vs.

W. E. Grotor

Defendant states that there is no indictment or warrant against him in this prosecution which was confessed by the attorney for the Commonwealth and for this reason moves the Court to abate and dismiss the charge, which motion the Court overruled and also overruled his motion for a new trial.

Commonwealth of Ky.
vs: Order
Kenneth Nickell

Defendant, K. N., having been heretofore probated by this Court, and the Court having heretofore set aside that order of probation because he had failed to comply with those conditions therein, and the said K. N. having this day appeared in Court and having shown reasonable cause for not having complied with said conditions of the probation; the order setting aside probation is now cancelled and the defendant is now probated upon the following conditions:

- 1.
2. Prior to the first day of the May 1951 Term of the Rowan Circuit Court that he pay the sum of $360<sup>00</sup> which he is now in arrears, to his wife Mrs.
