

CWF MINUTES

June 14, 1998

The annual CWF picnic met at the home of Marge Thomas on Sunday, June 14, 1998, at 5:00 p.m. President Jeannie Huie called the meeting to order. The following members were present: Donna Corley, Faith Brown, Marge Thomas, Kay Evans, Fran Helphinstine, Chlo Calvert, Anne Buckner, Ada June Thompson, Mabel Reynolds, Peggy Reynolds, Natalie Caudill, Elaine Scott, Neva Griffith, Jeannie Huie, and Betty Hall.

Neva Griffith gave the treasurer's report. The complete report is attached. Highlights of the report are as follows:

$300 for Lovey's (gift from former CWF member)
$200 for Zimbabwe
$1000 for Basic Mission Finance
$495.24 balance (all bills paid)

The following topics were discussed:

1. Bake sale during Hardwood Festival
A committee is needed to spearhead this project. Kay Evans agreed to be in charge of publicity.
Motion by Marge Thomas and seconded by Anne Buckner.
2. Christmas cookie trays
Natalie Caudill agreed to host the preparation event in December.
3. CWF minutes and church history
Betty Hall suggested keeping CWF minutes in the church office and the possibility of putting together a church history.
4. Regional Assembly
Some stated they would like to attend the Women's Luncheon at the Regional Assembly in Frankfort on Friday, August 14, at the Holiday Inn. The cost of the luncheon is $11.
5. Fall Retreat
Ellen Frost will lead the Fall Retreat at Jenny Wiley State Park on October 17-18. Registration deadline is September 15. Two rooms are reserved at the Holiday Inn.
6. Cookbooks and note cards
A supply of $5.00 cookbooks and $2.00 note cards is still available.

7. 1998-99 slate of officers

A partial slate of officers was presented with Darlene Perkins as vice president and Neva Griffith as treasurer. The positions of president and secretary are still open. Motion to accept slate as presented made by Marge Thomas and seconded by Peggy Reynolds.

Jeannie Huie dismissed the meeting with prayer and a blessing for the salad supper which followed.
