

MOREHEAD TEACHERS COLLEGE OPENS WITH A SIXTY TWO PERCENT INCREASE OVER FALL LAST YEAR

School Authorities Are Delighted With Unexpectedly Heavy Enrollment; Had Expected It To Be Light In View Of Much Talked Of Depression—Nearly Six Hundred Enrolled In All Departments Of School

The enrollment at the Morehead State Teachers College exceeds any enrollment in past years, at the beginning of the first semester. Five hundred thirty-nine have now passed through the hopper of registration. The college students out number the high school students by three to one. The enrollment last year at this same time was three hundred thirty-six. This is a growth of sixty-two per cent over the last year.

Several changes have been made in the faculty of the college. Mrs. Myrtle Hall takes the place of Miss Corinth Taylor as head of the work in Home Economics. Mrs. Hall comes from Mobile, Alabama, where she has been head of the home economics department in the Mobile High School. She has both her B. S. and A. M. degrees from George Peabody College for Teachers at Nashville. She has had an experience of seven years in Home Economics work. She has been instructor in Home Economics and Cafeteria Supervision at the Central High School, Jackson, Mississippi, and has been a member of the Home Economics at State Teachers College, Hattiesburg, Mississippi, and also at the George Peabody College for Teachers.

Miss Catherine Riggs comes to head the department of Physical Education and Health. Miss Riggs comes from Minnesota. She has the B. S. Degree from the University of Minnesota and the A. M. degree from Teachers College, Columbia University. She has been a teacher of Physical Education for Girls at Iowa City High School; an instructor in Physical Education for Women at Knox College, Galesburg, Illinois, and acting head of the department of Physical Education for Women at Denau University, Greencastle, Indiana.

Mr. Ralph M. Hudson heads the department of Art for the year. He comes from Ohio State University, having taken both his Bachelor's and Master's degrees at that institution. He has had experience teaching at Dennison University, Granville, Ohio. Mr. Hudson has won several prizes in Nation wide contests.

The work in orchestra and band will be in charge of Mr. Maxwell George. He has had unusual fine training at Bowling Green State Teachers College, Bowling Green, Ohio, having taken his Bachelor's degree there. He has his Master's degree from Teachers College, Columbia University. Mr. George has had experience in instrumental music in the Bowling Green, Ohio City Schools.

Sam Caudill, junior, suffered the loss of his left hand on Thursday of last week, when he shot and exploded the charge striking his hand just above the wrist and passing out the back of the palm. He was given medical attention here and was hurried to St. Joseph's hospital in Lexington where it was found necessary to amputate the hand just above the wrist.

Mr. Caudill was unable to say just how the accident occurred. He was shooting rats with a twelve gauge shot gun and was crouched down. He stated that he started to rise and in some way lost his balance and in trying to save himself, apparently threw his left hand over the muzzle of the gun, pulling the trigger with his right.

According to reports Mr. Caudill is recovering nicely from the effects of the operation and will soon be back home. His humorous friends in the community have been one in expressing their sympathy with him. Mr. Caudill is the son-in-law of H. B. Toliver.

Contract Let For Highway

With all the rights-of-way on the Flemingburg-Morehead highway already signed, the State Highway signed sealed and delivered, the resolution of the Rowan County Fiscal Court accepting the proposition to build highway grade and drain was presented to the commission, and the final word on the highway was spoken on Wednesday of this week when the Commission awarded and signed the contract for the construction work to get under way. It was a victory for the advocates of good roads, regardless of route, and it means boomed that construction work will begin almost immediately and continue until the highway is completed. It also means that a good many men will be given employment during the coming winter, a fact that is almost as important as the construction of the road itself.

The contract was awarded and accepted by the Phelps Construction Company of Somerset, Ky. This firm has become rather well known throughout the state as one of the most reliable firms in operation and they are already shipping machinery in to begin operation at once. It is thought that actual work will begin within the next week or ten days, with no doubt be welcome news to all those at present unemployed.

The Phelps Construction Company according to reports, has an enviable reputation for turning their work out at the same time turning out a satisfactory job. They have just completed the Corbin to Upperland Falls Highway ahead of their contract schedule. They plan to put on at least two crews and to work them as long as the weather permits.

Is Married On Tuesday

Miss Elizabeth McKinney and Mr. William Layne were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McKinney at 8:00 o'clock, Tuesday, Sept. 22nd, 1931.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. R. Perkins, pastor of the M. E. Church, South.

Only a few immediate friends of the family were present at the ceremony.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McKinney and has spent her entire life in Morehead. She attended Morehead State Teachers College after finishing high school two years ago.

The groom has made his home in Paintsville, Ky., and has also been a student in the Morehead College.

The young couple left immediately following the ceremony for Paintsville where Mr. Layne is employed.

Vikings Broil To Win First Game 30-0

King football is here and the 1931 edition of Vikings has already made its first conquest on last Saturday afternoon in broiling heat suitable only for a frolic in the "old swimming hole". Fullerton was defeated by a 30-0 count.

In many respects it was a typical "first game" of the season. Neither team seemed to be in the best of condition and Coach Holbrook says there were plenty of rough spots in the Vikings play that must be smoothed out before the Paintsville game Saturday.

One touchdown in the first half and four in the last accounted for the final score. In dividing the stars they were difficult to pick. Every man called upon seemed to be entirely concerned with doing all he could. On defense the linemen refused to be pushed back, while the offensive drive of the backs was excellent, considering the weather condition.

Fullerton presented a team of big, strong boys who with a little more experience will have to be given serious consideration. They are no set-up by any means. If you think so, ask the Vikings.

The next game is scheduled for Saturday at Paintsville. Nothing is known concerning the ability of the Big Sandy aggregation, but real football may well be assumed. A number of the local fans have indicated their intention of accompanying the team on the trip. The boys have made a successful start. The support given them will mean much toward guaranteeing a successful season.

Tell Many Tales Of Perine Murder

With a number of suspects under arrest for complicity in the murder of Richard Perine two weeks ago on the Midland Trail just west of this city, and with conflicting stories and many of them being told by all of them, the case seems to be no closer to a satisfactory solution than it was before. Fay Gilmore, who claimed to be the wife of the murdered man, but who later confessed under questioning that they were not married, has already told so many stories that officials have completely lost confidence in her. She will however be held in charge with the crime or of complicity in the crime, without bond.

The man Clark, of Louisville who was mentioned in our last issue as having been in the car, was also arrested and brought to Morehead, as the result of one of the woman's stories. He has his examining trial this (Thursday) afternoon. Another suspect who gave his name as Castello was arrested in Ashland, Ky. after he is said to have told a story of having gotten into trouble with a woman named Fay Gilmore at Morehead. The Ashland police were informed of his statement and made the arrest, bringing him to Morehead the first of the week. Neither Clark nor the Gilmore woman would admit that he was the man who was driving the car.

Addition Being Built To Young Hall

On Monday, October 5th, bids will be open on the new cafeteria of the Morehead State Teachers College. This cafeteria will be in the form of an addition to Allie Young Hall. The addition will extend to the rear to a width of 60 feet, giving five thousand square feet of additional space to the dining room facilities of the college.

In addition to the additional dining room space, there will be an enlargement of the kitchen by extending the present storage rooms to the rear. Not only will the kitchen be enlarged, but there will be added a butcher shop, with a refrigerator 102 1/2 feet in dimensions. The butcher shop will be equipped with a meat chopper, meat saw, and other appropriate butcher shop equipment. There will be a vegetable cellar, a canned goods storage room, a dish washer, a china and linen room, and a garbage room.

The same service road that now extends from the rear boulevard will remain that trucks may unload all supplies at the lift at the rear end of the passway, which leads off the kitchen. The lift will be electrically operated. All of the various storage

Prospect Bright For College Team

Coach G. D. Downing opened football practice on Monday afternoon. Prospects are much brighter this year than last. There are a greater number of boys out for the team than in any previous year, during the history of the school.

The fact that the squad will be composed largely of first year men is highly encouraging. Coach Downing from the standpoint of building better teams in the future. Morehead is a member of the West Virginia Athletic Association and is scheduled to play some of the strongest teams in college football in West Virginia. The most important game of the year is with State Teachers College of Richmond. The contest, designated as Homecoming, is scheduled here November 14.

The season's schedule is: October 10—Concord, here. October 17—See Bennett, there. October 24—Morris Harvey, there. October 31—Transylvania Frosh, here. November 7—Union College, there. November 14—Eastern, here. November 21—Rio Grande, there. November 28—Urbana University, here.

BIG SCHOOL FAIR MEETING WITH THE APPROVAL OF POPULACE OF COUNTY TO BE HELD OCTOBER 15-16

Bigger and Better School Fair And Agricultural Exhibits Will Bring To Morehead The Best Displays Ever Brought Together In This Community—Premium Lists Are Unusually Attractive This Year.

Smiling Lieut. At Cozy Theatre

The screen's most unique staller personality, loved the world over for himself, his songs, his vivacity comes to the Cozy theatre Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 30, and Oct. 1, next in his new starring picture, "The Smiling Lieutenant," directed by Ernst Lubitsch, maker of "The Love Parade" and "The Patriot." He is Maurice Chevalier, the smiling French entertainer whose love-making and love-singing have made him the idol of two continents.

"The Smiling Lieutenant" is a rollicking romance, with all the love and song appeal of his first moving picture, "Innocents of Paris"; with all the luxury of setting and story of "The Love Parade"; with the star of another Chevalier screen success "The Big Pond," Clouette Colbert, is one of the leading feminine roles; with another bright screen light, gorgeous Miriam Hopkins, in an equally leading role, and with Charlie Ruggles, lovable comedian, in an important supporting part.

The story deals with the delicious romance of a young lieutenant of the guards, whose smile gets him involved with two women, one a cabaret performer whom he loves and wants to marry; the other an old-fashioned princess who loves him and whom he is forced to marry. How this marriage turns his life topsy-turvy; and how the unwanted wife turns the table on her rival, is an amusing topic of the romance.

Mrs. Bruce McGlone and two little daughters, from Hazard, Ky. who have been visiting her mother, Mrs. W. L. Hudgins, have returned home.

M. W. Club to Sponsor Play

Furnell Mastin, comedian with Roosters Sometimes Crow Co. which plays at the College Auditorium next Monday night under the auspices of the Morehead Woman's Club, comes to us after a summer season of stock company in Michigan. Mr. Mastin was selected from a large group of applicants for the part of Henry Wolf, Morehead theatre goers will be in for a real treat, seeing "Roosters Sometimes Crow."

Clelia Crawford, leading lady in the Roosters Sometimes Crow Company comes to us from New York where she appeared formerly in the part of Lulu in Dracula. The management feels very fortunate in securing her services. Women will especially enjoy the gowns worn in the play.

Roosters Sometimes Crow will be in Morehead on Monday night September 28, playing in the college auditorium under the auspices of the Morehead Womens Club.

FIRE INSPECTION BLANKS ARE NOW AVAILABLE

Monday, Sept. 28 each teacher in the Morehead Public Schools will be furnished with blanks on fire prevention, home inspection for each student.

The Teacher is requested to give one of these sheets to each of her pupils to take home. The questions parents may answer, the pupil returned to the teacher on the following day. The teacher should take up the sheets when properly filled out and dispose of them according to instructions from the Superintendent of Schools. Pupils should call to the attention of their parents any unsafe conditions discovered in the course of making the inspection.

The object of this questionnaire is for the benefit of the residents of the city as well as for the fire department.

The Rowan County School Fair and Agricultural Exhibit which is to be held in this city, October 15 and 16 is meeting the approval of the populace of the county from all reports coming in. The farmers are selecting some of their entries and will no doubt bring to Morehead one of the best displays of farm products ever assembled in this community. The success of the fair will largely depend upon the interest shown by them and how they respond with their products. The farm display at the fair should be above the average.

The committee is hard at work going over the premium list and arranging it so as to make this list one of the most attractive and pleasing that has ever been put out. There will be many surprises in the needle work. The cooking rings will also contain new entries as well as all other departments.

Another feature of the fair this year will be booths for the business men who desire to feature a certain product. There will be a nominal charge for the floor space and their displays will be educational as well as to advertise their wares.

Another big feature of the fair will be the poultry show. Now is the time to be selecting the birds to put in the show. At a later date the writer will give a few interesting things in these columns in the proper selection of a bird for the show ring. There are some things about a bird that disqualifies it and makes it ineligible for the premium. Many of the beginner's poultry work are not aware of the floor space and prize lists from a lack of knowledge along this line.

The school department will be the big feature this year. There will be many prizes offered in the things done in the rural school. A spelling match will be a big feature. Every school in the county is urged to prepare a representative, there will be a big list of entrants. The fair committee this year is going to make a strong endeavor to send a student from Rowan county to take part in the state spelling contest.

Now is the time to talk the fair. Let the community unite and make the two days a great homecoming. Invite your friends to come participate. The catalog will soon be out.

The premium lists for the fair and Agricultural Fair are being set up and will be issued within the next week or ten days. The list was published in the last issue of The News. As our readers have seen from that list, the premiums are better than last year, the prizes for several rings

Numerous Stills Are Captured

Patrons of Elliott and Rowan county distillers will probably notice a decided drop so far as intoxicating beverages are concerned if the prohibition agents continue to accomplish results as prolifically as they did last week. The agents who were almost as thick as flies on a screen door in October last week. Raided a number of the distillers last week, bringing in five stills and five men from Elliott county in one "grand slam". Most of the rigs were said to be copper stills. They also captured and destroyed a huge number of barrels of still beer and a large quantity of liquor.

The following is a list of the captured two of Rowan county, according to reports. The first capture was a copper rig on which a run of app's brandy was being made. If it is true, as they say, that two stills spring up where only one operated before, it is safe to say that the drought will be broken before many moons.

HEALTH CENT

BEING INTRODUCED

The schools of Rowan county are being asked to enter the State Health Contest being put on by Mrs. A. T. McCormick, State Health Officer. Bulletins of the lessons are being distributed to all the teachers. Essays will be written on the "Value of the County Health Work," "Necessary Food for Children," "Importance of Inspection of Milk," "How Diseases Are Transmitted," "Safeguard Against Spread of Infection," "How a Clinic Is Secured," etc. Full instruction as to the nature of the entries of each grade are to be found in the bulletins put out by the State Board of Health and now being given to the teachers.

BLUESTONE SCHOOL

PROUD AND SANITARY

The Bluestone school rooms are proud of a set of clean curtains, fresh by oiled floors, and fresh flowers in the windows. These are supplied fresh each day, brought by the children. The lower grade room under the direction of Mrs. John Caudill is far superior to that of their older brothers and sisters and their little brains are as clear and clean as their freshly washed hands and faces. Each child in the room has an individual drinking cup, and they are being taught the importance of being clean and sanitary as well as to study their books. The enrollment is still increasing with nine new pupils this month in the primary room.

ELLIOTTVILLE HAS

PIE SUPPER

One of the most successful pie suppers from money received as well as entertaining one of the largest crowds was held at Elliottville school last Saturday night. The supper was held in the B. F. Wannin Lodge room which was filled to capacity. The sum of $39.46 was received for the sale of the pies. The proceeds of the supper will be used for buying supplies and instruction equipment. The teachers wish to thank the patrons and visitors as well as members of the Lodge for the use of the hall.

WES COX SCHOOL

IS PROGRESSING

Mrs. Sibbie Caskey has a new idea for making window curtains. Patterns of Mother Goose characters are stamped on all the curtains which are then traced with colored crayons. The colors are set by pressing the pattern with a hot iron. This adds color and makes the room very attractive and homelike, as well as instructive. In addition to this the walls, seats, and windows were washed and cleaned by Mrs. Caskey and her students. She also has a very unusual collection of pictures such as "The Horse Fair," by Rose Bonheur, pictures by Millet, Raphael, "The Torn Hat," by Sully, "The Blue Boy." A splendid collection of Health Booklets and Nature Booklets are on display. One student has a collection of nineteen wild flowers. They have also made geography booklets, and animal booklets. Mrs. Caskey is classed as one of the most progressive teachers in the county and her school is making headway to be on the map for the ideal rural school. Since the beginning of school the teacher and children have been working on the yard and are planning to set foundation plants around the school house.

CLEARFIELD DAY

Another school event of the season is over. A big day at Clearfield with approximately 600 or more parents, teachers, and children meeting to participate in the program of scholarship and athletic events. Later the declamatory contest by the children of the various schools was entered by the following children: Effie Johnson, Essie Pruitt, Vada Mynhier, Della Craiger, Virginia Craiger, Mae Jones, Erna Rose Meadows and Cleo Hall. First honor was given to Cleo Hall from Lower Lick Fork reading "Johnnie Reas of the Newspaper," second, Vada Mynhier, from Clearfield reading "The Scarlet Poppy;" and third to Teddy Brown, from Lower Lick Fork reading "The Bargain." Mr. Goff explained the entries of the agricultural department of the Fair and announced the interesting features of the Best Grass Meeting to be held September 29th, and urged all to attend. Music was furnished by local talent and by Jolly Ramey, Jim Lovelace, and Mr. Stanley playing mountain ballads.

After lunch the spelling match was held with Dennie Caudill pronouncing. The winner was Maxine Mauk of Morehead. Second honor was given to Mattie Allen Caudill, Morehead, and third, to Alma Riddle.

TEMPERANCE ESSAY

CONTEST ON HAND

Materials for a Temperance Essay Contest is being put on by the W. C. T. U. are being distributed, to the teachers. The evil effects of narcotics should be instilled in the minds of the children. Alcohol strikes at the very foundation of racial advance. Young people are deeply moved by powerful ideals and we are trying to introduce to them ideals that are for the best in life. The material being distributed includes several essays and stories for the children to read that will introduce them to the nation wide problem of temperance and that will give them some foundation for a short temperance essay to be entered in the School Fair this year. These essays are to be in one week before the School Fair in order that they may be looked over and judged before the Fair and put on exhibition that day. The habits and attitudes which our children form today are the foundations of their life tomorrow. Will you make you influence count for the building of a finer, life, and happier homes?

LITTLE BRUSHY SCHOOL NEWS

Little Brushy School has bought burglar screen wire and screened all the windows of the schoolhouse on the outside to protect the window panes. This wire was purchased with the proceeds of the pie supper. A good attitude toward taking care of school property should be established and Miss Iva DeHart should be complimented on this piece of work. We are hoping that some other teachers will be able to raise work. Those who made perfect attendance in this school last month are Jefferson Kiser, Wayne Kiser, Pauline Kiser, Milford Epperhart and Ava Lewis.

 Here's to your Ice Man,
 Darn his old soul;
 He cools you in summer
 And then tells you cool.
 He comes when the sun's hot
 He comes in the rain
 Works day and night
 A few nickels to gain.
 You snub him i' winter,
 In summer you groan.
 If he misers or is late
 You wail and you moan.
 His family's half ankle,
 And he's in a pickle.
 You call him a robber
 When he lifts the price a nickel.
 He sends you your bill
 You say it's a disgrace
 You keep the poor fellow broke,
 Ashamed to look the bank in the face
 So pay the poor fellow
 And then wish him well,
 Instead of crossing the street
 And saying "Go to H—"
 Regretfully,

"Why My Next Car will be A FORD"

 WHEN you buy a Ford there are two things you never have to worry about. One is reliability. The other is long life. Here's an interesting letter from a Ford owner in North Carolina:
 "My Ford was purchased May 8, 1928, and has been run 121,767 miles. It has never stopped on the road for repairs of any kind whatsoever except punctures.
 "The brakes were relined at 101,000 miles. My gas mileage averaged 21 miles to the gallon, and on tires, 19,000 miles per tire. I travel over all kinds of road conditions—mountainous and flat.
 "I consider this a wonderful record and I assure you my next car will also be a Ford."
 This is just one of many tributes to the reliability and long life of the Ford. A Ford owner in Iowa tells of driving his Ford 73,000 miles in a single year. Another writes of 120,000 miles of good service.
 Think ahead when you are considering the purchase of an automobile and consider what it will be like after thousands of miles of driving. Will you still be satisfied? Will you still say "it's a great car?"
 If it's a Ford, you know everything will be O. K. It will be taking you there and back in good style, just as it has always done. And you will have saved many important, worth-while dollars in cost of operation and up-keep and low yearly depreciation.

Sweetening the Salad Bowl

By Jane Rogers

In warm weather our fancies turn to cooling and nourishing salads which combine all the elements of a well balanced meal. Whole-meal salads, with a chilled beverage and an easy dessert, are especially welcome over the week-end, or on days when we want to escape the routine of a typical luncheon or dinner.

Either fruits or vegetables on a foundation of lettuce, romaine, endive or other crisp and vitalizing greens, may be used to make salads that are at once attractive and sustaining. All important, of course, is the dressing, and in making dressing don't overlook the fact that sugar is a very important seasoning. Not only does it serve admirably to blend and point up the flavors of the other ingredients, but it is also a valuable aid to digestion as a well known scientist has recently demonstrated.

Sliced fruits intended for salads can be given a distinctive and piquant flavor by marinating them for an hour or so in a refrigerator. A marinade is a liquid mixture in which food is immersed to bring out the flavors, or to mellow and to blend flavors. An excellent marinade is the following French fruit dressing:

Sliced lemon 5 tablespoons oil
1/2 cup. salt
4 1/2 cups. orange juice 1 cup. sugar

Mix all ingredients thoroughly. (Makes about 1/2 cup.) After the fruit has been marinated it should be placed on crisp salad leaves and served immediately with mayonnaise or whatever your favorite cooked dressing may be. The marinade solution may be saved, as it will make an excellent dressing for the green salad which will serve another day. (It keeps well in a covered bottle in the refrigerator.) Here is a recipe for a delicious cooked salad dressing that may be used with either fruit or vegetable salads:

3 eggs 1 egg or two yolks
1/2 cup. lemon juice 1 cup. whipped cream

Beat the eggs. Add the sugar and lemon juice. Cook in a double boiler until the mixture thickens. Cool. Add the whipped cream.

For a whole-meal fruit salad the following arrangement is suggested:

On a bed of crisp lettuce leaves arrange a mound of various fruits that have been cut in small pieces and marinated as described. Oranges, pineapples, a p p i e s, grapes, pears and peaches are excellent. Berries in season, or small cubes of watermelon or cantaloupe, may also be used. Top this with a liberal serving of stiffly-beaten, sweetened whipped cream. Immediately before serving, sprinkle the lettuce base liberally with a syrup made by dissolving four teaspoons of sugar in the juice of two oranges and one lemon.

Co. Health Dpt.

Supplementing and complementing the work of insuring cleanliness and purity in milk supplies, the State Board of Health is urging larger and more general consumption of milk and milk products in Kentucky.

"Milk," says Dr. A. T. McCormick, State Health Officer, in a statement just issued, "is one of the few foods that are absolutely essential to the human diet. Particularly is this true of child diet, for we cannot develop healthy, strong children without milk."

Experts who have made careful and scientific study of the subject are a unit it is pointed out, in agreeing that not less than one quart of milk a day is necessary to ensure the normal growing child proper nutrition and complete healthfulness and that each adult should daily consume a like quantity or its equivalent in butterfat cheese or other milk products. That these requirements may be met, it is earnestly suggested that the mother of every family in Kentucky carefully check her food lists and at once make plans to provide in her daily food budget for one quart of milk for every child under 12 years of age and one pint of milk with an additional pint in the form of milk products for each adult. Continuing the statement says: "Include ice cream, butter and cheese in your every-day diet. Don't save ice cream for a party dish, it is a milk-food. Serve butter at every meal. It is another milk food and will make everything else taste better."

Attention is directed to the fact as shown by recent surveys, that only a few communities in Kentucky are at present producing enough milk to provide each child within its confines a quart of milk a day, to say nothing of adults, but this situation, it is pointed out, may be confidently relied upon to adjust itself promptly and readily. All that is required is to increase the demand and the dairy farmers will be quick to enlarge their herds to keep pace with the increased demand. Their business is to produce and sell milk and the larger the demand, the better they will like it.

The two things, in this connection which the State Health Officer and every other health officer in Kentucky unite in urging are: Absolute cleanliness in the production of milk and a greater use of milk and milk products by the people of the State generally. Both are essential to public health; the one to its protection, the other to its proper promotion.

Boy Scouts Re-Organize

The Boy Scout organization of Morehead, meeting every Friday evening in the basement of the Methodist church has been re-organized for the year 1931-1932. Most of the old scouts have rejoined and some new ones. We have a program for the Cubs ranging from 9 years of age until they reach 12. Then they may become Scouts. Their work leads them up to the Scout age. The movement is without respect to church, except a meeting place provided by the Methodist church. Our organization is a part of the Blue Grass Council. It is hoped that the Scouting program will be more personal, more worthy this year. Rules have been adopted whereby five points are given for good behavior for the meeting and five points deducted for bad behavior. Each Cub and Scout are to pass one test each month.

One of the organizational features is that the Scout organization has been invited to be guests of the University of Kentucky's first opening football game. Every Scout in the Blue Grass Council has been invited. The tickets will be printed for the Boy Scout Program. Thus the University of Kentucky indorses the character building program of the Scout Movement.

The Scout Committee for Morehead consists of: Dr. A. W. Adkins, Chairman, Charles E. Jennings and Lewis H. Horton. The Scoutmaster is: A. R. Perkins. The Junior Assistant Scoutmasters are Lawrence Gray, and Asa Adkins, Jr. The Patrol Leaders for the Scouts are Harold Blair and Assistant Patrol Leader Hillaire Hurt. The Patrol Leader for the Cubs are Milton Davis with Robert Frailey as Assistant Patrol Leader. Leo Oppeheimer is the Scribe. David Robertson is the Quartermaster and Treasurer.

Hints for Homemakers

WHEN jars in which vegetables have been preserved acquire a cloudy appearance, you can quickly restore their original lustre by washing them in water to which a dash of ammonia has been added.

When well sweetened, homemade, chilled beverages quickly relieve that mid-afternoon weariness which overtakes many of us in hot weather. The sugar used for sweetening is recognized by science as a source of quick energy to help relieve fatigue, while the natural fruit juices supply essential vitamins.

The cafeteria will be made more attractive than in the past. A beautiful black tile floor will take the place of the present concrete floor. The roof to the addition will be in the form of a terrace garden entered by french windows through the lobby of Allie Young Hall, and in which many of the social events of college life may take place.

School Fair

Reports from the country indicate that the fair will be well patronized. As a matter of fact, in previous fairs, many did not know exactly what was required of them, and so failed to make entries.

The entire fair will be absolutely free to all. No charges will be made in any department. All funds are being supplied by the business men of Morehead. All premiums are being paid by them. They are interested solely in the development of Rowan county and particularly in the development of Rowan county's Schools.
