UNCLE SAM GOING AFTER "BIG SMOKE"

JACK JOHNSON THE SUBJECT OF INQUIRY.

WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC

Federal Grand Jury Seeking Evidence Against Black Pugilist Under the Provisions of the Mann Act.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—When it summoned Miss Lucille Cameron, the nineteen-year-old white girl from Minneapolis, alleged to have been abducted by the negro, to testify, the federal grand jury took a hand in the affairs of Pugilist Jack Johnson. The government hopes through the inquiry to establish the charge that the prize fighter has violated the Mann act by causing the girl, and perhaps other girls, to be brought to Chicago, from other states illegally.

After much persuasion on the part of the mother the girl and other women who have become interested in the case, Miss Cameron took the witness stand after she had been brought to Chicago from Rockford, where she was being held under heavy bond. After she had been in the witness chair for more than an hour she became hysterical and fainted, requiring the services of two physicians and halting the examination.

The girl is said to have given the grand jury considerable information concerning the white slave traffic. As a result of an investigation it is said the government has gained information that there are several women who make a business of procuring white girls for prosperous negroes.

Denounced by His Race.

Washington, Oct. 23.—At a meeting of several hundred negroes here last night resolutions were adopted denouncing Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, a disgrace to his race and an outcast, "now and forevermore."

ARREST OF GAMBLERS

Followed by Fight in Which One Killed and Three Wounded.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 24.—One negro cockpiper is dead, two other negroes are wounded and S. Crick, a white miser, is shot through the knee at Coal Hill, where a seven-mile north of Tracy City, according to information received here. The casualties occurred during a clash between whites and negroes at the commissary of the Seawee Fuel and Coke company. Two hundred shots, it is said, were fired.

NO KENTUCKY LAW

Permitting Annulment of Marriage On Ground of Infrachity.

Louisville, Oct. 24.—Statute that there is no law which permits the annulment of marriages on the ground of "infrachity," because of the law permitting insane persons to marry, Judge Henry Quarles handed down an unprecedented decision, he says, in granting the separation of Sarah Cohen, adjoined insane, from her husband, Joseph Cohen. The divorce is not absolute. The court merely granted the woman a divorce from her husband. The technical allegation made in petitioning for divorce was abandonment.

Memphis Hooley Show to End.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 24.—Heeding the protests of thousands of Memphis women, made during the last few months, the city commission announces that subsidiary steps from pavement to sidewalk will be put in at all street crossings in the downtown Memphis streets. Crating seats of males (old and young) at displays of hooley necessitated by the loss step from pavement to walk will in consequence cease.

Dining Car Cooks Burned.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 24.—Nell and Ellis Decker, colored, were brought to St. Joseph's hospital from Paris, Tenn. They are dining car cooks and were scalded when a stove was overturned on them in a collision on the Louisville and Nashville railroad near Paris.

Peace Kills Fugitive.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 24.—A message from Somerset says that Arthur Phelps was killed and two men were wounded in a battle between James Phelps' friends and a posse of officers who had arrested James Phelps on the charge that he murdered Riley Price.

LUCILLE CAMERON

Young White Girl Whom Jack Johnson Was Charged With Abducting.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Lucille Cameron a pretty Minneapolis white girl, is held in Rockford jail as a material witness against Jeanette Dorr, charged with firing a white girl into the breast of Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist. Jack repeatedly has said she was going to marry Johnson.

MINERS NEEDED

Many are Going from Ohio and Kentucky into Kanawha Field.

Charleston, W. Va., Oct. 21.—Many miners, from Ohio and Kentucky are being taken into the Kanawha coal field to fill the places made vacant by the removal of striking miners from other districts, and coal operators here expressed the belief today that the problems of the last few months would be satisfactorily solved. Some of the miners are in operation with their former workers, but it is stated that three thousand men are needed to keep them going at full speed. Reports from the section where the national guard is still on duty were of the most encouraging nature, and military men here inclined to the belief that additional conscripts could be ordered home within the next few days.

Broken Rail Causes a Kentucky Excursion Train to Go in Ditch.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Oct. 24.—A breaking rail caused an excursion train on the Illinois Central to leave the track at Green's Crossing, six miles from here, about 10 o'clock. The train consisted of about fifty passenger cars and while most of the 180 passengers aboard were badly shaken up, the accident occurred on top of an embankment ten feet high and the four passenger coaches slipped off the side of them turning over on their sides as they fell.

The train was headed for Paducah, most of the passengers being workmen of the World from this and other mining towns, who had gathered at a big Woodmen rally at Hopkinsville. Cheat River is Deified. Morgantown, W. Va., Oct. 24.—Judge J. W. Mason, of the district court of Monmouth county, handed down a decision in which he held that Cheat River, the intersection of the Cheat and West Virginia state lines, and several points up the river is a navigable stream of the second class and that the "Mason" right of way in the stream is the property of the state. His successor, the West Virginia development company, has no right to build a dam of the character proposed by the interests which seek to develop the water power of Cheat river.

TOO MUCH JOHNSON

Mayor Harrison Seeking a Way to Drive Black Pug Out of City.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Jack Johnson is keeping himself carefully secluded in the room above his cafe, and his "admirer" and "lover" in the saloon below him all questioners away with a statement that Johnson would see "any" following his rough experience. He said persons threatened to "kick" him in connection with the "admirer" and "lover" in the saloon below him. Johnson's real life is not so far from reality. Mayor Harrison says he is seeking new legal means that will permit him to chase up Johnson's cafe and drive him from the city.

Dishier is Bankrupt. Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 24.—Edward Murphy, of Lawrenceburg, a distiller, has filed a voluntary petition of bankruptcy in the federal court in this city. Assets are given as $50,000 and liabilities $17,400.

"Friends, I tell you I am not thinking of my own success; I am not thinking of my life. I believe in the Progressive movement. I am absorbed in the success of the movement."

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

(In his speech at Milwaukee after he was shot.)

STOPPED THE RACES

State Troops Capture the Tractor at Porter.

Porter, Ind., Oct. 23.—When Major Prevermuth of South Bend reached the Porter track with Company F of the Third Infantry, trouble started at once. A. E. Knott, in charge of the track, asked the militiamen to enter the grounds, then demanded that each should pay admission. Prevermuth, disregarding his protests, ordered his men to take charge of the ticket windows and turnstiles and sent others to meet the trains and advise passengers to return. Prevermuth's vigorous action followed a conference at Indianapolis City with Attorney General Hogan and Brigadier General Howard who told him to go the limit.

When the horses were brought out for the first race, Captain Kinball of the South Bend company ordered his men to fix bayonets and the horses with their bayonets were driven back into the stables. The soldiers pitched their tents within the inclosure. They held every man entering and those who were within the inclosure they held. More than fifty women who had arrived in anticipation of seeing the races were not permitted to leave the track. The owners and promoters of the races also are within the inclosure.

A special train from Chicago bearing a large number of spectators arrived just after the state guard appeared. It returned to Chicago with about all of its passengers. The race meeting at Porter was to have continued for fifteen days. The Indiana law permits fifteen days of racing each year, but gambling at the track is prohibited, and it was the flagrant violation of this prohibition that caused Governor Marshall to set Grand Jury Investigating.

Tipton, Ind., Oct. 23.—The grand jury is investigating the case of H. F. Gentry, who shot and killed Robert Buchanan ten days ago. Expectations of Buchanan as a safe bet and helped in the pursuit of him, thus killing him when he took refuge under a house.

Fired on Christian Villages. Athens, Oct. 23.—The Turkish regulars in Ephesus have fired on the Christian villages of Karoli and Linthaki. King George and Premier Venizelos will visit the front shortly. The Greek fleet is reported to have captured a Turkish transport full of troops.

Seized a British Steamship. Athens, Oct. 23.—The British steamship Penpol was seized at sea by a Greek torpedo boat and brought to Piraeus.

BITTER CAMPAIGN

Resort to Violence Now Being Threatened in Cuba.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Dispatches to the state department indicate that the political tension in Cuba as a result of the approaching elections is rapidly increasing. The legion at Havana reported that the resignation of General Montemayor, commander-in-chief of the army and the minister of justice, but the general said that he has not received any word from the president. Only the resignation of the minister of the interior has been accepted. The bitterness of the campaign being waged on behalf of the President Zayas, the Liberal candidate, and General Menocal, the Conservative candidate, is said to be bringing about a situation which is dangerous to the peace of Cuba. The accusations of undue partiality directed against President Gomez by General Menocal and the supporters have resulted in counter accusations accompanied by threats of a resort to violence on both sides.

COLONEL IS RESTING

Doctors and Nurses Dismissed at His Order.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Oct. 23.—Smiling and unassisted, Colonel Roosevelt walked from the private car which had brought him from Chicago to the farmhouse awaiting him at Sagamore Hill and with a waved greeting to the few who attended his unexpected arrival, he limped swiftly across the intervening four miles to Sagamore Hill. Today he lies comfortably in his upstairs room, to which he ascended with only slight assistance. All four of the doctors who escorted him hither and the nurses have been dismissed for the time being at his order. Nothing about the residence of the ex-president indicates that all is not as usual. Apparently his long journey did not distress him at all. As far as his wound is concerned, he says that he suffers no pain, except under pressure.

Although the first idea was to go direct to Oyster Bay, this plan was changed to avoid the risk of a demonstration of welcome from the colony fellow townsmen, and his car was put on a siding at Syosset. When he alighted at Syosset the colonel was wearing the army greatcoat which bore the mark of the shot received at Milwaukee a week ago Monday night. With Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Ethel and George Roosevelt, he climbed with a firm step into the closed automobile and drove up to the stoop at Sagamore Hill.

The colonel has been strictly enjoined to see no visitors. This afternoon Dr. Lambert and Terrell are being to return. Meanwhile he is expected only by members of the family and his devoted negro body servant, "Jim," who is tireless in his watch.

SELECTED SITE

Governor Marshall Picked Place For Indiana Building.

San Francisco, Oct. 23.—Governor R. Marshall of Indiana, interrupted his campaign here yesterday to select a site for the Indiana building on the grounds of the Panama-Pacific exposition. Governor Marshall, who made two addresses here last night, went to the fair ground from a luncheon tendered him by the exposition directors. He was escorted by a troop of cavalry to the site which is on the Presidio military reservation, and before taking possession, reviewed a parade of two regiments of United States troops in his honor. A large number of members of the Indiana State Society of Indiana were present at the ceremony. Governor Marshall left here last night for Oregon, to continue his campaign.

UNCLE SAM AROUSED

Will Insist On An Open Exit For Foreigners In Mexico.

THE SITUATION IS ALARMING

While Americans In the South of Mexico Are Not Yet Seriously Menaced by New Uprising, the Possibilities Are Regarded as Grave.

Mexico City, Oct. 23.—The report that Gen. Zozora, chief of the Thirtieth battalion, has joined the revoltists under Gen. Felix Diaz at Vera Cruz with 600 men, is confirmed by the war department. He captured the town of Santa Lucrecia, which he now occupies after having garrisoned Sierra Blanca. The government forces have not yet attacked Vera Cruz. They are being mobilized at Teleria, a station on the Mexican railroad, by General Boland, who is awaiting reinforcements from the north. Eight hundred of these men will probably arrive here today. Four hundred men with artillery have left Texcoco for Toluca.

Montgomery Schuyler, Jr., the American charge d'affaires, has been informed that the consuls at Vera Cruz have organized a committee of safety among the citizens to protect the elements at that place. It is reported that consuls in the historical towns of San Juan, Ulua, and Vera Cruz. The Mexican gumb, which are still loyal to the government, are in the fortresses, with the 300 prisoners. Three hundred fifty conscripts of the gendarme corps offered their services to the government to fight the rebels. The offer was accepted, but when they arrived at Vera Cruz they joined rebels.

Center of Blas Revolt.

Word that the American government has notified the Madero government that communication between this capital and the east coast must be kept open regardless of circumstances is heard by foreigners here with much satisfaction. The situation in the south of Mexico is likened to the one which existed in China last year during the revolution. The position is insisted on exercising their right of using their soldiers to keep them from falling from their thrones. This assuring all foreigners a means of exit from the Chinese empire. It is immediate approval is entertained here. The situation in Mexico will become as serious as that in China, the instigator of communication between Vera Cruz and Tampico. The rebels are regarded as wise at this time.

It is not probable that such a situation will arise as to make it necessary for the United States to use its forces in maintaining communication between Mexico City and Tampico. The United States is strongly pro-American in its feelings, but he is also a man of high standards than the others who have been expatriated from the United States by their operations in the Mexican border.

BATTLE IMMINENT

Mexican Federal Troops Proceed.

Mexico City, Oct. 23.—Eight brigades of the troops of General Bland from the north, arrived here and at once for Vera Cruz. Four hundred Coahuila volunteers who comprise part of the forces remained here. General Bland has 1,400 men and three battalions of two companies, two rapid-fire guns, two machine guns, good-saturated and hopeful, but ready to his plans.

Government officials announced that the federal has entered Vera Cruz after a bloody combat, but that the government forces have not left Tejada and Santa Fe. The mobilization points, and authentic private messages say situation at Vera Cruz is unchanged.

OUR PLATFORM OF PRINCIPLES

1. Thou shalt love thy country, which preserves thy household, and protect (or should protect) the greaterarchy.
2. Thou shalt not yield thy manhood into the keeping of any political or ecclesiastical party, nor worship any political idols, nor bow down to them, because their sin will be visited upon thy children, and will be a curse to the country, even to the third and fourth generations.
3. Thou shalt not profane the righteousness of patriotism, nor use it as a cloak beneath which to hide the selfishness and the greed of Chauvinism.
4. Remember the day of election—that it is sacred and must be kept holy.
5. Honor the virtues and the sacredness of the ballot-box, that the centuries of this Republic may be many and peaceful.
6. Thou shalt not murder the soul of freedom by failing to exercise thy royal rights of an enfranchised, manly citizen.
7. Thou shalt not corrupt the purity of civic life by entering politics or discharging political duties merely for gain, place or power.
8. Thou shalt not encourage public officials to steal, commit inquiry or to be led into temptation by the indifference of the Nation.
9. Thou shalt not suffer greed for political reward and unrighteous party loyalty to bear witness against thy patriotism.
10. Thou shalt not cover public place or office for which thou art not fitted.
11. These are the first and great commandments, the other and last are as like unto them:
12. Thou shalt respect and protect the rights of thy neighbor, and his.
13. On these two classes of commandments hang all the laws and the Constitution—the basis of our country's salvation.

To Regain Control.

Throughout America, and, in fact, throughout the length and breadth of nearly the entire civilized world, there is almost unprecedented unrest. The causes will be found, if reduced to the last analysis, to be the same in every country. It is the never-ending fight for sustenance. It is a war for bread.

In our country the battle now waging in this universal war is a struggle on the part of the people to regain control of their institutions—to re-establish popular government. For the people have come to realize that only through a popular government can they regain their liberty. Liberty is essential to the perpetuation and protection of opportunity, which is a chance to earn bread.

The peaceful revolution which is gaining momentum every hour in this country is as much a bread war as was the catalysm which drenched France in blood more than a hundred years ago.

In this country the revolution is peaceful, but it is none the less a revolution, and is none the less a bread war. Great masses of people who did not know when their political liberties were stealthily taken from them understand the high cost of living, the burden of exorbitant prices arbitrarily fixed by the trusts, the unjust and illegal tax laid on the necessities of the public by special privilege hiding behind stolen political power.

Reactionary politicians do not know what the cause means, but the people know. They have felt the increasing burden laid upon them by the combination of special privilege and political power.

representative system responsive to the popular desire.

That is why, to the amazement of Mr. Taft and his supporters, that a large number of American votes in this campaign do mean bread.

The Power that Fattens on You

That we are a government by the people is a dream. The real bone and gristle of the nation, the common people, in a city election, in a county election, in a national election, have few defenses against the insidious aggressions of a power, successful because invisible, constantly growing more and more tyrannical. That power may buy space in newspapers to poison with impure food, to deceive and kill with fake medicines, to rob with bait and snaretraps, to rob with self, have been hurt by wholesale, sole foods. Your children have been destroyed by poisonous medicines and you have been injured into ruinous speculation. If so, there was an invisible power fattening on you. That power affects your liberties in many ways. It affects your homes. It affects your children. Above all that power influences legislation. It never lets you know how it works. It weaves its web in darkness. It finds its way into the laws of your state. It buys its way into our national congress. It buys its way into our courts. And sometimes it beats its fight in the open. It is then that flattery and cajolery are laid aside and it shows its scarlet and hideous head. It is insolent and defiant. It hires selfish bosses. These fight with a brazen impudence, not for, but against you. They fought against you at Chicago in the national Republican convention. It is fighting against you in the Senate and in the halls of congress. What is the Progressive party? It is a party that fights this power. And is there any hope that this party will succeed. Yes. A few truths are told as earnest of success. Fewer newspapers can be bought that a decade ago. Fewer fake patent medicines are killing you. Purer food goes upon your table. There are no more railroad rebates. There are fewer railroad passes—insignificant passes that once bought legislation against you, that bought courts against you, that bought newspapers against you. But these triumphs are only trifles compared with what must and will come. The initiative will come. The referendum must come. The recall of judicial decisions will come. In time you yourself will force these things. You will see a fight and you will fight. You will fill the highways and by-ways. You will compel by your vote. The old parties give you no chance. The hostile powers care nothing for them but to use them. The Progressive party gives you a chance. Its mission is to destroy this power. It is in terrible earnest. It fights for you and your children. It is a dread force against bossism. It is composed of active and earnest men who are in the main not politicians, it is composed of men who think, it is composed of men who fight, not in the dark, but in the sunlight of day. They fight to give you a chance. The national government ought to be yours, but it is not. Great men declare that it shall be yours. Will you give them your aid? Will you work with courage and self sacrifice to establish as a fact, and not as a fancy, the great principle that of right the people ought to be free, that the people shall rule?

But what, he asks, have these to do with bread? Let us see?

Suppose the votes of the people were as effective as they ought to be, would the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill's injustices still burden the statute books and the backs of the consumers? Suppose the initiative had been in practice, say, in this state, would the Pennsylvania railroad have been able to prevent so long the passage of a law legalizing trolley freight carrying? Would it have remained so long a crime to send a basket of potatoes or a crate of eggs to market by the cheapest, most expeditious method, to the advantage in dollars and cents of every household?

With the initiative, the referendum and the recall as reserve weapons of the public, would the oil trust have debauched the legislature, strangled competition and heaped up its misbegotten millions from the pockets of the American people? Would the railroads have been able to destroy the commonwealth's canals and turn them into roadbeds, with the result that Philadelphia almost at the gateway of the world's richest mines, pays $7 and $7.50 a ton for coal that canal transportation would make salable at $5.

Would corporations and railroads continue to evade their just share of taxes? Would a legislature turn over to political and financial interests traction rights worth millions, and saddle the public with high fares to the end of time? With the government actually under control of the people, would syndicates have been able to seize the country's natural resources and hold them to extort tribute from this and future generations? Would industrial conditions persist, which make slaves of children, inflict ill-acquired labor upon women and force the worker and his family to carry all of the burden of risk from injury and occupational diseases?

As pointed out by an authority we quoted yesterday, no great reforms have come from either of the two old parties; they have come from the people themselves exerting what pressure they could while hampered by the fetters put upon their political action. The Progressive purpose is to free the people, to give them control of their own government, to empower them to achieve their just demands through a representa-

Not Any Victory.

A victory for Mr. Taft and his theory of government is not any victory at all. It is only a temporary clinging to a broken bridge. So far as a victory for Mr. Wilson is merely a clinging to standpat ideals of an old and outworn party; it could be no victory at all, but merely a halting at a broken bridge. Why waste time when trouble is due? Why not buckle on your gun, get in the middle of the street, and have it over with?

The House of Commons wins steadily. The working people of the world win steadily. The old time meeting idea wins steadily. Antagonize these things if you like. You do not stop them.

This Progressive party is the outcome of conditions, a part of the progress of the world. It is bigger than both of the old parties, and all the standpat folk who can just understand any such thing as a great and vital happen need. Do not fear with it unless you do, but do not try to stop it. Take on the simpler task of stopping the stars in their courses. Attempt the general chore of wiping out all human hope and human resolution.

The Progressive party is in tune with the religion of the stars. Be against it if you like; nobody is holding you. But the stars and the world are apt to go right on ahead pretty much the same. They play the long game and all November look alike to them. If not this November, some other November. If not this Roosevelt some other Roosevelt at some later day.

But this day this November, this Roosevelt suits a lot of us—so many of us that very likely a great many standpat people are this November going to get the surprise of their eminently respectable and highly constitutional lives.

The Difference.

It developed before the Senate investigation committee that the head of the Harvester trust as well as two of the directors are supporting Wilson, the former with a good deal of cash. Only one of the entire directorate will vote for Roosevelt. Most of them are for Taft. Cyrus McCormick gave to Wilson $12,500, but since Roosevelt was not the beneficiary of that sum the reactionaries pass over the incident in approving silence. What would be a crime in Roosevelt is becoming virtue in Wilson or Taft.

Language Too Vehement.

Medill McCormick, in his testimony before the investigation committee, referred in too vehement language to Hilles. His provocation however was extreme. Hilles had declared that Roosevelt had been backed by $2,000,000 in his pre-convention campaign. Although the testimony before this committee demonstrated that only a little less than a third as much money was spent for Roosevelt as for either Taft or Wilson, the Tory press throughout the country continues to circulate the $2,000,000 morsel with as much dress parade as it does some ten thousand other falsehoods equally as absurd.

Warm and Just Nature.

Last Wednesday in Delaware, Mr Wilson in a speech said: "I do not predict trouble in these United States, I rejoice to believe that America is singularly a self-possessed nation. It is adverse to nothing so much as violent disorder. I believe that a part of the sadness we now suffer, which comes because of that atrocious assault upon Mr. Roosevelt, is that there is any body in the United States that would dare to interrupt the orderly course of politics and public affairs of this country by the violence of his own hand. We deeply resent it. I came out to dethe engagements of this week with a very great reluctance, because my thought is constantly of that gallant gentleman lying in the hospital at Chicago. Mr. Roosevelt did a vast deal, to wake the country up to the problems that now have to be settled and that he should have been stayed in his efforts to discuss those settlements by a hand of violence is a thing that every American must deeply deplore and feel ashamed for."

Those utterances of Mr. Wilson show the distinctly human quality of his character, although his political theories may seem to be unbound, even ruinous, the attributes of his nature are warm and just.

It is not because I wanted the job that I am the Progressive candidate for Congress in this district, but because, like Gov. Hiram Johnson, "I enlisted for the war and was drafted for the place."

I am in the fight because I believe in every plank of the Progressive platform, and believe especially in Theodore Roosevelt, who is the one great leader to restore the popular right to rule. The great question of the hour is: "Shall the people rule?"

This country is now in the hands of the invisible government and our only salvation is the establishment of laws giving the direct primaries, with adequate errant practices acts, and the initiative, the referendum and the recall. With these laws the people will be in fact instead of in theory only, the rulers of this country.

The only logical argument that can be used against the adoption of these measures is that the American people are not fit for self government. President Taft himself has publicly stated that he does not believe they are, but I am sure he is wrong. If, however, he is right, then we are living under the wrong form of government, and our government is a failure, because the very foundation of it is the right of the people to rule. Senator Beveridge said:

"The rule of the people means that when the people's legislators make a law which hurts the people, the people themselves may reject it. The rule of the people means that when the people's legislators refuse to pass a law which the people need, the people themselves may pass it. The rule of the people means that when the people's employes do not do the people's work well and honestly, the people may discharge them exactly as a business man discharges employes who do not do their work well and honestly. The people's officials are the people's servants, not the people's masters."

This is what I believe, and if you believe in it you should vote the Progressive ticket.

Sincerely yours,
E. S. HITCHINS.

The little Johns of Grayson are bent on preventing Olive Hill from having a newspaper of its own. They are in league with E. D. Stephenson and John Butler, of Pike, to help suppress it. Stick a pin here.

It is said that some of the county officials of Carter attended the Baptist Sunday-School convention at Louisville last week. If they returned with the full knowledge of the error of their way and were converted, their absence from duty will be overlooked.

Mrs. Cora Hackney and children and sister, Miss Parthena Tackett, returned last week from Middletown, Ohio, where they have been visiting their sister and brother, Mrs. Mary Barnett and Mr. Ernest Tackett. They had a pleasant visit.

We learn that the grand jury is doing a land office business in the indictment line. Several indictments returned against parties here for gaming, etc., and one against J. H. Mobley for obstructing the creek.

It is the policy of the Grayson gang of little Johns to prevent Olive Hill from having a newspaper. They are going to resort to all manner of ways to rid this town of a newspaper. Why? Because next year there is to be an election of county officers and they are afraid that they won't get to keep their paws in the county's corn crib. See, how plain the gang's scheme. What do you say to this Olive Hill?

House Burned.

Lum Walker, living on Mill Branch, lost his house by fire yesterday morning. Some time during the night previous the house caught fire from a fire and Walker put it out, but failed to fix the fire in a safe condition. Some time during the morning the house again caught fire and was consumed. Most of the furnishings were saved. There was some insurance on the building we understand.

That Charge.

The Grayson gang of little Johns in partnership with one E. D. Stephenson, once an imaginary candidate for Congress against John Langley, swore out a warrant against the editor of this paper charging perjury in a case between the editor and E. D. Stephenson, resident of the Advocate, published at Pikeville, the editor suing for back salary. This suit was tried last April, 7 months ago.

We executed a bond on this warrant Monday, the bondsmen voluntarily signing the same, the worth of said bondsmen aggregating $75,000 or more.

Without going into the details or merits of the case, not wishing to make public my defence, suffice it to say, the action was brought through hatred and malice on the one hand, and on the other, the determination on the part of the Grayson gang of little Johns to force out of existence a newspaper in Olive Hill, and at the same time to get me out of the county. This effort is only in keeping with other dark and cowardly deeds committed by this gang in times past.

As to myself, these dirty curs will be foiled. I am ready at all times to face any charge that may be brought against me at any place. I cannot be scared or intimidated, nor can I be made to run. There is no power in heaven, on earth or in hell that can force me to recant or take water on anything to which I testify.

I do say that E. D. Stephenson is the perjurer, and he may be able to prove his assertions by men like himself, perjurers and liars. It is not now, nor never has been, impossible to swear a man's life away by members of the gang with whom Stephenson has cast his lot.

In conclusion, I wish to emphasize the fact that Mr. Stephenson never, for seven long months thought of bringing this charge against me, although I had stated repeatedly in public and to divers persons that Stephenson lied in his sworn statement in my case for debt, until he fell into the hands of the Grayson gang and the Butler & Moore band of desperadoes and debauchers of truth, chastity and honor. Even joining issue with this gang against a pure, upright man—Judge Roberson—who had befriended him when he came to Pikeville a wail of an attorney, and who gave him meat and bread that he might live while building up a practice by which he might earn his own food and miment.

I have never lived at any place to which I could not return; I have never committed an act from which I will shrink; and I have always fought for principles, and will continue to do so until death.

The Grayson gang thought they had worked a nice trap, and that they would risk any measure to get Terrill out of Olive Hill, but just watch upon whose head that trap door will fall.

Circuit Court.

Circuit Court convened at Grayson last Monday a week ago, with that sturdy and just jurist, Judge Hannah, on the bench.

Owing to the absence of some of the officials and attorneys, nothing was done only in minor or civil cases.

PIKEVILLE POLITICS.

Can you insult your wife and daughter by voting for such a man as John Butler for the high and dignified position of judge?

No decent man, no man who respects his family can possibly vote for John Butler for judge of Pike and Letcher without damning his own soul.

If John Butler is elected judge in Pike and Letcher counties, those who opposed, his election will have to swear him out of the bench if they expect justice in his court. Just stick a pin here.

If the people of Pike and Letcher counties fail to elect Judge Roberson judge of that judicial circuit, then those two counties are at the mercy of the most damnable gang that ever existed, not excepting Breathitt county.

Pike county needs a shower of hellfire and brimstone, and it looks like that shower will fall about Nov. 5, at which time Mutz & Jeff will be entirely consumed, with Phoebe Davis for good measure.

John Butler, of Pikeville, candidate for judge, is charged by his home newspaper with embezzlement. That's nothing. Examine the court records and perhaps you may find something more serious.

E. D. Stephenson, lately a candidate or the dignified and distinguished position of Congressman, undoubtedly has joined forces with John Butler, Jeff Moore and Phoebe Davis, the notorious prostitute. How great the fall of a great statesman.

John Butler, candidate for judge for Pike and Letcher counties, is charged by his own town paper with embezzlement, with adultery of long and grievous standing, with attempting to destroy a deal from the record book, etc., and yet no denial or proof to the contrary. And E. D. Stephenson is aiding and abetting him, yet claiming to be a Democrat.

Yes, if Taft is elected President, his supporters in Carter county will be given tax-ticket coupons, good for one fare over the L. & C. Railway. Have your tar paul and feather ticks ready for this grand excursion.

Shot By Wife.

On last Friday Mrs. Lock Steele while handling a pistol shot her husband in the knee, inflicting a very serious wound. It seems that she was "feeling" with the gun and had taken all the cartridges out as she thought and began to strap it at different members of the family. She sat down by her husband's side and placed the gun against his knee, pulled the trigger, shooting him through the knee.

There is a probability of the leg being amputated, it is thought, at this writing.

Brown & Cassidy have one dark Bay Mare for sale. This mare is 7 years old, clean, works well and in good condition. A bargain if sold in a short time.
