Vol. 36

Ah, we fondly cherish Faded things
That had better perish.
Memory clings
To each leaf it saves
— J. H. Brown, Gather Leaves and Grasses

'T is but a little faded flower,
But of, how fondly dear!
'T will bring me back one golden hour,
Through many a weary year.
Ellen Clementine Howarth,
Tis But a Little Faded Flower

A Walk down Senior Lane

At Long last, the end is finally here.
Awards Day Boredom I know you fear
Teachers and Students it's time to cheer.
For the time to reflect on '85 it's finally here.

The freshmen came, and were always lost
Book fees were due, OH! what a cost!
And there stood Coleman, those arms forever crossed.
Before we knew it football, basketball and then the frost

Please don't forget, the bomb scare threat,
Or the tension the day the SACS committee met.
Ah, yes, those "alcove lovers" who never thought to fret.
Our fearless teachers, riding that helicopter said "no fear!"
But, afterwards I wondered who's seat that was all sticky and wet.

Wednesday mornings, and missing class for clubs
The cafeteria and all its fabulous grubs
We've all made, I'm sure, a few small flubs
We even wrote on the rocks. Guess what though!
The janitors ended up with the scrubs.

We thought our lives were a mess, then came I.S.S.
UP went the chains, slowing us down a little and no less
They invited us to a board meeting and a nap
they took, God Bless!
My fellow student, don't despair for there is hope,
On Halloween "Chick" wore a dress.

"You can't Take it With You," is the name of the play
Stony Cove, population 69 and official skip day
Many competing at Marshall and some History day
And some generic no-name felt "senior-cry babies" shouldn't have their way.

It's time for us seniors to take off and fly.
Time to look back, hug a friend and maybe cry.
ONE LESSON I've learned, "it's best not to lie."
So, "I love you Rowan County Senior High, Thank you Farewell and good bye!"

“Follow Your Dream”

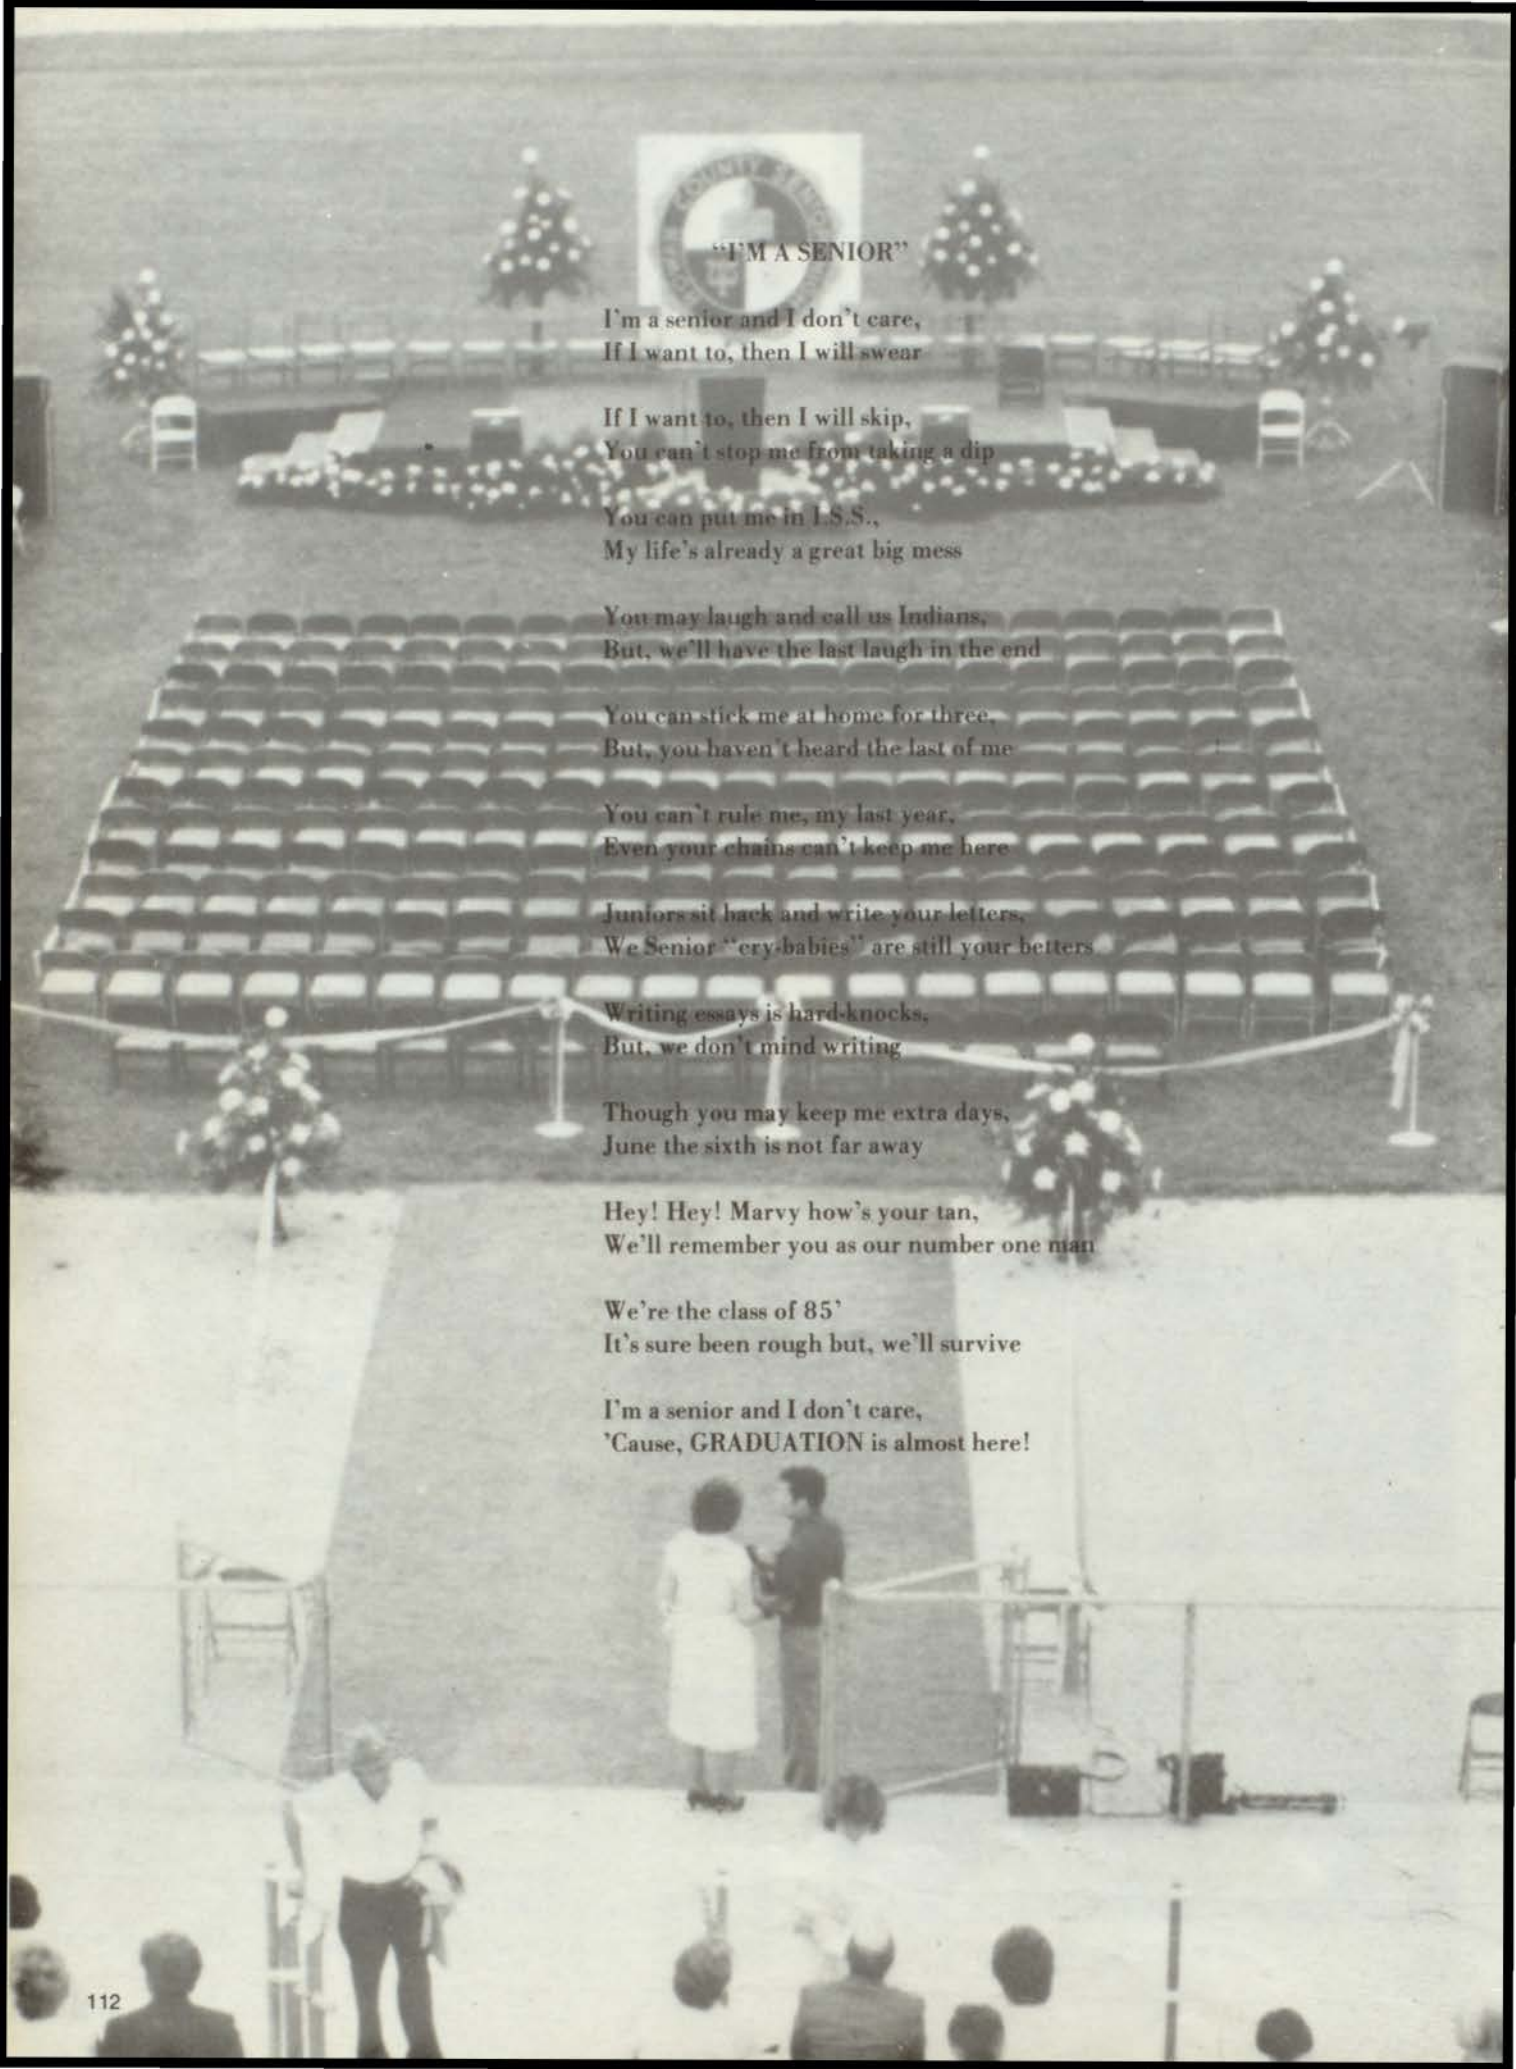

Follow your dream . . .
take one step at a time
and don't settle for less,
just continue to climb.

Follow your dream . . .
if you stumble, don't stop
and lose sight of your goal,
press on to the top.

For only on top
can we see the whole view,
can we see what we've done
and what we can do,
can we have the vision
to seek something new . . .

Press on,
and follow your dream.

— Amanda Bradley

"I'M A SENIOR"

I'm a senior and I don't care,
If I want to, then I will swear

If I want to, then I will skip,
You can't stop me from taking a dip
You can put me in L.S.S.,
My life's already a great big mess

You may laugh and call us Indians,
But, we'll have the last laugh in the end

You can stick me at home for three,
But, you haven't heard the last of me

You can't rule me, my last year,
Even your chains can't keep me here

Juniors sit back and write your letters,
We Senior "cry-babies" are still your betters

Writing essays is hard-knocks,
But, we don't mind writing

Though you may keep me extra days,
June the sixth is not far away

Hey! Hey! Marvy how's your tan,
We'll remember you as our number one man

We're the class of 85'
It's sure been rough but, we'll survive

I'm a senior and I don't care,
'Cause, GRADUATION is almost here!

The Professions of Life

No matter which occupation you choose, there are some common denominators needed for all: honesty, integrity, dedication, pride in your work, and the courage to accept a challenge. These values are as necessary today as they were when this country was but a dream. For they are what made the dream come true. They are the professions of life.

We at McDonald's® wish you success in life, as well as in the field of endeavor you choose.

McDonald's & You.

Congratulations

SACS IN THE BAG

Sharing, winning, losing, and living.

In a world full of wonder
With so many exciting things to do
It's a shame
So many choose to just exist
Rather than to live

Keep reaching for the stars.

Feelings were shared, thoughts were thought, words were said and Friendships were made.

People all different, yet sharing a purpose, an experience, a friendship . . .

Because I took a moment to speak
And you took a second to smile
A tiny part of me will leave with you
And a little bit of you will stay

Moments shared to Keep our feelings strong.

Friendship is the only cement that will ever hold the world together.

Four years have gone by and now as you enter the Big, new world of life you can always recall your high school years, making new friends, sports, dances, tests, clubs and teasing underclassmen, these are memories and memories make . . . Reflections.
