Maysville, March 24, 1847.

Communications.

Our correspondent "FARLEN" is informed that we publish nothing without a responsible name. His communication, though well written, is otherwise objectionable on account of the subject.

The proceedings of a public meeting in Flemingsburg was received too late for today's paper. It shall appear in our next.

The call upon a prominent member of the democratic party, was not made known to the Editor until too late for today's paper. It shall appear in our next.

GERMANTOWN TURKPILE AGAIN.

We promised in our last, to continue this subject by going more into detail, in speaking of the advantages to result from the completion of the road. In doing this we shall not attempt to separate those which will redound to the respective interests of the town and country. For, of all the absurd prejudices that ever flourished in the human bosom, we consider that of town against country, or country against town, as most odious. Each is necessary to the prosperity of the other. The farmer produces what the merchant or manufacturer desires for consumption or export, while the latter creates by reproductive industry, or imports from abroad products needed by the former.

It is estimated that the proposed road would open the Maysville market for the receipt, (for sale or shipment) of from one to two thousand hogheads of tobacco; but a small portion of which finds its way to this place now. Indeed we learn there are at this time, in Germantown several hundred hogheads of tobacco, which are only there for the want of transportation, which cannot be obtained unless a prior for show what the holders could afford to pay. This delay in forwarding the market is hazardous to the holders,—the interest upon the amount invested is a loss, and the inability to haul it now, when farm teams have comparatively little to do, is also loss, for the roads will not be better until the season for plowing and planting arrives, and then the farmer cannot well spare the time from his agricultural labors. All these losses and inconveniences will be obviated by finishing the turnpike. Oh, but says one, don't like turnpikes on account of the tolls. Let us look at this objection for a moment.

The average load for 4 horses on a dirt road in winter, is estimated at 2,000 lbs., and the value of the services of the team and driver $3, or as they are generally in winter, a farmer living 10 miles from town could not more than come in, unladen and return in one or half days; during which time the cost of team and driver, without contingencies, is estimated at $4.50. On the turnpike he can haul, with more ease, and in like manner, on account of the difference, three loads, 2,000 lbs. each, at $4.50 per load for team wages and driver $13 50

For hauling same in one day on turnpike one load 83 00 Tolls and coming 30 — 3 80 Difference in favor of Turnpike 89 70 Or, in other words, $9,70 made in one day by the use of a turnpike, enough to pay a half interest on one share of stock in the road without one cent of dividend. Then the wear of horses is not one-third as great as the turnpike—no lack of wagons, and the diminution of blacksmith's account may be set down as equal to the interest upon another share of stock. Again, the rapidity of the travel obviates the risk of exposure of hemp and tobacco, to the frequent changes of weather, a matter of small consequence to both buyers and sellers, especially in a climate like this.

We have only room to add, that competent judges have estimated it a additional expenditure of money, necessary to complete the road, at not more than $10,000.— It may be modifying indeed, if the farmers interested in the work, should not, with the assistance of Maysville, purchase rail cars, so small, when compared to the magnitude of the interests to be affected by its investment.

The news from our army near Monterey, will be found interesting, although not so full as we could desire.

All we have received of the Hibernia's news, goes to confirm our belief expressed some weeks ago, that prices of provisions and breadstuffs are likely to keep up until another crop shall have filled the granaries of the inhabitants; and it will doubtless be well, that the immense foreign demand for wheat has so reduced the stock on hand in our country as to secure the continuance of remunerating prices for another year.

Charles Hayward, candidate of the Temperance party, has been elected Mayor of Barger, Me.

See advertisement of H. Cox's Book Store in today's paper. We are glad to learn that, by the terms of the will of his lamented father, Mr. H. Cox is authorized to continue the business as if no such event had happened. This community would learn with regret that so valuable a stock should, even for a limited time, be withdrawn from the market.

Arrival of the Trips—Late authentic accounts of General Taylor's march from Santa Anna and Reys of Gen. Taylor's Despatches from Monterey—Fortification of Los Anarros—Abandonment of Cerro de Guadalupe of Martin, Mier, etc., by the Mexicans.

The United States schooner Arctico, Capt. West arrived in port yesterday afternoon from the mouth of the Rio Grande, having on board the 1st Regt. Dr. Jarvis, Surgeon of the United States Army, and a number of men. He is the bearer of despatches from Col. Curtis, in command at Camargo, to the Government at Washington.

Dr. Jarvis left Camargo on the 23d inst. There had been nothing received there from Gen. Taylor in several days. The rumors which prevailed were of the most contradictory character. To endeavor to distinguish what is known to be true from what is merely rumored, and thus to correct as far as possible the exaggerated reports in circulation, Dr. Jarvis has at our request furnished us with the following memorandum.

Memorandum of Dr. Jarvis. Left Monterey on the morning of the 31st of February for Matamoros. At that time I was apprehensive of the possibility of an approach of Santa Anna and Saltillo was ascertained either by us or the Mexicans, so far as we could learn from the latter. A large force of cavalry was known, however, to be in front of the city, and this was made known by their capture of the detachment of Arkansas and Kentucky cavalry that advanced beyond San Incarnacion.

The force of Gen. Taylor's army, consisting of the Sierra Madre under command of Gen. Urrea, estimated at from six to eight thousand, was said to be at Victoria, and part as to approach to the city of Matamoros, when I left the former place. They were, in fact, in Victoria at the time our troops marched to that place in January last and returned to Tula as an advance brigade under Gen. Quitova, about the 10th inst.

I left Camargo on the morning of the 26th of February to return to Monterey in company with a train of 70 wagons laden with supplies and escorted by the company of Kentucky cavalry, under command of Capt. T. F. Marshall, and a detachment of 20 men belonging to the 2nd Dragoons. We had proceeded five miles when we were advised for our return in consequence of instructions just received by express, which passed us on the road, directed to the quarters of the 2nd Dragoons, at Monterey, which were received from Col. Whiting, assistant quartermaster general at the headquarters of Gen. Taylor, dated February 23d. This order is in like manner than half the time, and I had, 6,000 lbs. each, at $4.50 per load for team wages and driver $13 50

On the morning of the 27th, another express arrived at Camargo from the quartermaster at Monterey, stating in a note, that he had sent one off the day before, but apprehending that he may not have been cut off, he had endeavored, from Col. Whiting, that there were important despatches from Gen. Taylor, calling for reinforcements, he had sent another to advise of this fact.

About 2 o'clock another express arrived with a note from the same officer, dated Monterey, 11 o'clock, A. M. Feb. 23d, saying an express had just arrived from Santa Anna stating that he had twenty thousand men, and that Taylor did not surrender, and that if Taylor did not surrender he would cut him to pieces. The note concludes: "The express which left after dark last night, is the one which was giving the Mexicans help."

This may be considered the last official communication received, all the subsequent information being derived from the Mexicans. It might be thought that a note was received from the quartermaster at Monterey, at the same time as the last communication, which gives the additional particulars of the march of Santa Anna had fallen back from Agua Nueva to Saltillo, which I should infer also from the notes of Capt. M., although he does not distinctly state that the Mexicans say he lost six pieces of cannon at the former place. He moreover states that Gen. Marshall had gone to the pass of Los Muertos with a view of notifying it, and large quantities of ammunition had been despatched from Monterey to Saltillo.

The detachment of the 30th Ohio regiment under Col. Morgan and Lieut. Col. Irving was ordered to march from Monterey to Santa Anna, and the latter then, Mr. Irving was greatly feared at Camargo, had been cut off by a large force of 3,000 men who were said to have occupied the latter place on the afternoon of the 24th inst. Lieut. Col. Irving, in obedience to general order No. 11, is said to have left the morning of the 24th day. It was occupied by the enemy, marching to the junction with Col. Morgan, and then proceeding to Monterey. Col. Morgan left Camargo on the 14th, having destroyed, in obedience to the twenty-two-on the same general order, all such provisions as might be as he could not carry with him. He must, of consequence, have encountered the enemy in his route, as he had already, as we have seen above, occupied in force Marín, lying between him and Monterey.

Moreover, a train of 120th wagons, which left Camargo about the 16th or 17th, laden with provisions, clothing, &c., is said to have been cut off on the 14th at or near the place of Cerro de Guadalupe, and Santa Anna, with the escort, captured.

A hundred Mexican stores were in circulation at Camargo, when I left, in reference to the battle of Guadalupe between Gen. Taylor and Santa Anna. They say it had already continued three days with considerable loss on our side, but much greater on that of the Mexicans. Subsequent accounts from Gen. T., as I have falling back on Monterey. The day I left Camargo a letter was received from the aide of Mier saying that the Mexican troops had entered that town, twenty-four miles distant from the former place, and had made him prisoner in consequence of his endeavoring to secrete stores belonging to his charge when Lieut. Col. McCook evacuated the place. Gen. Curtis insisted on his march with his Regiment for Monterey the moment Col. Drake, with the 3d Indiana Regiment, arrived from Matamoros to relieve him.

The Hibernia was telegraphed at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, with news of the day's late intelligence. She brings Liverpool rates to the 4th inst. Cotton—Prices have revived and the demand is active. The demand of appearance for exports were slightly favorable. The quotations are—Georgia, fair, 63 1/2; Mobile, 64 1/2; N. Orleans Cotton 74. Corn—Heavy purchases were renewed in the market. Heavy purchases were made for Ireland. American Meal was selling at 11 a 12 shillings for 79 lbs.

White Corn is quoted at 69 3/4 a 72 shillings for 480 pounds. Heavy purchases were made for Ireland. American Meal was selling at 11 a 12 shillings for 79 lbs.

There was great uncertainty as to the stock on hand. No duties were levied, and the demand closed steadily, but not urgent. The Money Market was unusually tight. Things appeared to be tending generally towards a decline. A new loan of £8,000,000 authorized by the Government, was taken by the Rothschilds at Baring's at 88—105 per cent. £100—111 1/2 per cent. Consul, since has advanced 12 1/2, a 10 1/2.

The quotations from Boston by the Telegraph are rather ambiguous. The above, however, is the best that we could make out of them.

By the same boat we had accounts of the rumored battles near Saltillo, but differed so little in their general nature from those published yesterday, that we forego copying them.
