Cock of the Walk.

AN EMBLEM.

We use the above for the benefit of those who can't read, that they may understand the policy of the Inquirer. As will be noticed, this chicken is the guardian angel of the barn yard flock, though there is but one other visible to the natural eye.

OUR MASCOT.

THE OFFICE CAT.

This noble animal is the pet of the office force, and is the signal to the "posse" which has given our delinquent readers no end of trouble.

THE EDITOR.

WHERE THE DANGER LIES.

Fifteen years ago there was but one complaint made about the American girl. She possessed a pretty face. She was interesting. She was stylish. She was vivacious. She was witty. She was affectionate. She was everything but strong.

Indeed, she was the reverse of strong. Her pretty face and her very charms of head and heart only served to accentuate the fact that she was physically frail. She scarcely reached full bloom before she began to fade.

Now the complaint is that she is getting too strong. The pendulum is said to have swung too far the other way. She puts the shot, jumps the bar, punches the bag, kicks the ball, spars, fences, hunts and golfs. She is becoming so muscular that man passes before trusting his future in her snowy hands.

President Eliot of Harvard thinks that women are injuring themselves by violent exercise, but, of course, he has Boston women in mind. "Women," he says, "were not originally intended for such violent exercise as man, and some of the things that they go into must strain them. For women to put the shot is preposterous. There may be women living who are made in such a strange and unnatural way that it is not injurious for them to put the shot, but for the majority of women it would be enough to hurt them for life."

"Boating, also," he says, "is bad for women. Women's colleges do not have crews to any great extent, but the women who do go in, it is well not last long in their athletic life. Women's athletics are a good thing in moderation, but they should be kept within the limits of a good thing and will only hurt themselves by the excess."

What the women are doing in the way of athletics is not, perhaps, by increasing their feminine charms, but we do not find hereabouts that the exercise they are taking is hurting them. The only danger is that it may hurt the men who compete with them in the various walks of life.

The average young man of the period is not fit, of course, to enter into competition with women who put the shot. He is naturally averse to mingling unattended and unprotected among girls who are so much stronger than himself. If he has not had the advantages of his sisters in athletics, it cannot be wondered at that he is timorous in their presence, and in constant dread lest they may toss him in the air.

In the West this is where the danger lies. The athletic young women of these parts are not injuring themselves, apparently, but unless something is done to reduce the physical inequality of the sexes, either by checking the athletic young women, or giving the fragile young men a larger opportunity for gymnastics, it may happen that the latter in time will be deterred from suggesting marriage to the robust women of the superior kind.

The Rev. G. Brinley Morgan, rector of Christ Church, New Haven, who assisted at the wedding of the Duchess of Marlborough, tells the following story on himself: "One of the doctor's daughters, who was about 16 years old, found the habit of walking almost occasionally. Her father tried to break her of this accomplishment, telling her it was unhygienic and unbecoming, particularly in a minister's daughter. Finally one day he reproved her saying: 'Walk, don't you know that walking gives one a crowing habit always known to some bad girl?' 'Why, papa,' replied the child, 'has my nose as all it should be?' 'Walking girl,' said her father, 'and she says that when they are walking they are walking.'"

News of the Day.

At Lexington, John DeBreasou was accused of the murder of J. P. Montjoy.

The state board awarded Hunter a certificate of election by a unanimous vote.

The Academy of Music in Brook destroyed by fire, a total of $300,000.

Rev. Rutherford Douglas is spoken of as the possible president of Central University at Danville.

In the recent election the Socialists cast 40 votes and the Prohibitionists 26 votes in Bracken county.

A. B. Jones, of Berry, sold his crop of 12,000 pounds of tobacco to Cythians parties at 11 straight.

Z. R. Johnson a prominent citizen of Hilda, Rowan county, was killed by a C. & O. train near Preston last week.

Gov. Beckham is the only man in ninety-three years who has been twice elected. Isaac Shelby and James Garrard were the only two other Governors who were so honored.

It is probable that the next Legislature will be asked to further help the Home for old Confederates. At the time of the last appropriation it was supposed that the attendance by this time would be about fifty and that it would never be more than 100. There are now there 180 and they are cramped for room and for comfortable arrangements. Clark has no representative among the inmates.

Because Uncle Sam...

Because Uncle Sam, you the Alaska boundary dispute, Canada is in a huff and will refuse to take part in the St. Louis World's Fair.

A western minister, who goes to his church in a carriage on Sunday received an anonymous letter calling his attention to the fact that the Lord never rode to church in that manner. The minister read the letter from the pulpit, and then the writer will come to the pulpit and say, "I am glad to follow the Lord's example and come to church as the Lord entered Jerusalem."

"Where is that d—d shade, Mary?" asked a man of his wife as he entered the house the other day after a search for the implement. "I'll be d—d if I know, dear," she sweetly replied, and the reason went home with such a distinct thud that he raised his right hand on the spot and took an oath that he would never again point his lips with a profane word in her presence.—Ex

The late J. A. McNeill Whistler opposed every sort of cant. He championed on the other hand, many peculiar things. He believed, for instance, in cosmetic, and encouraged women always in the use of rouge, eye powder, Kohl and henna. He liked, in this connection, to tell about a rebuff that he once heard a young girl administer to a bishop. The bishop, somehow or other, discovered the young girl in the act of curling her hair with a heated silver rod, and he said to her: "My dear young lady, if God intended your hair to be curled, He would curl it Himself!" She rejoined: "He did curl it when I was a little girl, but now that I am grown up, He thinks I am able to look after it myself!"

AND NEWS GATHERER.

We would say these three and no more, but by a new process, which has cost us no little study: How to produce without cost, for the benefit of those who "take sell," but never pay, and those who do your eagerly, what has been paid for by their neighbor, we reproduce, by this peculiar method, our office force, which must be considered as our annual Christmas remembrance, if those who should, do not come to our aid and their relief.

A Visit to Chicago's Play Houses.

"The Editor and a Missourian."

Having been called to Chicago the past week to confer with the heads of the anti-strike magistrates...

The conference concluded. We found a few hours at our disposal, which we decided to spend in search of something to apply as panacea for neurasthenia...

In every corner we found big fatted democrats of a type so peculiar to that great city...

rapidly advancing city, but in conversation with Mr. Cleveland, we learned that the attractions for this week were "Queen of Hearts Adventure," "The Man who Dared, etc."

Chicago's presentation of life in its true sense, we would have done hours of play.

ROBERT H. DUNGAN.

Died at the residence of his brother in Bristol, Tennessee, Nov. 6th, 1897. Robert H. Dungan, aged 49 years, 1 month and 18 days...

he was attacked with illness, and was taken to Bristol, Tenn., where in a short time he died.

Col. Dungan was one of the best of his class of men, who naturally earned the confidence and friendship of any community into which they were thrown.

WHEREAS, Our worthy friend and gallant comrade, Col. R. H. Dungan, having fought life battle to a finish, has been transferred by the Great Command-in-Chief to that Army, where tents are spread beyond the river...

WHEREAS, Comrade Dungan was a brave true soldier of the South in the war between the States, was an honored member of the United States Army...

Resolved, That, though keenly feeling and deeply deploring the loss from our Camp and our community of one so kind, so gentle, so generous...

ZIBELINE COATS

Under Price, for Children.

A manufacturer has just sent us a fine lot of Zibeline Coats for Children of 3 to 16 years, at a price-cession that lets us sell them at $9.75 instead of $20.00 their real value. They are made in England, show the trimmings in gilt buttons, braid and stitching. Colors, navy, green, gray, red, tan and castor. Fine warm coats in the very tip-top of fashion.

STOCKING SATISFACTION.

If you're looking for comfort and durability in stockings, you'll find a greater quantity of each of these lines of Hosiery for Men, Women and Children, than you're apt to run across elsewhere. It's the way and where we buy that does it.

WOMAN'S STOCKING, 25c PAIR.—Imported fast black cotton medium weight. 2—American fast black cotton with unadorned heels, or all black. 3—Fast black fine Meo cotton, extra weight.

MAN'S HALF-HOSE, 25c PAIR.—Imported fast black cotton in medium or heavy weight. 2—Fast black cotton in medium or heavy weight. 3—Natural color merino medium or heavy weight.

CHILDREN'S STOCKING, 25c.—Extra heavy, fast black, reinforced heels and toes. 2—Fine Cashmere, tan top, full fashioned. 3—Pleeced cotton fast color, double heels, toes and knees.

Smart, Serviceable Skirts.

You'll acknowledge them equal to skirts you've seen at $7.50 though we can sell them at $6. They are made of plain and mixed meltons and other manly textures, in good style with flare at bust and even bottom of ruffles, buttons and stitching. And if you have other wishes in the matter of Separate Skirts remember that we have a handsome, more economical stock from which to choose. Of course this is in the same manner of Coats and Skirts. At least don't buy in justice to yourself, until you see our stock.

But let all those who use this as an object lesson, remember that the outstanding candidate in the two previous races and not the hindmost man on the ticket. Carol Roberson of Peed, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Roberson and one of Mason county's best young men, with his bride to-be, Miss Elizabeth Foot, one of our prettiest and most attractive young women, boarded the train at this place this morning enroute to Maysville where they were married by Rev. Horney of Maysville at the Central Hotel in that city at 11 o'clock. They left for Cincinnati via the C. & O., where they will remain several days. There is a move on foot to construct an Electric Road from Paris via Millersburg, Carlisle, Blue Licks, Oakwoods, Ewing and Flemingsburg to Maysville. Wm. L. Watson, a capitalist of Ashland, accompanied by Cap. Wm. Bryant, Superintendent of the Ashland Steel Works, and Dr. Martin, of Carlisle, was in this section Tuesday looking into the advisability of the project. We championed the cause of a few weeks ago when a total prohibition to support him, pledging ourselves as the sacrifice if he was not a sober man during his official career. Upon this pledge a few of them supported him, but the greater number voted against him yet he won. He has carried to this day, though he does not say he should have become a weak, except to judge by others, but we say he stands today the most popular man in the county, and he is a total abstainer or non-drinker. We say to you, however, something for one who has tried to make the people believe was beyond hope, that the total prohibition is the best thing for our country. We would consider him a weak man if he were not a total abstainer, but we say he stands today the most popular man in the county, and he is a total abstainer or non-drinker. We say to you, however, something for one who has tried to make the people believe was beyond hope, that the total prohibition is the best thing for our country.

Deering, pastor of the Methodist Church at Peed. The bride was Miss Dow Bennett, daughter of Mr. J. S. Gorman, and the groom was Mr. E. Barndt, of Germantown. The wedding was a quiet affair, and the bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and a few friends. The ceremony was held at 11 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. S. Gorman, of Germantown.

Miss Edith Hagries is visiting relatives and friends in Lexington this week.

Uncle Jack Allen has been on the sick list for a few days, but is now better. Luther Moore, the blacksmith, has been on the sick list for a few days, but is now able to work again. John Lewis Parsons and wife of Wheelersburg, are here on a visit to their many friends and to look after their interest at this place. Mrs. Will Mitchell is very low with pneumonia and but little hopes of her recovery. Lee McGowan came down from Paris Saturday night to visit his mother and family. He is accompanied with one of the papers there. Elder Hela Metcalf will preach at Pleasant Ridge Church on Friday night before the second Sunday in December. Charles Kozley does not seem to improve very much. His suffering from his leg and ankle is very intense. Blanch, the little daughter, has gotten well, but the babe has been very restless for several days. Mrs. Kozley is well, though she has her hands and feet full. May H., who tempests the winds to the storm lands of earth tremor them for her.

THE LAST RACE.

Misses Mary and Eva Roberson of Maysville are visiting relatives here. Miss Benish Reed and Duke Browning eloped to West Union, O., last week and were married. Charles Whitley and bride were guests of his brother Edward Whitley recently. Sterling Talley spent Saturday night and Sunday with relatives at Lawrence Creek. Mr. Charley Rogers of Germantown is spending a few days with friends here. The Williams Brothers were gathered up Friday last week paying in debts for some time. Rev. W. P. Horner and wife and Dr. J. H. Kewell and wife of Maysville and Mr. Charles Souley of Hilltop and Mrs. Ed. Umstead and Mrs. T. B. Roberson were the pleasant guests of Mr. F. Smith and family Tuesday. Misses Lida and Lucy Williams entertained with a Pinet party Thursday evening. Rev. Giddens and Miss Anna Myall of Maysville and Rev. Depp and Mrs. A. C. Dawson of Fairview and Mr. C. W. Williams and wife spent Friday with Mrs. W. J. Talley and family. Marvin Wray, cousin of the editor, disappeared from his home Saturday last, and has not been seen since. He is said to have been about 37. He was one of the wealthiest and best young men in his district, about 20 years of age. He had been in the army and had been in the business trade. Mr. Wray is said to have been missing for some time, and his family is very anxious to hear from him.

DEED.

Robert McCall of Cincinnati visited his sister Mrs. W. J. Talley last week.

Capt. W. G. Dearing.

The gentleman to whom we refer and print what pertains to be his likeness, will, I am sure, not take offense at our using such a miserable misrepresentation, for he has been in politics, and can, with good grace, accept any kind of job. But the Captain has an estimable wife—one among the best we have ever met, and to her we offer the apology and know in advance that she will accept it. "Cap" as he is familiarly known, is one of our leading farmers, not only in this county, but Kentucky; is an extensive landowner and is generally superintending his farming interest. As a politician he has been equal in his district. He won never lose his rank on the Democratic ticket, but changing his views on the money question he is "lined" the wrong side to win—but he is compensated for everything he has for.

The Ewing Star Chapter No. 88, O. E. S., meets in this city on Saturday, Dec. 12th, to elect officers for the ensuing year. All the members are requested to be present. Mrs. W. J. Talley and family.

Since the election there is considerable talk over the State of changing the form of the ballot. It is proposed to take the device off from the top of the column which would require more education and intelligence to vote it. Other forms have been suggested, all of which it is claimed could be adopted without an amendment to the State Constitution. There is apparent dissatisfaction with the present form and there are numbers of people who prefer to return to the old way of voting. Their sentiments in broad daylight.—LARGE COURSE.—Herald.

A Letter From Indiana.

Bloomed, Ind., Nov. 23, 1903. J. D. Wyatt, Ewing, Ky. Am still having a great time in the far-famed "gas-belt" of the "Hoosier State." Have been preaching each Sunday for my brother during my stay and so town here, and visiting nearby towns and cities. I tell you Indiana is a great state, and "this ain't no dream" either, and "Bloomed" is "the Belle of the gas-belt." The oil industry is also making wide-spread and rapid developments—new leases are constantly being made and derricks erected. It is certainly a state of commercial enterprise and business push and activity. A fellow that isn't a "goose" in a "goose" area! Will likely preach in some Indiana churches before my return. Well, "so long, old boy!" Good-bye, John, take care of yourself.

Yours fraternally, Thos. B. Howz.

Good Advertisers.

"What type of a American girl is it," asks the Conit, "that is always conspicuous at sea seasons by ze shortness of ze costume and in ze ballroom by ze shortness in ze other way of ze cutom, and in ze street dress by ze what you call drop-stitch and ze like?"

"That?" we answer airily. "Oh, that is the display type."

An exchange says: Some people are jubilant because a cattle trust is being formed to fight the packers of the meat trust, but the chances are that they will not jubilate for an extended period. The cattle trust will simply force the meat trust to pay more for their cattle, and the meat trust will in turn take it out of the pockets of the consumers, and the consumers—but of course you know the fable of the chicken and the ax.
