. The press, being free, speaks for itself. The proprietors, in offering it to the public and the community, all ask their testimony to the truth of the effects of the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER, which is the Extract of Sarsaparilla, Stillingia, Yellow Dock, and the wonderful cures this unity prepared of all Medicines has performed.
