

Prisoners—We give in Friday's paper the Baltimore American, a substance of a report letter from Gen. J. J. Moore to the Secretary of War.

It is not the time for discussing the merits of the emigration question, as the removal of the Indians has been adopted as the settled policy of government.

It is however, you are of opinion that from the nature of the country, and the character of the enemy, such a result is impracticable, and that it is advisable to make a temporary arrangement with the Seminoles, by which the safety of the settlements and the posts will be secured throughout the summer.

Very respectfully, your most obedient servant, J. R. POINSETT.

St. Louis March 12.—We learn by a letter from a gentleman in Springfield that he arrived in this city, that on Wednesday evening last a quarrel took place between the late Mr. Frost, Register of the Land Office at Galena, and Dr. Early on account of something which Early said or did at the late Loco Foco Convention in Nashville, Tenn.

CONGRESSIONAL DECISION.—Under the Congressional head, will be found the heads of a Speech made in the House of Representatives by our Representative, on the Internal Appropriation Bill.

Death of Dr. Bowditch.—The Hon. Nath. Bowditch, the distinguished mathematician, died at Boston, on Friday last, of a disease of the stomach, at the age of 64 years.

Postage Extraordinary.—The Devenport mail brought yesterday morning a ship letter, in the shape of a late issue of the General Post Office, S. M. P. to the Grand, addressed to "His Excellency the French Ambassador, London."

point out one of the members of the House who, above all others, were the most distinguished appearance, he should have, unhesitatingly pointed to the member from New Jersey.

In fact, that gentleman's speech of yesterday could be compared to nothing better than an old woman's churning with a churn without a lid, which beat up every one that came near her.

From the Rural Repository. BRIGHT STAR OF THE EVENING.

Bright star of the evening, Thee I gaze on me, So gently, so calmly, O would I were thee, Thine star of the evening.

Opening of the great Rail Road South.—The 15th of March was a great day for South Carolina. The vast enterprise of uniting the Atlantic shore of that State with the waters of the Ohio, now only two years ago a mere speculation, is at last matured, and may be said to date its execution from the above day when the first ground was broken at Columbia.

In some families there appears to exist but little natural feeling among the members for one another. We often see a more successful in business, and surrounded by every comfort and luxury, who wister than his wife, married in judiciously, and in a manner marked the event.

M. P. MARSHALL. From the above it will be perceived that Mr. MARSHALL declines being a candidate to represent this county in the next Legislature.

In time of Peace prepare for War.—On Cape Cod, as soon as a young lady is engaged to be married, she suffers her finger nails to grow long, so that in case she should be obliged to throw herself on her sword, she might be able to do so with the scratch with some prospect of success.

An obliging correspondent has favored us with some particulars relative to the sub-treasury bill at present before Congress.

Now, Mr. Editor, it is believed by many, that neither of the above legislatures can, by their constitutions now stand, create any other kind of banks than those above specified, without violating the elementary and sacred principle of the Constitution.

Now, Mr. Editor, I am in favor of making such amendments to the Constitution of Kentucky as will exchange from our system, all money and court aristocracy, and put it into the hands of the people.

As to the proposition to amend the Federal Constitution, so as to give a sweeping title instrument as to locate the appointing power solely in the Senate, and limiting the removing power to suspension only, until the Senate can act upon the case, and in case that tribunal coincides with the President.
