JAMES WALKER KILLED

Both Legs Cut Off While Coupling Cars.

James Walker, aged about 35 years, and who resided at Old Olive Hill, with a wife and two children, met with a horrible death this morning (Thursday) at about 2:30 while coupling on the upper yards, near Qualls & Denu's store. In some manner he fell between the cars, the wheels of which cut off a leg below the knee, ground and mashed the other leg between the knee and body and cutting off one arm just below the shoulder. The engineer failing to get signal to move, went up the track to investigate and found Walker in the condition as above. Walker lived only a short time after the accident, and died offering up an earnest supplication to his Maker while conveying him to his home. Mr. Walker had only been breaking on the C. & O. about two weeks. He was a good citizen, honest, sober and industrious and had many warm friends here.

All Sorts.

Last Saturday evening Mr. Kamp Gee, of Cory Branch, and a Miss Whitt, of Elliott county, were united in marriage. On Monday night following a number of the groom's friends called at his home with shot guns and bells. They shot great holes in the moonlight, while the music of the bells reverberated through the hills. In response to this greeting the groom appeared and graciously presented the boys with candy and cigars, after which they wished him a "happy good night" and retired.

Farmers in this section are rapidly recognizing the fact that if they get valuable crops from the soil they must feed the soil. Those who are doing this are getting highly satisfactory crops in return. If you want confirmation of this statement ask Mr. B. S. HITCHINS of this city who has raised one hundred and twenty-six bushels of corn per acre on an old field that a short time ago was as poor and unproductive as any in Carter county.

Needed Reform

Persons who receive pensions from the national government are receiving notice that hereafter the voucher system of payment will be discontinued and that they will receive their checks direct from the department, without the necessity of signing vouchers and acknowledging their signatures before notaries public or officers of similar authority.

The veterans will greatly benefit by the change as they will get their checks earlier, not have to wait until the vouchers return to Washington and checks are made out and mailed again.

The Owls in Town

The Owls are in town. This is a fraternal organization that has over 250,000 membership in the United States, and is growing very rapidly. Messrs. Kitchens and Hall, the organizers are here for the purpose of building a Nest of Owls, and are meeting with fair success. An investigation may mean much to you. These gentlemen will gladly give you any information.

Cannot Support Taft For President

Paducah, Ky., Sept. 24.—As a climax to a meeting filled with wrangling and dissatisfaction between the two factions of the Republican party, County Chairman David Browning offered his resignation last night and it was accepted. He explained that his purpose in resigning was to bring about harmony in the party, if possible, and because of the non-support of many Republicans and the Republican newspaper, with his resignation he filed two written reasons. One is that he is under the civil service rules.

His second reason is that he cannot support President Taft in his race for election because he does not approve of the fraudulent manner in which he obtained his nomination. Mr. Browning said that he was not a member of the Progressive party, but desired to be free and vote for the man of his choice. It is well known for several months that Chairman Browning really endorsed Col. Roosevelt but he claimed his allegiance to the Republican party. At the organization of the Progressive party he was selected as a committeeman from Kentucky.

Business Men's Association.

A large number of towns much smaller than Olive Hill have businessmen's organizations. These organizations meet at least once a week, when its members discuss the needs of the town, what can be done to improve its conditions, devise plans and ways and means to induce home seekers to locate therein, how to build up the town, improve her streets, pavements and how to make it attractive, and many other things of like nature are discussed.

Olive Hill needs such an organization. Her citizens need to get to know each other, get better acquainted and more neighborly. Much can be done for the town through these meetings and organization. The doctors, the preachers, the merchants, the lawyers, the mechanics, and the laboring men—all should get together and go to work for the betterment of the town and community.

Nothing like a community of interests. This kind of an organization could work wonders for Olive Hill, and self-interests were left at home while meeting was going on. There are many things that could be secured that would materially build up this place. An ice factory, a laundry, a bakery, a cannery factory, electric light plant, water works, sewerage and sanitation. Olive Hill needs sanitation badly; needs water works; needs street lights. They can be had easily. Let's organize them. Let's organize a Business Men's League. Let's do something and somebody more than we are.

Who will be the first man to start the ball a rolling?

New Electric Line

Mayfield, Ky., Sept. 25.—The citizens of Murray and Calloway county held a meeting and made up the necessary cash to assist in the survey being made from Mayfield to Murray by the Kentucky Southwestern Electric Company.

The Death Penalty

Governor McCreary has fixed Friday, September 27th, as the date for the electrocution of Jas. and Chas. Smith, the two negro murderers who were sentenced to death in the Mason circuit court at Maysville about a year ago.

"ARE YOU FOR ROOSEVELT TOO?"

CONFEDERATE PENSIONS

So great has been the exaggerations concerning the vast amount of money the State would be called upon to pay in Confederate pensions that Governor McCreary says that the taxpayers and people of the State should know the truth. There have been but 212 applications for pensions to reach the pension board so far, and if every one of them is passed upon favorably it would take only $35,000 to pay them.

The Confederate pension department of Kentucky has made a ruling that no veteran is entitled to a pension who has children to support him. A number of applications has been rejected on this account and a rigid examination will be made of all the applications now pending to ascertain whether the applicants actually are in need of assistance from the state.

No Confederate pensions will be paid out of the State treasury until after the fifth of November next.

A Mean Trick

Bill Johnson left Kentucky for North Dakota seven or eight years ago. Last week he wandered back into his home town driving a black yellow mustang hitched to a covered wagon, behind which was tied a scrawny brindle calf. An old acquaintance met him as he drove into town, and after the usual greetings, asked:

"You didn't bring that calf all the way from Dakota, did you?" "Naw," drawled Bill. "Met a feller going 'em there as I come down from the river an' offered him forty acres of land for the critter, but when I found he couldn't read I worked off eighty acres on him. That calf is a bargain, I tell ye!"

Is It Legal?

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Sept. 23.—The local option election, which comes off in Montgomery county on September 30, has begun to be interesting, and much interest is manifested throughout the county. The "drys" will hold meetings in every precinct in the county the coming week. From all outward signs the whisky men are letting the election go by default, alleging that the call is illegal and therefore if the county votes "dry" they will go into the court.

A Slick Trick

A mean trick was perpetrated by Judge Ben Cassidy on September 7, upon his numerous friends here, when he stealthily and candidly stole away and got married. This happy event took place at the church at Lexington, near here on Saturday, September 7, 1912, where he led to the altar Mrs. Alice Sandize, a highly respected and intelligent lady of that place.

The Judge, while suspected of having a matrimonial bee buzzing in his bonnet for some weeks, slipped up on his friends, wedded his lady love, and had the impudence to deny, in a way, that it was really a fact.

However, the Judge has been forgiven, upon the promise that he will never be guilty of the like again, and his many friends wish him and his bride a happy, prosperous life.

A Mile of Road

The road leading from the old brick yard to the end of the corporation line on Main street has been surveyed, and an estimate of the cost of building a first-class road through Olive Hill will be made, after which work will begin in its construction, we learn. It will be built by the town, and is the proper move. We also learn the county will continue the road to Grayson, building a good substantial road from Olive Hill to the county seat. This road will mean much to both towns and should have been built long ago. However there will be no kick on that account.

Seriously Injured

The many friends of C. A. Ireland will remember the details of the serious accident which befell him at Mt. Sterling, on last Tuesday. His skull was fractured at the base of the brain by being struck on the head by a large piece of machinery.

He had gone to Middleport, with his family on a visit to his parents there.

Fire Farm For Sale.

The Counts real estate agency has a very fine farm for sale, located in Rowan county. This farm is rich, very productive, has all the buildings necessary, and is for sale for less than half its value.

TO ELECTROCUTE TWO ALLENS

Court Sentences Floyd and Claude to Chair

Wytheville, Va., Sept. 23.—Floyd Allen and his nephew, Claude two leaders of the gang that shot up the Hillsville courthouse, were brought into court here yesterday and sentenced to be electrocuted on November, 22.

Transfer Allen Trials.

Hillsville, Va., Sept. 25.—Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards, the mountain gunmen, were arraigned here today in the same court room where on March 14 five lives were snuffed out in a shooting affray, of which they are alleged to have been the ring-leaders.

By consent of lawyers on both sides their trials were transferred to Wytheville.

Plead in Vain.

With tears streaming down his cheeks, Ed Morbey, a young Kentuckian, pleaded for mercy in the court of Magistrate Sturt Wednesday morning at Huntington, W. Va., asking that the drastic Johnson pistol law, for once, might be interpreted liberally so that he could go to his Boyd county home to care for his wife and six small children. Confronted by overwhelming evidence, Magistrate Sturt could do nothing, and the young fellow bemoaning his harsh fate was held to the grand jury in $500 bail.

TARR

Indictment For First Degree Murder

The grand jury returned an indictment Tuesday for first degree murder against Ben Tarr, the White Oak young man who shot Glenn Davis, of Fullerton, at Coney Island, the night of August 24.

Circuit Judge W. C. Halbert, of Vanceburg, announced he would seek to have the trial for Wednesday. The trial is expected to be one of the most interesting in the annals of the county and will be hotly contested. Attorney Prather, and Judge Woods, of Olive Hill have been engaged to defend Tarr, while Commonwealth Attorney W. T. Cole will be assisted in prosecuting the case by E. E. Fullerton, former Congressman Joe Bennett, Attorney R. S. Dinkle, of Catlettsburg, and District Attorney J. B. Wilhoit, of Ashland.

New Business Contemplated and on Tap

We have had it whispered into our ear that there were very strong possibilities of the establishment of a national bank here in the very near future, with ample capital.

It is stated on what is good authority that Olive Hill is to have a new and up-to-now hardware store backed by ample capital.

There is also some talk that of some pasties coming here and opening up a large furniture business, and will sell on the installment plan.

It is also stated that a party will soon open up a bowling alley, and also that a party is expected here with the view of opening a moving picture show. If all these things come to pass Olive Hill can begin to put on airs and winks at Ashland.

WHAT WE ARE DOING.

R. H. FAYNTER.

There isn't a failure, or even a shortage, of any sort of crop in the United States this year. According to government estimates of September 9th the value of our crops will be $10,000,000,000. The human mind staggers when attempting to grasp the significance of such an amount.

The Panama Canal is the biggest job ever undertaken and completed by any nation in the history of the world. The value of our crops this year would pay for and equip twenty such canals. Estimating our present population at one hundred million, this amount would build a ten thousand dollar mansion for each and every one. It would pay for the full capacity for one hundred freight cars. Now remember the above amount is exclusive of the value of other things produced in this country this year, too numerous to mention. Among them are, however, all the manufactured goods of various character; all the live stock less than a year old, poultry, eggs, milk, butter, cheese, feathers, fish, the increase in value in the growth of timber, increase in value of real estate, value of all minerals taken from the earth, and of all structures of every kind completed this year, all of which would amount perhaps to fifteen billion more, making a grand total of twenty-five billion dollars produced by the citizens of this country.

For other things worthy of note are, that steel and iron are in brisk demand and the bulk of orders are in excess of capacity to supply. There is a shortage of raw material, of coal and hands for the big iron and steel plants. The shortage of cars for the immense freight traffic, and a shortage of farm hands in the great agricultural regions of the west. This outline of business is greater in this country than ever before and the future, if we are actual each, is larger than ever in the past.

Throughout the European continent this year the crops are short and poor. European buyers are already in this country to buy our surplus product, and there is a ready market at good prices for all we have to sell.

Safe and sane legislation to meet the requirement of the present times and the progressive spirit of the American people, together with a clean and honest administration of useful laws, for as we inaugurate a "square deal" for all, will insure a continuance of our wonderful prosperity, the like of which the world has never seen before.

Under such conditions money stringencies and business panics will fade away like morning mists before the radiance of the cloudless sun and take their places in the dim lights of history to appear no more.

Eternal vigilance is the price of continued prosperity as well as the price of liberty. The fathers of this great Republic left their sons a wonderful heritage. Once they were slaves. Once too often they were commanded to bow down before the British lion. Then they prepared a terrific indictment against their masters and the Declaration of Independence. They clubbed the lion and kicked him across the sea. As soon as the winds of freedom had blown the stench of the lion away, the fathers prepared their will and called it the Constitution of the United States. Beyond all doubt this was and is the greatest human document ever written. There have been contests since. The elements of human passion and fear and greed and envy have entered into the contest. By reason of these contests it has been strengthened and hallowed, and though the original document is yellowed with age and worn by time it reposes in the sacred and sacred relic of all our great possessions. The fathers who wrote it and the thousands of deathless heroes who have defended it since are sleeping today beneath the pale mists of which man's memory is dim.

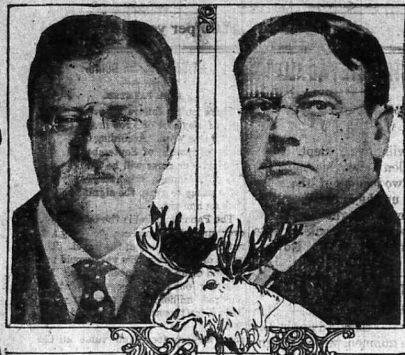

There is a contest now on the shores to the Pacific and the man above them is glorified by the gentle light of the sun, illumined by the rays of the moon. They sleep, but their contests are over, but the lesson they taught and the spirit they gave us, left us as they do, drawn in the hearts of millions of their loyal surviving sons.

One more contest is engaged in our country, the most important in our history, because of the numbers engaged and the principles involved. There is no question but that we are to do right and what is a best. It is only a question of our conduct in that contest, our way of the world.

THE PROGRESSIVE.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY BY
GEO. B. TERRELL, EDITOR.

FOR PRESIDENT, THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, HIRAM W. JOHNSON.

OUR PLATFORM OF PRINCIPLES

1. Thou shalt love thy country, which preserves thy household and protects (or should protect) thee against anarchy.
2. Thou shalt not yield thy manhood unto the keeping of any political or ecclesiastical party, nor worship any political idol, nor bow down to them, because their sins will be visited upon thy children and will be a curse to the country, even to the third and fourth generations.
3. Thou shalt not profane the righteousness of patriotism, nor use it as a cloak beneath which to hide the selfishness and the deceit of chauvinism.
4. Remember the day of election— it is sacred and must be kept holy.
5. Honor the virtue and the manliness of the ballot, and the sacredness of the ballot-box, that the centuries of Republic may be many and peaceful.

6. Thou shalt not murder the soul of man by failing to exercise thy rights of an enfranchised citizen.
7. Thou shalt not corrupt the purity of civic life by engaging politics or discharging political duties merely for office or power.
8. Thou shalt not encourage public officials to steal, commit inquiry or to be led into temptation by thy adhesion to the Nation's well-being.
9. Thou shalt not suffer greed for local reward and unrighteous rivalry to bear witness against thy citizenship.
10. Thou shalt not cover public places with offices for thyself that are not fitted to these are the first and great commandments: the other and last one is unto them.

11. Thou shalt respect and protect the rights of thy neighbor as thy own.
12. These two classes of commandments hang all the laws and the Constitution—the basis of our country's own.

Safe and Sane.

George Roberson, who has been mentioned in these columns because he is a Progressive Democrat, is his opponent, Mr. Butler, a Standpatter as well as a Jeweler—that is, when it comes to the crowd he was in. Mr. Butler's election would be a sad calamity to the Kentucky people as well as a calamity to the countries of Pike and Letcher. I have had enough of that. Mr. Kirk and Mr. Butler would be an improvement. We nothing against Mr. Butler personally, but as a citizen we are right, and it is the duty of good citizens, to oppose who are unfit for the position which they aspire to.

George Roberson is a democrat, a scholar, a gentleman of attainments, an able lawyer, an honest man, and a man not influenced by politics, lies, or by friend or foe, the path of rectitude and prudent opinions.

Nominate For Court of Appeals

William S. Lawwill, chairman of the Progressive State Committee, has called a convention to be held in Winchester, September 26, to nominate a candidate for the Court of Appeals in the Seventh appellate district. The convention will be held at the residence of the chairman of the district, held at 1 p. m.

Organization in Collapse.

The Taft-Bradley Republican organization in Louisville is in a state of collapse. That organization has presented to the Election Board a list of recommendations as election officers, and scores of their selections are former Republicans who are now affiliating with the Progressive movement. Not even in 1901, after the Sapp primary, was the Republican organization in Louisville in as apparently hopeless position as it is now under the leadership of Mr. Bradley.

The Progressive claim is that Roosevelt will poll two votes in Louisville to one for Taft.

John Calhoun Wrong.

We have been told that John C. C. Mayo said that Judge Roberson of Pike was too poor to be honest. John was as poor as a church mouse once upon a time, and possibly he is measuring men in his own peck measure. Mr. Mayo can not point to a single instance of dishonesty on the part of Judge Roberson, but John did not want the Judge appointed to the bench of the new judiciary district of Pike and Letcher, because he knew that Judge Roberson could not be bought by the Consolidated Coal Co. of Jenkins, a company of which John C. C. Mayo is a part; but Mr. Mayo did want a certain Republican appointed—and why?

Well, John, we have known some rich men who were not any too honest.

THE CONSERVATIVES

Governor Wilson does not think if Mr. Roosevelt is elected that he can do anything to carry out the party contract. He believes that the President would be bound, and possibly gagged, by the conflicting elements of congress. He could not count upon the necessary support to make the pledges good.

In this estimate of the third party's prospects, Mr. Wilson gives a clue to his political philosophy. For if he himself were elected, he would meet with just about the same amount of opposition in congress. Even with the house with him, he would have an unfriendly senate. Thinking that Mr. Roosevelt could do nothing, he must assuredly have little faith that he himself could do more. Each would have very much the same chance in influencing legislation.

It is no part of Mr. Wilson's scheme to do anything in particular. He is running upon a platform which purposes regulating competition instead of regulating monopoly. And that is exactly what Mr. Taft has been doing. The Democratic program really then calls for no change in the trust policy. The platform also call for a reduction of the tariff, but in such a way that business shall not be disturbed, which is virtually saying that there shall be no change, inasmuch as all revision of the tariff inevitably disturb business.

Just Fooled Themselves

W. T. (Sonny) Stafford is a candidate for Congress on the Bull Moose ticket in the Tenth district. He has filed the necessary papers at Frankfort. John Langley has a fight on his hands. The Bull Moose leaders held a powwow in Louisville a few days ago and decided to go after Langley, who was one of the loudest Roosevelt men at the Taft convention in Chicago. He has since lined up with Taft, and the Roosevelt men are mad.—Louisiana News.

Oh, no; they are not mad, neither were they fooled in John Langley. He, like Judge Kirk, has been riding on both band wagons all the while. They just simply fooled themselves. Both these gentlemen are of the same calibre, but John is a little more so.

We hope you will appreciate this issue of The Progressive. Tell your neighbors about it.

Record of Standpatters.

You're still a standpatter, are you? Rather proud of it, too? Perhaps you don't know the company you are in as shown by the record of the Standpatters, beginning back a few thousand years. Well, here it is:

Who would not hearken to Noah, a preacher of righteousness, and were all drowned in the flood? The Standpatters.

Who refused to let the children of Israel go up out of the land of Egypt? The Standpatters.

Who had Daniel cast in the lion's den? The Standpatters.

Who compelled Galilee to recant his declaration that the earth revolved? The Standpatters.

Who put Columbus in prison after he had discovered a new world? The Standpatters.

Who after the globe had been circumnavigated, still insisted that it was flat? The Standpatters.

Who desired the introduction of the sewing machine, the self-binder and other labor-saving inventions? The Standpatters.

Who, North as well as South, opposed the abolition of slavery? The Standpatters.

Who opposed the building of the Panama Canal? The Standpatters.

Who have continually fought all legislation in the interest of the people? The Standpatters.

Who have always believed that a public trust meant private graft? The Standpatters.

Are YOU still a Standpatter? If you are, it is time for you to heed the injunction, "Come ye out from among them and be ye separate."

A Missouri editor says that Wilson is standing on his record; Taft is sitting on his and Roosevelt calls you a liar if you mention his.—Louisiana News.

That is not true; Roosevelt is standing and pushing on his own record, and the people are endorsing it by a large majority.

Had nature wanted to be mean to man she could have put wrinkles in his nose, making him look like an old sheep.

GOOD PRINTING.

The character of your Printed Matter makes an indelible impression—GOOD or BAD—upon those who see it. More people gauge your standing—the character and quality of product—your up-to-date-ness—by that than by any other thing; therefore, the need for the right kind of Printing.

Our hobby is good Printing—not fancy, fussy Printing—but good Printing, with character, quality and finish—the right type, right stock, right illustrations—all blended into a strong, dignified whole—the kind that will make a good impression for you.

Red Cross Shoe 1912-1913

Do This

It will be an experience you will always remember

Come in and see the new models of the Red Cross Shoe. Select the style you want. Stand in it—walk in it. At your first step you will say you did not believe there could be such a difference—that you could have such a sense of freedom and energy.

In the Red Cross Shoe you never know that burning and binding—that irritating ache which stiff soled shoes have caused you. The sole of the Red Cross Shoe is tanned by the Special Red Cross Process which retains all the natural flexibility of the leather. Though of regular thickness, this sole moves with your foot just like a perfect fitting glove moves with your hand.

Start the day in trim fitting Red Cross boots. Stand if you must, for hours at a time—shop all afternoon. You will never once say "If I were only home so I could get my shoes off!"

See for yourself. Come in and let us show you the newest models in all leathers and materials.

Conservation.

We heartily favor the policy of conservation, and we pledge our party to protect the national forests without hindering their legitimate use for the benefit of all the people. Agricultural lands in the national forests should remain open to the genuine settler. Conservation will not retard legitimate development.

We recognize the vital importance of good roads, and we pledge our party to foster their extension in every section of the country, and we favor the early construction of national highways. We also favor the extension of the rural free delivery system.

The coal and other natural resources of Alaska should be opened to development at once. We demand that the coal fields be sold not given away except under the homestead law, but while held in government ownership shall be opened to use probably upon liberal terms requiring immediate development.

Waterways.

The rivers of the United States are the natural arteries of this continent. We demand that they shall be opened to traffic as indispensable parts of a great national wide system of transportation in which the Panama canal will be the central link, thus enabling the whole interior of this continent to be opened to the Atlantic and Pacific seaboard in the benefit derived from the canals. It is a national obligation to develop our rivers, and especially the Mississippi and its tributaries, without undue restrictions on the general plan.

The Panama canal, built and paid for by the American people, should be used primarily for their benefit. We demand that the canal be kept open to all ships, and that the trans-isthmian route be maintained by maintaining a competition with them; that ships directly or indirectly controlled by the United States or railroad corporations shall not be permitted to use the canal, and that all other ships engaged in coastwise trade shall pay no tolls.

Tariff.

We demand tariff revision. Primarily the benefit of any tariff should be disclosed in any extension of the tariff. We declare that no industry deserves protection which would not be profitable if operating in violation of federal law. Fair dealing toward the people requires an immediate downward revision of those schedules wherein duties are shown to be unjust or excessive.

We pledge ourselves to the establishment of a nonpartisan scientific tariff commission, reporting both to the president and to either branch of congress.

We believe that a commission should have plenary power to elicit information and for this purpose to prescribe a uniform system of accounting for the great protected industries. The work of the commission should not be restricted to the adoption of rates, but should include the general recognition of an excessive rate.

We condemn the Payne-Adrich bill as unjust to the people. The Republican organization is in the hands of those who have broken and want to break the promise of necessary downward revision. The Democratic party is committed to the destruction of the protective system through a tariff for revenue only, which would result in a heavy public burden, widespread industrial and commercial disaster. We demand the immediate repeal of the Payne-Adrich bill.

We believe in a graduated inheritance tax as a national means of equalizing the obligations of holders of property to government, and we hereby pledge our party to enact such a general law as will grade inheritances, returning to the states an equitable percentage of all amounts collected. We favor the ratification of the resulting agreement to the extent giving the government power to levy an income tax.

The Immigrant.

We denounce the fatal policy of indifference and neglect which has left our shores open to the immigration of those who come the prey of chance and cupidity. We favor governmental action to regulate the distribution of immigrants away from the congested cities, to rigidly supervise all private agencies dealing with them, and to promote their assimilation, education and advancement.

We pledge ourselves to a wise and just policy of postponing American soldiers and sailors and their widows and children by the federal government.

And we approve the policy of the southern states in granting pensions to the ex-Confederate soldiers and their widows and children.

We pledge our party to the immediate creation of a parole post with rates proportionate to distance and service.

Government Business Organization.

We pledge our party to reorganization of the business methods of the national government and a proper co-ordination of the federal bureaus which will increase the economy and efficiency of the government service, prevent duplications and secure returns to the taxpayers for every dollar expended.

On these principles and on the recognized desirability of uniting the progressive forces of war and reconstruction which shall unequivocally represent the progressive spirit and policy we appeal for the support of the people, and we stand without regard to previous political differences.

Peace and National Defense.

The Progressive party deplores the survival in our civilization of the barbaric spirit of warfare among nations, with its enormous waste of resources even in times of peace, and the consequent impairment of the life of the toiling masses. We pledge the party to its best endeavors to substitute judicial and other peaceful means of settling international differences.

We favor an international agreement for the limitation of naval forces. Pending such an agreement and the best means of preserving peace we pledge ourselves to maintain the present policy of building two battleships a year.

Tract No. 7.—Four lots, 200 feet by 100 feet, on public road to Gayson. Fairly good house, good barn, water and orchard and all under fence. 24 foot vein, now being utilized. This farm is in the fire city district, lays well and contains 100 acres. Price, $1,250 cash.

An acre near at Harrison, Lewis county, Ky., at Forks of three miles, church, I. O. O. F. and Junior Hall, public school building on said farm, 200 foot 2-story framedwelling, under fence, 25 acres in cultivation, 50 acres level. Price, $1000 cash, balance on payments. Will exchange for property in Olive Hill.

CONSERVATION.

We heartily favor the policy of conservation, and we pledge our party to protect the national forests without hindering their legitimate use for the benefit of all the people. Agricultural lands in the national forests should remain open to the genuine settler. Conservation will not retard legitimate development.

We recognize the vital importance of good roads, and we pledge our party to foster their extension in every section of the country, and we favor the early construction of national highways. We also favor the extension of the rural free delivery system.

The coal and other natural resources of Alaska should be opened to development at once. We demand that the coal fields be sold not given away except under the homestead law, but while held in government ownership shall be opened to use probably upon liberal terms requiring immediate development.

Waterways.

The rivers of the United States are the natural arteries of this continent. We demand that they shall be opened to traffic as indispensable parts of a great national wide system of transportation in which the Panama canal will be the central link, thus enabling the whole interior of this continent to be opened to the Atlantic and Pacific seaboard in the benefit derived from the canals. It is a national obligation to develop our rivers, and especially the Mississippi and its tributaries, without undue restrictions on the general plan.

The Panama canal, built and paid for by the American people, should be used primarily for their benefit. We demand that the canal be kept open to all ships, and that the trans-isthmian route be maintained by maintaining a competition with them; that ships directly or indirectly controlled by the United States or railroad corporations shall not be permitted to use the canal, and that all other ships engaged in coastwise trade shall pay no tolls.

Tariff.

We demand tariff revision. Primarily the benefit of any tariff should be disclosed in any extension of the tariff. We declare that no industry deserves protection which would not be profitable if operating in violation of federal law. Fair dealing toward the people requires an immediate downward revision of those schedules wherein duties are shown to be unjust or excessive.

We pledge ourselves to the establishment of a nonpartisan scientific tariff commission, reporting both to the president and to either branch of congress.

We believe that a commission should have plenary power to elicit information and for this purpose to prescribe a uniform system of accounting for the great protected industries. The work of the commission should not be restricted to the adoption of rates, but should include the general recognition of an excessive rate.

We condemn the Payne-Adrich bill as unjust to the people. The Republican organization is in the hands of those who have broken and want to break the promise of necessary downward revision. The Democratic party is committed to the destruction of the protective system through a tariff for revenue only, which would result in a heavy public burden, widespread industrial and commercial disaster. We demand the immediate repeal of the Payne-Adrich bill.

We believe in a graduated inheritance tax as a national means of equalizing the obligations of holders of property to government, and we hereby pledge our party to enact such a general law as will grade inheritances, returning to the states an equitable percentage of all amounts collected. We favor the ratification of the resulting agreement to the extent giving the government power to levy an income tax.

The Immigrant.

We denounce the fatal policy of indifference and neglect which has left our shores open to the immigration of those who come the prey of chance and cupidity. We favor governmental action to regulate the distribution of immigrants away from the congested cities, to rigidly supervise all private agencies dealing with them, and to promote their assimilation, education and advancement.

We pledge ourselves to a wise and just policy of postponing American soldiers and sailors and their widows and children by the federal government.

And we approve the policy of the southern states in granting pensions to the ex-Confederate soldiers and their widows and children.

We pledge our party to the immediate creation of a parole post with rates proportionate to distance and service.

Government Business Organization.

We pledge our party to reorganization of the business methods of the national government and a proper co-ordination of the federal bureaus which will increase the economy and efficiency of the government service, prevent duplications and secure returns to the taxpayers for every dollar expended.

On these principles and on the recognized desirability of uniting the progressive forces of war and reconstruction which shall unequivocally represent the progressive spirit and policy we appeal for the support of the people, and we stand without regard to previous political differences.

Peace and National Defense.

The Progressive party deplores the survival in our civilization of the barbaric spirit of warfare among nations, with its enormous waste of resources even in times of peace, and the consequent impairment of the life of the toiling masses. We pledge the party to its best endeavors to substitute judicial and other peaceful means of settling international differences.

We favor an international agreement for the limitation of naval forces. Pending such an agreement and the best means of preserving peace we pledge ourselves to maintain the present policy of building two battleships a year.

COUNTRY LIFE, THE AMERICAN PROGRESSIVE PARTY ASSOCIATION

THEODORE ROOSEVELT, NATIONAL PROGRESSIVE PARTY'S CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT.

The conscience of the people in a time of grave national problems has called into being a new party, born of the nation's awakened sense of justice.

We of the Progressive party here dedicate ourselves to the fulfillment of the duties laid upon us by our fathers to maintain a government of the people and for the people, whose foundations they laid.

We hold, with Thomas Jefferson and Abraham Lincoln, that the people are the masters of their constitution. To fulfill its purposes and to safeguard it from those who by perversion of its intent would convert it into an instrument of injustice.

This country belongs to the people who inhabit it. Political parties exist to execute the will of the people. From these parties both the old parties have turned aside. Behind the ostensible government hide ambitious politicians, who acknowledge no responsibility to the people, but whose business and politics is the first task of the statemanship of the day.

The deliberate betrayal of its trust by the Republican party, the fatal incapacity of the Democratic party to deal with the new issues of the new time, have compelled the people to forge a new instrument of government through which they give effect to their will in laws and institutions.

contempt in labor disputes, except when such contempt was committed in the actual presence of the court or so near thereto as to interfere with the proper administration of justice, should have a right to trial by jury.

The supreme duty of the nation is the conservation of human resources. We pledge ourselves to work unceasingly for the enactment of legislation looking to the prevention of industrial accidents, occupational diseases, overwork, involuntary unemployment and other injurious effects incident to modern industry.

The fixing of a minimum safety and health standards for the various occupations, the prohibition of child labor, minimum wage standards for working women, the general prohibition of night work for women and the establishment of an eight hour day for women and young men, the eight hour day for all workers, the eight hour day in continuous twenty-four hour industries, the abolition of convict contract labor system, substituting a system of prison industries, the pledge of minimum consumption only and the application of prisoners' earnings to the support of their dependent families, publicly to report wages, hours and conditions of labor, full reports upon industrial accidents and diseases and the opening to public inspection of all tallies, weights, measures and check systems on the premises.

We pledge our party to establish a department of labor.

Country Life.

The development and prosperity of country life are as important to the people as life in the cities as they are to the farmers.

We pledge our party to foster the development of agricultural credit and co-operation, the teaching of agriculture in schools, agricultural college extension, the use of mechanical power on the farm and to re-establish the country life commission.

The high cost of living is due partly to the artificial nature of the tariff and partly to natural and partly to artificial causes.

To remedy these conditions requires the fullest information and, based on this information, the most careful supervision and control to remove all the artificial causes, to pledge our party to the fullest and immediate inquiry and to immediate action to deal with every such locality elsewhere.

We favor the union of all the existing agricultural and farm organizations with the public health into a single national health service without discrimination against or for any one set of therapeutic methods, schools of medicine or schools of pharmacy.

Business.

We demand that the test of true prosperity shall be the benefits conferred thereby on all the citizens, not confined to individuals or classes, and that the test of the quality of the work shall be the ability to better to serve the public.

We therefore demand a strong national regulation of interstate corporations. We do not fear commercial power, but we insist that it shall be exercised openly, under publicity, supervision and regulation of the most efficient sort, which will preserve it good while eradicating and preventing its ill.

To that end we urge the establishment of a strong federal administrative commission, which shall have as its duty to maintain permanent active supervision over industrial corporations engaged in interstate commerce, and which shall be of public importance, doing for them what the government has done for the national banks and what is now done for the railroads by the interstate commerce commission. Such a commission must enforce the complete publicity of those corporations, transactions which are of public interest; must attack unfair competition, false capitalization and special privileges; must by continuous training, watchfulness and keep open equally to all the highways of interstate commerce.

We pledge our party to secure to the interstate commerce commission the power to value the physical property of railroads. We demand the abolition of the commerce clause.

Currency.

We believe there exists imperative need for prompt legislation for the improvement of our national currency system. We believe the present method of issuing money through private operators is harmful and unscientific. The issue of currency is fundamentally a government function, and the system should have as basic principles soundness and stability. The control should be lodged with the government and should be protected from domination or manipulation by Wall street or any special interest.

We are opposed to the so-called silver currency bill because its provisions would place our currency and credit system in the hands of a few individuals not subject to effective public control.

THE man who advertises sells the most goods, he buys most raw material, and so gets the lowest market price for large quantities.

THE man who advertises manufactures on a large scale, consequently can afford the latest and most improved machinery, hire the most skilled labor and get the lowest freight rates.

BUY REASON of the large scales created by advertising his goods are bound to be fresh.

ADVERTISING makes it easy for the local dealer. The reader learns the story of the goods and makes inquiry, thus the local dealer gets more customers and sells out his stock in short order.

ADVERTISING, by increasing sales, reduces the cost of both production and selling. It lets both the merchant and local dealer turn their money quickly. Quick sales and small profits is the rule with every successful advertiser.

ALL THESE statements are actual facts and show why advertising should reduce the cost to the consumer. This is especially so with the reputable advertisers who patronize the columns of THE PROGRESSIVE and who are guaranteed by us to give you a square deal.

A Covenant With the People.

This declaration is our covenant with the people, and we hereby bind the party and its candidates to state and nation to the pledges made herein.

The candidate who declares for it, at primaries for the nomination of state and national officers, for nation wide primaries for candidates for the presidency, for the direct election of United States senators by the people, and we urge on the states the policy of the short ballot with responsibility to the people, as demanded by the initiative, referendum and recall.

The Progressive party pledges itself to provide a more easy and expeditious method of amending the federal constitution, to limit the term of office of the president, and later by amendment of the constitution, if it is found necessary, to provide for binding over effective national jurisdiction those problems which are placed beyond reach of the individual states.

The extreme insistence on states' rights by the Democratic party in the Baltimore platform demonstrates anew its inability to understand the vital questions of the day, and its inability to administer the affairs of a union of states which have in all essential respects become one people.

Equal Suffrage.

The Progressive party, believing that no people can justly claim to be a free democracy which denies political rights on account of sex, pledges itself to the task of securing equal suffrage to men and women alike.

We pledge our party to legislation that will compel strict limitation of all campaign contributions and expenses and to the abolition of both before as well as after primary and elections.

We pledge our party to the registration of lobbyists, publicity of committee members' expenses in foreign affairs, and recording of all votes in committee and forbidding federal appointment of men holding offices as national political organizations or taking part as officers or managers in political organizations.

The Progressive party demands such restrictions of the officers of the courts as shall leave to the people the ultimate authority to determine fundamental questions of social welfare and public policy.

To secure this end it pledges itself to propose:

First.—That when an act passed under the legislative power of the state is held unconstitutional under the state constitution by the courts the people, after an appeal for declaration, shall have an opportunity to vote on the question whether they desire the act to become law notwithstanding such decision.

Second.—That every bill of a state declaring an appellate court of a state declaring an act of the legislature unconstitutional on ground of its violation of the federal constitution shall be subject to the same right of referendum as is now accorded to laws of a state.

Third.—That no act of a state declaring an act of the legislature unconstitutional on ground of its violation of the federal constitution shall be subject to the same right of referendum as is now accorded to laws of a state.

Government Business Organization.

We pledge our party to reorganization of the business methods of the national government and a proper co-ordination of the federal bureaus which will increase the economy and efficiency of the government service, prevent duplications and secure returns to the taxpayers for every dollar expended.

On these principles and on the recognized desirability of uniting the progressive forces of war and reconstruction which shall unequivocally represent the progressive spirit and policy we appeal for the support of the people, and we stand without regard to previous political differences.
