

CWF MINUTES

June 27, 1999

The annual CWF picnic was held at the home of Natalie Caudill on June 27, 1999, at 5:00. Those present were: Peggy Reynolds, Betty Walke, Donna Corly, Jan Trulock, Chlotean Calvert, Katherine Caudill, Di Walke, Mabel Reynolds, Janice Ellis, Darlene Perkins, Anne Buckner, Neva Griffith, Dorothy Walter, Kathy Baley, Natalie Caudill, Fran Helphenstine, and Betty Hall.

Di Walke gave a devotional. She read several CWF Mission Statements from 1870's to 1999.

President Mabel Reynolds made the following announcements:

- All reports that are due have been sent in.
- Study material has been ordered.
- CWF commitment to Basic Mission Finance has been paid.
- Carnation project went well.
- Cookbook and note card sales are being pushed.
- Supply of "lovey" bears is ample.
- Gifts to Children with Aids in Zimbabwe will go toward serving 600,000 children by the year 2000.
- Evening group of CWF can be arranged if there is interest.
- Notice will appear in Echo regarding communion list and condolence list.

Neva Griffith reported that the Blessing Box money is down 9.7%.

Katherine Caudill offered the following names for CWF officers.

President	Mabel Reynolds
Vice President	Di Walke
Secretary	Linda Bryant
Treasurer	Neva Griffith

Peggy Reynolds made the motion that nominations cease. The slate of officers was accepted by acclamation.

Di Walke reported that the CWF Material is entitled Our Spiritual Inheritance: Find It, Claim It. Romans is the Bible study and Cuba is the country.

Kosovo discussed and it was decided that the Week of Compassion was the way to respond. The lack of a fall activity was also discussed. Jan reported that the youth would be having a rummage sale in the fall and that a breakfast might be appropriate.

The kitchen is almost complete except for Dan building a narrow shelf and the purchasing of microwave.

The meeting was adjourned and a salad/dessert followed.

Secretary

Betty L. Hall

Betty L. Hall