The following interesting narrative appears in the Charleston Courier:

We had the pleasure Saturday of meeting Dr. N. D. Parker, an underwang loyalts, who has just arrived within the Usion lines from rebeldom. Mr. Parker's narrative of his advenures is highly interesting. At the commencement of the rebelion, Mr. Parker was connected with the Charleston Howl, and for some time avoided the clutchs of the rebel enrolling officer. He however discussions to serve in the rebel rank—As the demands of the service became more and more imperative, the vigilance and six divides the control of t

The intolerable nuisance in the neig borhood of our office has become so inmble that it has been taken in charge by Mr. Richmond who at his own extention of Mayor Fisher to this matter, tention of Mayor Fisher to this matter, and if it is supbody's business to attend to cases of this kind we trust he will see to it that citizens who pay taxes to support a city government are not called upon to bear the extra burthens. If there to way to reach such plain cases either let the charter be amended or the city government abelished altogether.

SPECIAL NOTICE.-We draymen of Paducah, hereby respectfully request those who are unwilling to pay the prezent price of drayage to inform us of their names, so that we will know from who to expect half-price, thereby leaving it op-tional with us whether we will do haul-ing for them or not. Owing to the ex-Lorbitant prices demanded (even inder the a-cline in gold) for produce and provender it is nothing but what is posi uvely our dues and therefore we uphold

A. SOLOMON'S MERCHANT TAILOR. AND DEALER IN

READY-MADE CLOTHING OF HIS OWN MANUFACTURE, AND

Gents Furnishing Goods. NO. 24 BROADWAY. PADUCAH, KY.

Who would wear a seedy Coat or badly Fitting Vest, Or Pants all threadbare, old and worn, for new ones are the best. When A. SOLOMON so cheaply sells a suit of beauty rare, In Fit and Fashion, just the thing that every man should wear. Oh! who would wear a Dress Coat, the style of by-gone years, Where signs of age and service long, on every seam appears, When A. SOLOMON, has such a stock, at terms so very low, That everybody wonders how he can sell them so. Oh who would go to Stores, where on credit a man can buy, And pay a price for Clothing which is much too high,

When A. SOLOMON can suit him, and fit him very nice, And give a better article for only half the price. Then if you wish for Coats or Pants, a Vest, a Shirt or Collars, Or Handkerchiess or Socks, and you want to save your Dollars, To A. SOLOMON, be sure to go--there is no other place, And he always will wait on you with a pleasant face.
