Meeting of Progressives

We Progressives are concerned with principles primarily, and with men only, as they represent those principles. Our conviction is that whether the party wins office or not, it must maintain its high standard as a challenge to its own following and to others. In the end it matters not by what instrumentality the principles of the progressive party are established. The great and vital thing is to obtain for the people those measures of social and industrial justice and those provisions for popular rule which are essential to the happiness, freedom and welfare of the Nation. If it is the future of the Progressive Party to be merely the pathfinder for the people, well and good. So long as the path leads to the goal, and the goal is reached, the purpose for which the party came into existence will be saved.

The Progressive Party has come to play a most vital role in the politics of this country. We believe that it is so manifestly an answer to the cry of the people, so wholly in harmony with the trend of the time, that its permanency is beyond doubt, and its ultimate ascendancy merely a matter of time.

And because the Progressive Party offers to the people the only free and effective instrument for the full achievement of their welfare, it is important that, so far as may be, its leadership and organization should be in the hands of men who are in full and intelligent sympathy with its principles.

A meeting, therefore, of all prospective candidates for nomination for the various county offices, subject to the action of the Progressive Party of Carter County, is hereby called to meet in Olive Hill, Kentucky, on Saturday, April 5, 1913, at ten o'clock A. M.

The gale which struck Olive Hill late Friday evening of last week did a little damage by overturning several small buildings around town, blowing out windows, and exchanging some business signs. Folks say it was the strongest wind that visited Olive Hill in fifteen years.

Dr. Armstrong, last week purchased the Joe Carpenter property on the west end of town.

Progressives of Carter to Have County Ticket

Every Progressive in Carter County should be in attendance at the next meeting to be held at Olive Hill on Saturday, April 5, as announced on the front page of this paper.

This meeting concerns the rank and file of the Progressive Party in Carter county, especially, as well as every Carter County voter who has Progressive spirit enough in him to want the only true principles of government established in Carter.

Beyond a reasonable doubt the Progressives will have in the field a full count ticket, with principles that should appeal to the deepest interest and concern of the voters.

Does This Look Like Hard Times

New York March 22.—In finished steel products some good orders have been placed for rails this week by Pittsburg traction companies. Contracts are now pending for about 250,000 tons for heavy structure work in other directions. The new subways are looked to take a big quantity.

In bridge work a good deal of business is under way. The Erie Railroad among other operators who are active in this line has asked for bids on three bridges, The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul has contracted for a 250-ton bridge.

The Great Northern Railroad wants 500 box cars and the Grand Trunk is looking for 3,000 40-ton box cars and 1,000 50-ton coal cars as the first installment on an order for 10,000 cars.

Williams Dies in Chair

Eddyville, Ky., March 21.—Silas Williams, the young negro who was tried, convicted and sentenced to die at Versailles on Monday, was electrocuted at the penitentiary here this morning. No witnesses were allowed to attend the execution on account of the smallpox quarantine which prevails here.

Williams trial and conviction probably sets a record in Kentucky for speedy hearings. Williams assaulted Mrs. Susan Black and Mrs. Lee Moffett, two white women at Troy, Woodford county February 24. Mrs. Susan Black, an aged woman, died the next day of her injuries. Mrs. Moffett recovered. Williams surrendered to Lexington officials and confessed his crime.

Charles B. Wallace, of the Little Sandy country, announces as a candidate for County Court Clerk on the Democratic side of the fence.

While we cannot accord with him politically, yet our personal acquaintance with him allows us to say he is a worthy and honorable young man. He is a son of Henry Wallace, a well known citizen of Carter, and young Charles has partaken freely of the good qualities and honorable citizenship of his father. If Charley is successful, we do not doubt he will fill the office honorably.

We are not saying as positive news matter that Dr. J. L. McClung, our well-known dentist, will announce for the Sheriffship of Carter county at the coming primary election, but rumor is passing it pretty strong that he is considering tossing his hat into the ring.

Again it has rained hereabouts

SWEEP OF STORM

Fatal To Many Through Western States

Hundreds of persons dead and reports of miles of wreckage is contained in the telegrams received from Omaha on March 24.

The following dispatch is copied from the Louisville Evening Post:

"Omaha, Neb., March 24.—Fully 100 killed, twice that number injured, and hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of property was destroyed by the tornado which swept through Omaha and its suburbs last evening in a path 4 to 6 blocks wide and more than 8 miles long.

The streets are filled with the wreckage of houses, uprooted trees and tangled electric wires. Street car movement is impossible, wagon and automobile also.

The list of dead, although already a large one, is believed by those who have been over a good part of the devastated territory to be but a beginning.

The later reports put the loss at 225 dead, 694 hurt and loss in money at $6,500,000. Fire followed in the wake of the storm, but the rains controlled it. In Omaha and Terre Haute alone there were wrecked 3,275 buildings.

Armstrong Post Office Robbed.

The Armstrong Post Office was broken into and robbed Friday of last week, the looters getting about $48 total, in cash; about $35 of which was postal cards. The window in the rear of E. L. Rose's store, in which the post-office is kept was broken in. A gold watch belonging to Postmaster Rose and about $13 of the store funds were also taken. No store goods were taken. Rose came to town Saturday morning and secured a search warrant of Squire Tarshel, and accompanied by Marshal Crawford, took D. V. Carpenter's bloodhounds to the scene but nothing could be found to rest suspicion on any party in that vicinity. A clue is held that may prove correct, and may be traced out. A postoffice inspector visited the scene of the robbery Monday.

Scare Must Stop

Boston March 24.—Vice-President Marshall is not worrying about the business outlook. "That scare has got to stop," he said here today, "and stop soon. This country won't stand for it."

"A man came to me the other day in Washington and said: 'Mr. Marshall, I'm one of a group of men who represent $75,000,000 which is waiting to be invested.' What are you waiting for? I asked. He said: 'we're waiting for Congress—to see what Congress will do.'"

"I said: 'Well, if I had my way, I'd see that $75,000,000 baked, boiled and fried and shoved down the throats of the men who own it. Capital that can't stand a square deal isn't much good to anybody. Capital that has no initiative isn't much good, and capital that wants government assistance in its investment isn't much good to the country.'"

"We might as well face this scare business now as any time. It was bound to come anyway. It don't amount to anything for this country's prosperity is on the wane."

The Illinois state senate's vice commission, and the women for whose moral downfall the commission is trying to determine the cause, differ on the relation between low wages and low morality. Letters received by the commission from women of the underworld mocked at the work which the legislators in surmising that low wages for the shop girl is primarily responsible for her moral downfall.

A letter received by the commission from a woman in the underworld reads: "To the Commission: 'women do not wrong because they are hungry, or because they need clothes. They go wrong because they are tempted by lies and overpowered by the evil in men.'"

"They listen to the fair and pretty things that men tell them and they fall because they think they can trust themselves and trust the tempters. It is not the employer. I was a good girl and I worked in a store."

"I didn't get much money but that didn't matter. I lived on $8 a week, and would be living like this now—but I met men. They seemed to consider me their prey and all the time it was fight—fight. They wanted to be nice to me, they said, and to take me to the theatre and treat me fair—and give me a chance to enjoy life."

"I didn't know men were all bad—all bad—where a girl is concerned. I thought only women were bad. I thought all a girl had to do to remain good was to be truthful to herself. God pity women who think that and who keep their trust in men until it is too late."

"Every day is was some one else—always smiling at me—always trying to give me a 'fair chance' to be happy. In the street they followed me. These I could avoid, but the 'friends' who hung around!"

"That is the big, big secret of the thing that makes a good girl bad. If they had left me be—if they had only left me be—only let me live as I want to live I could now look a good woman in the face."

Another and more bitter letter from a woman of the underworld reached the commission and read in part:

"You're looking for the things that made such women as I. Low wages! Dance Halls! Hunger! Cold! They all helped a bit but they didn't turn the trick themselves. You're all a bunch of hypocrites, afraid to look the thing in the face and afraid to learn the truth."

"I don't know any girls who sold themselves for money to buy bread or clothes. But I do know of a lot of who hit the road for hell because a lot of blackguards kept hounding them with their rotten 'attentions.' God help the men and not us. We're all right when we start. All we need is to be left alone."

"Why don't you make the men be good? All the wages in the world won't help us. Make the men good and the girls will be good."

"Now they haven't got a chance and they never will have as long as the law smiles at one and spits at the other."

Hundreds of young men now standing on the threshold of life are asking: "What must I do?" The sons of farmers are looking to the cities for an answer, the sons of merchants and of tradesmen are looking to the country. There never was a time when the question was more important than now. Living now means activity, intent and persistent. The young man who chooses a profession without being prepared for it and understanding the measure of his work and its demands simply enters upon an uneven race and will be left far behind. Our schools hold out to you the golden opportunity which this preparation can be had. Seize it, improve it and make life a success.

OLD IDEAS ARE PUSHED ASIDE

Schools Must Have Contact With Activity of People.

'WHY NOT TRAIN FOR LIFE?'

Higher Grade Work More Than Mere Incubators For Embryos of Lawyers, Doctors, Teachers and Preachers—Domestic Science and Domestic Arts.

Schools will attract and hold the attention of the public in proportion to their contact with the everyday life and activity of the people. The old idea of a high school being an incubator for embryonic lawyers, doctors and preachers is being pushed aside. The school people—the real, live, wide awake school people—have seen this proposition clearly for some time, but they have been afraid of what the general public might think. The public has sensed that there was something out of gear in our school machinery, but it was afraid of what the education expert might say. And so the public and the school people have been hesitating.

Boys and girls welcome any study that tastes of everyday life and activity. The little girl in the lower grades mothers her doll, makes her clothes and mends them and cooks wonderful dinners on a homemade stove of brick set in the back yard. She keeps house and plays her part in a mimic world because it is the only outlet for what she sees of the activities of the world in which she is eventually to take her place. The years slip by, and she is ready for her doll inside and she can no longer with dignity cook on the brick stove in the back yard. Her own feeling would prompt her to go forward in sewing, cooking and the other household arts, but she is in a high school in which no such course is offered, so she loses an interest that had been part of her life and development. If she happens to find some course in the high school the chances are that it is for a single period each day, and her credits earned for graduation would be greater for Latin, German or mathematics. She is anxious to get full credit for her labor, so she takes a topic for which she has no real liking in 'OTHER WORDS. OUR HIGH SCHOOLS ARE PUTTING A PREMIUM UPON WORK WHICH HAS SOME MENTAL AND CULTURAL VALUE INSTEAD OF COMMON, EVERYDAY HOME VALUE.

At the Henderson high school both domestic science and domestic arts for girls and manual training for boys have been given a very prominent place in the course of study. The school is now offering a three year course, and a fourth will be added next September. It is a four year course that calls for two forty-minute periods each day in the week, that real, strong, helpful, practical work may be accomplished. Too much of our school work has been theory, and we must have time enough for the practical side of domestic science and manual training.

Two years of this course, the freshman and the junior years, are used for sewing, pattern making, designing and a study of cloths and materials of various kinds. It is the aim of this course to have a girl strong enough to design a garment or piece of wardrobe rationally, to alter a pattern that does not fit or suit her. In a course of study of one period per day this would be impossible, but with eighty minutes each day of her school year at a satisfactory results can be gotten.

Refused To Be Ticked

There is a case of separation in New York, where the wife asked for alimony and lawyer's fees and the court granted both. The only accusation against the poor husband is that he threatened to wrap his wife up in a blanket and tickle her bare feet until she died. Any man who holds such a menace over his wife ought to pay pretty good alimony. Ticking one excessively is downright cruelty and it ought to be regarded in law as the meanest kind of assault and battery.

There are certain ticklish spots on the body—notably the soles of the feet—that are sacred to the individual, and anybody who invades those places, with malice aforethought, or even with a good intention, ought to be prosecuted for murderous intent, especially if the trespasser assumes the right to do so. One may prefer to be tickled to death by being hanged or electrocuted, but there is not a great deal of difference between them. We saw a young lady in a car the other day who had been tickled to death. At least she said so. There is another enormity about being tickled to death—a person will lie about it.—Observer in Ashland Independent.

Progressive County Ticket

In accordance with the plan mapped out by the Progressive State Committee to have candidates for county offices in as many of the counties as possible, the Progressives will have a county ticket in Harrison county. This was the decision at a meeting of Progressives held at the city hall at Cynthia last Saturday. The meeting was presided over by County Chairman G. M. Dickey, and a motion was made and adopted providing for a county ticket this fall.

My Doctor Said

"Try Cardui," writes Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I was in a very low state of health, and was not able to be up and tend to my duties. I did try Cardui, and soon began to feel better. I got able to be up and help do my housework. I continued to take the medicine, and now I am able to do my housework and to care for my children, and I feel as though I could never praise Cardui enough for the benefits I have received."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Cardui is successful, because it is made especially for women, and acts specifically on the womanly constitution. Cardui does one thing, and does it well. That explains the great success which it has had, during the past 50 years, in helping thousands of weak and ailing women back to health and happiness.

If you are a woman, feel tired, dull, and are nervous, cross and irritable, it's because you need a tonic. Why not try Cardui? Cardui builds, strengthens, restores, and acts in every way as a special, tonic remedy for women. Test it for yourself. Your druggist sells Cardui. Ask him.

Dr. Friedmann who is now experimenting with his tubercular cure is besieged by throngs of sufferers wherever he goes. At New York recently, a mother with a child in her arms knelt in the street and begged the Doctor to treat her with his remedy.

A family of five persons at Chicago was found dead from illuminating gas on North Lawndale Avenue, March 20. Circumstances indicate that an accident was responsible for the tragedy. In the kitchen a rubber hose was detached from a gas plate. The victims included, Engbert Cornelison, 55 years old, his wife, two sons and a daughter.

Alexander Spear, 41 years old, was convicted at New York last week of the murder of his wife.

A supreme court jury, impressed by the son's testimony that his father took him on his knee and showed, with the aid of an apple and a knife, how he would slash his wife's throat, deliberated less than half an hour.

Great damage was done by a severe wind and rain storm that ravaged vast sections of the southern states. In many cases the telegraph poles were laid low. A number of persons were injured and some were killed.

Kentucky was one of the greatest sufferers. The morn of the 21st found Louisville cut off from all points south of the Ohio river. Trains arrived four and five hours late, and many reported washouts along the lines. A wind velocity of 75 miles an hour—the highest on record here—was reported by the Louisville weather man. Louisville's loss was about $25,000, and a modest average for other afflicted localities is nearly $3,000,000.

Gold. Gold. Gold.

Just at present the Clear Fork neighborhood is much wrought up over the development work being done there to determine if there is gold in paying quantities in that section. The work so far has shown there is a wide ledge running along the mountain side for about a mile. At present the assay runs gold $3.00 and silver 90 cents to the ton. At this rate, the precious metals are not in paying quantities, as the smelter charges will run to about five dollars a ton plus the freight.

Laurel Steel Ranges

The largest part of a woman's duties are performed in the kitchen. If this room is well appointed her work becomes a source of enjoyment.

The selection of a right range is an all important point. A Laurel Steel Range will complete the arrangements of an otherwise "up-to-date" kitchen, and be a comfort and a joy to the user.

"Something Different and Something Better" is our claim. That Laurel Steel Ranges have all the features of other ranges is easily proven. Laurel Painted Features in addition—make the difference and confirm our assertions of superiority.

These special features are too numerous to be all mentioned. The Laurel Two-Fire Construction The Laurel Quick Heating Reservoir are two.

Let us explain all the merit points of Laurel Steel Ranges to you. We will be glad to see you at any time.

M. D. Jordan, Olive Hill, Ky.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. Lewis has been appointed postmaster at Grayson. He succeeds Mr. Littlejohn.

Willie White returned to Huntington, W. Va., Sunday; after a week spent here with friends.

Congressman Fields came back from Washington Friday. Supposedly to take another glimpse at the young Miss Fields.

Mrs. Myrtle Henderson, of Huntington, W. Va., stopped a while in Olive Hill, Saturday, on her way to Morehead to visit Mrs. John Davidson.

The usual Easter squall either came a week early or is yet to put in its appearance. Easter was a most pleasant day—more like Fourth of July weather than a March day.

A number of men approached the depot Friday and Saturday and returned home packageless. Changes of Express regulations sometimes cause an inordinate increase in the number and variety of cuss-word already adorning that picturesque vocabulary.

The motion picture show has been moved from the Tabor Building to the skating rink building. The patronage had been exceeding the seating capacity and necessitated the change.

S. T. Jones was down from Soldier the latter part of last week and reports Soldier progressing and politics in that section growing rapidly—in interest.

Dr. J. M. Rose returned Sunday from Chicago. He has been away the past three months and has been taking special instructions under different lines of medicine. Doc. is a fine fellow and has had splendid success for his age in practice.

I am authorized by the President of the Carter County Commercial Bank to say to its customers and to the community at large, that after April 1, Miss Bessie King will be cashier and Roy Pennington bookkeeper, and that they need not have any uneasiness in any way; that everything will be taken care of just the same as heretofore, and no one need have any uneasiness about the management of the bank whatsoever.

OUR COUNTRY COUSINS

REEDER

We are having fine weather now, making garden is the order of the day.

Mr. Fred Burchett and wife were up from Smoky visiting home folks.

Miss Mollie Williams was the pleasant guest of her cousin, Miss Myrtle Jones.

Mr. R. N. Holbrook of this place was in Ashland the past week and purchased a fine milk cow.

Mr. Guy Kendall, of Upper Tygart was calling on Miss Myrtle Jones Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Barney Rose, who was very low is slowly improving and we will be glad to see her out again.

Miss Ethyl Tabor is in Grayson attending college. We wish her much success.

Mr. Clarence Evans was seen in Frankfort the past week.

Herbert Day was calling on Miss Lina Kendall of Upper Tygart, Sunday.

There will be a meeting at Hale, Sunday, conducted by Rev. Goodman and Bro. Sloan. All are invited.

The rain and wind storm done some damage last week, blowing the roof off Mr. John Gilliam's house and destroying Mr. Bates' barn.

Mrs. Marian Stamper, of Emerson is organizing a D. of A. Lodge, and the ladies of this vicinity are very much interested.

There will be a meeting at Globe Sunday conducted by Rev. Thacker. 'Everybody invited.

GRAHN

Miss Daisy Jones visited at this place Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Ardle Dickerson is some better at this writing.

Mrs. Mona Maddox visited her daughters, Viola Dickerson and Mary Wilcox, Saturday.

There will be church at this place beginning Thursday, and will hold over Sunday. It will be conducted by the Rev. E. T. Billups, of Kenova, W. Va.

We had an unusually joyful Easter here, especially at Sunday school.

Mrs. Verona James, visited Mrs. Lona Dickerson Saturday.

Miss Letha James with other girls went to Sunday School here Sunday.

Mr. Elmer James and family visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin James.

Work is progressing nicely at the Brick plant. There is a fair prospect of a boom here soon.

Mrs. Bettie Waugh was a welcome guest over Sunday.

Dentist E. T. Billups of Kenova, W. Va., will do quite a lot of dental work here the coming week.

Uncle Calvin Phillips is not any better at this writing.

Mr. Fred Debard and his mother took his baby sister to Ashland to have an operation on her eyes.

Mr. Watt Everman and Ras James made a flying trip over to Ashland last week.

We understand that Dr. Rose returned home on the 23rd. He is more welcome than the June "ROSE" at Grahn.

We think there could not be a more fair offer than that of Mr. J. A. Maddox, for everyone to own their own home, instead of paying rent. The offer is such a sensible one.

Mr. Debard took W. B. Dickerson and son for a buggy ride out in the country Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Watt Everman and family visited Mr. John Dickerson and wife, Sunday.

After Sunday school, Easter, the Misses Myrtle and Lula Dickerson, and Jim Nolan spent Sunday evening with Mr. Charles Gillum and family.

Mrs. Jim Kerkeek returned home Saturday after a stay with her sick mother in Pennsylvania, until death called her dear mother home.

COUNTS CROSS ROADS

Church was well attended at this place Easter Sunday. Bro. Bill Wilcox preached an Easter sermon.

Mr. Jimmie Jordan was visiting J. M. Bakers's family Sunday evening.

Messrs. F. McCoy and Leslie Baker spent Easter with friends at Rosedale.

Miss Virginia Wilcox of Deer Creek is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jim Newman at this place.

Heber Counts called on home folks Sunday.

Mrs. Marian Jones and little daughter came from Portsmouth Thursday. Mrs. Jones is in real bad health.

Little Hazel Baker is recovering rapidly from the operation that was performed on her throat.

ELKIN

Prof. D. W. Qualls, a graduate of the E. K. S. N., who has been principal of the Harris Branch Graded School for the past two years, closed a most successful year Friday, March 21.

This school has been one of the most enterprising in Clark county. It has won three prizes in the Co. School Fair: 1st prize, for best commercial map of U. S.; 2nd prize, on greatest corn yield per acre and 2nd prize for the best 25 ears of corn in division No. 4.

Forty-eight dollars and thirty cents has been raised for the benefit of the library.

ENTERPRISE

Here we come again, bringing Spring with us.

Miss Gladys Rice returned home Monday, after a visit with relatives in Morehead.

Mrs. Easter Day, who was very low is some improved and was taken to her daughter's home in Ashland this week.

There seems to be quite a demand for men to make crosses at this place.

Watt King, from Olive Hill a business visitor Monday.

O. R. Stewart has accepted position with the C. & O. station, and has moved his family to his place.

George Cline has a pos with the C. & O., and was home folks Sunday.

Mr. J. D. Stewart, of Den was here Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson Huntington, are visiting Mr. Mrs. Conley.

Mrs. C. L. Louis and wife and their property and have gone Tennessee to make their future home.

Mrs. C. D. Mauk from Morehead was visiting A. G. Rice a family last week.

Died—Near Soldier on Saturday, J. H. Bailey. He was buried Jacobs cemetery on Monday.

Born—The 9th to Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Rice, a boy. The infant died and was buried the 10th.

Willie Kelly who has been in Ashland quite a while has come home.

We are glad to have in our town, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tackett, who have moved recently from Olive Hill.

Mr. S. D. Cline is preparing to raise a garden this year and has gone to work earlier than usual.

LOST

As the large press in our office tolled off the last sheet of the number just issued, we received two uncommonly fine specimen correspondence sheets. One came from our able representative, J. Leon, and the other from the esteemed reporter at Globe. It was impossible to place them in the last number. We regret to have to lose these news jottings and accounts of our friends, but, if they are expected to appear in our paper they should reach this office NOT LATER than Tuesday of each week.

J. A. Maddox has added to his lumber trade, roofing, doors and windows, at the very lowest price possible.
