POETRY

MY MOTHER'S BIBLE.

BY GEORGE P. MORRIS.

This book is all that's left me now!—
Tears will unbidden start—
With faltering lip and throbbing brow,
I press it to my heart.
For many generations passed,
Here is our family tree;
My mother's hands this Bible clasped—
She, dying, gave it me.

Ah! well do I remember there
Whose names these records bear;
Who round the hearthstone used to close
After the evening prayer,
And speak of what these pages said,
In terms my heart would thrill—
Though they are with the silent dead,
Here are they living still!

My father read this holy book
To brother, sister dear—
How calm was my poor mother's look,
Who learned God's word to hear!
Her angel face—I see it yet!
What thronging memories come!
Again that little group is met
Within the halls of home!

Thou trust friend man ever knew,
Thy constancy I've tried;
When all were false, I've found thee true,
My counsellor and guide.
The value of earth no treasures give
That could this volume buy;
In teaching me the way to live,
It taught me how to die.

Kentucky Legislature.

There was a quorum in both branches of the General Assembly on the 9th, but very little business was transacted in either branch.

The Auditor placed before the Senate a communication in exposition of the financial condition of the State. Ordered to be printed, and referred to the Committee on Finance.

The communication reads as follows:

AUDITOR'S OFFICE,
Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 9, 1872.

Hon. John G. Carlile, Speaker of the Senate:

SIR: I feel it to be my duty to lay before the Senate the condition of the Treasury on the 1st inst. It is as follows:

In Sinking Fund	$255,595 87
In Treasury not transferred	213,375 16
School Fund not transferred	356 38
School Fund not transferred	290,761 15
	$468,972 04
Insurance Bureau	357,817 53
Enrolled Militia	2,963 12
Negro Fund	5,422 20
Military Fund	28,00
	$844,155,78
Deduct deficit Revenue Proper	93,783 13
Total balance in Treasury, Jan. 1st, 1872.	$750,372 15

From this statement it will be seen that there is not a dollar in the Treasury to the credit of the Revenue Proper, but on the contrary a deficit in that fund of $93,783 13.

It is for the General Assembly, in its wisdom, to provide for the stated deficit, so as to enable me to pay the expenses of its present session, and the current expenses of the State.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,
D. HOWARD SMITH, Auditor.

In the House Mr. Goodloe offered the following joint resolution, and the rule rule requiring the same to lie over one day being suspended, the resolution was adopted, viz:

WHEREAS, An inscrutable Providence has removed from his usefulness on earth Robert J. Breckinridge, D. D., LL. D.; therefore, be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That in the death of Dr. Breckinridge, the church to which he belonged has lost one of its brightest and ablest ministers, the community a good and trusted member, the State one of her noblest and most honored sons, and the nation a talented and patriotic statesman.

Resolved, that the deeds and example of a man so illustrious and eminent, and whose fame is commensurate only with the boundaries of Christian civilization, will live vividly through ages to come, and though no act of ours can add a moment to their longer perpetuation; yet, as an evidence of respect to the memory of the deceased, these resolutions are directed to be spread upon the Journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, and a copy of the same forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That as a further mark of respect to the memory of the deceased, this House do now adjourn.

Mr. Goodloe moved as a mark of respect to the deceased that the House do now adjourn.

Motion adopted, and the House then adjourned.

HEAVEN.

From the Missouri Cascadier.

What strange notions some many people have, in regard to everything that pertains to religion, eternity and their souls. Neglect of the Bible, the only fountain of true knowledge, is the cause. In their worldly business, there is no looseness, no vagueness, no indecision.—They study it closely, diligently, thoroughly; then mark out their plans; and go to work; But in all those mighty affairs, connected with their everlasting destiny, what misty, muddled, absurdity belonged ideas. What wavering, doubts and uncertainties. God, seldom thought of at all, is a dim, indefinite Being, wrapped in clouds, and indifferent to the small affairs of human life—absorbed in mystic meditations upon countless ages past—or only interested in the movements of angels and arch angels, cherubim and seraphim. Christ, the Savior of sinners, is dreamily regarded as a good man, in a long flowing robe, who died upon a cross, and was afterward miraculously resurrected and borne to heaven—No distinct appreciation ever enters their dullard brains, of the fact that the despised and crucified Nazarene was, and is the Omnipotent Jehovah, who, in the beginning, spoke the universe into existence. And then their conceptions of heaven—how confused, how indistinct, how purelle and nonsensical!—Heaven! What picture rises at the mention of the name? It is not a vast caravansary of naked souls, bat-like spectres, airy nothings, invisible and etherial essences, flitting hither and thither, by, and in, and through, each other. Not a huge, dazaling, blinding metropolis of hard, cold, glittering jewels, flashing ten thousand gorgeous tints of endless light, into our unaccustomed eyes, and overwhelming, stupefying us with corruscating grandeur and magnificence. Not a great aerial Joldo, paved with gold, for in such a case, many good Lexington christians would never get their eyes above their boot toes, and would spend eternity trying to pocket the paving-stones.—Not a wide-spreading plain, watered by a chrystal river, with millions of white-robed loafers lolling idly on its banks, with nothing to do but strum on harps and lords, and shout hosannas. Not a bit of it. Heaven itself would grow monotonous and tiresome, under such circumstances. But it is a world like this, purified from all corruption and decay. A world, where we'el meet, and know each other far better than we do here; for these same bodies will be there, resurrected, imperishable, and radiant with immortal youth and beauty. A world, where long sundered family groups will pe reunited, to part no more, forever. A world, where the familiar song of lark and linnet and thrush, will greet our ears, from bowers of fade less foliage. A world, where Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, Moses and David, Daniel and Elijah, in all the freshness and vigor of thousands of years ago, will be our associates and friends. A world of illimitable learning and progression, with angels of perhaps a million years experience, for instructors and guides. A world of sweet and holy converse, of everlasting bloom, and deathless love. A world free from sin and sorrow, pain and tears; where deceit, back-biting, falsehood, jealousy and hate, are never known; where sighs and groans, envy, outrage, wrong and death, can never come.

No sickness there,
No weary wanting of the frame to bear,
No fearful shrinking from the midnight air,
No dread of summer's bright and fervid ray,
No hidden grief.
No wild and cheerless vision of despair,
No vain petition for a swift relief,
No tearful eye, no broken hearts are there.

Care has no home,
Within that realm of rapturous praise and song
Its tossing billows break and melt in foam,
Far from the mansions of the spirit-throng.

No parted friends,
Our mournful recollections have to weep
No bed of death, enduring love attends,
To watch the coming of a pulseless sleep.

No blasted flower,
Or withered bud, celestial gardens grow;
No scorching blast or fierce descending shower
Scatters destruction like a ruthless foe.

No battle-word
Startles the sacred hast with fear and dread,
The song of peace. Creation's morning hard,
Is sung wherever angel-minstrels tread!

Reader, friend, there is but one road to this realm of the blest. Straight is the gate and narrow the way. It is often a rugged and thorny path; and marked, all along, with tearstains and foot-prints of blood. Trials and dangers beset the traveler in it; storms of temptation and sorrow, beat upon his head. But perseverance, and humble, fervent trust in the dear Lamb of Calvary, will bear him safely and surely through, at last. There is another track, broad, smooth, well-beaten. Flowers bloom along its borders. Gilded saloons offer rest and refreshment to the journeyer. Softly tinted light from many a brilliant hall of pleasure, gleams on his course. The cards and dice and licentious dance, afford amusement for his leisure hours. But ah, the journey's end is hell! Reader, which route is yours?

Death of Gen Halleck.

From the Courier Journal.

Major General Henry Wager Halleck, commander of the Department of the South, died at his residence, on Second street, between Green and Walnut, at twelve five minutes past 8 o'clock last evening, after an illness of nearly two months. Gen. Halleck was attacked with hemmorrhage of the bowels about the first of last November when dropsical symptoms appeared, and organic disease of the liver and heart was developed, which superinduced softening of the brain, ending in his death as stated. Some days ago he appeared to be getting better, but took a relapse, and sank rapidly, remaining in a state of coma for twenty-four hours immediately preceding his death. During a portion of this time his respiration seemed to be labored, but became easy at last, and he passed away apparently unconscious of his condition or of anything around him, and evidently without pain. His end was a peaceful close to an eventful career.

Major General Halleck was born near Utica, New York, in the year 1815, and was consequently in his fifty eighth year at the time of his death. He was educated at West Point, entering as a cadet in 1835 and graduating in 1839, being appointed Second Lieutenant of the United States engineer corps in July of the same year. He was one of the assistant engineer professors at West Point from that time till 1840, and was promoted to First Lieutenant in 1845. Between the two latter dates he published a work on Bitumen, and wrote a series of lectures on war, which were published in 1846 under the title Elements of Military Art and Science. He served in the Mexican war, on the Lower California coast, and was brevoted Captain in 1847, when he was made Secretary of State of California, which had been organized under a military government. He occupied this position under the Military Governorship of Generals Kearney, Mason and Riley, and in 1849 was a member of the convention called to form a State constitution, preparatory to the formal admission of California into the Union. He was chairman of the committee appointed to draft the constitution, and took an active and efficient part in this important work. If, indeed, it was not, as we have been informed, mainly his own work. In 1853 he was promoted to a captaincy of engineers, but the pay of office being insufficient to meet their expenses, in consequence of the great cost of living in that country at the time, he retired from the army in 1854, and entered into a partnership for the practice of the law in San Francisco. His professional life was successful, and he amassed a considerable fortune. At the breaking out of the late war he was at the head of a prosperous legal firm in San Francisco, but at the instance of General Scott he was called from California in 1861, and August 19th, of the same year, was commissioned a Major General of the United States army. On his arrival from the Pacific coast, he was placed in command of the Department of the West, relieving General Hunter. After the battles of Paducah, Fort Donelson, Fort Henry and shiloh Gen. Halleck assumed personal command before Corinth, Miss., in May, 1862, and prosecuted the famous siege of that place, which ended in its evacuation. He was then called to Washington, and on the 11th of July of the same year he was appointed commander in chief of the armies of the United States. When Gen. Grant was made Lieutenant General in 1864, General Halleck was retained at Washington as an advising officer, and after the fall of Richmond took command of the place, making his headquarters there until after the return of Sherman's army from the South. Afterwards he was sent to take command on the Pacific coast, and recalled from there in 1869 to the head of the Department of the South, which then included Texas, which has recently been separated from the department. He made his headquarters in this city, where he has remained until the present time.

Gen. Halleck was the author of several works of some repute, such as Elements of International Law and the Laws of War, Elements of Military Art and Science, Mining Laws of Spain, Mexico, ect. He married about 1854 or 1855 the daughter of John C. Hamilton, of New York, and leaves his wife and one son aged about sixteen. The latter is now at school at Faribault, Minnesota, under the tuition of Bishop Whipple, Episcopal Bishop of that State, who is a relative of the family. During his recent visit here we believe Bishop Whipple received Gen. Halleck into the Episcopal church. He leaves an ample fortune for the support of his widow, and to open every road to fame and usefulness for his son. Gen. Hamilton, his brother-in law, is now here with his afflicted sister.

There will be a military funeral with the usual honors paid to the distinguished dead of the army, when the body will be deposited in the vault at Cave Hill Cemetery, where it will remain until removed for interment in that beautiful "city of the dead," Greenwood Cemetery, New York.

The Democratic Party in The Presidential Election—Letter from Hon. Geo. H. Pendleton.

We find in the Cincinnati Enquirer of yesterday the following letter from Hon. George H. Pendleton, which was read at the 8th of January celebration at Wooster, Ohio. As was to have been expected of him, it will be seen that he stands up squarely for preserving the integrity and organization of the Democratic party instead of adopting the "possum" or passive policy of disbanding and forming a new or third party:

CINCINNATI, December 30, 1871.

Messrs. Eshelman, Feistner, Baughman, Committee of Invitation:

GENTLEMEN: I regret that I cannot accept your invitation to be present at the next annual celebration of the 8th of January. It would have given me great pleasure to meet and take counsel of those who are so well grounded in the faith and the practice of Democracy as the men of Wayne county, and with them to recall the principles and example of the founders of our party.

Two great dangers imperil free institutions under the policy of the party now in power. The spirit of centralized military government attacks everywhere the Constitution and corruption in office destroys the civil administration. I do not speak merely or chiefly of special defalcations, however startling, but of the general degradation of the standard of official integrity until the officers in both the civil and military service seem to be considered the property, of the party to be dispensed and administered primarily of party aggrandizement of personal profit.

These dangers grow out of and are inseparable from the present organization of the Republican party. Its foundation, its philosophy, its history, and its leaders recognize military power and the corrupting use of money by official patronage as legitimate forces in ordinary civil administration, and now more than ever are they brought into active exercise. The Democratic party confronts this theory, and denounces these practices.

Founded upon the idea of local government, jealous of powers granted to authority, taught that simplicity and economy are essential to the honesty necessary in Republican institutions it maintains with more determined purpose that the military must be subordinate to the civil authority, and that offices are a trust for the people, not spoils for the victors.

Its powerful organization enters every village in the land, and numbers among its adherents nearly one-half the people—as intellectual, as pure, as patriotic as unselfish, as any of their fellow citizens. They are too numerous to be cowardly. They are too patriotic to be lukewarm. They are too sincere in their purposes and convictions to be driven to despondency by ten years of reverses. They have shown constancy in defeat as well as wisdom in victory. If I understand their feelings, they will neither disband their organization, nor flee the field before the coatest commences. Either course, they believe, would yield undisputed sway to the present administration, which could then give undivided attention to the deserters from its ranks. An advancing army, with the enemy either dispersed or in flight, never loses divisions or regiments, or even companies, and is generally able to pick off or to job up treasurous or thoughless stragglers.

If there be, as is claimed many members of the Republican party who disapprove the ideas which dominate the administration of President Grant, and are prepared to oppose his re election, they should declare their purposes, organize their party, develop and manifest their strength, and if I may predict the future, they will have no just cause, even the most sensitive and timid among them, for refusing to cooperate with the Democratic party.

When its authorized convention shall speak it will remind its adherents that the ultimate and highest purpose of its existence is to secure the greatest property, in its best sense, of every human being in the land; that principles of government are true or untrue, as they contribute to this result; that parties and policies and officers are but means to this end; that principles are of different application, and questions lose their importance in the ever-shifting changes of human affairs; and discarding all narrow ideas, abandoning the consideration of all questions which have been decided or buried by the events which have passed, recognizing the accomplished facts of the present, and appreciating the dangers of the future, it will invite, both by words and by deeds, both by resolutions and by nominations, the zealous, hearty cooperation of all men who believe that the Constitution is a better system of government than martial law, and that reform in the civil service is a higher duty than rewarding prospective partisan effort by distributing spoils.

By this course the party, I should hope, would attain success. If it should once more fall, as an honest, faithful, patriotic minority, it will hold an important position and exert an immense moral power over the majority, and it may well wait with faith the inevitable hour which will crown its fidelity and patience with the success which it will have deserved. I am, very respectfully your obedient servant.

GEO. H. PENDLETON.

A Model Obituary.

A disconsolate editor thus bemoans his departed spouse:

"Thus my wife died. No more will those loving hands pull off my boots and part my black hair, as only a true wife can. Nor will ever those willing feet replenish the coal hod or water pail. No more will she arise amid the tempestuous storms of winter, and he herself away to build the fire without disturbing the slumber of the man who doted on her so artlessly. Her memory is emblazed in my heart of hearts. I wanted to emblam her body, but I found that I could emblam her memory cheaper.

"I procured of Eli Mudget, a neighbor of mine, a very pretty gravestone His wife was consumptive, and he kept it on hand several years, in anticipation of her death. But she rallied last spring, and his hopes were blasted. Never shall I forget the poor man's grief when I asked him to part with it. 'Take it, Skinner, and may you never know what it is to have yoursoul racked with disappointment as mine has been! and he burst into a flood of tears His spirit was, indeed, utterly broken.

"I had the following epitaie engraved upon her tombstone: To the memory of Tabitha, wife of Moses Skinner, Esq gentlemanly editor of the Trombone. Terms three dollars a year, invariably in advance. A kind mother and exemplary wife. Office over Coleman's grocery, up two flights of stairs, Knock hard. We shalt miss thee, mother, we shall miss thee. Job printing solicited.' Thus did my lacerated spirit cry out imagony, even as Rachel weeping for her children. But one ray of light penetrated the despair of my soul. The undertaker took his pay in job printing, and the sexton owed me a little account I should not have gotten any other way. Why should we pine at the mysterious ways of Providence and vicinity? (Not a conundrum.

San Francisco Call.

Davis After Grant.

Hon. Garrett Davis proposes to have the Investigating Committee examine and report upon the following points:

1. President Grant's connection with the contracts to furnish materials for the Government buildings—otherwise known as "the Senate Sandstone Quarry Company's speculations"—Grant being the owner of $25,000 worth of stock in said company, for which he never paid a cent.

2. His acceptance of bribes and presents for offices given—a point involving an infinite amount of corruption, connected with the entire patronage of the executive.

3. His appointment of some twenty odd relatives to office—a thing never heard of, or tolerated in the republic heard of a decent Republic, before.

4. The rank-smelling corruption and usurpations of imperial power, in the San Domingo job.

5. The President's long continued absences from his official duties—frolicking all summer, every year, at his gilt-cottage at Long Branch.

To these, Mr. Davis might have added a hundred other points had he chosen to do so; but, we presume, he thought that, if the committee would take up these and investigate them thoroughly and honestly, they would be enough to condemn, to everlasting infamy, the man, who has dared to defile the Chair of Washington with the pomp and state, and unlawful power, of a military monarch.

THE DEMOCRAT.

C. H. ASHTON, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.
M. M. THOMAS, ASSISTANT EDITOR.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 18, 1872.

☞ Be thankful: according to your means.

☞ There were only seven deaths from small pox in Louisville last year

☞ Chas. Hale, of Massachusetts, has been tendered the Assistant Secretary of State.

☞ The Marshall Advocate congratulates itself that there is no special fun in that town.

☞ The Indiana State Republican Convention will be held at Indianapolis on the 22d February.

☞ The plaster at Hotel, Lexington, has been sold to Geo. Jas. P. Robinson for the sum of $36,750.

☞ The New York Sun puts up Lyman Trumbull for President and Sam J. J. Tilden for Vice President.

☞ The Legislature of Illinois has passed resolutions favoring the one term principle for President.

☞ Forty-eight Kuklux have been sentenced to imprisonment in South Carolina—one month to two years.

☞ In Rockcastle Fiscal Court case for congress of McKnight, Republican vs. Braxton, Democrat, the latter was admitted to the seat.

☞ Edward S. Stokes has been indicted for wilful murder. Now let a jury be summoned that will have enough backbone to hang him.

☞ The official returns of the Congressional election in Texas are as follows: Democratic 92,326; Republican 43,771. Democratic majority 18,724.

☞ The Hardy Amp. That not a moment stop you go after the Cincinnati folks won't do. And then you know Scudder don't know how to take it.

☞ The negro who outraged a white girl at Rochester New York, has been sent to the Penitentiary for twenty years. He ought to have been sent to the other place.

☞ Hasly of the Mt Sterling Sentinel is after the editorial editor of the Carlisle Mercury with a sharp quill. Scudder appropriates Hasly's jokes but the Carlisle girls don't.

☞ The Kentucky Legislature House Committee on elections have decided the contest between Culbertson and Williams for the Boyd and Carter seat in favor of the latter.

☞ Prince Frederick, the heir apparent, first born of Ulysses the First was presented to King Amadeus of Spain on the 17th of December, and received with great honors.

☞ Mr. Cooper, Representative from Mass. has introduced a bill in the Legislature to regulate vaccination in this Commonwealth. That is the right move in the right direction.

☞ Senator Whitaker of Mason has introduced a bill in the Senate to amend the charter of the Maysville and Lexington Railroad (northern division.) We know nothing of the amendment.

☞ A salute of 37 guns was fired at Frankfort on the 8th inst, in honor of the victory at New Orleans, 57 years ago, where the immortal Jackson defeated the British under Packenham.

☞ The Republican National executive committee have determined to hold the Republican Convention for the nomination of a candidate for the Presidency at Philadelphia. The time set is the 5th of June.

☞ The Illinois House of Representatives, by a vote of 71 for to 58 against it, have passed resolutions in favor of Summer's one-term Presidential restriction. This is a slap at Grant from his own State.

☞ Mr. W. C. Miller has retired from the Richmond Register, which will be hereafter published by the Register Printing company. We hope a long and happy life to our friend upon his retirement.

☞ The New York Sun says there were Two hundred and five murders committed in that city last year and nobody hanged. Well the authorities have fine opportunity now. Let them hang the murderer of Fisk.

☞ Conly, the temporary Governor of Georgia, having agreed to yield to the decision of the Legislature, that body decided that Hon. G. M. Smith was elected Governor, and made arrangements for him to be inaugurated last Friday.

☞ While standing before a window, at Morgantown, Ky., lately, a young lady received a slight shock from the flash of lightning. On her recovery, it was found that a tree close by had been accurately photographed on her breast.

☞ The New York Tribune is to be proscribed on account of its opposition to Grant's renomination and postmaster throughout the country are to be notified not to act as agents for that paper in getting up clubs, so says the administration organ at Washington.

The Kentucky Legislature.

The Legislature after its recess has come to work in the right way. Much business of a local character has been finished. The Southern Railroad bill which was made the special order for the 8th inst. occupied the attention of the house for the past four or five days. The debate has been able on decided by both sides and has drawn a great deal of interest. The Frankfort Yeomen in noting the interesting says "On Tuesday Mr. Wade of Louisville, opened the debate in a long and carefully prepared speech in opposition to the bill. He was followed by Mr. Hook of Simpson, in support of the bill, in an able speech, which he concluded on Wednesday. On the latter day Mr. Johnson of Jefferson, and Mr. Hoskins of Boyle, also spoke respectively against and in favor of the bill. On Thursday, it was by some thought that there would be no further debate, but when the hour for the consideration of the bill arrived, Mr. Cole, of Louisville addressed the House for an hour, in opposition to the measure. This brought out in reply Mr. Blackburn, of Woodford Chairman of the Committee on Railroads, who had already made himself known as the earnest advocate of the bill. He spoke, both in the matter and manner of delivery, has elicited very general and flattering compliment. He was followed in brief speeches by Mr. Wright, of Louisville, and Mr. Scales, of Covington—the former opposing and the latter favoring the bill. On yesterday Mr. Varnon, of Lincoln, advocated the passage of the bill, as also did Mr. Baker, of Campbell. Brief speeches were also made by Mr. Sanders, of Trimble, and Mr. Cooper, of Mason, in opposition to the measure, and by Mr. Hoskins, of Boyle, in its support, the remarks of the latter being with special reference to the question of "eminent domain." Altogether it has been a very able discussion, in which there has been developed the talent for debate among those who have taken part in it."

On Saturday the Southern railroad bill was again taken up and it passed the house by the following vote.

Those who voted in the affirmative were—Mr. Speaker (McCreary) and Messrs. Allen, Armstrong, Baker, Bassett, John A. Bell, S. C. Bell, Blackburn, Bond, Bush, Card, Carl, Carter, Chrisman, Clay, jr., Combs, Conrad, Cook, Cornett, Cossar, Davidson, Dederick, Walter Evans, W. H. Evans, Fish, Fippin, Foote, Garnett, Goodloe, Grace, Gray, Hampton, Hays, King, Jones, Lawson, Little, McAfee, McCampbell, McClure, Meguiben, Moorman, Morin, Myshier, Nunan, Ogilvie, Phelps, Powell, Reeves, Robertson, Scales, Seiler, Snyder, Threlkeld, Todd, Tucker, Turner, Walker, Jonas D. Williams and Woods—59.

Those who voted in the negative were—Messrs. Anderson, Arnold, Ayers, Bailey, Bates, Beckham, Blakey, Brooks, Carpenter, Chenault, Coke, Cooper, Dyer, Ferguson, Ford, Griffith, Jessie E. Polk, Johnson, Thomas M. Johnson, McElroy, McKenzie, Nall, Potter, Rowan, Rouleet, Sackstedder, J. R. Sander, Samuel M. Sanders, Tarlton, Taylor, Trafton, Waide, Waring, Webb, White, F. A. Wilson, Woolfolk, and Wright—38.

Mr Bush moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed.

Mr. Chrisman moved to lay the motion on the table. Adopted—yeas, 65; nays, 31.

☞ We are indebted to Mr. Moses Kirk for a few old Copies of the Western Luminary, a religious paper published in Lexington, Ky. In a copy dated September 28th, 1831, which we have before us we find the following odd advertisement. We do not think there is such an advertisement published in any paper in the United States in these days of intemperance.

TEMPERANCE TAVERN,

HARRODSBURGH, KY.

THOMAS Q. ROBERTS, Superintendent of House on Centre Hill, Harrodsburgh, at the sign o the American Eagle. He takes this method of informing his friends, and the friends of Temperance in general, that he conducts his establishment on the principle of total abstinence from the use of Ardent Spirits, and shall be grateful for a share of their patronage. His house is commodious, and every attention shall be given for the accommodation of his guests.

August, 1831.

The Same paper contains the following death notice of the son of the Rev. Geo. M. Bibb of Kentucky, who was then occupying a seat in the United States Senate from this State.

DIED.—At Bellona Arsenal, on the Potomac Lieut. LUCIAN BIBB, of the U. S. Army, and son of the Hon. George M. Bibb.

In the same paper of the date of August 19, 1831, we find this death notice of a former citizen of this county, who doubtless a great many of our old citizens will remember.

DIED.—In the State of Missouri, Mr. CARR B. BAILEY, formerly of Fleming County, Ky., and for many years an Elder in the Presbyterian Church.

☞ The State of South Carolina is suffering under the thieving rule of negroes and carpet-baggers; Scott, the Governor is from Ohio, and it is said, has accumulated the large sum of $600,000 since his election. Bowen, the bigamist, is a member of the Legislature. Before the holidays he preferred articles of impeachment against Governor Scott, but failed in his effort. It is his purpose to renew the effort so soon as the Legislature convenes, but it is now said Scott has completely blocked the game. He has spent $100,000 in buying up members of the Legislature to vote against impeachment. This is the way the scoundrels manage to rob and plunder the people.

☞ We are exceedingly gratified at the action of our Legislature upon the resolutions of respect to the memory of Dr. J. J. Breckinridge. This general course, we understand, was paid to one who had been an earnest and bitter political opponent, argues a spirit of liberality among the members from Lick's ever legislature. In the Southern times when fellow Kentuckians could differ in politics and yet be friends became coming back to us.

We clip the above from the Louisville Commercial. The Kentucky Legislature stands in great contrast with the National Congress. We recollect right Congress refused to pass resolutions of respect to the memory of James Buchanan when he died. Radicals hate dead Democrats as well as live ones.

☞ The Republican State Central Committee have called a State Convention to meet in the city of Louisville, on the 13th day of March next, to appoint delegates to the National Republican Convention which meets in Philadelphia on the 5th of June for the purpose of nominating a candidate for President and Vice-President. Fleming county will be entitled to eleven delegates.

☞ The Legislature of Iowa elected Wm. B. Allison to the United States Senate from that State on the 15th inst. for six years ending March 4th 1877. He succeeds to Hickman Harlan the present Senator. Mr. Allison is a Republican and has served several terms in the lower branch of Congress. He is a decided improvement on Harlan.

☞ Boswell asked Johnson if there was no possible circumstance under which suicide would be justifiable.—"No," said Johnson. "Well," said Boswell, "suppose a man had been guilty of fraud and he was certain he would be found out." "Why, then," was the reply, "in that case let him go to some country where he is not known, and not to live devil, where he is known."

☞ A Clergyman once posted the following notice on the gate of the church: "Found.—Two hats on my strawberry bed. The owners can have them by proving property."

☞ All advertisements inserted in this paper marked 'till forbid' will be charged for the time that they are published. No exceptions to this rule in any case

To DELINQUENTS.—All those indebted to this office are requested to come forward and settle as we need what we have earned and must have it to meet our urgent demands.

Small Pox.—There is no case of small pox in this county.

Thanks.—Hon. John M. Rice will please accept our thanks for public documents.

County Court.—Next Monday is County Court day. A good day for settling up old scores.

Eclipses.—There will be four eclipses this year—two of the sun and two of the moon.

Thanks.—Miss Faulkner will please accept our thanks for a plate of nice butter. Such presents are appreciated.

Key Trial.—The celebrated Key murder trial comes off again at the February term of the Circuit Court.

Circuit Court.—The next term of the Fleming Circuit Court will convene the second Monday in February. Parties interested will make a note of this.

For Sale.—Mrs. Mary Paxton has a splendid sewing machine for sale. It is new, in excellent order and does fine work. Call on her at her residence.

Dissolution.—The law firm of Anderson & Given has been dissolved by mutual consent. See dissolution notice.

House Wanted.—Any person having a dwelling house to rent inside the town limits can find a good tenant provided the property terms &c, suit by applying at this office.

Lynchburg.—Lynchburg, Fleming county, we understand has got to be a great horse market, over forty horse trades were made there on last Saturday.

Pure Bourbon Whisky.—Mr. Henry Lander has for sale a lot of pure bourbon whisky and some extra three year old bourbon. Parties wishing to purchase good whisky will do well to call on or address him at this place. tf.

The Leap Year Party.—We publish in another column a very interesting report of the leap year party which come off at the residence of Mrs. Finch last week. It is well written and will be eagerly perused by our young folks.

Coal.—Mr. Marshall, of Marshall's Depot, has always on hand a large supply of coal. All orders sent to him accompanied with the cash will be promptly attended to.

Trade.—We learn that Judge Jas. W. Anderson traded his dwelling house in this place to Mrs. Sarah Peed for a tract of land lying on Fleming creek near town.

The Railroad.—The rails on the Maysville and Lexington railroad have been laid within five and a half miles of Paris. About forty hands are at work, and if everything is favorable they will reach Paris in about two weeks.—Maysville Eagle.

Musical Feat.—The Maysville Eagle learns that Poplar Plains has a young lady who is justly distinguished in the musical line. It says: One of her performances on the piano is remarkable and even wonderful. She will play "Fisher's Hornpipe" with her right hand, "Yankee Doodle" with her left, and sing "Dixie," all at the same time.

Arrested.—Deputy U. S. Marshal Harrington arrested a man by the name of Thompson in Nicholas county last week on the charge of violating the internal revenue laws. The Marshal and his prey stoped over in this place on Sunday. Mr. Thompson was taken to the Federal Court at Louisville or some other place—probably Covington.

Marshall's Depot.—We call attention to the advertisement of A. K. Marshall, at Marshall's Depot, on the M. & L. R. R. Mr. Marshall has a very large stock of groceries and is selling them at prices which defy competition. His goods are all fresh and of the best brands. If you want first class groceries at low down prices examine Mr. Marshalls price list in another place and give him a trial.

Not Small Pox.—The report that our clever young friend Dr. H. P. Lindsay had the small pox is not true. The Doctor accepted an invitation to a leap year party last week and while there he mixed too much Sardines and Ice cream—nothing more.

Job Printing.—We would again call the attention of the public throughout the county to the fact that we are prepared to do all kinds of job printing in the very best style. We invite persons wanting printing done to call and examine our specimens and prices. We do work as cheap as any establishment in the United States where steam is not attached. We have splendid job presses and an abundance of type to execute any kind of work from a fine lady's address card to a large poster. We print labels, letter and bill heads, circulars, cards, legal blanks, catalogues, checks, notes, programmes, Posters, &c., &c., Orders from a distance promptly attended to. Give us a trial and we will guarantee satisfaction.

Soldier's Home.—George Carter (of color) who lost an arm in the Federal Service has gone to the Soldiers Home at Washington, D. C. Our good government takes care of all its crippled braves and for which it is entitled to the well wishes of all the people. But in this instance, the town ought to meet in mass and pass a set of resolutions thanking the government for relieving this community of any further trouble on the aforesaid George's account. We can easily spare George.

Valuable Land Sale.—E. H. Landor, Administrator of C. P. Landor, dec'd, will sell some very valuable land at public auction, on Thursday, Feby 15th. To persons wishing to purchase farms in this section no better opportunity will be offered in a long time to purchase as desirable farms as these now offered. Read advertisement elsewhere.

Old Papers.—We are indebted to Mrs H. B Porter for copies of old Flemingsburg papers. We find among them copies of the Flemin sburg Whig, the Flemingsburg Kentuckian and the Flemingsburg Republican. The Whig is one that we never heard of before. Its first volume commenced, Saturday April 8th, 1843. It was edited and published by William Mitchell in the house now occupied by L. W. Kenner. The number before us is dated September 19th, 1843. It announces at the head of its editorial columns the name of Henry Clay as a candidate for the Whig nomination for the Presidency. We are very thankful for copies of these old papers and after a while we will publish something interesting to our readers from them.

Found Dead.—Jack Fant an old colored man was found dead on the floor, in his house, in this place, on last Saturday morning. He had recently sold a horse and it was conjectured that the old man had been foully dealt with. But a coroners jury was summoned which developed the fact that he had sold his horse on time and the note was found in his pocket book on his person. The old man was possessed of two or three valuable town lots upon one of which there is a small house. He has been known here for the past fifty or sixty years and has borne an honest, upright character. His death was purely one of old age. He was about eighty years of age. The appearance of things when he was found indicated that he had turned down the bed clothes preparatory to going to bed, and had pulled off his boots. When found his bed was turned down—and he was laying on the floor with his overcoat on and in his stocking feet. No bruise or any kind was to be found upon his person.

Institution for Deaf Mutes.—We have received the annual report of the condition of this institution located at Danville Ky. The report shows the institute to be in a flourishing condition. Col. J. A. Jacobs, the principal, deserves great credit for the good manner in which he has conducted the affairs of the institution. We extract from the report as follows: "The number of pupils in attendance during the session which closed July 31st, was eighty three—forty-eight males and thirty five females. Of this number, two graduated at the close of the session and received certificates; eight others left school permanently, and six, whose time is yet unexpired have failed from various causes to return since the vacation. Sixty seven former pupils have returned the present session, and fourteen new ones have been received, making the number at present in school eighty one."

Howeth and Home, published by Orange Judd & Co., at No. 245, Broadway New York, is the best family newspaper published in that great city. It is an illustrated paper, printed on fine paper and handsomely executed. It contains good editorials, well written stories and is quite interesting and instructive in the family circle. Its name indicates its peculiar fitness. Persons wishing a good family paper should not be without the Hearth and Home. Terms $3.00 per year. Address as above.

Something to do.—If you know of an active boy or girl to whom 50 cents or $1.00 or more a week, for half a day's work each week, will prove a benefit, have them send a three-cent stamp to Oliver Crook & Co., Dayton, Ohio, for samples and circular of an easy occupation which will well repay them. It will also be a benefit to any business man, bringing many customers to his store every week.

For the DEMOCRAT.

The Leap Year Party.

MESSRS EDITORS:

The latest nine days wonders of Flemingsburg culminated in a Thursday evening in a brilliant leap year party at the stately old manor on Cedar Hill in this vicinity.

The generous suggestion of Mrs. Finch to the young ladies of the town that her hospitals time would be granted to them and to whomsoever else they might please to escort there at that time was most eagerly sought at and accepted. A timely convention was held; a long list of names was made out, and the strictest caution exercised that not a single eligible should be omitted of all the eligible coquilittes of the neighborhood, from the most timorous and blushing schoolcrom even to those two thoroughbile old bachelors—Mr. Dick H. and Dr. W. The greatest care was taken that each invited gentleman should receive a card from some particular lady expressing her desire to accompany him to the party and to honor him with every attention that the occasion might demand. The conveyances were all hired and paid for by the young ladies, who, at the designated hour, drove up to the different residences of the gentlemen, alighted, rang the door bells and called for the officers of their preference and then, after the customary chat in the parlor, assisted them in adjusting their overcoats, carried their prisoners, themselves, and helped them in the carriages, stopped in after them, folded the buffaloes and then triumphantly bade John drive on. It was a merry crowd that left the town that evening, and the weather being propitious and the starlight enchanting, there was nothing in the heavens above nor the earth below to mar the enjoyment of the party as they drove to the scene of their festivity. Arriving there, they found the Cedar Hill mansion in a blaze of light—window lights streaming from hall door wide open and in it mine host, that prince of good fellows Jonny S., waiting to receive the already more than welcome assemblage. After retiring a few minutes to their special dressing rooms, the ladies, having divested themselves of their wrappings and given to their toilettes just the minutest touch, they crossed the hall, knocked at the door and called for the gentlemen they were to escort down to the parlor. Some were already to go, others demanded "just a minute longer if you please." One fellow had to find his ear-ring that was lost and must be hunted, and another, an old bachelor, grew positively frantic over the discovery of his loss of a box of lily white and carmine that had been entrusted to his fair escort's keeping but which she must have accidentally dropped on the way out. It was a pitiable mishap indeed, but the unfortunate gentleman finally took solace in his neighbor's comforting assurance that "beauty unadorned was the adorned best beauty of all," and then joined in the procession that moved towards the parlor.—The grand entree was a most brilliant affair. Had Jenkins been there he would doubtless have favored you with a glowing description of the magnificent dress of the fair ones present, expending, as it usual, the probable price list of each special costume. But we are not Jenkins, and chose rather to reverse the order of reportorial notices and call your attention mainly to the beaus and not to the belles. Conspicuous in the assemblage was Mr. Tom W. who appeared in broadcloth of the most fashionable cut. His white vest and neck tie made pleasing contrast in the sombrness of his dress, and then that beautiful collar!

FLEMINGSBURG DEMOCRAT

Sut Lovengood at a Candy Pulling

I had a heap of trouble last Christmas and I'll tell you how it happened.

Dekin Jones give a candy pullin and I got a stool, as they say in North Carolina, and over I goes.

Sister Poll and I went together, and when we got to old man Jones the house was chuck full. Dog my cats if there was room to turn around!

That was Suze Harkin—she's as big as a skinned horse—and six other Harkins, and Simmonses, and Pedi grews, and the school master and his gal, besides the old dekin and the dekiness, and enough little dekinesses to set up half a dozen young folks in the family bizness.

Well, bimeby the pot began to bile, and the fun begun. We all got our places ready, and put flour on our hands, to keep the candy from stickin', and we pitched in to pullin'.

Wasn't it fun? I never saw sich lafin' and cutin' up in all my born daze.

I made a candy bird for Em. Simmons. Her mad me expects to trot in double harness one of these daze. She made a candy gose for me.

Then we got to throwin' candy balls into one another's hair, and a runnin' from one side of the house to tother, and out into the kitchen, till everything upon the place was all gommed over with candy.

I got a pine bench and Hi. Simmons sot close to me.

Suke Harkin—confound her pictur'—throw'd a candy ball sock into one of mi ize.

I made a bulge to run after her, and heard something rip.

My stars alive! Wasn't I pickled? I looked around, and thar was the gable end of mi bran new britches a stickin' to the pine bench.

I backed up against the wall sorter crawfish like and grinned.

"Sut," said sister Poll, "what's the matter?

"Shut up" sez I.

"Sut," says Em., "come away from that wall, you'll get all grease."

"Let her grease" sez I, and sot down on a washboard that was lying across a tub, feelin' worse than an old maid at a weddin'.

Surty soon I felt somethin' hurt and purty soon it hurt agin.

Ice—whiz—I jumpt ten feet hi, kicked over the tub out flew old Jone's Christmas turkey, and you ought to seen me git.

I cut for tall timber now, jumped staked and rider fences, and mashed down brush like a runaway herikan till I got home, and went to bed and staid there two daze!

Ef old Jones' barn burns down next winter, and I am arrested for it, and of any body pears as a witness agin me, I'll bust his doggon'd bed! Them's my sentiments.

What the Microscope Reveals.

Lewenhoeck tells us of an insect seen with the microscope, of which twenty-seven millions would only equal a mite.

Insects of various kinds may be seen in the cavities of a grain of sand.

Mould is a forest—of beautiful trees, with the branches, leaves and fruit.

Butterflies are fully feathered.

Hairs are hollow tubes.

The surface of our bodies is covered with scales like a fish; a single grain of sand would cover one hundred and fifty of these scales, and yet a scale covers five hundred pores. Through these narrow openings the perspiration forces itself like water through a sieve.

The mites make five hundred steps a second.

Each drop of stagnant water contains a world of animated beings, swimming with as much liberty as whales in the sea.

Each leaf has a colony of insects grazing on it, like cows in a meadow.

Being Bornin Kenincky.

There is one thing that neither man or woman never gets over. For all that flesh is heir to there is no cure, save one—that of being born in Kentucky. They never getover it; it sticks it soaks in and stays there. A minister in Mississipi was once holding his audience spell bound over the plan of Redemption, and when he declared with stentorian emphasis, "I tell you my beloved friends, you must be born again!"—an old Kentuckian in the crowd suddenly started from a delightful snooze, and sung out, "Won't do it—not unless I can be born in Kentucky."

☞ Every man ought to live to be old. A purely natural death presupposes a long life preceding it, with a gradual decay of the faculties, mental and corporeal. Old age is natural; death that comes without it is unnatural, even though it be a death by disease and not by violence. If this position be correct, it must be admitted that comparatively few of the human family die a natural death. Many perish by accident or by pestilence; many die early because they inherite feeble constitutions, some because they are totally ignorant or utterly careless of the laws of bodily health; others by indulgence in dissipation and vice.

FOUTZ'S

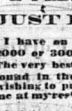
CELEBRATED

HORSE AND CATTLE POWDERS.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will found by its invigorate broken down and low spirited horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and kidneys.

It is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to the Spring, such as LUNG FEVER, GLANDERS, YELLOW WATER, HEAVE, COUGH, DISTEMPER, FEVERS, POISON, LOSS OF APPETITE AND VITAL ENERGY. In cattle it improves the milk, increases the appetite, gives a smooth and glossy skin, and is a sure preventive of Garget, Scours, Scabies, Mange, Hide Bound, Hooking and spiral horns.

To keepers of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It is a sure preventive against Garget, Inflammation, Scours, etc. It has proved a great benefit to cows generally in increasing the quantity and cream twenty per cent, and makes the butter firm and sweet. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much faster.



In all diseases of Swine, such as Coughs, Fevers in the Lungs, Liver &c., this strong tonic is sure as a specific. By putting one teaspoonfull to every gallon in a barrel of swill the above diseases will be prevented and entirely prevented. If given in time, a certain preventive and cure for the Hog Cholera.

Internally, a teaspoonful in TWENTY MINUTES, no matter how violent or overcruciating the pain, the RHEUMATIC, Bed-ridden, Infirm, Crippled, Nervous, Neuralgic, or prostrated with disease may suffer.

Radway's Ready Relief

WILL AFFORD INSTANT EASE.

Inflammation of the Kidneys, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Bowels, Congestion of the Lungs, Sore Throat, Difficult breathing, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics, Croup, Diphtheria, Catarrh, Influenza, Headache, Toothache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Cold Chills, Ague Chills. The application of the Ready Relief to the part of parts where the pain or difficulty exist will afford ease and comfort.

Twenty drops in half a tumbler of water will in a few moments cure Cramps, Sp ems, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Sick Headache, Diarrhea, Dysentery Colic, Wind in the Bowels and all Internal pains.

Travelers should always carry a bottle of Radway's Ready Relief with. A few drops in water will prevent sickness or pain from change of water. It is better than French Brandy or Bitters as a stimulant.

FEVER AND AGUE.

Cured for fifty cents. There is not a remedy known to this world that will cure Fever and Ague, and all other Malarious, Bilious, Scarlet, Typhoid, Yellow, and other Fevers (aided by Radway's Pills), so quick as Radway's Ready Relief. Fifty cents per bottle.

Health! Beauty!!

Strong and Pure Rich Blood—Increase of Flesh and Weight—Clear Skin and Beautiful Complexion secured to all.

Dr. Radway's

SARSAPARILLA RESOLVENT

Has made the most astonishing cures so quick, so rapid are the changes the body undergoes, under the influence of this truly wonderful medicine, that

Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

Every drop of the Sarsaparillian Resolvent communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids and juices of the system, the vigor of life. Rapid repairs the waste of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Consumption, Glandular Disease, Chronic Rheumatism, Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Tumors, Cancers, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin Diseases, Erysipelas, Fever Sores, Old Ulcers, Blood Stains, Eruptions, Pimples, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tetter, Ringworm, Scald Head, Sore Head, and pimply Disfigurements, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm and all wasting diseases, are within the curative power of this wonderful Medicine. Chronic, and a long list of complaints you may have, it is impossible to enumerate here. Some of these have become so painful and so deep seated as to defy the skill of the physician, and have been given up as incurable, but there is no case of Scrofula, however bad, or of any other form of disease in which the system can be reached by the healing, purifying, and life giving properties of this wonderful Medicine, that it will not cure, if the patient has not been so long and so far reduced that the vital fire of life is dim, or the vital organs are so disorganized that they are incapable of performing the functions assigned them by the Creator. Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Dysentery, Diarrhea, Kidney and Bladder Complaints, Nervous Affections, Fevers of Every Type, Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, Consumption, Scrofula, Syphilis, Glandular Disease, Ulcers, Blotches, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Scurvy, Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Head, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, Itch, Scurvy, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; Cleanse it when you find it stagnated and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when; purify it for health, vigor, and the health of the system will follow.

Pain, Pain, Pain, and sickness, will follow in the process of so many thousands, are essentially destroyed by the use of Radway's Resolvent. Purifying the blood is nature's great effort, upon the face of the earth whose body is exposed to the influence of the sun. It is well upon the healthy circulation of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors they feed and propagate their species. Radway's Resolvent, by system of Medicine, no vermifuge, no cathartic, purges, will free the system from worms like Magic.

D. WALKER'S

VINEGAR BITTERS

J. Walker, Proprietor. R. H. McDonald & Co., Druggists and Gen. Agts., San Francisco, Cal., and cor. Commerce and Washington Sts., New York.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

They are not a vile Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors Doctored, Spiced and Sweetened to please the taste, call'd "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that but Stimulate to Drunkenness and Ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. To persons who follow callings according to directions, and remain long myself, perfect health and strength are enjoyed, and the ravages of time have not destroyed by numerous years or other means, and the vital energies extended beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful stimulant to relieve Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or advanced females, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them an unequaled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Head, Sore Eyes, Itch, Scurvy, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; Cleanse it when you feel it stagnated and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when; purify it for health, vigor, and the health of the system will follow.

Pain, Pain, Pain, and sickness, will follow in the process of so many thousands, are essentially destroyed by the use of Walker's Vinegar Bitters. It is well upon the healthy circulation of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors they feed and propagate their species. HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

—Notices of the Press.—

"There are few of the many periodicals which Harper's Magazine would not be an appreciated and highly welcome visitor to, and there is no necessity for any important reading family ever being asked to be without. Many Magazines are presented, Harper's is one. There is not a Magazine that is printed which shows more judicious selection, or more care, or the best literary executions. There is not a cheaper Magazine published. There is not a more popular Magazine in the world.—New England Homestead.

"A repository of biography and history, literature, science, and art, unsurpassed by any other American periodical. ••• The volumes are so valuable as a mere work of reference or gossip may amount, we think, to place in our libraries. Harper's Magazine is a wonderful entertainer, and a wonderful instructor in the establishment, intelligence and wisdom, combining in Alnaschar, Strife shows the broad and lofty ideas belonging to the Times, Spots on the Sun and Mesmerism on the Garden—indeed, all recent discoveries in science, such discoveries and improvements represented in these pages. Most of our twenty and odd years' reading we have derived from Harper's Magazine.—Christian Intelligencer.

"Harper's Magazine is one of the best evidences of the progress and high literary culture of our country, which is the Magazine.—N. Y. Standard.

"Harper's Magazine is a source of pleasure—the editorial management of Harper's Magazine.—N. Y. Times.
