GO-TO-SUNDAY SCHOOL DATES BEGIN APRIL 14

Five Consecutive Days in April and May Are Set Aside

C. J. RICHES MAKE DRIVE

At a meeting of the ministers and Sunday School Superintendents of Morehead Tuesday afternoon definite plans were made for the observance of five consecutive Go-To-Sunday-School Sundays in April and May. April 14 will be CHURCH MEMBERS' DAY, at which time all church members will be urged to attend. April 15 will be FAMILY DAY. On this day whole families will be asked to attend in bodies and special recognition will be given the largest families. April 21st will be FRIENDS' DAY. You will be urged to bring your friends to the school on this day. April 28th will be NEIGHBORS' DAY. Have you some neighbors who do not attend Sunday School and Church Services? You will be asked to bring them on this day. The first day which is the 14th, will be observed as the Grand Go-To-Sunday-School Day, at which time people generally everywhere will be urged to attend church services. This program will be in cooperation with the Kentucky Sunday-School Association which is fostering the movement all over the state. This is the first time the churches have been asked to observe five consecutive Sundays. Hereafter the one Go-To-Sunday-School Day has been the limit of such an effort.

The objectives of this drive are: (1) To give each individual in Kentucky an invitation to attend Sunday School. (2) To concentrate for a period of several weeks the efforts of every

High School Paper Announces Winners

Two seniors, 3 juniors, 1 sophomore and 1 freshman were victors in the contest for outstanding students at the Morehead High School, according to tabulations released this morning by the Varsity Vixen, student paper.

There were exceptionally large and the leading class. A last minute change of votes put most of the candidates across.

Pauline Shuman was declared the most beautiful girl. Other winners were: Most popular boy, Roy J. Williams; Most popular girl, Louise Fisher; Most popular boy, Alpha Hutchins; Most popular girl, Thelma Pugh; Most studious boy, Elwood Pugh; Best all-around girl, Durbin Hutchinson; Best all-around boy, Jack Carter; and best boy athlete, Jack Carter.

It will be noted that Jack Carter was by only a slender margin more than the runner-up.

Proceeds of $28.47 were collected by the Varsity Vixen.

Judge Bailey Postpones Hearing On New Test Suit

The three-sided Morehead street paving case, pending for two years in Rowan Circuit Court, and which had been set for trial last week, was continued by Special Judge J. P. Bailey, of Paducah, as lawyers presented a new test case.

The original test suit was against Charles Hays, but after the test case had been shown to the court, the three parties involved decided to try the case against Hays before a jury. It will come before a test judge on Monday.

The case was continued by City Attorney against property owners who have brought and lost, and continue to bring, suits against the city.

In a circulated case, Judge Bailey rendered judgment of $1,507.85 to Kangle and Sons against the City of Morehead, for the improvement of water in this street. The controversy arose when two property owners on 10th St. brought action through a test case filed by N. E. Kennard claiming compensation for the sewer utility did not benefit them. The Court of Appeals held they were not liable, and the City did not sustain those who were served by the sewers as to include the sewer in question.

Parking Ordinance Passed By Council

An ordinance fixing a parking limit of 6 hours on all streets in Morehead, except Main street, was passed by the Morehead City Council in an adjourned session Monday evening.

Abolishment of all night parking, endangering traffic, was given as the reason for the new ordinance. Parking limitations on Main Street are already in effect.

The Council voted for the purchase of new fire hose, and is looking for bids. The amount of hose to be purchased was not stipulated, although the bids will be entered on or about next week. Ed Hill, recently appointed fire chief to fill the vacancy of Melvin Hanna, resigned, stated that some of the hose now being used is "burst out and could no longer be effectively used."

State Begins Work On Widening Main Street

Breaking dirt for the widening of Main Street was begun this week, and will continue until the job is finished. The street will be widened to 36 feet at the narrowest place. The block between Fairbanks Avenue and Hill Street was widened to 46 feet last year.

Under an agreement made by the City Council, the State Highway Department has taken over the street through which all local highways run, and will pay for the present work as well as maintaining it.

NEW FEATURE TYPE APPEARS IN INDEPENDENT

Attention Called To News Items In Paper Effectively

DAILY SERVICE ADDED

Anticipating the needs of the subscribers of the Independent, announcement is made in this issue of the addition of several features which are of local and general interest, and the use of new lead type, designed to more rapidly and clearly call the attention of the reader to news carried in the columns of the newspaper.

Through arrangement with the Kings Feature Syndicate, which supplies practically every daily in the United States and most of the larger weeklies, the Independent is able to offer feature material that is not every week in Kentucky is now carrying. Owing to a delay in the month, much of the new material was, of necessity, omitted in this issue, but enough is carried to give the readers an idea of what the Independent is able to offer in the future.

The new feature is being offered in the paper principally for the large number of rural subscribers who do not have the opportunity to get a daily paper. At the same time, the home-own and business men that do get one or more dailies, will find much of interest and benefit from these added features.

Included in the new features are the comic strips, Roggs McGinnis and the Old Man Town, an editorial and sport column, What's What At A Glance in Washington, Illustrated Sunday School Lessons, Chattered parrot, Politics, Behind the News and the Editor's Column.

In addition to the features are the daily paper, which is published at 10:30 a. m. and a short time before going to bed, and a list of these new features.

Unhappily all of the new lead type did not arrive this week, but

EX-SERVICE MEN TO MEET SATURDAY FOR BONUS DISCUSSION

Body Votes To Arrange With Government

Urging full payment of the bonus, ex-service men of Rowan County will meet at the Morehead City C. O. Saturday, March 30, at 2:30 p. m. to formulate plans for full support of the impending Legion legislation at Washington.

Lydia Smith, Louisville addressed a meeting of ex-service men of Rowan, Carter and Bath Counties, Sat. On the bonus legislation and other questions pending before the Nation, at Congress regarding the veterans.

Short addresses were also given by Russell Burrows, Farmers, and H. A. Sparlock, Morehead, who are Commander and Adjutant respectively of the Corbin Legion Post No. 125.

Mr. Smith said the ex-service men were fighting for the bonus because it was justly due them. He explained that representation of the Legion was fighting for their interests in Washington and urged the points to go behind them until passage of the Bonus Bill in the Senate and it is

MAKE PLANS TO OBSERVE NATIONAL MUSIC WEEK HERE

In observance of National Music Week, Mayor Herman Hill has called a meeting of all organizations and institutions to appear at the City Hall this evening at 7:30 p. m. Mayor Hill said that the public schools, the college, churches, clubs and lodges had already pledged their support. Prof. Lewis H. Horton, Head of the Department of Music at Morehead College will play leading role in laying out the plans for observance of the national event.

WILL BE CANDIDATE IF 'ANTI'S' AGREE

Two Morehead Men Mentioned For State Offices This Year

CAUDILL IS UNDECIDED

King Swann, Circuit Judge of Lexington announced this morning that he was definitely a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor. Swann is considered to be almost a sure bet for the Republican nomination, in most political circles.

Lieutenant Governor A. E. "Happy" Chandler, of Versailles, exponent of the primary, who had gained prominence in Kentucky through his partial leadership of the Anti-Admissionists and lately by calling a special session of the Legislature, would like to know whether J. C. W. Beckham intends to run for the Democratic nomination for governor.

Friends of Chandler say he is virtually sure to announce for Governor if Beckham does not run. If Beckham does not make the race, Chandler, along with the anti, plans to throw his support to the Louisville politician.

Former Governor Beckham is in Florida at present and this week Chandler and his party went to Florida, presumably on a mission. Chandler plans to call on Beckham, however, and from that conference may come the announcement of whether it will be Beckham or Chandler.

Chandler would like to have the Governor's post, and would probably like to see it put in the hands of the anti-admissionist, political party.

The first dramatic challenge to Thomas R. Egan, of Russellville, in the contest for the Democratic nomination for governor is now in the making with Fredrick A. Wallis, Paris, ready to establish headquarters, begin a tour of counties and form an organization. Tom R. Underwood, of the Lexington Herald, who has written impartially of the impending campaign, says in an article published Sunday in the Bluegrass paper.

"Thus far Mr. Egan's early lead has been virtually undisputed. Chairman of the state highway commission, with the full support of Gov. Letcher, back of him, he has at the present time the most solid organization that has formed behind any one candidate for governor in March in recent political history."

"Egan's former Governor J. C. W. Beckham, in Florida, has said nothing and his adherents put it off until April 8 when he announces his own plans, he may just as well not announce what-over he determines he would like to do."

Others Silent Many of Fredrick A. Wallis' friends are also allied with Gov. Letcher, and a race between Egan and Wallis may split the vote. Mr. Egan is expected to go over and get a portion of the Beckham block, since he managed Beckham's campaign in 1927.

Others in the field have not begun to set a strong figure. State Treasurer Glenn Huddleston, Attorney General Bailey P. Wootton, of Hazard and State Superintendent, Jas. H. Richmond, had had little to say in the past few weeks. If any of the anti's are to be in the running an active campaign will have to be started within the next 2 or 3 weeks.

Ken Johnson, Richmond, editor of the Daily Register, is being urged

MAY TAKE OATH ON SATURDAY

Confirmation of the appointment of Judge H. C. Church, of Georgetown, was made by the Senate yesterday and if there is no delay in the commission reaching him, Judge Ford will take the oath of office. This occurred a fortnight ago at the opening of the Eastern Federal District Court last Monday.

KERA Instructors Meet At M.S. College Friday

Kentucky Students numbering 1,500 were present in securing an education by the Federal Government during the month of February, according to the monthly report of the Kentucky Emergency Relief Administration. The students are scattered in thirty-one schools, colleges and universities throughout the state, while the cost of the program in February amounted to $20,970.75.

The names of the schools, the location and the number of students in each respective school receiving Federal aid, are as follows: Ashby College, Wilmore, 56; Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville 37; Berea College, Berea, 25; Bethel Women's College, Hopkinsville, 15; Campbellsville College, Campbellsville, 13; Casey Junior College, Foppysburg, 7; Centre College, Danvers, 45; Eastern State Teachers College, Richmond, 29; Georgetown College, Georgetown, 23; Kentucky State Industrial College, Frankfort.

J. J. THOMAS IN HOUSE RACE

Owingsville Man Places Hat In Ring For Representative

Placing full and whole hearted support to the Morehead State Teachers College and pointing to his record as a service man, J. J. Thomas, of Owingsville, announced today his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Representative from the 96th legislative district composed of East and Rowan Counties. His announcement appears on page 2 of this issue of the Independent.

Mr. Thomas is well known throughout the entire area of East and Rowan Counties and has been a public official on several occasions. He previously held a law and highest representation in the "trappers of the State and the Counties."

Speaking of the Morehead State Teachers College, Mr. Thomas said, "I realize that the greatest interest and the greatest good that a Representative can do for the people of Rowan County would be to further the interests of the Morehead State Teachers College."

Under an agreement Rowan and East Counties collaborate in the selection of the Representative, and it is both County's time this year.

Funeral Held For John M. Lykins, 62

Funeral services for John M. Lykins, 62, father of K. D. Lykins, manager of the Morehead Midland Trail Hotel, who he is at home, Grassy Creek, Morgan County, Friday, March 29, at 1:30 o'clock, with burial in the Grassy Creek cemetery. The funeral services were in charge of Rev. T. H. Testerman.

Mr. Lykins died at the King's Daughters Hospital at 12:45 last Thursday morning, following an illness of 4 days. General sepulchre was given as the cause.

Born in Morgan County, Mr. Lykins taught school there for more than 30 years. He was widely known throughout this section of the state, and mentioned frequently in Democratic circles in Boyd County where he lived for some time.

He married Miss Nanette A. Geedon, of Panama, Morgan County, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Geedon.

STUDENTS IMPERSONATE COMIC-STRIP CHARACTERS

Mimicking the newspaper funny-folk, the Morehead High Dramatic Club scored a triumph last night with their production, "Comic Strip Convention."

The Gumps, Popeye, Mugsy McGinnis, Jiggs and most of the other everyday residential comies were portrayed by members of the dramatic club.

A portion of the production will be staged before a meeting of the Parents Teachers Association this afternoon. It will come as the third part on a P-T-A musical program, featuring the High School Glee Club.

DUST STORMS, FLOODS CAUSE HEAVY DAMAGE

Many Homes Under Water And Bottomlands Overflowed Here

ALL TRAFFIC HALTED

The "Acts of God," brought 3 dust storms and a flood to Rowan County during the week, and caused general discomfort and thousands of dollars damage in property.

Dust storms, sweeping from the plains of Kansas through Kentucky and on to the sea coast, during the latter part of the last week covered everything with a fine film, made breathing difficult and practically obscured the sun. The dust collected thick on everything, and was almost general. Visibility was poor. Visibility was poor.

Week-end rains brought relief from the dust clouds, but inflicted damage by flooding all low ground, which was already full from these rains, overflowing them with acres of bottomlands, causing up in several homes and inundating the highways so that traffic was tied up for almost 24 hours.

The Licking River did the most damage as rains near its headwaters combined with local precipitation brought a flood stage almost as high as that of last August. Many families were reclaiming their losses yesterday, finding them covered by a foot of black mud. Those forced to vacate took their furniture, household belongings and other possessions with them. The latter was necessary to prevent livestock from floating debris.

At Farmers the Licking was near U. S. 58, the bridge at Morehead was closed. A downer by Owingsville, Pennsylvania and the Kentucky Highway the Ohio River.

Water ran into the C. O. Camp and several houses at Clermont. Higher than 15 miles west of Louis was inundated. The Ohio River flooded many towns along its course.

BUSINESS MEN BRING PROPOSAL TO BRING FACTORIES IN ROWAN

Plant Each Year Promised By Indiana Firm; Name Committee

A proposal of employing a national representative to aid in building Morehead and Rowan County industry, was taken under consideration by the Business Men's Association in a called meeting of officers yesterday evening.

A committee composed of Henry Goldberg, D. C. Candill and Morgan Testerman was named to investigate the advisability of employing J. H. Reed of Indianapolis, and the status of the firm he represents.

Mr. Reed appeared at the meeting and promised the Business Men's Factory a year * * * for Morehead and Rowan County on condition they pay his concerns $500 annually * * * of which $100 would be paid in advance.

Mr. Reed was in Morehead in connection with a venture for the Midland Building Co.

Officers Arrest 2 On Liquor Indictments

Trial for Isaac Roe and Columbus Niles, who were captured Friday at Newfoundland by federal revenue agents and charged with manufacturing whisky, have been set for today. Both were released under a temporary bond of $500 each. Officers said they caught them at the still and confiscated 3 gallons of whisky, 250 gallons of distilld beer and 55 gallons galvanized tank.

They were arranged before Commissioner Leo Stewart.

Henry Shepard of Jeffersonville, Montgomery County was placed under $500 bond on a charge of moonshining. At a preliminary hearing Saul Kidd was released under $1,000 bond on the same charge.

TABBIN THE NEWS

The divorce case pending over the week-end. A party man, decidedly under the influence of liquid stimulants, climbed the city water station in the courthouse yard when the pursuit of Prosecutor John Adams became so heated that he couldn't get much further.

Adams used considerable resources in attempting to get the fellow down. "You can't arrest me. I'm a member of the disbarment conference and I'm going to dinner this afternoon," was the retort the politician received.

Incidentally the young man found all the disarming he could do in a cell that night.

The Morehead street paving case have been in court so long that the first court briefs are being followed with age. We hardly know what causes the delay to defer them, but it looks like a grand old stall on someone's or everyone's part.

By the time the law takes its course all the old streets may be worn out, leaving the question of where the property owners are going to get the money for the old and build this new, provided the court decision goes against them.

This matter of something like $1,500 which the court demands that the City should have to pay the contractor on another action, appears to be a case of gross negligence on someone's part. All the taxpayers will be forced to pay the expenses of someone's class benefit.

There are many readers of the paper that turn to the marriage license column by which they find themselves out by his fling themselves upon the sea of bliss—or else.

Wishing to cooperate with all persons who do not take the matrimonial vow, it is pointing the way, possibly here, to some troubles without any its might inflict, the couple has left out the names of people that have called in or specified to the clerk that they did not want their names published. The practice of allowing the names of those who do not want to be so general that something will have to be done about it, as a

J.J. Thomas Announces For Representative

TO THE VOTERS OF ROWAN COUNTY

I am a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the office of Representative in the 96th Legislative District, composed of Rowan and Bath Counties, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary to be held on August 3, 1936.

I am a resident of Bath County, have lived here all my life. I am an Ex-Serviceman, a Soldier of the World War and my occupation is that of a traveling salesman. I feel that I am acquainted with the needs of my District and I will devote my best efforts toward furthering the interests that will be of help to the people living in Rowan and Bath Counties.

I realize that the greatest interest and the greatest good that a representative from this Legislative District could do for the Rowan and Bath Counties would be to further the interests of the Morehead State Teachers College. The people of Bath County do not feel that the College is a local affair, and they are as much interested in the success and welfare of the school as the people living in Rowan County. If I should be so fortunate as to be nominated and elected to this office, the people of Rowan County may depend upon me in every instance and in every time and place that I can do so, in a reasonable way for the School. I realize that it is the greatest public institution that is located in the Eastern part of this state, and if any action of mine in the Legislature of Kentucky tends to promote the interests of this School, it will be the greatest service that I could render.

I expect to see as many of the voters of the County as I can, and I hope that you will inquire of my neighbors and acquaintances as to my fitness for this place. Any support you may give me will be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully,
J. J. THOMAS.

Choral Club Of 18 Voices Heard Yesterday At Chapel

The Foster Choral Club presented the mixed chorus known as the "Aeolians" in the College Auditorium, Wednesday, March 27; this group consists of eighteen young men and women from Ashland where they have been organized into a chorus by Prof. K. E. Runkel, organist and composer. All the members of the chorus are pupils of Mrs. Runkel, and the fine tone quality of the group is a fitting compliment to the splendid instructions which Mrs. Runkel gives them.

The first half of the concert consisted of sacred music in the form of anthems and a trio. One of these numbers was a composition by Professor Runkel.

The second half featured secular music. Several items for the mixed chorus were supplemented by the solo work from individual members of the chorus.

The Foster Choral Club is grateful to the school and community for their splendid support of this concert, proceeds of which will be used to defray expenses of a trip to Paris, where the club will appear before the combined conference of the Kentucky Federation of Music Clubs and the Kentucky Music Teachers Association, met in annual session. The club will also sing at the Paris High School for the students and faculty.

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

When Peter wrote his two epistles he was leaning back over almost forty years from that day Jesus found him at his fishing and called him to be a fisher of men. During these years he had grown in the grace and knowledge of our Lord.

How much Peter needed that grace he learned on that night of the betrayal when Peter so shamefully denied his Master. Had he relied less upon self and more upon God's grace he would not have fallen as he did.

The Lord Jesus was most gracious in forgiving Peter and restoring him to his position among the apostles. On the day of Pentecost, Peter was given grace to preach Christ boldly so that thousands were converted and added to the church.

Grace gave Peter power to heal the lame man at the temple gate and to give all the credit to Christ, saying it was done "in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth."

Hauptmann's Wife Seeks Lindberg Baby

Mrs. Hauptmann began a search this police and welfare home record at week in an effort to corroborate. "An unsigned letter which declares, Bruno Richard Hauptmann was not guilty of the kidnaping of Charles Lindberg, Jr., and described a "living Lindberg baby" in Detroit.

The letter... in detail the "plot" and... kidnappers. It said the body identified by Colonel Lindberg as his son, had been examined from a Bronx... clothing in the Lindberg baby's clothing and left near Hopewell... to throw a scare into Lindy, who was known to have marked the ransom money."

Officials Discount Letter New Jersey officials who examined the letter, received by a New York newspaper man who covered Hauptmann's trial, said they were inclined to discount it. "Further one official said, 'there is no doubt the body found in New Jersey is that of the Lindberg baby.'"

Mrs. Hauptmann, in Detroit to start a tour to raise funds for her husband's appeal from the death sentence, said she planned to conduct a private investigation.

Records are Searched The search started in welfare department records, in an effort to trace the baby who the letter said told officers when he was found that his name was "Johnny."

A check of records of abandoned children showed a boy whose only name was given as "Johnny" was found by police in Cadillac Square in 1933. At the children's home where he was placed it was said he is now out for adoption.

"Johnny" was placed in the care of the society July 18, 1933. His age was estimated then as between 2 and 3 years. He had blue eyes, a fair complexion and light brown hair.

The letter explained that the Lindberg baby had been taken from Hopewell on the night of the kidnaping, March 1, 1932, to Brooklyn, and from there to Patuxent, Tenn.

Man Kills Son After Divorce Allows Him Custody Of Child

Granted four hours a day custody of his 6-month-old son under a court ruling pending action on his wife's suit for divorce, Buford Falls 28 years old used his brief session in fatherhood to drown the child and commit suicide at Harrodsburg.

Falls, a farmer, living, since his estrangement, with his father, James Falls, near Salvia, in the northern part of Mercer county, drove the child six miles to Cummings Ferry, on the Kentucky River. When his motor stalled in the mud of the river bank, he apparently took the baby in his arms and waded into the water, where both were drowned, investigators said.

Robert Broce returned to his home near the ferry about 4 o'clock and when his wife said she saw a motor stall in the mud an hour earlier, he went to investigate. Broce reported to the officers that he found a man's tracks leading from the stalled automobile to the water's edge. On the shore were a baby's bottle and blanket, a man's sweater, a woman's coat and two notes addressed to Falls' estranged wife, Mrs. Ruby Matjoff Falls, 25.

Deputy sheriff Walter Kennedy, one of the officers investigating the case, said Falls undoubtedly committed suicide.

STATE POLICE INVESTIGATE AT WHITESBURG, KY.

Whitesburg, Ky., March 21.—State police, who arrived here today to investigate a "crime wave" in the mountains of Letcher county, found this county seat town of 1,500 population quiet.

Rumors of mob violence, however caused county officials to postpone indefinitely the examining trial of Denver Tolliver, 25-year-old miner and farmer, on a charge of slaying Clyde Quillen, 19, a Boy Scout. The youth was shot to death last Friday night while running for help for his cousin, Scoutmaster Connie Quillen, whose eyes were shot out during an ambush attack at a Scout campfire.

Headliners of Today Played Bits in Shows That Starred Fields!

Although motion-picture stardom has come to W. C. Fields, currently starred in Paramount's "It's a Gift," coming Friday and Saturday to the City Theatre, which in the past year, the experience of headlining has been his for more years than he cares to admit.

The man who is Hollywood's greatest comedian topped the bills in many stage productions in which many of filmdom's biggest stars were playing small bits or just starting out in the theatrical world. Twice Fields headlined the "Fishes Bergers" in Paris, with Charles Chaplin on the same bill in minor capacities. Once the latter merely sat in a box and shot putty wads at the actors.

In another edition of the "Fishes" Fields was starred while in the opening number was a young, song-and-dance artist trying to get a start. His name was Maurice Chevalier.

One of Fields' dressing-room neighbors at Paramount is Carl Brisson. Several years back Fields headlined a vaudeville show in Copenhagen. In one of his "Clanquers," hired to clap for the star—was a youngster who didn't care about being paid off for his work. He just wanted a picture of Fields.

Recently Brisson had Fields at his home for dinner. He surprised the comedian by doing some of the Fields' old juggling tricks—and then announced that he was the boy who asked for the picture.

Eddie Cantor made a hit in "Canary Cottage" in Los Angeles. Earl Carroll recommended him to Ziegfeld, and he got a small part in a show that Fields headed.

TESTS SHOW HOW TO MAKE GOOD PASTURE FROM FIELDS That badly worn soil may be converted into good pasture land at comparatively small cost, is revealed in tests made at the Western Kentucky Experiment Substation at Princeton. A pasture experiment was begun in 1928 on badly worn sand stone land that produced about 12 bushels of corn to the acre in a season when fairly well managed soil on the same farm made more than 50 bushels.

A 10-acre field treated with one half ton of limestone and 600 pounds of 16 per cent superphosphate per acre and an untreated field of 10 acres were seeded to a pasture mixture in 1928. They have been pastured with yearling steers for six years, beginning in 1929. The untreated field has carried an average of 2.5 steers through the grazing season, with a total average annual gain of 480 pounds at a cost of 8.4 cents per pound. The treated field has carried an average of 6.2 steers, with a total average annual gain of 1,545 pounds at a cost of 3.2 cents per pound. These figures include the drought year of 1930. In 1934 the treated field was top-dressed with 160 pounds of superphosphate, making a total of 1,000 lbs per acre of superphosphate, which will be made to last through five years. In 1934 the untreated field carried 2.5 steers that put on a gain of 1,810 pounds while the treated field carried 5.5 steers that put on gains of 1,510 pounds.

A third field treated with 1,200 pounds of raw ground rock phosphate per acre in 1928 and top-dressed with 800 pounds in 1934 has produced almost as good results as the field treated with limestone and superphosphate.

The more good pasture a farmer has, the less harvested feed he will have to grow.

Trustee Situation Clarified

FRANKFORD Teachers in a consolidated school district where both high grades and a high school course are taught are selected by the County School Superintendent and not by the substitut trustees, William R. Attkisson, Assistant Attorney General, said last week. Mr. Attkisson also said that if there were only two trustees in a district and they should disagree over the selection of a teacher the County Superintendent also is empowered to name the teacher and end the deadlock.

France Asks English Aid

A united front against Germany's rearmament seemed near Friday with the scheduled start of tri-power conversations, at which France appeared certain to try to get Great Britain to drop the role of mediator and assume that of ally.

With world attention on Sunday's visit to Berlin by Sir John Simon, British Foreign Secretary, and Capt. Anthony Eden, Lord Privy Seal, Eden flew to Paris for preliminary explorations with French and Italian statesmen.

Evidencing France's lack of faith in the prospect of the British getting Germany into any security agreement was Foreign Minister Laval's assertion that France "must" "group the allies," and French preparations to move 25,000 troops from the Italian to the German border.

Pass Food—Drug Act

WASHINGTON Spurred on by a Presidential message to Congress the Senate Chamber Committee reported 9 to 6, a bill drastically increasing the Federal Government's control of food and drug distribution.

The measure, introduced by Senator Copeland, Democrat, New York, is a modification of the long disputed "Tugwell bill" which a year ago stirred bitter opposition from publishers, who protested its provision making them liable for any statement contained in food and drug advertising they carried.

SPENCER UNION TO MEET

The Political Line-Up

The Governor's race this year is apt to prove very much of a dog fight with Democrat eating Democrat and Republican devouring the G. O. P. The race is a battle between the "ins" and the "outs," with a few non-partisan nominees seeking to get under the wire while the other boys are having a good old-fashioned free-for-all.

Despite considerable opposition to the Sales Tax, the Administration headed by Governor Ruby Laffoon, is conceded an excellent opportunity. Thomas Reel, Russellville, apparently is the man they are backing for the Democratic nomination, but off the surface there might be something going on that the voter knows nothing about. It is logical that Laffoon and his followers may be putting their label on a candidate who is unsmug and unheard of, and will remain as such until near election time.

J. C. W. Beckham is being supported by the anti-administration. They are backing their propaganda and race on a fight against the sales tax. Many of the thinking people have the idea that the sales tax is here to stay—it brings in far too much revenue which is very welcome to the "ins" although it furnishes a weapon with which the "outs" may battle.

To Seek Funds For Highway

Governor Laffoon announces that he will go personally to Washington in the near future, accompanied by members of a special committee representing all sections of Kentucky to present a petition for funds with which to build Kentucky's section of the Eastern National Park-to-Paris Highway.

As the purpose of the Governor's visit is two-fold, to get a needed four-lane highway built across Kentucky and to provide employment for more than fifty per cent of those now on the relief roll, his decision to present the petition in person is commendable. The petition is drawn up following a state-wide conference held in the state capitol on February 13.

The Governor has emphasized time and again that he does not believe in a "dole" when work can be substituted as a means of furnishing relief to unemployment. "Picking up leaves in the courtyard," as he expressed it, is a poor excuse for spending relief funds when such glaring needs exist in the construction of a modern adequate system of trunk highways and such opportunities stand out as afforded by the development and advertisement of Kentucky's major attraction, the cluding Mammoth Cave National Park, Cumberland Falls State Park and the renowned Blue Grass region of Kentucky.

That the Governor is right in selecting highway construction as the means of affording the greatest field for the employment of labor is attested by a recent statement of Thomas H. McDonald, chief of the United States Bureau of Public Roads, to the effect that 91 per cent of all the money spent on road building goes for labor, either directly or indirectly. The federal highway chief took as a basis for his calculations $1,000 of funds spent on a road contract, dividing and subdividing this amount into the inter-years that represented its expenditure. The items included wages paid the laborers on the construction, the moving of equipment, the amount paid mills and quarries, the freight, fuel supplies, repairs etc., showing a total expenditure covering these items of $910.

The amount the Governor is seeking for the construction of the park highway in this state approximately $43,000,000, is little enough for building a thoroughly modern road of more than 500 miles in length and for restoring to work more than 50 per cent of Kentucky's idle labor now on relief.

The principal speaker of the evening, Mr. Fordine, Philadelphia, National Secretary of the Jr. O. U. A. M. addressed the delegation on "Americanism," bringing into his topic the action of Congress and the present status of National affairs.

A banquet and musical entertainment was an offering of the host lodge.

College Theatre Will Play "Roberta" 3 Times; Wedding Night Booked Sunday, Mon.

In order to bring you "Roberta" while it is brand new and still being shown in New York, Cincinnati and Louisville, the College Theatre agreed to show it for three days. Therefore you may see this outstanding musical comedy either Thursday, Friday or Saturday evenings at 7:30 p. m.

Merely to tell you that Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers star in the dance numbers and surpass their performance in "Gay Divorcee" is promise enough. But when we tell you that Irene Dunne sings the widely known "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" Jerome Kern music and several other numbers from the original stage play of "Roberta" is the outstanding photoplay of the season. Western fans will see their idol Randolph Scott, play a role far different to that he usually gives in the "horse operas."

The Thursday night performance is planned as a preview for those who would like to see the picture early and then tell their friends about it.

Sunday and Monday will see just as outstanding a photoplay, but of a far different nature. The title is "Wedding Night," Gary Cooper and Anne Sten portray the drama of an aspiring young author who falls in love with the beautiful daughter of a tenant farmer on a Kentucky or Connecticut tobacco farm. It is down to earth heart drama directed by King Vidor and produced by Samuel Goldwyn. Picture goes will

To accentuate the movement locally the ministers of Morehead planned a course in Bible reading in which every citizen, church-goer or non-church-goer, is urged to participate. The program is as follows: Beginning April 1st read the first week the Gospel of John; second week, the Book of Romans; third week, the Acts of the Apostles; fourth week, the Book of Hebrews. Reports will be gathered at the different churches each Sunday, both on Bible reading and attendance.

for Lieutenant Governor.

Morehead Men Mentioned
Two Morehead men may be in the political limelight this year. Dudley Caudill, Cashier of the Peoples Bank of Morehead, and former Republican Campaign Manager for Rowan County, has been urged for State Auditor. Caudill is believed to be in a strategic position to draw votes from the 7th Congressional District, a Republican stronghold, since he is formerly from that region. He has made no definite announcement regarding his candidacy.

E. J. Richards, also of Morehead, formerly closely associated with Senator Allie W. Young may have charge of the parole department of the Federal court of the Eastern District of Kentucky, which is now being reorganized, the Lexington Herald states.

The Republican situation is slightly more clouded than the Democratic one in the gubernatorial contests are in the gubernatorial contests. Circuit Judge King Swope, Lexington, apparently has the inside track on all nominees, if he does not lack out of the race as this "late dog" Swope has been mildly campaigning for 3 years, and has a strong following throughout the state.

He is described as an able jurist, honest and stern, and strong enough politically to be elected Circuit Judge in the overwhelmingly Democratic County of Fayette.

Former Governor Edwin P. Morrow, of Somerset, is also mentioned, but his defeat in the last congressional ional race in the 7th District, may do much to keep him from the race. A campaign by Morrow should add much to "oratorical-side" of the election.

Judge S. S. Wallis, well known through this section, and known to control many Eastern Kentucky votes has not announced, but may prove the dark horse in the race.

Horton To Appear On Music Program

Mr. Lewis Henry Horton, State Music Chairman of the Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers, and head of the Department of Music of the Morehead State Teachers College, will present his Statewide Mother Singers Chorus during the Seventeenth Annual Convention of the Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers, which will be held in Owensboro, April 16, 17, 18. Work On School Plant Set May 1

Actual construction of the $255,000 water, heating and lighting plant for the Morehead State Teachers College, will begin about May 1, Dr. J. H. Payne said today after consulting with architects.

The plant which will be located between the C & O railway tracks and Triplett Creek was made possible through a loan and grant of the Public Works Administration. When completed it will be a model in educational institutions, according to Dr. Payne.

Important Meeting Of Ky. State League Set For Friday

The moguls of the Kentucky State League—all of whom went in the red last year—are back for more this season and will open play April 14.

Other matters attendant to the loop's functions will be dispensed with in a meeting to be held at Dr. Hall's place in Flemingsburg Friday evening. All the managers of the clubs that hold franchises and representatives from towns that are seeking membership will be present along with the usual number of interested fans. Most of the meeting will be open to the public.

Among the more important business to come before the executives tomorrow evening is the adoption of a playing schedule; final approval of the constitution; naming of umpires; selecting the sites for opening games; fixing of a players limit; and rating the finances.

Lonnie Barnard, who was reelected president will preside. Other officers of the league are Dr. J. F. Hall, vice-president; W. E. Crotcher, secretary; and Shaaklin Piper, treasurer.

The signing of players will start on Saturday, March 30, and the regulation players contracts will be handed out at the meeting. Mr. Crotcher said.

The league is expected to adopt a 36 game playing schedule. A 42 game schedule, game as the loop played out last year, along with a 28 game schedule will also be submitted, and the managers will vote on the more feasible one.

A player limit of 15 is also expected to be accepted. This is the same as the league played under last year.

Fifty dollar maximum player limit salary per game for a team was approved by a 6-2 vote at the first meeting of the year held last week. This was adopted in view of the losses that 7 of 8 clubs suffered year last and marks a considerable cut under the price paid for players last year.

If Flemingsburg prefers action against several players, whom they claimed sold out in the play-off series last year, it is probable that the league managers will take the matter up, with possible expulsion of those men from the league.

Last year Morehead won the loop championship, defeating Flemingsburg 3 games to 1 in the play-off series. Flemingsburg won the first half and Morehead the second. Maysville finished second both halves.

Teams that will be in the league this year are the same as last with one possible exception. The Brooksville franchise may be moved.

KENTUCKY FARM NOTES

J. D. Smith Carstean county tobacco grower, has proved the value of the soft-cure method by making a 400 per cent increase in profits. Under the old method, he averaged 4 1-2 cents for his crop; the first year of soft-curing he made a 15-cent average, the second year 15 cents and this year 20 1-2 cents.

Dairymen in Monroe community of Hart county set up the following goals as a remedy for poor marketing and poor cows: to sell whole milk, sell cream cooperatively several days grading, and buy new stock. Other markets will be contacted.

Montgomery county farmers who have top flocks are marketing their entire production of eggs. Many brick and old drum brooders are being built, and Poultry Leaflet No. 4, "Producing Profitable Pullets," by C. E. Harris, ordered from the Experiment Station at Lexington. Clean chicks, equipment, feed and grounds are urged by the county farm agent.

Breathitt county homemakers attended study reviews and special lessons in sewing and remodeling of clothes to learn how to dress to the best advantage. New styles were surveyed, but emphasis was given to the consideration of age, activities and plans in buying clothes.

How to make better sprays and prune old orchards was demonstrated in several meetings of Henderson county fruit growers. They are preparing to have only high grade fruit for sale. Marketing of 10,000 bushels of apples has been slowed up by the influx of fruit from the east and west.

Crittenden county 4-H Club members are preparing to buy and feed two carloads of baby hogs. Most of the stock will be purchased within the county from registered stock. Plans for housing and feeding are being made.

APPLES NEED SPRAYING
Nine sprays, five of which are considered absolutely a necessity, comprise the spray program for Kentucky apple growers. More may be needed if cooling moth develops. Write to the College of Agriculture.

ARTIFICIAL BROODING
Thousands of Kentucky farmers are using home-made brick brooders. Directions for making and operating such a brooder and general suggestions about brooding are given in Circular No. 157, "Brooding Chicks Artificially," which can be obtained free from the College of Agriculture or from county agents.

THE FARM AND HOME
(Kentucky Experiment Station)

Even though they are healthy when hatched, chicks will not thrive unless they are comfortably housed and fed. The house need not be expensive and the feed not excessively costly. Low cost of production is important; if poultry is to be profitable to purchase feeds, even at present high prices for grain.

It is often good practice to build up the land during the first year of a young orchard. Growing and turning under clovers or other legumes, followed by rye in winter, is one system followed.

Regardless of the crop grown it is usually desirable to apply nitrate fertilizers.
Before constructing buildings, inspect several similar buildings for ideas. It is better to begin making plans several years in advance of actual construction. This helps to avoid mistakes and dissatisfactions with the house or other buildings.

Sowing grass with alfalfa may be a desirable practice in some cases, especially where the hay is fed on the farm. Alfalfa and timothy or alfalfa and orchard grass make satisfactory combinations.

KENTUCKY HENS NEAR TOP IN LAYING TEST
Hens from four Kentucky flocks are making high records in a national laying contest at the Georgia College of Agriculture at Athens.

The forty hens, representing the Barred Rock, Rhode Island Red and White Leghorn breeds, averaged 22 eggs in January and 75 eggs in the first four months of the contest. Kentucky farm hens lay an average of only 84 eggs in a year.

Ten Barred Rocks from the flock of Herman Layman of Grayson county laid 24 to 29 eggs each in January, and 67 to 104 eggs in 4 months.

The other pens of Kentucky fens making good records in the contest are from flocks of Collier's Red Fern in Muhlenberg county, Mrs. Watt H. Byers in Grayson county, and C. R. Ward in Ohio county.

AMONG THE COUNTY AGENTS
A national firm has offered to establish a cheese factory in Ohio county that would handle 30,000 pounds of cream daily.

Negro farmers in Christian county are cooperating in shipping eggs and poultry to the Chicago market.

The beef cattle outlook was discussed by Caldwell county farmers at a meeting with Wayland Rhodes of the College of Agriculture.

Twelve brick brooders have been built by Bath county farmers to replace commercial machines.

Mrs. M. P. Bradley of Louisa organized a 4-H club with a membership of 18 farm boys and girls.
Maguffin county farmers cooperated in buying 5,100 pounds of Korean lespedeza seed.
The French variety of late potato will be given a trial by Kenton county farmers.

Grayson county small-fruit growers are preparing to have a large strawberry project.
The Lexington Board of Commerce will sponsor the 4-H Club District Fair, succeeding T. E. Wilder, secretary.
Standard prices and a code of fair practice are maintained voluntarily by Paduch dairymen.

Jess Harrison, of Campbell county bought an 8-month-old Holstein bull from the Eastern State Teachers College here.

Many questions about seed mixtures and feeding lambs and ewes were asked last week, reports County Agent R. H. Lickert of Fleming county.

The bluestone treatment for stomach worms in sheep is being used by Clay county farmers.

THE GARDEN
GREENS
By JOHN S. GARDNER

All Kentucky gardens include one or more of greens, especially the spring greens, mustard, smooth leafed spinach and, in the event of the garden being planted to start them in the fall before, kale and turnip greens. Although the spring greens are welcome, and worth all they cost in labor and space, the green season should not end there, but should last the summer through. That is to say, make a greens program really complete, the summer greens, Swiss chard and New Zealand spinach should be added to the list.

No matter what their season, greens must be grown quickly to have succulency and tenderness, the qualities that so much commend them. Moisture plenty and readily usable plant food are required accordingly, and the particular plant food they need is nitrogen. The best way to provide both requirements is to cover the land with a generous coat of manure and plow it under.

For the spring greens which make their growth while the ground is still cool for manure nitrogen to become effective, it is well to apply in addition a dressing of phosphate of soda, for in nitrate, whose nitrogen is immediately available, no matter what the temperature. Such dressings should be made until the greens are definitely up.

Inasmuch as moisture plays a large part in greens production, deep plowing should be the rule to assure a deep seedbed, a large moisture reservoir. Moreover, the seedbed must be well prepared.

The spring greens, mustard and smooth kale, must be sown as early as the ground can be prepared, for they soon go to bloom. The first planting of spinach may be made at that time, too, but by using proper varieties, successive spinach plantings may be made far into the summer.

In order that insects particularly the plant lice may be more successfully combated, it is best to sow all greens in drills rather than to broadcast. For the lice, control is to spray with tobacco solution. Other insects, such as cabbage worms and spotted cucumber beetles, are controlled by applying arsenicals, and this is not practicable on c. gens.

Giant Southern Curled is the most popular variety, and Spring Smooth that of kale. For the early planting, King of Denmark spinach should be used, and Prickly-seeded Summer for the later ones.

The summer greens, chard and New Zealand spinach are different from the spring sorts in that instead of the entire plant being taken in harvesting them, only the developed leaves of chard are removed, and the growing heart left to produce more leaves, and only the growing tips of New Zealand plants are broken off, more tips continually replacing them.

Swiss chard is a member of the beet family; seedlings should be sown when ordinary beets are planted, but instead of putting the seed in solid drills, it should be dropped in clusters of two or three, 12 inches apart. The seedlings should be thinned to one, New Zealand spinach produces plants similar to those of tomatoes, and should have similar spacing, 2 1/2 feet to 3 feet, for example. A good way to produce the plants is to sow 3 seeds in a pot and if necessary thin to one seedling.

The seedlings should be set in the garden about May 1, the mass of earth about their roots left undisturbed. The variety "New Zealand," and there are no pests of any consequence.

CLAUDE CLAYTON, BOB DAY TO MANAGE MOREHEAD CLUB

Pirates Prepare With '9 Stronger Than Winners Of State Loop Last Year

Claude Clayton and Bob Day became managers of the Morehead Baseball Club it was announced here this morning.

They immediately announced that the following players had agreed to sign with the Pirates: Lawrence Fray, Albie Carter, Tommy Ryan, Bob McKenzie Lather, Varney, Lloyd Nolan, Ritton Stages, Jim Bob Fugate, Dale, Jarrell Vinsao, Wallace Fannin, Alfred Honaker and Luster Oxley. They are also dickering for the services of Strouder Featuck, sensational hurler with Owingsville last year.

A subscription drive to get the club under way league play will start today, and the names of the donors will be published next week.

Although hard hit financially, and lacking the necessary organization, the Morehead Baseball Club remains a feared member in the Kentucky State League, and there is every indication that the Pirates will be back with an even stronger team than that which carried them to championships in the East Central loop in 1933 and the Kentucky Circuit in 1934.

Claude Clayton, a favorite with Morehead fans, one of the big guns in their remarkable string of victories in 1933 and who performed so ably with the runners-up Flemingburg nine last year, is a logical choice for playing manager on the Morehead club. Clayton is sending things out now, and although he won't be able to do much with the debt the club owes, it is probable that the money will be on hand for the champions to continue through the first half.

The success of the club depends on the backing that the business men give it—the same as it did last year. Needless it is to say that Morehead's best and brightest leaders and dyed-in-the-wool fans were the potent factors in the placing of a winning team on the field last year, and most of them are ready to come through with some more do-or-die if the prospects for another good Morehead organization.

There are many who would like to see Morehead lose its franchise. These are clubs that have been continually buffeted about by the superior Pirates, and would like to come in and take away her star players. Morehead has the natural baseball talent at home, and this will mean much in the long run. Imported talent has proved unsatisfactory in many cases, as was amply demonstrated on more than one team last year.

The Pirates will probably have Clayton, Day, Albie and Jack Carter, Oxley, Fray, Nolan, Fannin, Varney, Vinsao, Baldwin, Wyant, Stages, McKenzie and a couple of other first-classers if present plans pan out. There is a chance that Tommy Ryan, a third baseman will be in the camp, although Mayville is again dickering for his services.

Glancing over this list it is apparent that about all Morehead will need is an additional pitcher or so. Plenty of infielders and better than average in out fielders are available. It might be said that all of the above list, whose names are not familiar to Morehead fans are outfielders, with good recommendations and ready to join the Morehead fold this season.

Woody Fowler, Mayville sensation last year, is also a prospect for the local team. Fowler plans to enter school here at mid-semester, which is just about the time the season men go to camp.

There could be much said about Oxley, McKenzie, Day, Albie Carter, Fray, Ryan and Nolan. They have performed so long at Jayne Stadium that a Morehead team without them would be an illegitimate enterprise to many fans.

The gratingly combative of Bob McKenzie last year is something that is still being talked about, and if the Salt Lick boy can unlimber his arm with another year's good work and should be well for the Pirates on the mound.

Downing Issues Call For Football Practice

Weather permitting, spring football practice for the Morehead College varsity will get under way yesterday afternoon.

Coch Downing issued a call to all gridlers to report at the gymnasium yesterday for equipment. The spring practice will last for three weeks consisting chiefly of fundamentals, passing, kicking, and a few short scrimmages between the "Blues" and "Gold" elevens.

Approximately 40 candidates are expected to report. This year's team will be composed, for the most part of sophomores. Coach Downing said it would not be surprising if 9 of his 11 would be from last year's freshman team, which lost but one game—that to the University of Kentucky Kittens.

Legion Offers Second Wrestling Card Tonight At High School Gym

The American Legion, post No. 126, will sponsor their second wrestling match of the year at the Morehead High School gymnasium this evening.

Paul Hanson, 171, up and coming middleweight from West Liberty will battle Buck Jones, 172, Hazard, in the main event, but 2 of 3 falls, 2 hour time limit.

In the semi-final bout of 3 falls, 1 hour time limit, Johnny Mastey, a highly regarded wrestler from Cincinnati is likely to have his hands full with Bill Hammeck, 154.

A good opening match is scheduled, pitting Joe Nicholson, 150, of Louisville against Pat Carey, 150, of Cincinnati.

The matches are second of the spring series that will be staged every two weeks. The first, held 2 weeks ago, provided a new entertainment for local sport followers.

Admission price will remain the same at 10 cents, plus state tax, with ladies being admitted free.

There are many who would like to see Morehead lose its franchise. These are clubs that have been continually buffeted about by the superior Pirates, and would like to come in and take away her star players. Morehead has the natural baseball talent at home, and this will mean much in the long run. Imported talent has proved unsatisfactory in many cases, as was amply demonstrated on more than one team last year.

XAVIER HIWINS NATIONAL NET CHAMPIONSHIP

In a thrill-packed final that saw the lead change four times, St. Xavier of Louisville, Ky., won the National Catholic high school championship Sunday night by defeating St. Kil, Chicago, 29 to 24. The half score was tied at 12.

St. Xavier went through the National Tournament with only one close call, losing out St. Francis 26-25. In Philip, Beverman, St. X. presented the best shot in the entire tournament while Lanford was the outstanding center. Outstanding in St. Xavier's achievements was a 25 to 6 triumph over the highly regarded Sioux Indians.

St. X won the state tournament in 1926 and went on to cop the National title. They duplicated that feat this year.

LETCHER AND FLOYD FIVES GAIN FINAL IN TOURNAMENT

Letcher and Floyd Counties, represented by fast breaking basketball teams and boasting players that now show promise of varsity material advanced into the finals of the inter-mural basketball tournament at the College today. The sole survivors of 16 starting teams, Letcher topped Rowan, one of the pre-tournament favorites, in the semi-finals. The championship game will be played later in the week.

TOWN GIRLS LOSE
In the first round of the girls inter-mural tournament, under the sponsorship of Miss Ernestine Troome, director of Women's physical education at the college, Alle Young Hill defeated the Town girls by 15-7.

SPORT . . . SLANTS

The Little Six High School Conference may have found its salvation in reorganizing. If the 10 schools that are mentioned as probable members, actually join, the loop will probably continue.

Under the old plan the Little Six was dropped. Interest had waned. That some of the better teams and largest schools had tendered their resignation. The addition of Catlettburg and Breckinridge Triangles School, both boasting strong athletics, would strengthen the organization considerably.

Several Morehead baseball fans are expected to go to Flemingsburg Friday evening to attend the meeting of managers and officers of the Kentucky State Baseball League. Of prime interest to the group will be the schedule that is to be adopted. The managers first decide on more feasible of several proposed schedules and then draw pieces. Until that time it will not be known whom will play whom in the opening game. Last year Morehead opened their season at Mayville and lost.

From a financial viewpoint the advantage of having the first game at home is important. All parks are expected to have fitting ceremonies for the opening games.

The loss of baseball as a sport at Morehead College this year was necessary because the Eagles could not arrange a suitable schedule. Morehead has held on to the sport year after year, but there must come a breaking point, and with all other schools abandoning the sport in favor of track, tennis and intramural sports it is imperative that the natural be imperative that the Morehead Athletic Department follow their example.

It is just about time now for the county ball conference to start their annual drive for teams. The sport has its declining last year, and proved a real boon for the business man. It might be added that the Independent expects to be represented this year in the diamond ball game if any places are left vacant.

PLANS MADE TO FORM ORCHESTRA AT COLLEGE

Morehead State Teachers College is looking forward to the formal inauguration of the orchestra which is being organized by Keith Davis, instructor in violin in the music department at the college.

More than thirty-five prospective members reported at the first practices and at the last meeting on Tuesday night of last week several more were present.

Several faculty members will be in the orchestra and any others who are interested are invited to become members of the new organization.

MOREHEAD HIGH SCHOOLS JOIN ATHLETIC LOOP

Eight schools obtained charters or membership in a High School Circuit, to be known as the East Kentucky Conference. At a meeting held at the Ashland Independent office in Ashland last night.

Both Morehead High, coached by Austin Eddle and Breckinridge Training School, represented by Coach Roy Holbrook joined the new loop.

The other six schools that are members are Olive Hill, Greenup, Boyd County, Catlettburg, Raceland and Russell. Superintendent Wayland of the Raceland school was elected as president and Roy Black, sports editor of the Independent, secretary-treasurer.

Grayson and Vanceburg were also invited to attend the meeting but were not represented. A limit on the number of teams to be taken in was not set.

All football games in the conference will be played on Friday afternoon, except where it is mutually agreed before the 2 contesting teams to play on another date.

The Little Eight Conference and its successor, the Little Six seemed headed for the scrap heap but a new and stronger high school circuit for the smaller teams in this section of Kentucky is expected to arise from the wreckage.

A meeting, to which ten schools have been invited to send representatives, was scheduled to be held in Ashland at the Independent office Tuesday night.

Schools invited to take a share in organizing the new conference are Catlettburg, Raceland, Greenup, Vanceburg, Boyd Co., Grayson, Olive Hill, Morehead High and Breckinridge Training School of Morehead.

The Little Eight Conference was organized in the spring of 1930 during the regional tournament at Morehead and began playing in football that fall.

Charter members were Morehead, High, Olive Hill, Prichard High of Grayson, Boyd Co., Coles Jr. High of Ashland, Raceland, Russell and Greenup.

Greenup had no basketball team for several years and Haldeman tentatively replaced that school for the hardware.

Later Colea of Ashland withdrew and McKell of Fullerton became a probationary member. Russell dropped out, cutting the number to seven and Greenup followed leaving six. With McKell, which later became suspended, only five schools took part in the past season and interest fell off completely.

SWEATERS, LETTERS GIVEN TO 10 BY COACH DOWNING

Seven jacket sweaters and 3 letters were awarded by the athletic department of the college this morning to members of the Eagles varsity basketball team. All ten were varsity men, but under a ruling of the department, sweaters are awarded only for the first year and the senior year.

Characterizing the season as successful, Coach Downing said he is proud to make the award. Jacket sweaters went to Fred Caudill, Morehead; Luster Oxley, Ashland; John Shuey, Illinois; Willard Johnson, Carr Creek; Roy Caudill, Morehead; John Rossin, Letters were awarded to William Ryan, Mayville; Doc Adams, Olive Hill; and John Francis, Carr Creek.

Chief leaders Loda Caudill and Harold Blair, both of Morehead, received sweaters with a megaphone across the letter.

This is the last year of play for Willard Johnson, Luster Oxley and Roy Caudill.

As was the rule in the Little 8, the new conference will accept only members with both basketball and football teams.

Having found the Little Eight and Little Six most beneficial to their athletic interests, several coaches still in that conference have agreed that the best method is to drop the old organization and reorganize, inviting in several new members. This gives them a conference but a new and stronger one.

Greenup County teams dominated the old conference in football, Russell winning three successive football championships before withdrawing. Raceland took it to the torch where Russell dropped it and has carried on for Greenup county with two straight grid championships.

Further laurels have gone to Greenup County in track, Greenup High winning the conference track meet the past two years, the only years it has been held.

College Eyes Spring Sport Program With Baseball Abolished

Morehead will, for the first time in the history of the college, be without a baseball team, having in its stead track and soft ball, it was stated by Coach G. D. Downing this week.

The reason for the change was given as a lack of a sufficient number of Morehead colleges to play baseball to secure a full schedule. It was also pointed out that in soft ball practically every student so desiring could take part in the sport where only a few would be able to participate in baseball.

It is probable, Coach Downing said that Morehead College will have a track team this year, and plans are already afoot to construct a cinder track at Jayne Memorial Stadium.

Morehead will not have a chess team this year unless more courts are built it was stated today. At present there are not enough courts to meet the demands of a team so it is probable that this sport will not begin until next year.

JR. MERCHANTS MAKE READY FOR NEW LEAGUE

A Junior Merchants Baseball League, comprising 10 teams in Central Kentucky is being organized. Morehead is one of the teams that is being invited for membership.

The first steps in the League were taken last year and were carried out successfully. The Morehead nine, composed of boys between 12 and 17 years of age, made a good record after a slow start, and should be back with one of the strongest aggregations this year.

Mt. Sterling, Owingsville, Flemingsburg, Paris, Carlisle, Vanceburg, Mayoville and Morehead will likely have teams in the League.

Prof. E. E. Hallis and Dr. J. G. Black, who are in charge of the Morehead State Teachers College Theatre, optimistically awaited this week a decision of the Supreme Council of the Motion Picture Industry Code, which last week heard their appeal of a ruling closing the show given by a Cincinnati G-venue Board.

The decision should have reached here more than a week ago. The delay was explained in that the secretary at New York handled the matter in California and it was probable she would not be back for some time.

Meanwhile the College show meretriciously operates on, and the abject pour in to a worthy cause.

A double blow of veto-overriding propositions was struck at the President when the House voted not only to pay the $2,000,000,000 soldiers bonus now but also to use the currency method of paying.

Applause and window rattling yelled grooved preliminary decisions which led to final passage of the Bonus bonus payment bill by a 218 to 69 vote.

The 207-to-206 choice of the Pat-the Vinson-American Legion bill created an uproar that sounded like a riot.

Myrtle Davidson Is Declared Queen, Doc Adams, King, of Winter Carnival

Mixt carnival spirit and glowing crowd, students at the Morehead State Teachers College crowned the 1935 carnival king and queen with fitting ceremony Saturday evening in the gymnasium.

Ray Adams, of Olive Hill, a senior in the new king, recording enough votes in the last day of voting to triumph over three other candidates, Myrtle Davidson, Hazard, was made queen, defeating four others in a more blanket finish.

Dean W. H. Vaughan placed the crown upon His Majesty and Her Highness while 800 loyal subjects looked on. He proclaimed them king and queen of Morehead College campus and designated that they should reign until March 1936—initially the same month that Presidents assume office.

The stately procession moved on the gymnasium floor with pomp and splendor—their coming signaled by the Herald, depicted by "Sunny-Boy" Graves, son of Dr. and Mrs. Roy E. Graves. The train bearers were Patty Young, Barbara Tolliver, Billie Rice and C. D. Downing, Jr. The crown bearers, Billy Vaughan and Allan Jones Kasee moved behind the procession. Lettie Pence was court jester.

Other nominees for the king and queen honor were court attendants. Attendants to the king included

A. L. Wetzel and wife, of West Virginia, to dead, Joe Lickwood of West Virginia 200 acres.

Nelle M. Cassidy, of Morehead to dead, Bowen County Realty Company, house and lot on Main Street.

W. T. Booth and wife, to dead, F. R. Burrows, a tract at Farmers.

Senator Clarence Nickell, ADDRESSES MEN'S CLUB MEET

Senator Clarence Nickell spoke on "The Tax System of Our Commonwealth" in an address before the Morehead Men's Club last Monday night. Like Dr. Terrell's recent discourse on "The Machine-Age," Senator Nickell's talk provoked active and interested discussion and the speaker showed himself, not only informed on the present "multiplex-system," but also very capable of suggesting certain much-needed and intelligent reforms.

Jarrell Vinson of Louisa; Irvin Triplett, Paducah, Ohio, and Frank W. Whitburg, Ellettsville finished in that order in the voting.

Her Highness, Queen Davidson, was attended by Messrs. William Russell; Louis Crouffill, Morehead; Nellie Conroy, Morehead; Tompa Kenny, Fullerton; and Avonin Crouchwater, Ashland. They, however, finished in that order.

The crowning of the Morehead king and queen is an annual event at the college and one of the season's social highlights, sponsored by the Nivastatin and Campus Clubs. The following this year was closed this it has ever been before, the campaign managers launching their race two days before the election.

Miss Einar Robinson, assistant Dean of Women, designated the Winter Carnival and was the leader in the successful crowning ceremonies this year.

Queen Davidson defeated Court attendant McKnight by only fifty votes or perhaps—since the balloting was done with U. S. copper Davidson received over 70,000 votes.

King Adams and Queen Davidson succeeded Claude Clayton, Morehead and Marianna Thomas, Paintsville, to the throne.

A. L. Wetzel and wife, of West Virginia, to dead, Joe Lickwood of West Virginia 200 acres.

Nelle M. Cassidy, of Morehead to dead, Bowen County Realty Company, house and lot on Main Street.
