BILL

Oh! my this hot weather is enough to give me wish for the good old Christmas.

We were very much disappointed for church Monday night owing to the preacher Rev. Moore being called home.

SOLDIER

fine, we wish you would come again Cora.

A merry crowd composed of Bah-lons, widows, and old maids from sweet Soldier contrived a hunting trip and executed it by an almost incessant fusillade here Monday P. M.

Will we know you went away from here on train No. 26 but you knew 22 was to follow.

Earl, Clara said you should not get angry at her because she was jesting with you. Bro. Sport, she said she cared as much for you as she ever did and then laughed, though Earl bear in mind those who laugh last laugh best.

We would like so much to know what has become of so many of our correspondents that they remain silent? Perhaps their minds have gone abroad in search of newsy-news, we hope they will return in time for this weeks issue.

Ethel did Stallards love seem to have the same ardor on his return as it did of old.

Well we expecting the return of the 2nd prodigal son in every day of the week the 1st. returned Sunday the 14th.

Must close as my pen is on the bum. Now all who can't speak should shake a bush.

Death

Claims a Prominent Citizen, and his two Daughters.

J. P. Mank, who left here about 3 years ago, and moved to Portsmouth, Ohio, died May the 6th. Also two of his daughters. We join with the bereaved and lamented family. We only hope that the bereaved departed is the gain of those who have gone to their eternal rest. We should live to meet the summation, let it come when it may so as to wrap the drapery of our couch about us the down in peace forever.

Walter Vaughn is visiting home folks here this week, he will soon return to Newport, where he is employed.

J. B. Efort of Ashland is in town this week.

Rev. Harlan Murphy conducted services at the Christian Church Tuesday night.

It would not be a good idea to take the census of Olive Hill while the grand jury is session at Grayson.

Debate

Rev. Cyrus Riffe, Pastor M. E. Church here, and James W. Zachary, of Lexington, will debate at Baptist church commencing with Sunday night and will continue four nights and probably six. Both are very able men and a very interesting discussion is expected. Mr. Zachary will lecture at the Christian Church here Saturday night and Sunday evening previous to the debate.

The question for debate is Zachary affirms that "Immerison in water, as ordained by Christ, is essential to salvation." some other points may also be discussed.

Leadingham. Mr. Moore was calling on Miss Mary B. Middleton Sunday evening. We note with pleasure that this is a thing every Sunday.

A general good time is expected at the meeting of the I. O. O. F. Eclipse Lodge No. 26, May 20th, all members and visiting members requested to be present.

If each Church of Olive Hill will furnish us a directory of their services, Sunday School, etc. we will run a Church directory in the TIMES for the benefit of Churches free of charge.

QUEER HEAD COVERINGS.

Striking Hats That Used to Be Worn in Olden Times.

Douglas, earl of Morton, wore a hat. It was termed by the writers of the period a "steepie" or "sugar loaf" hat and possessed a high, cone-shaped crown and a narrow brim. The effect produced by such a hat upon the head of a very tall man was more striking than artistic. Stubbs uses these words in describing the hats of his day: "Sometimes they use them sharp on the crown, perking up like the shaft of a steepie, standing a quarter of a yard above the crown of their heads, some more some less, to please the fantasies of their wearing mistle; some are of silk, some are of velvet, some of lat-beaver hats, of 20, 30, 40 shillings piece, fetched from beyond the sea. Whence a great sort of other varieties do come. And so common a thing it is that every serving man, countryman and other, even all indifferently do wear these hats."

In Planchette's "Cyclopaedia of Costume" is shown a high crowned hat worn by Howard, earl of Northampton, died 1514, and a decided "chimney pot" hat worn by Thomas Cecil, first earl of Exeter, died 1622. It is turned up behind and has a band gracefully wound about it. The bride is a little bit in front, giving to the contour quite a "line of beauty."

A song by Underwood testifies to the value set on beaver hats in the days of Elizabeth:

The Spaniard's constant is his black. The French inconstant is every day. But of all felts that may be felt Give me your English beaver.

A hat called variously a capotain, capstain and copstake was worn in the reign of Elizabeth and her successor. It is uncertain what form these hats really took, but there is a strong presumption that they were hats with high conical crowns in shape resembling those worn by the Welsh peasants of today. If so they were common throughout the reign of James I. and were designated by Bulwer in 1633 sugar loaf hats, which, according to his account, became fashionable again in the reign of Charles I., being worn both by men and women. He says, "What were our sugar loaf hats so mightily affected of late both by men and women, so incommodious for us that every puff of wind deprived us of them, requiring the employment of one hand to keep them on?" - St. James' Gazette.

Red Bridal Gowns.

It is of interest to note that the color of white for wedding gowns is comparatively of modern origin. The Roman brides wore a great stir in the most eastern countries pink is the bridal color. During the middle ages and in the renaissance period brides were crimson in the estimation of their contemporaries. Most of the Plantagenets and Tudor queens were married in that vivid hue, which is still popular in parts of Europe. It was in the reign of Henry VIII. that the color of the bridal garments. At her marriage with Francis I. of France, in 1528, which took place not before the altar, but before the great doors of Notre Dame she was gowned in white, brocade, with a train of pale blue Persian velvet six yards in length. This custom caused a great stir in the fashionable world of that time. It was not, however, until quite the end of the seventeenth century that pure white color wore in royal weddings became popular for bridal garments.

George James, of Fleming County, is reported as continuing very ill but hope for a recovery is sustained.

The Cassidy Store is for sale; going to quit.

IT IS DANGEROUS TO NEGLECT A COLD

How often do we hear it remarked "It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia? This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia, and has gained its great popularity and extensive sale by its prompt cures of the most common ailments. It always cures, and is pleasant to take. For sale by M. W. Armstrong, the reliable druggist, Olive Hill.

EXAMINATION FOR COUNTY DIPLOMAS

An examination was held at the Olive Hill Normal Building here last Friday for the purpose of granting County Diplomas. Most all of the Normal pupils taken the examination: Prof. I. H. Boothe and J. A. Porter examiners.

Rev. R. B. Neal filled his regular appointment here Sunday.

James E. Underwood, of Underwood & Day, was visiting home folks at Wesleyville the latter part of last week.

SCIATICA CURED AFTER TWENTY YEARS OF TORTURE.

For more than twenty years Mr. J. B. Massy, of 3222 Clinton St., Minneapolis, Minn., was tortured by sciatica. The pain and suffering which he endured during this time is beyond comprehension. Nothing gave him any permanent relief until he used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. One application of that liniment relieved the pain and made sleep and rest possible, and less than one bottle has affected a permanent cure. If troubled with sciatica or rheumatism why not try a 25-cent bottle of Pain Balm and be sure for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain. For sale by M. W. Armstrong, the reliable druggist, Olive Hill.

NORMAL CLOSES

The Olive Hill Normal closes here Wednesday. Several of the pupils went home the latter part of last week after the examination, but a good attendance continues. Prof. Boothe, as Principle, as well as all the assistants, should be congratulated on the excellent manner in which they have carried the school through and we feel sure that all who attend realize that Professor Boothe has well done his part toward elevating the intellect along the line of both common and the higher school branches. During the whole time, it is very creditable to both the pupils and instructors that not a single hitch or least matter of trouble has ever been encountered.

SALOONS Not Necessary to Growth of Prosperous Flemingsburg. It is not a fact that the revenue derived from saloons is necessary to run a town. The cost in criminal prosecutions, jail fees and resultant pauperism, far outweighs the revenue. Since Owingsville is quoted as a town which can not do without the whiskey revenue, we will point to Flemingsburg as one which can. She has had no whiskey revenue for nineteen years. In that time she has made more substantial growth in every way than in any similar period in her history. Since that time she has built about a dozen fire cisterns, paid for a $2,800 steam fire engine, build an engine house and equipped her department well. She has opened and macadamized several new streets, built a $2,500 concrete bridge and made other improvements, besides the lighting of her streets and maintaining her police force. In that time the tax levy has never been over 60 cents on the $100 and in some years as low as 25 cents. The old "revenue howl" has been worn thread-bare. It wont act as a scarecrow to the taxpayer any more. - Flemingsburg Times-Democrat.

The Frankfort Shoe Company, has leased the labor of 650 convicts in the Frankfort prison at 85 cents per day.

NEW OIL COMPANY

The Wallace Oil Company, of Beatyville, the first corporation to begin in earnest to develop the oil resources of the county, was organized last Thursday. The incorporators are: Robert Wallace, Sam Hurst, Chester Gouley, James P. Sizemore and Sam Darch. At the same time a temporary organization was effected and the following Directors were elected: Robert Wallace, of Midway, President; Sam Hurst, Beatyville, Vice President; Chester Gouley, Secretary and Treasurer; C. M. Harris, Jr. Versailles, Richard Godson, Midway, J. P. Sizemore and Sam Darch Beatyville. These officers will serve until Tuesday, June 5th when the first meeting of stockholders will be held. The company has now about 10,000 acres under lease, most of which is considered by those who claim know as fine oil territory. The operations will begin at once, and although the exact location of the first well has not been definitely determined, it is said that it will be within a radius of three miles of Beatyville.

$1,000 SALOON LICENSE

At a regular session of the city council of Beatyville it was ordained that the license be imposed for the retailing of spirituous liquors in the city of Beatyville of one thousand dollars per year.

All applications must be made at the regular meeting of the city council each applicant must have five notices posted in the town not less than ten days preceding the council meeting, and therea stating the place the applicant expects to locate his business.

Waring-Blase.

Edgar Everman, Misses Mabel Ramey, Mary Dysard and others went home from the Normal last week. It has been said that the only way to know the value of a newspaper is to read every word in it. Just take this advice and report results. NOT IF AS RICH AS ROCKE-FELLER. If you had all the wealth of Rockefeller, the Standard Oil Magnate, you could not buy a better medicine for bowel complaints than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. The most eminent physician can not prescribe a better preparation for colic and diarrhea, both for children and adults. The uniform success of this remedy has shown it to be superior to all others. It never fails, and when reduced with water and sweetened, is pleasant to take. Every family should be supplied with it. Sold by M. W. Armstrong, the reliable druggist, at Olive Hill.

R. D. Underwood was in from Resort last week. Walden Fultz was at Lawton Friday.

W. T. Holbrook arrived in town Saturday morning from a business trip to Ashland.

TOM WATSON ON SOCIALISM

"The Jungle" was written with a definite purpose—to show that there is no escape for a wage-slave under the present system, save in Socialism. It is certainly a curious thing that the ruin of the people in Mr. Sinclair's book is not due to the wage-system, but to their own mistakes and misdeeds. "The Jungle" does prove that the life of a wage-earner is hard, that the employers are unsympathetic, harsh, exacting, dishonest; but "The Jungle" does not prove that the wage-earner is crushed to death.—Watson's Magazine for May.

CLEANED OUT

When a deep cellar becomes filled with heavy, poisonous air, it is never safe to go into it until it has been cleaned out. When your body has been poisoned with the foul residues of undigested food, it is just as necessary to clean it out. To do this pleasantly and safely take Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin. It is a pure, scientific preparation which has no equal in the cure of constipation, headache, biliousness and stomach trouble.

G. W. Hamilton has been visiting in Huntington and Cincinnati.

WATCH FOR IT

It will pay you to watch for the very first symptom of indigestion or liver trouble, and to prevent the trouble from getting headway, by quickly taking Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin. Nothing is more weakening to the system than chronic dyspepsia, and all its complications. Nothing will cure it so quickly, pleasantly and surely as Syrup Pepsin. Sold by N. M. Hudgins, at 50c and $1.00 Money back if it fails.

To Cure Constipation

take just a small dose of Food before retiring. It is a pleasant and powerful laxative, and money back if not satisfied.

If Nervous and Run Down simply improve your circulation. Remove the waste. It will take time to get the system with the Tonic. But the nervous system will be restored. Money back if not satisfied.

Concerning the right of the Federal Courts to take and try State Court Cases

Where Murder is the charge and unfairness in the Trial is alleged.

Argument on the bill giving the Federal courts the right to take cases out of the State courts and try them, where murder is the crime charged and unfairness in the manner of trial is alleged, took place before the House Judiciary Committee. The bill was prepared by John W. Langley, a former Kentuckian, and is intended to apply to the case of Caleb B. Powers. Langley appeared to speak for the bill and Ollie James appeared to oppose it. There was a full attendance of the committee. Representative D. H. Smith, being a member present.

Mr. Langley contended that the Fourteenth amendment of the United States Constitution is broader than Section 614 of the Revised Statutes and therefore that Congress has a perfect right to enact such legislation as he proposed. He was interrupted frequently by members of the committee.

Representative Littlefield, of Maine asked whether the present method of drawing juries in Kentucky is not the outgrowth of the Powers case James interrupted to say the present law has been on the statute books twenty-five years.

Langley asserted that all of the juries that have tried Powers have been composed of Democrats. James declared this was not true.

Mr. James followed Langley. He entered at length into the Powers case, defending Judge Cantill and Kentucky courts in general. He said that if political prejudice had entered into the case, an effort would have been made to indict ex-Gov. Bradley or Clifton J. Pratt.

POSTMASTER ROBBER

G. W. Fouts, Postmaster of Riverton, Mo., nearly lost his life and was robber of all comfort, according to his letter, which says: "For 20 years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such a severe case of jaundice that even my finger nails turned yellow; when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters, which cured me and have kept me well for eleven years." Sure cure for Bilemness, Neuralgia, Weakness and all Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Bladder derangements. A wonderful Tonic. At Dr. M. W. Armstrong's Drug Store, Inc.

28,000 NAMES YET ON PENSION LIST

Kentucky has 28,000 pensioners who are now being carded for by the local Pension Bureau. Most of these are from the Civil war, but there are veterans of the Mexican and Indian wars, and a growing representation from the Spanish-American war. Many widows of veterans who took part in the war of 1812 are receiving checks quarterly from the local office, and, in spite of the diminution to be expected from deaths, the decrease in the number sent out is small.

The local office distributes $1,000,000 each quarter to the pensioners, an average for each person of about $12 a month. That it is eagerly received is shown by the fact that the vouchers are always sent early and in plenty of time for an early distribution. The sending out of the checks takes two weeks. A large part of the money goes to colored pensioners.

To Cure a Cough, Sore or Wound

To Cure a Cough

Apply Ramon's English Cough Syrup. It is a small one during the day, then sleep. It is a small one without resorting to any other medicine.

Don't wait till to-morrow, but clean house today, with Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin. Of course we mean your house of flesh and bone—your body. This is the best house you own, and should get the most care. Yet most people neglect it in a default manner. As a result, stomach, liver, and bowels soon get out of order, and cause great pain, distress, and dangerous internal diseases. The only safe, sure cure, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It clears out all causes of sickness, cures constipation and indigestion, cleans houses, and makes you well. Try it. Sold by N. M. Hudgins at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

WATSON'S MAGAZINE FOR MAY

Readers who have often seen Thomas E. Watson accused of being a Socialist have an opportunity in the May number of his Magazine to judge how utterly apart his ideas are from those of a Socialist. He devotes several of his editorial pages to a splendid review of Upton Sinclair's novel entitled "The Jungle," and, while availing himself of the opportunity to say much in favor of the book as a work of fiction, Mr. Watson takes equal advantage of this opportunity to show the defects of Socialism. Further he presents some round opinions on the question of schools and colleges in an editorial entitled, "Common Sense Education"; and the Watson whom so many know as a master of satire is in happy evidence in an editorial about Clark Howell, called "A Georgia Di-Dapper." Other articles are "The Philadelphia Vigilantes," by Reginald Wright Kauffman; "The Solution of the Railway Problem," by James B. Lloyd; "Common Sense," by W. D. Wattle; "Overcapitalization of Railroads," by William D. Marks; "What Life Insurance Is," by A. L. Benson; "Bucket Shop Gambling," by John A. Boykin. The Watson story series, six in number and all of varied interest, are well worth reading. One in particular, "Tuctions," by Chas. Fort, stands out, because it is such an exception to the conventional magazine story, and because it is a most amusing commentary on certain social conditions. Besides these readable contents, Watson's magazine provides also the customary departments, of which the most valuable are perhaps "The Educational Department" and "Home Department." The Necessity Of Naval Preparedness

By CHARLES J. BONAPARTE, Secretary of the Navy

WE must keep our navy abreast of the times—must have it ready AT ANY MOMENT to do its appointed work and do this well. Those who think it can be made ready in a little while and rest satisfied with this state of preparation assume the gravest responsibility.

A week, even a day, in these days of ocean cables and wireless telegraphs and long distance telephones and six day liners is worth, for purposes of warfare, a month in the days of our fathers—almost a year in those of our grandfathers. If you wish the navy to be what it should be, the safeguard and warrant of the country's security and honor, you must have a navy prepared for war at a moment's notice, and to have such a navy WE MUST USE AND NOT WASTE THE DAYS OF PEACE to make it thus prepared.

There is no use closing our eyes to the fact that this means spending money, and no little money. The expenses of the navy will grow as the navy grows, and we cannot have a good thing unless we are willing to pay for it. Neither can we fix arbitrarily a certain sum and say this shall not be exceeded. If we give 90 per cent of what the navy needs and refuse it the indispensable remaining 10, WE ARE NOT ECONOMICAL, but foolishly wasteful. We throw away money if it does not bring us a return in effective service.

I BELIEVE, WITH WASHINGTON, THAT, WHILE HUMAN NATURE AND HUMAN SOCIETY REMAIN WHAT THEY ARE, WAR WILL BE ALWAYS POSSIBLE AND SOMETIMES UNAVOIDABLE AND THAT TO PRESERVE PEACE WE SHOULD BE AND BE KNOWN TO BE EVER READY AT A MOMENT'S NOTICE TO MEET AN APPEAL TO ARMS.

Doubtless there are among us those who profess to expect and in part at least have even persuaded themselves into half expecting the millennium to dawn in our days. These may be very worthy people. Some of them undoubtedly are, but it is hardly worth one's time and breath to discuss such matters with them, for they simply do not see things AS THEY ARE.

Another class of people would take in peace time no heed for the national defense, because, with the very little heed we have given it in the past, we have always managed somehow "to pull through" in our days of stress and trial. Such men are about as sensible as those who will not vaccinate their children because their great-grandparents didn't have the smallpox; as those who will not repair their plumbing because no one in their home has yet had typhoid fever; as those who will not insure their houses BECAUSE THEY HAVE NOT YET BEEN BURNED; as those who will not bond their clerks because no one of them has yet defaulted.

To trust to "luck" as a safeguard against a terrible personal calamity, in the face of experience and common sense, is perhaps mere folly, but when the unheeded peril threatens THE NATION'S SAFETY AND HONOR, the happiness of our people and our usefulness to mankind, this folly reaches the dignity of a crime.

Happily for our country, such men are few. The American people know its need of a navy and of such a navy as such a people should have. It is ready to pay what must be paid to get and keep one, and I venture to say emphatically that an enlightened and patriotic public opinion will always cheerfully sustain the legislative branch of our government in making that LIBERAL AND FARSEING PROVISION for the navy's needs AND GROWTH which the navy expects with confidence.

"Shylock Was a Good Man"

By RICHARD MANSFIELD, America's Foremost Actor

SHYLOCK was probably—presuming him to be an actuality—a good man and an honest merchant. He was all that until the wrongs suffered by his tribe in Venice and the personal abuse offered him warped his nature and ENGENDERED THE DESIRE FOR REVENGE. He then determined to square accounts with Antonio if he could.

It becomes his one idea, his object in life, and when Lorenzo steals his daughter AND AT THE SAME TIME ROBS HIM and he falls, stunned by the magnitude of the disaster, this desire for revenge becomes thereafter a madness.

Shylock is practically the only MAN in the crowd. Antonio borrows money from the Jew and despises him whom he has wronged and reviled, but refuses to abide bravely by the terms of his contract.

Gratiano is a time server and lickspittle, and Balsamo a fortune hunter who borrows money from his friend to make a brave show when his friend has confessed his poverty. Lorenzo is a thief, or particeps criminis, and JESSICA IS UNSPEAKABLE.

SHYLOCK IS SHAKESPEARE'S TYPE AND EMBODIMENT OF REVENGE AND WAS SO INTENDED BY HIM, JUST AS OTHELLO IS HIS EMBODIMENT OF JEALOUSY, MACBETH THE MURDERER AND ROMEO THE LOVER.

The Best Traits of Jefferson

By Congressman CHARLES A. TOWNE of New York

TIMES change, and we change with them. New exigencies bring new duties. The issues that arise in the life of a great people must be solved in the light of their ATTENDANT CONDITIONS. Slavish obedience to the letter of tradition may involve disregard of its ESSENTIAL SPIRIT. The highest honor we can pay to the memory of Thomas Jefferson is to meet the problems of today, not by trying to discover their analogy to the specific questions HE encountered, but by bringing our souls in the high inspiration of his great GENERAL PRINCIPLES of government, and liberty and addressing ourselves as practical men to the solution of practical difficulties.

LET US HAVE HIS FAITH IN PEOPLE, HIS SENSE OF OBLIGATION TO THE WELFARE OF THE WHOLE CITIZENSHIP, HIS OPPOSITION TO SLAVEHOLDERS, HIS CONCEPTION OF THE DANGERS OF SPECIAL PRIVILEGES AND THE SACREDNESS OF HONESTLY ACQUIRED PRIVATE PROPERTY.

KIDNEY DISEASES CAUSE ONE-THIRD OF THE TOTAL DEATHS.

When the Kidneys fail to perform their functions properly by not straining out the poisonous waste matter from the blood as it passes through them, the poisons are carried by the circulation to every part of the body, deranging the different organs. This causes heart trouble, stomach trouble, sluggish liver and a host of other ills, all due to deranged Kidneys.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

corrects irregularities and cures Kidney and Bladder diseases in every form, tones up the whole system, and the diseases that have resulted from disordered Kidneys disappear, because the cause has been removed. Commence taking FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE at the first sign of danger. Do not risk having Bright's Disease or Diabetes.

CURED OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

Mr. Robert G. Burke, Elmore, Benton Co., N. Y., writes:—I am glad to have an opportunity of telling what magnificent results I have had from using FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE after having tried other advertised medicines and several physicians. Before I began it I had got up from my bed six times each night to relieve my bladder. I was all dressed up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired that I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. In fact, I was so badly used up that I had given up hope of being what I was urged by a friend to try FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE. One six-cent bottle worked wonders, and before I had taken the third bottle the nephritis had gone, as well as all other symptoms of kidney trouble. My friends were surprised that I was cured, as they all thought I was going to die. Every few days some one comes from miles away to learn the name of the wonderful medicine that cured me of Bright's Disease, and not one that has tried it has failed to be benefited.

Two Sizes, 50 Cents and $1.00.

Wade and Slade

By special request we publish the following piece of poetry. This piece was composed by our local talent, viz: Miss Alice Riffle and Mr. George W. Cauldill, and published in the Ashland Daily Independent several months ago. It was "dedicated" to two drummers who frequently called on our trade.

Two hustling drummers, Wade and Slade
Many trips to Olive Hill have made.
Slade represents a Lexington firm,
While Wade is with an Ashland concern.
They arrive in town, smiles on their faces,
And soon visit all the business places.
"Hello, old boy!" says Mr. Wade;
"Let me present to you my friend, Mr. Slade."

"How is your grocery line to-day?
I have the lowest prices so the merchants say;
Here is my order book by which you can see
All the merchants in town are buying from me."
Says the merchant: "From your order book I see
That all have bought from you but me,
So send me five barrels of flour, five cases of soap,
Four boxes of meat and a reel of rope."
"All right; thank you, old boy.
Your order I certainly do enjoy;
I will ship your goods without delay;
Good-bye; I'll see you next Wednesday."
"Now, Mr. Merchant," says Mr. Slade,
"I have some bargains as well as Wade;
I am with a tobacco firm which solicits your trade,
And what I sell will be shipped by Wade."

"Well," says the merchant, "as I have bought from Wade,
I can't refuse his good friend, Slade;
So send me four boxes of "Star" and two of "Granger."
I'll give you an order as you're no stranger."
"Thank you very much," says Mr. Slade,
"I certainly appreciate the order you have made;
I'll step to the 'phone and tell Mr. Wade
That I'm going to call on an Olive Hill maid."
So in steps this drummer, Slade,
And is greeted by the charming maid:
"Why, how do you do, my dear Mr. Slade?"

"Come have a seat in this lovely shade.
You need not hurry—enjoy the shade.
You have plenty of time to meet your friend, Wade."
Well, there comes the train, so good-bye Mr. Slade,
Give my kindest regards to Mr. Wade.
