MAYSVILLE,

WEDNESDAY, - - - - JAN. 13, 1858.

For Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

RANKIN R. REVILL.

Job Work.—We are prepared to do Job Work of all kinds in, good style, upon reasonable terms, and with dispatch. Orders are solicited.

RANKIN R. REVILL.

We place the name of RANKIN R. REVILL at the head of our columns as the democratic candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals. In doing so, it affords us great pleasure to say that he is a gentleman well qualified in every way for the position for which he has been nominated, and eminently deserving the honor conferred upon him by the Democratic State Convention. His private life is perfectly unexceptionable, and there is no blot or stain upon his public life. Partizan malignity can find nothing in him to assail.—He inherited his democracy, and his whole life has been marked with the most unwavering devotion to the principles and interests of that party. Its interests have been his interests, and he has ever been ready to support its candidates, sustain its measures, or defend its good name against the attacks of its foes. He is a democrat in whom there is no guile, and no worthier or better man could have been selected to lead the democratic hosts on to glorious victory in August next.

An accomplished gentleman, a good democrat, a man of ability, and an efficient speaker, the democracy of Kentucky will be proud to rally around him; and we predict that they will give him a majority of at least 20,000 over any competitor.

Let the watchword be—Revill and victory!

Our Senator.

For the first time in a quarter of a century, a democratic Legislature has elected a democrat to the United States Senate from Kentucky.

For a quarter of a century the gallant and patriotic democrats of this State have firmly meluta and their party organization, and unwaveringly adhered to their time honored principles, in the face of an overwhelming opposition, and under circumstances that seemed to preclude the hope of a brighter future. During the long years of defeats and disasters through which they have passed, with an eye solely to the good of the country, actuated by patriotic motives, and influenced only by patriotic considerations, they have nobly battled for the faith of their fathers. They have yielded to no temptations; they have been seduced by no considerations; they have neither turned to the right nor to the left; they not been disheartened by adversity, bitterness of spirit, or discouraged by accumulated disasters; but with a constancy that knew no change, and a faith undimmed, they have pressed forward to "the mark of the prize of their high calling," and aglorious consummation rewards their labors, and sacrifices, and defeats.

A brighter day has dawned upon them—a day of success, of triumph, and of rejoicing. All the clouds that lowered over them, and the deep bosom of the ocean buried. The "sun of Austerlitz" burst upon them, and has dispelled the clouds and gloom that yet darkened or obscured their future. They have driven their enemy from the field, and their colors float in triumph from the Capitol of the State, and will soon be borne by their representative into the Senate of the nation.

Truth has triumphed. The confidence the democracy reposed in the justice and wisdom of their principles, and their faith in the intelligent patriotism of the people, have been justified. Dazzled by the genius of CLAY, the people of Kentucky have long wandered in political error; but that great and good man sleeps in his grave, and they have returned to the principles of Jefferson, and Madison, and Jackson. Side by side with Virginia—the mother of States and of Statesmen—Kentucky will hereafter prove to be the foremost and most consistent of democratic States. True to herself, her sacred ashes, and its Union, she will never prove recreant to the principles she has now espoused, the associations she has now formed, or the interests with which she has now identified herself.

The election of HON. LAZARUS W. POWELL to the United States Senate perfects the triumph of the democratic party in this State. She had previously given her electoral vote to Buchanan and Breckinridge, and rolled up an overwhelming democratic majority for State Officers, but this was necessary to complete her regeneration, and make the revolution through.

It is unnecessary for us to speak of Gov. Powell. Every democrat in Kentucky knows him, and there is not one who does not love him. He is distinguished alike in social and public life. His incorruptible integrity, brilliant talents, and commanding eloquence will give him great influence in Senate, as in every position in life. He is active, vigilant, and assertive, and faithfully discharges every trust confided to him. He made us a good Governor, and there is not a man in the State who would have made a better Senator.

Let us all rejoice together.

☞ The change that Hon. L. W. POWELL is opposed to the administration, and received his nomination for the Senate in consequence of occupying this position, is ridiculously absurd, and wholly groundless. He is a fast friend of the administration, and will firmly and cordially support its policy. No man in Kentucky is more intimately familiar with the administration. Kansas affairs would be supported by the loyal democrats of Kentucky as a party, or placed by them in any position of trust, honor, or responsibility.

☞ The "great American party" holds a convention at Frankfort on the 20th inst., to nominate a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals. We are glad of it, as it will give us a fair opportunity to show our strength in a fair contest. If the Know Nothings are willing to run the risk of being beaten, we are willing to run the risk of beating them.

Democratic State Convention.

The State Convention held at Frankfort on Wednesday, the 7th inst., was the most harmonious in its proceedings, of any we ever attended. Every county in the State was represented, except Carey, Russell, Bracken, and Logan. The Convention was presided over by Gen. Desha, of Harrison, and Clinton McClarty, the efficient Clerk of the House of Representatives, acted as Secretary. The firmness, efficiency, impartiality and tact of the officers secured excellent order, and preserved harmony and good feeling throughout the entire session.

The nominations to be made were for one of the most important offices in the State, and the very best one in point of salary, and a dozen or more of the best democrats in Kentucky were the aspirants. There was not one gentleman in nomination who was not well qualified for the place, and all of them had numerous and influential friends. Some of those, however, who were balloted for, were not aspirants. They were voted for by partial friends as a compliment to their merits.

The first ballot resulted as follows:

Junius Caldwell, of Adair, 91; R. R. Bolling, of Boyle, 190; E. F. Nuttall, of Henry, 95; G. T. Wood, of Hart, 69; L. Coleman, of Bath, 10; J. S. Boyd, of Harrison, 24; S. Dabney, of Trigg, 121; R. R. Revill, of Owen, 84; J. A. Grinstead, of Fayette, 10; J. T. Metcalfe, of Mason, 25; Brent Hopkins, of Oldham, 17.

After the second ballot Messrs. Grinstead, Hopkins, Boyd, and Coleman were withdrawn; and on succeeding ballots, under a rule to drop the hindmost candidate, Messrs. Metcalfe, Nuttall, Caldwell, Dabney and Wood retired from the contest. On the seventh and last ballot the vote stood:

For Mr. Revill, 499; Mr. Bolling, 214.

As the balloting proceeded, and the contest was being gradually narrowed down, the excitement became very high; but when the final ballot was announced, such was the sympathy for Mr. Bolling, whose gallant bearing had won all hearts, that the silence which had marked the proceedings for the last hour was unbroken until Mr Durham, of Boyle, the particular friend of Mr. Bolling, moved to make the nomination unanimous saying that Mr. B. and his friends had been for Mr. Revill first and last and all the time, and for no one else, when the vast assembly gave vent to their feelings in loud, repeated, and prolonged applause.

Mr. Revill, who is a pleasant, agreeable speaker, and a gentleman of very prepossessing appearance, accepted the nomination in a few appropriate remarks, pledging himself to visit every county in the State during the canvass, and to use all honorable means to secure a glorious triumph for the party of which he was the representative.

The Committee on resolutions, through their Chairman, Hon. Lynn Boyd, presented a series of resolutions re-affirming the Cincinnati platform, congratulating the people of the Union on the election of Buchanan and Breckenridge, emphatically approving the measures and administration of the President, and expressing their acquiescence in the principles laid down in the decision of the Dred Scott case, by the Supreme Court. It was supposed by some, that the resolution endorsing fully the Kansas policy of Mr. Buchanan would meet with opposition; but the whole series were adopted with singular unanimity, there being but two dissenting voices. Whatever, in Kansas, may be the course of other States, the democratic party of Kentucky is a unit in defence of this policy, and will continue such. Kentucky occupies a proud position among her sister States of the South, and whenever their interests, or honor, or rights, or the welfare of the Union, is at stake, she will be found true to herself, and to them.

Just after the adoption of these resolutions Mr. Durrett, of the Louisville Courier, received a dispatch, which was read to the Convention, stating that the Indiana Convention, just in session, had fully endorsed the administration. The reading of this dispatch was loudly applauded; and a resolution congratulating the democracy of Indiana on their action, was immediately adopted by a unanimous vote.

During the evening session, some confusion was produced by some scoundrel turning the gas off, leaving the Convention in total darkness. This was repeated. While the body was in this condition, some officer, a resolution instructing the democratic members of the Legislature to vote for a removal of the seat of government to some place where the democrats could hold their Conventions without being subject to such annoyances. The adoption of this resolution by acclamation had an astonishing effect upon the gas, which instantly blazed forth with great brilliancy, and was not again interfered with.

A committee was appointed to present a plan for the thorough organization of the party throughout the State, made a report, established a State Central Committee, and District Committees in the Congressional districts, and defining their duties, which was unanimously adopted.

This "democratic love feast," as it was appropriately termed, was closed by eloquent addresses from Hon. Lynn Boyd, C. C. Shacklett, Col. George B. Hodge, Hon. Sherrod Williams, Anderson Gray, Jos. H. Lewis, O. P. Hogan, and Ira Root.

We will publish the official proceedings next week.

☞ The Eagle thinks Douglas is right, and Buchanan wrong, on the Kansas question—We are not surprised at this, as every opposition paper in the Country thinks the same way. It is a little singular that every editor, politician, or statesman who believed that the repeal of the Missouri restriction was a "violation of plighted faith," and that Mr. Douglas Nebraska bill was a cheat and a swindle, is now with Douglas. Kentucky democrats have no disposition to join the New York Tribune, Cincinnati Commercial, Louisville Journal, and Maysville Eagle in their opposition to the administration.

☞ The Whig says, that the Cincinnati Enquirer admits, that the only difference between democracy and black republicanism is in the mode of "procedure." We are well aware of the recklessness with which the editor of that paper makes assertions, and he must pardon us for saying, that the Enquirer never made any such admission, or anything like it. We challenge him to do so by quoting the language in which he can be tortured into such a construction.

Senator Douglas.

We clip the following from the Washington correspondence of the New York Courier, on slide and rapidness which reflect great credit upon the writer. It throws a flood of light upon Douglas's position, objects, and prospects. The reference to Van Buren, and Benton, and Rives, and others is suggestive:

The future of Senator Douglas is a subject of interesting and not uninstructive speculation. He has undoubtedly separated himself from his party in the course he is now pursuing. He has deliberately rejected the policy and the great leading measure of the administration. Whether he agrees with the President or not on minor questions, Senator Douglas must be set down as an anti-Buchanan man. This antagonism must soon become open and avowed. He and the President must stand in the relation of political opponents. Let it be observed that no conspicuous man in the Democratic ranks has joined Mr. Douglas. The South is opposed to him even more unanimously than it was with him in breaking down the compromise. Senators Pugh, Bright, and Fitch are all against him. Not a prominent Democrat in public life has been found in the great States of Pennsylvania or Ohio to stand by support him. Not one. Senator Stuart alone, representing a State largely and hopelessly Republican, ventures to take sides with him, and that, so far only as he can oppose Buchanan.

His strength in the house is yet to be developed. I am assured that the six Democrats from Indiana agree with the Administration on the Lecompton Constitution; two from Ohio are reckoned upon; two from Illinois are considered doubtful, and a large majority of those from Pennsylvania and New York are fast friends of the President on this issue.

The great ability of Mr. Douglas cannot be denied. In debate he is the most powerful man I ever saw. His eloquence and ready wit as an orator will not live like Webster's and Clay's, but in forensic conflict, in a hand to hand struggle in parliamentary opposition, he is greater than either of them. He is also a man of expedients and of vast fertility of resources. Yet outside of his party could he live as a statesman? I think he could not. Where is William Allen, who ten years ago had a reputation and position as great as Douglas has now? Where is Daniel S. Dickinson, who went into rebellion in 1853? Where is Thomas H. Benton? They resisted party dictation. They lost their position in public life and they died. In the south William C. Rives, William Lowndes, Langdon Cheves, and Gen. Houston are examples of the same fate. They were on the side which in this country leads to the consumation of a politician's hopes. Yet they rejected party and spurned its bonds. They lodged upon the shores but the tide swept on, bearing smaller timber on its bosom, and leaving them to enjoy their independence and isolation. Mr. Douglas has refused to be swept along by the current. Will his fate be different from that of these prototypes?

His immediate object is to be re-elected to the Senate. The Legislature which will return or reject him will be elected next November. The tendency of the public mind in Illinois is towards disgust and contempt for that kind of democracy. Slavery, land speculators, breeds civil war, and crushes out liberty by mobs and the bayonets of standing armies. It is turning against the democracy of Mr. Buchanan's Administration.

Mr. Douglas perceives this, and wishes to show them that his patent invention, "popular sovereignty," is a vital principle and not a patent nonsense, galvanized into life in order to keep the party on its legs through the election of 1856. But can he do it? It is impossible. The Administration all the time stands behind and over him, securing the honest and simple electors of Illinois that their Senator is in error, that "squatter sovereignty" was a juggler's cheat, and that it has been played out. We have seen thereult of such a contest between the central power and a rebellious vassal in a hundred instances. The instances must now and must prevail so far as to ruin the party against which it is exerted, but the chief rebel is always crushed. Can Senator Douglas find a Democrat in Illinois than Mr. Van Buren and Gen. Dix did in New York in 1848? Certainly not; and suppose he took off three-fourths, how much does that help him? It would simply open a lane through which the Republicans would march to an easier victory. Whatever, then, be the issue of the contention now raging between Mr. Douglas and the Northern and Southern leaders it is scarcely possible that he should escape death by compression. He will be ground to powder between the upper and the nether millstones.

☞ We know that occasional irregularities are to be expected in a system so complicated and extensive as the mail service, and such irregularities should be uncomplainingly borne; but if they are to become the rule instead of the exception, newspaper publishers should learn it as quickly as possible, and "shut up shop." We know the department should not be unnecessarily blamed for the acts of its subordinates in the country offices, as it is impossible for it to exercise a direct supervision over them; but we do hope that it will be taken, and adopted at once, to secure greater efficiency and certainty in the postal arrangements in the West.

We do not know what the experience of others is, but we have found neither certainty nor dispatch in the transmission of mail matter. Our subscribers do not receive their papers, nor do we get, with any regularity our exchanges. We have not only been injured in our business relations with the system, but in actual loss. There is scarcely a week that we do not receive complaints from our subscribers of the failure to receive their papers; and within the last week we have had a letter from a subscriber in New York directing us to discontinue his paper, saying that he did not receive it more than once a month, and a similar one from another in Princeton, Ky. We do not even get our Cincinnati, Louisville, and Maysville mails regularly—Papers from these points are frequently several days behind time.

Complaints are perhaps useless; but we cannot allow our friends to blame us for the irregularities of the mails.

☞ Editors are not particularly popular with the democrats. J. H. Johnson, though the unanimous choice of the press of this State for Assistant Clerk of the House of Representatives, was defeated for that office. W. C. Goodloe, of the Louisville Courier, proved to be the choice of the party in his State for Clerk of the House, but we see that another was elected. Well, it is all right. We are the "sewers of wood and drawers of water," and should not aspire to anything else. It is enough that we are allowed to work faithfully, and earnestly, and zealously, and—pay our own expenses.

THE LAW OF JOURNALISM.—The following from the London Times, concisely expresses what has the force of common law among journalists.

"No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Whatever is offered for insertion must be authenticated by the name and address of the writer not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of his good faith."

Storm Party at Oak Hall

January 8, 1858.

The good people of Maysilick have this winter been favored with a series of entertainments, social in their character, embodying every feature which could elevate the character, humanize the heart, and cultivate those associations of respect and love which must adorn our natures, and give us in this life a foretaste of the heaven beyond.

To notice each would be unnecessary—to notice any is undesired. Yet the entertainment of the host of Oak Hall, commands such universal commendation as to require an unasked for notice. The owner of the biggest house in the County, with a heart as big as his house, the doors of which are ever open, Maj. A. M. PERD, dispensed his princely hospitality on the eve of Jan. 8th to 175 guests.

The beauty of the neighborhood in all its matchless array was there, and never even upon Kentucky's far famed land was there a gathering of fair women, more lovely, more graceful, more fascinating, more attractive, more strained admiration. If one might claim the precedence of queenly beauty, another vied in maiden dignity, another in superior grace, another in the pure heaven of her modest eye, with its deep enthusiasm betraying in quiet unostentation the secret joys of a feeling soul, and thus on thro' all the long catalogue of maiden charms, which render her the worthy prototype of our God-made mother Eve, the the first and most beautiful, shone in their splendor the adornments of woman, and there around the hearts of admiring guests, the magic witchery of pure and elegant association.

And then there was music soft and low, subduing the heart with its moving power and hushing with its engaging melody, the hum of busy talk; while ever and anon the dreamy reverie was broken by the stirring strains of the Maysilick Band, which ceasing, yielded the heart back again to the syren tones of woman's voice which ever is most powerful in song.

Some unwelcome guests were absent—Care was not there. He could not brook the joyous glee. Melancholy was gone with Envy, Malice and Sorrow, to hold their carnival amid more congenial scenes. No sad note marred the heaven of that night.

Long may Major Perd live to drive, by his kindly hospitality, care from the heart, and throw round our souls such dreams of bliss as Maysilick only can lend.

Take it world, as it is make the welcome—Come hither, come hither, by day or by night, We linger in pleasure which never are gone; Like a vision of beauty, we cast a fair spell, Another so bright and shining comes on; And the love that is over, is soon gone, and the joy Is but a shade, and the shade is gone too; And oh if there be an elysium on earth It is this, it is this.

A VISITOR.

A Medicinal Wonder.

We are assured that no language can portray the immediate and permanent benefits to be conferred by Dr. Roback's SCANDINAVIAN BLOOD PILLS and BLOOD PURIFIER in numerous diseases, whether broken down by sickness or weak by nature, the nervous and debilitated are invited to call and receive aid. The Medicines have a threefold action. They purge, purify, and strengthen, at the same time. Hence their astounding cures of Indigestion, General Debility, Billious complaints, Fever and Ague, and Scrofula. In fact, there seems to be no kind of ailment to which they are not adapted. Dr. Roback's advertisement is an appeal to common sense, which the sick need medical treatment would do well to read. [dec 23-1m.

Telegraph Dispatches.

☞ We are indebted to Rochester F. Robbs, one of the clever Clerks of the Bostons, for papers in advance of the mail.

☞ The Whig says it didn't "echo" the unreasonable declarations of Prentice and Humphrey Marshall—it only approved and endorsed them. We give it the benefit of the explanation.

☞ Hon. Beverly L. Clarke has been appointed Minister to Guatemala, Thomas R. Stevenson, of Maysville, Judge in New Mexico, and R. B. J. Twyman, of Paducah, Consul to Vera Cruz. These appointments have been confirmed by the Senate.

☞ Some of our exchanges have substituted the word "telegram" in place of using the words "telegraph dispatch." The Philadelphia Ledger places its telegraphic news under the head "Monocraphical," and calls its special dispatches "Monocotypes," in honor of Professor Morse.

☞ See the advertisement of D. C. Wheeler & Co., in another column. This firm has capital, energy, and business tact, and we predict will become one of the most popular in Cincinnati. Business entrusted to them will receive prompt and satisfactory attention.—We commend them to the public.

☞ We were requested to publish the proceedings of the Democratic meeting in Montgomery County, and would have very cheerfully complied with the request; but we failed to receive them from the Secretary, and did not see them in print until since the 8th. We will explain their non appearance in our columns.

☞ A leading democrat, sending us a lot of subscribers from Flemingsburg, says:

"I bid you God-speed, and will do all in my power to extend the circulation of the Express—particularly as you are 'all right' on the Douglas question. We have but one renegade in this County—even sorry for him, as he is a clever fellow."

That's the way to talk!"

THE OHIO FARMER, published at Cleveland, O., is now issued in quarto form. It is a large paper, beautifully printed, and well filled with valuable and interesting matter. We have no hesitancy in saying that it is the best Agricultural news paper in the country, as well as the handsomest.

It is published by TUSK, BROWN at Two Dollars per annum, in advance.

☞ The Saturday Evening Post had its prospectus inserted in the Express for one month, costing but a few dollars, and in less than one week from its first appearance we heard of one club of fifty eight subscribers being sent it from this office. In all probability ten times that number have been forwarded from other post offices within the circulation of the Express.

MORAL.—If you have any thing to sell or dispose of, ADVERTISE.

☞ At a regular meeting of the Neptune Fire Co., held in their Hall on Saturday evening the 2nd inst., the following gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing six months:

Vice President—H. L. NEWELL.
Treasurer—ROBERT PUCKLIN.
Secretary—G. W. SCHNELLE.
Director of Engine—H. N. WILLETT.

IL. JOHNSON & CO., OF PHILADELPHIA, TYPE FOUNDERS.—We have just received from L. Johnson & Co., of Philadelphia, the celebrated Type Founders, a large book containing the greatest variety and most elegant and beautiful specimens of printing type, job type, ornamental borders, and cuts and plates that has ever before come to our notice, and for which Johnson & Co., will please accept our thanks. Printers in want of any article used in their business, can always obtain it of L. Johnson & Co., at the lowest prices, and on the most accommodating terms.

STATISTICS OF CRIME IN BALTIMORE CITY.—In 1855 there were 1,038 bills of indictment found by the Grand Jury in Baltimore City; in 1856 there were 1,084, and in 1857 the prodigious number of 1,344. Of the 1,344 indictments found in 1857, twenty-nine were for Wilful Murder, Six for Rape, and seven for Arson, making forty-two Capital Cases in one year, and we a second time ask, whence derive the above information from the Sun, and its correctness will not be called in question. Crime increases in the same ratio as Plug Uglyism finds favor.

HEADACHE.—From an eminent Clergyman.—"I take great pleasure in saying to you that I made use of BURNHAM'S HOLLAND BITTERS, and found apparent relief, of a severe headache, from which I had long suffered, and I believe they were of service to me in relieving my stomach and head.

SAMUEL E. BABCOCK.

HEADACHE AND DEBILITY.—Mr. Silas J. Lincombe, of Birmingham, says: "I have found in BURNHAM'S HOLLAND BITTERS, a remedy for Headache and Debility. My wife has used it with the greatest benefit."

Mr. A. S. Nicholson, of Pittsburgh, also remarks that he has experienced much relief from its use for headache.

STRENGTH AND HEALTH RESTORED.—Mr. John Davidson, living ten miles above Pittsburg, on Pennsylvania Canal, writes thus: "When I commenced taking BURNHAM'S HOLLAND BITTERS, I could hardly walk. I now enjoy excellent health."

HOLLOWAY LODGE, No. 153,
January 6th, 1858.

Whereas, By a dispensation of Divine Providence, we were visited on the 5th inst., with a sad calamity, by the sudden death of our deceased friend and brother, WILLIAM DONCASTER, one of the oldest and best friends of Masonry; therefore

Resolved, That in his death we feel deeply the stroke of Providence; and are again reminded that the young may, but the old must, die.

Resolved, That in Brother Doggett we lose a good and useful citizen, a true Mason, an faithful, honest friend and neighbor, esteemed by all for his orderly walk and uniform kindness.

Resolved, That as a Mason he was true and faithful to the end.

Resolved, That we are bereaved of a friend and brother, whose place in our hearts and affections cannot be filled; that we join his family and friends in condolence; and that we will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the Mt. Sterling Whig, and in the Maysville Express, and that a copy of them be presented the afflicted family of the deceased.

NEW YORK, Jan 9.

Gov Wise's letter to the Tammany Society, on the occasion of the celebration of January 8th, says: "Congress should not reject the Lecompton Constitution, but submit to subject it to a fair and legal vote of the people of Kansas—for the Union, influence of opinion as to the manner of solving the question no honest Democrat should be prescribed."

The Tribune characterizes it as a false story that the Government is obliged to postpone the payment of drafts on New York.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 8.

A convention of the soldiers of the war of 1812 was held here to-day. A memorial was adopted asking Congress to make appropriate to the soldiers of the war of 1812, and to those of the Indian frontier wars of the same period. It was stated by several speakers that a number of the men who composed the armies of that period, were now in necessitous circumstances. After mutual salutations and renewal of old acquaintances the convention adjourned to meet here on the fourth of March next.

The democratic convention nominated most all of the old officers. Resolutions were passed indorsing the course of the Administration. Douglas friends are much dissatisfied, and will probably hold another convention.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.

It appears from the Treasurer's weekly statement for the week ending yesterday, that the amount subject to draft in the Treasury is upwards of five millions of dollars; the amount on deposit is seven millions; drafts paid, two and a half, two millions; receipts during the week, three hundred and thirty-six thousand.

The War Department discredits the alleged attack on Col. Cook's command of dragoons, received via St. Joseph.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7, M.—The Senate today, in executive session, confirmed the nomination of Theo. Sedgwick as District Attorney of New York, in place of McKeon, removed, by a vote of 28 to 25. Beverly L. Clarke, of Kentucky, was also confirmed as Minister to Guatemala, R. B. J. Twyman as Consul at Vera Cruz, and Thomas R. Stephenson as Judge in New Mexico.

Messrs. Shields and Rice, the newly elected Senators from Minnesota, have arrived in Washington.

Reliable information has reached here that nearly or quite 7,000 votes were cast for the Lecompton Constitution, on the 21st ult, which is believed to be a majority of the whole number of voters in Kansas.

A portion of the free State men nominated a State ticket, and were to vote for it on the 5th inst. Their programme is to elect men pledged to call a convention to change the Constitution, not to destroy it. President Calhoun would not open the votes on the Constitution until after the election on the 4th of January. This news is regarded in political circles as highly favorable to a speedy settlement of the Kansas question by action of the people of Kansas themselves.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.

The Government has been obliged to postpone the payment of their drafts, in consequence of the want of funds. For the same reason the laborers employed at the navy-yard have not been paid since the 8th of December. There is much distress among them in consequence.

CINCINNATI, January 8.

The Indianapolis democratic convention, for the nomination of State officers, assembled in the Representative hall this morning. After considerable confusion the convention organized, electing Gov. Willard as President.

A large meeting was held in the Capitol last night. Speeches were made by Gov. Willard, Hon. John Pettit, Judge Hays, and others.

Hon. Jesse D. Bright and many other distinguished politicians are here.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 8, A.—The Republican has just received a letter from Fort Kearney, of the 23d ult., which states that Col Johnson was at Fort Bridger on November 28. Col. Cooke with his whole command had also arrived. The cattle had perished generally, the animals were drying at the rate of one hundred a day. The Mormons were entirely quiet, the passes leading to their city, Fount Jones, agent of Majors & Russell, had been released and sent to Col. Johnson's camp. In passing through different canons, he was blindfolded to prevent him obtaining knowledge of their movements. Another letter, dated Col. Cook's command, while en route, makes no mention of being molested by Mormons.

WISDOM'S POCKET CHANGE.

A clean glove oft hides a dirty hand.
Be ever vigilant, but not suspicious.
Command your temper lest it command you.
Debt is the worst kind of poverty.
Empty vessels make the greatest sound.
Few things are impossible to skill and industry.
Good intentions will not justify evil actions.
He that is hasty fishes in an empty pond.
Idleness is the sepulchre of a living man.
Judge not at first sight.
Learn to live as you would wish to die.
Marriage, with peace, is the world's paradise.
Never speak to deceive, nor listen to betray.
The eye-witness is better than ten hearsays.
Put no faith in tale-bearers.
Quick resentments are often fatal.
Riches cannot purchase mental endowments.
Scandal will rub out like dirt when dry.
The covetous man is his own tormentor.
Undertake no more than you can perform.
Vanity makes men ridiculous; pride odious.
When one will not, two cannot, quarrel.
Years are carried off on the wings of moments.
Zeuo, of all virtues, made his choice of silence.

SINGULAR CONFESSION OF MURDER.—Mr Commodore Vincent, a citizen of Greenville county, N. C., has been arrested on his own confession of a murder committed ten or twelve years ago. A correspondent of the Petersburg Express states that a slave belonging to Col. Richard Dove was killed and thrown into a pool of water, and though every exertion was made to detect the perpetrator, the murder remained for years shrouded in mystery. A few days ago, according to the testimony, Vincent confessed to Mr. Sillah that he committed the murder; that he placed a rope around the slave's neck, and then taking it up by the end, mounted and put spur to his horse, thus producing strangulation and death. Vincent was committed for trial.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1858.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST,

Established August 4, 1821.

THE POST EVER THAT NEVER SUSPENDS.

A family Weekly—Devoted to Literature and the News.

In the course of Bank suspensions and Mercantile embarrassments, the proprietors of the Saturday Post call the attention of the reading public to the old and firmly-established weekly journal, in his journal they are responsible. For one

THIRTY-SIX YEARS

The Post has been published; and in all that period of time, in spite of "panic" and "hard times," through bank failures and bank contractions, through commercial revulsions and embarrassments, the Post has been regularly issued every week, and forwarded to its thousands of subscribers. In spite of hard times, the Post has been in the publishing index for the future. And they feel that in asking a continuance of the patronage heretofore so liberally bestowed upon The Post, they are asking no more than they will do both the interest and the pleasure of the public to grant.

Calling the attention of subscribers to The Post, we may mention the following gifted writers:

WILLIAM HOWITT, MRS. ANN S. STEPHENS, T. S. ARTHUR, MARY GREENWOOD, ANNA BLACKWELL, ALGERNOON DUGANNE, MRS. M. A. DENISON, EMMA CARLETON, MRS. ANN S. STEPHENS, "Author of 'Fashion and Famine,'" The Author of 'Lillian, the Governess,' &c. &c. &c.

We design commencing in the first paper of January, an unusually

NOVELET BY T. S. ARTHUR.

Mr. Arthur's productions are so widely known, that we need hardly say that the tone of the present Novelet will be entirely consistent with the moral and instructive character which we have always striven to impress upon The Post. Readers who wish to peruse the Finest Stories which adorn the land—periodical literature, instructive in their tendency and effects—can find them, we regret to say, at every corner. But The Post is the only medium in the Union, in which they can find the most scrupulous parent may safely peruse

THE FAMILY CIRCLE,

And which will purify and instruct, instead of demoralizing and corrupting the youthful mind. Repeatedly will its conductors avoid, in the publication of the weekly news, all those long and disgusting reports, unfortunately too common, of

VICE CRIMINAL CASES,

Believing, as they do, that the practice of publishing the details of such loathsome crimes, of the criminal trials resulting therefrom, is a direct violation of the morals of the community, and crime in the community. Like begets like—and what the mind feeds upon, that it will grow to resemble.

CHOICE SELECTIONS

of all kinds, from the best foreign and domestic sources, shall continue to be a prominent feature of the Post. The Stories, Essays, Sketches, Agricultural and Scientific Articles, &c., obtained in this way for the readers of The Post, are among the most instructive as well as interesting portions of its contents.

THE VERY CREAM

of the periodical literature of the British Isles is thus given to our readers. The Post, weekly, has

in the shape of the family. NOVELETS, ESSAYS, STORIES, ARTICLES, AGRICULTURAL, ARCHITECTURE, THE NEWS, SKETCHES, POETRY, MARRIAGES, BIBLES, THE MARKETS, AND WEEKLY RETAIL MARKETS, BANK NOTE LIST, &c. &c.

Finally, we make a serious appeal to the reading public should give the preference to The Post

BY SUBSCRIBING TO ANY OTHER PAPER FOR THE SAME PRICE, IT IS GUARANTEED THAT YOU WILL RECEIVE ONE-HALF LESS READING.

IT WILL BE CERTAIN TO COME WHEN PAID FOR.

PARAFFINE CANNEL COAL OILS!

THE UNION COAL AND OIL COMPANY of Mayesville are now prepared to furnish Oils in large quantities.

The LUBRICATING OIL has been subjected to the severest tests, upon both Locomotive and Stationary machinery, and has given entire satisfaction.—This Oil is pure unmixed Paraffine Oil, has the same body and will bear the same temperature as the best Sperm Oil; having the same qualities as Sperm Oil, as to being free from gum, well strained, and is believed to be equal to the best Sperm Oil as a Lubricator.

The BURNING or ILLUMINATING OIL, according to the Chemical tests which have been applied to it, gives the cheapest, safest and BEST LIGHT which has been discovered. It is unexplosive, and does not congeal at the lowest temperature in this climate, but must be burned in a lamp specially designed for it.

A variety of LAMPS, some of beautiful styles, are kept at their Office in Mayville, Ky., for exhibition and sale, where the Oils may be purchased at wholesale.

The Drug Store of the City keep a constant supply of both kinds of Oil for sale at retail as well as wholesale.

Our prices are placed below the market value of it—considering its rare excellence, in order to induce a full trial of the qualities of our Oils.

Price of Lubricating Oils $1.00 per gallon by the single barrel.

Price of Burning Oil, 55 Cents per gallon by the single barrel.

We warrant all the Oils that may be sold of our manufacture to be such as they are herein represented.

IN ALL STAGES OF

SECRET DISEASES,

SELF-ABUSE, NERVOUS DEBILITY, STRICTURE, GLEET, URINARY DISEASES, DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER, MERCURIAL RHEUMATISM, SECONDARY, PAINFUL THE BONES AND ARCHES, DISEASES OF THE LARGE, THROAT, SKIN, BLOOD, ERUPTIONS UPON THE BODY OR LIMBS, CANCERS, DROPSY, ELEPHANTIASIS, ULCERS, TUMORS, &c. ALL OF THESE DISEASES ARISING FROM A DERANGEMENT OF THE SEXUAL ORGANS.

Such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Sight, with Pain in the Eyes, Ringing in the Ears, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the face, Pain in the back and limbs, Female Irregularities, all of which proper discharges from both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, whether long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be achieved by any other treatment, after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent Physicians and resisted all their powerful remedies. Its medicines are pleasant without odor, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam.—Its mild and soothing effects are felt from the first dose of Death, many thousands, who have given up in despair, and consider themselves not been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and most speedy cure. Secret diseases are the greatest curses of the human race, the parent of consumption, Scrofula and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family, as a person afflicted with them is, in fact, a majority of the cases falling into the hands of Empirics, consequently the longer delay in curing the disease but rate the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which with the disease, hastens the premature infirmity and decay.

But should the disease and those remains unchanged, specially and thoroughly eradicated, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life is impaired, and the system is rendered in Scrofula, Tetter, Ulcers, Eruptions and other affections of the skin. Eyes, Throat, Lungs, and Liver, giving upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

SELF ABUSE is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases so effectually prostrates and upon the system drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering into an untimely grave. It destroys the Nervous System, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, centuals derangement, gives the mind a morbid development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of Self Abuse that a permanent and speedy cure, can be effected, and that with the abandonment of injurious practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

The afflicted are cautioned against the use of Patent Medicines, for there are so many ingredients sold in the colleges of the public prints to catch and rob the unwary sufferers, that millions have lost their constitutions by the use of the compounds of quack doctors, or the usually poisonous nostrums vended as "Patent Medicines." I have carefully analyzed many of the so-called Patent Medicines and find that nearly all of them contain Corrosive Sublimate, or some other of the mineral preparations of mercury, and a deadly poison, which, instead of curing the disease, disorganizes the system.

Three fourths of the patent nostrums now in use are put up by unprincipled unlettered quacks, who know but understand even the alphabet of the materia medica, and are equally as destitute of the knowledge of the human system, having one object only in view, and that to make money regardless of consequences.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by twenty years of practice, and sanctioned by the learned the most remarkable cures. Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the United States or Canada, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter. Business correspondence strictly confidential. All letters asking advice must contain a postage stamp.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

CONSUMTPION

AND ALL

Diseases of the Lungs and Throat,

CAN BE

CURED BY INHALATION,

WHICH conveys the remedies to the cavities in the lungs, through the air passages, and comes in direct contact with the disease, neutralizes the tubercular matter, allays the cough, gives a free and easy expectoration, heals the lungs, purifies the blood, imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving that strength and vigor so essential to the restoration of health. To be able to state confidently that Consumption is curable by Inhalation, is to me a source of unalloyed pleasure. It as much under the control of medical treatment as any other formidable disease—and over a few hundred cases can be cured in the first stages, and fifty per cent in the second; but in the third stage it is impossible to save more than five per cent. for the Lungs are so cut up by the disease as to bid defiance to medical skill. Even, however, in the last stages, Inhalation affords extraordinary relief to those suffering attending this fatal scourge, which annually destroys ninety-five thousand persons in the United States alone; and a correct calculation shows that of the whole population of the earth, eighty millions are destined to fill the Consumptive grave.

Truly the quiver of death has no arrow so fatal as Consumption. In all ages it has been the great enemy of life, for the same mortality as sex, but sweeps off alike the brave, the beautiful, the graceful and the gifted. Let the help of that Supreme Being from whom comes every good and perfect gift, I am enabled to offer to the afflicted a permanent and speedy cure for Consumption. The first cause of tubercles is from impure blood, and the immediate effect produced by their deposition in the lungs is to cut up the free admission of air into the air cells, which forms a weakened vitality throughout the entire system. Then surely it is more rational to expect greater good from medicines entering the cavities of the lungs from those administered through the stomach; the patient will always find the lungs free and the breathing easy when other remedies. Then, Inhalation is a local remedy, nevertheless it acts constitutionally, and with perfect safety and certainty, inasmuch as it is entered by the stomach. To prove the powerful and direct influence of the medicine of Inhalation, chloroform inhaled will entirely destroy sensibility in a few minutes, paralyzing the entire nervous system, so that a limb may be amputated without the slightest pain; inhaling the ordinary burning gas will destroy life in a few hours.

The inhalation of ammonia will rouse the system when fainting or apparently dead. The odor of a bottle of the medicine is sufficient to the skin a few minutes after being inhaled, and may be carried in the pocket for years, and yet, on reviving proof of the constitutional effects of inhalation, is the fact that sickness is always prostrated by breathing foul air, and that it may be positive
