

TERMS OF PUBLICATION.

THE FLEMINGSBURG KENTUCKIAN, will be published weekly on an Imperial sheet, at two dollars per annum...

No subscription can be withdrawn until arrears are paid—unless with the consent of the publishers...

Advertisements not exceeding a space will be compassionately inserted three times for one dollar and fifty cents...

AGENTS.

- Popular Plains, J. W. Stockwell.
Riversville, Daniel Pickin, Jr.
Shoemaker Mills, John Andrews.

the suggestion of his own corrupt nature; but that there is ever near him a guardian spirit, whose kindly...

Let us address to the editor on business, to insure attention, should be post paid.

CONFESSION AND HIS LADY LOVE.

"Delicacies of his public and domestic life."—The maiden to whom this Polish hero gave his heart...

The young lady first confided her attachment to her mother; and then Kosciuszko, with tears, and kneeling at the father's feet...

"Kosciuszko, now driven to despair, proposes an elopement. The lady agrees; all is arranged, and the happiest result promises to crown their union."

"Near thee, still hear their trust thy soul's—Oh! love, I soar where stars are beaming—This image wanders with me through the dusky sky."

GOVERNMENT.—Which is the most perfect popular government?

"That," says Plutarch, where the inhabitants are neither too rich nor too poor."

A PHYSICIAN.—The following beautiful extract is taken from "Tales of a Physician," a work recently published in this country.

"There is scarcely a profession in which the sympathies of its practitioners are more deeply excited than that of the medical practitioner. How often is he called to the bed of sickness; and that too, in a family, the members of which are drawn together by the closest bonds of love."

When all is over—when the bitter-sweet death has passed in the dead to the living, the young wife of a distracted husband...

There, cold in the embrace of death, lies the honored husband of a heart-broken wife—her first, her only love!

SPEECH OF MR. MENIFEE.

On the bill to withhold from the States the 4th instalment of the Surplus Revenue, directed to be transferred by the act of June 23, 1836.

[CONCLUDED.]

Those who regard this act with such utter abhorrence, as involving a flagrant violation of the constitution, do not, in my opinion, justly discriminate. They maintain that it is unconstitutional in its nature, and in its purpose and distribution.

It looked to it, isolated from the means by which it had been raised. It formed by itself a separate and distinct fund, and was not to be mingled with the other moneys of the Treasury.

But, Sir, I forbear to discuss the constitutional question; or even to allude to the right of the States to the surplus, founded on the compact of the original States.

But, Sir, in reaching this conclusion, by compelling the letter of the act to yield to its true nature and spirit, as manifested by its history and its objects, we are not to be understood as proposing to amend the act by Congress.

It is in my opinion, a measure of great importance, and one which will have a beneficial effect on the improvement of roads and canals, throughout every section of the great State.

In these systems, Sir, the people of Kentucky are not less interested, but have embarked in them their affections, and the tenderest hopes of their posterity.

The influence of this act on the western country, could never, I am sure, be overestimated. It is a measure which will have a beneficial effect on the improvement of roads and canals, throughout every section of the great State.

It is in my opinion, a measure of great importance, and one which will have a beneficial effect on the improvement of roads and canals, throughout every section of the great State.

have the right to extort from the States the surplus already paid, and to withhold that now due, the exercise of the right would be warranted, except on the most urgent and irremediable necessity.

What, Sir, is that necessity, as alleged by the President, and assumed by this bill? It is, that the Treasury of the United States is unable to sustain itself, in its engagements...

Without entering minutely into the condition of the Treasury, it is, in my opinion, plainly demonstrable, that, by converting into cash (which can readily be done), the bonds held by the Government on the Pennsylvania Bank of the United States...

The proposition to withhold this surplus would be more tolerable, if it were intended to prevent the creation of a new national debt; my aversion to which, if any thing, could induce me to support it.

The plan of the administration, then, being not only to withhold the fourth instalment, but to lay the foundation of a public debt also, if a defect in the means of the Treasury should be found actually to exist...

Without aiming at exact accuracy, the following is a statement, substantially correct, of the Treasury:

Table with financial data: Balance of appropriation, 1816,725,282 00; Appropriations for 1837, 28,575,837 14; Other appropriations, 2,824,250 40; October instalment due the States, 9,367,214 98; Making, 37,749,385 52; From which, deduct—Am't paid on 11th of September, 1837, 324,077,031 22; Postponed appropriations, 15,000,000 00; Estimated surplus, 4,500,000 00; Balance of the year, 4,500,000 00; In bank, the mint, and outside of the Treasury, 14,559,331 00; Making, 35,173,349 22; Leaving an excess of means of $2,576,036 30.

no pressure which an honest man need fear. The thousand talents involving around it, reflecting the light of the nation, and in the hands of the State, under the administration, blunting their eyes to what was transpiring around them, and closing their ears to the groans of surrounding misery...

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

He confesses "the unpromising truth" and his confession, like some of the other great pictures, is a picture of a nation, with a melancholy satisfaction, upon the most dreadful particulars; and, as in other cases, the fullness of the confession is relied on, in its application for mercy, where he requests a public fast, and a general day of prayer and fasting for the people.

The first and second numbers of the Kentuckian have been sent to each of the subscribers of the Kentucky Whig.

We this week present to our readers the conclusion of the able speech delivered in Congress by Mr. Menzies.

We are indebted to the Hon. H. R. Manly for a copy of his speech in pamphlet form, and for his kindness in furnishing us with the earliest intelligence of the proceedings of Congress.

The Yellow Fever rages with increased violence at New Orleans since the late storm. The True American says the causes are obvious, the hot sun operating upon the stagnant water in our swamps.

Some 12 or 14 cases of yellow fever occurred at Mobile on the 15th ultimo, and on the 16th the Board of Health reports 23 additional cases.

On Friday the 13th ult. Mr. James Nett, a respectable farmer residing near Williams-borough, Md., was murdered by Benn Sowers.

A very destructive fire occurred in Louisville on the 13th ult. A store on Bull-street, the property of Mr. Hayden, and occupied as a ware-room and liquor store, was entirely consumed.

The Whigs have a majority 21 on joint ballot in New Jersey. The Council stands 10 Whigs, 6 Van Buren men; the House 35 Whigs, 18 Van Buren.

United States Ship Independence—Empress of Russia—It must be gratifying indeed, to the pride of every true American to learn with what attentions the United States Independence received from the Emperor of Russia.

Russians in Mexico—The Mexican paper, the Imperial, states that while the line of the Republics strongly threatened to be drawn to the Americans, the Russians are steadily increasing their numbers in the other extremity.

The Globe mentions that on Tuesday the 14th inst. Don Francisco Pizarro Martinez was presented by the Secretary of State to the President, and delivered his credentials as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the Mexican Republic to the United States.

Specie from the West—The Columbian (Penn.) Spy states that eight hundred and fifty thousand dollars in coin passed through this town on Wednesday last, from the West, for Philadelphia.

E. H. Foxen, a Whig, has been elected United States Senator from Tennessee, in place of Mr. Grundy.

FROM WASHINGTON.—A Public Address to the Whigs of the United States will be published at Washington, during the present, or early in the ensuing week.

TROUBLES AT ALEXANDRIA, LA.—Our city for some days past has been rife with reports of servile roubles among the citizens of our neighboring State Louisiana at the town of Alexandria.

The Steamboat Alpha which arrived at this city from that place on the night before last, has been the scene of a most remarkable and atrocious murder.

Since we wrote the above, a gentleman of this city has returned on with the following letter from a resident of Alexandria, formerly of this place, from which it will be seen that the above statement is in a great measure corroborated.

Alexandria, Oct. 10, 1837.

Dear Sir: I have had a moment to inform you of the state of affairs in this town. On Thursday night last a plot was discovered from information received from a negro, that an attempted insurrection was contemplated by the negroes generally throughout the city.

P. S. The fever is killing every one it attacks in this place.

Atrocious Murder.—A murder was committed on Wednesday evening last, which, from what we have been able to learn exceeds in wantonness any thing ever recorded.

Russians in Mexico—The Mexican paper, the Imperial, states that while the line of the Republics strongly threatened to be drawn to the Americans, the Russians are steadily increasing their numbers in the other extremity.

The Pill Trade.—The New York Journal of Commerce states that a certain Pill manufacturer of that city has received the past season two & a half tierces of pill boxes; and it appears that he has filled them.

TALAMARA, Oct. 7. On Wednesday last a party of friendly Indians under the command of Joe Riley, from Chagabooche, captured several hostile Creeks about two miles above the plantation of Mr. John Garcocha.

On Wednesday last a party of friendly Indians under the command of Joe Riley, from Chagabooche, captured several hostile Creeks about two miles above the plantation of Mr. John Garcocha.

Declaration of a reclaimed Infidel.—Dr. JOHN E. COOK, Professor of the Theory and Practice of Physic in Transylvania University, though once a member of the infidel crew, thus concludes an Introductory Lecture to a Medical Class.

THE trial of Bishop Smith before the Ecclesiastical Court at Lexington has been brought to a close by a full and honorable acquittal of the Bishop and his reinstatement in office.

we can conceive—a state of enmity against the God that made him, and the Saviour who redeemed him, leading him to refuse to come to the light, because his deeds are evil.

The design of this Lecture was to show that the study of medicine has no skeptical tendency.—Petersburg Intell.

Truth and Honour.—The heaviest letter that ever weighed down the limbs of a captive is as the web of a gossamer, compared with the pledge of a man of broken words and the bar of iron may be broken, but the plighted word never.

Liberty's Plant.—During the progress of a political meeting held in the town of Cambridge, it so happened that the late Dr. Mansel, then public lecturer of the University of Cambridge, but afterwards Master of Trinity College and Bishop Bristol, came to the place of meeting just as Musgrave, the well known political tailor of his day, was in the midst of a most pathetic oration, and emphatically repeating, "Liberty, liberty, gentlemen."

Alexandria, Oct. 10, 1837.

Jefferson Circuit Court.—This day the trial of Michael Shrimp took place, for the murder of Dorothea Melkin, and after the examination of the witnesses which occupied about one hour, the jury retired, (the counsel declining to argue the case) and in about fifteen minutes returned into Court a verdict of "guilty."

MARRIED.—On Wednesday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Mason, Mr. PERRY E. WILLIAMS, to Miss LOUISA N. FANNING. On the same day, by the Rev. A. Saunders, Mr. JOHN PORTER, to Miss ANNE M. STOKES.

THE MARKETS.

Table with columns: Commodity, per pound, From, To. Includes Cotton, Sugar, Molasses, Pork, Lard, Whiskey, Coffee, Wheat, Corn, Bagg, Rope, Hemp.

THE undersigned will sell on premises, on Saturday the 28th October, 1837, the interest of the heirs of Charles Triplett, dec'd., in a small

TRACT OF LAND, on Fleming creek, in Fleming county, containing about 110 ACRES.

THE undersigned will sell on premises, on Saturday the 28th October, 1837, the interest of the heirs of Charles Triplett, dec'd., in a small

NOTICE. I AM at present manufacturing a large and elegant assortment of

SADDLERY. I wish to buy PORK, for which I will give half CASH, and half in SADDLERY, for any amount of

NEAT PORK, that may be brought in. Market price for Pork, and lowest CASH price for Saddletry.

NOTICE. Those indebted to me, whose NOTES or ACCOUNTS are due, will please call and pay, as I need the money. W. P. B.

NOTICE. THE Stockholders in the Owingsville and Big Spring Turnpike Road Company, are required to pay a fourth call of FIVE DOLLARS on the share, to the Treasurer.

NOTICE. I HEREBY inform all persons from trusting my wife, ELIZA, on my account, or harboring her, as I am determined to pay no debts of her contracting, nor will I support her until she comes home having left her money which she will give back for, without any just cause or provocation.

NOTICE. THE undersigned will sell on premises, on Saturday the 28th October, 1837, the interest of the heirs of Charles Triplett, dec'd., in a small

NOTICE. THE undersigned will sell on premises, on Saturday the 28th October, 1837, the interest of the heirs of Charles Triplett, dec'd., in a small pendence, it designates the commencement of its anniversary should be hailed with shouts of gladness and patriotic rejoicing.

The occasion is especially memorable as having affixed the seal to the character of our liberties, and relieved the noble men whose years had been spent among perils and suffering, from their toils.—Baltimore

Mr. CLAY.—The speech of this eminent statesman will be found in the fourth page of this day's paper. It is a most comprehensive view of the cause of all our present difficulties—a straight forward honest exposure of the whole ground.

An arrival at New Orleans from Matamoras, brings information that the Mexican Government had ordered 4,000 troops to be assembled at a place called Penrote about 27 leagues from Vera Cruz, for the purpose, it was said, of attacking the town of San Juan de los Rios, which is situated between Penrote and Vera Cruz, and strongly fortified by sea, having a force of 600 men under its immediate command.

The exact location of the place being ordered to participate in the robbery of a Comanche, and committed other acts, equally undelicate.

The ship Susquehanna, from Philadelphia, for Liverpool, was captured by a piratical schooner, on Friday the 20th ult., within 30 miles of the Capes of Delaware, and in sight of land. The Susquehanna had a large amount of silver on board.

MARRIED.—On Wednesday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Mason, Mr. PERRY E. WILLIAMS, to Miss LOUISA N. FANNING.

Mr. THOMAS MCKEE, to Miss MELISSA MILLS, daughter of Mr. John Mills, of this county.

THE MARKETS.

Table with columns: Commodity, per pound, From, To. Includes Cotton, Sugar, Molasses, Pork, Lard, Whiskey, Coffee, Wheat, Corn, Bagg, Rope, Hemp.

THE undersigned will sell on premises, on Saturday the 28th October, 1837, the interest of the heirs of Charles Triplett, dec'd., in a small

TRACT OF LAND, on Fleming creek, in Fleming county, containing about 110 ACRES.

THE undersigned will sell on premises, on Saturday the 28th October, 1837, the interest of the heirs of Charles Triplett, dec'd., in a small

NOTICE. I AM at present manufacturing a large and elegant assortment of

SADDLERY. I wish to buy PORK, for which I will give half CASH, and half in SADDLERY, for any amount of

NEAT PORK, that may be brought in. Market price for Pork, and lowest CASH price for Saddletry.

NOTICE. Those indebted to me, whose NOTES or ACCOUNTS are due, will please call and pay, as I need the money. W. P. B.

NOTICE. THE Stockholders in the Owingsville and Big Spring Turnpike Road Company, are required to pay a fourth call of FIVE DOLLARS on the share, to the Treasurer.

NOTICE. I HEREBY inform all persons from trusting my wife, ELIZA, on my account, or harboring her, as I am determined to pay no debts of her contracting, nor will I support her until she comes home having left her money which she will give back for, without any just cause or provocation.

NOTICE. THE undersigned will sell on premises, on Saturday the 28th October, 1837, the interest of the heirs of Charles Triplett, dec'd., in a small

NOTICE. THE undersigned will sell on premises, on Saturday the 28th October, 1837, the interest of the heirs of Charles Triplett, dec'd., in a small

RAISON D'AVENIR. CORNER OF FRONT AND MARKET STREETS, MARTINSVILLE, KY.

Mrs. Judith Goddard, [late of the Washington Herald.]

HAVING been compelled to give up the house she has so long occupied, she is desirous of informing her friends and the traveling public, that she has succeeded in getting that well established house, known as the EAGLE TAVERN, (formerly in the occupancy of John T. Langborne and more recently kept by John Dudley,) where she will at all times be pleased to see her old friends and others who may be disposed to favor her with their custom. As she is now engaged in the business she has so long occupied, she will be doing injustice to her own feelings were she not to return grateful acknowledgments to those who have so kindly supported her for the last four years, and in asking a continuance of the favors which has been invariably extended to her, she pledges that no exertions shall be wanting on her part to merit it.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

NOTICE. Mr. Joseph Adair, Abner Adair, F. Moore, Mary Moore and the unknown heirs of Isaac Adair, dec'd., please take notice that I shall apply to the Fleming County Court, at their December Term, 1837, to appoint commissioners to convey to me a certain tract of land which Joseph Adair in his life time bound himself to give to me, and where you may attend if you see proper.

