This deed is of date September 30, 1904, and was made under the authority granted in the will of Warren Alderson, deceased, which authority was given in said Will. Said deed is recorded in Deed Book 11, page 504, Rowan County Records, no liens or incumbrances embraced therein.

The Will of Warren Alderson, deceased, was regularly probated by the Rowan County Court and was ordered to record by said court, and will be found recorded in Will Book "A" page 78, Rowan County Record of Wills. Said will was of date December 2, 1902, and was recorded on the 23d day of December, 1903. Reference is here made to said Will giving Hiram Bradley as Administrator the right to make a deed to said Stevens. Said Hiram Bradley was duly appointed as Administrator of the estate of Warren Alderson, deceased, with the Will annexed, by orders of the County Court of Rowan County, on the 16th day of April, 1904, and executed bond as such on said date, as required by law, and entered upon his duties, as such Administrator, as shown by the records of the Rowan County Court. The said records of the Rowan County Court are here referred to for a more definite record of said proceeding.

COUNTY OF ROWAN

I, E. Hogge, a regular practicing attorney, residing in Morehead, Kentucky, and authorized to practice law in all the Courts of this Commonwealth, do hereby certify that the foregoing Abstract to the thirty-five and one-third acres of land is true and correct, according to the records of the Rowan County Court Clerk's office, and that there are no liens incumbrances or taxes against said property, except taxes for the year, 1928. And in my judgement the title to said property as shown by said abstrance, is good and sufficient, and that the deed from James A. Nickell and wife, Hannah Nickell, to the Commonwealth of Kentucky, would pass a true and perfect title to said land to said State.

Given under my hand this the 12th day of September, 1928.

ATTORNEY

Accounts of W. L. Jayne of $28.00 and T. A. Dulaney of $35.07 were examined and ordered paid by the Treasurer.

On motion of Mr. Perry, seconded by Mrs. Bradley, the bid of F. A. Clegg & Company of $14,486.00, it being the lowest and best bid, for large size boiler, stoker, etc., was accepted, and the Architects ordered and directed to prepare contract, etc., in accordance with terms of bid.

A letter received September 17, 1928, from the AETNA CASUALTY AND SURETY COMPANY, (surety on the bond of S. M. Bradley, former Treasurer), was presented to the Board and is as follows, to-wit:

"To the Board of Regents of the Morehead State
Normal School and Teachers College
Morehead, Kentucky.

Re: Account S. M. Bradley

Sirs:

We agree that if the Citizens Bank of Morehead is organized and opened under permission under Kentucky State Banking Commissioner that the balance in the Morehead State Bank, (now suspended), to the credit of S. M. Bradley, former treasurer of the Morehead State Normal School and Teachers College may be credited in the said new bank, as a deposit credit of the present or any future Treasurer of your Board, subject to check of said new Treasurer, as may be directed by the board in the usual course of business; but whether and when said deposit may all be withdrawn by you or on your check to be subject to the judgment and direction of the State Banking Commissioner of Kentucky.

We agree that this company will stand bound if now bound on its bonds as surety for said S. M. Bradley, former Treasurer of your Board and without prejudice to any defense we may or might have to all or any of this fund.

You may notwithstanding this agreement proceed by suit, if you wish, against us, to collect from us, the balance, if any, of said Bradley's liability to you upon which we may be bound as surety and withhold action against us for the amount of said deposit for future action.

The fact that said deposit may be treated as herein stipulated shall not be taken or construed as a waiver by you, or as payment pro tanto on said Bradley's liability until and when you actually receive the money on or from said deposit. The bank to pay 3% interest on the sum held by it, and if company is not called on to pay any of said $132,000, then it will pay no interest on that sum.
