Rev. Hoskins Dies of Injuries

Rev. K. S. Hoskins who was pastor of Olive Hill for the eight months past, was struck by a freight car at the crossing near Harbeson-Walker switch. He sustained a concussion of the brain and had one foot cut off at the ankle. He died of his injuries two hours afterwards. His remains were taken to Salyers on the 20th for interment. He was apparently in a study. The engineer of the train whistled and bystanders shouted to attract attention. He leaves a wife and three children, the eldest being 8 years of age. He also has a mother and three brothers.

New Bank Opens

The Peoples Bank informally opened for business, Thursday morning at eight o'clock, in the old Olive Hill National Bank building, John S. DeHart, acting cashier, by courtesy of Cashier Evans for the day. W. R. Coburn, Olive Hill, was the first depositor. A number were at the bank before it was open for business, wishing success for the new institution. The strong box is one of the best that could be purchased, cannot be drilled. Those interested give encouragement of a healthy business.

The deposits up to Saturday evening amounted to $20,000.

Mr. J. A. Porter announces in this issue as a candidate for Justice of the Peace.

Mr. Porter served one term in the office to which he now aspires, and unquestionably his performance of duty was both efficient and satisfactory. An old resident and citizen, he is well known to all, is fully qualified for the position, and requests support from his many friends.

Homer Blankenship, of Hitchens visited friends here Sunday.

Governing Postmasters

Washington, May 10. — Fourth-class postmasters must be able to read, to count accurately the money they receive, to measure the tilecloth on the floors of their office, and to write at least a decipherable letter once in a while, to be taken under the wing of the civil service. In effect they must have a reasonable understanding of "reading," "writing," "rhythmic," according to regulations issued by the Postoffice department.

Persons to take the civil service examination must be citizens of the United States, over 21 years old, and must reside in the community served by the office they aspire to fill. No one will be eligible who is crazy, an ex-convict, who has been dishonorably discharged from the army or navy, or who is dismissed even occasionally to reduce the size of a small drink.

All examinations will be conducted by the civil service commission, and will not be for appointment generally, but for a particular office. The eligibility for appointment after examination will be for one year only, except in special instances. The examinations will not be severe, but will be sufficient to test the business capacity of the applicants.

BASEBALL

The classy team of Yale invaded our field Sunday and made things interesting for the locals. The visitors played baseball from every angle, but were beaten, 5 to 4, by a combination of the two Olive Hill teams. The feature of the game was two clean and remarkably clever double-plays by the Yale boys.

For Olive Hill, Ralph Tabor did some sensational work at center. He accepted four difficult chances, played errorlessly and went through the session with a percentage of 1,000. It behooves everyone to get busy and take an interest in this summer baseball recreation. Get the habit of going to the game to try to acquire some skill in the science of root-ology and stand for clean, fair playing. One thing is certain, we have a set of athletes of whom we may well be proud and who will give a good account of themselves in a skirmish with any team in the adjoining counties. Sunday's game was as fine an exhibition as was ever seen on the home grounds.

This Sunday, the team from Morehead will play the Olive Hill Fire Brick team, on the Olive Hill grounds.

Fire Scare

A small fire offered the town a little excitement Thursday evening. A defective generator in a gasoline light ignited some of the stock or fixtures, but was prevented from making headway by the prompt and energetic efforts of our young men, who happened to be in the vicinity at the time and of course volunteered for the work. The incident occurred at N. D. Tabor's store, and caused damage to the extent of about $20.

Webb Law Invalid in South Carolina

Columbia, S. C. May 16. — The supreme court of South Carolina rendered an opinion declaring that in the absence of specific legislative prohibition against the importation of liquor from another state, the provisions of the Webb bill were not applicable to this state. The court held that the purposes of the Webb bill was to prevent any infraction of the state statutes under the guise of interstate traffic.

Kansas City, May 16. — The test case under the Webb law, instituted by the Kansas City, Mo., officials last week, when the police were ordered to arrest every driver of a brewery wagon found on the streets of that city, ended in a victory for the brewers today, when the case of Lewis Segelbaum, a beer wagon driver was dismissed in the municipal court.

The Old World Waddies Along

see just how good that is.

The poor fellow near Detroit, who shot himself a few days ago because he fancied the end of the world was at hand, was of course demented and irresponsible.

Any sane man, foreseeing that the end of the planet, would naturally want to be in at the finish in a front row seat and with faculties primed for so novel an experience. Lots of folks, since history began have worried over the imminence of the great wind-up until the strain of it has unsettled their reason. And their worrying hasn't changed things a bit, except disastrously for themselves. The old earth waddies, on serene and unconscious. We don't, of course, know when the one is to come to us, personally, much less to the whole arrangement of things; it's mighty lucky we don't, for then we would have something to worry over, something the worrying could not dodge.

So the best we can do is to run a tolerably even keel, be as white as we can and keep our accounts ready for a quick balancing. If you can so live that a lot of good folks will be sorry when you're gone, isn't that enough preparation for the swift summons. — Louisville Herald.

This week L. F. Tyree announces for Justice of the Peace for District No. 3.

Mr. Tyree, during his present term in that office has given the people seemingly entire satisfaction, always being just in adjusting matters between man and man and deserves special commendation for his stand in Carter's fiscal courts toward economy in the expenditures of the taxpayers' money. He solicits your consideration and pledges faithful and trustworthy duty if chosen Justice of the Peace.

The home of David Crisswell, near Leon burned last week. The total loss was about $1,500, and no insurance.

Harry Erwin, 25, and Myrtle Gose, of near Hitchens, were united in marriage last Wednesday. They arrived here Thursday. Mr. Irwin is at present in the employ of M. D. Jordan.

Are You Nervous?

What makes you nervous? It is the weakness of your womanly constitution, which cannot stand the strain of the hard work you do. As a result, you break down, and ruin your entire nervous system. Don't keep this up! Take Gardui, the woman's tonic. Gardui is made from purely vegetable ingredients. It acts gently on the womanly organs, and helps them to do their proper work. It relieves pain and restores health, in a natural manner, by going to the source of the trouble and building up the bodily strength.

TAKE THE GARDUI Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Grace Fortner, of Man, W. Va., took Gardui. This is what she says about it: "I was so weak and nervous I could not bear to have anyone near me. I had long spells, and I lost flesh every day. The first dose of Gardui helped me. Now, I am entirely cured of the aching spells, and I cannot say enough for Gardui, for I know it saved my life." It is the best tonic for women.

Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to women? Take Gardui. It will help you. Ask your druggist.
