

ROWAN COUNTY SCHOOLS OPEN WITH MARKED ENTHUSIASM ON MONDAY; LARGE ENROLLMENT

Teachers Conference Now In Session Closes First Week Of Rural Schools—Enrollment Said To Be Increased Over Last Year's Large Enrollment—Plans For Year—Being Discussed And Formulated

The rural schools of Rowan county opened the 1931-32 year on Monday of this week, with an enrollment according to reports, even greater than last year, which was the banner year for the county. Also, according to reports from various districts, the enthusiasm is starting out to be even greater than last year. A number of these reports are published below as a part of this article. In our next issue of regular department of Rowan County School News will be started for the coming year.

On Thursday and Friday of this week the teachers of the county are holding their first Teachers Conference at the court house. Every teacher in the county will be in attendance.

The following reports have been received from schools of the county which opened Monday.

The Old House Creek School opened Monday, July 20th with 25 enrolled and several more expecting to attend. The people of the district had already moved the school lot and cleaned it up before school began. Some of the patrons visited the school on the first day. Mr. John B. Mays spoke on the Opportunities of the Rural Child as Compared with Those of his Day. The talk was greatly appreciated by the teacher and the pupils.

Mr. James Boyd, the trustee, gave the children some good advice on behavior and other things of interest. These two talks were worthwhile to the school, as they were both uplifting and started the school off in good spirit.

Bluestone School opened Monday with 28 pupils enrolled in the first and second grades, and 50 in the six upper grades. Whole the first day were Mrs. Lonnie Flannery, Joe Barford, Jessie Flannery and a number of others. Mr. Flannery plans to mow the yard and clean it up this week.

All the merchants of the community went to the teachers and proposed to them that they would help keep the children in school by seeing that they do not loaf about their places of business. Mr. Ray Flannery is bringing a five gallon can of water to school every morning.

All the seats in the school are filled and all the people and citizens are eager to make their school a bigger and better one than in the past.

Mrs. M. L. Wilson opened her school at Glenwood Monday with an enrollment of 24 pupils, and expected more Tuesday. She, together with the pupils moved all the seats out of the school house, washed and oiled the floors, cleaned the seats, and put the school house in the best possible order for the year's work. The parents of all the children are showing a real interest in the school and with this spirit they should have the best year they have ever enjoyed.

Mrs. Mayme Love opened her school at Slaty Point Monday with an enrollment of 39 pupils. The schoolhouse and grounds has been cleaned and all are ready to start to work with a good spirit and one that will make a good school.

The Ramsey School opened Monday with an enrollment of 25 pupils. The patrons had cleaned the schoolhouse and grounds before the teacher arrived. Every child was anxious to get to school again after having had a good vacation. They are all anxious to get started to work on their studies as well as to get to work on their basketball court. The school won a new basketball last year by holding their attendance up and they are anxious to begin to play. The patrons and parents are all eager and waiting to do anything to make the school better.

Boy Scouts Take Two Day Trip

Morehead Boy Scouts, twenty seven strong, enjoyed a trip through the state and a visit to various historical spots last Friday and Saturday, returning to Morehead Saturday night. The expenses of the trip were sponsored by the local Kiwanis Club while cars were furnished by Mrs. Maude Clay and Mr. John Cecil, Dr. A. W. Adkins and Leo Oppenheimer.

The Scouts left Morehead Friday morning and drove to Camp Nelson. From there they went to Danville and Dix River, then to Shakerstown, Harrodsburg was the next stop where the boys had lunch and then visited old Fort Harrod. From Harrodsburg they went to Bardonia where they visited "My Old Kentucky Home" which was of particular interest to Morehead boys, as it was originally the home of Judge Rowan, after whom Rowan county was named. At Bardonia they also visited the Catholic Cathedral where the seven original paintings are kept as the gift to the church from one of the Kings of France. From Bardonia they went to Hodgenville for the evening meal and out to Lincoln Farm where they camped for the night. In the morning they visited the farm and went through the building. They then went to Camp Knox, Louisville, back to Frankfort where they visited the capitol buildings, old and new, and came back to Morehead Saturday night.

On the whole it was a delightful trip, not only to the boys, but to the older people who accompanied them. Morehead received all the praise it could wish for through these boys at every point a stop was made. With the exception of a swim at Robinson's at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, this trip marked the close of the Scouting program until school opens this fall.

The following Scouts made the trip: Asa Adkins, Crawford Ackins, Harold Allen, Harold Blair, Roger Barbour, J. T. Daugherty, Elwood Dillon, Lawrence Gray, Milton Davis, John Paul Nickell, Charles Tatum, Leo Davis Oppenheimer, Albert Patton, Joe Tolliver, Eversing Webb, Cuba, Jimmy Clay, Camden Young, Phillip Breding, Robert Fraley, Buddy Flood, Charles Fraley, E. V. Hollis, Jr., Harry Caudill and Hayes Webb. Mascots: Sidney Hollis, and Mac Webb. The adults in the party were Mrs. Maude Clay, Mr. John Cecil, Leo Oppenheimer, A. R. Perkins and Dr. A. W. Adkins.

New Traffic Light Installed

Morehead, more and more is becoming a first class city and all the distinguishing marks. The latest to make its appearance here is the new traffic light one of which has been installed at the intersection of Fairbanks and Wilson Avenue and Main Street. The other light will be in place since its installation, due to the "street and boulevard" at the junction corner.

Both these lights have been seriously needed, as a number of accidents have been narrowly avoided. The light at Wilson-Fairbank and Main has caused considerable amusement since its installation, due to the number of drivers who were unaware of the change. The first day a number of them blissfully ignored the challenge of the light. The spectators however, and there were many of them, did not hesitate to administer the "reprimand" to all offenders. Incidentally they received as many sheepish grins in return.

Actually there were many fewer violations than were expected when the light was first installed.

PRIMARY BALLOTS BEING PRINTED TRUMBO FAMILIES HAVE REUNION

Ballots are being printed this week for the primary election to be held on August 1. The ballots this time are short. The Democratic ballots carrying the names of candidates for three offices and the Republican two. In conformity with the law the ballots are published in this issue of the News.

An enjoyable reunion was held at the old Trumbo homestead on July 11. A delicious dinner was served to about thirty guests by Mr. and Mrs. John Trumbo, Mrs. and Mrs. Tom Trumbo and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Trumbo. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Trumbo and son of Ft. Thomas, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. William Trumbo of Ashland, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. Luther Trumbo of Portsmouth, Ohio and Mrs. Geneva Tracy and children of Ashland.

Verell Kendall of Gates is visiting at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Herbert Caudill.

ENDORSEMENTS OF CANDIDACY OF JUDGE ALLIE W. YOUNG FOR STATE SENATE STILL CONTINUE

Bath County News-Outlook Says Judge Youngs Has Done More For District Than Any Man Ever Sent To The Senate—States Accomplishments Of Past Eight Years With Promises For Future

Kiwanis Gives Up Charter

The Morehead Kiwanis Club has surrendered its charter as a Kiwanis Club and is organizing as a club in the community without outside affiliations. The reason for this is that often something comes up that we could and should do locally, but do not have sufficient funds to carry out. Instead of paying to the District the dues and other dues to the International office the club intends to conserve all funds for the civic betterment of Morehead.

This idea struck an almost unanimous assent in the club. Everyone seemed to be filled with the hope of devoting all the funds collected for Morehead.

It is felt this will have a wider sympathetic interest to all the local people.

A name has not yet been given to the new club, but it is possible that this will be decided upon by the next Monday evening. A committee consisting of E. V. Hollis, chairman, C. B. McCullough and Dr. A. F. Ellington was appointed by President H. C. Haggan to name the club and to bring in a Constitution and By-laws. Due to the absence of Mr. Hollis from the city, the committee did not meet and were not ready to report Monday night, but they are expected to do so next week.

Wm. Haines To Be At Cozy

About the only thing that needs to be said when William Haines stars in a picture at the Cozy is that "Bill Haines is in town" and the crowd is gathered. Well, Bill Haines will be at the Cozy on Friday and Saturday of this week.

"The Tailor Made Man" in which Haines is appearing is said to be one of his best comedies, and Haines is a comedian of the first rank. His pictures are screams from beginning to end. In the Tailor Made Man he has a strong supporting cast who add a great deal to the picture with his hundred and one mirth producing situations.

BANK STATEMENT IS CORRECTED

We wish to call attention to the Statement of the Peoples Bank in which an error occurred when published in our last issue. The amount of the "Undivided Profits" $10,000 was omitted following the words. The statement is being published this issue with the correction made.

Post Office Force Swamped By Calls

According to employees at the Post Office, the story carried in the News last week caused them an immense amount of grief and hard work. The story was the one with regard to the lack of carrier service on Saturday afternoon. According to our information, those who wished could get their mail Saturday afternoon by calling at the office. The employees say that apparently everybody who has carrier service also takes the News and reads it, as practically every patron called at the office for his mail. As a matter of fact, the employees say that the mail should not be called for on Saturday afternoon as it is not distributed until Monday. The carrier goes out duty at noon and the mail is not put up from twenty two or twenty three until Monday morning.

They ask that the patrons do NOT call for their mail Saturday afternoon.

Again the papers of the Thirty-first Senatorial District are evincing in an unceremonious manner their interest in and support of Judge Allie W. Young's candidacy for nomination and re-election to the office of State Senator. Judge Young has served his district in that capacity for the past eight years, and it was only at the urge and demand of the constituents of the district that he finally consented to again sacrifice his personal desires to the will of the people and become a candidate for re-election. The practically unanimous demand and desire of the citizens of the district have been repeatedly voiced in the newspapers published in the district, for after all the newspapers are but the reflectors of the attitude of the people whom they serve.

The following editorial is taken from the Bath County News-Outlook and indicates the trend of sentiment in that county, as well as the sentiment of the editor of that paper.

On another page of this issue of the News-Outlook, readers will find the formal announcement of Judge Allie W. Young as a candidate for re-election as State Senator, subject to the will of the voters of his party at the August primary.

Judge Young has served two consecutive terms as Senator from this district. His accomplishments during those eight years have been such that he is regarded in every section of the State as the foremost statesman of the Commonwealth and so far as Bath County and his own district are concerned, we have ample evidence on every hand of what his brilliant intellect and forceful personality have accomplished. Frankly, we are proud of his long record of office, so well known that it is not necessary to recount them here.

But we would call attention to what he proposes in his announcement in today's paper with reference to the Gross Sales Tax Bill and the removal of State taxes from real estate. That bill was perhaps the most beneficial piece of legislation passed in a generation so far as farmers of the State are concerned, in that it paves the way for the removal of State taxes on this class of property, as Judge Young points out, and not only lifts them from the back of the farmer's considerable tax burdens, but shields them from the arbitrary power of a State Tax Commission.

David Nickell returned Saturday from Bowling Green where he has been attending school during the summer.

Jas Waugh Dies In W. Virginia

James T. Waugh of Logan West Virginia, a former resident of Morehead and the father of Mrs. James Stephens and Mrs. Earley Cooper of this county was buried here Monday afternoon. Mr. Waugh passed away at his home in Logan and the remains were brought here for burial.

Mr. Waugh was born in Gallipolis Ohio and was 67 years old at the time of his death. The family moved to Morehead in 1898 and lived here until 1920 at which time they moved to Logan where they have since resided. Mr. Waugh was married to Miss Sarah Elizabeth Taylor in 1884. Mrs. Waugh and four children survive him. They are: Mrs. James Stephens and Mrs. Earley Cooper, Morehead; James T. Waugh, Jr. and Bernard F. Waugh of Logan, W. Va.

A short funeral was conducted by Dr. R. L. Riddell and D. M. Holbrook at the Christian Church and burial was made in Lee Cemetery. The pallbearers were J. Trumbo, P. F. Blair, F. M. Robinson, J. W. Hodge, J. C. Carter and Arthur Hodge.

The FIGHTING TENDERFOOT

Some one laughed. Pankey was had egg, but he was no quitter. In the current phrase of the time and place he played the cards the way they were dealt him. The little man walked lame, and would as long as he lived. He owed that to Garrett O'Hara, a memento of the battle at the Cross ranch, but he cherished no grudge on that account. His wound had been given him in a fair fight. "Hadn't been so dark we would have got Deever an' Sommers an' maybe Quantrell, too," said Owen casually.

"Almost too casually, in fact. It was Pankey who spoke, after a moment of silence.

"Claimin' they was in on this, are you, Amen? G-guess again, old-timer."

"We knew who were in it, Pankey. But we wasn't sure about it. An' in God, there ain't nothin' in this world like we did you an' Ma's boys."

"You don't s-say," jeered Pankey.

"A lil' luck sure goes to some folks heads."

"Did they get the horses?" asked O'Hara.

"Nary a brance," replied one of the Browns.

"Good! You and Baldy stay here and make sure they don't come back. Not much chance of that, I'd say." O'Hara turned to Owen and McCarthy. "Will you have some one get this body? But first we'll carry Pankey to the Concho house if he's not able to walk."

"I can w-walk all right." The out-law spoke up.

"Good! We'll have Doctor Holloway look after you." Again the sheriff spoke to his allies. "Get together a dozen good citizens and patrol the roads out of town. Maybe we can catch Deever and Sommers as they slip away."

"An', Bob Quantrell—what about him? Ain't he worth gaterin' in?" Owen asked with an ironic little grin.

"He's already gathered," the sheriff said quietly.

The look of surprise on the faces after the fracas and were hiding in the chaparral. The one sure thing was that they would try to get some ranch for mounts upon which to escape.

O'Hara could not leave Concho for a few days on account of official business. Judge Warner was holding court and it was necessary for him to be present.

The sheriff knew that Bob Quantrell was slippery as a weasel and as dangerous as a wolf. Every moment he had to be watched. Give him a chance and he would find some way to escape. Therefore O'Hara chose his guards with great care. He selected three: Steve Worrall, Amen Owen and Buck Grogan. They were to divide the day and night into relays. The first two men he picked because they were the best available. Grogan was slower witted, but O'Hara hesitated about appointing him. But the man could be relied on not to relax his vigilance. He hated Quantrell too much to give him any opportunity of getting away.

The instructions given by O'Hara to his deputies were definite. He warned them, too against letting the prisoner for a single instant get his hand near a weapon.

CANDIDATE FOR Representative

ROWAN-BATH Legislative District

Democratic Primary, August 1st, 1931

Under an arrangement between the Democrats of the two counties for many years the nominee of the Democratic party has been alternating every two years. It is now Bath County's turn to name the candidate, and the Democracy of Bath County having met in convention on May 9, 1931 and selected me as the choice of the Democrats of Bath county, I trust the Democrats of both counties will carry out this agreement at the Primary on August 1, 1931. Had the Democrats in convention endorsed my opponent, I would not be a candidate.

If you nominate and elect me, I shall help to carry to completion the roads in Bath county from Owingsville and Salt Lick to Frenchburg and from Owingsville to Wyoming, and the roads in Rowan county from Morehead to Flemingsburg, Sandy Hook and West Liberty as well as from Soldier to Hayes Crossing.

I Will also vote to remove ALL State Taxes from farm lands and all other Real Estate.

WATER FROM MANY WELLS IS CONTAMINATED
 More than half of the samples of water from 3,065 wells analyzed in the Public Service Laboratories at the Experiment Station, University of Kentucky, last year showed evidence of contamination. Since the well is the most important source of the home water supply in Kentucky this indicates a dangerous situation and each home owner should make certain that his water supply is pure.

 In addition to testing the water in the well for purity at its underground source, it is necessary to protect the well against seepage thru the sides, and the entrance of filth and surface drainage through a poor cover. It is probably true that the safety of a well depends upon no other single factor to so great an extent as upon the nature of the curbing or casing used. This factor is especially important in the case of dug wells and other kinds of shallow wells, for it is in these wells that most of the cases of pollution occur.

Geo. B. McGlothen
 Of Olympia, Ky.
 Candidate for Representative

I find it my painful duty to call your attention to a fallacy in the advertisement of my opponent.
 His statement that the Democracy of Bath County selected him in convention is absurd. Every intelligent well informed person in the district knows that the Democratic Convention has no authority whatever to select a candidate for representative. That power resides in the individual Democratic voters alone. They will have their first opportunity to make their selection in the Primary, Saturday August 1.

I hold no personal ill-will for my opponent, and I really regret that one who aspires to the honor and responsibility of representing this district in the General Assembly should have resorted to this little, mean attempt to deceive the people.

Yours for Truth and Honesty,
Geo. B. McGlothen

J. S. BASKETT
 Candidate For Railroad Commissioner Third District
 Subject to Democratic Primary Saturday, August 1st Your Support Solicited and Appreciated.

I was born and always lived in Harrison County, Ky. Harrison with a normal Democratic majority of nearly 2500 is the banner Democratic county of the Ninth District.

Harrison has always been in the Democratic column in State and National elections since the Civil War. Harrison County has not had a candidate on the State ticket in the past forty years. I have a very large personal acquaintance all over Northern Kentucky, especially in the tracts and feel that if nominated I Ninth and Sixth congressional District can add considerable strength to the ticket in this part of the state that so far is not represented on the State ticket. Your vote earnestly solicited.

SLEEPY FEELING AFTER MEALS DUE TO POISONS

A dopey, tired feeling is ALWAYS a sign that waste food matter stays too long in the bowels. It ferments and forms gas. It breeds germs. It is sure to poison heart, kidneys, and brain.

Adlerika washes out BOTH upper and lower bowel. It brings out poisons which cause gas, nervousness and a dopey, sleepy feeling. It contains no harmful drugs. Get Adlerika today; by tomorrow you feel the wonderful cleansing effect of this German doctor's simple remedy. C. E. Bishop Drug Company.

Fourth Quarterly Conference Session, Sunday afternoon, August 9. Annual Conference Session assemblies in Winchester September 2.

The church is known by the loyalty of its membership. If the membership is interested, then the community will be interested. If the membership is not interested, then the community will likely have very little to do with the church. We arranged an attractive program for the summer and its success will depend on the membership. We have arranged everything for the morning hour, so you will not have a hard day during these hot months. The attendance thus far has been very good indeed. We would make it better, but without some interest by some of the members. Your children will be the reflection of your devotion. In old age do you want them to be like you are? They will likely be so.

Hints for Homemakers
 By Jane Rogers

TEASPOON of sugar added when frying tomatoes brings out their full flavor. In cooking both ham and pork, a small amount of sugar points up the nut-like flavor of the meat.

If late in starting the roast for dinner, seat it under the broiler while waiting for the oven to get hot. By the time the meat is nicely browned the oven will be hot enough to continue the cooking.

BILIOUS

"I have used Black-Draught... and have not found anything that could take its place. I take Black-Draught for biliousness. When I get bilious, I have a nervous headache and a nervous, trembling feeling that unfits me for my work. After I take a few doses of Black-Draught, I get all right. When I begin to get bilious, I feel tired and run-down, and then the headache and trembling. But Black-Draught relieves all this."

The MAYTAG BUILT WITH THE ENGINEERING REFINEMENT OF THE FINEST AUTOMOBILE

Until you have tried a Maytag, you cannot appreciate what such a feature as the auto-type shift lever means to you. It engages smoothly and quietly to start or stop the water action. It may be conveniently operated from any side of the tub. The action of the lever is so smooth that it is possible to move the lever from the "on" or "off" position by a light push of the fore-arm or with the back of the hand, when the hands are wet and soapy. This feature is typical of refinements throughout the Maytag.
