Nautilus Mutual Life Insurance Company, 20, Wall Street, N. York.

THIS Company which confines its business exclusively to LIFE INSURANCE, has now been in operation two years and a half, during which period it has issued 1923 policies; and for the first fifteen months experienced no loss. Its losses for the whole time have been less than $18,000, leaving an accumulation of about $65,000 on hand, beyond the payment of claims and expenses. This added to the original guaranty capital of $50,000, places the security of the Company on a basis so solid as no longer to admit of a rational fear of loss.

All its profits accrue to the credit of the dealers, and are divided annually among them, whether the the policy be issued for a limited period or for the whole term of life, a feature unknown in the character of any other Mutual Life Insurance Company incorporated in this State.

Two dividends of 59 per cent. each, on the amount of premium received, in accordance with the provisions of the charter, have been declared, and are credited to the assured, and for which scrip certificates will be issued.

A dividend of 6 per cent. on the first year's scrip, has likewise been declared, payable in CASH, to the holders thereof, on demand, at the office of the Company.

For policies granted for the whole term of life, when the premium thereof amounts to $50—a note for 40 per cent. with interest at 6 per cent.—ample guaranty, may be received in payment, or it may be paid in cash, in which case it is expected, should the party survive to make 13 annual payments, leaving the dividends to accumulate, the policy will be fully paid for, and the accumulation ultimately added to the policy.

For further information, the public are referred to the pamphlets and forms of proposal, which may be obtained at the office of the company or any of its Agencies.

Patent Poetry.

Just received at the Cheap Cash Store,
Goods from New York and Baltimore;
And Goods from Philadelphia, too,
With every thing that's fine and new.

Come on, all you who wish to buy,
To suit you we will surely try,
And give you bargains, such as you
Nor your ancestors never knew.

Why will you falter, then, and fear,
And keep your money so very dear?
When you can buy them there so cheap,
And the reward of your industry reap.

Goods there of every make and kind,
To suit the most fastidious mind;
And every thing that can entice,
Is offered at the lowest price.

No Store within the Western States
Can offer Goods at lower rates:
Then, why not one trial give—
You'll not repent it while you live.

Be not by sophistry controlled,
And men who only want your gold;
When bargains just to suit the buyers,
Can be obtained at WITTENMYER'S. [jan10

The great beauty and superiority of this Sarsaparilla over all other remedies is, while it eradicates disease, it invigorates the body. It is used success fully in the removal and permanent cure of all diseases arising from an impure state of the Blood, or habit of the system. It differs so essentially, and is so vastly superior to all other potent remedies that it is not permitted to go into the hands of those whose shelves constantly groan under the weight of worthless nostrums, whose chief efficacy is concealed within a mysterious and unmeaning name.

TRI-WEEKLY HERALD.

J. SPRIGG CHAMBERS, EDITOR.

Maysville, April 5, 1848

FOR GOVERNOR,
Hon. JOHN J. CRITTENDEN.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
Hon. JOHN L. HELM.

☞ Lazarus W. Powell of Henderson county is an unfortunate man. He has been selected by the Democratic Central Committee to be sacrificed in the Gubernatorial canvass of Kentucky.

We cannot learn that Mr. Powell, who is a young lawyer of moderate capacity, has done any thing to bring down upon him this cruel distinction. We are impatient to read the congratulations of our neighbour of the Flag upon this fortunate selection.—Dont you think he'll beat Mr. Crittenden Pike!

☞ A letter from Vera Cruz to the Editors of the N. O. Delta, dated March 24 spoke of the arrival of Capt's. Cox and Pritchard of the 3d, Ky. Regiment, and that they would leave for New Orleans on board the steamer Ann McKim. They are doubtless now in that City.

☞ The rumor that the writings of the Hon. J. Q. Adams are shortly to be published by his Son turns out to be a hoax.

COVINGTON.—We learn from the Freeman's Journal that this beautiful City is increasing in population very rapidly and that were there 500 vacant houses in the Litchfield in Greyson county and in a speech. In that speech he in large words freely in hard swearing, that the grand jury in ice't him for prefaiy and he was actually convicted and fined. We shall be able in a few days to publish a copy of the indictment.

We hope that Lazarus's speeches in the approaching canvass will show an improvement in his phraseology. If he has no respect for the dog logue, he may have some for his pocket. He has learned that hard-swearing in a public speech is a luxury that is heavily taxed in a moral community.—Louisville Journal.

GEN. TAYLOR'S POSTAGE.—We find the following in the New Orleans Picayune:

We are informed that every mail that reaches Baton Rouge, from any quarter, is filled with letters to Gen. Taylor. So overwhelmed is the old hero by his correspondence, that it is not only a herculean labor to read it, but he has not time to read it, actually eating into his subsistance. Now, nine out of ten of the letters which the General receives concern his writers more than they do him, and for each one to pay the postage upon his own epistles would be a slight tax upon the luxury of correspondence, whilst the aggregate amount is a serious assessment of war product. The jest of a national correspondence should be spared this expense, else the gratitude of the people impoverishes the object of their attachment.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE PRESIDENT.—By and with the advice and consent of the Senate.—Joshua L. Martin, now secretary of the United States legation at Paris, to be charge d'affaires to the Papal States.

JOHN APPLETON, of Maine, to be charge d'affaires to the Republic of Bolivia.

ELIJAH HISE, of Kentucky, to be charge d'affaires to the republic of Guatemala.

RICHARD K. CRUTTS, and J. PROCTOR COXE, to be justices of the peace in the county of Washington, in the District of Columbia.

THE COURT OF INQUIRY IN MEXICO.—It will be see i that the Court commenced its session on the 16th ult., and that General Worth withdrew his charges against Gen. Scott. This was honorable; and we doubt not Worth's better feelings prevailed, and he is sensible of the injustice done to his old and tried friend. It is honorable to Scott, in the highest degree, that on such a field of Fame, he quietly yielded himself and his laurels to the investigation of a court, so constituted. Scott has been subjected to all sorts of ordeals, and he will come out—as he said to the Rifles—"pure steel."—Cin. Chron.

C. M. CLAY IS THE PEOPLE OF LEXINGTON.—The Lexington Atlas, of Thursday, says:

We learn that the suit brought by Capt. C. M. Clay against "the Committee" for removing the Free American office from Berea, in August, 1845, was terminated on Saturday last in the circuit court of Jessamine county, to which place the trial had been removed, by the jury rendering a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $2,500. The defendants, we also learn, have taken an appeal.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—A case of importance to community, was recently decided in the Boston court of common pleas. The case was this. A trader made his entries on a slate which entries were transcribed to the daybook by his clerk at irregular intervals. The clerk not being able to testify to the items charged any further than that they were correctly transcribed, the court ruled that the defendant could not be permitted to swear to the correctness of his book, because they did not contain the original entries.

THOMAS EWING.—The Whigs of Knox Co. Ohio, at the County convention held on the 26th inst. adopted the following:

Resolved, That in Thomas Ewing we recognize the upright politician—the pure statesman and the honest man—we admire him for his firm adherence to principle—we esteem him for his manly withdrawal from the Cabinet of the traitor Tyler—we love him for his patriotic devotion to our cause. There is not a nobler or better Whig of the Union—"honest, capable and faithful"—competent to fill any office in the gift of the free people—the Whigs of Old Knox will ever be ready to endorse him—those who know him best love him most."

At a meeting in Washington, on the 28th, in honor of the French Revolution, Mr. Cass apologized for his work on the "King and Court of France," in which Louis Philippe is so highly eulogized. Nay, Mr. Cass, do not turn your back on an old friend, because he is in adversity.—Transcript.

☞ Richard of the Eagle, sake Samuel of the Flag, what our portrait (when taken) will be best calculated to frighten. Samuel answers mules and Donkeys. This is fun alive. An Ourang-outang and the Genius of an earthquake making sport of the comedist editor in town! We dont suppose our friend Culbertson could daguerreotype Richard's face at all, as nature has made a miniature of it already, but we will forfeit our claims to sagacity, if a faithful representation of Pike's face on a metallic plate, presented unexpectedly to a child under 7 years old, dont make the youngster yell with affright. Why his whole face scarcely affords a respectable margin for his eyes.

We invite the especial reading of "Cutters Song" of Lightning to be found in to-day's Herald.

The author has burnished anew his poetical fame by this elegant effusion.

SWORD TO GEN. QUITMAN.—The following is the inscription, prepared by Col A. L. Bingman, on the sword presented to Gen. Quitman, by the citizens of Natchez:

"Presented to Maj. Gen. John A. Quitman, by the citizens of Adams county and of the city of Natchez, as a mark of his gallantry at the storming of Monterey, the battles of Chapultepec and Garita de Belen, in which he gloriously sustained his own character, the character of his State and of his country."

THE LITCHFIELD NOMINEE—SOMETHING RICH.—Mr. Lazarus. W. Powell, the Litchfield nominee for Governor, was in 1844 the Locofoco candidate for elector in his district. In the course of his labors, he went to Litchfield in Greyson county and made a speech. In that speech he in large words freely in hard swearing, that the grand jury in ice't him for prefaiy and he was actually convicted and fined. We shall be able in a few days to publish a copy of the indictment.

For the Herald.

MR. CHAMBERS: In reply to the flattering call made upon me, through your columns, I have the honor to state that I think the authors of it, very sincerely, but must decline the honor, (which they offer me) of their support, for a seat in the Legislature for reasons which I am sure they will appreciate when explained to them.

Very respectfully

April 10 W. P. CONWELL.

For the Maysville Herald.

MR. CHAMBERS: The City Council Saturday night last, adjourned without any action upon the subject of Hemp Storage. I am inclined to believe that Mr. Payne will back out from his ordinance, and I thing it probable Mr. Stanton will follow suit. Believing that the article of Hemp, greatly endangers the safety of Property and the peace and happiness of certain nervous Citizens, when stored indiscriminately through the city.—I also back out from the position assumed in your paper of last Friday and go for the Ordinance that a Member of the Council intends proposing at their appointed meeting. I consider it proper that it should be Published and if any one can suggest, any better and more secure plan of course they will do so, as the "City Fathers" I presume will allow them that privilege, particularly if it should be one

INTERESTED.

The following is the Ordinance referred to.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the city of Maysville, that from and after the 32nd day of April in the year 1848, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, whatever, to have or cause to be hauled into the corporate limits of this City, any Hemp or Hemp tow, dew or water rotted, or hemp or tow, by Lawrie Patent, Brakes or by any other process or machinery, shall have been examined by two competent examiners, and pronounced destitute of the true principle of spontaneous combustion, unless the same shall have been subject to the action of Cotton Gin, warranted to render it incombustible.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained that and

be and they are hereby appointed a committee, to contract with Thomas & Menefee, for the construction of a demi-digester, or jug, made in one solid piece of some wire, with a base no less, exactly one second of a foot in diameter, and no more, which said base shall be cut out with a leather apron, and that said jug shall be of two inches, or in, to one, which, said shall be attached a trot line, extending from said handle to the cupper of the City Hall but which may be used by those desirous of having the Hemp in, peeled as aforesaid, outside of the limits of the city, in calling together the board of chemist to be hereafter appointed according to the provisions of this ordinance, to the shall be appointed, by a town sitting, a measure place. Stamped with the corporate seal, of the city of Maysville,

SEC. 3. Be it further ordained, that as the city owns a small lot, called the cemetery, and particularly intended for the farmers of Mason County, it may be desirable to raising Hemp for sale, and in order that this county may not seem disposed to discourage or to oppose, the production of the county, it is further ordained that the use of the city, tow, and grain of every description in the lot, shall be possible, within the corporate limits of Maysville, and as far more effectually to prevent a dispute, the storage of commodities, so dangerous, it is hereby ordained that no House, mole, stable, Cow, or any other Quadruped shall be erected in the city, or in the city.

Any person or persons guilty of a breach of either of the aforesaid provisions, shall be considered to set down bread, on hour salt, and have his sentence to be fed on the rations of the Indian dog (commonly called the tramp) every morning for 30 days. The City Marshal and his deputy being required to enforce the rules of the Indian dog and other services, shall be kept in Cigars, liquor &c. at the expense of the city for the said space of 30 days.

The New York Tribune mentions a strange coincidence in the lives of Astor and Louis Philippe, as follows.

"More than sixty years ago, a strong minded German, with slender finances, and of humble birth and education, crossed the Atlantic, to seek a home in America, followed in a few years by a bold, yet cautious and shrewd Frenchman, who, though nursed in the lap of plenty, and his brain filled with learned lore, had tasted of poverty, and was sinking an asylum from persecution in the land of the free.

"The young German adventurer made America his home; his talents and persevearance brought immense wealth; he is said to have accumulated twenty-five millions of dollars. The Frenchman returned to his native land; hereditary riches awaited him, and, at length, a throne. The German lived just long enough to learn that the French adventurer had escaped from his own capital, unknown and in disguise, with a five franc piece in his pocket; and that his immense treasures had been confiscated. The richest man in America died on the week in which he received tidings that the richest man in Europe was once more a wanderer and a fugitive, having no home."

FAREWELL ADDRESS OF MR. FORREST.—The following is the farewell address of the great American Tragedian, Mr. Forrest, delivered by him on the night of the 24th ult., at the American Theatre, N. Orleans, at the close of his engagement at that establishment:

Ladies and Gentlemen:—The little bell, which, a short time since, sounded for the raising the curtain, now tolls the knell of my public dramatic existence in your city. I am now no longer an actor among you, and I am come, with a few brief, but sincere words, to thank you for the kindness and generosity shown me for a century since, when, as a nameless boy, I first presented myself, a candidate for your favor—to thank you for the cheering applause with which you have so generously hailed my exertions—and to thank you for this last crowning token of your approbation, this brilliant assemblage, convened to do me honor, and to grace my final exit from your stage.

I wish to withdraw from the laborious toils of the profession, while yet in the possession of an unimpaired constitution—before age has debilitated, or time has shaken my faculties; for, I would fain be no worn veteran, "last superfluous on the stage." Besides, I wish to engage in another pursuit—one more congenial to my present taste—a pursuit which has been rightly characterized, by Washington, as one of the most noble, the most useful, and the most noble employment of man—the cultivation of the soil.

And now comes one of the most trying moments of my chequered life—a moment, in which one little word will be spoken, which will severe forever the link which, through so many years, has bound me to your service—a word which has been spoken and which, alas! must be often spoken in this sad, bright world, but never, in the life of him who now addresses you, with more regretful, heartfelt emotion, than I now say—farewell!

BY TELEGRAPH!

SEVEN DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMSHIP WASHINGTON.

FROM SOUTHAMPTON

Monster Meeting appointed at Dublin.—Government preparing to put it down.—Sicilian Revolutionists.—Intervention of Austria Contemplated.—Rumored death of the Emperor of Russia.—Result of the Revolution in Vienna.—Disturbances of the People Suspected.—Money pressure in the France. The National Bank Suspended.

NEW YORK, April 7th, 6 P. M.

The steamship Washington, from Southampton, whence she sailed on the 19th ultimo, was telegraphed at 3 o'clock, and at 5 o'clock she landed her mails.

The intelligence by this arrival—although not full of that thrilling interest which characterized the news by the Caledonia—is highly important; as it shows that the ball which was put in motion by France, is moving steadily onward.

The movement in Ireland afford unmistakeable evidence of the feelings which have been aroused by the Revolution in France.

A monster meeting was called at Dublin on the 20th of March, which caused great alarm and the Government were sending troops and steamers, and making every necessary preparation to prevent the proposed gathering.

Sicilian and France were quiet.

The Provisional Government has organized a large force, with which it is the intention, as is generally supposed, to invade Austria.

The Revolution in Vienna resulted most favorably, the Emperor granting everything that the people desired.

Hungary had declared herself independent of Austria.

It was rumored that the Emperor of Russia was dead, but I have yet seen nothing confirmatory of the report.

The Banks of France had suspended, and the local Banks which had been established, failed to relieve the great monetary pressure, and as a consequence a large number of heavy failures had occurred.

The Provisional Government of France had been recognized by the European Governments, generally, thus approving of the act of their respective ministers.

England far below our ratio quotations.

The Liverpool Cotton market has slightly improved.

SECOND DISPATCH OF THE FIRST VESSEL.

The Bank of France was authorized to issue inconvertible Notes, as a legal tender. This act gave great satisfaction. Outbreaks were greatly feared in consequence of the misery among the working class.

Election in Massachusetts.

BOSTON, April 5th.

The special election held in the district lately occupied by Hon. J. Q. Adams has resulted in the choice of Horace Mann, the regular Whig candidate.

LATEST FROM MEXICO.

Courts Martial of Generals Scott, Worth, Pillow, and Co. Duncan. More difficulties between our officers.

The New Orleans Picayune, extra, of the 29th, a morning after the arrival of the steamer New Orleans, bringing dates from the capital to the 21st, and Vera Cruz to the 25th.

The difficulties between Gens. Worth and Scott had been renewed. Mr. Trist was detained at the city of Mexico as a witness in the court of inquiry. Gen'l. Scott leaves for the United States as soon as the court shall have adjourned. Gen. Twiggs asked a number of days, to settle his accounts here in New Orleans. Col. Henry Wilson succeeds Gen. Twiggs as Governor of Vera Cruz.

No more supplies than are actually necessary are now being sent to the interior, in view of the immediate withdrawal of troops.

The court sat in secret session at the Palace on the 16th ultimo, on the next day, after a short private session, the court announced its readiness to proceed to its deliberations. Gen. Scott asked what persons were the accused parties, and what subjects were to be investigated. The order for the assembling of the court was then read, and the court examined Mr. Duncan, also the complaint of Worth against Scott, and designated the time and place of meeting, and other preliminaries. Gen. Scott stated that he thought that all interested parties should be present, particularly Col. Duncan, as some remarks would be made which would concern him. Gen. S. also inquired who her any other persons were embraced in the order as accused parties. The court deliberated privately half an hour, and then replied that no other parties were accused. General Scott then made a short speech, speaking feelingly of being struck down at and stance from home, from a high and elevated command, and of finding himself suddenly placed as the chief criminal—he avowed had become his accusers. The president of the court administered Gen. Scott that such remarks infringed on the rules, and ordered him to resume his seat.—The court then adjourned till the next day.—The court expressed its readiness to investigate the charges of Worth against Scott when a letter was read from Gen. W., saying that for the welfare of the service, he wishes to withdraw his accusation. In his appeal again Scott; after reading the paper, the doors were closed, and when reopened, the court announced its determination to suspend proceedings in that matter.

The court then proceeded to the case of Col. Duncan, with a view to save time, and Scott insisted on reading documents relating to the charge against Duncan, which the court refused.

The accusation against Duncan were subsequently withdrawn by Gen. Scott.

GREAT PROGENY.—We learn from the Trenton News that an old Jersey matron—the widow of Jos. Newman, of revolutionary memory—died the other day in Monmouth county, leaving 9 children, 91 grand children, and 93 great grand children—making 193 descendants.

CALIFORNIAN BALLS.—An officer of the navy, in a letter to the Home Journal, thus describes the daughter of a rancheros:

You have never seen a California belle. A real, genuine, out-and-out, live, native belle. I mean; indigenous to the soil. I can assure you I have utterly lost my heart with one of them, the daughter of a rancherd, who lives about forty miles in the interior, and should my application for leave of absence prove unsuccessful, I don't know but I shall really become a rancherd myself! The girl is beautiful; her complexion is of a dark, ruddy hue, tinged with red, like the leaves in autumn, with raven tresses, eyes intensely black and intensely sparkling; teeth as white as pearls, but not like them, for no string of pearls was ever so regular; a faultless form, embodying a soul as pure and guileless as an angel's. In addition to all these natural charms, she can "pay her mes bill" sings sweetly, touches the guitar with exquisite skill, dances divinely, and laughs right merrily. She rides wild horses, throws the lasso adroitly and never misses her aim with the rifle. She carries a sharp knife in her girdle, and understands the anatomy of either sa ge or buffalo. She has never sat upon a chair in all her life! knows nothing about corsets, capes, turbolows, or flounces; never wears bonnets, and speaks no English!

Well, gentlemen, there she is—what do you think of her? A paragon, truly! Don't be alarmed, if she should make a descent upon your quiet little circles, some of these fine mornings, for there is no danger to be apprehended when I am alo gside. She is delighted with the idea of crossing the Andes, and is ready to accompany me to-morrow. So take your telescope, and keep a sharp look-out in the offing for this strange craft."

We find the following instance of heroism in the Paris correspondence of the New York Tribune. It occurred during the last session of the Chamber of Deputies—

"It was at the close of the speech of M. Lamartine that the Duchess of Nemours, seeing that there was no hope for her, turned to withdraw, but this was no longer facile. The Duchess was separated from her children, and and the children from each other. A workman broke the sword of the Duc de Nemours in his access and a man in blouse seized the Comte de Paris by the throat as if to strangle him. he was thrown off by a young National Guardsman. After this, the Duchess, placing herself between the child and and the mob—whose guns were levelled at him—old them to fire if they would, but they must take his life first. Then, hurrying the Comte through side doors, he leaped from the window to the pave ment beneath. A friend handed down the child, and Mary ran with him in his arms to the hotel des invalides, outstripping the carriages which brought the Duchess and her other child to the same place. The heroic conduct of Mary touched the heart of the royal unfortunates, and the Duc de Nemours, taking off one his epaulettes, gave it to him as a souvenir of the day, and as a token he was them."

GREAT WEALTH.—The Philadelphia Ledge says that Louis Philippe, ex-King of the French, is shown by the transfer books of the State of Pennsylvania to be a holder of about five hundred thousand dollars of State stock, bonds, &c. He is besides, known to be a very large holder of New York State and Ohio loans, and in most likely of the bonds of other States and of the General Government. The real estate that he holds in the city of New York is immensely valuable and it is probably within the truth to set down his interest in property and the credit in the United States at not less than five millions of dollars. He is no less likely as large y interested in the funds of Great Britain and of other European nations.

NAPOLEON'S PROPHECY.—During his imprisonment at S. Helena, Napoleon made to Lascas the following prophecy, part of which has been already fulfilled:

"In less than twenty-five years from the present time, the whole European system will be changed. The French will cut the Byes and their debts off, as my Arabian steed would any stranger who would dare to mount him. Then, if my son be in existence, he will be seated on the throne and the aristocracies of the people if he be not, France will go back to a Republic; for no other hand will dare to seize a sceptre which it cannot wield. The Orleans branch, than is amiable, are too much like our Bourbons, and will share the same fate, if they attempt to live a simple citizens under what ever changes take place. France once more a republic, other countries will follow her example—Germans Prussians Italians, Poles, Danes, Swedes and Russians, will join in the crusades for liberty."

We understand that several counsellors of the Commercial Bank of Cincinnati have been taken at the counter of the bank—so well exercised is the Bank that all persons of all to refuse notes of this denomination.—Cin. Com.

The following gentlemen are Executors of the Will of the late Mr. Astor, viz: Wm. B. Astor, John J. Astor, Jr. DANIEL. LOAD, Jr. Jas G. KING, Jonathan Ogden, Jr. Esq. The Will is voluminous, and was drawn up by D. Load, Jr. Esq.—N. N. Tribune.

The Paris correspondent of the London Atlas says. "Louis Philippe has quitted the country, leaving behind him twenty-five millions of debts, his custom being to pay his creditors but once in five years. It is the third year only which is now elapsing."

PROFESSOR WYMAN.—The friends of the Richmond Medical College will regret to learn that Professor Wyman has resigned the chair of Anatomy and Phisiology, which he has so ably filled for several years, in consequence of having been appointed to the chair of Comparative Anatomy in Harvard University.

THE FRENCH REVOLUTION.—The Mayor of New York sent into the common Council, on Thursday evening, a recommendation for a public demonstration of rejoicing at the establishment of a Republic in France.

NOMINATION.—The abolitionists have nominated Gen. Appleton Howe for Congress, as successor to John Q. Adams.

A person having gained considerable promotion lately not his old friends. One of them who called on him, was asked who he was? "I am an old friend," he replied, "and come to condole you on the loss of your eyesight and memory."

☞ Two dogs supposed to be mad, were killed by citizens in Sycamore street, yesterday. The Marshall and his assistants continue in the awful work of canine extermination, they having made a destructive demonstration upon one poor first since the passage of the ordinance.—Cin. Com.

The following is the speech of Mr. Rush, the American Minister at Paris, recognizing the Provisional Government:

"GENTLEMEN: As the representative of the United States, and charged with the care of the rights and interests of my country and my fellow-citizens residing in France, and being at too great a distance to await instructions from my Government, I seize the earliest opportunity of offering congratulations, persuaded that my Government will approve the step in which I have taken the initiative. I cannot omit to remind you of the alliance and friendship which have long existed between France and the United States. I am certain that loud and universal expressions of hope arise in my country for the prosperity, happiness and glory of France under the institutions now inaugurated in conformity with the will of the nation.

"Americans have an ardent hope that, under the wisdom of France, these institutions will have results of which the magnanimous conduct of her people in late events affords presage. Under similar institutions the United States have enjoyed seventy years of increasing prosperity, with a Government of stability; and it the Union gives to others the choice of government without interference, it naturally feels gratified in seeing another nation, under similar institutions, assuring to themselves the benefits of social order and public liberty. Permit me to employ the words which Washington the great founder of our republic, used in similar occassions, and terminate this by adding my congratulations and the earnest hope that the friendship of the two republics maybe co-extensive with their duration."

Mr. Arago replied to Mr. Rush. He was delighted to recebe the words of Washington, and hoped that a lasting friendship would spring up between the republics.

M. Dupont de l'Eure, addressing the Minister, said, "Sir, in offering my hand I assure you that the French people tender the hand of friendship to Americans."

When they quitted the Hotel de Ville the guard presented arms, and Cries of "Long live the republic of the United States," saluted the Minister.

On the 6th March the Provisional Government received a deputation of two hundred and eighty citizens of the United States, who walked to the Hotel de Ville, bearing American and French flags on the same staff. Mr GOODRICH, in the name of his countrymen, presented a brief and complimentary address, saying:

"Gentlemen, members of the French Provisional Government: As citizens of the United States, and American spectators of recent events in Paris, we have come to offer our congratulations, and to ask your acceptance of two flags as emblems of eternal alliance between France and the U. States.

"Grateful recollections of past ties, the amity which has existed between you and us, prompts us to be the first to testify to you and the people of France the sympathy, respect, and admiration with which recent events inspire us—acknowledging the right of every nation to form its own Government. We sincerely congratulate you on the mighty revolution you have made, and may we be permitted to felicitate France on the rapid progress of republican system, recognising the true basis on which all just governments must rest.

"The great principles of liberty and political equality have been the bases on which depended your recent success.

"We have witnessed the magnanimity of the French people, and their self command in the hour of triumph, and speedy return to order and law after great tumult and confusion. We see in these omens great good to French and to mankind, and the assurances that what has been so nobly begun will be consumated in the establishment of a just and liberal government, and the enjoyment of peace, liberty, and prosperity among the citizens of great country.

"Accept this testimonial of the sentiments which fill our hearts, and at present be assured that the news of the revolution you have achieved will be hailed by our countrymen on the other side of the Atlantic with emotions of hope and joy for the world."

M. ARAGO replied. "It is my conviction that France and America will be in the most intimate relations of friendship and union. We receive the colors with gratitude. They shall be placed in the Hotel de Ville. I trust that despotism shall never attempt to snatch them thence." [Loud applause.]

The double flag was then placed in the salle de reception, and the deputation withdrew amidst cries of "Vive la Republique!"

STRIKING COINCIDENCES.—In 1830, no sooner had the Day of Algiers arrived in France as a prisoner of Charles X. than the king was dethroned and exiled; and, in 1848, no sooner had the Emir, Abd-el-Kader, reached the shores of France as the prisoner of Louis Philippe than the king of the barricades was dethroned and exiled! The Day, at the fall of Charles, exclaimed. "God is just; he has avenged me!" Wyman, at the death of his chief and who would present the Marabout, Abd-el-Kader, from making the same assertion of providential retribution!

John L. Helm, the Whig candidate for Lt. Governor, is in the Green River country, vigorously prosecuting the canvass. His addresses, before the people, are well received, and highly commended.—Wat. Cit.

A SALUTE FOR FRANCE.—The Lafayette Guards, which are composed entirely of French citizens, and wear the colors of France, marched down to the Battery this morning—the band playing the Marseillaise. The standards they bore were surrounded with crimson drapery cape, and bore the combined flags of France and America. They formed in order at the southern point of the Battery, surrounded by a large crowd of French and German citizens, and at 18 o'clock fired a salute of one hundred guns in honor of the French Republic. The morning was bright, warm and cloudless, and the banners of the two Republics were flying together from all parts of the city.

[N. Y. Tribune.

"I wish you would give me that gold ring on your finger," said a village dandy to a country girl, who it resembles the duration of my love for you—it has no end." "Excuse me sir," said she, "I choose to keep it, for it is likewise emblematical of mine for you—it has no beginning."

The Song of Lights.

BY G. W. CUTTER.

Could I embody an' unbosom now
That which is most within me—could I wreak
My thoughts upon expression, and thus throw
Soul, heart, mind, passion, feeling, strong or weak,
All they I would have sought, and all I seek,
Into a single word, or a single line—
Then would I write my soul's LIGHTSONG, I would speak.
Brave.

Away, away through the sightless air—
Search forth your iron thread,
For I would mount, mount my sandals fair,
With the dust ye lamely tread;
Ay, rear it up on its million pier—
Let it reach the world around,
And the journey ye make in a hundred years,
I'll clear at a single bound.

Thy Pleasure not like the groaning slave
Ye have fettered with iron skill,
To carry you over the boundless wave,
Or plod in the noisy mill;
Let him sing his giant strength and speed:
Why, a single shaft of mind
Would give the monster a flight, indeed,
To the depths of the ocean's brine.

Nor, no! I'm the spirit of light and love,
To my unseen hair 'tis given
To spread the ambient clouds above,
And pencil the stars of heaven.
I scatter the golden rays of fire
On the horizon far below,—
And deck the sky where storms expire,
With my red and dazzling glow.

The deepest recesses of earth are mine—
I traverse its silent cave;
Around me the starry diamonds shine,
And the sparkling fields of ore:
And oft I leap from my throne on high,
To the depths of the ocean's caves,
Where the taileless forest of coral lie,
Far under the world of waves.

My being is like a lovely thought
That dwells in a sinless breast;
A tone of music that ne'er was caught—
A word that was ne'er expressed.
I dwell in the bright and burnished halls,
Where the fountains of sunlight play—
Where the curtain of gold and opal falls
On the scenes of the dying day.

With a glance I cleave the sky in twain,
Fling it with a glare,
When fall the boiling drops of rain,
Though the darkly remained air;
The rock-built towers, the turrets grey,
The piles of a thousand years,
Have not the strength of potter's clay,
Before my glittering spears.

From the Alps' or the Andes' highest crag,
From the cakes of eternal snow,
The dazzling folds of my fiery flag,
Gleam o'er the world below;
The earthquake heralds my coming power,
The avalanche bounds away,
And the howling storms, at midnight hour,
Proclaim my kingly sway.

Ye tremble when my legions come—
When my quivering sword leaps out
O'er the hills that echo my thunder-drum,
Dread, with my flying shout;
Ye quake in the land or upon the seas,
Ye stand in your fear aghast,
To see me burst the stalwart trees,
Or shiver the stately mast.

The hieroglyphs on the Persian wall,
The letters of high command,
Where the prophet read the tyrant's fall,
Were traced with my burning hand;
And oft in fire have I wrote since then,
What angry heaven decreed—
But the mental eyes of sinful men
Were all too blind to read.

At last the hour of light is here,
And kings no more shall blind,
Nor the tyrant's rich craven fear,
The forward march of mind;
The words of truth, and freedom's rays,
Are from my pinion unfurled,
And soon the sun of better days
Shall rise upon the World.

But away, away, through the sightless air—
Give forth your iron thread—
For I would mount, mount my sandals fair,
With the dust ye lamely tread;
Ay, rear it up, its million pier—
Let it circle the world around,
And the journey ye make in a hundred years,
I'll clear at a single bound.

The Language of the Heart.

TRANSLATED FROM THE ORIGINAL.

Once the lovely genius of sensitive men came before Jupiter and besought, "O godlike father, give thy poor people a better speech;" now they have only words, they would say how they mourn, how they rejoice, and how they love. Have I not given them tears, said Jupiter the tears of joy the tears of grief and the sweeter tears of love! The genius answered "give them a better speech when they wish to say how they feel infinite longings—as the morning star of childhood glistens behind them, and the rosy morn of youth glows behind them, and how before them in age the evening clouds of a future life, glow, and sweep high over the obscure Sun." "Give them a new speech for the heart my father." Now Jupiter in the music of the Spheres heard the blue of song approach and becoming him said, "Go down to men and teach them thy language." Then came the Muse of song down to us and taught tones; and since the human heart can speak.

G. H. W.

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS.—In Tuesday's Evening Journal is an elegant and touching commentary on the last words of this great man:—"This is the last of Earth—I am content." The writer appears to consider the expression of contentment as applicable mainly to his former life, and his having filled up the measure of his days. Is not the expression susceptible of a much more elevated and sublime signification? The following impromptu written yesterday, will, perhaps, explain my understanding of the full meaning of the memorable words.—Alb. Eve. Jour.

"This is the last of earth,"—
Now bursts the spirit forth,
This life is spent;
There is a world above,
Where dwells Eternal Love—
"I am content."

God takes the life he gave,
He has the power to save,
On Him I've lent;
In one great sacrifice,
Is hope that never dies—
"I am content."

To the Public.

THE very extensive use of "Holladays Blue Lick Water," makes it necessary, in just cautioning as well as those who use this valuable water, to make it known, that notwithstanding the fact, that we have for several years, taken the precaution to brand all the barrels, "Holladay's Blue Lick Water," that we have not succeeded in preventing those who are not thoroughly acquainted with the water, from being imposed upon by the sale of other waters, as being ours. We are credibly informed, that the Proprietors of the Lick Springs, have in the Lick early last purchased barrels that have contained "Holladay's Blue Lick Water," and filled them with water from the Big Bone Springs, and sold as "Holladays Blue Lick Water." As we are possible to guard against such impositions, we advise the public that A. M. Janney, Esq. of Maysville, Ky. is our only agent, for all the blue Lick Water, shipped to points on the Ohio, whether in Kentucky, whether on the Ohio, the Mississippi, or any other tributaries. Druggists and others who procure Water from our agent, should advertise the fact, as none other, than that obtained of him, in the region of country designated is genuine. T & L. P. HOLLADAY.

DR. SMITH'S GREAT NATIONAL PILLS.

Dr. G. Benj. Smith's

Improved Indian Vegetable (Sugar Coated) Pills

ARE the medicine of the United States, and their superiority over all others for entire efficacy and pleasantness has won for them a pre-eminence of fame which needs no foreign influence to perpetuate. Almost unassisted they have silently worked their way, and have gained a permanent hold on the approbation of the people which no other medicine or opposition can shake. For about fifteen years they have baffled over disease; and brought joy and gladness to many an anxious bosom. Their purity, as a medical compound, commends them to the most delicate, and even the more hardy, who have suffered from the effects of impure properties in the stomach, will at once be pleased with the delightful operation of these Pills. They have the rare merit of the most carefully selected ingredients, are always safe, and there can be no danger of taking them improperly at any time. A single trial will manifest their excellence in relieving the body of many precursors of alarming diseases, keeping the bowels gently open, thereby ensuring the continuance of health. The most eminent chemist in New York has given his certificate that these Pills are purely vegetable, or Nature's own remedy.

The great principle recognised by the inventor of this invaluable medicine is, that every part of the body, whether in health or disease, is brought under the influence of the digestive organs. The plain and rational doctrine forms the only ground on which a good family medicine can be recommended. Operating according to this principle, Dr. S's Pills strengthen the digestive powers, promote the secretions of the liver, skin and kidneys, and regulate the bowels, thereby adopting the only natural and consistent method of rendering the life blood pure, by correcting the vitiated humours of the whole system. It is impossible to give every particular in this brief notice, but these Pills are earnestly recommended as a means of preventing so much misery and disease, which grow out of constipation of the bowels, neglected colds, slight attacks, &c., and which it is in the power of all to prevent. These pills do not palliate but they cure most all the diseases of the Western Country, and in all bilious disorders, they stand alone, unparalleled—the sick man's friend. Among the complaints for which these pills are highly recommended, are the follow ing, viz:

Fevers, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Costiveness, Headache, Bad Appetite, Diarrhea, Dysentary, Liver Complaint; Heartburn; Bilious Cholic, Foul Stomach, Jaundice, Pain in the Breast, Scrofula, Bad Blood, Obstructions, Female Complaints, Rheumatism, Whooping Coughs, Weak Nerves, Hysterics, Coughs Colds, Influenza, Pimples, Low Spirits, Fluxes, &c.

By following the simple directions which accompany every box of genuine pills, a permanent cure will be effected. Most of the hospitals in New York have given these pills the preference over more than 20 kinds that have been tested, and several eminent physicians in New York and elsewhere use them in their practice.

Beware of Imposition!

The demand for Dr. Smith's Pills being every where great, several unprincipled persons have made Pills of the most miserable and dangerous stuff, and palm them off for genuine, have put on a "coating of sugar." Therefore, beware, and always look for the written signature of G. Benj. Smith, on the bottom of every box, to counteract which is forgery!

More than 1000 certificates have been received at the principal office, and the people are referred to Smith's Herald & Gazette, where they can read of the most important cures. We give, for want of room, but a few

Testimonials.

Dr. Smith's Pills are purely vegetable, operate well, and produce a good result. L. LEE,
Editor of the True Wesleyan.

My wife has taken Moffat's, Morrison's, and many others, but she has received more benefit from Dr. Smith's Pills than all others. She believes they may be used by females with perfect safety, without changing their employment or diet, and at any season. JOHN KELLETT, 127 Myrtle Avenue. Brooklyn.

Dr. G. Benj. Smith's Pills have entirely cured me of dizziness in my head, and general weakness of my system. My family use them with the best results. I would not be without them.

F. H. NASH, 99 Forsyth-st.

Dr. Smith's Pills are free from the objections to which other Pills are liable, and are the best medicine that I have yet seen. J. GREENE.

Voice of the Press.

At the request of Dr. G. Benjamin Smith's agent we cheerfully state that we visited the office of Dr. Smith in September last, while in New York, and found him carrying on a very extensive business with the Indian Vegetable Pills. The extent of his establishment would astonish any one not initiated in the Mysteries of the Pill trade.—Louisville Journal.

Dr. G. Benj. Smith's Sugar Coated Pills are all the rage in Boston now. Children cry for them.

Boston Post.

Very much so in Rochester. The dear little "responsibilities" won't believe they are medicine, no low.—Rochester Daily Advertiser.

They sell well at Carbondale—and so they ought to. Purchase three boxes of Sweet & Ensign, or of Dr. A. P. Gardner, who are duly authorized agents for the sale of Dr. G. Benj. Smith's Sugar Coated Pills. Give them a trial and they must stand as high in your estimation as they now do in ours.—Carbondale (Pa.) Reporter.

Voice from Kentucky.

I have been afflicted with dyspepsia in the most aggravated form for three years past, and I found no relief until I used Dr. G. Benj. Smith's Improved Indian Vegetable Pills. After using sixes boxes of said valuable pills. I am entirely cured. They are a general remedy. J. K. LEEMAN.

Benefit of Insurance.

THIRTY-TWO Thousand Dollars saved by insurance on the fires that occurred in this city, all within 90 days. The above fact should induce every person who has property to loose to come forward and Insure their property, as a very small amount paid annually may save many families from ruin. This Agency has paid out $10307.54, other agencies have paid Twenty-two Thousand Dollars, all of which has been promptly adjusted and paid according to the terms of the policy on losses in this city during the present summer. Farmers can have their dwelling houses insured at the rate of $5 per thousand on brick houses and $7 50 per thousand on Frame houses. The City property insures at about ¾ to 1 per cent, according to location. So that all can be protected.

AGUE AND FEVER.

FLETCHER'S

CELEBRATED IMPERIAL

AGUE AND FEVER OR TONIC PILLS

THE proprietors of this invaluable remedy for Ague and Fever or Intermittent Fever, deem it unnecessary to enter into a long dissertation, relative to the disease for the radical cure of which, the remedy now offered stands unrivalled. The universal prevalence of the Ague and Fever, and Intermittent Fever, throughout most of the states of the Union, and the thousands who annually suffer from it, unhappily render it so well known, that to dilate on its symptoms or pathology, seems wholly unnecessary. It may, however, with propriety be observed, that the neglect to cure what is too often called "only the Ague and Fever" often leads to diseases more fatal in their nature—among which may be classed, diseases of the Liver and enlargement of the Spleen, commonly called Ague Cake, which in too many cases proves fatal.

Thousands of certificates might be published in reference to the efficacy of the Pills now offered to the public, which the proprietors deem unnecessary to publish. Suffice it to say, they have never been known to fail in a single instance. ONE BOX, when taken according to directions, is warranted to cure any case of Ague and Fever, or Intermittent Fever. The ingredients being PURELY VEGETABLE, and entirely free from any deleterious substance, they are confidently recommended as the safest, as well as the most efficacious article ever offered to the Public! The form in which these Pills are put up, (small tin boxes,) renders them more convenient than any other, as a man can carry them in his vest pocket without the slightest inconvenience.

"NE PLUS ULTRA" VEGETABLE COMPOUND

CATHARTIC AND DEOBSTRUENT PILLS.

These Pills, now for the first time offered to the Public, have been used in private practice upwards of Forty Years, by a celebrated Physician, formerly a member of the Royal College of Surgeons of London and Edinburg, and Licentiate of Dublin University.

The proprietors deem it unnecessary to enter into any lengthened discussion as to the merits of these Pills—neither will they say, that they "will cure all the ills that human flesh is heir to"—but they lay claim to one great fact, and that is this; they are the very best pills ever invented, not merely as a simple CATHARTIC, as their properties are various. They are a Compound Cathartic, and Deobstruent Pill. They cleanse the Stomach and Bowels without pain or griping; they act specifically upon the Liver and Kidneys, and as a Diuretic, they cause an increased discharge of Urine—restoring a healthful and proper action to the URINARY ORGANS. For monthly complaints, to which Females are liable, these pills will be found most efficacious in removing obstructions and restoring them to perfect health. It is perhaps needless to add, that if the STOMACH and BOWELS are kept in a proper state, no fears should be entertained in reference to the welfare of the body.

We need only say to those who have tried all other Pills, of whatever name, to give the "Ne Plus Ultra's," one trial, and we feel perfectly confident, that they will satisfy all that they are THE PILLS! unequalled as well as unapproachable!!
