MAYSVILLE:

Tuesday Morning, November 18, 1856.

☞ See First Page.

The River.

The Ohio river, under the influence of the heavy rains on Friday night, and the still heavier rain of last night and this morning, is rising quite steadily. It has risen about four feet at this point.

The splendid packet Bostona will be up tonight, and her beautiful mate, the Kentucky, up to-morrow night—on their regular trips in the Portsmouth, Maysville and Cincinnati packet line.

The Railroad Meeting.

Thursday next, at the Goddard House, is the time and place for the organization of the new Maysville and Lexington Railroad Company. We suggest that it may be well for numbers of our prominent citizens to be present, to confer with the owners of the Road or their agents—and see what can be done towards resuming work on the line.

Missing Election.

We expected to publish to-day the official vote of Kentucky, but the rain-storm has prostrated the telegraph lines.

One account we have seen makes Buchanan's majority in the State only 6,364, another 7,187, another 7,261, and another 7,253. It is very uncertain what it will be, as one or two counties may be left out because not reported to the Secretary of State, and as there is considerable variation in the vote cast for different individual electors.

Traveling West.

We observe from our exchanges in Bloomington, Illinois, and Lexington, Missouri, and at other points, that there are a large number of Kentuckians from this section of the State, and particularly from Mason and Fleming counties, now traveling "out West." Some of them are "seeing the country," others are investing their "surplus," while a few are looking out new homes, in anticipation of moving thither in the Spring.

☞ We are glad to see that the Hon. RICHARD H. STANTON has so far recovered from his late illness, as to get about again. He left, on Monday morning, on the Nebraska for Frankfort, to meet the Democratic Electors on Wednesday, to cast the vote of Kentucky for Buchanan and Breckenridge.

☞ Col. SAM. PIKE, the ever-going and "itinerant" editor—who never lived contentedly for as long a time any where else, and never was more kindly treated then in this city—has again returned to Bloomington, Illinois and repurchased the Pike office. For six months he was out of the Pike, but for a part of that time was one of the editors of the St. Louis cruelly editor all your days, and to engage your locality at least once in three years, but generally oftener! Sobrisk to your fate, and don't keep trying to get out of the chair editorial. No other chair will hold you, half so well. Bye-the-bye, Colonel, was the Pike the 25th or 26th different newspaper you have edited, in about the same number of years?

☞ We are authorised to announce JAMES G. STRADING as a candidate for City Assessor at the ensuing election.

☞ We are authorised to announce JOHN SOUDER as a candidate for City Assessor at the ensuing annual election.

☞ We are authorised to announce JOHN SCOUDER as a candidate for City Assessor at the ensuing annual election.

☞ We are authorised to announce EDWARD H. POSTER as a candidate for City Assessor at the ensuing January election.

HUGH HIMSELF.—A young printer named LEONARD K. CALL, hung himself, at Lewistown, Illinois, on Monday evening of last week. No cause is known for the commission of the rash act.

Mr. KENNEDY, President of the Dayton Short Line (Tunnel) Railroad, has succeeded in negotiating a loan. The officers are now actively engaged getting the stockholders and friends of that important enterprise, with a view to perfect the arrangements made.

Message of the Governor of Arkansas.

The Legislature of Arkansas met on the 4th instant and received the annual message of Gov. Conway. It is devoted entirely to State Affairs. The State finances are in good condition. A balance of $435,125, in gold and silver, remains in the treasury. The Governor reports the State as rapidly growing in population and wealth. In 1853 the assessment of taxable property amounted to $42,900,080; that of 1856 is $70,756,045—showing an increase in four years of $27,859,964, or nearly seventy per cent.; and he anticipates that with prudence, skill, and economy, the State will be able, by the time the bonds given by her fall due, to pay them in full without oppressive taxation.

A Flourishing State.—The State of Texas is in an enviable condition in regard to her finances. She is the envy of the country.—Her Comptroller, in his annual report, presents the following flattering picture of her condition: "The State is out of debt, with a surplus of over a million of dollars in the treasury; a permanent five per cent school fund of ten millions of dollars; an unappropriated public domain estimated at one hundred millions of acres, which, if judiciously used, would subserve all the purposes of internal improvements required by the State; and a tax lighter than is imposed on any other people, and which is adequate to all the wants of the Government. The aggregate amount of taxable property is very near $150,000,000, being an increase of $38,200,000 over the previous year."

SALT IN TEXAS.—It is stated in the Texas papers that salt works have been established in that State, about fifty miles above Austin, on the western side of the Colorado. The salt is said to be a superior article, and the best offered in that market. This is a fortunate discovery, as all the salt for that region was wagoned from the coasts.

A Free Press in Border Ruffianism.

It has been fashionable among the editors of papers of the North, for several years past, and more particularly since the Sacking of Lawrence, to speak as if they have been mightily cowed, too many of them, to tell half the story, and only that half that favored their views and best illustrated their constant charge of border ruffianism—to refer to the free States as the home of law and order, and to the slave States as the nursery of violence and bravado. Such a disposition to cater to a morbid appetite that had its origin in the public ignorance of the social relations and domestic institutions of the South, and such continuous and unbeaded efforts to excite the public mind and keep it racked by the repetition of every-day outrages which they professed to believe were practiced only by the pro slavery party and by which only the free-state party were the sufferers, is not simply injudicious, unkind and unwise, but positively criminal. It is not fair or just or reasonable to try and excite the North against the South, by assertions that the South does not regard the laws, and observe and enforce them, with anything like the deference and strictness that is uniformly witnessed in the free States. The records of crime in the country will disprove the assertion. The dockets of the courts will show less litigation in the Southern States than in the North. The docket of the present term of the Supreme Court of the United States, that commenced at Washington City on yesterday, embraces but 30 cases from slave States, to 120 from the free States.

It was not to discuss this point that we began this article—but rather to state two facts that ought to mantle with the blush of shame the cheek of every Northern man who prates about the law-abiding disposition of his brethren, over those residing south of Mason & Dixon's line. We published, last week, the particulars as they were related to us, of the rape, under the most fiendish and brutal circumstances, of a white woman by a negro man, in the town of Manchester, Ohio—the hanging of the scoundrel by his exasperated neighbors, his recovery after the rope was taken from his neck, and his incarceration in jail, from which he was forcibly taken by a mob, who took him to an island in the Ohio river and hung him upon Kentucky soil. The same thing, we have no doubt, would have been done in this State, for the universal feeling is that nothing short of death could atone for so horrible a crime—and death is the penalty under the laws of Kentucky, while Ohio statute-justice is satisfied with 21 years' confinement in the penitentiary. Thus Ohio public sentiment scorned the tameness of her statute-law in this case.

In the county of Mason, place of the same county, last week, ANDREW LYONS, charged with murder in the second degree, of WM. SPIERS, was convicted of manslaughter, and sentenced to the penitentiary for five years.—His trial was succeeded by that of MILLIGAN, for the murder of old man SEATER and wife, which was closed on Saturday last—the jury finding a verdict of ninety-nine years in the penitentiary. For more than a year has the public mind been harrowed and excited by every reference to this last case, which was one of the murders in the HUMAN of crime—and here again, as in the Manchester rape case, public sentiment demanded the utmost penalty known to human laws, life itself. So great were the fears and so strong the symptoms of another mob, that immediately after the verdict was rendered—(rumor says even without waiting for him to be formally sentenced, but this we can hardly believe)—the prisoners MILLIGAN and LYONS were quietly shipped out of jail under the charge of officers, hurried off to this city, (18 miles,) and placed in a Kentucky jail for protection! After lying in our jail from Saturday afternoon until 10 o'clock, Monday morning, they were taken, hand cuffed, on the Nebraska, for Cincinnati, en route to the Ohio Penitentiary at Columbus.

Let those who charge the whole South with "border ruffianism" bear these two cases in mind. And those who prate of greater security to life and property in the North, and of greater respect for the laws and more ready obedience to them, let them be more consistent and more honest, and boast rather of that which is indeed their pride and our misfortune—their greater enterprise, and consequent more rapid growth in population and wealth, albeit at the sacrifice comparatively of immense social comfort and enjoyment.

We do not mean to cast any unreasonable blame, or reproach upon our neighbors across the river. We disapprove of their conduct in the same spirit that we disapprove of all public outbreaks. We condemn the mob spirit, as at once rash and inconsiderate, without law and sometimes against law, dangerous in the extreme, a terror to the innocent as well as to the guilty, for in its sudden wrath and bottlended zeal it occasionally visits sore vengeance upon victims which circumstances when too late may prove guiltless. Kentuckians are generally a law-abiding people; but we cannot but concede that "we do not believe they would have done differently from their Ohio neighbors, in the cases referred to, where the crimes were so heinous, and the barbarity and brutality so unparalleled and fiendish. We rather think they would have been more prompt and more in earnest, that they would have broken the negro's neck at the first hanging, and have intercepted and prevented Milligan's escape, and hung him upon the same tree where the negro atoned for his horrible crime.

An agent of the North Missouri Railroad has just returned from England, where he had been during the last two months, for the purpose of negotiating the bonds of that company; but he reports that owing to the influence produced upon the minds of the English capitalists by the manner in which the citizens of Missouri conducted themselves in the affairs of Kansas, as reported by the correspondents of London papers, that he found it utterly impossible to negotiate the securities at any price.

A New Iron Steamship-of-War.—A new iron steamship of-war is now in course of construction at East Boston for the Viceroy of Egypt. She will be 216 feet long, 37 feet wide, and 21 feet deep, and is expected to be ready for launching in December. She will be ship-rigged, and is intended to be used as a yacht by the Viceroy.

Slavery.

It is said that some Government has found to recognize Mr. A. Osborne, the successor of Senor Vijil, as the Minister of Nicaragua. The person assigned to that Cabinet was appointed by Walker, whereas Don Patricio Rivas is the legal President of Nicaragua. The appointment of a U. S. envoy to succeed Wheeler, will, it is said, be deferred, the Secretary of Legation at Bogota being sent to Nicaragua to keep the Government at Washington posted up in regard to affairs there. It is also said that a minister will be sent to Guatemala to negotiate with the Dictator Carrera.

The receipts of Cloverseed are moderate at Philadelphia, and the market is active at an advance, sales having been made at $7,37½@7,50 per bushel. Timothy is neglected and dull at $3.

FORT LEAVENWORTH, KANSAS TERRITORY, November 18, 1856.

To the Editor of the Maysville Eagle:

The sale of the Delaware Trust Land began at this place yesterday. A very large crowd was in attendance, which comprised a number of speculators. The sale opened at 10 o'clock A. M., in Township 7, South, Range 19, East. Seven sections were sold, which ranged from $1.25 to 2.25 per acre. The sale lasted but a short time, and everything passed off quietly. At the opening of the sale it was announced that it was the intention and wish of the President, that the land occupied or improved by the settler, he should have at the valuation.

This morning, at the opening of the sale 320 acres which was sold and forfeited yesterday, was sold again, together with twelve sections in the same township, which sold ranging from $1.25 to $3.90 per acre. So far all settlers have got their land at the valuation.

At the opening, this morning, it was announced that instructions had been received from the President "in case the Commissioner who has control of the sale is informed that from previous difficulties in Kansas any settler is not able to pay for their claim, to grant them until the 1st sale of the Delaware Trust Lands to do so; and in case of a sale by a settler, "the purchaser is to be treated as a settler."

So far every tract offered has been sold, and it is my impression that every portion of this land will be sold. Claims within three miles of Leavenworth City are selling briskly from $25 to $200 per acre.

KAINTUCK.

November 20, 1856.

The portion of land sold yesterday comprised Sixteen Sections, in Townships 7 & 8 South, Range 19, East. The prices ranged from $1.25 to $3.30.

To-day, eight sections were sold, which ranged from $1.25 to $3.30. All exceeds the valuation except the portion claimed by settlers. Everything goes off very quietly.

Reports of Negro Insurrection—One White Man Shot and twelve Hanged.

We have had from time to time rumors of intended risings of slaves in Texas, Tennessee and Arkansas. The New Orleans Bulletin of Nov. 18th, contains the following paragraph and Louisiana:

The papers in the Northern part of the State have had frequent statements of late, in regard to insurrectionary rumors, and insurrectionary plots, both in that part of the State, and over the line in Arkansas. A few weeks ago a man named Hancock, was arrested in Union county, Arkansas, on suspicion of being engaged in trying to incite the slaves to insurrection. He was hurried off to Camden, and managed to fly to escape, but was re arrested, taken to El Dorado, tried and shot, not, however, by regular process. He was not found guilty on his trial, but endeavored to make he know all about it, but would not tell. This so exasperated the people, as we learn from the Claiborne (La.) Advocate that they seized him, and being then convinced of his guilt, shot him in the woods. A man by the name of Martin, was tried in El Dorado on a similar charge, convicted and hanged. There was to be a general concentration of about 300 negroes at a given point, led on by Hancock and several others. The town of El Dorado was to be attacked—the inhabitants murdered, and money and provisions obtained by force.

The excitement extended down into Louisiana, and several planters have been examining their negroes, but they have discovered, as yet, nothing to implicate any one. It is to be hoped the matter will rest where it is. In all such circumstances excitement is apt to be carried too far, and innocent persons in consequence are liable to be punished for the guilty. We deprecate all hasty and extra judicial proceedings, where it is possible to avoid them.

The Columbus Slave Case.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald, under date of the 26th inst., gives the subjoined version of the recent slave case at Columbus:

Messrs. Lake, of Mississippi, and Jewett, of Kentucky, have arrived in Detroit with their families and taken quarters for the winter. Mr. Lake came near having a serious difficulty in Columbus, O., where he was detained thirty-six hours with several slaves he had in company, bringing them on to Washington. A writ was sued out, but the Sheriff refused to execute it. Mr. Lake avowed his perfect willingness to appear before the Court with his servants, and for them to say whether they desired to be free. They refused to leave their master. Force was next threatened; but Mr. L. assured the District Attorney that as he had been ready to submit to the law, so was he prepared (with friends) to repel force by force. The respectable portion of the citizens of Columbus, including the District Attorney, and Deputy attorney, were on the side of the matter, and discouraged any interference with his slaves. A despatch was next prepared for Newark, calling on certain officers there to arrest the negroes, but the despatch was destroyed in the telegraph office, and not sent.

Kidnapping Case in St. Louis.

The Intelligencer, of St. Louis, of Thursday, has the following:

Yesterday afternoon, the motion for a new trial in the case of William Smith, sentenced to four years in the penitentiary for running off a slave belonging to Wm. T. Christy, was argued before Judge Leland. The ground of the motion was, that the Court had instructed the jury, that in case they found the defendant guilty, they must sentence him to five less than two, nor more than five years in the penitentiary, whereas the law makes the lowest fine'l five years and the highest ten.—The court held, however, that Mr. Christy, was right in a wrong sentence under the erroneous instruction of the Court, did not invalidate the verdict, and that the Court had the authority to amend the sentence, so bringing it within the law. The prisoner was therefore again brought to the bar, and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

Fremont's plurality 16,623.

In Washington county, Morrow county, two votes were cast for a ticket having as electors at large, Andrew Prime and Jacob Heston.

In Knox county, three votes were cast for a ticket having Thomas Ewing and John Ewing as electors at large.

Sunfish township, Pike county, voted unanimously for Buchanan, and a few votes in Paulding did the same thing for Fremont.

Gerrit Smith received 156 votes in the State.

Relative Rank of Cities.

The number of votes cast in the different cities at the late Presidential election, afford a pretty fair test of their relative rank in white population. The following table shows the vote of nineteen of the principal cities, and though not official is substantially correct:

New York	79,086
Philadelphia	70,198
Brooklyn	28,919
Baltimore	25,999
Cincinnati	20,628
Boston	16,444
Chicago	11,634
Buffalo	11,352
St. Louis	11,057
Albany	9,963
Newark, N. J.	9,237
New Orleans	8,768
Milwaukee	7,563
Rochester	6,403
Louisville	5,856
Detroit	5,766
New Haven	5,607
Providence	5,481
Troy	5,365.

New York city proper, has more votes than Baltimore, Cincinnati, Boston, New Orleans, and Louisville combined, and New York and Brooklyn has as many votes as Philadelphia, Baltimore and Boston combined. Brooklyn, which is a mere dependency of New York now has as the third city of the Union in white population. The votes of Cincinnati is larger than that of Chicago and New Orleans, or St. Louis and New Orleans combined, and is more than three and a half times larger than that of Louisville. The total white population in cities, which like New York, Cincinnati and Chicago, contain a large number of unnaturalized foreigners, is much greater in proportion to their voters than in Philadelphia, Boston and Louisville, where this element is small. The greatest increase over former elections is in New York, Brooklyn, Chicago, Buffalo and Milwaukee. In New Orleans there is a loss of about two thousand votes compared with the last election for Governor—and in Louisville, if we are not mistaken, a larger vote was cast four years ago than now.—Cincinnati Commercial.

Injury a Cotton-Shipping Country.

From the National Intelligencer.

The attention of the capitalists and public in general of the United States has recently been called to an important and interesting consideration, whether as regards its national and commercial, or its economical and philanthropic features, for it abundantly possesses them all. We refer to publications made by the Rev. Ray Scorr, in which his tenets of the superior advantages and facilities presented by Liberia as a cotton-raising country. He has resided both in Liberia and in Brazil, and has thus enjoyed opportunities for judging as to the comparative circumstances of the two regions which entitle his opinion to respect. He claims for the Liberian coast a decided superiority in point of soil over the cotton-raising districts of Brazil, and evidences in support of the claim the fact that in the last or country the cotton has grown much larger than in the latter, and has yielded more to the hatter's once. In point of cost of production, of ease and cheapness of transporting the crop to market, and other minor but not unimportant matters, he yields the preference decidedly to the African colony. In answer to the possible interrogatory, why have not all these great advantages been before now availed of? he says that the poverty of the colored colonists, necessitating their immediate resort to labor for their own daily support, is the true reason why Liberia has not been a great cotton-growing region. What is wanted is capital to establish cotton farms, which would pay, he thinks, at least twice as much as cane, beyond the present profits of the Brazilian plantations.

The philanthropic classes of our country should urge this measure with their might; for it offers one, is the most hopeful of all the measures for the establishment of the colony upon a permanent and prosperous basis, whilst at the same time it would benefit every interest in the United States that should in any way be connected with it.

A New State.

The Territory of Minnesota has now a population sufficiently large to entitle her to assume the dignity of a State. Her progress in wealth and population has been wonderful. A recent letter from St. Paul says:

"I am now to tell you something about St. Paul and vicinity as they stand. The census was finished this week. Minnesota Territory has a population of 170,000; St. Paul has 10,000. In 1849 it numbered scarcely 500 persons. A great many new buildings are now going up, everything is lively. If a man wants to come out here to locate he can't miss it; but what he must see and other men know, is that there is so many good places it is hard to choose.—Good carpenters get $2.50 to $3.50 per day, mason the same, girls at boarding work $3 and $4 a week; in the hotels and boarding houses four dollars.

St. Anthony and Minneapolis are smart places with a population of 4,000. Big, in my opinion. St. Paul will always keep ahead; it is the head of navigation for large steamboats on the Mississippi, and the depot for a supply of the vast region of the finest soil in the United States."

The Oldest Member of the U. S. Senate.

The death of Mr. Clayton has very naturally directed attention to the United States Senate, and to the point of seniority. Mr. Crittenden, of Kentucky, is called the "Father" of that distinguished body having entered on the 4th of March, 1817. It will be seen, however on reference to the record, that this now veteran Senator did not exhibit any great degree of fondness for the public councils, high as the position of a Senator has ever been considered. He served one full term in less than three years, and his successor, the Hon. Richard M. Johnson, was appointed on the 10th of December, 1819.

Mr. Crittenden was again in the Senate, his service dating from 3d March, 1835. He again resigned before the end of his term, and his successor, the Hon James T. Morehead, entered the Senate on the 4th day of February, 1841. Mr. Crittenden then succeeded Mr. Clay, who had resigned on the 25th of February, 1842, and continued until the 3rd of March, 1843. He was elected governor of Kentucky but relinquished that trust in July, 1848, to enter Mr. Fillmore's Cabinet as Attorney General. Mr. Crittenden's present term commenced with the 5th of March, 1855, making his whole service about eighteen years.

The Hon. James A. Pearce, of Maryland, is next in the order of seniority, his service dating from the 3rd of March, 1843. He is now in his third term. The Hon. Lewis Cass commenced with 4th March, 1845, and resigned in 1848 when appointed Minister to France, on the 3d of March, 1847.

None of the other Senators now in service date further back than 3rd March, 1845. The second stand thus: Mr. Bright, of Indiana, 4th March, 1845; Mr. Yulee, of Florida, July 21st, 1845; Messrs. Rusk and Houston, of Texas, February 21st, 1846; Mr. Butler, of South Carolina, December 18th, 1846; Mr. Mason, of Virginia, December 23th, 1847; Mr. Hunter, 4th March, 1847; Mr. Hale, of New Hampshire, 4th March, 1847; Mr. Bell, of Tennessee, 4th March, 1847; Mr. Douglas, of Illinois, 4th March, 1847; Mr. Fitzpatrick, of Alabama, December 11th, 1848; and Mr. Seward, of New York, 4th March, 1849.

This exhibits more than the usual number of comparatively new Senators, but most of them have had legislative experience in the other public bodies.—Nat. Int.

Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia.

THOMAS LATCHFORD says:

"My wife has been afflicted with the Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia for a number of years, during which she has spent a great deal for doctors bills, but she received very little benefit therefrom, and finally the doctors told she could not be cured. Last spring she concluded to try Dr. Walker's Gordon Bitters; she took two bottles, and ever since taking them she has been able to attend to her business. I have sold quite a number of bottles through her recommendation, and as far as I can learn, it has given satisfaction to all.

Woman's Rights!

WISNER'S PATENT

Wash Tub!

WHILST men are trying all kinds of labor saving machinery, in their various departments of farming and mechanics, little attention has been given to the Woman's department. Recently however, by the introduction of WISNER'S PATENT WASH TUB, a great saving on labor in the washing of clothes has been effected, which is one of the hardest parts of the work of females.

Let every man that feels an interest in woman's welfare, try one—they are so handsome.

SINGER'S SEWING MACHINES.

THESE Celebrated Machines are practical and positive in all parts of the civilized world. In all the various modes, and in sewing every sort of fabric, either of cloth or leather, they have been fully tried and approved. Sewing Machines of other manufactures often fail to work, but SINGER'S MACHINES ALWAYS OPERATE PERFECTLY, being strong, durable and complete in construction and workmanship. A perfect sewing machine should be employed; affords a clear profit of $1,000 a year; but an imperfect one is a cause of constant vexation and loss. The entire RELIABILITY of our machines is the great reason for their unparalleled popularity.

MACHINES FOR FAMILY SEWING, of a fashionable construction, are highly recommended by other manufacturers. Such machines are made to order, not to perform substantial work. The trade, family sewing machines ought to be stronger than any other, because they go to less skilled hands than when sold to manufacturers, and are used for a greater variety of work. The machines which have proved best for all other purposes must be best for family use, and they are Singer's. The proof of our position has lately been doubled. No other can compare with them in quantity of work.

☞ Our machines of the latest improved style will be exchanged on liberal terms for old Sewing Machines of our own make, or for operative machines of other manufactures. Local agents wanted to sell our machines.☜

N. B.—All persons desiring full information as to best sewing machines, can obtain it by applying for a copy of "I. M. Singer & Co.'s Gazette," a paper devoted entirely to the subject. It will be sent gratis.

MAYSVILLE SEMINARY.

THIS Institution under the supervision of J. W. Rand & W. W. Richardson, will commence its 22d scholastic year on the first Monday in September next and continue to the 3rd Friday in June 1857.

The course of instruction embraces a thorough English, Classical and Mathematical education, with music and Painting and other ornamental branches.

There are two departments in the institution, Male and Female, though entirely distinct and separate, except in the general exercises of Composition, Criticism, &c.

The location of the Seminary is upon the slope of a beautiful hill, commanding a view of one of the most lovely scenes in the Ohio.

The buildings are sufficiently commodious to insure comfort and convenience to the Pupils.

The residence of Mr. Rand, Principal of the Female Department, being contiguous to the Seminary Rooms, offers great advantages to young ladies boarding in his family.

Mr. Richeson, Principal of the Male Department, resides one mile from the city and will receive such young gentlemen as boarders, who may desire the quiet of his Country Seat.

Prices of tuition for the scholastic year, embracing all the branches taught in the Institution except Modern Languages and the ornamental branches. $40.

MAYSVILLE SEMINARY.

THIS Institution under the supervision of J. W. Rand & W. W. Richardson, will commence its 22d scholastic year on the first Monday in September next and continue to the 3rd Friday in June 1857.

The course of instruction embraces a thorough English, Classical and Mathematical education, with music and Painting and other ornamental branches.

There are two departments in the institution, Male and Female, though entirely distinct and separate, except in the general exercises of Composition, Criticism, &c.

The location of the Seminary is upon the slope of a beautiful hill, commanding a view of one of the most lovely scenes on the Ohio.

The buildings are sufficiently commodious to insure comfort and convenience to the Pupils.

The residence of Mr. Rand, Principal of the Female Department, being contiguous to the Seminary Rooms, offers great advantages to young ladies boarding in his family.

Mr. Richeson, Principal of the Male Department, resides one mile from the city and will receive such young gentlemen as boarders, who may desire the quiet of his Country Seat.

Prices of tuition for the scholastic year, embracing all the branches taught in the Institution except Modern Languages and the ornamental branches. $40.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

R. H. COLLINS, Esq.,

Will please publish the condition of Ætna and Home Insurance Companies. It is done in accordance with a recent law of the Kentucky Legislature. The Home Insurance Company, doing business in the State, is short that they have as much as $150,000 cash assets exceeding liabilities. The Ætna, you will notice, has about $905,000, and the Home near $500,000. I will take risks as low as can be done to insure protection to the assured and the underwriters.

JOS. F. BRODRICK, Agent,

Ætna and Home Insurance Companies.

STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE

HOME Insurance Company of the City of New York,

On the 1st day of January, 1856, made in accordance with an Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, entitled "An Act to regulate Agents of Foreign Insurance Companies and approved 3rd March, 1856."

The amount of the Capital Stock of the Company is Five Hundred Thousand Dollars, which is all paid up in Cash.

The Assets of the Company consists of the following items, viz:

Cash on hand (in bank)	$19,352 00
Cash in the hands of Agents and in course of transmission to Agent	16,055 96
Real Estate unincumbered, No. 4 Wall street	69,467 37
Bonds and Mortgages on Real Estate, worth at least $75,000	429,500 00
Interest on the same, payable on demand	2,000 00
(market value of said Stocks $269,642.)
Notes rec'd. for Premiums, &c.	7,686 62
Premiums due and in course of collection on Policies issued at the Office	2,745 81
Interest due and unpaid to January 1st, 1856	16,370 76
(all of which has been since received.)
Total Assets	$812,598 62

LIABILITIES:

Losses due and unpaid	None.
Losses adjusted and not due	$5,000 00
Losses unadjusted, but claimed in suspense waiting further proof	28,892 27
Losses resisted	13,000 00

Of which amount $8,000 has since been settled. One claim for $5,000, is now only in suit, resisted on the grounds that the Policy was vitiated by changes of which the Company had no information.

Signed, J. MILTON SMITH,

Secretary Home Insurance Company.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 24th day of June, 1856. Witness my hand and official seal.

Signed, JOHN BISSELL,

(SEAL.) Commissioner for Kentucky, 11 Wall street.

AUDITOR'S OFFICE,

FRANKFORT, KY., 24th June, 1856.

This is to certify that JOS. F. BRODRICK, as Agent of the Home Insurance Company, of New York, at Maysville, has filed in this office the statements and exhibits required by the provisions of an act, entitled, "An act to regulate Agencies of Foreign Insurance Companies," approved March 3, 1856; and it having been shown to the satisfaction of the undersigned that the Company is possessed of an actual capital of at least one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, as required by said act, the said Jos. F. Brodrick, Agent as aforesaid, is hereby licensed and permitted to take risks and transact business of insurance at his office in Maysville, Mason co., Ky., for the term ensuing therefor. But this license may be revoked if it shall be made to appear to the undersigned that since the filing of the statements above referred to, the available capital of said Company has been reduced below one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

In testimony whereof I have set my hand, the day and year above written. 2m
