

We learn from Frankfort, that on Tuesday last, Mr. P. Letcher, was elected Speaker of the House of Representatives.

We exceedingly regret the disposition evinced, by a few of the Whig press, to bring forward, and press upon the consideration of the country, at this particular time, as a candidate for the presidency, the claims of that distinguished individual William H. Harrison, of Ohio.

The Hon. Wilson Lumpkin, was on the 22d ult. elected by the Legislature of Georgia, United States Senator, from that State in the place of the Hon. John P. King, resigned.

Miss, a white man, who was arrested and charged with being a party to the murder, is still in jail, and will not, we understand, be tried until the next regular term of the court.

The French Expedition, about which there has been so much talk, has at length succeeded. Constantine has been taken possession of notwithstanding the immense masses of resistance prepared by the Bey Achmet.

LATE FROM TEXAS.—By an arrival from Texas the N. Courier received files of the Houston Telegraph to the 29th ult. Mr. LAURENCE, the Charge from the United States to that government, presented his credentials on the 26th ult. and was greeted most cordially.

A public dinner was to have been given to him on the 24th ult.

An article of bagging manufactured from East India hemp, is highly recommended by the Mobile Chronicle.

Mexico.—The N. O. papers contain extracts from the Mexican papers to October.

The following is a sketch of the peculiarly animated and happy remarks of the Mayor of New York, at the late celebration in that city.

The Memphis Gazette of the 18th says, that the river had risen five feet at that place within the last seven days.

On Sunday the 26th ult. a valuable negro man, belonging to D. Verner, Esq. of the city of Lexington, came to his death from the effects of burning charcoal in the room where he slept.

The effect of which was the death of the officer, and it was with the greatest difficulty the latter could be restored from the insensible state into which he had fallen.

The Hon. Joseph Kent, formerly Governor of the State of Maryland, and a Senator in congress from that state, as he was riding over his farm on the morning of the 24th ult. fell from his horse and instantly expired.

Some disgraceful scenes, disturbing the quiet and good order of our town occurred at a late hour on last night.

The Hon. Wilson Lumpkin, was on the 22d ult. elected by the Legislature of Georgia, United States Senator, from that State in the place of the Hon. John P. King, resigned.

We learn from the Lexington Intelligencer, of Saturday last, that an extra session of the Fayette Circuit Court was held in that place for the trial of two negro men charged with the murder of a man named Connor.

there fought side by side with yours, and as upon the battle field our fathers were united in the toils and sacrifices and the triumph of war, so their souls this day unite in commemorating the bloodless victories of peace, and the glorious triumph achieved by the invincible patriotism and power of an unconquerable people—a people who are unalterably determined that for ages to come "New York" shall be a lofty name.

The Mayor alluded with peculiar felicity to incidents of our revolutionary annals, as illustrations or parallels of our more recent history. He spoke of the victories that had recently been achieved by the Whigs throughout the Union, and indicated their price in Kentucky and Massachusetts.

JOS. MEANS. SUPPLEMENT TO THE GLOBE—PROCEEDINGS FOR THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX.

SENSIBLE of the deep interest which must be felt throughout the Union in the proceedings of a new Congress, convened by the new administration, to meet the extraordinary emergencies which have arisen since the close of General Jackson's term of service, the undersigned have already made preparations to furnish their annual report for the CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE.

As the success of a new Congress, so full and faithful record of all that is done in Congress—sketches of the attendant discussions, with an APPENDIX containing the speeches prepared by themselves—they are not only to gratify the curiosity of the hour, to inform the distant constituency of that part performed by their immediate representatives, and of the result of the labors of all but we doubt not, they will be the most authentic, complete and convenient parliamentary record of our times. This undertaking, having with these views been liberally patronized by the public, is our purpose to justify this our annual effort, by increasing the strength of our corps of Reporters at the next fall and winter Sessions.—The Fall Session will be looked to by the country to settle all that has been unsettled by the former, of the system of Deposits as established by Congress, the over-charge of the currency as established by the Constitution—and the overflow of the system of revenue, both as a means of adequate supply for present demands, the maintenance of which, the undersigned feel it their duty to urge. Every thing of pecuniary interest to the Government and the nation will be involved in the discussions of the next Congress; and it was because the President would not allow the undersigned to be left to Executive discretion a moment beyond the time when a full Congress could be convened, that the September Session was summoned. The machinery of government even when they are out of gear, must continue to work; but when so much is at stake, no measure may be driven in a wrong direction, and Representatives of the people are alone competent to set it to rights. No Democratic or Whig administration can afford to neglect the duties of present crisis, by neglecting Executive expedients for the immediate relief springing from the public necessities.

TERMS:—For the Congress of 1837, during the two first sessions of the 25th Congress, Two Dollars.

For the Appendix to the Congressional Globe, during the first two sessions of the 25th Congress, Two Dollars.

Any person sending us the money for five copies of either of the above publications, will be entitled to a copy.

Payments may be transmitted by mail, postage paid, at our risk. The notes of any incorporated Bank in the United States, which are received in payment, are to be taken the first of March 1837, will be received.—But when subscribers can procure the notes of Banks in the Northern and Middle States, they will please send them.

To ensure all matters, the money must be here by the first Monday in September next.

The Congressional Globe will be sent to those papers that copy this Prospectus, if our attention shall be directed to it by a mark with an asterisk. Our exchanges are so large that we would not observe it, probably, unless this be done.

No attention will be paid to any order, unless the money accompany it, or unless some responsible person be so to be bound, or shall agree to pay it before the same expires. BLAIR & RIVES, Washington City, July 24, 1837.
