Presidents Message.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 4.

To the Senate and House of Representatives:

In addressing my third annual message to the law making branch of the Government, it is gratifying to be able to state that during the past year success has generally attended the effort to execute all laws passed upon the statute books. The public mind is less active upon the question of the wisdom of the laws already enacted, and more intent upon the spirit and intent, and enforce them accordingly.

THE LAST YEAR

has, under a wise Providence, been one of general prosperity to the nation. It has, however, been attended with more than usual casualties, in the loss of life and property by storm and fire. These disasters have served to call forth the best elements of human nature and develop friendship for us on the part of foreign nations, which good feeling is manifested by alleviating the distress occasioned by these calamities. The time of those who have so generously shared their means with the victims of these misfortunes will reap their reward in the consciousness of having performed a noble act, and receive the grateful thanks of women, women and children, whose sufferings they have relieved.

The relations of the United States with foreign powers continue to be friendly. Year has been we have continued to witness two great nations, speaking one language and having common descent, settling by arbitration a long standing dispute about their common boundary line, and at the same time, bring those nations in to bloody conflict. An example has thus been set which, if successful as it is believed it will be, will go far towards the final abolishment of war as a means of settling disputes between nations. The money saved from the immense expenditures of these two nations, would be sufficient to pay the indebtedness of the world. I commend the action of Congress at early day in providing for the payment of the Geneva award, and the action on the part of the Queen of England in appointing her distinguished representative to act with the arbitrators, and the action on the part of His Majesty the King of Italy, the President of the Swiss Confederation, and the President of the Emperor of Brazil, who were selected on the joint request of the two powers to name an arbitrator in the dispute between Great Britain and the United States. The amicable manner in which the question has been settled by the distinguished gentlemen composing the tribunal, and the promptness with which their decision has been complied with by the parties, should be a lesson to all nations, and encourage them in the improvement and learning to these important results. The Emperor of Germany has been pleased to comply with the joint request of the two governments, and has consented to act as arbitrator of the disputed water boundary between the United States and Great Britain. The contracting parties in this treaty have undertaken to regard as binding between themselves, the decision of public law as to which the United States have contended from the commencement of their history. They have also agreed to bring those principles to the knowledge of other civilized time powers, and to invite them to accede to them. Notwithstanding so much progress in the form of the note by which the invitation is to be extended to the powers.

I commend the legislation necessary on the party of the United States to bring into operation the articles of the treaty relating to the fisheries, and to the other matters touching the relations of the United States towards the British North American Possessions to be, with as little delay as may be, after the proper legislation shall be had on the part of Great Britain and its possessions. It is hoped that it will be found that the legislation may become operative before the fishermen of the United States begin to make their arrangements for the coming season, and I recommend that provision be made for the collection of the additional duties, provided for in the treaty, which are to take effect on the 1st of December next, if the legislation necessary on the part of Great Britain and its possessions, shall not be in place, both parties have agreed that the duties shall be collected from the date specified, if the legislation shall be in place, but if not, then the duties shall be collected from the date when the legislation shall be in place, which is expected will be early in the next month. The commissioners appointed under the treaty have entered upon their duties, and it is believed will be able to complete their work within the time specified in the treaty. Should they not be able to do so, I shall be prepared to recommend such legislation as may be necessary to carry into effect the intention of the treaty in this respect.

I have also to call the attention of Congress to the necessity of an appropriation for determining the true boundary line between the United States and British North American possessions, between the Lake of the Woods and the summit of the Rocky mountains. The early action of Congress on the recommendation named would put it in the power of the War Department to place a force in the field during the first spring or summer.

The resumption of diplomatic relations between France and Germany has enabled me to give directions for the withdrawal of the protection extended to Germans in France by the diplomatic and consular representatives of the United States; in that country. It is just to add that the delicate duty of the protection has been performed by the Minister and the Consul General at Paris, and the various Consuls in France under the supervision of the latter, with fearless bravery, as well as with prudence and tact. Their course has received the commendation of the German Government and has roused the sympathetic admiration of the French.

The government of the Emperor of Germany continues to manifest a friendly feeling toward the United States and a desire to follow in the path of the moderate and just policy which this government maintains in its relations with Asiatic powers as well as with the South American republics. I have given assurance that the friendly feelings of that government are reciprocated by the United States.

The ratification of the convention for naturalization, concluded with the Kingdom of Italy, expire have been exchanged.

I have been officially informed of the abolishment of the status of slavery in the Kingdom of Italy, and the removal of the capital of that Kingdom to Rome. In conformity with the established policy of the United States I have recognized the change. The ratification of the new treaty of commerce between the United States and Italy has been exchanged. The law powers have agreed in their treaty to protect from confiscation the property of citizens in case of war between the two powers. The United States have availed themselves of the opportunity of incorporating this rule into the diplomatic and maritime law of nations.

The forty first Congress at its third session, passed a resolution for the organization of a mixed commission for adjudicating upon claims of citizens of the United States against Spain for the injuries of the insurrection in Cuba. I had entertained no more been organized.

I transmit herewith the correspondence relating to its organization and its proceedings. The claimants complain bitterly that the injuries

GO UNREDRESSED

I have been made the agreeable duty of United States to preside over a conference at Washington between the plenipotentiary of Spain and the South American republics, which resulted good agreement of permanent peace.

The intimate, friendly relations which have so long existed between the United States and Russia continue unchanged. The reception of the Grand Duke is proof of the cordiality of those relations on the part of his Government to distinguish hospitable reception. The Grand Duke is proof that the sentiments of the people of this country are in sympathy with the government.

The inexcusable course of the Russian Minister at Washington rendered it impossible for me to receive and to listen to longer receive that function as a diplomatic representative. It was impossible with self respect, and with a due regard to the dignity of the United Country, to permit Mr. Catacazy to continue to represent a government after his disavowal of official and during a persistent intercourse with the officers of the government, and the management of the affairs of the Imperial Legislation has passed into the hands of a gentleman entirely unobjectionable.

I have given instructions to maintain intimate relations. The Cabinet of the Mikado has since the close of the last session of Congress, selected citizens of the United States in service in offices of the Government, to represent the several departments of his Government. I have reason to think that this selection is due to an appreciation of the disinterested conduct of the public of the United States of the policy pursued toward Japan. It is our desire to continue to maintain this disinterested and just policy with China as well as Japan. The correspondence transmitted herewith shows that there is no disposition on the part of this government to swerve from its established course.

Prompted by a desire to put an end to the barbarous treatment of our ship wrecked sailors on the Corean coast, I instructed our Minister at Pekin to co operate with a convention with the Corean Government for the safety and protection of the inhuman treatment of such mariners. A naval force was ordered to accompany him, and if necessary to enforce a treaty. The force sent out, on small surveying parties, was unprovoked attacked at a disadvantage. Ample opportunity was given for explanation and apology for the attack, but none was forthcoming. After a brave fight the forts were taken, and, on a second march over a rugged and difficult country, the force from which the outrages had been committed, totally destroyed. I feel that we have done right in thus punishing the criminals, and having vindicated the honor of our flag, the expedition returned. Entire peace is now established under the circumstances to continue the desired convention. I shall carefully refer to the correspondence relating thereto, herewith submitted, and leave the subject for such action as Congress may see fit to take. The Republic of Corea has not yet repealed the very objectionable law prohibiting what is known as the free trade. I hope that this may yet be done. It is hoped that this Republic for refusing lawless persons on its frontiers. I hope that Mexico, by like action, will soon relieve this Government of the difficulties experienced most of the difficulties arising from those causes.

Our relations with the various republics of Central and South America continue, with one exception, to be cordial and friendly.

I recommend some action by Congress regarding the over due installments under the award of the Venezuelan Claims Commission of 1866. The money paid to us in the form of informal dissolution, is no justification for the absence of an effort to secure their solemn ratification.

The ratification of an extradition treaty with Nicaragua has been exchanged.

It is a source of congratulation that the great Empire of Brazil has taken the military despotism of the abolition of slavery. Our relations with that empire always cordial, will naturally be made more so by the action. It is not improbable that the Government of Brazil will be pleased to find that our laws are not as bad as we intire as well as intrinsically right, and advance toward ensure, in emulation more rapidly than the present system templates. The true prosperity, and greatness of a nation is to be found in the elevation and education of its laborers.

It is a subject for regret that the provisions of the treaty of which we are to be notified promised by the statesman of Spain have not been carried out in its West Indian colonies. The laws and regulations for the apprenticeship of the slavery in Cuba and Puerto Rico have to be improved, or the condition of the laborers in bondage, with no hope of release until their term have become a burden to their masters. I desire to direct your attention to the claims of the citizens of the United States as creditors of foreign insolvent estates, or holders of foreign property, for the benefit of the insolvent laws of the United States, and for the adoption of such other legislation as may be necessary to provide a remedy against the holding, owning or dealing in slaves or being interested in slave property, in foreign lands either as owners, heirs or mortgagees by persons of the United States.

It has come to my knowledge that the disturbed condition of the Island of Cuba has been a source of annoyance and anxiety. The contagion of a protracted struggle in such close proximity to our own territory, without apparent prospect of an early termination, can not but be other than an object of concern to a people who, will abstaining from interference in the affairs of other governments, naturally desire a speedy end of war, liberty and the blessings of free institutions. Our naval commanding in Cuban waters have instructed to use every proper means in their power to protect the lives and property of the American citizens, and to maintain the dignity of the flag on occasions requiring such action. It is hoped that the presence of our ships will aid in the spirit of humanity and conciliation which has hitherto characterized the treatment of our citizens by the Spanish authorities.

Both for the efficiency of our diplomatic relations with Japan and China and for their aid in retaining the good opinion of those people, I urge a proper provision for the pay of the officers of the United States, in the service of the United States, in those countries. I would also recommend that a Japanese Legation be established at Washington, and that a corresponding one be established in each of those countries, to serve as a part of the official family of our ministers there. Our representation in China is not even upon the footing of equality with the representatives of Great Britain and some other powers. As now situated, our representatives are dependent upon the Chinese Government for interpreters and translators upon natives of those countries, who know our language imperfectly, or prepare for the occasion the services of a native interpreter, of an foreign language. I would also recommend liberal measures for the purpose of supporting the American lines of steamers now plying between San Francisco and Japan and China, and the Australian line, at most our only remaining lines of ocean steamers, and of increasing their efficiency.

has been reduced to the extent of nearly six million fifty-seven thousand one hundred and twenty-six dollars, and the expenditure of the present year of the public debt has been so far diminished that the sum to be raised for the interest account is nearly seventeen million dollars less than on the first of March, 1869. It was highly desirable that the reduction should take place, but it should be so in the direction of increasing the efficiency of the navy. It is decidedly that the present reduction should be made, and I would continue to the extent of the country, should continue the rapid payment. I therefore recommend modification of both.

I would recommend that all taxes from internal sources be abolished except those on spirituous vinous and malt liquors and tobacco in its various forms from stamps. I recommend the taxes be so adjusted as to produce the amount required to pay the expenses of the government, the interest on the public debt, and a sinking fund, and that provision be made for such a surplus to be collected in such manner as to afford the greatest relief to the greatest number. There are many articles not produced at home, such as medicines and compounds, essences, from which very little revenue is derived, but which enter into general use. All such articles I recommend to be placed on the free list. Should a further reduction prove advisable I would then recommend that it be made on all those articles which can be without disturbing income production, or reducing the wages of American labor. I have not entered into figures, because to do so would be to repeat all that is laid before you in the report of the Secretary of the Treasury.

The present laws for collecting revenue pay collectors of customs a salary, which, at the principal ports of entry, particularly, raise the compensation of these officers to large sums. It has always seemed to me as if the fees must at times work pernicious influence. It holds out an inducement to dishonest men, should such gain possession of these offices, to be lax in their duties, or to make large seizures. Your attention is respectfully invited to this subject.

Continued fluctuations in the value of gold, as compared with the national currency, has a most damaging effect upon the increase and development of the country in keeping up prices of all articles of consumption, and in the spirit of gambling, and the unfortunate influences, if the question can not be settled, by fixing a fixed value to our currency, that will remain permanent, I would respectfully suggest for your consideration, a very desirable object, will be accomplished.

For the operations of the armies in the past year, the appropriations for the ensuing year, for the support of the army, and for contingent sea coast and other improvements conducted under the supervision of the War Department, are all before you in the accompanying report of the Secretary of War.

I call your attention to the provisions of the act of Congress approved March 3rd, 1869, which discontinues promotion in the staff corps of the army, and provided for by law. I recommend that the number of officers in each grade of the staff corps be fixed, and that whenever the number in any one grade shall be reduced to the number so fixed, the vacancy may be filled by promotion from the grade below. I also recommend that when the office shall cease in every company in each of the three arms of the service accept civilization. They are being cared for in such a way it is hoped as to induce those still pursuing their old habit of life to embrace the only opportunity which is left them to avoid extermination. I recommend liberal appropriations to carry out the Indian peace policy, not only because it is humane, Christianlike and economical, but because it is right. I recommend to your favorable consideration the policy of granting territorial government to Indians of Indian territory west of Arkansas and Missouri, and south of Kansas. In doing so every right guaranteed to Indians by treaty should be secured. Such a course might lie the means of collecting most of the Missourians and the Pacific, and south of the British Possessions, into one State. The Secretary of the interior has treated upon this subject at length, and I recommend to you his suggestions.

I renew my recommendations that the public lands be regarded as a heritage to our children, to be disposed of only as required for occupation, and to actual settlers. Those already granted have been in great part disposed of in such a way as to secure millions to the balance by the hardy settler who may wish to avail himself of them, but caution should be exercised in attaining so desirable an object.

The educational interest may well be served by the grant of the proceeds of the sale of public lands to settlers. I do not wish to be understood as recommending in the least degree a curtailment of what is being done by the general government for the encouragement of education.

The report of the Secretary of the Interior submitted with this will give you information collected, and prepared for publication, in regard to the census taken during the year 1870, the operations of the Bureau of Education for the year, the patent-office, the pension office, the land office and the Indian Bureau, and the report of the Commissioner of Agriculture, and gives the operations of his department for the year.

As agriculture is the ground-work of our prosperity, too much importance cannot be attached to the labors of this department. It is in the hands of an able head, with able assistants, all zealously devoted to introducing into the agricultural productions of the nation all useful products adapted to all the various climates and soils of our vast territory, and to giving all useful information as to the method of cultivating the plants and cereals of other countries, and products adapted to particular localities. Quietly but surely the Agricultural Bureau is working a great national good, and, if liberally supported, the more widely its influence will be extended, and the more good it will do shall be upon the products of foreign countries.

The subject of compensation to the heads of bureaus and officials holding positions of responsibility and of a character to fill properly, is one to which your attention is invited. But few of the officials receive a compensation equal to the respectable support of a family, while their duties are expected to involve millions of interests. In private life, services demand compensation equal to the services rendered. A wise economy would dictate the same rule in the Government service.

I have not given the estimates for the support of the Government for the ensuing year, nor the comparative statements between the expenditures for the year just passed and the one just proceeding, because all these figures are contained in the accompanying reports or in those presented directly to Congress. These estimates have my approval.

More than six years having elapsed since the last hostile gun was fired between the armies then arrayed against each other, one for the perpetuation and the other for the destruction of the Union, it may well be considered whether it is not time that the disabilities imposed by the Fourteenth amendment should be removed. The amendment does not exclude the ballot but only requires the disability to hold offices of certain classes. When the purity of the ballot and secure majorities are sure to elect officers who will, the views of the majority I do not see the advantage or propriety of excluding men from office merely because they were before the rebellion more distinguished and character, if, efficient to be elected to positions requiring them to take an oath to support the Constitution, and admitting to eligibility those entertaining precisely the same views but of less standing in their communities. It may be said the former violated an oath while the latter did not. The latter did not have it in their power to do so. If they had taken the oath it can not be doubted that they would have broken it as did the former class. If there are any great criminals distinguished above all others for the part they took in opposition to the Government, they might, in the judgment of Congress, be excluded from such amnesty. This subject is submitted for your careful consideration. The condition of the Southern States is unhappily not such as true patriot citizens would like to see. Social ostracism by opinion's sake, personal violence and threats towards persons entertaining political views opposed to those entained by the majority of the old citizens, prevents immigration and the flow of much-needed capital into the States lately in rebellion. It will be happy condition of the country when the old citizens of these States will take an interest in public affairs, and promulgate the idea honestly entertained, and vote for men representing that view, and permit the same freedom of expression and ballot in those entertaining different political convictions.

Under the provisions of the act of Congress approved Febuary 21st, 1871, a Territorial Government was organized in the District of Columbia. Its results have, thus far, fully realized the expectations of its advocates. Under the direction of the territorial officers a system of improvements has been inaugurated by means of which Washington is rapidly becoming a city worthy of the nation's capital. The citizens of the District having voluntarily taxed themselves to a large amount for the purpose of contributing to the advancement of the seat of Government, I recommend liberal appropriations on the part of Congress in order that the Government may bear its just share of the expense of carrying out a judicious system of improvement.

By the great fire in Chicago the most important of the government buildings in that city were consumed. Those burned had already become inadequate to the wants of the Government in that growing city, and looking to the near future are lately inadequate. I recommend, therefore that an appropriation be made immediately to purchase the remainder of the square on which the burned buildings stood, which can be purchased at a fair valuation, and provided that the Legislature of Illinois will pass a law authorizing its condemnation for government purposes, and also an appropriation of as much money as can properly be expended toward the erection of new buildings during this fiscal year.

The number of immigrants ignorant of our laws and habits, and coming to us our country annually, has become so great, and the impositions practiced on them so numerous and flagrant, that I suggest Congressional action for their protection, it seems to me, affords a subject of legislation by Congress. I can not state as fully as I desire the nature of the complaints made by emigrants of the treatment they receive, but will endeavor to do so during the session of Congress, particularly if the subject should receive your attention.

It has been the aim of the Administration to enforce honesty and efficiency in all public offices. Every public servant who has violated the trust placed in him has been prosecuted against with all the vigor of the law. If bad men have secured places it has been the fault of the system established by law and custom for making appointments, or the fault of those who recommended for Government positions persons not sufficiently well known to them personally, or who give letters indorsing the character of office-seekers without a proper sense of the responsibility which such course devolves upon them. A civil service reform which can correct this abuse is much desired.

In mercantile pursuits, the business men who give a letter of recommendation to a friend to enable him to obtain credit from a stranger is regarded as morally responsible for the integrity of his friend and his ability to meet his obligations. A reformatory law, which would enforce this principle against all indorsers of persons for public place, would insure great caution in making recommendations. A salutary lesson has been taught the careless and the dishonest servant in the great number of prosecutions and convictions of the last two years. It is gratifying to see the favorable change which is taking place throughout the country in bringing to punishment those who have proved recreant to the trusts confided to them, and in electing to public office none but those who possess the confidence of the honest and virtuous, who, it will always be found, comprise the majority of the community in which they live.

In my message to Congess one year ago I urgently recommended a reform in the civil service of the country. In conformity with that recommendation Congress, in the 9th section, of an act making an appropriation for sundry civil expenses of the Goverment and for other purposes, approved March 30th, 1871, gave the necessary authority to the Executive to inaugurate civil service reform and placed upon him the responsibility of doing so. Under the authority of said law I convened a body of gentleman eminently qualified for the work to devise rules and regulations to effect the needed reform. Their labors are not yet complete, but it is believed that they will succeed in devising a plan which can be adopted to the great relief of the executive, the heads of department and members of Congress, and which will resound to the tone and interest of the public service. At all events, the experiment will have a fair trial.

I have thus hastily summed up the operations of the Government during the last year, and made such suggestions as seemed to me to be proper for your consideration. I submit them with a confidence that your combined action will be wise, and to manifest in all the best interest of the whole country.

THURSDAY DECEMBER....14. 1871

FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR

Hon. Garrett Davis,

OF BOURBON COUNTY.

The Fruits of Democracy.

Ever since the accession of the radical party to power, they have arrogated to themselves the honor of being the makers and supportes of the Government of the United States. If to support the President of the United States, and all his profligate, tyrannical, and corrupt proceedings, in opposition to the best interests and general good and welfare of the whole country is to support the Government, then the honor must be conceded without argument. But a historical review is only necessary to condemn this arrogant presumption. We have only to bring to fear the historical record of the Democratic party, that it may be seen, as to who has built up this great nation and accumulated the immense wealth upon which radical robbers are feeding.

At the time of the adoption of the Federal Constitution, the Union consisted of thirteen States, viz: New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia.

During the administration of George Washington, Vermont was admitted in 1791, Kentucky, in 1792, and Tennessee in 1796.

Under the administration of John Adams, a Federal and Democratic President, not one State was admitted into the Union.

During the administration of Thomas Jefferson a Democratic President, assisted by a Democratic Congress the State of Ohio was admitted in 1802, and the purchase of Louisiana made, which embraced a territory sufficient for the formation of fifteen additional States thereby giving the entire control of the Mississippi river into the hands of the United States. There were also, during this administration, territorial governments organized for Louisiana, Mississippi, and Indiana.

During the administration of James Madison, a Democratic President, supported by a Democratic Congress, Louisiana was admitted in 1812, and Indiana in 1816.

During the administration of James Monroe, a Democratic President, assisted by a Democratic Congress, Mississippi was admitted in 1817, Illinois in 1818, Alabama in 1819, Maine in 1820, and Missouri in 1821, and also Florida purchased.

During the administration of John Q Adams, an anti-Democratic President, no new State was admitted, nor a foot of territory acquired.

During the administration of Andrew Jackson, a Democratic President with a Democratic Congress, Michigan and Arkansas were admitted in 1836.

During Martin Van Burens administration, Democratic, no new States were admitted.

During the Presidency of Harrison and Tyler no new States were admitted.

During the Presidency of Jas. K. Polk, a Democratic President, assisted by a Democratic Congress, Texas was acquired and admitted in 1845, Iowa and Florida admitted in 1845, Wisconsin in 1848, and California, New Mexico, and Utah, purchased.

During the administration of Taylor and Fillmore, whigs, assisted by a Democratic Congress, California was admitted in 1850, and Territorial governments organized for New Mexico, Utah, and Washington.

During the administration of Franklin Pearce a Democratic President, Arizonia was purchased, and territorial governments organized by a Democratic Congress, for Nebraska and Kansas.

During the administration of James Buchanan, a Democratic President, the State of Minnesota was admitted in 1858, and Oregan in 1859.

Thus it will be seen, that to 1860 every new State had been admitted into the Union under a Democratic administration, except California; and her admission was by a Democratic Congress under a whig President. Every Territory acquired since the Resolution, has been the work of a Democratic President, and a Democratic Congress; And a Democratic Congress has organized and given a government to every Territory.

Then what is the conclusion to be drawn from this scrap of political history? That party so much condemned by the enemies of free government, had made us what we were in 1860. The ignorant and prejudiced may look at one side of this matter, but the history of the country must always speak for itself, and vindicate the wisdom and justice of Democratic principles. Then the United States was the boast and pride of every American citizen, and was about to be pronounced a grand success in the experiment of self government.

We have only to contrast the fruits of Democratic government, during a term of at least sixty years, with that of Radical misrule, during the last ten, to assertain the comparative merits of the two. Since 1860 they have admitted, Nebraska and Nevada, and with these the so-called State of West Virginia which has been appropriately styled the illegitimate offspring of a political outrage. Instead of a free government of the States, we have a military despotism established over about one third of the territory of the United States, by the President, in order to secure his re-election. Instead of a President we have a dictator. Instead of peace and prosperity we have discord, terror, anarchy, and bankruptcy. Fremen are changed to the condition of serfs, corruption, bribery, and dishonor, have taken the place of purity, honesty, and fidelity, and the whole country is threatened with bankruptcy ruin, and total overthrow.

The Prince of Wales Dying.

A dispatch, sent from London at midnight last night (18 minutes past 6 P. M. Louisville time) announced that the Prince of Wales was then in a dying condition. Albert Edward, eldest son of Queen Victoria, and heir apparent to the British Crown, was born at Buckingham Palace November 9, 1841, and is therefore just out of his thirtieth year. He received his early education under Rev. Henry M. Birch and Mr. Gibbs, barrister at law, and subsequently at Edinburgh, Oxford, and Cambridge. He visited the United States and Canada in 1860, was married March 10, 1863, to the Princess Alexandra, daughter of the King of Denmark, and leaves five or six children. His two eldest are boys—Albert Victor, born January 8, 1864, and George, born June 3, 1865. By the English law of succession, the eldest surviving son inherits from the heir-apparent the latter's right to the crown. Upon the death of Albert Edward, Albert Victor will become Prince of Wales, and should Queen Victoria die soon, there will be a long regency during the minority of this infant prince.—Louisville Ledger.

P. S. At latest accounts the Prince is still alive though no hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Communication.

FLEMING COUNTY, Dec. 10th, 1871.

Editor of Democrat:

I see from the last number of your paper, that a correspondent over the signature of "An Old Line Democrat," has suggested, as suitable persons for candidates, for President and Vice President the names of S. P. Chase and Garret Davis. Mr. Davis is a good man; bold, manly and outspoken. The Democratic masses could consistently support him, and would do so, for they know him to be honest. But could the Democratic party support S. P. Chase. Certainly not, unless they go back upon their own record. Mr. Chase is certainly a great man intellectually but he does not hold to a single principle in common with the Democracy. No doubt but that he would accept the nomination at the hands of the Democratic party, if he thought that he had a shadow of a chance of success, not that he agrees with us in political sentiment, but for the sake of the office, for the spoils, for the "loaves and fishes." For the Democratic party to nominate S. P. Chase would be to cowardly surrender all for which we have contended in the past. Let us either nominate a Democratic ticket on a Democratic platform, or else say and do nothing in the premises. I too am an "Old Line Democrat," and honestly think that our only hope is in a bold and manly fight. I fear that our once grand old party is becoming cowardly, we are ready to surrender at the approach of the enemy, without even getting in line of battle. Let us stand to our colors, and contend for our principles. Suppose we are defeated, we win at least some honor on our side, to ask the, anti Grant men for the poore privilege of nominating a Democrat for Vice President, as suggested by your correspondent would be descending to a depth of humility, that I as a Democrat am unwilling to do, and then to have as good a man as Garrett Davis tacked on and made the tail of this mongrel political kite over which some of white Democratic voters to thus petition a little squad of discontented office seeking Radical politicians

Again ahead of all!—Is the exclamation we make on opening "Peterson's Magazine" for January. It is impossible to conceive how a lady's book could be handsomer, or more perfect. "I Wonder if I Could Dance," the principal steel plate is one of the most charming we have ever seen. Another steel plate is "The New Governess," illustrating a beautiful tale by the author of "Kathleen's Love Story." The double size mammoth, colored, steel fashion plate is a gem of loveliness these colored, mammoth steel plates are a specialty with "Peterson." Then there is a superb Berlin pattern, in colors, for a chair-seat, such as, at a store, would cost fifty cents, or even more. But it is impossible to tell the beauties of "Peterson" for January, the number and variety of them are so great. Two powerfully written novelets are begun in this number. "The Island of Diamonds," by that favorite writer, Harry Danforth, and "Bought with a Price," by Mrs. Ann S. Stephens. This is unquestionably the cheapest of the really good Magazines. The price is but two dollars a year, with great deductions to clubs; and splendid premiums are offered to the persons getting up clubs. Specimens are sent gratis. We advise parties to see a specimen before subscribing for anything else. Address, Chas. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

The Great Pictorial Annual

Hostetter's United States Almanac for 1872, for distribution, gratis, through out the United States, and all civilized countries of the Western Hemisphere, will be published about the first of January, in the English, German, French, Norwegian, Welsh, Swedish, Holland, Bohemian and Spanish languages, and all who wish to understand the true philosophy of health should read and ponder the valuable suggestions it contains. In addition to an admirable medical treatise on the causes, prevention and cure of a great variety of diseases, it embraces a large amount of information interesting to the merchant, the mechanic, the miner, the farmer, the planter, and professional man, and the calculations have been made for such meridians and latitudes as are most suitable for a correct and comprehensive National Calendar.

The nature, uses, and extraordinary sanitary effects of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the staple tonic and alterative of more then half the Christian world, are fully set forth in its pages, which are also interspersed with pictorial illustrations, valuable recipes for the household and farm, humorous anecdotes, and other instructive and amusing reading matter, original and select.

Among the Annuals to appear with the opening of the year, this will be one of the most useful, and may be had for the asking. The proprietors, Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa., on receipt of a two cent stamp, will forward a copy by mail to any person who cannot procure one in his neighborhood. The Bitters are sold in every city, town and village, and are extensively used throughout the entire civilized world.

1872 THE WORLD 1872

In the year 1872 General Grant's successor is to be chosen, the Forty third Congress to be elected.

The people's votes, white and black North and South, will thus decide the future destiny of the Republic, select its rulers, prescribe their course

How to influence the people's votes?

By the newspaper—for it includes every other agency. It makes known events and facts—among all influences the chief. It assembles the vaster outside audiences which cannot gather in the State house, or the pulpit, or the stump. It is the constant interpreter of men's affairs, and of error or truth is the daily seed-sower.

Next November is our political harvest time As we sow we shall reap.

The World's seed-sowing will be fruitful to the extent that its circulation is widely pushed by those who approve its aim.

The World will aim to represent and combine the labors and the votes of

I.—All those who feel best insurance of the people's prosperity, peace, and progress in a government administered on the principles and in the pure practice of Jefferson and Jackson, and who descry the fount and origin of the present corruptions, extravagance, misgovernment, subversion of public liberties, and insecurity of private rights in usurpers, lawless usurpation of interdicted and undelegated powers—usurpation that to-day marches deliberately on to the subjugation of popular rule and the possession of dictatorial power—for by acts of Congress General Grant may even now destroy the freedom of State elections, invade the States at his pleasure and declare martial law of his own mere will.

II.—All those who would maintain the honor of republics, and would preserve public credit by punctual payment of public debts.

III—All those who would cut down to fewer and fit objects all appropriations of the people's money (to-day more than double, nearly treble, the appropriations of a Democratic Congress eleven years ago, 281 counting annuities to Indians, pensions to soldiers, and interest on debt), and who would oblige all spending of the people's money got by taxes to be with honesty and thrift; likewise all those who would spare a little of the people's hinded estate for the landless millions hereafter and stop its squandering dominions in a day upon those who at ready own too much.

IV—All those who would reduce the number of commodities taxes by our tariff from thousands to a few dozens, and so empty our custom-house of half their officials, rid the statute-books of half their odious snares for honesty or bribes to fraud, and unfetter scores of our native industries.

V.—All those who would lower the rates also of our tariff taxes to the point of most easily yielding the larger revenue—who would abandon the protectionist system of reducing the public revenue whilst increasing the extortionate profits of a few at the expense of all other industries.

VI.—All those who would abolish every unlawful tax, like that on incomes; every unjust tax like that which gives banks the people's profits on a national currency; every unequal and indefinite tax, like that levied most cruely upon the poor—the tax of our irredeemable paper-money.

The world will aim—as the recognized and leading organ of the Democratic party in the great focus of national commerce and intelligence—to fulfill this it's mission and duty with steadfast boldness and fidelity; to inspire in the ranks of those who think the same things concerning the Republic an united, organized, determined, and persistent zeal, to win new recruits from among those who have been enemies to the Democracy in the conflicts of a dead past; and to marshal an unbroken phalanx to the triumph at the ballot-box (true battle-field of republics) of Liberty, Equality, and Law.

As a Vehicle of News,

The World will spare no expense, no energy, to maintain and advance its place in the first rank of metropolitan journals. Its fresh, abundant, various, and accurate news, comprising the whole circle of current intelligence and literature, will be discussed, as becomes with candor with steady devotion to sound public and private morals, with special knowledge for special themes, and with various and wide-reaching apprehension of the manifold interests of men and women in their homes, their market places, their work-shops, and their farms.

THE WEEKLY WORLD.

A large quarto sheet, printed through out in large type, and published every Wednesday morning. Among its prominent features are:

1 It's very Full and Accurate Market Reports, embracing the Live Stock markets of New York, Albany, Brighton, Cincinnati, and Philadelphia, the New York Country Produce Market, and General Produce Markets of the country, and full reports of the New York Money Market. Each of these reports is compiled with great care, and contains the latest quotations that can be obtained up to the time of putting the paper to press.

2. The Agricultural Department, which contains each week articles on practical and scientific farming that are of great value to the American farmers.

3. A very full report of the proceedings of the Farmers Club of the American Institute is printed in each issue of the Weekly World the day after the meeting of the Club. By this arrangement the report appears in the Weekly World one week in advance of its publication in any other weekly paper.

4. A portion of the Weekly World is reserved for family reading matter, including original and selected stories, poems, waifs of humor, and extracts from books and periodicals. Particular attention will be given to this department during the year.

5. A special feature of the Weekly World is a carefully compiled summary of the news of each week. It is made so complete that no one who reads it can fail of being well posted on all the important news of the day.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY WORLD.

published Tuesday and Friday, is a large quarto sheet, containing all the news published in the Daily World, with the exception of such local reports as may be of no interest to non-residents of New York City. The market reports are full as those of the daily editions, and it contains, besides interesting literary matter, on Friday of each week, a full report of the Farmers Club.

THE DAILY WORLD

contains all the news of the day that can be obtained by mail and telegraph from all parts of the world, and through discussions of all topics of interest.

THE WORLD ALMANAC, commenced in 1868, has been published about the 1st of January, in 1868, 1869, 1870, and 1871. That for 1872 will be ready about January 1st.

The World Almanac contains a great quantity of invaluable political information of use to every voter, and of such a character as is not obtainable in any other publication. In it are printed the full official returns of every important election held during the year preceding the issue of the Almanac the vote of New York State by election districts, and of Connecticut and New Jersey by towns, the figures of and vote for members of both branches of the New York Legislature, the returns of the New York City municipal elections, list of members of the United States Government, of Congress, and of the several State governments, and other statistical matter. The World Almanac for 1872 will be necessary to every Democrat who desires to keep himself thoroughly posted in facts and figures.

DR. WALKER'S

VINEGAR BITTERS

J. WALKER, Proprietor, R. H. McDONALD & Co., Druggists and Gen. Agts., San Francisco, Cal. and cor. Washington and Battery Sts., New York.

Read what the Medical Times says of Vinegar Bitters:

Vinegar Bitters, Proof Spirits and Medicinal Elements, extracted from the plants, roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all impurities, and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. Persons can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long upon the sick list. They have cured many, who have suffered on a mere pittance, and the total organs wasted beyond the power of drugs.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also the peculiar virtue of acting upon the liver as a cure for Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters are unequaled.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Biliousness, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases as are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the system, giving the torpid liver and bowels a healthy tone, and a wonderful efficacy in all complaints incidental to females, and in all cases where a stimulant is required, they are invaluable as a Strengthening Stimulant.

FOR MALE DISEASES, Fevers, Fever and Ague, Bilious Fever, Pleurisy, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Rheumatism, Fever Sores, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ringworm, Scurf, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature are literally dug up and carried out by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative powers.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when you find it impure, and you will find health when the foundation of the system is strong. Purge, purge, purge, but do not weaken the system with cathartics and purgatives. Nature's great purgative is a mild tonic, which acts on the bowels, not like a cathartic, but as a tonic, leaving the bowels in a healthy condition. Such a tonic is Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters.
