Student Council Election

Crisp Wins Presidency By Slim 11-Vote Margin

Don Crisp, a junior from Ashland, was elected president of the 1964-65 Student Council by the slim margin of eleven votes last Tuesday. Over 1,400 students voted in the election.

Crisp beat Bill Woody, a math major from Bellbrook, Ohio.

Also elected to Student Council offices were: Dick Norman, vice president; Wayne Garee, treasurer; Judy Smith, secretary; June Burke, reporter; and Bob Monahan, historian.

A history major, Crisp was president of his senior class in high school. He is a member of the Mystic Club and is the current vice-president of the Student Council.

Norman of Dayton, Ohio, is a sophomore political science major. He is a member of the Open Forum, Circle K, Campus Club, cross-country track team and is the Student Council representative from the sophomore class.

Garee is a freshman from Cincinnati, Ohio. He is in the education major from Patchogue, N. Y. A freshman, he is on the soccer team, in the drama club, and on the Raconteur staff.

Burke is a sophomore from Hicksville, N. Y. A member of Sigma Delta, she is a physical education and French major.

"Service will be my theme for the coming school term. Service to the school, student body, and the community. We not only learn from our studies but also in rendering some kind of service. We should all work and strive together as a student body to make this a greater institution of higher learning and a better place in which to live," said Crisp.

"I hope every individual will take an interest in the future of Morehead State College. Only you can make M.S.C. what you expect or want it to be. I am looking forward for next year to be a greater year than ever before. It will be a pleasure working with and representing you, the Student. Again a sincere 'Thank You' for your vote and support," he said.

LOOK TO THE FUTURE

WOW! The race for the Student Council presidency was a close one, wasn't it. An eleven-vote margin is one of the closest we have heard of for such a top office in a long time. Congratulations to all of the new officers. Let's begin planning now to make next year the best ever at Morehead State. The Student Councils for the past few years have been becoming more and more active, we hope you continue the trend.

STUDENT COUNCIL MEETING

September 29, 1964

The first meeting of the Executive members of the Student Council was called to order by Don Crisp, our new president, at 6:30 on September 29, 1964. Since this was our first official meeting, there were no minutes to be read, no treasurer's report, and no old business. The new business was then taken up. Our president, Don Crisp, presented the first item of new business that being the Homecoming Queen election. It was decided that Thursday, October 8, would be the primary election. There will be a convocation on this date to let the students see the candidates. On October 15, the final election will be held. The candidates will follow the same rules as in previous years and should not be or ever had been married.

Council of Presidents meeting will be held September 30, at 4:00 p.m. in order to have each club elect two candidates to represent them in the Homecoming. These nominations are to be turned in by 4:00 p.m., Wednesday, October 7.

Mr. North and Dean Saunders agreed to contact the candidates. The practice session for the crowning of Homecoming Queen with the eleven finalists will be held at 7:00 p.m. on October 14.

Who's Who To Be Elected Thursday

Division Heads, Organizations, Classes Made Nominations

By Sue Wallace

Over sixty seniors and graduate students at Morehead State College have been nominated for election to "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges," a publication which gives recognition to students with achievements in institutions of higher learning in the United States.

The election of the nominees to "Who's Who" will be held this Thursday, November 12, in the Doran Student House.

To be eligible for nomination to "Who's Who", a student must meet the following qualifications:

- (1) All candidates will be expected to have an overall 2.5 standing.
- (2) Participation in extra-curricular activities
- (3) Citizenship
- (4) Character
- (5) Future promise
- (6) All candidates must have been in residence here at Morehead State College during the three previous semesters.
- (7) Students must be classified as seniors or graduate students at the time of nomination.

A screening committee has checked the list of nominees to see if they met the qualifications. The committee is composed of the Student Council president, the president of the senior class, the Dean of Students and the Dean of Women, two faculty members, and a graduate student representative named by the director of graduate studies.

Also, the screening committee can add the names of any individuals they feel should be nominated for the honor.

The Student Council will be in charge of the selection. Only seniors, division heads and graduate students can vote in the election.

The students who are elected will not be officially listed until the Who's Who national committee approves their selection.

The names of the winning nominees will be included in the next issue of The Trail Blazer.

Dennis is working towards a business and is a native of Cincinnati, Ohio. He is a member of Circle K, the M-Club, and the cross country and track teams.

The president of each class will also serve as a representative to the Student Council. This group includes: Jim Johnson, senior class; Al Stith, junior class; Steve Haworth, sophomore class.

Dorm representatives to the Student Council are: Judy Hatfield, Allie Young; Jim Young and Tom Ball, East Men's and Butler; Sue

It seems as if we can't even begin to put out a paper anymore without half-a-dozen people coming around telling us what we are going to say and do - even before we have done it.

During the chaotic, hectic effort to get out our homecoming edition of the paper, we were informed by several sources that we were going to have an editorial "blasting" the Student Council.

Now, before this paper is even well on its way to the printer's we have been informed that we are again going to do the same thing, and that we "jerked" similar copy from the last paper.

"Dear Hearts" (if we may borrow "Brother Dave's" pet phrase) listen well. In the first issue of The Trail Blazer we ran an editorial policy (which it appears that some of you neglected to read).

Some of the major points of this policy were as follows:

"Abraham Lincoln once said that to sin by silence when one should protest makes cowards out of men. The same holds true for a newspaper and the Trail Blazer does not intend to sin by silence."

"If, in the opinion of the editorial staff, a transgression has been evidenced, the Trail Blazer will attempt to point out the situation, offer possible means of solution and support feasible measures to correct the error. The paper will be no 'yellow sheet' and its staff no 'muckrakers', but will endeavor to take interest in campus happenings and offer its views from time to time."

"Trail Blazer editorials are not the brainchildren of an irate editorial staff who wish to criticize rather than solve, slander rather than elevate or irritate rather than placate. They are not stabs in the dark or attempts to fill space, but are products of the earnest thinking of a number of individuals who hold the future success of Morehead State College at the apex of their endeavors. The Trail Blazer is the official paper of Morehead State College, not a vent through which the editor relieves his mind of goodly portions of his own frustration."

As a closing note, it can be said that if the editor merely used the paper to relieve his frustrations it would often have to be printed on asbestos.

Student Council Actions Improper And Unfair

Monday, November 2, was a memorable day at Morehead State College - the Student Council held its first regular meeting of the school year.

The only other meetings any members of the Council have attended were specially-called gatherings of members of the executive council. The student body was not represented by a quorum of the total Student Council at any time until November 2 - almost two months after school had started.

In fact, until Thursday, October 29, (School started September 14) all of the Student Council members had not been elected. A situation existed where the total student representation on the Council was not present due to the simple fact that they had not been elected.

Also, the election of class representatives on October 29 was not one which could be called fair or honorable. This election was held with little publicity other than a cardboard sign displayed in the lobby of the Doran Student House, and the majority of potential candidates and voters were in the dark as to registration and the election itself.

In fact, out of a total student enrollment of over 3,800 students, 2,014 who were eligible to vote (excluding freshmen and graduate students), only 206 students voted in the election for all three classes (sophomores, juniors and seniors).

This election was not a fair one. It was not fair to the candidates and it was not fair to the students who want good representation in the Council, but were unable to vote in an election they didn't know about.

(The written notification given in the Student House was obviously ineffective. According to some Student Council members, this notification was not up until a few days before election. We have not been able to ascertain, due to some conflicting opinions about the date the sign was erected, whether it was up a week prior to the election or not. If it was not up, it would be an open violation of rule three of the Rules of Order governing campus-wide elections passed by the Student Council on January 2, 1962. Rule three reads "there must be written notification of all campus-wide elections in each polling place not less than one week in advance of the election.")

The Trail Blazer attempted to obtain information on this election (date of election, registration dates for candidates, etc.); however, the information given us the first time was not correct. (The date given was October 20, which we published. Later the date was changed after the paper had been printed and distributed.)

For our last paper, we requested information pertaining to the newly-scheduled election, and this time we didn't even receive an incorrect story.

If a Student Council position is worthy of publicity, it is also worthy of campaigning effort. From what we have observed and heard from fellow students, neither of these things happened. And, we know the paper was unable to give the publicity it desired to the election.

Also, a vote which is taken only in the Doran Student House (as the class representative and homecoming queen election votes were) and not from all of the dormitories on campus is an invalid one.

It is invalid because it allows only the limited number of students who visit the Student House daily to vote in a theoretically campus-wide election (and many students rarely visit the Student House and fewer still consistently go the lobby, but limit their visits to their mailboxes).

NO SECRET BALLOT

Also, the voting in the class election was invalid because voting booths were not used. In fact, the so-called secret ballot vote was no more than a farce. IBM cards with the name of each candidate had been provided for the voters and were in plain sight on the lobby desk.

Each voter had to openly select one of these cards and overtly drop it in the ballot box.

In the Rules of Order, rule four states that "private voting booths must (underlining ours) be used for voting in the Student House in all campus-wide elections." Obviously, this was not done.

This situation could have been rectified by merely designating one booth for each class and including the cards for each candidate in the booth. The voter could have then been allowed to select his card (s) in private and hand them to a Council member (face to face, thereby hiding the names of the candidates he had voted for) to place in the ballot box. (Council president Don Crisp said that the situation was a bad one in the class election and would be corrected in the future. We hope so, but it shouldn't have been allowed to exist in the first place.)

Also, we wonder about a system where the voter is allowed to only vote for one candidate when that person is seeking to elect two individuals. (A boy and a girl are both selected to represent each class.) By allowing each voter only one vote, another candidate is robbed of a vote he may have received.

This, President Crisp said, was the way things had been done in the past and the Council was merely following the established policy. It appears to us that this situation is a rather bad one which needs to be changed, because a class member should be able to vote for both of the candidates he expects to represent him for the coming year.

Also in the Rules of Order, rule number eleven reads "a student directory should be placed at each of the voting places in all campus-wide elections." In all of the campus-wide elections held on campus this fall, with the sole exception of the class representative election, this was not done.

Also notice the words "voting places" in rule eleven. At the time the Rules of Order were passed, ballot boxes were placed in each of the dormitories so as to include as many students as possible in the voting. It was not then considered necessary to include in the Rules of Order that all of the dormitories have established voting places; however, there are three different rules, including number eleven, which indicate, but do not specifically state, that there will be voting places other than the Student house.

President Crisp said that the executive council felt it could obtain a complete and fair vote by having the ballot boxes only in the Student House lobby. He said that voting irregularities had taken place in the dormitories, where the persons maintaining the polls would leave the polls unmanned at different times, which left the opportunity for people to stuff the ballot boxes.

We do not feel that the meager 206 votes cast in the class election was a very representative or fair vote. And, even with the lack of publicity, a much larger vote would have been obtained if polls had been established in the dormitories also. It is the responsibility of the Council to see that the polls are handled properly during elections - not to penalize the students by removing the polls that have been mismanaged.

Therefore, we contest the class representatives election on the basis that it was unfairly and improperly conducted for the reasons previously stated. A new election, properly conducted and publicized should, in our opinion, be held.

And, we hope that in the future the Council will unify its organization, meet regularly as a group, and follow the dictates of its own rules.

of Order. If not, there is little visible need for a representative-legislative body which doesn't even follow its own rules and doesn't start its important job of total representation until almost two months after it is supposed to begin.

Norman To Hold Procedures Class

Dick Norman, vice-president of the Student Council, will hold a class on parliamentary procedure for all club officers this Thursday, November 12.

The class will be held in room 101 of Lappin Hall at 6:30 p.m.

The class will include filmstrips, a lecture and a discussion period.

Homecoming Events To Feature Concert, Dedication, Football

Homecoming for 1964 will be a colorful, festive day packed with activities ranging from fine food to rugged football.

Homecoming activities will begin this year on Friday, October 16, with a concert in the Fieldhouse at 8:00 p.m. by renowned Pete Fountain and Band.

Registration will be held on Homecoming Day, October 17, from 8:00 to 10:00 a.m. in the

A highlight of Homecoming ceremonies will be the dedication of the new Breathitt Sports Center. The $600,000 center includes a 10,000 seat stadium, grass track, baseball field and practice football field. Governor Edward

T. Breathitt and other state officials will be on hand for the ceremonies.

Editor's Note: As of press time, we have no information regarding the election of the homecoming queen and the election dates. This information will have to be released by the Student Council at a later date. We will have it in the next edition of the Trail Blazer, on October 13.

Morehead's Eagles play host to Austin Peay State College in the Homecoming football game at 2:30 p.m.

The Eagles hold a 2-0 record with Austin Peay. In 1962 Morehead rolled past the Governors 36-7 and last season it was a fight to the finish with the Eagles coming out on top 7-0.

Jones and James Osborne, guards Ken Howard and James Hall. Penny will have the most experienced backfield in years. At the quarterback slot will be Mike Gottfried, at halfback positions will be Dennis Brown and Tally Johnson (who was Morehead's leading scorer) and at fullback will be Russ Campbell who was Morehead's leading rusher.

The Eagles, who have been picked by a national magazine as the best choice to win the Ohio Valley Conference championship this year, will be ready to take on a much-improved Austin Peay squad.

The annual Homecoming Dance will be held in the Fieldhouse from 8:00 to 12:00 p.m. The theme of the dance will be the Old South and elaborate decorations have been planned.

"We have an outstanding Homecoming program for 1964," said Alumni President J.G., Gibson, "and we feel a record number of alumni and friends will come to the campus on October 17."

Morehead Pits Speed Against Austin Peay Depth

By DAVID C. ADAMS
If Morehead and Austin Peay learned their football lessons well, their fight on Saturday for first place in the Ohio Valley Conference boils down to a duel of speed against depth. Morehead survived a sneak preview of Austin Peay's vaunted "belly-option series" in squeaking past Murray 17-14 last week. The Govs tied Western 6-6, but the Hilltoppers opened a leak in Austin Peay's defense that Morehead hopes to widen. Gov coach Bill Dupes says,

"Morehead has the best backfield in the O.V.C. It puts the most pressure on your defense. We can't match their speed so we'll have to rely on ball control."

Eagle chief Guy Penny returns: "We couldn't stop Murray's option series so our work is cut out. Their (Austin Peay's) fullback slant is powerful."

Both Peek At Films

Both coaches have films of their opponents' games last week so each team ought to be well drilled. Morehead may not play wingback Dennis Brown due to injury. Tommy Gray would replace him. The Govs may not play their wingback either. Arnold Huskey missed the Western tie and Tommy Bligham spelled him.

Says Penny of the Murray venture:

"Our boys went into the game over-confident. And after we got a quick 10-0 lead, they let down. We played scared football the rest of the way."

"Mike Gottfried threw under tremendous pressure. On the turning-point pass in the fourth period, the bench instructed Mike to go for the first down."

Gray ran the wrong pattern but Mike saw him open. Tommy simply ran down the ball."

The 45-yard pass to Gray put the Eagles in scoring position to overcome Murray's 14-10 lead and keep Penny's power unbeaten.

"Gottfried has come into his own as a passer (he leads the O.V.C. with 325 yards). We've emphasized throwing to the primary receiver but Mike's waiting long enough to find the open man, even if he's not the intended target."

Depend On Fullbacks

Dupes knows his Govs must stop Gottfried. "We'll have to pressure him," Dupes said, "because our secondary isn't tall or rugged to fight off such burly receivers as Jack Smith and Richard Pare."

Both teams stress a fullback-oriented offense. In Ray Hand and John Ogles, the Govs offer contrasts in power (Hand) and speed (Ogles) in their platoon scheme. Hand, who's quick-kicked twice for a 51-yard average, leads in rushing with 190 yards. He's had two 65-yard quick kicks nullified by, of all things, offside penalties.

In Carlton Platt, the league's smallest player at 150 pounds, and Eddie Hartner, the Govs present two quarterbacks gifted in the option series. Hartner, a better passer than Platt, hasn't been trapped yet for a loss... which speaks well for his blocking.

At Morehead, Russ Campbell—fastest fullback in the league—totes a 5.6 average on 247 yards. His faking is important to Gottfried's passing.

Homecoming Most Festive Ever At Morehead State College

By Walter Moore

Homecoming 1964 brought a record turnout of students, parents, and alumni to Morehead, where they saw the most gala Homecoming ever.

Activities started Friday afternoon (Oct. 16) with a candlelight dinner in the Doran Student House. Dress was semi-formal, and Mrs. Adron Doran, wife of President Doran, played the organ.

Mrs. Doran was accompanied by Kenny Beckloff on the saxophone and Lonnie Watson at the drums. Singers were Carol Gilmore and Gary Holcomb.

Hosts for this dinner were the Student Council, the Lakotas and the Capa Tridents.

Ray Hornback, Assistant to the President for Public Affairs, introduced Pete Fountain, jazz clarinetist, at 8:00 p.m. to an enthusiastic audience of over 1500 students, faculty and alumni at the Field-house, where he presented a two-hour concert.

Saturday morning at registration, alumni and parents were given a copy of the Homecoming edition of the Trail Blazer, which was the largest edition ever at Morehead.

Open House was held from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, and parents and alumni visited with students and inspected the new buildings on campus. Receptions in the various academic divisions were also scheduled at the same time.

Next on the agenda was the Smorgasboard Luncheon, in the Doran Student House which drew over 1500 guests.

At the pre-game show the Morehead State College band welcomed the alumni with "My Old Kentucky Home" and the "Alma Mater."

At 2:30 the undefeated Eagles started the game against their previously undefeated conference foe Austin Peay in the Eagle's new Breathitt Sports Stadium.

In the first half, Austin Peay drew first blood and went in at the half with a 7-0 lead.

At half-time, the new Homecoming queen at Morehead for 1964, Judy Smith, was named.

Also during halftime, the dormitory decoration winners were announced.

Fields Hall placed first in dorm decorations for girls with a demonstration of dressed up "Southern Belles". Mignon Hall took second place, and Thompson took third.

Waterfield's steamship earned a first place for the men. Regents Hall took second, and East Mens-Butler took third.

In the third quarter, the Governors scored another hard-earned touchdown, but missed the pat. Nevertheless, in the last quarter it was the Eagles all the way. Morehead made a thrilling comeback to win the game 14-13 before the over 8,000 fans.

A post-game supper and reception was then held in the Doran Student House. About 800 alumni and parents were received by Dr. and Mrs. Doran, Judy Smith and James G. Gibson, president of the alumni association.

The Phi Mu Alpha Band played songs at the Homecoming Dance with "The Old South" serving as this year's theme. The band played in front of a setting of an "Old Kentucky Home" and other Southern decorations. Over 500 couples attended the dance.

Judy Smith and her court were presented to the guests during the dance.

Dear Editor

I would like to comment on the Homecoming activities at Morehead State College for 1964. Students conducted themselves in orderly fashion and I am sure that they all had a wonderful time--I know I did. We had a wonderful and beautiful, gracious Queens Court, and the Queen herself was a hard choice to make by the student body.

The Candlelight dinner was a success, and there is no doubt about the Pete Fountain Concert being rated the number one here out of past concerts in the last two years. The people seemed to have more of an interest this year and certainly worked harder than they did last year. The game will undoubtedly be marked as the most thrilling played this season.

Then came the closing out event of activities, The Homecoming Ball, which was packed.

Overall, I am trying to say that we had a great Homecoming and the student body helped make it that way.

Thanks again.

Don Crisp,
President of the Student Council

Three Scholarship Funds Are Established By Alumni

Three memorial scholarship funds have been established by the Morehead State College Alumni Association, bringing the total number of scholarship funds to 20.

Memorial scholarship funds have been established for Dr. Clifford Rader, Barbara Hogge Smith and Bill Salisbury.

Other scholarship funds existing are: Distinguished Faculty Award Scholarship Fund, A. Y. Lloyd Scholarship Fund, Mignon Doran Scholarship Fund, Juanita Minish Memorial Scholarship Fund, Mona Combs Memorial Scholarship Fund, Gabriel C. Banks Scholarship Fund, Henry C. Haggan Scholarship Fund and ten general Alumni Association Funds.

The Student Council of Morehead State College has provided funds for the establishment of a Bill Salisbury Memorial Scholarship to be administered by the Alumni Association. Salisbury was a past president of the Morehead State College Student Council.

All contributions to the Alumni Scholarship Fund are used to further educational opportunities of youths interested in attending Morehead State College. Individuals wishing to contribute to one of the funds may do so by clipping the coupon below and designating which scholarship fund the gift should be attributed to.

All contributions will be acknowledged and a notification will be mailed to families of those for whom scholarships have been named.

Dick Norman, vice president of the Student Council, has announced that the Council has arranged for two buses to take students to Richmond this Saturday for the Eagles' game with Eastern.

"Students may sign up for the trip in the college business office," said Norman.

Judiciary Council Planned At MSC

Students To Vote On Plan Thursday After Convocation

By Mary Sharrard

The Morehead State College Student Council is in the process of amending the Council's constitution to form a Judiciary Council.

The amendment, which must be voted upon by the total student body, will be brought to a vote following the all-student convocation on Thursday, January 14.

The purpose of the Judiciary Council is to provide a means whereby the student body has a direct voice in the rendering of judgement upon their fellow students, who have been recognized by the administration as having a problem.

We hope that the above amendment has been clearly stated and that you understand the necessity for such a council to be established on the campus.

We feel that each student involved will receive justice to the fullest capacity by being judged by his colleagues.

We hope that you have recognized the need for this council and will join us in an effort to improve self-government here at Morehead State College.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Don Crisp, President

Dick Norman, Vice-President

This body will sit as a court with six justices and a Chief Justice. The six voting justices will be upperclass students and will be appointed by the President of the Student Council, with the approval of the Student Council and the Dean of Students.

The Vice President of the Student Council will assume the position of Chief Justice by virtue of his office. The Chief Justice will vote only in a situation where the six justices could not come to an agreement.

The Attorney General is to be appointed by the Chief Justice and President of the Student Council. The Attorney General will assume position of gathering information pertaining to the case at hand. Temporarily, he will also serve as Recording Secretary.

The Judiciary Council will be concerned with all campus problems, excluding those under dormitory regulation.

"It is hoped that this group will begin to function at the beginning of the second semester," said Student Council President Don Crisp.

Editor's Note: All Morehead State College students should think seriously about the formation of the Judiciary Council. If they have any questions about the Council, they should contact a member of the Student Council and have the member (preferably a member of the executive council) answer the question before this Thursday. Also, each student should be certain to vote.

Student Council Is Working On Judiciary Council Proposal

By Sue Wallace

Student Council President Don Crisp has announced that the Council is now in the process of setting up the particulars of the Judiciary Council.

"I want to present our new and advanced ideas to the student body within the next few weeks," said Crisp. "I hope that we can set up a good date for the two-hour discussion and make this a successful meeting."

Crisp also said that he hoped the Student Council would be able to clarify all questions students might have.

Norman Speaks On Process

"We have been working to obtain the best possible representative organization for the students at Morehead," said Dick Norman,

Student Council Vice President.

Norman, who acted in President Crisp's place (Crisp had to attend a meeting in Frankfort) at last week's meeting, said that he hoped the final draft of the material would be ready in the near future, so all students could read about the workings of the Judiciary Council before voting on the measure.

"This measure is of tremendous importance to all of us," said Norman, "and we want it to be as perfect as we can make it before again presenting it to the student body."

The Student Council, at last Thursday's meeting, discussed the Judiciary Council and its formation; however, final plans were not completed.

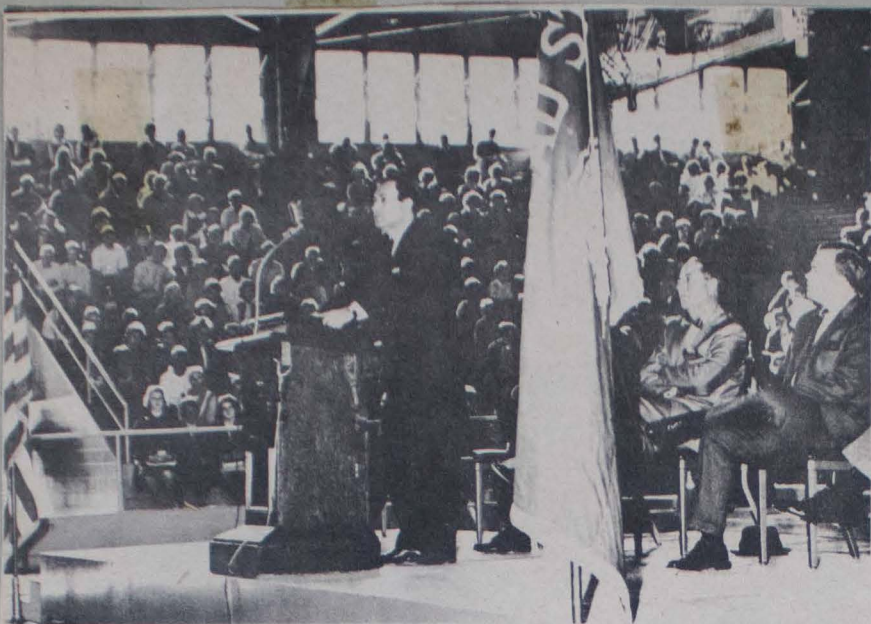

President Crisp, before leaving on his Frankfort trip, said that he wanted to tell the students that the Student Council had been working with Herbert Hogan, Business Manager, to lower the prices in the cafeteria.

Crisp said that through Hogan's help the prices on meats, vegetables and pies have been lowered considerably.

He also said that the Student Council now has an office located on the second floor of the Doran Student House in Room No. 2.

"If students need any information from us," said Crisp, "they should come to the office or address a letter to Box 3, Morehead State College."

AT CONVOCATION — Dr. Dan Jacobs (speaking), noted authority on Communism, addressed an all-student convocation at Morehead State College on January 14. Following Dr. Jacobs' address, Don Crisp (right), President of the Student Council, proposed the formation of a Judiciary Council at the college; however, the students voted "no" to the suggested constitutional change.

Judicial Council Receives "No" Vote From Student Body

By Mary Sharrard and Ken Straffer

An attempt at student self-government faltered at the all-student convocation at Morehead State College on January 14.

The matter of self-government was in the form of an amendment to the Constitution of the Student Council, which called for the formation of a student judicial body.

Don Crisp, President of the Student Council, made the motion for the amendment after Dr. Ben Jacobs had addressed the assembled body on Communism and its changing face in today's world. As the convocation proceeded, opposition to the amendment, as it was presented, was voiced, as students requested further information on the motion before voting. Further information was not forthcoming, and the amendment was voted down by the students.

After making the motion for the amendment, Crisp said, "Self-government is self-discipline and self-control. With this we will be making a greater stride to self-government. You are no longer in high school. We should be mature enough to govern ourselves. We should be old enough to amend our own constitution."

Crisp then cited home-town government and added, "Set a goal in life, and try to achieve this goal.

In doing so, govern yourself on the right track to harvest the fruits of seeds sown."

Crisp, after some further comments on the amendment, turned the rostrum over to Student Council Vice-President Dick Norman.

Norman explained the workings of the body by saying that the Judiciary Council will sit as a high court, with six justices and a chief justice. The six voting justices shall be upperclass students, appointed by the President of the Student Council and approved by the Dean of Students and the members of the Student Council.

He further explained that the Vice-President will assume the position of the chief justice by virtue of his office. The chief justice would only vote in a situation where the six justices could not come to an agreement. He also added that there will be an appointed attorney general, whose duties shall be that of gathering information pertaining to the case at hand. The attorney general is to be appointed by the Student Council President and the chief justice.

Norman was interrupted by Herb

Schmidt, a senior, who asked whether or not the chief justice would have any real power or be merely a figurehead, without having any real voice in final decisions. Schmidt was informed that the chief justice was only a tie-breaker, and that the six justices were the ones to set down the majority of the decisions.

Ivan Harper, a junior, then said, "I do not think it is fair for us to vote on an issue that we know very little about, especially since the decisions set down by the Council would set the mode for the individual's (on trial) future."

Crisp then called for limited debate on the subject and asked for a second.

Tom Cooper, a junior, then asked, "What kind of democracy is this that we have limited discussion on this matter?" He said, "From what it said in the paper (Trail Blazer) excluding regulations in dormitories and what I have heard him (Crisp) say, if a number of people are kicked out of the dormitories, just come to us. This is a dormitory matter and should not concern the Council, as was stated in the paper."

Crisp eventually obtained a second and the vote, which was negative, was taken.

After the convocation, Cooper said that basically the council was and is a good idea if properly set up and that only very consciousness people should serve on the council. He then added that most people did not have any idea of what the amendment was all about and that he felt the people involved tried to railroad the proposal through.

CALENDAR GIRL — Pretty Judy Smith, Prestonsburg, has been selected as the Trail Blazer Calendar Girl of the issue. Judy, a sophomore, is the secretary of the Student Council, and a lovely student leader on campus.

Cafeteria Prices Are Lowered

By June Burke

Cafeteria prices have been reduced recently through the action of the Student Council.

The Student Council set up a comparative study committee in the fall of 1964, with Robert Monahan as chairman.

The committee was composed of: Mary Ruth Thompson, Dave Dennis, Jim Johnson, and Monahan.

The committee gathered its information from other Kentucky State Colleges, and the eating establishments in Morehead. A comparative list was made, and discussed with Hogan, head of the College Business Office. Hogan checked on the prices and other issues the committee had brought to his attention.

Food prices began to lower, and a Price List Board was added.

1964 HOMECOMING QUEEN — Miss Judy Smith, a sophomore from Prestonsburg, was elected Homecoming Queen at Morehead State College for the 1964-65 school year. Judy, a speech and drama major, is secretary of the Student Council and a member of many other campus organizations.

Judy Smith — A Girl Who Likes People

By Delores Callahan Trail Blazer News Editor

A chemistry student was once asked, "What do you think has been the greatest achievement in the field of chemistry in the past fifty years?" His reply, "Peroxide and blondes!"

Morehead State College can boast of a blonde "five-footer" who is above and beyond the "dumb blonde" stereo type. A native Prestonsburg lass and this year's homecoming queen, Judy Smith now resides in Stone, Ky., a small town near Williamson, W. Va.

Judy is a speech and drama major and plans to be a speech therapist for children. At one time she considered taking nurse's training, but compromised her speech and medical professions to get speech therapy.

Her main interest? People!

At the present time, Judy is a member of the Lakota Social Club, secretary of the Student Council, the Floyd County Club, and the Morehead Players, and is a member of the Open Forum Club.

Last year, as a freshman, Judy was a member of the Freshman Steering Committee, played leading roles in several campus play productions, and was Vets Club queen.

When asked about being Homecoming, she replied, "The crown meant nothing to me in itself, but it did mean something to me to think that I had all those friends. I love people!"

Judiciary Council Vote Is Scheduled

Section C. Each seated judge may cast one vote in each decision. The Chief Justice shall vote only in the event of a tie.

Article IV - Appeal

Any party aggrieved by the decision of his case by the Judiciary Council shall have the right to have his case referred to the Administrative Council and/or the Student Life Committee. Such appeal must be timely made and based upon technical or legal grounds.

Council Amendment Is Passed 613-270

Second Vote Is Successful

The amendment for the formation of a Judiciary Council at Morehead State College was passed by the students on March 18 by a 613-270 vote.

The vote was just 50-odd over the two-thirds majority needed to pass the constitutional amendment.

The original idea was first presented to the students in the Trail Blazer of January 12. The delivery, first debate, and vote on the council was held on January 14 at an all-student convocation.

At the convocation, Don Crisp, president of the Student Council and Dick Norman, Vice-president of the Student Council, outlined the proposed amendment to the student body and then called for a limited debate on the matter. The amendment failed to get a "yes" vote.

An evaluation of the failure was made, and a date was set for a new debate and vote. The debate was held March 16 at 7:30 p.m. in Button Auditorium.

At the debate, some forty students gathered to listen to the few questions that were asked about the amendment that was to be voted on March 18.

The entire Student Council handled the meeting of March 16, receiving and answering questions on the Judiciary Council.

The first questions from the floor were asked by Rex Stamper, who asked if there was an established need for such a body on the campus of Morehead State College. It was pointed out that there was and that the office of the dean will average 25 cases, of the type the Judiciary Council would be working on, a month.

It was also pointed out that the Judiciary Council would be paral-led to the office of the Dean in cases taken before it.

The accused would have a choice between being tried by the council or the Dean. He will not be forced to appear before any one group. It was also pointed out that individuals brought before the council will have the right to defend themselves or have defense made in their behalf. The Attorney General will be as unbiased as possible in gathering evidence for the trial, it was added.

A reversal of a Judiciary Council vote can only come from the Administrative Council. It was added that the major aim of the Judiciary Council was not to dismiss students from school, but rather to pass the burden of rule from administrative hands to those of the students.

The amendment now goes back into committee for by-laws formation and the actual set up of the final draft.

New Hours For Girls On The Weekends

The Student Council, in cooperation with the Dean of Students Office, has arranged some changes in girls' hours over the weekend for the 1964-65 school year.

The new hours, designed because of the many spring activities that take place over the weekends, are: freshmen women's hours on Friday nights have been changed from 10:30 p.m. to 11:00 p.m.; sophomore women's hours on Saturday nights have been changed from 11:00 p.m. to 11:30 p.m.; and junior and senior women's hours have been changed on Friday nights from 11:00 p.m. to 11:30 p.m. and on Saturday nights from 11:30 p.m. to 12:30 midnight.

These hours will be effective beginning next weekend, May 7 and 8.

Student Council Constitution

Next month, according to the Student Council Constitution, we will all be involved in the annual political scene at Morehead State College, as aspirants for the next year's Student Council offices will begin their campaigning in earnest.

However, before these elections develop and candidates sign up for the various offices, we would like to offer some suggestions for the members of the Student Council and the students at Morehead State to take under consideration.

First, according to the current Constitution of the Student Council, the only qualifications for candidates for the presidency are that they have at least one year's experience on the Council and be classified as a sophomore or junior. The classification qualification also holds true for the vice-presidential candidates; however, the year's previous service is not required. Also, the candidates for these two offices are required to take a test on parliamentary procedure. Other candidates for office are merely required to be a member of the freshman, sophomore or junior classes.

These qualifications are good as far as they go; however, we would like to see the Council prepare an amendment for student vote which will include an academic qualification for all candidates. And, we feel this qualification should be higher for the President and vice-president than for the other members of the Council in general.

We feel that the presidential candidates should be required to have a minimum of a 2.5 over-all academic standing. Other members of the Council should be required to have at least a 2.0 standing.

In view of the fact that these individuals are representing us and Morehead State College to almost everyone who visits the campus during the school year (and at various off-campus functions), they should be well-qualified in all ways, including being well-qualified academically.

And, as there were over 700 students who had a 3.0 standing and better last semester, we do not see how the relatively-low requirements we have suggested would hurt any qualified candidates the students would want representing them.

We had thought about this proposal last year; however, before we discovered that there were no exact academic qualifications for candidates, several students had already registered with the Dean of Students as candidates. Therefore, rather than make the proposal then, when we might have hurt some of the candidates by such a proposal, we decided to wait until this school year and make the suggestions before the elections.

The Student Council has time to act on these suggestions before election time. We feel they are definitely needed and hope they will be brought up for discussion and eventually this month, for a student vote.

Needs Immediate Revision

While we are discussing the Student Council Constitution, we would also like to suggest that the Council update its Constitution in yet another way.

At the current time, the Council representatives from Lakewood Terrace, Waterfield Hall, Butler Hall, Regents Hall, Wilson Hall, Mignon Hall, and West Mignon Hall are not valid representatives according to the Constitution.

Of course, we all recognize them as valid representatives and have no argument with them as such; however, the Constitution, as it now stands, recognizes only representatives from: Allie Young Hall, W. J. Fields Hall, Thompson Hall, Men's Hall, and one representative from Veterans' Village.

While the Student Council is discussing (we hope) the suggestion about revising the qualifications for future members, they could also discuss bringing the Constitution up to date in this respect.

In fact, they could even appoint a committee to check on the total content of the Constitution and, at a set time, present suggestions to the Council for updating the entire work. All of these suggestions could then be brought before the students for a vote.

The Constitution is outdated in many ways. There is no time like the present for bringing it out of the days past, when there were only four dormitories on campus, to the present.

Student Elections Just Around The Corner

Within the next month, the students of Morehead State College will be called upon to elect a new Student Council Executive Committee for the school year 1965-66.

In accordance with the constitution of the Student Council, Article XII, section A, the election shall be held annually on such a date in April as the Student Council may deem necessary. However, at present no date has been set to comply with the said regulation of the constitution.

This technical violation may be erased as far as this election is concerned, but the election rules have been made and should be followed.

Rules are made for a purpose, principally to add significance, dignity and order to elections held in connection with campus affairs. Also, although there is no set rule for the academic qualification of a candidate, we must again say candidates should have a 2.5 over-all academic average and the candidates for president and vice-president a 3.0. This addition to the qualifications for office would add dignity and worthiness to the office.

We are looking forward to the Student Council and class office elections this year and hope the student body will actively participate in them and give support to them.

Also, if you know and approve of any prospective candidates give them your support, or better still, if you think you can do a better job than the prospective candidate, sign up for the election yourself.

There must be written notification of all campus-wide elections in each polling place not less than one week in advance of the elections.

A simple majority is necessary for action.

In the event of disputes over elections or candidacy, the disputes will be heard by the Election Procedures Committee.

The presentation of candidates will take place on May 11. On May 17, the final candidates and their speeches will be presented.

Student Council Elections Climax Spring Semester

Once again we are called upon to elect student leaders for the forthcoming year. These people we elect will be our representatives for an entire school year.

With the passing of the Judiciary Council, a time of transition in student government is upon us. This time of transition makes certain demands that never before have been required of the student leaders, but one demand still remains constant - adequate leadership.

Each leader elected should be, in the finest degree, a representative of all the students. His concern should not be with any one club, but rather the majority and independent minority on the campus.

Too often we have turned the elections into popularity polls and paid the price the next year. The future of the next Student Council and class officers are in the hands of the students of Morehead State College. We can only ask that the voters consider the qualifications of each candidate before voting.

"The dye has been cast" and we are preparing to cross the Hellespont. Whether a great battle is to be won or a minor skirmish fought is dependent upon all of us.

Be Certain To Vote In Today's Election

Today we are voting in the finals of the Student Council Election. We have placed a picture of each candidate on the front page of this paper so as to give our readers a chance to become acquainted with the candidates and their qualification, and have given the voters all the chance in the world to know the candidates. All we ask now is that you vote.

Last year over 1,400 students voted in the election, but the candidates for President of the Student Council won by only 11 votes!

Now, using this as an example, can anyone really and honestly say their vote carried no weight? Many students said they would have voted last year if they had known the election would have been so close. Yet, the fact remains that they should have voted, regardless of the margin one candidate has over the other. If you truly support a candidate and want to see him or her win, vote today for tomorrow will be too late.

This forthcoming year will mark a high in the degree of self-control the students of Morehead State College will have with the establishment of the Judiciary Council. Never before has so much depended upon the election of leaders as today. The successful set up and operation of this council depends upon the leadership it will have. And, the Student Council, it is hoped by all, will operate as a medium of student expression on matters affecting student life on campus.

All that can be said has been said. It is now up to each and every one of us to cast our vote for our choice to lead us in the forthcoming school year.

Student Council Variety Show Exhibits Wide College Talent

By Mary Sharrard

While many informally-dressed Morehead State College students sat on the floor of the Fieldhouse, "western style", a wide variety of the talent at the college was displayed at the annual Student Council Variety Show. An estimated crowd of seven hundred-fifty students attended the event, held Friday, May 7, which was emceed by Chuck Woolery, whose personality and humor tied the show together. The audience was delighted by Woolery's excerpts from records by Brother Dave Gardner and other humorous monologues.

The two directors were John Duncan and Bill Pierce, who spent long hours to make the show a success.

A rocking band, the Ramblin' Rebels appeared twice singing such popular tunes as "It's All Right" and "Help Me Rhonda."

Another singing group, the Entertainers, appeared singing additional currently known songs. These boys appear often in surrounding cities at many well-attended gatherings.

The Eclairs, a girl's quartet from Rowan County High School, sang folk songs such as "Julianne" and "Blowin' in the Wind." Emcee Chuck Woolery accompanied them on a bass fiddle.

A duo, the "Jug 69ers," used a washtub strung with a broomstick to accompany themselves as they sang folk songs.

Another group, the "Riverboat Ramblers," entertained the audience with several dixieland selections.

A short skit entitled "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" was presented by Pat Moore and Peggy Snapp.

Others whose talent made the evening a success were: Sam Grant and Alan Hill on the organ, Jim Bowling with his Spanish guitar, Becky Pierce and Tom Bailey at the piano. Solo singers of the event were Gary Holcomb, Gary Mackey, C.V. Eoloy and Hugh Anderson. Adding variety was Mary Dugan, toe dancer. A folk duet was performed by Don Taylor and Jack Kendall.

The Phi Mu Alpha lab tied the show together with short selections between acts as well as some featured tunes. They were directed by Bill Svec.

Don Crisp, President of the Student Council said of the show: "Without a doubt, the 1965 variety show, sponsored by the Student Council Friday night, May 7, was the greatest show ever produced on the Morehead State College campus. Only on the MSC campus can you find such wonderful students to work with as were in the show. Without the help of the two outstanding professional directors, Bill Pierce and John Duncan, the show would not have been such a success. I want to take this opportunity to thank every participant of the variety show, the directors, lighting personnel, the Dean of Students and the student body, itself, for making the show a great hit. I am sure that no other college or university in the state of Kentucky could produce such a show. I think the fifty-cent admission price was well spent and I hope next year the student body will be able to view such a fine show as this year."
