Editorial Matter.

Thomas F. Hargis at Tilton,

Thomas F. Hargis the Democratic candidate for the State Senate addressed the people of Fleming county on the 7th inst, at Tilton. Our time and space will only permit us to give a brief outline of his remarks on the occasion.

Mr. Hargis said: That he was proud to meet with the good citizens of Tilton and vicinity on the occasion, and to see the ladies manifest an interest in the welfare of the country by lending their presence and influence in behalf of the cause of the Democratic party. That he appeared before the people as the representative of the Democratic party for the office of State Senator against Judge Anderson—That he was there for the purpose of soliciting the votes and support of the white voters and not those of negroes.—That while he would exercise no power to control the negro vote, yet they were free to vote for whomever they pleased, and that if they wished to vote with us we could not prevent it.

THE RADICAL CANDIDATES

He accused with an attempt to evade the great national questions now in issue before the people, and to direct the public mind from them by dilating upon State politics. That some of the candidates profess to approve the acts of the Administration, and laws of Congress, by which there is a wide difference of opinion between the candidates upon the Radical State ticket, upon the subject of national politics. He presented clearly the differences of opinion that existed between Gen. Harlan and other candidates in the radical party, and the policy pursued by the radicals wherever they had the power to act. Upon the subject of the

NEW DEPATURE,

He said, that the radical party dwelt with particular emphasis, in the hope that the national democratic party would be so divided in 1872 as to entirely preclude the possibility of electing a Democratic President. That whatever may be the hopes of radicalism in this particular to alienate, distract and divide the party, he felt well assured that they would be woefully disappointed, and hoped that the entire democratic party would be able to unite upon the great issues that would be involved in the Presidential campaign of 1872, and adopt such a platform as would be acceptable to the people North and South. That he had no fears whatever of the result.

BROWN AND HARLAN,

He said, while now presenting themselves to the people of Kentucky upon the radical State ticket, furnished nothing but a bundle of strange inconsistencies. That Gen. Harlan's former positions were wholly inconsistent and at variance with that accepted by him at present—that his record would sustain the assertion and attest his entire want of sincerity and stability. That when the Government had publicly resloved upon the freedom of the slaves, he (Harlan) was opposed to such a system of robbery at the hands of the government, and denounced it in the most bitter terms, but to day he is not only an advocate of that policy, but goes further by endorsing every act of the radical party upon the subject, and is an advocate of the doctrine of negro equality, socially, morally, and politically. That in 1856 he opposed the general policy of the party, but now he asks for office at the hands of the people upon the same ticket he then opposed; and thus stultifying himself, he comes before the people in this peculiar attitude.

LAW AND ORDER.

Upon this subject he said that the Radicals arrogated to themselves the righteous ot being the party of law and order, and charged that the Democratic party is an organized band of criminals and outlaws, leagued together under the title of a Ku-Klux band for the sole purpose of oppressing the colored race and resisting the execution of those laws which secure to them the rights of citizenship. All such charges he pronounced as false—base falsifications manufactured in the interest of the radical party for the sole purpose of establishing a military power over the Southern States and controlling the State and national elections, and to guarantee the election of a Radical President in 1872. That the accusations are not only charged to be false, but are found to be so upon the testimony of responsible men before the Ku-Klux committee, as well as by the facts which have come under the immediate observation of the people of Kentucky. That the commission of no crime in the State has ever yet been permitted to go unpunished when it was possible to bring the offenders to justice, and that there is no State in the union where the law was more vigorously enforced and criminals punished them in the State of Kentucky.

AMNESTY.

He charged that the radicals to-day come to us with the sugar coated offer of amnesty in palliation for the many political sins they have committed, and an ingenious strategy by which to hoodwink the people, and blind them as to the growing policy of the party. That this has been the incessant cry, as a prelude to the perpetration of some heinous political offense, and the question of amnesty slumbers while the people and the states were being shorn of their power and strength and their resources exhausted, by public plunderers, thieves and robbers. That it was only a deception for the purpose of securing strength—Their policy was strife and contention, as the animos of their political existence, and to serve and assist them in their fiendish designs.

THE SOUTHERN RAILROAD,

he said, was the great "hobby" of the radical party. That his opponent, J. W. Anderson, was excessively lavish upon this subject, and on every occasion, when an opportunity was given him, and the people had the patience to listen, exhausted himself upon this subject. That for himself, he would say that whenever a charter was presented conforming in its provisions with those granted to other like corporations of the State, just, equitable and right in all its parts according to his own views of the case, and his constituents desired, it he would support it; and that during the campaign, neither his competitor or any one else could divert the public mind from the stealings of the radical party by endeavoring to force upon the politics of the state an issue of that character. That it was subordinate to the great issues before the people, and would be treated as such.

COMMON SCHOOLS.

The policy of the Radical party, he said, upon the subject of common schools was clearly indicated by the policy they have pursued during the whole of the Radical administration of national affairs. It is forbidden in all their acts. No man should allow himself to be deceived by them. "All children" as embraced in the Radical platform, means nothing more or less than the entire white and black children of the State.—That are opposed to mixed schools, and the thought the radicals pretend that they propose of tax by the whites for the education of the negroes, yet the meaning of the resolution contained in their platform will admit of no other construction; and when they claim that they are opposed to this charge, they declare as a general principal of their political faith, the doctrine of moral, social, and political equality of all men, without distinction of race, color previous condition of servitude. "Equality before the law" is their "hobby", and to be equal before the law, the law must declare them equal, and all laws to the contrary must be repealed, including the distinction made in the common school law in order to perfect the system of equality. Their pretended opposition is only an evasion. They mean equality and mixture in the common schools, which they intend to be supported by white taxpayers. We should not allow ourselves to be deceived, but act in anticipation of the object they have in view.

ECONOMY

In our State finances is the burden of their song. This subject was reviewed hurriedly, and a forcible exhibit made of the falsity of the charge, and the profligacy of the radical party in the conduct of our national finances, as well as those of the States where radical power is in the ascendency. He vindicated the Democratic party of this State against the charge, and concluded with a vindication of the time honored principles of the democratic party. He said that the radicals charged as with holding fast to the dead carcass of a dead rebellion. He pronounced the accusation as false, and declared that we are in favor of reviving the dead carcass of a dead constitution, with the first purpose of preventing a limited, if not an absolute monarchy.

We only regret that Judge Anderson was not present on the occasion; We are willing to trust our cause to the hands of Judge Hargis in opposition to the Judge, and as they are expected to have several joint discussions, we expect soon to hear of a complete "radical skinning."

Radical and Democratic Expenditures.

The radicals are throughout the State, hypocritically complaining, of the extravagance of the Democratic State administration, and preparatory to this onslaught, they adopted in their platform at Frankfort the following:

"It (the democratic party) has largely increased the public debt, and wasted the public money."

Nothing could come with so bad grace, as this allegation from the radical party. Let the facts and figures show for themselves. The following tabular statement from the Auditors report of 1869, shows the comparative receipt and expenditures of the State government, from 1853 to 1869, to wit:

YEARS.	RECEIPTS.	EXPENDITURES.
10th. Oct. 1853,	$533,451.47	$553,536.21
" " 1856,	473,026.92	458,393.05
" " 1860,	553,358.83	573,482.62
" " 1861,	562,197.77	729,146.47
" " 1862,	559,188.14	507,890.41
" " 1863,	657,797.64	411,165.80
" " 1864,	645,642.49	664,989.26
" " 1865,	710,462.03	757,446.96
" " 1866,	921,378.45	1,172,512.28
" " 1867,	942,558.11	1,245,755.67
" " 1868,	1,045,107.39	1,267,763.67
" " 1869,	985,014.38	1,207,171.55

Here we all see that during a period of thirteen years, the State expenditures have been gradually increasing in proportion to the various demands of the State: and the rates of increase from year to year, is about the same during the whole course of the radical rule of the State, as that since. It, will be seen that during the year 1866, while the radicals had the control of the State, the increase of expenditures for one year amounted to three hundred and sixty-five thousand, and sixty-five dollars, and seventy six cents, while, during the year ending Oct. 10th., 1869, under a democratic administration, the expenditures were decreased sixty thousand, five hundred and eighty six dollars, and thirty one cents. By the same statement we find the following comparative deficiences, to wit:

10th. Oct., 1864, ...	$ 39,326.80
" " 1865, ...	46,983.46
" " 1866, ...	205,133.77
" " 1867, ...	301,209.56,
" " 1868, ...	218,656.28
" " 1869, ...	222,162.98.

Hence also, it will be seen that during the year ending Oct. the 10th 1867; the last year of radical rule, there was a dificiency in the Treasury of three hundred and one thousand, two hundred dollars and fifty six cents, while during the year ending Oct. 10th, 1869, they diminished to two hundred and twenty two thousand, one hundred and ninety-eight cents, making a reduction under a Democratic administration, of seventy eight thousand and thirty seven dollars, fifty eight cents. $(78,037.58.) This exhibit clearly shows who is responsible for squandering the public money and the falsity of the allegation.

We next propose to show, from an official statement of the Auditor, the facts as they exist upon the subject of the public debt. By this statement made June, 12th, 1871, it is shown that the total amount of the State debt at the time the Democrats took charge of the State government, amounted to, $4,630,988,73: Amount paid since, to May 1871, $1,767,498,00 leaving a balance of $2,863,490,73.

Thus, it will be observed, that the radical party who clamor loudly in favor of financial reform in the administration of the State government, had at the expiration of their term plunged the State into a debt of $4,630,988,73, and that Democrats, during their one term of office, have reduced the same to $2,863,490,73; and yet with an air of sincerity that would put the devil to the blush, they in State convention arraign the Democratic party for having "largely increased the public debt;" and so go before the people with the utterance upon their lips. With the same ratio of increase, together with the growing prosperity of radicalism to rob the people in every State over which they have control, no doubt they would have increased the public debt to at least ten millions of dollars, and have the people groaning under burdensome taxation to meet the demands of their extravagance.

In order that we may be able to form some idea of what the State debt would have been, had the radicals controled it since 1867 to the present time, we propose to make the following exhibit of the debts of those of the Southern States under their sway since 1865. To day, the public debt of North Carolina is ($19,000,00) nineteen millions; Georgia, forty millions; ($40,000,000) Florida, five millions; $5,000,000,) South Carolina, nearly twenty millions; ($20,-000,000,) Louisiana; increased from six millions; ($6,000,000) to $362, to twenty seven millions; ($27,000,000) Arkansas, five millions; $5,000,000,) Mississippi, eight millions; ($8,000,000,) Texas, seven millions; ($7,000,000,) Alabama, five millions; ($5,000,000,) Virginia, thirty three millions; ($33,000,000,) and Tennessee, thirty five millions; ($35,000,000,) making an aggregate in those States, "as alone of one hundred millions, of dollars," imposed upon the people by radical scalawags, negroes, and carpet-baggers. People of Kentucky trust them not. Once in, by get control of the State government, they will fasten upon you a debt equal to those enumerated, and grind you down beneath the weight of an enormous system of taxation. This arraignment against the Democratic party is only for the purpose of securing power alone.

A Heaven for Rich and Poor.

The popular ministers who stand on elaborately-carved and polished pulpits, to deliver Sabbath after Sabbath, in graceful style and modulated tones, carefully prepared sermons, embellished with exquisite fancies and beautiful metaphor—

Who for rhetoric care scarcely one
Their mouths but out there flies a trope, for the edification of the most fashionable congregations before them, seated on velvet cushions, on rosewood pews, would resent as impertinent the suggestion that their religion is not for the poor, and their Heaven with its golden streets, jasper walls and seraphic joys, is a soul resting place reserved exclusively for the aristocratic and wealthy, whose portals never roll back to admit the purified spirits of the redeemed spirits of those, who on earth toiled with their own hands to gain a scant livelihood.

As we remarked some time ago, when writing on a kindred subject, poor persons wearing well-worn and patched garments, who, presuming on a welcome because it is a house dedicated to the living God, should enter one of those gorgeously furnished temples, may be pointed to a back seat by a self conceited sexton, but no kindly faces, beaming with love and charity are turned on them, and no open hand affectionately lead them to favorable places—finde stares, ill-concealed sneers and laughter and frowns meet them at every step, and the mortified, disappointed seekers for the solace of religion, who entered with souls glowing with holy fervor, turn away from the gilded sanctuary and its frigid atmosphere, grieved and wounded, finding comfort only in the reflection that the Jesus whom they sought to worship, is no respecter of persons.

Now, such ministers and congregations are not naturally cold-hearted, selfish and indifferent to the feelings and wants of others, and if some one of the large cities public attention was directed to a particular instance of this neglect, preacher and people would at once seek out the poor person and by excessive attention make up for their short-comings. The children of poverty would be loudly and publicly invited to the church and the best seats and utmost politeness shown them, probably.

But this kindness and considerateness would prove to be spasmodic and short lived, for the influences surrounding them are unfavorable to the existence of sincere, fervent piety; lending an artificial life, regarding wealth as above everything else and fashionable society power not to be offended, those who move in this charmed circle, gradually become selfish and cold, indifferent to everything save their own pleasure and importance, and when the heart is deadened to warm and generous feeling, religion ceases to be a vital, animating principle, and is practiced as a mere form, because it is customary and is expected of them.

Is not this the religion found in many of the so called fashionable churches of our day? There are duties to God and to our neighbor. Are the lowly and needy visited so frequently in their humble homes as the wealthy members in palatial mansions, who contribute largely to the church? Are the unfortunate and suffering regularly sought out and their necessities supplied? Are the ministers with princely salaries and their healthy members, found often at the work-shops, the factories and fields, conversing with their toiling brethren, cheering and strengthening them.

Oh! no. The paths are as widely apart as the poles, that are pursued by the two classes mentioned. One is through flowery fields where nothing rough or unpleasant is ever met—the other is narrow and toilsome and difficult to follow. Can they both lead to Heaven? The elegant and accomplished minister who points the way to his Heaven, and with dramatic air and persuasive accents, tells his hearers of the beatitudes of that bright abode, has only pleasing assurances for his congregation. He considerately avoids the Divine threatenings and denunciations against pride, deceit, extortion, intemperance and other sins, for fear of wounding the sensibilities of those who

Public Speaking.

Hon. John G. Carlisle, Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor will address the people of Fleming county, at the Court House in Flemingsburg, on Tuesday, August the 1st, 1871, at 2 o'clock P. M.

A Word to our Irish Friends.

We would simply ask our Irish and German friends, to whom have you ever looked for political favor? What party has contributed its greatest efforts in your behalf? Who has legislated in your favor, and protected you in the enjoyment of the rights of freemen, and of citizenship? There is but one answer to these questions—The Democratic party. When they recognized the fact that the United States was an asylum for the down-trodden and oppressed of all nations they opened the doors to foreign emigration, and invited the struggling and toiling millions of all nations to our shores, and, in the spirit of hospitality and generous kindness, offered them homes and protection under the laws and institutions of our country, and gave them the rights and privileges of freemen and citizens. The names of Lafayette, Steuben, Pulaski, and a host of others, whose lives and fortunes were devoted to the cause of American Independence, were not forgotten when the smoke of battle had cleared away, and liberty and peace secured to the people. As faithful adherents to that fundamental principle that under lies the constitutional theory of our government, that all men had the right to worship God according to the dictates of their own concience, and that "Congress shall pass no law respecting an establishing of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press," the Democratic party has tolerated and protected alike all religious denominations and sects, be they Catholic, Protestant or Hebrew. These facts are too well known to you all, to admit of, or require a minute examination in detail. Every attempt to abridge the rights and privilieges thus conferred upon you, the democratic party has promptly met with a most determined resistance, and has succeeded to this moment in securing to you the liberties and rights you enjoy, despite the opposition of those, whose purpose it has ever been to exclude you from the ballot box, or impose upon you such conditions as would virtually exclude you from the rights of citizenship.

It has not been so with the radical party. They have used every effort in their power to deprive you of these rights conferred upon you by the Democratic party. In their effort to disfranchise you, they have discriminated against you and in favor of the negro. They have considered the negro more competent to vote—hold office, and exercise all the other privileges of a citizen, though just set free from slavery, and destitute of knowledge intelligence or understanding. They have sought by an act of Congress to prohibit you of the right of procuring your naturalization papers of our Circuit and County Courts as provided by law, and endeavored to force you to a United States tribunal, where they could have the power to refuse your request if it did not suit their political purposes. They have proposed the passage of a law by the provisions of which every foreigner, no matter how intelligent, well educated, or acquainted with the nature and character of our institutions he may be, must pass his application for citizenship, through a series of "red tape" before he can ever secure his papers, or have the right to vote. They propose that every foreigner, who might offer to vote, though he should come to the polls with his certificate of naturalization in his hands, the highest and only authority he could have for offering to vote, might be challenged at the polls, and his right to vote contested upon the grounds that his certificate is false, forged, or fraudulent, until the contrary could be shown by the proper witnesses. If those witnesses are not immediately at hand, which they seldom ever are, you are deprived the right to vote, and liable to be dragged before the United States Court or any other court before he can be allowed to vote? Do they impose heavy fines and imprisonment upon him for casting or attempting to cast an illegal vote? Do they allow any person, either white or black, no matter how well acquainted with the facts in the case, to swear that the negro right to vote? Do they require him to become acquainted with our laws and institutions before he can cast a vote? In one, do they impose upon him any of the restrictions they offer to impose upon you? Not one of them! So far are they from it, that they make every negro in the land, who has arrived at the age of twenty-one years, a citizen, clothed with every right and privileges that belongs to citizenship, by fraudulently and forcibly thrusting upon the people of the United States the Fifteenth Amendment; and to protect him in the exercise of his rights as a citizen, a law is passed enforcing this amendment, which prohibits even the right of any man to contest the right of the negro to vote, under the penalty of being arrested under the charge of interfering with his right to vote, dragged off to Louisville before the United States Court, where, by perjury, upon the introduction of negro testimony against you, you are either fined a sum not less than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned for a term of years not less than one month nor more than one year.

Hence the summary of all this is that the negro is made a citizen at once, you are prohibited that right until you have resided in the States for a term of years. The negro is made a citizen by a constitutional amendment; you can only be made a citizen by the plan proposed by the radicals, by filling your declaration before the United States Court or some other tribunal created by Congress for that special purpose. The negro can go to the polls and vote without a certificate, and no man dares to question his right to do so under the risk of incuring a penalty of fine and imprisonment, you are to be only allowed a vote upon presentation of your certificate of naturalization, and even then, no matter how genuine it may be, the meanest, blackest, ugliest and most ignorant negro in the State of Kentucky has the right to challenge your vote upon the false allegation that your certificate is fraudulent, deprive you of the right to vote until it can be proven to be genuine, and finally subject you to fine and imprisonment. Now it is evident that Mr. Regan endorses this policy of the radical party by acting with them and consenting to run as a candidate upon their ticket. He virtually says that the negro is better qualified to vote at once, no matter how ignorant, uneducated, unintelligent or how recently emancipated from slavery, than you are, though you may have been educated in the best schools in France, England, or Germany, thoroughly acquainted with every principle pertaining to political economy and warmly attached to our American institutions. He virtually recognizes the superiority of the negro over you and the rest of the white race, including himself, and proposes to give him the benefit and protection of laws that he denies to you. We sincerely hope that you will give this matter your careful consideration and act accordingly. We propose in our next issue to support the declarations we have made in this article by reproducing the most prominent features of the act proposed by the radicals for the amendment of the naturalization laws, and those of the act enforcing the Fifteenth amendment.

☞ We would respectfully inform the gentlemen who preside over the editorial department of the Louisville Commercial that there were no negroes at the Democratic State Convention in the capacity of delegates, its say so to the contrary notwithstanding.

Hon. Jno. G. Carlisle.

On last Saturday evening at the Court House in Maysville we had the pleasure of hearing the Hon. Jno G. Carlisle address the citizens of Mason county on the political issues involved in the gubanatorial canvass. The house was well crowded, and his speech was clear, pointed and argumentative, and decidedly an able effort. He reviewed all the important issues involved in the canvass and dealt with them in a manner that could not fail to produce the most favorable effect. Radicalism was shown up in its true light and the corruptions and machinations of the party were exposed in the most forcible manner. We regret that our space will not permit us to give at least a brief outline of his remarks. We are authorized, however, by him to say that he has withdrawn his appointment published for Warsaw on Tuesday August the 1st, and that he will address the citizens of Fleming county, at the Court House in Flemingsburg on that day. Thus a fine opportunity will be offered to all who desire to hear a strong and forcible exposition of the present state of political affairs, to be present. Democrats, come one—come all; It will be truly a Democratic feast, that will strengthen you all in the true faith. Mr. Carlisle is a forcible and logical speaker, dealing less with flights of oratorical fancy, than in sound arguments and facts. Being well informed in the political history of the radical party, he exposes it in a manner that should, if it were possible, put radicalism to the blush, and nerve every patriotic heart with the determination to hurl it from power and restore again the ancient liberties of the people.

Catholics, Attention!!

But a short time since, when the negro had been placed under the special guardianship of the radical party, a negro at the city of Frankfort attempted to commit a most infamous and unpardonable outrage known to our laws upon the person of a little Irish girl about twelve years of age, and in order to escape detection and the vigilance and penalty of the law, cast her over a high and steep precipice, that she might fall dead upon the railroad track, when all suspicion of him would be removed and her misfortune attributed to the want of vigilance upon the part of the railroad engineer. Having caught however by her clothing in the branches of a tree, she was discovered and extricated before she died. She communicated the outrage, and upon the guilty fiend being brought before her she recognised him. He was at once committed to jail to answer for the double offense. As is perfectly natural under such circumstances, the entire population, and especially the Irish, became so indignant at this outrage, and assembled, took the negro from the jail and hung him at once. In the hope that the fury of the mob might be assuaged, and their purpose relinquished, Father Young of the Catholic Church was called upon to go among the enraged multitude and use his efforts to induce them from executing their purpose of hanging the negro. He did so, but to no purpose.—The negro was hung.—The radical authorities and special guardians of such wretchedness as this negro, undertook to arrest and bring to trial all those who might be implicated in the matter. That they might ascertain by testimony who the parties were, Father Young was called upon to testify.—All the information he had, being that acquired in the Church Confessional, he refused to testify, or give the desired information.—As a punishment for this refusal under the pretense of contempt of Court, he was committed to prison by the United States officers and there held.

Now, it will be remembered that all communications and facts made known in the confessional are held sacredly inviolate in the breast of the minister receiving them. This every Catholic in the land understands equally as well or better, then we. Yet Father Young, a minister of high and respectable standing, was called upon to violate one of the most sacred obligations of the Priestly office, in order to avenge the punishment and death of this negro fiend in human form. The entire radical party to whom Mr. Regan does now, and did then belong, and the principles of which he is to represent, approved and justified the arrest, and imprisonment of Father Young. Catholics, what claim can he have upon your votes, who would represent and approve of the action of such a party? Study this matter well—reflect upon it—and then cast your vote solid as heretofore for the Democratic ticket.

☞ Voters, remember that John M. Harlan the Radical candidate for Governor said in a speech in 1866, that:

"If the American people continue the Radical party in power, they would do so at their peril;" "for," said he, "it is impossible for the leaders of that party to subvert our civil institutions and centralize the Government.

We now find the aforesaid John canvassing the State for the office of Governor, wishing to be elected that he may aid in this most infamous centralization business.

Unconditional Obligations.

There is a disposition upon the part of mankind, usually, when they have committed a great public wrong, for which posterity will hold them responsible, to shuffle that responsibility off upon the shoulders of some other, or seek to secure an endorsement of their infamous conduct, by forcing an unconditional acquiescence upon the people, who, otherwise, would condemn it. It is thus they would cloak their iniquity under the garb of a public endorsement, and justify the wrongs they inflict upon posterity by a reference to such public approbation. Such has been the policy pursued by the so called friends of progress, during the last ten years. Having brought on a terrible and most sanguinary civil war for the ostensible purpose of affording a plausible pretext, for the abolition of American slavery, robbing and pillaging the Southern States, and transferring their wealth to the hands of Northern capitalists and neutralizing the weight of their political influence, they maintained that the test of loyalty should be an unconditional adherence to the Union cause. This being once subscribed to, and enforced upon the people by reason of the force of public surroundings, unlimited license was at once given to carry into successful operation the diabolical schemes that had long been planned by the long faced, hypocritical, sentimentality of New England fanaticism. This being done, the next step is to secure, in the absence of the pretended necessities of war, a plan by which the ultimatum may be reached by what might appear to the world as legal and constitutional authority. To this end, the 13th, 14th, and 15th amendments to the Federal constitution were thrust upon the people by force and fraud, in total disregard of the means provided by that constitution for the purpose of such amendments are too well known to the country to require an analytical discussion now. Suffice it to say, they were conceived in sin and brought forth in iniquity; and the stamp of fraud and perjury is indelibly fixed upon them; And now, that it becomes necessary to be relieved of the great responsibility attached to the perpetration of such gross and palpable frauds practiced upon the people, and that the truth of history may justify them in the eyes of an outraged posterity, and perpetuate them under the apparent sanction of public approval, it is sought to force from the people an unconditional endorsement of their validity, and a recognition of their legal and constitutional passage. To subscribe unconditionally to any principle, measure, policy or purpose, which has for its object a view which may be controled by the current of future events, and effect either for good or evil the best interests, of not only ourselves, but those who are to follow us, is downright fanaticism, and should have no toleration in the conservative mind. The tyrant, who may desire to exercise the "Divine right of Kings" under the ancient regime, could desire no better authority than an unconditional acknowledgment of the fact by his subjects that, "The King can do no wrong."

Then how fares it with us to-day? We are asked to subscribe unconditionally to the validity of a stupendous fraud, and fasten upon ourselves and posterity the amendments to the constitution, and put them beyond the pale of modification or repeal, The true theory of republicanism is to subscribe unconditionally to nothing. All matters of legislation are in the hands of the people, subject to modification or repeal. The power that makes can unmake. We have a right to fasten our fangs upon the vitals of posterity, and entail upon them an evil from which they may have no power to extricate themselves. All human enactments, when expressed by the voice of a republican majority, are conditional in their character, and liable to be modified or repealed, in proportion as they may be instrumental for good or evil results. Such exaction were never known to our people until the accession of radical power. Obedience to the constitution and laws is all that has ever been required; to change either, or both, in the legitimate way, has always been one of the vested rights of the people. These rights they should preserve if they would be free.

☞ We would call the attention of the Flemingsburg Democrat to the following from its Democratic contemporary, the Mount Sterling Sentinel. It says:

There is not a Democrat in all Kentucky, who, if the choice had to be made a respectable negro and a mean white man, WOULD HESITATE TO VOTE FOR THE NEGRO."

Is the editor of the Democrat an exception?—Lex. Statesman.

For the special benefit of the Statesman we would say, that is a matter easily decided. If we were compelled to make a choice between an honest and respectable negro, and a mean radical white man, we have no doubt we would join hands with the Mt. Sterling Sentinel. We would stake the whole of it upon the question of honor and respectability, upon the same principle that we would choose the least of two evils. Senator Revels is guilty of less malignity, meanness, base and corrupt motives, than many of his party associates in the United States Senate, who have so basely perjured themselves in their efforts, to subvert our constitutional form of government, and reduce it to a centralized military despotism. The Statesman, however need give itself no uneasiness upon this subject since we are determined at all times to support the nominees of the Democratic party, and hence will never be reduced to the necessity of making such a choice, as we always expect to be able to have upon our ticket a better man than either. Now, as "one good turn deserves another," will the editor of the Statesman please be kind enough to tell us.

First, whether all things else being equal, in the event that a negro should offer himself before a Republican State Convention as a candidate for nomination for Governor of Kentucky, will he support the negro or the white man?

Secondly, is he in favor of an equal and impartial distribution of Federal State and county offices between the negroes and the white men?

Now Gal fair, and no evasion. In advance we answer negatively, belonging as we do to the white race, whose interest we regard as of the first importance.

☞ Read the article on finance on our first page.

☞ We call the attention of our readers to our editorial matter on our first page.

☞ Let us hear all about the female woman next Monday.

Letter From an Irish Catholic.

We hope every Irishman in this county will read the following letter before he votes for David Regan for the Legislature. It is from the pen of a sensible gentleman, an Irishman and a member of the Roman Catholic Church and it is addressed particularly to the good sense of the Irish people of this county, in the hope that they will give it a careful reading and ponder its contents.

FLEMING CO., KY.,
July, 11th 1871.

To the Editor of Flemingsburg Democrat:

DEAR SIR.—Permit me through the columns of your paper to say a few words to my fellow-citizens touching the recent Republican nomination of a candidate for the legislature. Since the selection of Mr. David Regan, I have heard, and been asked the question repeatedly by both Republicans and Democrats, "Will you vote for Mr. Regan, on religious grounds?" For my part, I have invariably answered in the negative and will now proceed to give some of my reasons for such an answer. In the first place, of what is the Radical party of 1871 composed? A hotchpotch of pieces, brush it up, and assort it, and you will be compelled to place the component parts in two lots, namely, disaffected fragments of defeated political parties and Agnosthings. My friends, have you in your memory, the recollection of any political favors done you by the latter? I, for one, cannot say, yes, and I think the majority of you will answer in the same way. The foundation of the Radical party to-day is known nothingism, with a very few particles of defunct parties to the back cracks. In the second place, with what object did the convention nominate Mr. Regan? I think it was two fold. Firstly, that the republican political rams were heartily tired of butting against legislative hall doors, and, secondly, by leading up an inexperienced Irish catholic lamb, they can either stand by serenely, and see him receive his death blow, or rejoice in having, by the force of Catholic votes, compelled the pondrous and obstinate doors to fly open before him. Think you, my friends, that it was an unbounded love for Mr. Regan, coupled with a desire to crown him with the equivocal honors of a modern s-l-p, that induced those gentlemen to confer this mark of esteem on my fellow country man? Not a bit of it. The object was, simply what has been above stated—neither greater nor less. Had the office been one which returns a fine income, how long do you suppose Mr. Regan (granting that the gentleman is in every way qualified—which I do not guess), would have been allowed to wait for the honor of a nomination? If you are not good at figures, I'll tell you—Until he could count the whiteness of hair on the State of Kentucky. No! There are too many expectants for such, "native to the manor born." Glance the whole country over and tell me if the same rule does not work—and with equal force but just that way, and no other. The ratio of Catholic Office holders in the United States, is not as one to one hundred. And what can be urged in favor of such a state of things? Is it that the Catholic lacks brains? The records in every department of learning, and literature, disprove it. Is it that they are, as a religious community, not loyal? The records in the department of State, from the time of Washington down to the last of our civil war, amply disprove it. Is it that they are not honest? This is the weakest, and last of all, for catholic honesty is almost a proverb in the United States. But when the late war was threatening the very heart of our country, the Irish were all shilly boys with glass eyes," no post of danger, (shal) too honorable (?) too dam to fill. Are we too coffee too strong, nor too hot—no flags too fine, nor too long; no fifes too shrill, nor drums too loud; and I might add, no eyes too bright, nor handkerchiefs too costly, to add in stirring music, to natives only too susceptible of being lead away by such powerful aids to patriotism. And what has been the result of all this? The result has been, that "private" O'Brien of the 19th, car, "Corporal" O'Toole, of the 195th, V. I. "shrewd" Capt. O'Shaughnessy, of the "Irish Tigers," will be left blind and left their families in want and distress, to enable the Zeke Boggs' formerly of the Sanitary commission, and now of the Radical Pa-a-rty, to ride in the turnouts, spend their summers at Saratoga or Cape May, and when election day rolls round, smilingly condescend to receive the respective votes of those two named individuals. If you, Mr. Regan may be in every respect, a model citizen, husband, father, and all the rest of it, but you ought even in justic to him, to teach him these things, than to allow himself to be used by his party wire-pullers, for the double purpose, of being condemned to political death, and of alluring his religious associates into the camp of the enemy. Supposing that by the device proposed, Mr. Regan is allowed to use this as the stepping stone to greater honors, during the long winter legislature, will he represent the sentiments of catholic democrats? who labored towards his election, certainly not; being an honest man, he cannot serve two masters; He will vote as called upon, make a speech when the opportunity comes, or duty requires, that done, Mr. Regan will withdraw within himself and quietly wait the development by some such name as, the serio comic Republico-democratic nominee of Fleming county.

YOURS RELAGIO.

☞ We have denied that Arnold Robertson ever made use of the language attributed to him by radical falsifiers. Those reports are still circulated. We are authorized by Mr. Robertson to state that he never was in favor of any property qualification to vote, and that he never made use of language to that effect. We hope now that Mr. Regan and his friends will either prize up or shut up.

☞ Remember the speaking next Monday. Go and hear the young champion of Democracy Judge T. P. Hargis.

A Solemn Warning.

General John M. Harlan, the Radical candidate for Governor in the course of a public speech delivered, in 1866 took occasion to utter the following sentiment which is true:

"If the American people continue the Radical party in power, they will do so at their peril, for it is the avowed purpose of the leaders of that party TO SUBVERT OUR CIVIL INSTITUTIONS and CENTRALIZE THE GOVERNMENT."

To-day this same General Harlan is in open fellowship with, this very party of which he spoke so truthfully in 1866.

Colonel J. K. Milward, in an address to the negroes at Lexington, the other night, is reported as having said: "If any one pushes you, push him back; if any one strike you, strike him back; and if any one asks you to vote for a Democrat knock him down."

Death of Major Squire Turner.

Madison county has lost one of its oldest and most highly respected citizens in the death of the venerable Squire Turner, who died on the 7th inst., in the 78th year of his age. About a year ago, when we saw him here last attending the Court of Appeals, every one was commenting upon his physical vigor, but shortly after he was stricken with paralysis of the lower portion of the body, and from that time confined to his room, physically a wreck, but with his mind in perfect health. Of the details of Major Turner's life we know comparatively little, save that he was a native of Madison county, and has always been prominent as a lawyer and politician. He was a man of very positive traits of character, strong in his convictions and earnest in the advocacy of his views upon all subjects. In politics he was a Democrat of the strictest school, and kept up an active interest in the party to his very last days, having only resigned his position as Chairman of the Madison Executive Committee a day or two before his death. Among the positions of honor he enjoyed was that of member of the Constitutional Convention of 1850, in which he took a prominent part. Though closing life after having passed beyond the allot ted span, his loss will be deeply felt by a large circle of friends and relatives —Frankfort Yeoman.

HO! FOR CAMPAIGN OF 1871.—It has been about five years since the close of our late civil war and things are now settling down on a peace basis. All articles of merchandise are approaching the old anti-war prices and Andrew T. Cox, has embarked in the grocery campaign for 1871, in the City of Maysville. See his advertisement elsewhere.

OUR PLATFORM.

The Democratic party of Kentucky in Convention assembled, reaffirming the principles announced by the Conventions held since the war, do now resolve:

1. That wise statesmanship and true patriotism require universal and unqualified amnesty.

2. That the industries of the country demand the abolition of the present mode of raising the revenue, by which portions of the Republic are oppressed and robbed to enrich monopolies and certain sections, and the speedy adoption of a system by which the burdens of taxation will be fairly and justly distributed, and the taxes equally paid may reach the Treasury.

3. That the preservation of liberty is possible only through the States; and we protest a gainst every act by which the States are deprived of their just and constitutional powers, and State tribunals ousted of their proper and necessary jurisdiction; and we are ready to join in all lawful and constitutional efforts to arrest the tyrannical acts of the party in power, whenever it is sought to strip the States of all rights, and concentrate all the powers of government in a great centralized despotism.

4. We endorse the address recently issued by the Democratic members of Congress, and we do emphatically declare that all such unconstitutional and despotic powers are conferred upon the President, by which, with the use of the army and navy, the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, the power to declare martial law, and call out the militia, and invade the States without the request of their Executives or Legislatures, and other undefined powers he can destroy the rights of elections, the independence of the judiciary and the sovereignty of the States.

5. We denounce the recently oppressive and severe form of taxing stamps, whether committed under the cover of unconstitutional enactments or, by regarded laws; and we pledge ourselves, as occasion may arise, to use every legal means to prevent the one, and to have enacted such laws as may be necessary to repeal the latter, and secure to every person ample protection of life, liberty and property under laws enacted by our own Legislature, and administered by our own Courts.

History of the War in Europe.

The National Publishing Co., of Cincinnati, has just issued a very valuable history of the late War between Germany and France, from the pen of one of our most popular writers, Mr. James D. McCabe, Jr.

In a large volume of 800 octavo pages, the author tells a wonderful story—all the strange vicissitudes of its truth. He tells of battles which have shaken Europe to its centre, and the consequences of which, even, now, of the Western World must feel, of patriotism, heroism, military skill and statesmanship never surpassed in history. The author writes with the pathos and force of a Macaulay. Both the merits of his book are its reliability and strict impartiality.

The book is complete in every particular. It describes the causes of the war, and the events which preceded it, the opening campaign, and the first success of the French, the effect of these reverses upon the French people, the frantic efforts to rescue the beaten army, and the terrible disaster of Sedan, the capture of the Emperor Napoleon, and an empire, the rising of the Revolution in Paris, the rise and formation of the Republic, the flight of the Empress from Paris, the seige and surrender of Strasbourg and the Fortresses of France, the triumphal advance of the German armies to Paris, the efforts of Bazaine to escape from Metz, and the final surrender of his army, the investment and siege of Paris, the darkest history of this great siege, the famine, the battles, massacres and fatalities, the course of events in the beleaguered city, leading to the fall of Paris, the raising of the siege, the campaigns on the Loire, and in other portions of France, the plots, negotiations, the struggles of Thiers and the Commune, the naval history of the war, the diplomatic history of both the German and French sides, the history of the Commune, the Republican side, the history of the secession of the great Germany, Prussia, the proclamation of King William, the formation and realization of German unity, the events of the civil war and seer of Paris, the first Republican, the Commune shot and cried down, with a minuscious, graphic, incisive and brilliancy, which leaves nothing to be desired. No intelligent person can afford to be ignorant of these events which have left so deep an impression on the world, and which, we fear, will fail to read, this splendid work; or, having read it, to endorse it as the Standard American History of the War.

In the matter of embellishment, we can not too highly commend this brilliant and thoroughly attractive to a reader. The book is handsomely bound, and illustrated with two maps, portraits, battle scenes, and views of the principal localities connected with the war. No expense has been spared by the publishers to make it worthy of the support of the public, and we predict for it an immense sale, especially as its low price brings it within the reach of all. It is published in both English and German, sold by subscription only, and the publishers want agents in every county.

Special Notices.

A Few Words to the Ladies.

Many ladies, particularly mothers nursing, complain of a tired, listless feeling, or complete exhaustion, on arising in the morning. On the wife and mother devolves the responsibility of regulating the duties of the household. Her cares are numerous, and she needs to be well at her physical powers, to frequently called into requisition. She often finds her slightest occupation a weary task and existence a burden, while at the same time she has no regular disease. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters prepared to do this period will prove an unfailing remedy for this annoying hindrance. The effects of this potent agent are soon seen in the rosy cheek and elastic step of the head of the family, as with tempered bodily and renewed spirits she takes her accustomed place in the family circle. If this remedy is used by regularly used, those depressing symptoms will never be complained of, and not only would latitude not be experienced, but many diseases following in its wake be avoided. As a medical agent it has no equal, while its pleasing flavor and healthful effects have made it a general favorite. It is free from all properties calculated to impair the system, and its operations are mild, mild, soothing and efficient. All who have used the Bitters attest its virtues and commend it to use.

CONSUMPTION,
Its Cure and Its Preventive,
BY J. H. SCHENCK, M. D.

MANY a human being has passed away, for whom it was evident there was no other reason than the neglect of some and indisputably known means of cure. These means are simply fresh air, healthy food, exercise, and the treasures of sunlight and warmth, and sleeping the dreamless sleep that knows no waking but the morning.

DR. JOSEPH H. SCHENCK'S SIMPLE TREATMENT, and actual demonstration of his wonderful efficacious medicines, they would not have fallen.

Dr. Schenck has in his own case proved that whatever disease, whether consumption, liver complaint, or dyspepsia, and the directions for their use, is within reach, and invariably cures.

In this statement there is nothing presumptuous. To the health of the invalid is held in his hands, and he is not a thousand times subjugated by living and visible proofs. The theory of the cure by Dr. Schenck's medicines is as simple as it is startling. Its philosophy is based on arguments, and its practical results are astonishing.

The seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are the first agents with which the vitality of the patient is assailed. Two-thirds of the cases of consumption originate in dyspepsia, and the remaining third in liver complaint. With this condition the bronchial tubes "sympathize" and become affected. They respond to the secretion of the liver. Here then comes the culmination of the disease and the setting in of those distressing symptoms, of

CONSUMPTION,

The Mandrake Pills are composed, of one of Nature's best pills—the Podophyllin—which, while it acts upon all the blood—searching, alter—the properties of calomel, without its mercurial effects.

"LEAVE NO STING BEHIND."

The work of cure is now beginning. The vitalized and purified blood, in the bowels and in the alimentary canal is ejected. The liver, like a clock, is wound up. Its pores from its torpidity, begin to secrete healthy secretions, and the patient begins to feel that he is getting, at last, well.

A SUPPLY OF GOOD BLOOD, to hasten and complete the cure. It enters at once upon the work of its mission, and in the blood. It valvule lungs expands the impaired and diseased portions of the lungs in the form of a cobweb, the organic lines be thrown out, and, for all a very short time the malady is vanquished, the system throw that it occupied is renovated and made new, and the patient, in all the dignity of regained vigor, sprie forth to enjoy the manhood or the womanhood that was.

Pulmonic Syrup comes in to perform its functions and by an indulgent father to suffering man. Schenck's The Seaweed Tonic, in conjunction with the Pills, permeatesand assimilates with the food Chylification is now proceeding without its proper functions. Dyspepsia becomes phlegmatic, and the cure is seen to be at hand. There is a wonderful feeling, an exaltation of the spirits, and an appetite sets in.

Now comes the greatest Blood Purifier ever yet given

GIVEN UP AS LOST.

The second thing is, the patients must stay in a warm room until they get well; it is almost impossible to prevent taking cold when the lungs are diseased, but it must be guarded against or a cure cannot be effected. Freezing and riding only especially in this section of the country in the fall and winter season, are all wrong. Physicians who recommend that course lose their patients in three months out of every twenty-five. Persons they are in the house they must remain, or they will be dead in a few weeks. Persons such and so dead as the twilight will bear, to get up, again. Yet, under the Schenck treatment, they keep in good health, and continued to go well. This is a fact, and it is to be seen in the hundreds of living witnesses who testify to the efficacy of the Schenck Medicines. Evidence of its power, by the world round, and world wide testimony in all subjects, and in all climates, is the best testimony to the faculty of this great cure was in Dublin, Ireland.

Many years ago, I had the first symptoms of consumption; confined, for a year, to my room, I thought that I could not live from week to week. Dr. Schenck, a long man catching at straws, I heard of and obtained the preparations which I now offer to the public, and after months a perfect cure of me. It seemed to me that I could feel the pestilence in my lungs, and I was alarmed about the matter in my lungs, and I would spit up more than a pint of offensive yellow matter, every morning for a long time

I feel as sure as that I am, to whom my cough, fever, pain and night sweats all leaving me, to have my health restored, that this is with Dr. Schenck's Medicines, I have been free from this time forward. I feel, and my strength, I am well, and I attribute it to my recovery," added the Doctor, "to the fact that I was with Dr. Schenck's Medicines, I have gained in my health and weight in two hundred and twenty-five pounds, and I feel as if I could walk a thousand miles without fatigue, I feel so well."

Dr. Schenck has discontinued his professional visits to his Rooms, Corner Fifth and Arch Streets, Dr. J. H. Schenck, still continues to see patients at his rooms, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, every Saturday from A. M. to 3 P. M. Those who wish a thorough examination, should call on Saturday. Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrupcontains the exact condition of the lungs, and the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are taken according to the directions for taking the medicines are adapted to the intelligence even of a child. All these directions are plain and simple. Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, the Seaweed Tonic and the Mandrake Pills are to be taken at the same time, and in the same manner as what is recommended in the simple instruction that accompany them. Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is a healthy tonic, and a most embrocating remedy. When it comes, and it will come, let the dispersing at once be made, and the cough will be loosened, the lungs will be cleared, the night sweats is abated. In a short time both of these will disappear, and the patient will be well.

Dr. Schenck's medicines are constantly kept by one of the firm in Chicago. As a laxative, Dr. Schenck's Mandrake Pills are a standard preparation, while the Pulmonic Syrup, as a tonic and a healthy, sure, and safe, is regarded as a simply invaluable remedy.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic, $1.50 a bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills, 25 cents a box. Are sold by all druggists.

listen to him. The humble poor gatherer in an unpretending house and listen to the utterances of the fervent earnest preacher who "gives to each his portion in due season," reproof, condemnation, promise and assurance, and derive strength and hope and joy as they listen, to sustain them as they travel along the straight and narrow road.

There is but one Heaven, where God reigns, and those who enter there, must in life, reverently acknowledge Him in all their thoughts and actions, conscientiously striving to obey His command showing meekness, charity and love for their fellow man. This is practical piety, and to those only who exhibit it, an eternity of bliss is promised. To be rich, is not necessarily to be worldly-minded, vain and selfish, nor are all wealthy congregations indifferent to the spiritual wants of the poor, but unless the heart is deeply imbued with a sincere love for God and man, this world, its cares and vanities will tempt to a forgetfulness of duty.

The apostle James uttered his warning to the church against partiality and showing attention to those in "gay apparel," to the neglect of the poor. His words are more applicable now than they were when first written: "If ye fulfil the royal law according to the Scriptures, thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself, ye do well; but if ye have respect to persons ye commit sin and are convinced of the law as transgressors."—Exchange.

One Way of Improving Land.

It perhaps has occurred to but few farmers to employ the roving herds of summer at manure-making. It may be done thus:—

Select a spot adjoining an outside fence, and enclose it well on the three remaining sides. Haul leaves from the woods, muck from ponds or swamps, or anything that will rot into a good manure in ten or twelve months, and spread over this lot three or four inches deep. If there are not several trees in this lot, make shelters for shade by placing poles upon forks, putting a floor of rails across these poles, and cover thickly with pine tags. Enclose large pieces of ground alum salt in boxes having a hole in their tops large enough for cattle to get their tongues in conveniently. Place these boxes firmly upon posts about over the lot. Make a gap in the outside fence, that everybody's cattle that come along may walk in. As soon as they find out the salt, this lot will become a grand congregating place for all the cattle of the vicinity, a perfect camp-ground of the bovine species. They will make the shelters their resting place, by day and by night, and will continue to come so long as the supply of salt (which must be added occasionally), holds out. Of course they will drop their manure here; and by winter you will have the satisfaction of owning, at least, one lot that has been well manured at small expense. So long as cattle run at large we think it right that somebody should have the benefit of the manure, if they can get it.

A Murderous Lover.

At Van Buren, Ind., on Thursday a terrible tragedy occurred. Chancy Barnes and Addie Dwight, a worthy young school-teacher, were formerly engaged to be married. Subsequently, Miss Dwight, finding him unworthy, told him that she would not fulfil the engagement. Yesterday, during school hours, in company with a young lady, Barnes proceeded toward the school-house to call on Miss Dwight. Finding her near the school-house with some of her scholars looking for a spot suitable for holding a picnic, he requested her to step to one side, as he wished to speak with her. She did so; he then asked her if she intended to become his wife. She answered, decidedly, no. He then drew a revolver and discharged two balls into her brain, killing her instantly. He then fired four shots into his own head. Barnes is still alive, but is sinking rapidly. He has been taken to the Lagrange county (Indiana) jail. Intense excitement prevails in the vicinity, and should Barnes show any sign of recovery he will doubtless be lynched.

The Phœnix.

This wonderful Egyptian bird is described as being about the size of an eagle, with plumage partly red and partly golden. This bird is said to come from Arabia to Egypt every five hundred years, at the death of his parent, bringing the body with him, embalmed in myrrh, to the temple of the sun, where he buries it. According to others, when he finds himself near his end, he prepares a nest of myrrh and precious herbs, in which he burns himself; but from his ashes he revives in the freshness of youth. From late mythological researches, it is conjectured that the phœnix is a symbol of a period of five hundred years, of which the conclusion was celebrated by a solemn sacrifice, in which the figure of a bird was burnt. His restoring his youth signifies that the young springs from the old. More than sixty authors have related traditions of this bird, including Strabo, Pliny, Plutarch and others.

Wonderful Curative Effects.

They are not a vile Fancy Drink, Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refined Liquors, diluted, mixed and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all alcoholic stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long sick, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Biliousness, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases as are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequaled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it sluggish and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, Tape and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed by these Bitters. For full directions, to be given to every individual, upon the care of the earth, whose body is infested with the presence of worms, it is not upon the human system, that the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors in the stomach, which the Bitters will remove, as a disease. For symptoms of Worms, Convulsions, Fits, Nervous Irritation, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers.
