Joe Wain.—We are prepared to do Job Work of all kinds in good style, upon reasonable terms, and with dispatch. Orders solicited.

To be advertised.—We desire to call the attention of the business community to the Agency as an advertising medium. Its circulation is far greater than that of any other paper in Kentucky, and its benefits are incalculable. The editor and proprietors have been connected with a large Western Jobbing House for several years, and have been successful in consequence of their judicious management and the result of their efforts in this line is an annual production of 100,000 copies, making it particularly desirable to the jobber and advertiser. It is a safe and profitable medium for the trade. We have also a list of names of several hundred Merchants, living in Northern Kentucky and Southern Ohio, to whom we send copies of the Agency on the first day of September, and at stated intervals thereafter. Advertisements from a distance will be inserted as if forwarded by the cash or satisfactory reference is given.

Members' Shareholders.— "We regret to see a disposition in some of the democratic newspapers of Kentucky to join the know nothings and republicans in the dissemination and ridicule of that portion of the Democratic party, which support of Walker's course in Kansas. It is not natural to have the democrats of Mississippi, Georgia, South Carolina, and elsewhere, denounce as "Southern traitors," "fire-eaters," etc., by the abolitionists, and it is not surprising that Southern know nothings should join in the cry, but we did not expect democratic "fire-eaters," North, to do so. We are, therefore, to attempt to ridicule democrats because of their devotion to the rights of the States. Our articles may be productive of much discussion in the democratic party as they undoubtedly encourage and animate the opposition. They cannot have any other effect.

These "Fire-eaters" and "Southern traitors," who have they done? We know they are reviled and abused by the know nothings, and they are a natural consequence, we are not surprised at it. But why are they ridiculed and sneered at by democratic newspapers? We confess that we are unable to say any thing in answer to the charges of Mississippi and Georgia are called "Southern traitors," but are there better democrats in the Union? When did they falter? Shoulder to shoulder, and in the same cause, and in the same spirit, they fought with us for the Union. Under the same colors, and in the same cause they fought with us in our last fraternal struggle with the combined forces of abolitionism and know nothings. They were the first to rise up in support of the President, they yet, while writing under his leading rebuk, have accomplished one of the objects, and the principle one of their memorial—they have gained a complete victory over the "fire-eaters," and the object of an ambition which is inseparable from an attempt to establish a national reputation.

The letter from one of the defeated candidates for Governor, in the State of Louisiana, is a most interesting and valuable contribution to the political elements opposing the democratic party, with the spoils for their platform. Its proposition was not recorded by a single newspaper, and it is a most interesting and valuable contribution to the political elements opposing the democratic party, with the spoils for their platform.
