CLOVER, HEMP and TIMOTHY SEEDS on hand and for sale by

CUTTER & GRY.

To the Public.

THE very extensive use of "Holladays Blue Lick Water," makes it necessary, in justice to ourselves, as well as those who use this valuable water, to make it known, that notwithstanding the fact, that we have for several years, taken the precaution to brand all the barrels, "Holladay's Blue Lick Water," it has not succeeded in preventing those who are not thoroughly acquainted with the water, from being imposed upon by the sale of other waters, as being ours. We are credibly informed, that the Proprietors of the Drennon Springs, on the Kentucky River, put these barrels that have contained "Holladays Fine Lick Water," and fill them with water from the Drennon Springs, and it is sold as "Holladay's Blue Lick Water." As far as possible to guard against such impositions, we advise the public that A. M. January, Esq. of Maysville, Ky. is our only agent, for all the Blue Lick Water, shipped to points below or above Maysville, whether on the Ohio, the Mississippi, or any of their tributaries. Druggists and others who procure Water from our agent, should advertise the fact, as none other, than that obtained of him, in the region of country designated is genuine. T & L. P. HOLLADAY.

[Maysville Eagle, Paris Citizen, and Mt. Sterling Whig, publish, weekly, from April 1st till day of sale, mark price, and charge this office.]

500 Acres of Land for Sale.

THE subscriber will dispose of, at private sale, his Farm containing about 500 acres of land, situated in Fleming county, near Licking river, 3½ miles below Isle a Mill, 8 miles from Hillsborough, and on the road leading from that place to West Liberty. There is about 100 acres of it cleared, and in cultivation, the rest being heavily timbered. A large portion of the tract is well adapted to the growth of corn, wheat, oats, &c. It is admirably arranged for raising all kinds of stock, especially Cattle and Hogs; as the owner will have the advantage of a large range, which is unenclosed near the premises.

There is a good dwelling house, kitchen, &c. good meadows, and apple orchard, and the advantage of never-failing springs upon the farm.

I will take for the tract $7,000. For further information, apply to the undersigned, who will at all times be found upon the farm

THIS Company which confines its business exclusively to LIFE INSURANCE, has now been in operation two years and a half, during which period it has issued 1523 policies; and for the first six months experienced no loss. Its losses for the whole time have been less than $18,000, leaving an accumulation of about $65,000 on hand, beyond the payment of claims and expenses This added to the original guaranty capital of $50,000, places the security of the Company on a basis so solid as no longer to admit of a rational doubt.

All its profits accrue to the credit of the dealers, and are divided annually among them, whether the policy be issued for a limited period or for the whole term of life, a feature unknown in the character of any other Mutual Life Insurance Company incorporated in this State.

Two dividends of 50 per cent. each, on the amount of premium received, in accordance with the provisions of the charter, have been declared, and are credited to the assured, and for which scrip certificates will be issued.

A dividend of 6 per cent. on the first year's scrip, has likewise been declared, payable in CASH, to the holders thereof, on demand, at the office of the Company.

For policies granted for the whole term of life, when the premium does not amount to $50—a note or 40 per cent. with interest at 6 per cent.—without guaranty, may be received in payment, or it may be paid in cash, in which case it is expected, should the party survive to make 13 annual payments, leaving the dividends to accumulate, the policy will be fully paid for, and the accumulation ultimately added to the policy.

For further information, the public are referred to the pamphlets and forms of proposal, which may be obtained at the office of the company or any of its Agencies.

Purify the Blood, and prepare the system for the unhealthy season which is rapidly approaching.

Dr. Townsend's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, is universally acknowledged by those who have given it a fair trial (the only true test) to be the Greatest Blessing and Wonder of the Age.

THIS Extract is put up in QUART BOTTLES—six times cheaper, pleasanter, and warranted superior to any sold. It cures without vomiting, purging, sickening or debilitating the patient.

The great beauty and superiority of this Sarsaparilla over all other remedies is, while it eradicates disease, it invigorates the body. It is used successfully in the removal and permanent cure of all diseases arising from an impure state of the Blood, or habit of the system. It differs so essentially, and is so vastly superior to all other patent remedies that it is not permitted to go into the hands of those whose shelves constantly groan under the weight of worthless nostrums, whose chief efficacy is concealed within a mysterious and unmeaning name

TRI-WEEKLY HERALD.

J. SPRIGG CHAMBERS, EDITOR.

Maysville, May 5, 1848.

FOR GOVERNOR.

Hon. JOHN J. CRITTENDEN.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR.

Hon. JOHN L. HELM.

☞ We publish to day, all the names appended to the call for a Taylor meeting on Monday, that we have yet received.—We know of quite a large number of names, not reported, which we will publish in Monday's paper, if received in time. The published list amounts to 224.

General Taylor's Letter.

We lay before our readers to day (accompanied by the comments of the Picayune and Louisville Journal) a letter from Gen. Taylor, which the ascription of opinions he never expressed, and remarks he never made, has coreced from him, in order to place himself rectus in Curia in the matter of his political opinions and action as connected with the Presidency. The letter will attract universal attention, we had almost said universal admiration. The modesty, candor and good sense, which characterise the productions of its distinguish author are apparent in every line, and have won already the unqualified approbation of gentlemen, hitherto, not prone to do exact justice to the gallant old hero, and true hearted patriot. Should he be called to the duties of the distinguished station, to which so many of his fellow citizens in every part of the Union seem anxious to elevate him, his political friends can look to this letter, as the chart by which he will navigate the political sea, untrammelled by conflicting pledges, unannoyed by the requirements of a political history, connected with the policy of Government during the long years of political excitement, which commencing with the days of Gen. Jackson's power, have not ceased to embroil the two great parties into which the nation is divided.—We forbear further comments, with the expression of a hope, that every voter will read the letter.

THE DINNER AT THE LEE HOUSE.—Mrs. Goddard, the deservedly celebrated hostess of the "Lee House," complimented the gentlemen of the legal profession, (and a host besides,) with a sumptuous and elegantly prepared dinner, on Wednesday last. Every variety of meats, fish, flesh, and fowl, cooked with admirable skill, vegetables contributed by the Cincinnati market, wherein our own was deficient, delicious pastry garnished with an endless variety of sweetmeats, and jellies and ice creams, and fruits and nuts, made up the feast; and we speak but the universal sentiment of those present, when we say that it was a splendid dinner, and worthy of the hospitable hostess who presided over it. "Frank," (who doesn't know Frank Cockrell, the best of good fellows?") was more than himself. He seemed to be every where at once, anxious that his guests should enjoy to satiety the rich repast before them. The Editorial corps were out in full force. Pike was sick. His stomach revolted at the presentation of Lazarus W. Powell, and hasn't got right yet; so he left after honoring the invitation, sickness compelling him to slight the dinner. Richard, too, was there, and no doubt did his best, but seems disposed to burthen us, with the honor of having sustained "the profession," which we are sure we did, right willingly; and now conclude the pleasant task, by thanking our worthy hostess for her generous hospitality to the Corps Editorial, and wishing her a long continuance of the liberal patronage afforded by a discriminating public.

☞ Democratic Editors at the North, are objecting seriously to the Albama and Virginia resolution, in reference to the subject of Slavery, as connected with the new territory about to be acquired from Mexico.

The New York Evening Post, the Augusta (Me.) Age, and the New York Globe, have denounced this "indispensible qualification for the Presidency," at the South in no measured terms. Prentice in reference to this subject directs those Democrats who are giggling at the prospect of discord in the Whig ranks, to turn their attention towards home where they can be amused in this way to their hearts content.

☞ Major Borland has addressed a letter to the Editors of the Louisville Journal, in which he says Cassius M. Clay did, to save his life, piteously invoke the name of Henry Clay at the surrender of Encarnacion. He says further that he did not see it himself, but has the authority of Captain Danly and Lieut. Davidson for the statement, in whom he has perfect confidence.

IOWA POTATOES.—We are in receipt of a bag of fine Iowa Meshanic Potatoes. They are unsurpassed in flavor, dry, and perfectly sound. John B. McIlvain has a few bags of them for sale, and we would advise our friends who want a first rate article, either or the table or for seed, to call soon.

☞ We learn that the anniversary celebration, of the Order of "Sons of Temperance," which took place in Minerva, yesterday, was quite a handsome affair. The Sons were addressed by the Rev. Mr. Gardner in the forenoon, and Jno. Clarke, Esq., in the afternoon. Both those gentlemen we understand, acquitted themselves very creditably, and the day passed off happily for all concerned.

The citizens, with characteristic Kentucky hospitality, threw open their doors to the large assemblage, and if any went away hungry it was not the fault of the generous villagers.

☞ See advertisement of CAMPBELL, METCALFE & Co., and ARTUS, METCALFE & Co. Their new arrangements present advantages which the public will readily appreciate, particularly when offered by gentlemen so well entitled to the confidence of dealers, as are our old friends, associated in these firms. A Kentuckian visiting Cincinnati to buy goods in their line, will travel past home, when he goes by their house without calling. Their arrangements for forwarding goods sent through this place, give them a decided advantage over Cincinnati houses generally, and are well worthy of consideration.

☞ Major Borland, of Arkansas, recently appointed a Senator in Congress, by the Governor of that State, has announced his determination, to be a candidate for the office he now holds, (by Executive appointment,) before the Legislature of his State. In his address he promises to give his attention to the establishment of a system of internal improvement by the general Government.

The St. Louis Era, of the 29th announces the failure in that city of a house extensively engaged in the Produce and Grocery business.

☞ We have received the first number of a campaign paper, "The Documents," edited and published by R. Lindsey. It is neatly gotten up, and Mr. Lindsey is a spirited writer, and a thorough Whig. We shall be glad to see our Whig friends of the 9th district, give it a wide circulation.

☞ On Wednesday last, a Mr. Mooney was beating up for volunteers in Louisville, to fight for the liberty of Ireland.

☞ The workmen engaged in setting posts for the Telegraph line to this place, passed through Paris on Wednesday last. So says the Paris Citizen.

☞ The Louisville Democracy have had a meeting in which they gave in their adhesion to L. W. Powell. The Democrat, published there, informs the Yeoman, "once for all," that Powell will not give way to Col. Johnson.

Messrs. John A. Keith and J. W. Franklin, were called upon through the Eagle of yesterday, to become candidates for the Kentucky Legislature.

☞ The thunder-storm of Monday evening last, was as violent at Madison, Ia., as here. Five men were struck by lightning, one of whom was killed, one seriously injured, and three slightly. The individual killed had his skull fractured, his thigh broken, and the heel of one boot torn to pieces, yet his skin was nowhere broken—so says the Republican of that City.

DEATH OF GEN. ASHLEY.—It is with profound regret that we have to state the death of Chester Ashley, esq., one of the U. S. Senators from the State of Arkansas. He was walking about in perfect apparent health on Monday, was attacked on Tuesday, and is now no more. This rapid and melancholy event has filled both houses of Congress and this whole community with the deepest commiseration. Yesterday the Senate remained a short time in session, and adjourned out of respect to their dying colleague. In an hour afterwards he breathed his last. Very soon after the melancholy tidings reached the House, they too adjourned.

General Ashley was an influential and respected member of the dignified body to which he has belonged for several years.—He was Chairman of the Judiciary Committee; and his voice, though not often heard in the chamber, was always heard with respect. He was beloved in his domestic circle, and amiable in his private relations. We cannot adequately express the sympathy which the wole community feel for his amiable wife and daughter, who administered the last offices of love to the expiring senator. We leave it to his other friends to sketch his political life, and do full justice to his portrait.

It is a remarkable circumstance, that one of the senators from Arkansas has, within a month, resigned his seat, and the other is now removed by death. Her two senators will now owe their places to the appointment of her governor.—Wash. Union of 30th.

BANK OF KENTUCKY, LOUISVILLE, MAY 2, 1848.—At an annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Bank of Kentucky, on yesterday, the following named gentlemen were elected their Directors for the ensuing year, to-wit: David L. Beatty, Thomas Smith, D. S. Benedict, Curran Pope, James Trabue, Isaac Everett, and Phil. R. Gray.

At a meeting of the Bank Directors, this morning, Virgil McKnight was unanimously re-elected President.

GEO. C. GWATHMEY,
March 3 Cashier.

To the Friends of Gen. Taylor in Mason County.

The time has come for that portion of the Whig party of Kentucky which believes that General ZACHARY TAYLOR should be the nominee of the National Whig Convention, to express that opinion publicly to the Whigs of the United States. No false delicacy should longer withhold it. The public avowal of Mr. CLAY leaves no room henceforward to doubt his position. His friends at Washington, who wrote to prominent Whigs at Rochester, in the spring previous by the late Whig State Convention at that place, in favor of General TAYLOR, were mistaken in believing and expressing the opinion, that Mr. CLAY would withdraw his name from the canvass, voluntarily and at his own proper time. That argument can no longer be urged as a reason why the Whig friends of General TAYLOR should not declare their convictions that he is the man above all others who should be supported as the Whig candidate for the Presidency in the approaching canvass.

We believe that the interest of the country imperiously demand that the Whig party should triumph at the next election. We believe that repeated trials should teach every candid Whig that success with Mr. CLAY as a candidate is next to impossible. We believe that with the glorious old hero of Buena Vista as our standard bearer success is certain. He was never defeated though, the hero of many battles.

We value the harmony of the great Whig party, and will do nothing wilfully to disturb it. But one article of the Whig faith, as we understand it, is the right of every member of that party to express his honest convictions boldly as to principles and policy without fear of man, and that he who denounces such a course, is himself the worst enemy of the party. In view, then, of the crisis of the party and the country, we believe that a bold, open, temperate and firm avowal of our real opinions, is the only safe and wise course; and for that purpose do now call upon all those friends of General TAYLOR in Mason County, who desire his nomination by the National Convention, to assemble in Convention, at 2 o'clock P. M. on the Second Monday of May, 1848, being the first day of the Circuit Court, at the Court-House in the City of Maysville.

BANKS IN THE UNITED STATES.—The aggregate number of Banks in the United States is 752, capital $208,216,000 circulation $116,738,000, supposed specie in their vaults $44,733,000.

To the People of Maryland and of the United States.

The occasion which calls together this Convention, to recognize General TAYLOR as the People's Candidate for the Presidency, requires a brief exposition of its views and purposes.

There is nothing remarkable in our preference for a man who possesses in a peculiar manner the hearts of the American people—whose love and admiration has won, not more by his glorious achievements in war than by the wisdom, modesty, and moderation of his character as a man; by his inflexible integrity; the purity of his patriotism, and his invariable obedience to the laws. A large majority of our fellow citizens would probably agree that a fit person for President, or one more suited to the times, could not be selected within the limits of the Union.

The only remarkable thing that characterizes this movement of ours consists, we may presume, in this, viz: that we have met together, in our representative capacity, as citizens, in the exercise of the rights of citizens, without regard to party distinctions; and being of the opinion that General TAYLOR is the only man who can unite the moderate men of all parties, and thus prepare the country for the severe ordeal through which our institutions may have to pass in the course of approaching events, we have chosen, without waiting for the permission of party conventions to act upon that conviction; and to invite our countrymen who may, upon reflection, adopt the same views, to act in conjunction with us.

We believe that the time has come when the existing party organizations, know as Whig and Democratic, no longer represent actual issues so important as to require the antagonism of parties. The reasons for this belief are two fold. First, because some of the old questions at issue have become extinct, either by changes of circumstances, or by reason of repeated decisions at the hands of the People; and secondly, because the presence of new issues more controlling than any old ones, demands, at this time, the serious consideration of all parties, and demands it imperatively. It becomes us to speak plainly on this point. We wish to confront realities as they stand, and to look to them full in the face. We who now declare our views and purposes come from the ranks of one or the other of the two old parties. In acting as we now do, independently of both, we have not determined rashly; and it is due to ourselves and to the respect we owe our fellow-citizens to set forth the grounds of our proceeding.

A party may be the exponent of principles, which it strives to have embodied in measures of Government, for it may represent nothing but itself, and strive only for its own perpetuation. Its organization, in the one case, is an agency for the accomplishment of ends which it regards as useful to the country; whilst in the other case, it is an organization which does not look beyond itself and the individual interests which peculiary pertain to it. The difference here is as great as that between a truth and a fiction.

If any one having authority to do so would undertake to designate a single question, among the old party issues, which constitutes and is so emphatically a vital point of difference for the next four years, it might save us the trouble of an analysis showing that there is none. But the analysis may be brief.

The question of a National Bank formed a prominent issue at the extra session in 1841. Does it form an issue now? The distribution of the proceeds of the Public Land sales also involved a question of some prominence then. Does it involve a question of any prominence now?

In 1844 the Presidential canvass embraced very full discussions concerning a Tariff for protection and a Tariff for revenue.—Has any one heard of any special controversy on that subject within the last twelve months? Is it at present a matter of political agitation in Congress or out of Congress?

The annexation of Texas was another topic which entered very largely into the canvass of 1844; and in the opinion of some who have learned to appreciate the force of new issues after an election, and in the estimation of others who appreciated the same thing in advance, that question had a great deal to do with the decision of the contest which resulted in the election of Mr. Polk to the Presidency.

The question of Texan annexation has ceased to exist. If there are any other questions to arise out of that or any other annexations since achieved, we are safe, we think, in saying that they are not likely to be questions which the old organizations, as now constituted, can truly represent, or which either of them can encounter with any reasonable hope of success.

If we omit a further enumeration of old party issues, it is because there are none others to be named as possessing any prominent distinctness.

Of those enumerated, is there one that now remains in force? The currency question involves no Bank of the United States, nor any system of pet banks; it is, in fact, so far settled, that until some commercial revulsion, shall present a new crisis, the currency question, with some modifications, will probably stand up on its present basis without entering within the limits of political disputes. If a commercial revulsion should renew the question of currency, as a political issue, the crisis so presented would be likely to bring its own circumstances with it—concerning which it is useless now to speculate, since we cannot know what they would be. The question of the Tariff, in like manner, has become subject to the control of circumstances; for while a national debt of 100,000,000 of dollars or more has to be provided for out of a revenue derived from duties on imports, it is quite certain that the rates sufficient, under such a contingency, for the purposes of revenue, will be alike satisfactory to the friends of protection.

But let us leave these references to past controversies—concerning which we must interrogate our memories if we would bear them in mind at all. Not one of them has attracted public interest since the roar of artillery resounded from the field of Palo Alto, in May, 1846. No one talks of them. They belong to a period that has gone by, and they and their epoch are equally beyond recall. If the political elements involved in matters of currency and commerce should create questions of policy hereafter, in relation to such matters, the times and events that give origin to the question will give force and application also to the principles and measures best adapted to the occasion. It is not for us to anticipate. Those who may have charge of the political fortunes of the Republic in time to come will be as competent we may presume, to take care of their own affairs as we are to provide for ours—more so, perhaps, if we persist in a clinging to the relics of things inanimate, in disregard of vital matters, pressing for consideration.

The war with Mexico and the acquisition of new territory, which have now become facts caanot be undone—whatever opinions may have been entertained as to the necessity of either—have entailed upon the whole country such a series of responsibilities, that the chief attention of the public, other things being subordinate, must now be directed to them.

The WILMOT PROVISO, the offspring of the new order of events, has given a name and a shape to a portentous question, for the adjustment of which we may call in vain upon Whig and Democrat, as the orthodox priests of our political salvation.—Neither can respond; for neither party was organized in view of such a question and the question itself rises into prominence, in spite of them. It will not be put down. Let the two parties undertake to test severally the strength of their respective organizations by attempting to evade this Proviso issue, or to suppress it. They can never evade nor suppress it. The Democratic party in the State of New York is already dismembered by it—dismembered beyond the prospect of a re-union. Nor can the process stop there. New York, great in her territorial extent and resources, is not less prominent in her political aspect. She has given the initiative more than once to party developments, starting new issues and controlling them, as the political history of the country for the last twenty years will bear witness.

We are impressed with these considerations so strongly as to believe that neither the Democratic party nor the Whig party can elect an exclusive party nominee to the next Presidency.

The issue involved in the Wilmot Proviso, more omnious than that of the Missouri question, warns all patriotic citizens who deprecate domestic disend, and who would avert the violence of ultra dogmas, threatening the social as well as the political harmony of the Union, to fly to the Constitution! There is the ground of safety, which cannot be found elsewhere.—The Whig party has its North and South; so has the Democratic party likewise.—The Constitution knows no North nor South, as distinctive parts of the one great Unity—our country; nor any differences among citizens, whether native or naturalized, or designated by one name or another.—In whatever locality resident, we can all invoke the genius of the Constitution, and feel secure in its guarantees of our rights and liberties. It only needs that the man shall be found who can be trusted, to stand firm and unshaken by the guarantees of the Constitution in the hour of trial; one upright, wise and brave, who cannot be blindfold or intimidated into a surrender or a betrayal of his trust.

And here, fellow citizens, we must regard it as extremely fortunate that such a man is found in the person of ZACHARY TYLOR, who holds, and is able to hold, a position above parties, with the enjoyment of the confidence of his countrymen universally—a man who has devoted his whole life to the public service, steadily, unobtrusively, showing neither arrogance nor ambition, and finally revealing his own worth in the glorious illustration of his country's fame! Without asking pledges of him as to questions that are past, we are satisfied to find in his character and history a guarantee for confidence in respect to the exigencies which now await us and are already at hand. It is all the better that his name is not mixed up with any of the existnt controvesies of a late years—extinct in all save the trasmitted bitterness engendered by them. If it be intimated that we are giving prominence to a man above principles, we answer, Not so.—Rather we avail ourselves of an opportunity, to rare too be lost, when minor contentions having subsided and before greater ones have become inveterate, we can rise above the range of partizan quarrels and go for great principles—even the principles of the Constitution. It is in this that Gen. Taylor's position is remarkable; not in the declaration which any aspirant may make, that he will take the Constitution for his guide, but in the fact that with him the declaration announces reality. "If ever I fill that high office," says Gen. TAYLOR, in allusion to the Presidency, "it must be untramelled with party obligations or interests of any kind, and under none but those which the Constitution and the high interest of the nation at large most seriously and solemnly demand." If there be nothing in this position, there is not too severely in the appearance of a man who can assume it with dignity and a serene composure. "I have no aspirations for civil office," says Gen. TAYLOR, in another letter, "and am only a candidate so far as the good people of the country have made me so; and those who are not willing to vote for me without pledges for the Presidency, let them cast their votes at the proper time for those who will make them." No doubt there are men enough who will make them—men in high position, too, who will swallow whole catalogues; to satisfy those who are willing to trust to pledges made on the eve of an election to procure votes, yet who refuse to believe in the truth of a whole life of honor, integrity, patriotism, and unvarying consistency.

General TAYLOR, however, has one precedent to sustain him in his attitude of calm and modest independence. "Should it become inevitably necessary for me," says Washington, "to go into the chair of Government, I have determined to go free from all positive engagement of any nature whatsoever. This is the answer I have already given to a multiplication of applications; and I have assigned, as the true reason of conduct, the predominant desire I have of being at liberty to act with sole reference to public justice and the public good."

The analogy of language and sentiments in the passages we have quoted is not more striking than the analogy of character between the two remarkable persons whose respective positions in relation to the Presidency exhibit such exact identity. General TAYLOR's resemblance to WASHINGTON was recognized when the first depatches appeared from the Rio Grande, it was more strongly manifested by his demeanor on the field of battle; and still further illustrated by the style and tone of correspondence with the Government, in which he gave such clear and comprehensive views of the whole system of operations, proper to a campaign involving great risks and extensive combinations.

There is one other point of similarity.—When the first President came to the head of the Government the integrity of the Union, under a Constitution untried and opposed in many quarters so strongly that its adoption had been doubted to the last moment—the integrity of the Union, we say, was feebly guaranteed unless a strong and steady hand could control the administration sustained by a character so pure and so commanding as to draw the publiccontrolling and hold it, throughout the conflicts of opinions and the excitement of stirring events. The first French Revolution was then in full blast, giving rise to new and extraordinary phenomena from day to day; our own internal condition was one of feverish agitation. No mere exponent of parties, as they existed at that time, representing either State Sovereignty on the one hand or the extreme of consolidation on the other, could have assured the continuance of the Union, or have preserved the Republic safe from the perdous influences of foreign disturbances.

Let us see how WASHINGTON regarded his own position. "No earthly condemnation," he says to Benjamin Harrison, "short of so general a call together with a desire to reconcile contending parties, so far as in me lies, would again bring me into public life."

How far the present aspect of things at home and abroad indicates an approaching test of the integrity of the Union—how far a commanding character; possessing the confidence of all parties and committed to the extreme opinions of none, isnow required to control the agitation likely to spring from events yet unforeseen—it is for the public to judge. If the crisis exists we believe there cannot be much doubt as to the man best fitted for it.

We are well aware that very many of both parties in Maryland, are strongly decided in their preference for Gen. TAYLOR as we are, do yet indulge the belief that they can support him as the nominee of their party Convention. They are looking forward to the meeting of their Convention with that hope and expectation. We have not a word to say in the way of remonstrance at their course. The liberty we claim for ourselves it would be strange for us to deny to others. But if it should so happen that our friends to whom we are referring should find themselves disappointed: if their Convention should nominate for the Presidency a man who is not their choice and they should find that they cannot support him, which, who is their choice, except upon independent grounds—they may then, perhaps, have reason to congratulate themselves and us that a platform is already established in Maryland upon which the People, irrespective of other considerations, may rally around the sterling old Hero and true Patriot, who, asking no favors and shrinking from no responsibilities, is as willing to serve his country when she calls him as he is unwilling to make pretentions of his own, or as a courtier of suffrages, to stoop to the devices, of popularity.

So well assured are we of the necessity which calls for General Taylor's presence at the head of the Government, that our support of him is not made subject to any contingencies that might transfer it to another. We are not here to select a candidate for the People and to tell them how they are to vote. The People have chosen their own candidate, and we have met to announce the fact, and to declare in their name, and in our own that we will support for the Presidency no other man! He has been revealed to us in the fire and thunder of battle, illuminated by the splendors of victory; with the halo of glory around his modest brow, this man of unconcious greatness stands disclosed at the very crisis of our need; and at the sight of him, as by a common instinct, the hearts of the People throb in unison, and they claim him as their own. In that clear head and honest heart they have an abiding confidence; and let dangers come in what shape they may, there is throughout the land a strong assurance that with Gen. TAYLOR at the head of the Government, the Republic will suffer no ill. MARYLAND is now called upon to do her part in the great work of vindicating the free choice of the People, that she may, with her sister States, participate in the triumph that shall give to the country once more a Patriot President, and to GEORGE WASHINGTON a successor!

GEN. TAYLOR.—The Soldier and the Sage, who never shrunk from a foe, and never lost a battle. Lofty, heroic and unselfish, he has won a proud place among the foremost Captains and purest patriots of the age—See the Conquering Hero comes.

From the Louisville Journal.

Letter from Gen. Taylor.

ALL DOUBTS AS TO HIS OPINIONS REMOVED.—When we saw the representations as to Gen. Taylor's political opinions made some weeks ago, and purporting to be founded upon conversations with him, we anticipated a letter from him contradicting those reports. We were perfectly certain that those representations were utterly untrue and altogether without foundation, but the circumstances accompanying their promulgation made it necessary that they should be avowed or disavowed by Gen. Taylor himself. Accordingly we find in the New Orleans Picayune, of the 25th ult., the following letter in regard to them from Gen. Taylor to Capt. Allison, his brother-in-law. This letter must be read with pleasure and entire satisfaction by all Whigs in every quarter, no matter what their preferences. It must silence forever all doubts and all cavil in regard to his political opinions.—The letter breathes the true Whig spirit and is worthy of the fame of its distinguished author.

We accompany the letter with the excellent prefatory remarks of the N. O. Picayune:

GEN. TAYLOR.—The numerous misrepresentations of Gen. Taylor's opinions upon questions of public policy, which have been put in circulation by persons who assume to speak from authority, have induced him to address a letter to his brother in-law, in which he takes occasion to speak more at large of political topics than he has hitherto done. This letter has been handed us ready for publication, and it defines, once for all, the General's position in regard to the Presidency, and the issues which lie at the base of party organization.

It will be seen that Gen. Taylor reiterates, what has so often before been declared, that he is a Whig, but not an ultra one. He rejects, in the sternest terms, the idea of a President of the United States being the mere instrument of party. He will not consent to take office as a propagandist. He is for taking the Constitution as a guide rather than the creeds of conventions or the dicta of political clubs. He is for leaving to Congress the things which belong to the legislative department, and confining the Executive to the matters entrusted to him by the Constitution. He refuses to change his attitude towards the Presidency is any particular—leaving it to those who obtained his consent to become a candidate for that office to do in the premises what shall seem to them best.

We regard the document as not only interesting to Gen. Taylor's friends, but important to the public at large, as embodying sound political truths. The most momentous topic embraced in it is the relative positions and duties of the legislative and executive departments. It must be conceded that the increasing deference paid by Congress to the will of the Executive has been regarded by many of our wisest statesmen with alarm, and the implied obligation of the President to carry out the views of a nominating convention has at times seriously interfered with his independence and impaired his ability to do good. It was never contemplated by the framers of the constitution that a President should be trammelled by pledges or bound down to a party manifesto, which is generally drawn up with reference to accidental states of public feeling or topics of transient excitement; much less did it enter the mind of our revolutionary patriots that Congress should in any wise be subservient to the Executive or controlled by the opinions of his Cabinet. In so far as the National Legislature is warped by the influence or the persuasion of power, does Congress fall from the dignified position assigned it by the constitution.

But we shall not detain the reader with comment upon a paper which will attract universal attention:

BATON ROUGE, April 22, 1848.

Dear Sir: My opinions have recently been so often misconceived and misrepresented, that I deem it due to myself, if not to my friends, to make a brief exposition of them upon the topics to which you have called my attention.

I have consented to the use of my name as a candidate for the Presidency. I have frankly avowed my own distrust of my fitness for that high station; but having, at the solicitation of many of my countrymen, taken my position as a candidate, I do not feel at liberty to surrender that position until my friends manifest a wish that I should retire from it. I will then most gladly do so. I have no private purposes to accomplish, no party projects to build up, no enemies to punish—nothing to serve but my country.

I have been very often addressed by letter, and my opinions have been asked upon almost every question that might occur to the writers as affecting the interests of their country or their party. I have not always responded to these inquiries, for various reasons.

I confess, whilst I have great cardinal principles which will regulate my political life, I am not sufficiently familiar with all the minute details of political legislation to give solemn pledges to exert my influence, if I were President, to carry out this or defeat that measure. I have no concealment. I hold no opinion which I would not readily proclaim to my assembled countrymen; but crude impressions upon matters of policy, which may be right to-day and wrong to-morrow, are, perhaps, not the best test of fitness for office. One who cannot be trusted without pledges cannot be confided in merely on account of them.

I will proceed, however, now to respond to your inquiries.

First.—I reiterate what I have often said—I am a Whig, but not an ultra Whig. If elected I would not be the mere President of a party. I would indeavor to act independent of party domination. I should feel bound to administer the Government untrammelled by party schemes.

Second.—The veto power. The power given by the constitution to the Executive to interpose his veto, is a high conservative power; but in my opinion should never be exercised except in cases of clear violation of the constitution, or manifest haste and want of consideration by Congress. Indeed, I have thought that, for many years past, the known opinions and wishes of the Executive have exercised undue and injurious influence upon the legislative department of the Government: and for this cause I have thought our system was in danger of undergoing a great change from its true theory. The personal opinions of the individual who may happen to occupy the Executive chair ought not to control the action of Congress upon questions of domestic policy; nor ought his objections to be interposed where questions of constitutional power have been settled by the various departments of government and acquiesced in by the people.

Third.—Upon the subject of the tariff, the currency, the improvement of our great highways, rivers, lakes, and harbors, the will of the people, as expressed through their Representatives in Congress, ought to be respected and carried out by the Executive.

Fourth.—The Mexican war. I sincerely rejoice at the prospect of peace. My life has been devoted to arms, yet I look upon war at all times and under all circumstances as a national calamity, to be avoided if compatible with national honor. The principles of our government as well as its true policy are opposed to the subjugation of other nations and the dismemberment of other countries by conquest. In the language of the great Washington, "why should we quit our own to stand on foreign ground." In the Mexican war our national honor has been vindicated, amply vindicated, and in dictating terms of peace we may well afford to be forbearing and even magnanimous to our fallen foe.

These are my opinions upon the subjects referred o by you; and any reports of publications, written or verbal, from any source, differing in any essential particular from what is here written, are unauthorized and untrue.

I do not know that I shall again write upon the subject of national politics. I shall engage in no schemes, no combinations, no intrigues. If the American people have not confidence in me they ought not to give me their suffrages. If they do not, you know me well enough to believe me when I declare I shall be content. I am too old a soldier to murmur against such high authority.

Z. TAYLOR.

To Capt. J. S. Allison.

GEN. SHIELDS arrived in this city on Saturday evening and was publicly received in behalf of the city, and by the Democratic State convention, in the State House, on Monday.

There is now being raised in New York city, a brigade of troops, to be composed of Irishmen; their object, the freedom of their native land. General Shields has been offered the command, and will accept it if his services shall be required.—Springfield (Ill.) Journal.

A COURAGEOUS FEAT.—In his testimony before the court of inquiry in Mexico, Gen. Scott stated that the greatest physical and moral feat, in point of courage, every performed by an individual within his knowledge, pending the campaign, was the passage by Captain Lee, engineer, over a certain difficult ground by daylight, and his return to San Agustine in the dark.—Louisville Jour.

Whig

At a meeting of the Whigs of Fleming county, held at the Court House on Monday, the 24th day of April, 1848, to make arrangements to bring out suitable candidates to represent the People of said county in the next General Assembly—ROBERT G. LEWIS, Esq. was called to the Chair, and WM. T. DUDLEY appointed Secretary.

The following Resolutions were presented by W. P. Boyd, which were unanimously adopted, to-wit:

Resolved, That the Whigs of Fleming county will hold a meeting at the Court House, on the 4th Monday in May next, for the purpose of selecting candidates to represent the county in the House of Representatives at the next General Assembly, and that the Whigs of the county be and they are hereby invited and requested to attend said meeting.

Resolved, That the several precincts of the county be requested to send delegates to said meeting to express their preference as to the most suitable persons to be put in nomination at the same.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the "Maysville Herald" and "Maysville Eagle."

DEATHS.

On the 2d instant near Mayslick, of congestion of the brain, Thomas Jefferson, Son of Harrison Richardson, aged seven years and eight days.

We sympathise sincerely with our friend in his affliction. Gay, sprightly, and affectionate—all the prayers of those in whose bosom he had nestled could have availed any thing, against the scythe of the destroyer, he would still have been with them, the cherished object of parental love. "Of such," we are told, "is the kingdom of heaven"—but alas poor human nature, how tenaciously do we grasp every cord which binds us to those we love, and how reluctantly let go even at the last hour, when sure, as in the present instance that the spirit of the departed, pure as when breathed into mortal clay, has gone whence it came,—has given up the enjoyments of earth for the eternal sunshine of heaven.—Tis thusin the wisdom of God, our thoughts are turned to a better world, where the tenure by which we hold, blessings that never cloy, pure as the source whence they spring, is the eternity of God.

A Rare chance for Bargains.

OWING to our heavy sales in March, we have found it necessary to make a

Second Spring Importation of Goods,

Which we will commence receiving early in May, and as we are desirous of reducing our present stock as low as possible to make room for NEW GOODS, we will offer GREATER inducements to buyers than can be had elsewhere.

Fresh Goods,

Such as Ginghams, Lawns, Bareges, Lustres, &c., will be sold LOWER than ever before offered in this market. We invite a call from the LADIES. Men's and Boy's Summer Wear, will be sold very cheap. In a word EVERY THING we have in the house will be reduced so as to defy competition, and by the 10th May we will be in receipt of 4 Stock of Goods equal to any in the Western Country.

TO COUNTRY MERCHANTS!

WE ARE READY!

LAREW & BRODRICK,

Having purchased in various Eastern Markets,

A GENERAL STOCK

OF Seasonable, Staple, and Fancy Dry Goods, feel authorized to announce to country merchants, that they are now in a situation to meet their wants, to their entire satisfaction.

In addition to their usual supply they have purchased at Head Quarters, in Massachusetts, to sell by the case, a well assorted and handsome stock of

BOOTS & SHOES,

To which they invite your attention, with the assurance that they are confident of being able to supply your wants on terms as favorable as you could expect or reasonably desire.

OUR RETAIL STOCK!

Has been selected with strict reference to the tastes and habits of our city and country customers—the diminished number of those engaged in the trade, having forced upon us the necessity of being able to meet the wants of Retailers, and we are willing to submit to buyers how far we have succeeded in storing our shelves with a cheap and beautiful stock.

LAREW & BRODRICK,

DR. SMITH'S GREAT NATIONAL PILLS.

Dr. G. Benj. Smith's

Improved Indian Vegetable [Sugar Coated] PILLS

ARE the medicine of the United States, and their superiority over all others for entire efficacy and pleasantness has won for them a pre-eminence of fame which needs no foreign influence to perpetuate. Almost unheralded they have silently worked their way, and have now gained a firm hold on the approbation of the people which no other medicine or opposition can relax For about four years they have triumphed over disease; and brought joy and glorious health to many a sick room. Their purity, as a medical compound, commends them to the most delicate, and even the more hardy, who have suffered from the effects of impure properties in the stomach, will at once be pleased with the delightful operation of these Pills. They have the rare merit of the most carefully selected ingredients, are always safe, and there can be no danger of taking them internally at any time. A single trial will manifest their excellence in relieving the body of many precursors of alarming diseases, keeping the bowels gently open, thereby ensuring the continuance of health. The most eminent chemist in New York has given his certificate that these Pills are purely vegetable, or Nature's own remedy.

The great principle recognised by the inventor of this invaluable medicine is, that every part of the body, whether in health or disease, is brought under the influence of the digestive organs. This plain and rational doctrine forms the only ground on which a good family medicine can be recommended. Operating according to this principle, Dr. S's Pills strengthen the stomach, promote the secretions of the liver, also the kidneys, and regulate the bowels, thereby adopting the only natural and consistent method of rendering the life blood pure, by correcting the vitiated humors of the whole system. It is impossible to give every particular in this brief notice, but these Pills are earnestly recommended as a means of preventing so much misery and disease, which grow out of constipation of the bowels, neglected colds, slight attacks, &c., and which it is in the power of all to prevent. These pills do not palliate but they cure most all the diseases of the Western Country, and in all bilious disorders, they stand alone, unparalleled—the sick man's friend. Among the complaints for which these pills are highly recommended, are the following, viz:

Fevers, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Costiveness, Headache, Bad Appetite, Diarrhœa, Dysentary, Liver Complaint; Heartburn Relaxe Colic, Foul Stomach, Jaundice, Pain in the Breast, Scrofula, Bad Blood, Obstructions, Female Complaints, Rheumatism, Whooping Coughs, Weak Nerves, Hysterics, Coughs Colds, Influenza, Pimples, Low Spirits, Blues, &c.

By following the simple directions which accompany every box of genuine pills, a permanent cure will be effected. Most of the hospitals in New York have given these pills the preference over more than 20 kinds that have been tested, and several eminent physicians in New York and elsewhere use them in their practice.

Beware of Imposition!

The demand for Dr. Smith's Pills being every where great, several unprincipled persons have made Pills of the most miserable and dangerous stuff, and palm them off for genuine, have put on a "coating of sugar." They are worthless, and always lose, for the written signature of G. Benj. Smith, on the bottom of every box, to counterfeit which is forgery!

More than 1000 certificates have been received at the principal office, and the people are referred to Smith's Herald & Gazette, where they can read of the most important cures. We give. for want of room, but a few

Testimonials.

Editor of the True Wesleyan.

My wife has taken Moffat's, Morrison's, and many others, but she has received, and purchased Dr. Smith's Pills than all others. She believes they may be used by females with perfect safety, without changing their employment or diet, and at any season.

JOHN KELLETT,

127 Myrtle Avenue. Brooklyn.

Dr. G. Benj. Smith's Pills have entirely cured me of dizziness in my head, and general weakness of my system. My family use them with the best results. I would not be without them.

F. H. NASH, 99 Forsyth-st.

Dr. Smith's Pills are free from the objections to which other Pills are liable, and are the best medicine that I have yet seen. J. GREENE.

Voice of the Press.

At the request of Dr. G. Benjamin Smith's agent we cheerfully state that we visited the office of Dr. Smith in September last, while in New York, and found him carrying on a very extensive business with the Indian Vegetable Pills. The extent of his establishment would astonish any one not initiated in the Mysteries of the Pill trade.—Louisville Journal.

Boston Post.

Very much so in Rochester. The dear little responsibilities' mother believe they are medicine, no how.—Rochester Daily Advertiser.

They sell well at Carbondale—and so they ought to. Purchase them of Sweet & Ensign, or of Dr. A. P. Gardner, who are the sole agents for the sale of Dr. G. Benj. Smith's Sugar Coated Pills. Give them a trial and they must stand as high in your estimation as they now do in ours.—Carbondale (Pa.) Reporter.

Voice from Kentucky.

I have been afflicted with Dyspepsia in the most aggravated form for three years past, and I found no relief until I used Dr. G. Benj. Smith's Improved Indian Vegetable Pills. After using sixes boxes o said valuable pills. I am entirely cured. They are a general remedy. J. K. LEEMAN.

Paducah, Ky. Nov. 19, 1845.

Dr. G Benj Smith—Dear Sir: Nothing has ever been introduced that has sold so well and given such general satisfaction, as your Improved Indian Vegetable Pills. Yours, F. S. SINGLETON.

Louisville, Feb. 13, 1846.

Dr. Smith—Dear Sir. About two weeks ago we bought two gross of your Indian Vegetable Sugar Coted Pills. Though business is dull here at this time, but we have sold them all. You will please send us ten gross through Wm. Lawrence & Kees of your city, who will forward them to us via Pittsburgh. Yours respectfully,

New and Good!

I HAVE just received from Cincinnati, a lot of "Green's Patent Cooking Stoves," four sizes of which I now offer for sale at Cincinnati prices, for cash in hand. These stoves come highly recommended by one hundred and sixty-one citizens of Cincinnati and Kentucky, in the following language viz:—We, the undersigned, have used most, if not all, the popular Cooking stoves, and have now in use Green's Patent, which we by far give a decide preference. In point of convenience, dispatch in cooking, heat of plate and economy of fuel, in baking we believe it can have no equal. We cheerfully recommend the above stove to all who may wish to purchase, as we believe it far superior to any now in use."

N. B. Any one who shall purchase the above named Green's Patent, after giving it a fair trial and believe it not to come up the above recommendation, may return the same and I will refund the money. JNO. C. REED.

Mr. F. M. Weedon, of this place, has one of Green's Patent Cooking Stoves now in use, to whom would refer all house-keepers, for any information they may want, with regard to its reputation.

Pospectus of the Maysville Herald,

TRI-WEEKLY AND WEEKLY.

THE undersigned proposes to publish a Tri-Weekly and Weekly paper in the city of Maysville, to be called "THE MAYSVILLE HERALD," which will be devoted, in its political department, to the advocacy of the great principles of National Policy professed by the Whig party.

Relying mainly for support, upon a Commercial and Trading people, the Editor will seek to bring prominently into view, the advantages which Maysville affords to the surrounding country, as a market, for the products of the South, the manufacturers of the North and East, and the productions of the agriculture and domestic industry and skill of Northern Kentucky and Southern Ohio.

The HERALD will contain the latest Political and Commercial News, foreign and domestic, and keep its readers well advised of the state of those markets most frequented by the Merchants and Traders of that section of country in which it is published. It will also contain the usual amount of Literary and Miscellaneous matter to be found in papers of its class.

The subject of facilitating intercourse between the City and surrounding country, so important to the prosperity of both, will receive such attention as may be necessary to place it properly before those most interested in the result.

We shall foster and encourage, by all the means in our power, the Manufacturing and Mechanical interest, from a conviction that no town or country can prosper greatly, whose citizens neglect to give to their surplus products all the value which reproductive industry can bestow, before making them the subject of her commerce.

So soon as the necessary arrangements can be made, we intend to publish, for the benefit of our Farmers, such information upon the subject of their noble pursuit, as experience and the application of the principles of science have developed, or may hereafter be discovered.

In short, we will aid, to the utmost of our power, by all legitimate means, in bringing into action the springs of prosperity, upon which the happiness of those most interested in our labor depends.

TERMS:

For Tri-Weekly paper four dollars in advance, four fifty within the year, or five at the expiration of the year.

The Weekly Herald on a large double-medium sheet, two dollars in advance, two fifty within the year, or three at the end of year.

☞In introducing this medicine to the public, we deem it proper to state for the information of those at a distance, that it is the preparation of a regular graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, a Physician of twenty years' practice. Call on the Agents and examine the pamphlet, to show the standing of Dr. Davis and the character of his medicine.

Benefit of Insurance.

THIRTY-TWO Thousand Dollars saved by insurance on the fires that occurred in this city, in within 90 days. The above fact should induce every person who has property to loose to come inward and Insure their property, as a very small amount paid annually may save many families from ruin. This Agency has paid out $16:030:54, other agencies have paid Twenty-two Thousand Dollars, all of which has been promptly adjusted and paid according to the terms of the policy on losses in this city during the present summer. Farmers can have their dwelling houses insured at the rate of $5 per thousand on brick houses and $7 50 per thousand on Frame houses. The City property insure' at about ¾ to 1 per cent, according to location. ! that all can be protected.

AGUE AND FEVER.

FLETCHER'S

CELEBRATED IMPERIAL

AGUE AND FEVER OR TONIC PILLS

THE proprietors of this invaluable remedy for Ague and Fever or Intermittent Fever, deem it unnecessary to enter into a long dissertation, relative to the disease for the radical cure of which, the remedy now offered stands unrivalled. The universal prevalence of the Ague and Fever, and Intermittent Fever, throughout most of the states of the Union, and the thousands who annually suffer from it, unhappily render it so well known, that to dilate on its symptoms or pathology, seems wholly unnecessary. It may, however, with propriety be observed, that the neglect to cure what is too often called "only the Ague and Fever" often leads to diseases more fatal in their nature—among which may be classed, diseases of the Liver and enlargement of the Spleen, commonly called Ague Cake, which in too many cases proves fatal.

Thousands of certificates might be published in reference to the efficacy of the Pills now offered to the public, which the proprietors deem unnecessary to publish. Suffice it to say, they have never been known to fail in a single instance. ONE BOX, when taken according to directions, is warranted to cure any case of Ague and Fever, or Intermittent Fever. The ingredients being PURELY VEGETABLE, and entirely free from any deleterious substance, they are confidently recommended as the safest, as well as the most efficacious article ever offered to the Public! The form in which these Pills are put up, (small tin boxes,) renders them more convenient than any other, as a man can carry them in his vest pocket without the slightest inconvenience.

"NE PLUS ULTRA" VEGETABLE COMPOUND

CATHARTIC AND DEOBSTRUENT PILLS.

These Pills, now for the first time offered to the Public, have been used in private practice upwards of Forty Years, by a celebrated Physician, formerly a member of the Royal College of Surgeons of London and Edinburg, and Licentiate of Dublin University.

The proprietors deem it unnecessary to enter into any lengthened discussion as to the merits of these Pills—neither will they say, that they "will cure all the ills that human flesh is heir to"—but they lay claim to one great fact, and that is this; they are the very best pills ever invented, not merely as a simple CATHARTIC, as their properties are various. They are a Compound Cathartic, and Deobstruent Pill. They cleanse the Stomach and Bowels without pain or griping; they act specifically upon the Liver and Kidneys, and as a Diuretic, they cause an increased discharge of Urine—restoring a healthful and proper action to the URINARY ORGANS. For nervous complaints, to which Females are liable, they will be found most efficacious in removing obstructions and restoring them to perfect health. It is perhaps needless to add, that if the STOMACH and BOWELS are kept in a proper state, no fears should be entertained in reference to the welfare of the body.

We need only say to those who have tried all other Pills, of whatever name, to give the "Ne Plus Ultra's," one trial, and we feel perfectly confident, that they will satisfy all that they are THE PILLS! unequalled as well as unapproachable!!
