DECISION IN THEATRE CASE TO BE GIVEN BY HIGHEST CODE BOARD

Hollis, Optimistic Following Re-hearing Held At New York

HOOVEN ALSO APPEARS

The question of whether a state supported institution can, under the N.R.A. Motion Picture Code, legally be in competition with privately owned theatres, will not be known until next week as the red tape surrounding the complaint of the Trimble Theatre, Mt. Sterling, against the Morehead College theatre gradually unravels itself to the final decision.

A hearing of the appeal of the Morehead State Teachers College Theatre over the decision of the local Cincinnati Grievance Board which ruled in favor of the Mt. Sterling Theatre, was heard by the Appellate Board in New York Monday. Prof. E. V. Hollis, manager of the Morehead Theatre appeared at the hearing in support of the Morehead side of the question. Paul Hoover, Manager of the Trimble, was also unexpectedly present and pushed his case against the Morehead State Teachers College.

Mr. Hoover declared that the Morehead show was costing him at least 150 admissions every Monday. He stated that the Morehead show was operating as a state institution and tax free; and therefore non-theatrical; and the fact they advertised in Mt. Sterling showed they were in competition to him.

Prof. Hollis in his arguments contended that the Morehead show was a commercial enterprise and that they secured their films through the same channels as other theatres. He stated that other theatres closer than Mt. Sterling did not consider the College in competition to them; and that the College Show was no more commercialized than the cafeteria, bookstore or any other retail agency on the campus.

He also pointed out a recent decision of a code board outside the University of Kentucky duty to operate after a complaint had been issued by Lexington dairymen. Prof. Hollis named the Eastern Teachers College farm and other school code enterprises that were legally operated, claiming that the Morehead Theatre was entitled to operate just as much as they were.

"Although only 15 per cent of the District Grievance Board's decisions have been overruled, I am satisfied that we have a good opportunity of a reversal of their decision," Prof. Hollis said upon his return to Morehead. He said the College had presented a much more detailed statement of facts than they did at Cincinnati, while Mr. Hoover presented the same case that won him victory in the first hearing.

The Appellate Board will make their decision today, but it will not be announced. They, in turn, notify the Cincinnati Grievance Board, and that organization notifies the Morehead State Teachers College. This

Church to Hold Unique Contest

What might be termed a unique automobile race is being staged at the Christian Church Bible School starting next Sunday morning. The Bible School has been divided by classes into two divisions. One division of the school is riding in a Ford, the other division of the school is riding in a Buick. The mileage is determined by the attendance and offering. Each one present represents a mile. Each penny of the offering counts a mile. Each Sunday will witness a lap in the race and the mileage will be computed and carried forward. The pictures of the 2 cars with classes riding in them are displayed in the church. Each Sunday the cars will be moved forward or backward as the mileage is computed. The race will continue to the second Sunday in May, Mother's Day, when a grand lap in final check up will be made. Much interest has already been aroused in the unique project.

10 INDICTMENTS ARE BROUGHT BY ROWAN JURY 1st DAY

William Perry And Charles Fraley Given 5 Years

KISSICK CASE READY

William Perry and Charles Fraley of Mt. Sterling were sentenced to 5 years in the penitentiary in Circuit Court yesterday after they had entered a plea of guilty to robbing the general merchandise store of Van Hogen on Christy Street. This was the maximum penalty under the Court's instructions.

A fine of $100 and costs was assessed against Charles Riggs in a case that is an outgrowth on an automobile accident in which George Pace was killed near Easton.

A charge against the City of Morehead for maintaining a common nuisance was continued until next term after Judge Caudill said that he had been advised projects were under way for the clearing up of the method of sewage disposal.

The jury was out this afternoon with the case of Herlin Johnson, who was indicted for robbing and wounding with intent to kill.

Judge Caudill said that the case of Omar Knaich, charged with murdering Jesse Harris during an election last year near Hartsville, will probably be tried Thursday.

The Rowan County Grand Jury returned 10 true bills up until noon Tuesday.

Included in this number were indictments against Corbett Steele and Charles Fraley, charged with slugging and robbing John Kelsey; Edward Sweeney, shooting and wounding Constable John Knaich with intent to kill; Charles Fraley and William Perry, robbing Van Hogen's general store; and Charles Riggs, causing an automobile accident, resulting in the death of George Pace, a 38 calibre pistol.

Are Criminals On The Run?

The court docket in Rowan County for this March term is especially complimentary to the citizens and peace officers. The docket is the lightest in years, perhaps there are fewer criminal cases than there has ever been for the long term.

All of which brings thinking people to the question of whether lawlessness is on the decrease. Is the present trend only a lull and foreboding of more crime to come?

Improved economic conditions may be one of the answers to the present improvement. Fewer people are robbing, holding up and killing. The heat of passion may be lessened if people are contented and are living a full life free from economic stress.

The repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment may be another cause. Certainly there are fewer liquor manufacturing outfits hid away in the hills, around which many of our past shooting scrapes have had their culmination or finish.

It may be that peace officers and courts are eradicating the violator. Juries have imposed lighter sentences. Our county court has dealt harshly with the more dangerous group. Officers have succeeded very well in cleaning up most of the robberies.

We will all wait and hope that the present docket is a harbinger of lesser crime, and a more peaceful outlook. In the meantime we urge our juries to deal severely with the hardened criminal, and officers to exert just as much effort as they have in the past to not let go unpunished the crimes which we have had so many of in past years.

The City Jail

A couple of hamburgers and a pall of water is not a feast fit for a king, but it is one that very suitably serves the purpose in the Morehead City jail. Interspersed with a few beans and an occasional piece of meat other than hamburger, the diet is such that prisoners do not take kindly to it, but is deservingly easy on the taxpayers pocket and appropriate considering the subject that subsists on it.

Since the placing of the cells in the City Hall, Morehead's Council has saved hundreds of dollars. Financially it has been a great improvement, and from everyone's standpoint except those who might be unfortunate enough to land behind the bars, the plan has been favorable.

When placed in the City Jail there is little hope of escape. The prisoners are allowed to talk to no one except fellow prisoners. Many times a violator is in by himself and he has to while away the hours whittling his thumbs, counting out the day, the jailer and everyone in prison, or lamenting his crime. They are not allowed to have playing cards or any other form of amusement. It is quite as dull.

Three times a day the monotony is interrupted with two hamburgers and a pall of water.

The Napoleonic Touch

The Napoleonic touch was added by appreciative citizens of Manchester to the recent expedition of Adjutant General Denhardt's legion in Clay County, to say nothing of State Inspector and Examiner N. B. Sewell's project to erase the memory of his nativity from the map.

General Denhardt couldn't explain with his great predecessor in the art of war, "forty centuries look down upon you," though the hills of Clay might have served the turns of inspiration. Denhardt, more fortunate in his strategy than Bonaparte, offered no initial reverse such as a sword that famous appeal to valor from Cairo headquarters: "Soldier, your destiny is a glorious one. You will die with honor like the brave men whose names are inscribed on this pyramid or you will return to your country covered with laurels."

There wasn't any wooden pyramid, bearing the list of casualties in the Clay camp or any casualties for that matter. But there is a wooden pyramid now, to commemorate the occupation, and, at least Mr. Sewell and one of the Adjutant General's marshalls have their monikers graven on it to endure until a termite or political upheaval obliterated their fama.

With historical infidelity, the memorial prophetically purports to identify the site of Sewell's "Waterloo." That amounts to a solution on a pyramid. They should stick to Egypt if they have to mark the South Pole. A Nile in reverse said Owensley County a Sudan. General Denhardt, who submitted a report on Clay, lightly covered everything from twenty-five stolen automobiles to poor relief and C C C camps, must not have stayed long enough for the populace to learn his name.

Obviously the dilapidated motorcade in the conqueror's train represents the net accomplishment of the invasion. The monument attests that he spirit of the defenders was not broken and no revolution took place, a bit the unique situation in Clay is that it has two factions—the "ins" and the "outs." Messrs. Denhardt and Sewell are not in with the "outs," they certainly are out with the "ins."

WASHINGTON. Secretary of Agriculture Wallace proclaimed his Kerr-Smith tobacco control act in effect for another year and the tax was set at 33-1-3 cent for the 1935 crop.

MADISON, Ind., Roy Kelly, 20 years old, of Hanover in jail here following his arrest this week in an unsuccessful attempt to hold up Scott Bolton, filling station operator.

Kelly walked into the station operated by Bolton and walked toward him, without saying a word he held pointed toward Bolton but he snarped. Realizing that his life was in danger, Bolton sprang upon Kelly and wrested the gun from him. Unmasking the bandit, Bolton recognized him as a felon-convict.

Examination of one of the cartridges taken from Kelly's gun showed that the hammer had snapped on it. Besides six cartridges in the gun, Kelly had six more shells in his pockets, which were taken from him when he was searched by officers.

Vinson Scores Tax Burdens

Co-operation between Federal and State agencies was termed essential for equitable redistribution of tax burden by Representative Vinson. In a speech last week before the Interstate Assembly of Legislators.

The program of the assembly was devoted almost entirely to the question of conflicting taxes, which Vinson said was as old as taxation itself.

"This is a work that must be done, and now is the time for action. We are in an era of high taxes, and we should see that the burden of them is distributed as equitably as possible," Vinson said.

Vinson said he regarded the assembly as a great power for the achievement of that goal, and supported that the assembly's commission on conflicting taxation meet with the House Ways and Means subcommittee on double taxation of which he is chairman.

Senator Barkley, who was to have spoken on the double taxation question was unable to appear.

The official delegation to the assembly from Kentucky were J. M. Rose, William B. Bollman, Ralph Gilbert, Clarence Miller and William E. Rogers.

Woman Claims Mac West Portrayal Of Frankie And Johnnie Slander

Miss Frankie Baker who aims to be the original "Frankie and Johnnie," charged that the motion picture "She Done Him Wrong," did her wrong, too.

Miss Baker served papers through her attorney, Daniel Cook, in a $100,000 damage suit accusing Mac West and Paramount Productions, Incorporated, of bringing her into "public scandal, infamy, shame and disgrace."

Moreover, the complaint charges, Miss West's performance in the picture "was intended to and did in fact" hold the plaintiff up as an object of hatred, ridicule, shame and contempt, and induced an evil opinion of her in the minds of right-thinking people throughout the United States, Canada and elsewhere."

Discussing the homicidal aspects of the case, the complaint says: "That plaintiff, in truth, and in fact was the fiancée of Johnny, who was killed in St. Louis, Mo. by plaintiff in self defense, but Frankie Baker (who is plaintiff thinly disguised) is made to kill a woman in the motion picture or film entitled "She Done Him Wrong."

Paramount's legal department, taking account by surprise called the action "ridiculous."

Soldier and Breckinridge (The Holbrook boys) were the selections at the Olive Hill District Tournament. Both came through, although no one else could see it that way. The one miss was that Breckinridge defeated Soldier in the finals, when our pick was a title for the Panthers.

If You've Ever Seen a Suit Bargain This Is It!

That the Verdict of a Score of Smart Buyers Who Could not Believe Our Price Was Only $16.50

Just to get an unbiased opinion of these suits, we asked twenty men who rate as pretty good critics of clothing values what they thought of these suits. They looked at the hardsweat, all-wool fabric, they fingered the calicoes linings, inspected the sewing, admired the smart styles and smart fit—and everyone said they were mighty good clothes. And when we asked them the price, the nearest guess was $25 over our selling price of $16.50! Men, these are really astounding suit values. You can't appreciate what we are giving you until you judge these outfits from every standard of quality. Then you'll realize that the three-button double breasted model are top notch values for the money.

*P. S. Five bought when they learned the price, and seven bought the next day. We'll take the rest of the twenty by the end of the week.

Two Men Rowed At Greep, Ky.

Two men were rowed in the Ohio River at Greep at 8:30 o'clock Monday when one of the pair kicked a board out of the bottom of an 18' skiff, and they and a third companion were crossing from Harrell, Ohio, to Greep. The men were rescued by C. T. Burch, who was on the shore and heard the cries of the men.

According to Burch, the three friends met early that morning in Harrell and decided to have a holiday in the Ohio town because Burch had a check for $19. They were unable to cash the check, he said, but secured a rough money among themselves to have a good time anyhow.

On returning, Burch related, they went to the river bank but the ferry operated by Captain Pat Ault was on the Kentucky side. They believe the ferry landing one of the two men, the old boat which was loaded with iron wedges, and persuaded the men to try to cross the river in it. Burch said he knew the boat was unsafe, but the others persuaded him to enter it.

Burch was an expert swimmer, but the other men were unable to swim, it was learned.

Just after leaving the shore Burch said, Balford kicked one of the boards out of the boat. Burch said he knew the others were unable to swim, and told them to hold on to the boat while he went for help.

Crawford said Burch swam a mile before he could get to him. He said the current was so swift that it was useless to try to get to the other two men, and that his boat was so small he could not even get Burch into it, but had to drag him along in the water until the ferry could reach him.

According to Crawford, Bloomfield went down first after the boat sank, the heavy wedges forcing the small craft down rapidly.

Captain Ault, whose ferry was towing a barge, immediately released the barge and speeded toward Crawford's boat. He and two other men assisted in taking Burch out of the water.

KENTUCKY FARM NEWS

A solid conservation program was launched in McCracken County, with the proposal by County Agent W. C. Johnson and E. G. Weller of the Experiment Station, that the Nasac Creek water shed be made a demonstration area. The U. S. Soil Conservation Service is considering the matter and may also use two other areas in the state.

Many homemaker clubs are cooperating in preparing book lists and planning county and traveling libraries as a part of the project. Officers will order books from the Kentucky Library Commission at Frankfort.

Elia Stewart of Carter County is installing a tile drainage system over ten acres of bottom land, under the direction of R. H. King. A field increase of corn yield to pay for the system.

Ten community cooperative meetings were held by agricultural extension, rehabilitation and P. E. R. groups, health departments, banks, schools and churches in Rockwell County. A speaker discussed the problem and program of work of each group. About 225 persons attended every meeting.

Ma Boyers is the first Campbell county 4-H Club girl to enter the home economics department of the University of Kentucky. Ma Boyers has won several state championships in 4-H club work. She is living at the 4-H Cooperative House.

Mr. W. H. Foy of Grayson county, who has 10 hens in the Georgia egg laying contest, has a pullet in the high breeders, Herminia Layman, who has an entry in the Florida contest, has two pullets to lay 25 eggs last month.

SOB SWEET PEAS IN EARLY PART OF MARCH

March 10 is about the time the sweet peas should be sown. Dig a trench 4 inches deep, loosen the soil in the bottom 4 inches, and enrich with a bushel of well-rotted cow manure or 2 pounds of complete fertilizer per 100 square feet.

Mark a row two inches deep in the trench and cover seed 2 to 3 inches, filling trench as plants grow.

Pruning Shade Trees.—As a rule shade trees do not need severe pruning. Remove dead branches and possibly branches that cross or rub. Do not remove central stem. Endeavor to plant trees that will develop into correct size and shape for the space in which they are set.

The Lawn.—If bluegrass seed was not sowed last fall, sow the lot of March. Use red top and bluegrass in bare places, but where sod is reasonably good sow bluegrass only. Use a broom or rake with fine-holed fingers in raking the lawn to grass will not be torn out by the roots. Mowing once or twice during early spring forces the bluegrass into the soil and smoothes the surface. Apply the water before fertilizing in March. To apply later feeds the crabgrass.

Roses.—Do not disturb the mound of earth around hybrid tea roses until all danger of frost has passed and growth started. Pruning back to this mound removes most of the winter kill and the plants will be fairly well pruned for the coming season.

Planting.—March is a good time to transplant trees, shrubs and flowers, especially perennials. Do not pack soil too tightly around the roots, and give plenty of water as soon as growth starts.

AMONG THE COUNTY AGENTS

Dairymen in Graves County who have disease free herds are finding a ready market for good cows.

Ruth Mased, a Warren county 4-H club member, won first prize on apple butter, entered in a national contest held by the Hazel Atlas Glass Co.

Control the Diseases of Black Currant and Common Sash, Even though no signs of these troubles are visible.

These insects should be killed and blocked, and they should weigh between 1 and 1 1/2 ounces. They should bear at least one egg; more do not matter.

Potatoes should be planted deeply; 6 inches is not too much. Planting deeply, level, shallow cultivation should be followed, and no killing is needed, except possibly to close the cracks the spring rains may make. Thus later is preferred to a late planting, but not so deep, unless the ground is very hard and the temperature conditions, plants to appreciate when it is recalled that the potato is a cool crop.

Potatoes are subject to attack by several pests. First to come is the Colorado beetle; then, the black flea beetle and the blight. These pests and their control will be discussed in an article to follow soon, but, in order to be doubly armed against them, and so that acquaintance may be had with the details that go into growing potatoes successfully, the Kentucky College of Agriculture offers to send to any person who makes the request, a copy of Kentucky Extension Circular No. 502, free for the asking.

Atty. General Gives Opinion.

Subdistrict trustees in the schools of Kentucky may not employ any teacher that is related to any one of the trustees, although the other two members may desire to recommend her to the County Board of Education, according to a ruling received today by Supt. Roy E. Corsette from the State Department of Education.

The opinion was given by William E. Atkinson, Assistant Attorney General. There has been considerable controversy over the matter throughout the state, since the bill was passed but the legislature did not clarify such a situation.

A copy of the ruling as received by Mr. Corsette reads in full as follows:

"When there are three trustees and one trustee has a relative that he cannot nominate, can the other two trustees nominate his relative and he not sign for anybody?"

Under Section 4399.8 Kentucky Statutes, each sub-district trustee elected under the provisions of the 1924 School Code shall share with the trustees of his sub-district all the duties and powers conferred by the act.

Under Section 4399.9 no sub-district trustee shall nominate a person related to such sub-district trustee as father, mother, brother, sister, husband, wife, son, daughter, nephew, niece, aunt, uncle, son-in-law, daughter-in-law or first cousin for any teaching position in a sub-district.

It is our opinion that, while the three sub-district trustees each share alike in the duties and powers of the office, the law prohibiting the appointment of certain relatives means to prohibit them as a unit and none of the three, nor a majority of them, can recommend to the County Board for appointment as a teacher any relative that is kin to anyone or more of them. This seems to us to be the interpretation intended to be placed upon the law by the General Assembly since, prior to the enactment of Chapter 85, Acts of 1922, no such prohibition existed with reference to sub-district trustees.

American-made shirts in patterns and cut apparently appealing to the men of Brazil, according to a report to the Louisville district office of the Commerce Department through exports of such cotton shirts by the United States have been small, there are strong possibilities of increasing the trade by a result of the reciprocal trade agreement recently effected between the two countries. In 1929 only $6,040 worth of American shirts were consigned to Brazil, while in 1933 this business had doubled in value. Before the trade agreement was reached, the duty on each shirt amounted to approximately 95 cents. This duty has now been reduced to approximately 70 cents.

Exports of bicycles to Mexico showed a 47 per cent increase, and Cuba's purchases were nearly ten times the total of the preceding year.

Daily average sales for January, 1935, decreased about 46 per cent from February, 1934, or somewhat more than the estimated seasonal amount.

The recent signed trade agreement between the United States and Brazil upon ratification should offer considerable encouragement to American manufacturers and exporters of automobile parts, accessories and other automotive parts according to a report to the Louisville district office of the Department of Commerce. By the terms of the agreement, the Brazilian tariff rates on a wide variety of articles of the above type have been reduced by 20 per cent or more. 14th. Regional Tournament Gets Under Way Tomorrow At 3:00

MEET IS WIDE OPEN THIS YEAR. ASHLAND OUT FOR FIRST TIME

Breckinridge Drs vs Strong Catletsburg Five First Round

The Fourteenth Regional High School Basketball Tournament, minus the presence of the efficient Ashland team, for the first time, will be without its favorite this year.

Eight teams pitched together in a bracket drawn here Sunday afternoon appear as an evenly matched set as if they had been picked. True there are a few that boast a better average on games won and lost, but there is such a slight difference that any hope may be thrown to the winds.

The absence of Ashland, instead of taking color from the meet should add more to it. This year there is a chance for any one of the eight teams to get to Lexington in the state title, and the play should be more spirited and wide open.

In the upper bracket, which is generally conceded as being the slighter, major of the two, Heidelberg and Powell County, winner and runner-up in the 53rd District will clash at 3:00 o'clock Friday afternoon, an Breckinridge, winner in the 54th District will play Catletsburg, titlist at the 55th at 4:00 Friday afternoon, to officially get the meet underway.

Friday evening Coach "Tiny" Jones Mt. Sterling Trojans will play Winchester and Russell meets Soldier in what should prove the best attraction on the card. Mt. Sterling defeated Winchester 28-16 in the finals of the 54th District. Soldier and Russell are apparently evenly matched. The Mt. Sterling Winchester match comes at 8:30.

The semi-finals are slated for Saturday afternoon and the finals Sunday night at 8:00.

After more than an hour of argument during which 16 of 17 proposed officials were stricken from the list, the 8 schools finally reconsidered and selected Bill Hickey, Lexington and Mill Young, London to officiate. In the event either one of these is not available, Bill Hennis will be sought.

W. D. Scroggins, Freshman Coach at Morehead College, is tournament manager. The games will be played in the Morehead College gymnasium. Admission for a single game was set at 40 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. Students, both High School and College will be admitted only on adult tickets, Mr. Scroggins stated.

Season tickets, good for all four sessions, are $1.75 and season reserved seat tickets $2.00. All of the schools were represented at the drawings.

The complete schedule of games is as follows, with times Central Standard:

- First Session
 - Friday at 3:00 — Heidelberg vs. Powell County.
 - Friday at 4:00 — Breckinridge vs. Catletsburg.
- Second Session
 - Friday at 7:30 — Mt. Sterling vs. Winchester.
 - Friday at 8:30 — Russell vs. Soldier.
- Third Session
 - Saturday at 2:00 — Winner of Heidelberg vs. Powell County versus winner Breckinridge-Catletsburg.
 - Saturday at 3:30 — Winner Mt. Sterling-Winchester vs. winner Soldier-Russell.
- Fourth Session
 - Saturday at 8:00 — Finals.

Young People in Charge At The Christian Church

The society meets each Sunday night at 6:30.

Soldier And Breck. Win In District

Allie Holbrook's fighting Panthers of Soldier High pulled a startling victory out of the fire over Grayson's Yellowjackets Thursday as the 55th district opened before approximately 450 fans.

Haldeman running true to form defeated Grayson, 21-14, in the tournament opener after an exciting battle.

Grayson 17, Soldier 25. The Soldier team, displaying a cool floor game, swept to a 6-2 advantage during the opening period. Ely and Barker swapped left hand shots through the hoop and Ely added free throws. Stephens made good two gratis flings for the Jacks and Esterling Frank. Soldier's defense loomed up greatly in the second frame and Grayson took a 10-7 halftime advantage. Kibbey and Stephens made good on crisp shots for the DeMoyse coached team and Esterling dropped in a trio of free throws. Soldier could not penetrate the tight zone Grayson threw up and tallied only on Ely's free throws.

Esterling started things off for Grayson in the second half with a snow bird but Ely came right back with a rebound shot and Barker brought Soldier on within two points with a free shot. The partisan crowd then went wild as Adams bagged a crisp, Barker a foul, and Kelly a beautiful pivot shot to zoom the Panthers ahead 15-12 before Kibbey came back with a foul. Ely retaliated quickly, however with a free shot and Adams sent Soldier's advantage to 18-12 at the close of the third stanza.

Mastering closed the gap at the very start of the last quarter but the sleepwalking Ely bagged another free basket. Soldier began delaying their affairs with the lowering Kelly, Adams and Cundiff handling the ball cleverly. Grayson broke it up, however, and once more climbed into the thick of the fight as Esterling crumped a crisp. After a few moments of furious play, Soldier hit a tremendous pace and dropped in five points in a few minutes. Grayson fought furiously for the ball in the final three minutes but Soldier used their height to good advantage and won without any undue exertion in the waning minutes. The sterling play of Ely brought Allie Holbrook's crew out on top, but his play was collaborated with flashing splendor by

Newshounds Victorious In Independent Tourney

The Morehead Newshounds turned back the Wurtz Bros. All Stars at Ash and Thursday night in the finals of the Independent Teams Tournament by a score of 29-24 to win the championship and the right to represent this district in the State Tournament for Independent teams.

The game climaxed four nights of play and crowned the Newshounds the class of the sixteen teams which entered. The winning team is composed of present and former Morehead College stars.

Although drawn in the tougher bracket and forced to play outstanding teams in every game, the Newshounds came through like champions and beat the Wurtzmen decisively enough to leave no doubt as to their superiority.

Newsies Lead At Half. The Ashland boys were limited to two crisp shots and beaten in spite of their sensational long-range basket-making.

In the semi-finals early Thursday night the Wurtz team turned back the Morehead Eagles Nest 23-21 in an exciting battle and the Morehead Newshounds defeated the Soldier Blue Devils 30-22.

The Newshounds had previously beaten Betsy Layne 23-25 and the Ashland Travelers 32-24. Wurtz tripped Grayson 54-15 and Allen 36-23 in their first two games. With Derfield and Kiser making the pace with baskets from far back, Wurtz set the first period pace 8-3. Lux Ouley and Walter Johnson led Morehead in a comeback and the champions led 15-12 at the half. They increased their lead to 23-16 the third round as "Moose" Combs broke loose.

Morehead concentrated on holding the ball from play in the final round in an effort to keep Wurtz from scoring. The Ashland boys, whose long shot attack slumped during the second and third periods found the range again and came Adams, Sublett, Cundiff, Kelly and Barker. Kelly played the last half with three personals on him, and Barker was ejected with four in the last frame. Crum of Grayson was also forced from the contest. Esterling with 10 points was easily the Grayson star.

Haldeman defeated the Grantham in the opener of the tournament by a score of 21-14. E. Parke was outstanding for Haldeman, who scored 8 points.

with such a rush in the last three minutes that Morehead's lead was cut in half.

The most sensational game of the tournament was the Wurtz-Eagles Nest game which Wurtz won 23-21.

The teams were tied 7-7 the first half. Morehead lost the game in the third round when a fast break attack got them open numerous times for crisp shots, which they were driving too fast to make. Wurtz outscored them 4-2, as the Eagles made only four shots, and took a 15-15 lead.

On top of that the Eagles sank only five of eight free throws in the last period while Wurtz was making three out of four.

Bob O'mara of Wurtz led the scoring with nine points. Austin Riddle and "Bub" Patum got five each for Morehead.

Soldier gave the Morehead Newshounds a bitter battle in the other semi-final before losing 20-23. Only two points separated the teams the first round and at the half, which ended with Morehead on top 9-7. Soldier tied it up early in the third and then dropped back to 13-13 going into the last chapter.

Unset Features Play At Olive Hill Tournament

Two brothers, both graduates of Morehead State Teachers' College who have since entered the field as coaching, grabbed off top laurel in the District Tournament at Olive Hill last week. The brothers, Roy Holbrook, coach of Soldier High, were the winner and runner-up respectively in the 55th District. Both will be represented in the Region at the Morehead College gymnasium this week.

In the final game the lead saw-sawed back and forth, but at the end of playing time Breckinridge was on top 21-18 for a sensational victory and a well earned District title for the Morehead boys. Roy started the season with anything but brilliant prospects, and with one outstanding player who later became eligible. That player—Johnston, the man that Roy wisely built his team around, and the result was the championship. Soldier pulled two distinct upsets to get through the hard lower bracket. In the first game they defeated Grayson 26-17 in a battle that saw the panthers at their best and controlling the play almost from the opening tip-off. Haldeman, conqueror of Granth put up an exceptionally and surprisingly hard game before being nixed out 18-17 by Soldier in the second round. Haldeman had previously conquered Granth.

Olive Hill, conquerors of Sandy Hook in the first round, and champions of the Little Eight basketball conference, fell next before Soldier's onslaught. The score of 11-10 fails to show the superior performance that Soldier put up. It was only through a successful barrage of long shots in the closing minutes that Olive Hill made the score close. The game was perhaps Soldier's best defensive play of the entire season.

Breckinridge came through their bracket easier and early in the tournament stamped themselves as favorites. They defeated Doston by an overwhelming score, and then topped Haldeman, conqueror of Morehead High, easily to go into the finals.

MGM Classic At Cozy Theatre

Lifting romance of Vienna, borne on the wings of music, lends charm to "The Night Is Young," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's dramatic love story with songs which opened at the Cozy Theatre last night.

The creation of Oscar Hammerstein II and Sigmond Romberg, who gave the world "New Moon," "Days Are Long" and other outstanding hits, is a haunting spectacle of the Imperial Ballet, in which opera's heart interest and gorgeous song bits are blended into a dramatic theme based on an original story by Victor Harnin, who wrote "Grand Hotel" and scenic plays by Edgar Allan Woolf and Frank Schultz, it was directed by Dudley Murphy, who scored a tremendous hit with his production of "Eugene O'Neill."

A Realistic Cast
Raymond Novarro, of "The Pagans," "The Parsonage" and "The Cat from the Fiddle" and other hits is teamed with Evelyn Laye, singing star from London, who played "The Sign of the Cross" and "The Sign of the Cross."

Miss Helen Holbrook and Cheryl Falls spent the week-end in Olive Hill with Miss Ruth, Hutton Holbrook. While there they attended the basketball tournament.

Three Of News Make All Tourney

Three members of the championship Morehead Newslands and one singer from each the Wirt Brown, All Stars and Soldier Boys, finished positions on the All-Tournament team chosen Thursday night by five critics at the conclusion of the meet for independent teams.

Counting two votes each for position on a first team and one for mention on a second team, this is how the critics picked them:

Player	Team	Votes
Les Orley	Morehead News	9
"Shore" Combs	Wirt Brown	3
"Pak O'Mara"	Wurt	10
L. Carter	Morehead News	10
Ray Adams	Soldier	9

Second Team
G. George Wirt 3
E. Kline Wirt 3
M. Wheeler Betsy Layne 5
L. Bralley Morehead News 4
E. Parley Soldier 4

Lawrence Carter was named the most sportswomanly player in the tournament and awarded an Arrow hit by the Stocker Men's Shop of Ashland. Roy "Doc" Adams of Soldier was chosen most valuable to his team and given a basketball uniform by the Orlin Hardware Company of Ashland.

Each member of the winner team was presented with a gold basketball by W. C. Nichols, secretary of the Ashland Y. M. C. A. who made the tournament speech after the final game. Each member of the runner-up team was given a silver basketball.

Carter and O'Mara were named captains of the first tournament team, being the only nominees chosen.

Lawrence Carter, Morehead News, center, had the scoring with 14 points in four games. Bob O'Mara of Wurt was scored with 26 in four games. Mouse Combs was third with 23 points.

Decision On Show

In the meantime the Morehead Theatre will operate. If the New York Board reverses the denial the Morehead show will continue for a week. Other steps will be taken if it is sustained, Mr. Hollis declared.

SPORT... SLANTS

Just about the most crystalline bunch that we have seen for some time was the Betsy Layne team and their comparatively large delegation of fans after the Red Devils lost to the Morehead Newslands in the Independent Tournament at Ashland Tuesday.

Betsy Layne had been touted as the tournament favorite and generally picked to take the title. The three points that they were beaten by Morehead probably represents only a small portion that would have separated them from victory if Paul Combs had been on, and the rest of the team, including Ryan, had been scoring form.

If the Morehead teams continued to the finals as predicted, the Regional, it is for Cattedsburg and Mt. Sterling to play in the finals, with the championship going to Cattedsburg. Now to keep out of the Holbrook boys' sight.

Three of the last four left in the meet will be from here. The Soldier Blue Demos are made up of boys from Morehead playing under the Soldier man, Doc Adams and Parley were their big shots as they rolled over Prestonburg.

So close was the game between Morehead and Western in the KIAC Tournament at Bowling Green that everytime the Hilltoppers gained possession of the ball the fans roared as if they had scored half a dozen baskets. Western won the game but they lacked a lot of getting it to the margin they expected to.

The height of irony came as the loud siren blared before the game.
