The Citizens Bank of Grayson

The Citizens Bank of Grayson is one of the newer financial institutions in this section, but it is now so well known and so thoroughly established that it ranks well up with institutions that are much older. It was organized September 1st, 1902, and has a capital stock of $26,000 with a surplus of the same amount. Its banking room is located on Main street, in a splendid building and is equipped with modern, up-to-date banking facilities. Its cashier is Mr. L. E. Osenton, who is well known throughout the section. Mr. Osenton is a very affable gentleman and is thoroughly posted on every phase of the banking business. His pleasant treatment of all customers accounts largely for the success of this well known institution. The directors of the Citizens Bank are as follows: Winfield Scott, Thomas D. Theobald, W. A. Davis, G. W. Jacobs and L. E. Osenton. The officers are: Winfield Scott, President; T. D. Theobald, vice-President; L. E. Osenton, Cashier.

Death of Dr. Winfield Jarvis

Dr. Winfield Jarvis, aged about thirty-five years, brother-in-law of ex-State Senator W. B. Whit, was found dead in a field near his home, last Thursday, his death being due either to heart trouble or an affliction of the kidneys, from which he was a sufferer.

Dr. Jarvis had been in Oklahoma and had returned home but a few days ago. Wednesday he went to the home of his brother-in-law, Lon James, a few miles away and left there later in the day. Failing to return to his home on Thursday, a search was started which resulted in his dead body being found in the woods beyond his home and that of his brother-in-law. An empty shot gun lay a few feet away from his body, but there were no marks of any kind on the body and the coroner's jury said there is no evidence of any violence.

Progressives Gain Recognition

The Progressives will have representation on fourteen of the sixteen most important House commissions and in all will have thirty-seven committee places. Chairman Underwood of the Ways and Means Committee, and Progressive leader Murdock have agreed upon this plan. Rivers and harbors and agriculture are the only important committees on which the Progressives will not have representation.

The Industrial School people have purchased the beautiful home of Robert Jordan, which adjoins the site on which the Industrial School is to be erected. The present plan is to dedicate the Home and lay the corner stone for the School in August. September 1st, school will be opened in the Home building, which will be used for this purpose until the school building is completed.

OBITUARY

On the morning of the 20th our village appeared to be clothed in mourning over the sad accident that had befallen one of the most useful and well-respected citizens of our town, the Rev. K. S. Hoskins, a minister of the Gospel and a fearless man. A man whom to know was to love. The very appearance of his countenance spoke of the earnestness of his work, and while your scribe had the pleasure of his acquaintance for only a short time it was with a feeling of gratitude toward him in his kind disposition.

While our hearts go out in sympathy to his dear wife and babies it never can heal the wounded and broken heart of his companion. The home that was so happy will never be as it has been, with all our expressions of sympathy. While we may be willing to lend a helping hand and give consoling words to the dear companion, father, mother, sisters, brothers and all of his relatives we cannot give them the consolation that his own life among us gave and the one great expression from his own lips a few moments before he passed: "Thank God, I am ready." (Blessed Thought.) As we drop the sympathetic tear on this earth, he surely has entered into great joy beyond, where his companion and relatives are invited to join him.

Sometimes there is joy and oft times grief,
While trains are moving here on e, th,
But there's a train that's moving on,
To where there will be no grief when home.

The fare is free, there's nought to pay,
Christ's Precious Blood has paid the way,
Come, get on board 't'is moving on,
The track is clear, we'll soon be home.
And when this train to Heaven shall go,
With all on board as white as snow,
I never shall return again,
Where tears now fall like drops of rain.

PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION, SAN FRANCISCO, 1915.

Copyright, 1913, by Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

ONE of the minor courts that will open out from the great exposition city upon a vast tropical garden upon the south. This court, a marvel of tropical transplanting, is south of the Court of Four Seasons. It is designed by Mr. George W. Kelham. The Panama-Pacific International Exposition will stand alone not only in its architectural treatment but in its setting at Harbor View, the exposition site. In the adornment of its huge interior space and of its grounds, with hundreds of thousands of palms, flowers and rare shrubs and vines, and in the superb color plan created by Jules Guerin, a world famous colorist. The theme of the exposition, the sculpture, and mural paintings will exalt the spirit of achievement through which America has completed the Panama canal. The theme of the great interior courts will suggest the meeting of the East and West.

Olive Hill 10--Morehead 2.

Olive Hill triumphed over Morehead Sunday when the strong Morehead team was defeated by the Olive Hill Grays (the General Refractories Company team) by the score of 10 to 2.

The Grays scored one run in the first, with one down, through a single steal, and a single by J. Tackett.

They added one more to that in the second inning and three in the third.

From then until the sixth there was no more scoring, and it looked as if Nickell had put a stop to the heavy hitting of the Olive Hill boys, but they got busy again in the last two innings and added five more runs to their total.

Just to show the Morehead team that they were not real selfish, "Our Boys" allowed them to score two runs in the eighth and thus escape a shutout.

Kiser's pitching was the feature of the game. The big fellow had the Rowan County lads at his mercy throughout the game. He allowed only five scattered hits and struck out their heaviest hitters in the pinches. He allowed only one base on balls—that in the ninth inning. Nickell pitched masterly but received miserable support.

A large and appreciative crowd attended, and was very liberal with its applause, both for the victors and the vanquished.

The Commercial Bank of Grayson

The Commercial Bank of Grayson, was organized in 1891, and has grown constantly since that time, until now it is one of the well known financial banking institutions in this section of the State. It has now a capital and surplus of $90,000 and does a general banking business. Its capital stock paid in is $50,000 and its deposits subject to check, run in the neighborhood of $150,000. W. T. Womack, the energetic and accommodating cashier is a friend to everybody in that section of the country and is liked by all. He has adopted the motto of this bank, "Courtesy, Liberality, Courtesy," and to these three words he attributed much of the success of the Commercial Bank. The Ashland people have long known the merits of this bank, and our fellow townsman, Mr. Chas. Kitchen, is one of the directors and was for a number of years, vice-president. The directors are as follows: Dr. J. W. Strother, Dr. W. A. Horton, H. C. Rupert, R. M. Bagby, J. W. Ford, J. B. Hannah, Chas. Kitchen, and W. T. Womack. The officers are J. W. Strother, President; H. C. Rupert, vice-President; W. T. Womack, cashier and W. H. Strother, Assistant cashier.

Ross-Gilbert

The residence of Mr. Will Bradley, at Morehead, Ky., was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday evening, May 28, at 8:00 p.m., when the Rev. Stone, of the Christian church at Grayson, united in the bond of matrimony, Dr. J. M. Rose of Olive Hill and Miss Ora Gilbert. After receiving the best wishes of a host of admirers and friends, the happy couple left for Olive Hill where they will be at the home of Dr. Rose's sister, Mrs. M. S. Qualls, for a short time, and later occupy a fine residence to be built expressly for them.

The estimable couple are held in as high esteem as any persons in this section. Dr. Rose is eminently qualified by training and experience to pursue his duties as a surgeon, having served and studied under some of the ablest men in this line. A young man, he is energetic, self-made, ambitious, and socially and professionally a pronounced success. Mrs. Rose is from a grand old family. She is a beautiful and accomplished young lady who has all the requirements of a helpful and happy companion. The Progressive extends its heartiest felicitations, hoping for the newly wedded couple, a calm, pleasant and enjoyable voyage over the sea of life.

OUR TROUBLES

For various causes beyond our control, we must beg the indulgence of our readers for appearing late this week.

Last week our newspaper press broke down, and we were forced to take the type for the paper to Grayson, where, through the courtesy of the Rutledge Printshop, we were enabled to issue.

This week, after we thought our press had been put into operating order, we found further repairs necessary.

To cap the climax, we put our trust in one of those happy-go-lucky mortals known as "tourist-printers," whom the twitter of the blue birds and warmth of summer always cause to have a tickling sensation on the bottoms of their feet, and when we returned from a business trip, we found he had answered the call of the road and departed for the land where a free lunch accompanies each glass of the amber-colored-liquid with the high collar.

We appeal, however, and should no untoward event occur, we will continue to greet you, once a week, anyway.

CIVIL WAR VETERANS TO MEET

AT GETTYSBURG BATTLEFIELD

Huge Reunion of Blue and Gray to Be Held July 1 On Fiftieth Anniversary of Conflict—40,000 Are Expected to Be Entertained by the State of Pennsylvania.

Harrisburg, Pa.—On July 1 the veterans of the Civil War, both Blue and Gray, will meet again on the battlefield at Gettysburg, Pa., after fifty years, but this time it will be in amity and affection.

The state of Pennsylvania on May 13, 1909, created a commission to consider and arrange for a proper and fitting recognition and observance, at Gettysburg, of the fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg; to invite the co-operation of the congress of the United States, and of other states and commonwealths, and to make an appropriation for preliminary expenses.

The invitation is as follows: "Pennsylvania, by its commission formally invites the congress of the United States and her Sister States and Commonwealths to accept this invitation from the commonwealth upon whose territory the battle of Gettysburg was fought, to share in this important anniversary and to help make it an event worthy of its historic significance and of the credit and honor so impressive to our great and reunited nation." and likewise invites the co-operation and participation of the regular army of the Republic and of the United Confederate Veterans.

Pennsylvania—she providing all entertainment at Gettysburg during July 1, 2, 3 and 4, 1913, for forty thousand (40,000) "blue and gray" veterans of the Civil War, and she and the national government together, as provided by the act of congress August 28, 1912, by each paying $150,000.00 of the war department with the $300,000.00 total, to create and maintain a great camp around the battlefield.

State Will Act as Host.

With each commonwealth, state and territory rests absolutely the determination, as each deems best, to select veterans of the Civil War, who will issue free transportation, Pennsylvania's invitation being that to such "honorable discharged veterans of the Civil War" as come to Gettysburg for the celebration, there upon free transportation or at their own expense, and present proper credentials proving them to be such veterans.

TRAPPED BY ARABS

BLOODIEST BATTLE OF WAR—TROOPS RESTING WHEN SET UPON BY THE ENEMY.

Great Courage Shown By the Commander—Dying Colonel Praised Men in His Report.

Western Newspaper Union News Service, Chiasso, Switzerland.—The strict censorship which the Italian government has imposed on all news relating to the Italian front in the Alps, and particularly with regard to the defeat of the Italian forces at Sidi Garba on May 16, has made it difficult to obtain exact information on the recent reverses in that territory. It has been learned, however, that the disaster at Sidi Garba was due to a well-laid plan of the Arabs. An Italian workman named Macchicelli, who had been taken prisoner by the Arabs, was allowed to escape after being carefully primed with false information, which he carried to the Italian front. Instead of waiting to carry out a scheme of co-operation with Gen. Tassoni, who was on his way from Benghazi with a strong force, Gen. Gabrioni, on the strength of Macchicelli's report that the number of the enemy was small, decided to attack alone. Accordingly he divided his 5,000 men into three columns, and were butchered.

The Italians showed admirable courage and endurance. Some of the companies lost all their officers. One advance detachment lost 26 out of 40 men, and another lost 20 men.

40,000 Veterans Expected.

It is expected that 40,000 veterans of the war, not all of them, however, will be present at the reunion. It will be found encamped upon the field when reveille sounds on the morning of July 1. It will be a different re-union, that which the file and drum of fifty years ago. The call to awakening will be a call to a peaceful celebration while the call to the awakening in July, 1863, was a call of arms to conflict and, to thousands of men, a call to death.

Loss an Illusion.

James C. McReynolds, who investigated the tobacco trust for the government, thereby bringing up a lot of things, says that just after he started practicing law in a small town down in Tennessee, a few years ago, stout hillman came into his office and was almost in tears as he desired to sue a neighbor for $10,000 damages.

"Two years ago," he stated, "he called me a hippopotamus."

"Two years ago," echoed McReynolds. "Why didn't you sue him sooner?"

"Well, suh," said the injured party, "until that circus come through here last week I thought all the time he was paying me a compliment."—Saturday Evening Post.

Having tried unsuccessfully various highly recommended recipes for dissolving salt-ham passengers from corvet seats, the woman who swung from a strap in front of the sandy man tried talking to him to her husband's admiration to her baragone, she said impressively:

"If you, James, should ever be pig-shin enough to sit down while there was a woman in the car left standing, I would never speak to you again as long as I live!"

The sandy man looked up then. "Lucky devil," he said. "No more of us could purchase here at that price."

are danger signals—heed the warning in time. When the blood is impure—the pathway is open for a host of diseases to enter and cause sickness.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Memory Discovery eradicates the poisons from the blood by purifying the internal organs, cleansing the fringed and scurfed pores of the skin, and removing the impurities that cause the disease to enter and cause sickness. It is a safe and reliable remedy.

WOMAN CANNOT NOT WALK

She Was So Ill—Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Pentwater, Mich.—"A year ago I was very weak and the doctor said I had a serious displacement of my back. I had backache and my feet were so sore that I could not sit in a chair or walk across the floor and I was in severe pain all the time. I felt discouraged as I had taken everything I could think of and was no better. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now I am strong and healthy."—Mrs. W. ALICE DARLING, R.F.D. No. 2, Box 77, Pentwater, Mich.

Peoria, Ill.—"I had such backache that I could hardly stand on my feet. I would feel like crying out lots of times, and had such a heavy feeling in my right side. I had such terrible bad headaches every day and they would make me feel so drowsy and sleepy that at times, you could not sleep at all."

"After I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a week I began to improve. My back was less sore, and that heavy feeling in my side went away. I continued to take the Compound and am cured."

"You may publish this if you wish."

Frankfort, Iowa, has asked for an immediate shipment of 500 women who will be given an opportunity to support themselves while they acquire the art of raising farm and stock. The plan of colonization will start the plan of colonization, a Kentucky woman, whose home in Covington, Ky., has made part of her back-to-the-farm movement, though she believes that it lies with women to defeat the high cost of living by raising foodstuffs, has been appointed by Gov. Sutor as a delegate to the International Agricultural Conference in Rome, Italy. Since her scheme has been made public she has been deluged with letters from all over the Iowa proposition, though she declined to give the name of the section which will so gladly assume the charm of the "request comes from the Chamber of Commerce," said Mrs. Woolsey. "It is the center of an agricultural district and there is apparently no material objection to the plan. My idea is to get women out of the shops, factories and the streets. This will require capital. My idea is that we will get women out of the shops, no matter how small a sum we may avoid all red tape. I have already been offered much land free, but I consider that a bad way to begin."

Mrs. Woolsey expects to sail soon for Italy, but will leave her secretary in charge of the bureau. She is the only woman among the several hundred delegates from this country to the agricultural convention.

Blow From Pelkey Below His Heart Felles the Giant in First Round.

Dislocated Neck Caused the Death Say the Physicians Who Performed Autopsy—Arna Is Buried.

Western Newspaper Union News Service, Calgary, Alberta.—Luther McCarty, recognized white heavy-weight champion pugilist of the world, was knocked out and killed by Arthur Pelkey in the first round of their scheduled ten-round bout. The short right hook landing just below the heart staggered the champion and he fell to the canvas, dying less than 30 minutes later. The knockout blow was a terrific high-land blow over the heart. McCarty collapsed. He was carried from the ring after the referee had counted the fight, but never regained consciousness.

Here is the history of the fatal round. The big fellows posed for a photograph and then sparred off. Pelkey was sure of his feet and began using a left jab to the face. He landed three straight lefts and McCarty then made a weak come-back with the right. The physician, when McCarty rushed, Pelkey met him with a stiff left to the jaw and a right to the head. McCarty wavered for a moment, staggered and flopped on his back.

A dislocated neck caused the death of Luther McCarty during his fight with Arthur Pelkey, according to information given out following an autopsy conducted by Dr. Mosher at the request of Coroner Costello.

It was stated by the physicians that the death was caused by the dislocated neck and that the heart was found to be sound. A clot of blood on the brain aided in convincing the physician that death was not due to the blow near the heart.

Tommy Burns' prize fight arena, in which Luther McCarty was killed in the first round, Arthur Pelkey was burned to the ground.

No Tax Is Due on Notes.

The Kentucky and Louisville Mutual Insurance Co. will not have to pay taxes to the state on the notes held by the company against the policyholders. Chief Justice Holton determined that the notes upon which the commonwealth was endeavoring to collect taxes have no cash value at a voluntary sale and are only an obligation to the company to pay the assessment when they become due. The Jefferson circuit court adjudged that the notes were of no value unless such assessment had been paid on them and were subject to taxation as omitted property. The company holds $62,000 worth of such notes which are given by the policyholders to guarantee the payment of the assessment when they come due. The judgment of the lower court was reversed.

ASHES HURLED INTO FLAMES.

San Francisco.—The ashes of Joaquin Miller, "Poet of the Sierras," that had been raised with his own hands. Nearly 1,000 persons made the pilgrimage to The Heights, the poet's home, to see the funeral and stood with bowed heads during the ceremonies, conducted by members of the Bohemian Club, in accordance with the poet's last wish. John P. Irish, for many years Miller's fellow member of the club, applied the torch and cast the ashes on the flames, while the club choir of 40 voices sang a hymn written by the poet.

HANDS BURNING, ITCHING

905 Lowell Place, Chicago, Ill.—"The trouble began by my hands burning and itching and I rubbed and scratched them till one day I saw little blisters on my hands. For two years no body could help me, until one day I thought I would try the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used warm water with the Cuticura Soap and after that I used the Cuticura Ointment on my hands twice a day for about six or six months when I was cured." (Signed) Sam Marcus, Nov. 28, 1911. Just Like a Man.

A man suffered from inflammatory rheumatism, and his wife nursed him patiently. He had a very fault-finding disposition, but she was very patient, and also very fond of him.

After an especially severe attack, a friend called to inquire after him. The patient wore a mournful expression.

"Well," said the friend, cheerfully, "how are you today?"

"Very badly," replied the rheumatic sufferer, "it's all my wife's fault."

"Why," cried the friend in astonishment, "is it possible?"

"Yes," moaned the invalid, "you know the doctor told me always to avoid damp places, and there my wife sits and cries just to make me sit at most around me."

New Disease Among Horses.

Prominent citizens, including many stock raisers of Boyle and Garrard counties, are suffering from a representative Harry Helm during the last few days telling of a mysterious disease which has attacked the horses and which he has named "the Kentucky disease." They say it is unlike anything they have known before and is causing considerable alarm. Mr. Helm took the matter up with the bureau of animal industry of the United States department. The department at once telegraphed to the representative of the bureau of animal industry at Louisville, and the latter immediately communicated with the district where the case has shown itself and later to go there in person and make an investigation.

Auto Runs Wild on Ferry.

Campen, N. J.—Hundreds of passengers were thrown into a panic, one was drowned and two boys injured when an automobile with three passengers started forward on a ferryboat entering the dock here and was hurled by the wind and waves over the front of the boat. William F. Goos, a deck hand, endeavored to hold back the heavy automobile and was hurled into the river and drowned. Philip Kurtz and Jacob Minzer, seventeen-year-old boys, who were in the path of the machine, were thrown down and injured.

BEER BOTTLE EXPLODES.

Porlage, Wis.—Harry Sherman, manager of a stock company, was seriously injured in the "struggle" between a beer bottle and a beer bottle. As she was raising the missile over Sherman's head, the bottle exploded, and the glass penetrated Sherman's face, severing his nose. It was feared he would bleed to death, but a doctor in the audience stopped the flow. Coolness on the part of the crowd prevented a threatening scene, and the audience, including Sherman was taken to a hospital.

"LIKE MAGIC"

New Food Makes Wonderful Changes.

When a man has suffered from dyspepsia so many years that he can't eat anything, he has a natural appetite, and then hits on a way out of trouble he may be excused for saying "it acts like magic."

"Why," cried the friend in astonishment, "is it possible?"

"Yes," moaned the invalid, "you know the doctor told me always to avoid damp places, and there my wife sits and cries just to make me sit at most around me."

Suffragettes at Fairs.

The leaders of the state woman's suffrage movement are much pleased with the work done in behalf of their cause during the meeting of the Kentucky Educational association in Louisville several weeks ago, and they are anxious to place their efforts at the State fair, the Bluegrass fair and practically every county fair in Kentucky, according to a statement made by the state headquarters of the Woman's Suffrage association.

Whitely-Pine Knot Contest.

It is believed that the county seat election of November 1, 1912, when Whitley City defeated Pine Knot for county seat of the new county of McCarty, the court of appeals instructed the county clerk to place a decision for the regular November election. The 1912 election was void because the constitution requires all elections to be held on the regular election day.

Execution Day Is Fixed.

Gov. McCarty fixed June 20 the date for electrocuting Thomas Lawson and Thomas Martin, who killed Hardin in Shelby county, and June 27 the date for the execution of General May, who killed Belle Meredith and her husband in Harlan county.

Kentucky Quail Being Shipped.

Authorities of the federal biological survey have uncovered the shipment of 14,000 more quail from Gallatin county, as well as numerous shipments from Broken and Nicholas counties to Baltimore, and have put checks and way-bills in the hands of Executive Agent J. C. Ward of the same and his commission. Shippers of Gallatin county were promised that if they would give evidence against the consignees, they would be let off with leniency and that there were numerous cases against them.

THE EFFECTS OF OPIATES.

HEAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, in optimum. Even in the smallest dose, if continued, these opiates cause a general depression and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental prostration, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous prostration, which is not infrequently met with in children, is the result of the use of opiate or narcotic to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiate or narcotic for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodyne, Drops, Cordium, Soothing Syrup and other narcotics to children by any but a physician, is a crime. It is the duty of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to administer narcotics to children.
