Had She Gone With A Handsomer Man?

Wife Arrested To Get Her Back

For the course of true love never ran smooth, it is said to be the opinion of Bill Kitchin and Nancy Carroll, wife of Hampton Carroll, since their attempted elopement, Wednesday, was ruthlessly nipped in the bud.

Rumor has it that Bill and Nancy have been "courting" for some time and had finally decided to seek green fields and pastures new where they could carry on their dream of love unhampered by Hamp.

Nancy and Bill left Wednesday—walking—and as soon as Hamp heard of their departure he hunted up Squire Frank Tyece and secured a warrant for Bill charging him with having deserted his three children.

Officer Vince Carpenter followed the couple and caught up with them at Corey. He placed them under arrest and brought them back to town on the noon train and took them before Squire Tyece, who released the woman and set Kitchin's trial for Saturday, June 21.

Kitchin's bond was at first placed at $200.00 and was later raised to $500.00, and as William was unable to give bond, he is now languishing in the city calaboose.

The charge against Kitchin is a serious one and will mean a term at Frankfort if he is proven guilty, as child desertion is a felony under the laws of Kentucky.

When seen by THE PROGRESSIVE man both Mrs. Carroll and Kitchin claim that any intimation of wrong doing, the woman contending that she was on her way to visit her sister, who lives near Ironton, Ohio, and Kitchin claiming he was going to South Portsmouth.

The woman says she was walking along the road and happened to meet Kitchin, who was on his way to the depot at Corey to catch the noon train and as they were going along to either they met Hamp's son, who hurried in telling his father what he had seen. She says that she has known Bill for some time, but merely as a friend; and that although she was leaving, Hamp—"cause he hadn't been treatin' me right"—she had no intention of running away with Bill.

Kitchin claims that he had arranged to have his children taken care of before he started away. Marshall Carpenter told THE PROGRESSIVE man that Kitchin did not seem very anxious to see Carroll and that he offered five dollars for his release.

IT GETS RESULTS

Master Hickman and Haywood, who are breaking records selling Singer Sewing Machines, believe that PROGRESSIVE ads, get results. Their work extends all over the county and they are warm in their praises of PROGRESSIVE ad-service. Just this week a lady at Soldiers ordered a machine because of their ad, and they tell us it is a common occurrence.

No matter what you have to sell, newspaper advertising pays, because it brings a weekly reminder of you and your wares before the buying public. CALL PHONE 217 AND LET OUR AD. MAN FIX YOU UP A TRADE PULLING AD.

Dr. J. P. Huff Seriously Injured.

Special to THE PROGRESSIVE.

Muses Mills' Ky. — Dr. J. P. Huff, of Plummers Landing, three miles below this place, was dangerously injured at Butler last Thursday afternoon when the horse he was driving scared and ran away, overturning his buggy and throwing against a pile of stones by the side of the road. He was rendered unconscious and lay for some time before he was found by passers-by.

Drs. Carr and Brice were hurriedly summoned from Flemingsburg, who pronounced his case serious as they found that in addition to three broken ribs and a serious gash on his forehead he had been injured internally.

The doctor is an old soldier and is 67 years old. He is still alive but his recovery seems very doubtful. He has a large practice and a list of friends throughout the county who are sorrowing over his predicament wishing for his recovery.

UPPER TYGART

Rev. Johnston presided at the First Christian Church Saturday night and Sunday.

Two important business deals were brought through this week when W. H. Boyd sold his stock of furniture to Jno. Boyd and claims his store building to A. J. Stumper. Mr. Stumper giving five thousand dollars for the property.

Mr. Walker will take charge of the store in the near future. Mr. Scott expects to devote all his time to his farm and will go extensively into stock raising, making a specialty of Jersey cattle and his justly famous Tamworth hogs.

Signs Oppenheimer, of Paintsville, who is a brother of Levi Oppenheimer, the enterprising clothier, came through Olive Hill enroute to New York where he will take passage to Germany on the Steamship Berlin. He will visit friends and relatives that he has not seen since he was a boy in the old county and expects to be gone about two months.

Mrs. Morse-Yale's Contest

Drawing to a Close

Some Church Will Soon Get the Valuable Picture—Which Shall it be?

Only two weeks more are left until the picture contest will come to close, at which time the picture will be given to the church turning in the largest number of votes. Every dollar counts one hundred votes. No partiality will be shown,—the church that has the most enthusiastic workers is the church that will win. The picture is a fine work of art, and will be a beautiful and lasting decoration for the church that is so fortunate as to secure it.

In addition to the picture there will be given a

FIRST PRIZE. A FINE HAT given to the person who secures the greatest number of votes, also a SECOND PRIZE - A PAIR OF SHOES OR SLIPPERS to the person turning in the next largest number of votes.

Every person holding tickets must bring them in to my store by Saturday, July 5th, when they will be counted and the prizes be made. There will be two COMPETENT and RELIABLE persons selected to count the tickets and see that all have a SQUARE DEAL.

REMEMBER, all tickets must be in by Saturday, JULY 5th to vote them,—a few votes may make a big difference in the way the picture will go—it is a prize worth working for.

MRS. MORSE-YALE

Herb Proctor was over from Morehead Sunday.

T. A. James was in the city the first of the week on business. While here Mr. James was busy trying to get together a crack baseball team to take to Grayson during the fair to show the Graysons how well it is to beat them playing the national game.

AN ORDINANCE

WHEREAS: It has been reported to the CITY COUNCIL of the City of OLIVE HILL that there have been some individuals bitten by dogs affected with that dread disease, RABIES, and WHEREAS: The Council desires to safeguard its citizens from the danger of permitting dogs to run at large in the city, which in all probability have been bitten by dogs so affected, the City Council deems it wise and prudent to pass the following Ordinance, to-wit:

The City Council of the City of Olive Hill, Kentucky, Do Ordain as Follows, To-wit:

THAT it shall be unlawful for any owner to permit any dog to run at large, outside of their own premises, without a good and sufficient muzzle, for a period of Sixty (60) Days from the date of this Ordinance.

All dogs not claimed by any owner will be taken up by the City Marshal and held for three days at the expense of the owner claiming such dog or dogs. After three days, if no one claims such dogs, then it shall be the duty of the City Marshal to kill all dogs not claimed and bury same at the expense of the City.

Any owner who shall knowingly permit his dog or dogs to run at large outside of his premises without muzzle shall be fined not less than $2.00 for each offense, and the said dog shall be killed by the City Marshal, and each day the owner permits his dog or dogs to run at large without a muzzle shall be deemed a separate offense.

Passed by the City Council June 17, 1913: ALBERT J. COUNTS, Clerk G. W. WILHOIT, Mayor

GEE BROTHERS, Blacksmiths. OLIVE HILL, KY.

The many friends of Chas. Bowling, an Olive Hill boy, who was a foreman at the local Harbison-Walker plant for some time until he was transferred to Portsmouth, will regret to learn that he has been compelled to seek a better climate on account of his health. He left Portsmouth last Saturday for Oregon in hopes the climate will be beneficial.

George, better known as "Mother" Zornes, employed at the Harbison-Walker brick yard was very much pleased last week when he was notified by the Pension Bureau that his claim had been allowed. He served in the Spanish-American war and is afflicted with eye trouble brought on by hardships incurred in the army.

The pension is a good one; he will receive seven years back pay at eight dollars per month and twenty-four dollars per month beginning last February. THE PROGRESSIVE congratulates Mr. Zornes on his good fortune.

Mr. Sue Vincent has gone to Soldiers to see her father, who is in very poor health due to his extreme age as he is 97 years old.
