The rural guard have arrested the men and women who are held responsible for the savage practice.

The arrested persons in the case up to the present time are Severo Jimenez, Faustino Baro, Benito Armas and Ramon Martines, the three last mentioned being accused by Jimenez, whose statement to Judge Merconchi-ni shows that the practice of voodco-ism in the country districts among the negroes continues in its pristine sav-age state. The fact that Bocout and Molina, the murderers of little Zolia at Golra de Melena in 1905, were exe-cuted in the garrote has apparently served to numbers.

Sandy Adams, a young politician. found himself manconed on the root of the fire house and a target for the fibes of the villagers for an hour and a half.

It has long been a practice of young men here to ring the bells on the firebects on the Fourth of July and send abouts on the Fourth of July and send cided to put a stop to the practice and special officers were appointed for the purpose. Adams climbed to the root of the fire house by means of a ladder which he pulled up after him. When the bell began ringing people rushed to the street to find where the fire was. Adams lowered the ladder to exceed, Ruland, one of the special officers, pulled it away. Adams emained perched on the root of the building for an, hour and a half, and the villagers' jeers added to his mortification.

When he was taken from the roof he was highly indignant. He said he heard the fire bell and climbed to the roof to see tho was rhighing it.

LEST YE FORGET!

The following article is reprinted from last week's paper, that it may be more thoroughly impressed on your mind.

RELLOW PROGRESSIVES:

Have you been misled by any candidate or worker for the remnants of the emaciated and weak Republican organi-zation? You will remember that about six months ago, (on January 31, to be six months ago, ton January 3., exact) the Republican State Central Committee met at the Galt House, in Louisville, Kentucky, and held a pains-taking clinic over the emaciated form of the Jefferson County Elephant. The brow-wrinkling diagnosis disclosed the brute, and that potent medicines were Wherefore, the committee, after much effection, prepared a voluminous reso-ation, replete with whereases, setting condition of the party and the or of treatment deemed necessary for its health.
