Advertisements not marked on the copy for a specified number of insertions will be continued until ordered out, and payment exacted accordingly.

All persons sending communications or requiring notices, obituaries, resolutions, concerts, or any public entertainments where charges are made for admittance, and all notices of private enterprises or to promote individual interests, can only be inserted with the understanding that the same are to be paid for at the rate of $1 for first ten lines, and five cents per line for all over.

Editorial notices, when requested, to be charged Cells on persons to become candidates charged as other advertisements. Announcing candidates for State or County offices, $3 each; for City offices, $1 each—to be paid in advance.

Marriages and Deaths inserted without charge; when the latter is accompanied by obituary notices, and tribute of respect, $1 will be charged for ten lines or less, and 10 cents for each additional line.

Payment for advertisements due when they are left for insertion, and PAY in ADVANCE is required unless specially agreed to be credited. Regular annual advertisers to pay half yearly in advance.

All loaded and displayed advertisements, and those with cuts larger than five lines in width, to be charged extra.

MAJOR ANDRE, THE BRITISH SPY.

The following is an extract from a very interesting article communicated to the Genius of the West periodical, by R. E. H. LEVERING:

A peculiar honor is required to entitle one to a place in Westminster Abbey. Oliver Cromwell, and Lord Byron exhibited too much of the spirit of genuine liberty to be immortalized where tyrannical monarchs and bloody naval and military commanders have been peculiarly honored! I noticed a specimen of this peculiar honor in the mausoleum of that celebrated spy called Major Andre, decorating the southern area of the Abbey. It is of statuary marble, representing Andre in the tent of Washington as a prisoner, just as a flag of truce, conducting his pardon arrived. Some Westminster boys or London cockney gentlemen most patriotically knocked off the heads of the principal American figures, after they had been mutilated, decorated and replaced several times. They could not head or behead the real Washington in our country, and they thought proper to behead his image in England, in revenge for his "cloak og off" both Andre and the British armies from our soil. On the panel of the sarcophagus is inscribed—

"Sacred to the memory of Major Andre, who, raised by his merit at an early period of his life to the rank of Adjutant-General of the British forces in America, and employed in an important, but hazardous enterprise, fell a sacrifice to his zeal for his king and country, on the 2d of October, 1780 aged twenty-nine, universally beloved and esteemed by the army in which he served, and lamented even by his foes. His gracious Sovereign, King George III, has caused this monument to be erected."

On the plinth of the monument is the following sentence:

"The remains of the said Major Andre were deposited, December 28th November, 1821, in a grave near his monument"

The sarcophagus has projecting figures, one of which is presenting to Gen Washington the following letter, which Andre had addressed to his Excellency the night previous to his execution:

"SIR—Buoyed above the terrors of death by the consciousness of a life devoted to honorable purposes, and stained with no action which can give me remorse, I trust that the request that I make to your Excellency at this serious period, and which is to soften my last moments, will not be rejected: sympathy towards a soldier will surely influence your Excellency and a military tribunal to adapt the mode of my death to the feelings of a man of honor. Let me hope, Sir, that I sought in my character impresses you with esteem towards me—if aught in my misfortunes marks me as a victim of policy, and not of resentment, I shall experience the operations of those feelings in your breast, by being informed I am not to die on a gibbet.

I have the honor to be, your Excellency,
JOHN ANDRE,

Adjutant of British forces in America."

"Your readers will remember that he wished to be honorably shot instead of dishonorably hung.

As this affair belongs to immortal history, I will introduce other incidents connected with it. Previous to his execution, Andre was confined in a stone house, formerly a dwelling, strongly guarded. When informed in the morning of the hour appointed for his execution, he exhibited a calm and firm countenance, showing that he could say, "O Death, where is thy sting? O Grave, where is thy victory?" At that moment his servant entered, weeping, to whom he said, "Leave me until you can show yourself more manly." After partak ng with usual composure, his breakfast, a meal that he had regularly ordered to him from Gen. Washington's table during his confinement, he washed and dressed, and, placing his hat upon a table, observed to the guard officers,—"I am ready, gentlemen, say hour to wait on you."

Between two subaltern officers, arm in arm, he walked to the fatal spot. When sudden y the gallows came in view, he involuntarily started back. An officer at his side asking, "Why this emotion, sir?" he recovered his composure, replying, "I'm reconciled to my death, but detest the mode." As soon as he gave the arrangements were completed, he stepped into the wagon stationed under the rope, exclaiming, "It will be but a momentary pang." Taking two white handkerchiefs from his pocket, with one he bandaged his own eyes, and after adjusting the noose around his neck properly, the provost-marshal, with the other handkerchief, bound the victim in military style. When now Colonel SCAMMEL informed him that he had a last opportunity to speak, if he wished it, he raised the handkerchief from his eyes, and said:

"I pray you bear me witness that I meet my fate like a brave man."

His honorable captors deserve a monument likewise, and one has recently been erected at Tarrytown, West Chester County, N. Y., in commemoration of the spot where Major John Andre was captured, November 23, 1780. It is of Slag-Sing Marble, and will sing, sing their praises to the latest posterity. It cost $1,000, by voluntary subscription, being a conical shaft rising from a square pedestal, 8 feet square at base, and 26 feet in height, bearing the following inscription, written by the celebrated author, James K. Paulding:

"On this Spot, the 23d day of September, 1780
THE SPY
MAJOR JOHN ANDRE, ADJUTANT GENERAL OF
THE BRITISH ARMY,
Was Captured by
JOHN PAULDING, ISAAC VAN WERT,

A Nation of Mat County. History has no far rat.

The people of Westchester County have erected this Monument, as well to commemorate a great Event, as to testify their high estimation of that integrity which, rejecting every temptation, delivered the United States from imminent perils, by baffling the Arts of a Spy, and the Plots of a Traitor."

While in England I learned an instance of mental phenomenon in connection with Major Andre, which I can appropriately introduce into this article. Andre and Miss Seward were engaged to be married. Just previous to his fatal embarkation for America he visited Lichfield to bid farewell to his betrothed. While there they visited a Mr. Cunningham, whom he had never seen. Before their arrival at his mansion, Mr. Cunningham informed other visiting friends that on the preceding night he had experienced an extraordinary dream which he could not banish from memory. He thought himself in a forest, strange to him, and while looking about, perceived a horseman approaching at great speed, who had scarcely reached the dreamer when the dreamer stood, when there men rushed out of a thicket, and, seizing his bridle, hurried him away, after closely searching his person. The countenance of the strangers being very interesting and beautiful, (Andre was handsome,) the sympathy felt by the sleeper for his apparent misfortune, awoke him; but he presently fell asleep again, and dreamed that he was standing near a great city, and that he saw the same person he had seen seized in the woods, brought out and suspended to a gallows. When Andre and Miss Seward arrived, Mr. Cunningham was struck with horror on perceiving that his new acquaintance was a living representation of the unfortunate gentleman in his vision.

SCOTT'S
LITTLE GIANT
CORN and COB MILL,
Patented May 15th, 1855.

Is doubtless an invention among the most important of modern times, for the use of the well and prudent farmer and stock feeder—and the universal favor with which it has been received from the first, more than anything else, attest its utility and superiority.

For portability, simplicity of construction, and convenience of use, the Little Giant has no equal. It weighs from 3 to 5 hundred lbs., according to size, can be put in operation by the farmer in 15 minutes, without expense or mechanical aid, their adjusted and used with convenience by anybody.

The Little Giant has received the First Premiums at every State Fair from Missouri to Maryland the past Fall, and that in the most complimentary manner.

These Mills are guaranteed in the most positive manner against breakage or derangement, and warranted to crush feed, grain, and grind as fine hominy from shelled corn, with a degree of ease and convenience for farm purposes never attained before.

The subscribers are now prepared to furnish the trade with improved patterns and sizes, to suit the varied wants of all.

No. 2 is offered at $44 complete, ready for attaching the team, and warranted to crush of dry corn, 10 bushels of feed per hour with one horse.

No. 3 at $55 will crush 15 bushels per hour.

No 4 at $66 will crush 20 bushels per hour with two horses. COTTS & HODGES,

No 9 Water Street, Cincinnati.

SAMUEL C. FRANCIS. CURTIS S. PRESSTON.
FRANCIS & PRESSTON,
Wholesale and Retail dealers in Cotton, Linen and Cambric
Goods,
No. 4 Cole, of North Street,
MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY.
ARE now receiving and opening a various and extensive stock of CHINA, QUEENS and GLASS WARE, comprising a variety of styles, some of which are unlikely new and very desirable. Their stock has been purchased entirely for cash from the agents of European manufacturers, resident in the Eastern cities, which fact, coupled with ten years' experience in the sale of one of the partners, will enable them, as they confidently believe, to offer such inducements to buyers as have not heretofore been offered in this market. As an evidence of their sincerity in the belief, they now have in their store, ready for sale, a very large Cincinnati bill (wholesale or retail) without the addition of carriage; or any Philadelphia bill purchased within the last year, with the addition of actual expense of transportation with the current rate of drayage added.
They invite the attention of country merchants, as well as of families, to their stock, and pledge themselves not to be undersold west of the mountains. They will warrant their goods and the packing, and hope, by strict attention to business, to receive their share of public patronage.

Foreign News.—We received by telegraph, this morning, the foreign news by the Nashville, which we publish in another column. It is interesting, but not very important.

☞Our thanks are due to Mr. Jno. B. Gibson, of the Telegraph Office, for important favors.

☞Wm. Oden Huggart, Esq., of the beautiful steamer Cincinnati, has our thanks for River favors.

☞The city Council should take immediate steps to repair the Bridge over Limestone creek. We understand that it is dangerous to cross, owing to the broken flooring. An hours delay might cause some loss or damage. It needs entirely new upper flooring.

☞Our old friend, Wm. Nelson, Passed Midshipman in the U. S. Navy, we are pleased to see, has been promoted to be a Lieutenant, from 18th April, 1855—vice Henry Rodgers; lost in the Albany. Lieut. N. is a capital officer, and slowly, though surely, is winning his way to the front rank of the Navy.

His brother, Lieut. Anderson D. Nelson, one of the Professors at the West Point Military Academy, is now in this city, on a visit to his friends.

☞R. S. Hamilton, Esq., editor of the Cincinnati Patriot, it will be seen from a notice in another column, will speak on "American Reform," at the Court House, on Wednesday evening. Mr. H. is a vigorous and ready writer, and enthusiastically devoted to the cause he advocates. His speech at Maysville, we hear very highly spoken of.

☞Last Monday seventeen fugitive slaves passed through Detroit, and on Tuesday fifteen more. The Underground Railroad is doing a big business.

Is Bad Taste.—It is stated that when the news reached the Methodist Conference, in session at Chelsea, Massachusetts, on Saturday, that the address for the removal of Judge Loring had passed the House of Representatives, the whole body, some three hundred strong, rose to their feet and gave three cheers.

☞The following is from the Louisville Journal of yesterday:

Judge Loving.—The Hon. W. V. Loving, who is generally understood to be the nominee of the American party for Governor, is now in our city. He is staying at the residence of Mr. Dodge, on Market street. We hope that our distinguished visitor will remain long enough to give our citizens an opportunity of becoming acquainted with him. We do not suppose that any one knows him or ever did know him without feeling regard and admiration for him. He is a gentleman of high pure heart, of extensive attainments, of powerful intellect, and generally sound principles.

☞The following will be interesting to those engaged in procuring bounty-land, under the recent act:

Applications under the new Bounty Land Act.—Under the bounty land act of March 3, 1855, the first claim was presented to the Pension Office about the 10th ultimo, and up to this date eighty-one thousand seven hundred applications have been received. About twenty thousand cases have been enveloped, numbered and briefed, and yesterday the office commenced the examination of claims under this law. They purpose having at least ten thousand ready for issue when the plates are furnished. Although the forms and instructions issued by Commissioner Waldo are plain, explicit, and easily understood, of the first thirty cases examined only one was in accordance with the requirements of the law and the instructions of the office. The remaining twenty-nine cases, of course, were rejected. An applicant for bounty land should first ascertain whether his particular case is or is not embraced within the provisions of the late act. If he is really one of the beneficiaries, he should next see that his application is drawn up in accordance with the forms and instructions which the Commissioner has issued. A few minutes of care and intelligent attention may save months of delay.

Prof. Agassiz has just received the appointment of Professor of Natural History in the University of Edinburg, and has declined it. His present salary at Harvard College is $1500. The Edinburg salary is $10,000, and this immense disparity of Prof Agassiz has been overlooked in his desire to mould and develop the scientific learning in this country. Prof. Agassiz stands at the head of the scientific men of the world, and, from his position, is able to accomplish more than any other man for the cause of science in America. He has cast his lot with us, and is both willing and determined to establish science upon its firm basis, and to bring to light the hidden resources of this new continent.

Expedition to Nicaragua.—From a correspondence between Col. Kinney, and Amos B. Corwine, late U. S. Consul at Panama, just published in the New York Post, we learn that the former, whose supposed filibustering designs on Central Ame ica, recently attracted so much attention and excited so many speculations, is no longer connected with the "Central American Company" but is engaged in another scheme of emigration and colonization of a purely peaceful character. From this correspondence, we learn that the Nicaraguan Government has made a grant of a large tract of land to Mr. Fabens, U. S. Consul at Nicaragua; and this country, Col. Kinney proposes to settle by emigration and colonization from the United States. The enterprise is strictly peaceful and commercial in its objects and its aspects. It looks solely to the making of money by regular legitimate business operations. It will be seen from the correspondence, which we publish, that the cultivation of the earth, the building of towns and cities, the navigation of the rivers, and the pursuits of commerce, constitute the great and commendable objects of the new enterprise.

The country is represented to be fertile and productive, and the enterprise, if followed up with energy, promises to be profitable and remunerative. The colonization and settlement will be conducted under the auspices and protection of the Nicaragua Government, and is a together lawful in its character. It has, we are assured, no connection with filibustering designs, and is obnoxious to none of the objections, which are too apt to give a character of lawless violence to the schemes of colonization which originate in this country.

The enterprise, when we consider the superabundance of rich and unoccupied lands, of unsurpassed fertility, which are to be found within the limits of our own country, and under the protection of our own government, which may almost be had for the asking, we feel no inclination to go in search of new countries, for a field of enterprise. The difficulties which are necessarily incident to the settlement of any new country, especially of any new country so near the tropics as Nicaragua, would constitute insuperable objections with us, to the new enterprise. But if the restless energies and adventurous spirit of our people cannot be content with the field for effort presented by our own vast country, we do not know that they could engage in a more innocent or laudable enterprise than that which is shadowed forth in the annexed correspondence. To Nicaragua it certainly promises great things; and we believe that the only hope of all those Southern countries in the energy and enterprise of the Anglo Saxons of the United States.

Col. Kinney's Last Pronunciamento.—The following correspondence between Amos B. Corwine, late United States Consul at Panama, and Col. Kinney, relative to the purposes and plans of the new expedition to Nicaragua, of which the latter proposes in a few days to take the superintendence, has been furnished us for publication.

We understand that the Colonel has entirely separated himself from the Central American Company, of which Senator Cooper, of Pennsylvania, is the President, in consequence of doubts as to the validity of the title to the lands which they propose to colonize, the Nicaraguan government never having admitted the legality of the Mosquito King's grant.

He has, therefore, changed his plan and proposes to plant a settlement on land now granted by the Nicaraguan Government to J. W. Fabens, the United States Consul at San Juan del Norte, who has been appointed agricultural and commercial agent. The district selected is the elevated, healthy table lands of Chontales, in the neighborhood of the gold mines, and where, by the last accounts, it is learn that a promising coal mine has just been discovered.

The country is said to be well adapted to the growth of corn, now its principal staple, and productions of the temperate zone, and to abound with mahogany and the cabinet woods generally. As the Colonel declares that he has no idea of founding a new government, but to live under the protection and authority of the government of Nicaragua, his enterprise assumes the character of a purely business transaction, and will probably enlist emigrants of a more desirable kind than the scheme with which he was formerly connected.

The Colonel, it is said, will sail with a part of his colony early in May.

Letter from A. B. Corwine to Col. Kinney.

NEW YORK, April 16, 1855.

Colonel H. L. Kinney:

Dear Sir: I have learn from the public journals and otherwise that you are connected with an enterprise or association having in view certain schemes with regard to Central America, or some part of it.

Would you be kind enough to inform me in general of the object of this association, if you are connected, and of its character and plans.

I do not ask from mere curiosity, but with a desire to obtain information that may guide me in some contemplated movements of my own.

In the first place, I would like to know if this company, if there be one, is the "Central American Company," with which your name has been connected, or is it a new one on another basis.

I shall be inclined, perhaps, to take an interest, if desired, in an enterprise which might be legally and safely engaged in, and which promised remunerative return.

I should wish, however, to be assured that there was no such objection possible to be made to it as that of "filibustering," and that everything contemplated was legal and safe, as well as likely to be remunerative.

If your convenience and interest permit an answer to my inquiries, it would much oblige.

Very respectfully,

Your friend and obedient servant,

AMOS B. CORWINE.

James Patton, convicted at New Orleans of the murder of Col. Turnbull, has received a new trial.

The Irving House, New York, has been converted into a superb restaurant.

It is stated that N. P. Willis has been preparing an extended criticism upon "Ruth Hall," which will be published.

I. A. Peden, U. S. Minister to the Argentine Republic, was officially received at Buenos Ayres on the 1st of December last.

A United States messenger, en route for St. Petersburg, is said to have passed through Berlin on the 8th ult.

There were 191 deaths in Philadelphia last week, including 31 of consumption, 8 of fevers and 3 of small-pox.

Rev. Dr. Choules, of Newport, R. I., has been lecturing in Savannah upon "The Life and Times of Cromwell."

A Considerable Portion of the Bids have been Received from Mr. Thompson, our present Consul at Havana.—We have been informed, perhaps from individuals, and we can be satisfied with us.

I am confident the enterprise will be a profitable one, and it is liable to no objections such as you refer to. Our grants are good, and sanctioned by the highest the government of Nicaragua, under which we hold, are perfect to hold our lands, and we hope to be of material service to that country by developing its resources, cutting canals, making roads, and establishing commercial relations with Europe and the United States.

The vegetable productions of the country are very valuable, comprising tobacco, cocoa, Nicaragua wood, mahogany, &c., &c., and the Indian rubber tree in the greatest abundance.

The mineral resources are known to be extremely rich, both in gold and silver and coal, which last will be of very great importance, and the beds of which lie extremely convenient and accessible.

I would be very glad to have you take an interest in our enterprise, and will readily afford you any other information in my power.

Hindered as our government can receive in country and repay exertion, we hope to show something worth while in two years or less.

Yours, very truly,

H. L. KINNEY.

The Cincinnati Kansas Association a few days since purchased the steamer Louisville for $14,000; 7,000 cash, and the balance in three and four months. Afterwards the captain of the Louisville desired that the paper should be cashed by the Association at 1 per cent. discount, which they refused to do, and the captain refused to let the boat go. Whereupon the Association have taken measures to sue the captain for damages, and have purchased the steamer Hartford for $7,000.

George Gillias committed suicide at Cambridge, Mass., last Thursday, in consequence of his cousin, a young lady of genius and fortune, turning a deaf ear to his matrimonial suit. He repaired to her residence, and while she was in conversation with some friends, shot himself with a pistol, on the piazza, where he was found dead by the guests and family, who were startled by the report.

Of the original edition of the printed Bible, eighteen copies are known to be in existence, four of which are printed on vel un. Two of these are in England, one being in the Greenville collection. The vellum copy has been sold as high as $1300.

Churches in the United States.—It is a singular fact, says the Boston Transcript, that there are more Lutheran churches in the United States than there are of the Roman Catholic faith. The Lutheran ministers, in point of numbers, come up to within two hundred of the priests of the Catholic Church in this country, and yet there is but one Lutheran Church in New England.

The Extent of the Late Treaty with the Indians West of the Missouri, &c.—Under the treaties made by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs with various tribes in the last year or so, the United States have obtained lands from the Indians located west of the Missouri and the Missouri State line as follows: From Poland Chinas, about 6,000,000 acres; Ottoes and Missouris, 3,000,000 acres; Shawnees, 1,600,000 acres; Delawares, 375,000 acres; Sacs and Foxes, 435,000 acres; Kickapoos, 768,000 acres; Iowas, 125,000 acres; Kaskaskias and others, 94,000 acres; and from the Miamis, 325,000 acres. Individual reservations are provided for in these treaties, and, also, some portions of the lands above mentioned are to be sold for the benefit of the Indians ceding them. This is the case with the Delawares' lands, and these tracts are not subject to be squatted on, as this Government cannot, by act of Congress, assign lands held in trust to be disposed of for the benefit of others, to squatters.

An Old School Presbyterian congregation has recently been organized at Chicago, with only thirteen members, but they seem to be a host within themselves, for one of the number has pledged himself to contribute $2,000 per annum for five years, as the salary of the pastor.

The Fugitive Case in Boston.—The Boston Courier, of the 7th inst., says:—The Cushing portrait of the friends of Dr. Pace, in America, who has been thrown into Cuba, by the Spanish authorities, recently held a meeting in New York. The following statement made at the meeting will be read with interest:

"The committee from Washington, composed of Messrs. Perrin and Bradford and Dr. Fisk, were then heard through their Chairman, Mr. Perrin.

"He stated that the committee went to the White House immediately upon their arrival at Washington, and learned that the Cabinet Council was in session considering this very case. The President left the Cabinet, and received the committee, with whom he had about an hour's conversation. The committee made a statement of the case to the President, who evinced great interest in it, and said the matter had already been considered by the Cabinet. The President commended the zone and manly spirit of the meeting held of the friends of Dr. P. in this city, and the resolutions passed, which he said, gave a high tone and sense of anything like filibustering. The committee presented to the President a written memorandum of the case, which he took and communicated to the Washington Union in which paper it appeared yesterday. Mr. P. remarked, with reference to the publication of this memorandum, and the language of the Union in introducing it, that it could be statement present their wishes as well as they (the committee) had tried to do, they would doubtless all be more than satisfied. [Applause. A voice—Hear! Hear!] He did not know whether they would consultial things are extremely uncertain. [Laughter] The committee, in conversing with the President, had desired the President to send a ship of war to Cuba immediately. The President said he would to-morrow morning send such an agent. [Great applause.] The President had added, that while he would not engage in filibustering scheme, and allow none to be got up in this country, but on the contrary would put it down if attempted, yet there was a point beyond which forbearance had ceased to be virtue, and that he could not conceive what had come over the authorities of Cuba, for they seemed to be making an effort to try how much we would bear before coming to the rescue of American people. [Loud applause.] As to the proper plan or means by which our vessels should be carried out, it must of course be left to him and his advisers. But he felt the importance on their minds that the time had come when we could no longer cry 'Peace! peace!' when there was no peace. This case was the result of a long series of wrongs and illegal to the case of Dr. Thompson, our Consul at Sagua la Grande. Mr. Perrin detailed the circumstances of that arrest at some length. Thompson had been arrested because he had refused to take down the American coat of arms from the wall of his consular office.—[A voice—I should like to have a shot at them!] Such was the substance of Mr. Perrin asked, had ever any government witnessed grosser outrages upon its citizens than these? The President had remarked that he almost dreamed them mad. The result of this conversation had led the committee to think—and he (Mr. P.) wished the public to know—that the President intends to take a proper position in this case."

The French Government and Cuba.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Commercial Advertiser, writes the following letter, dated the 17th inst., to that journal:

It is believed here that a correspondence has recently occurred between Mr. Marcy and the French Minister, in regard to the pending difficulties between the United States and Spain, distinctly stating that the French Government would feel bound to take part in support of the rights of Spain to her American dominions, and opposition to any interference on the part of this Government, or citizens of the United States, to wrest them from her.

There is no reasonable doubt of the truth of this statement. It accords with the previous acts of the French Government, in relation to the protection of Cuba from our filibusters. Mr. Marcy, in his instructions to Mr. Soule, relative to the naval demonstration of France and England, in the port of Havana and Cuba. Senator Clayton remarked upon this subject, not long ago, that occurrences, while he was Secretary of State, had convinced him that Louis Napoleon manifested a blow at this country, in case of an attempt on our part to seize Cuba. All these statements and intimations are separate from and independent of the intrences which have been drawn from the Clarendon declaration of Napoleon in regard to the accord of the policy of the two Governments, in relation to all matters "at all points of the globe."

But, if the above report be true, we have the definite and distinct declaration from Napoleon's Minister that the French Government will make itself a party against the U. States, in any war that may occur between Spain and the United States, for the protection of Spain's dominion in Cuba.

No one has ever supposed that Spain would be left to fight single-handed against this country. She will have in such a war as is likely to arise, the sympathies, the good wishes, and even the material aid, if she require it, of all Christendom.

Such being the state of the case, it would seem to be madness, on the part of the United States Government to rush into a war with Spain, for the mere object of promoting or reviving the popularity of the present Administration. But it is not the Administration—but, what Mr. Buchanan calls the "ruling part of the Administration," not the most judicious part certainly, that seems to provoke a war. President Pierce has himself written the instructions to Com. Foote.

He assumed the responsibility for the consequences, à la Jackson. He is "the ruling part of the Administration," and he is guided not so much by the views of his constitutional advisers, as by Pierre Soule, George M. Dallas and James Buchanan. The President is unfortunately in the hands of these men. Every political step that he takes carries him back from the object of his action. He will find that he cannot bring on a war, if he wishes it, and that he will have to pay the cost in most of the few political friends who are left to him.

The Wheat Crop.—So far as we can learn the wheat crop promises well, hereabouts. Farmers sowed heavier than usual, and should there be an average yield—say twenty bushels to the acre—we should say the market will be richly rewarded for harvest. In other sections we have the same good report. From Indiana and Illinois, indeed, the promise comes of an unusually large yield from the present appearance of the fields. In Michigan the same story, apparently, is told. The Detroit Advertiser, says "the farmers in that State almost unanimously, speak encouragingly of the growing wheat crop. Although the fly has appeared in a number of fields in the fall, there is none to be seen now. A much larger surface was put into wheat, in this county last fall, than in any previous season since its settlement. The spring, thus far, has been most favorable to the prospect of fruit; and we are glad to learn that the promise is excellent."

MENDERSON & BRO'S.

The Germans have produced some very excellent remedies for various diseases. Among which may be specified "Dr. Hoofland's Celebrated Bitters," and Dr. C. M. Jackson's, combined with remarkable success in Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, and a general derangement of the stomach. The Sunday Dispatch says of this medicine:—

"We feel convinced, that in the use of the German Bitters there are not those objectionable effects, but constantly gains strength and vigor to the frame—a fact worthy of consideration. The Bitters are purely vegetable, and safe and can be administered under any circumstances, to the most delicate stomach. Indeed they can be used by infants with the most perfect safety. It would be well for those who are much affected in the nervous system, to commence with one tea-spoonful or less, and gradually increase. We speak from experience, and are, of course, a proper judge. The proof speaks for itself, and we can in recommending the German Bitters, and to the afflicted we must cordially advise their use." DEATHS.

Died, on Friday the 13th instant, at the residence of his father, in Bath county, Ky., William A. Kassebaum, in the 21st year of his age. He was buried in the honors of the Masonic Fraternity. After the burial the Lodge assembled, and the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, God in his infinite wisdom has been pleased to remove from our midst our highly beloved brother, Wm. K. Arrasmith, therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That in the death of our much lamented Brother, our lodge has sustained a loss of one of its brightest ornaments, and the community at large of its best citizens.

Resolved 2nd. That the family of our Brother have our tenderest sympathies, for the irreparable loss they have sustained by this sudden visitation of Providence, and that we will derive consolation from the fact that he was a dutiful son, an upright man, and was universally esteemed by all who knew him.

"None knew him but to love him,
None named him but to praise."

Resolved, 3d. That we furnish our Brother, and that he hereafter wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days."

Resolved, 4th. That a copy of this preamble and resolutions be sent to the parents of our deceased Brother

Resolved, 5th. That this notice, together with the preamble and resolutions be sent to the Kentucky Whig" and "Maysville Eagle" for publication.

Will be Sold, on the Premises, on the 14th day of May, next, the following Valuable Property, belonging to the estate of the late Wm. Wood, deceased, viz:

THE Tract of the Subscriber and of the heirs of Washington Wood, deceased, containing a large number of all the land lying west of the Turnpike road, leading from Maysville to Germantown, Ky., McMahan's Mill, and Mt. Gilead, and known as the "Lee Place," and adjoining the lands of Thos. L. Pogue, and others, for the purchase of Mr. McMahan into the Seminary buildings, have "respectfully sustained" the act. Some be had to that question—triumph the more decisive, inasmuch as the friends of Mr. McMurdy, perceiving doubtless that they were to be subjected to a trial, which their appeals to public sympathy, that all the influences in their power could not prevent, begin to one defeat, a fatal one when the principal liability is place him in the position solicited (or Mr. McMurdy's friends, but refused by the Trustees. We, therefore, on behalf of our children who have been so grievously faithful to the cause of morality, and of the community at large, renew our application for a pure, thorough, and efficient Principal of the Washington Female Seminary.

By order of the Board,

H. W. WOOD,
E. WEBB,
W. R. GILL.

Comm. Trus.

N. B. Col. L. B. Dickerson wishes it understood, that in voting for the application in behalf of Mr. McMurdy and Wright, on the 6th of January last, he did not consider the guilt or innocence of Mr. McMurdy involved in the vote he gave.

NOTICE TO TRESPASSERS.

I Find it necessary, in self-protection, to warn persons from hunting, fishing, and trespassing, in otherwise trespassing, upon my Farm, as I will be compelled to enforce the law against them. The general disposition to prevent trespassing, in the neighborhood, has thrown an undue proportion of hunters upon my grounds, and I therefore, feel it my duty to prohibit it.

BY TELEGRAPH

Telegraphed for the Maysville Eagle.
Arrival of our Steamers.

NEW YORK, April 23.

The steamer Nashville, with advices from Liverpool, to Saturday, 7th April, arrived this morning.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.—The Intelligence from the seat of war and from Vienna presents nothing of special interest or importance. The general aspect of affairs in the Crimea was unchanged.

The conference at Vienna had adjourned over the Easter holidays. The impression was becoming stronger, both at London and Paris, that no peace would be negotiated; and that the belligerents would, in all human probability, have to fight it out.

The Russians and the Allies were strengthening their positions in the Crimea, preparatory to the Spring campaign.

At a council of war held at Balaklava, on the 12th of March, Omar Pasha asked for the assistance of some of the allied troops, to operate at Eupatoria; but his request was not granted, as nothing more is expected of the Turks, than that they hold Eupatoria.

On the 15th of March large reinforcements of Russian troops entered Sevastopol.

Gen. Canrobert, in his official despatch, says "that in the affair of the 21st and 22d March, the Russians lost 2,000 men, and the Allies 900."

The convention met at Vienna again, on the 24 inst., and adjourned till the 9th, when the Czar's ultimatum was expected.

A portion of the Baltic fleet sailed from England on the 4th inst.

The Russians had established two fortified camps, of 30,000 men each, to defend the Baltic provinces; and had blockaded all the ports with sunken vessels.

The London Times has a leading article defending the Know Nothing movement in the United States.

By telegraph from London to Liverpool, just as the steamer sailed, it was announced that the Spanish Government had demanded the recall of the British Ambassador at Madrid, because he had interfered in religious matters.

The English Parliament was to assemble on the 10th April.

The U. S. corvette, St. Louis, arrived at Gibraltar, and the Levant left the same day for home.

The Nashville reports having met the Africa going into Liverpool as she was coming out.

Ali Pacha, the Turkish plenipotentiary, had arrived at Vienna, and would take part in the Conventi n in its future discussions.

A despatch from Berlin, dated April 6th, says the Russian party predominates in the Prussian Court, and that Prussia will probably throw herself into the embraces of the Czar Alexander, thereby rendering the negotiations for peace at Vienna still more improbable.

There had been a succession of sanguinary conflicts between the belligerents at Sevastopol, chiefly between the French and Russians, for the possession of the rifle ambuscade, with varied success but with heavy loss on both sides.

The return of Gen. Meddalas, the Russian envoy to Paris, has been countermanded; and Col. Alberg, an attache of the Prussian embassy at Paris, has also been recalled—indicating that the negotiations between Prussia and the Allies are closed, beyond what we have given above.

The general news by the Nashville is entirely unimportant.

Telegraphed for the Maysville Eagle.

CINCINNATI, April 23

The improved feeling noted in the Flour market, for a day or two past, became more apparent to-day, and sales were made to a fair extent, including 100, 150, and 175 barls at $9,50; 100 do. $9.65; 80 do. $9.60; 50 do. extra at $9,75.

Riot at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Saturday, April 21.

A riot of a serious character occurred in this city this morning, growing out of the Maine Law and license question, in which one man was killed and five or six wounded. A procession composed of the German and Irish liquor dealers, marched to the Court House square, where a large crowd collected.

The police interfered, and a general fight ensued, in which clubs, knives and pistols were freely used. The principals in the riot were arrested, and towards the afternoon the excitement had subsided.

Later from Havana.

NEW ORLEANS, April 18.

The steamer Black Warrior has arrived at this port, with advices from Havana to the 15th inst. Dr. Peck was arrested by mistake, and has been set at liberty.

Sixteen companies of mulatto militia have been raised and placed on duty at Havana.

The Black Warrior passed the sloop of war Jamestown, off the Morro.

Important Intelligence from the South.

BALTIMORE, April 21.

By mail we have New Orleans papers of last Sunday. The Delta says Mr. Marcy had telegraphed to New Orleans, enquiring about the citizenship of Estrampes, who was recently executed in Havana.

The records show he arriv d in New Orleans in 1844, and took the proper steps to acquire the rights of citizenship when he would come of age.

The Picayune professes to have information that the decree issued at Madrid directs the Capt. General of Cuba, in the event of a filibuster expedition, to arrest all the Americans on the island, not excepting the U S. Consul.

An alarm of fire was raised at the St. Charles Theatre; New Orleans, Friday night, and, in the rush to escape, several persons were seriously injured.

Fist Fight in Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 20.

Lieut. Beale, formerly Indian Agent in California, and whose accounts have just been allowed by the Treasury Department, received a severe castigation with his fists, on Col. Mengy, ency, the Commissioner of Indian affairs, at Willard's Hotel, this afternoon. Mr. Beale attributes the temporary dissatisfaction of his accounts, to the hostility of Mr. Menypenny.

EASTON, Pa., April 21.

There is a heavy freshet in the Delaware river. It has already risen 14 feet, and is still rising.

BOSTON, April 20.

The Governor signed the new liquor bill, to-day

BUFFALO, April 20.

The extensive paper mill of B. Brady, at Niagara Falls, was burned last night.

PHILADELPHIA, April 20.

Robert Swift was executed yesterday, near Elkton, Maryland, for the murder of Hellhour, in August last. He made a full confession of his crime.

NEW YORK, April 21.

The steamer North Star sailed to-day for Aspinwall; she took $164,000 in specie.

The steamer Washington sailed for Bremen and Southampton; she took 151 passengers and $653,000 in specie.

BUFFALO, April 18.

The convention on the subject of improvement of the navigation of the St. Clair flats is in session here to-day. Pretty full attendance. Pledges already subscribed $18,000, $8,000 of it in this city. The Canadian government will probably appropriate $19,000 or $15,000.

CHICAGO, April 19.

A train of thirty-five full passenger cars arrived here this morning on the Michigan Southern Railroad.

WASHINGTON, April 19.

The Treasury Department have allowed all the disbursements claimed by Lieut. Beale, late U. S. Agent to California. The result is a complete vindication of Mr. Beale and of the Rangers under his command, of delinquencies.

The usual chief clerks in the Department are issuing proposals to look up bounty land claims, and the transacting of such business generally during their regular office hours.

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., April 17.

The Salt Lake mail arrived yesterday at 6 P. M. The news is unimportant.

Brigham Young continues to act as Governor.

The snow on the mountains is very deep.

There was no detention or molestation by the Indians. The latter are peacefully disposed, and have returned some mules they had stolen, and are anxious to make amends for the past.

BOSTON, April 19.

The House to-day voted to reconsider the vote whereby it accepted the report of the Nunnery Investigation case, and then laid the report on the table.

The special Committee on the charges against James Hiss, a member of the Nunnery Visiting Committee at Lowell, reported to the House this afternoon. The report was no specific act of criminality has been proved against him. It omits mentioning whether Mrs. Patterson's bill at the Washington House was paid by the State.

NEW YORK, April 19

In the Court of Oyer and Terminer this morning the bail fixed in the case of Hyler, Van Pelt and Lynn, alleged as accessory to the Poole murder, was reduced to $10,000 each. Bail was entered and appeared for Morrison and Hyler, and those two were liberated.

Washington Irving is suffering from the effects of a casualty which occurred yesterday. He was riding on horseback on the river road near Sunnyside, when his horse became frightened and ran away, throwing Mr. Irving, who was taken up insensible, in which condition he remained several hours, and is not yet out of danger.

The Case of Joseph Hiss.

BOSTON, Saturday, April 21.

The House was in secret session to-day, having under consideration the case of Joseph Hiss, who figured in the late committee. The report of the committee exculpates Hiss from being guilty of criminality with Mrs Patterson, but censures him for spending the State money for her. The subject will be acted upon next Monday.

PITTSBURG, April 21. P. M.

The river is rising, with eleven feet water in the channel. Weather clear and cool.

CINCINNATI, April 21.

Flour and Grain—The market for Flour is stagnant, and we did not hear of a sale to-day. It is now four days since there have been sales to any extent. In the absence of sales it is useless to attempt to give quotations, but we may remark that purchasers could have been made at $9@9.25, though the majority of holders asked $9,50@9.75. There were no purchasers however, at the inside rates. The market for Grain is steady at 50@55c for Oats, 75@80c for Corn. No Barley or Rye offering. Received during the last 24 hours 797 brls Flour.

Provisions—The market is quiet, but there is no variations noticeable in prices. The only sales heard of to-day were 300 tcs prime Lard at 9½c; 120 brls do at 9½c; 43 hhds Bacon Shoulders at 7¼c, packed; 10 do common Hams at 9½c, packed; 60 tcs sugar cured do at 11c, and 34 hhds bulk Hams at 8c packed.

Groceries—The market is quiet, but holders are very firm at full prices. Stocks of Sugar and Molasses are very light. Sales of 45 hhds fair and good fair Sugar at 5¾@6c, and 61 brls Molasses at 22½c.

Whiskey—Sales of 50 brls at 32½c; 50 do at 32½c, and 200 do at 32c—a decline, but the market closed firmer.

NEW ORLEANS, April 21.

Cotton is dull and has declined ⅛c since yesterday. The sales comprise 410 bales, at 9½c for Orleans middling, longer to be again advanced, with sales of 1,500 bbls at 13@5c for fair. Mess Pork has advanced to $16 75. Sterling exchange 9@9½ prem.

NEW YORK, April 21.

Flour has advanced, with sales of 7,000 bbls at $10,25@10,65 for common and good Ohio, and $11@11.60 for Southern. Wheat is higher, with sales of Southern white at $2 75@2.90. Corn has again advanced, with sales of 80,000 bushels at $1,08@ ,10 for Western mixed.

Pork is firmer and better. Sales of 600 brls at $ 6,1 @ 6.25 for old Mess and $17,75 for new Mess. Beef is firm. Lard is firm, with an upward tendency in price.

Whisky is dull and prices unsettled. Sales of Ohio at rates ranging from 35@36c.

Groceries are unchanged, with a moderate demand. Linseed Oil is firm at 85c.

Money is unchanged. Stocks are firmer—Erie, 50⅞; New York Central, 91; Reading 86½c.

Maysville, March 13—tawt2m ROBERT W. LAZIE, Marshal City of Maysville.

Mountain Lands For Sale.

WE have for sale about 1,000 acres of land lying partly near Ecclesia Springs, and extending to the head of Indian creek fork of Kinkonnick; in Lewis county, and to the heads of Fox creek in Fleming county, Ky.; also about five thousand acres near the mouth of Triplett creek in Fleming county. Of these lands several fine stocks farms could be made with but little expense. They abound with the finest timber of all the usual varieties of this country; and on parts of it there is a great abundance of the finest tan bark, and most of it of easy access.

We propose to sell the Lewis lands at public auction at McCormicks near Ecclesia beginning on the 14th day of May next and continuing until all is sold, unless sold at private sale before that time.

Sales will be positive. One fourth of the purchase money will be required in hand and the balance in two equal annual instalments, purchasers securing payment.

The titles are good, and will be conveyed at any time required after sale.

These lands are finely watered, a considerable portion susceptible of tillage.

We will offer the Triplett lands at public auction on the 20th day of June at Zimmerman's on Triplett; and all the lands will be sold either entire or in lots to suit purchasers

To persons seeking farms in the which lands contiguous to these, there are strong inducements to make mountain farms as small farms: and such would be found highly advantageous, especially during the early grazing seasons, and all the most season. A single most season, in almost any year, especially in such as the last, would pay nearly or quite, for the price at which these lands will probably sell.

Settled locations within and near these lands can be purchased on reasonable terms; and by getting a large scope a few equilibrial and early settle and control a tenantry that would keep their stock safely. We may have another score corn crop this year, and another plentiful season, as is predicted now by those who profess a knowledge of the signs; in which event these Kno. lands will not be despised.

Good bargains may be expected. We repeat, the sales will positively be made.

J. C. WILSON,
JOHN A CAVAN.

Let the Afflicted Read an

An Infallible Remedy for Scrofula, Rheumatism, obstinate Cutaneous Eruptions or Humors on the Face, Ages and Fever, Chronic Sore Worm or Tetter, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Pain of the Bones and Joints, Syphilitic Disorders, Lumbago, Dropsy, Complaints, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, Impurity of the Blood,

☞ The great alterative medicine and Blood purifier, is now in use in every part of the United States, and daily to the remarkable cures performed by the greatest of all medicine, "CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE." Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Eruptions in the Skin, Liver Diseases, Ulcers, Old Sores, Affections of the Throat, Female Complaints and Aching of the Bones and Joints, are put to flight by using this great and last remedy.

For all diseases of the Blood, nothing has been found to compare with it. It cleanses the system of all impurities, acts gently and powerfully on the Liver and Kidneys, strengthens the digestive organs, restores the Complexion, gives tone to the Stomach, makes the skin clear and healthy, and restores the Constitution to a healthy state, even when it has been affected by disease or broken down by excesses of youth, to its pristine vigor and strength.

For the Ladies, it is incomparably better than any other medicine ever used. A few doses of SPANISH MIXTURE will remove all sallow complexion, bring the roses mantling to the cheek, give elasticity to the step, and improve the health in a remarkable degree, beyond all other medicines ever heard of.

The large number of certificates which have been received from persons from all parts of the United States, is the best evidence of its virtues. The press, hotel keepers, merchants, physicians, and public men, well known in community, all add their testimony to the full effects of this GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

Call on the AGENT and get a Circular Pamphlet, and read the wonderful cures that have been made by the use of this great and last of all Medicines has preformed.

AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL

For the rapid Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

This remedy is offered to the community with the confidence we feel in an article which seldom fails to realize the happiest effects that can be desired. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs, by its use. When once tried its superiority over every other medicine of its kind, is too apparent to escape observation and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, which are incident to our climate.

Nothing has called louder for the earnest energy of medical men, than the alarming prevalence and fatality of consumptive complaints, nor has any one class of diseases had more of their victims cut down. But we yet not adequate remedy has been provided, on which the public could depend for protection from attacks upon the respiratory organs, until the introduction of the CHERRY PECTORAL. This article is the product of a long, laborious, and I believe successful endeavor to furnish the community with such a remedy. Of this last statement the American people have themselves prepared to judge, and I am with confidence to trust decisions. If they place dependence to be placed in what men of the class and station certify it has done for them, we can trust our own senses, when we see our affections of the throat and lungs yield to it, if we can depend on the assurance of Physicians, who make it their business to prescribe what is in their judgment, the best remedy, then is it irrefutably proven that this preparation relieves and does cure the class of diseases designed for, beyond any and all other remedies to mankind. If this be true, it is worthy of universal publicity, and nor too widely diffused should know it. A remedy so priceless to them. Parents and guardians are priceless to the rising generation. If, in fact, health can be procured for children, it should be circulated among the circle of the family, within its limits. Nay, it is the duty of every few people. A remedy which has proved of other nations and of our own, intelligent in all parts of the world, extensively used in Europe, Asia, Africa, and America, on the sea. Life preserving here, and there, even more so, than its kind, it is universal. It is scarcely low price, portance to the poor. Every bottle is as good as any other, and we expect it will sell, in mail, in mail, it is possible to procure it, on having a few bottles sent by those who have tried it.

By purchasing some great fraction of the results.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all the Druggists in Maysville, Ky., and by Druggists and Dealers in Medicine everywhere.
