

Minutes of CWF Meeting Held January 18, 1987

The quarterly meeting of the CWF of First Christian Church of Morehead was held in the Church parlor on Sunday, January 18, 1987, at 2 p.m. May Williams, president, presided.

Mrs. Williams appointed the following members to the Nominating Committee: Eva Johnston, chairman; Cara Higgins; Pearl Patton. She appointed the following members to the Bazaar Committee: Betty Walke, Mabel Reynolds, Irene Botts, Agnes Williams, and Edith Conyers. Mrs. Conyers was asked to call the committee together.

Helen Patrick made the motion to purchase two communion cup racks to be used in washing communion cups. Mabel Reynolds seconded the motion which passed unanimously.

Mrs. Conyers suggested that the CWF look into buying a rack for the storage of chairs. She was to check the catalogs which Linda Bryant, Church secretary, has on file.

The treasurer's report was that $3,738.50 is on hand.

Mrs. Rachel McGuire, a missionary in India for a number of years, spoke of her experiences there. She also had several items on display.

The next meeting will be on April 26 at 2 p.m.

Minutes of July 26, 1987, Meeting.

The Christian Women's Fellowship (CWF) held its annual picnic on July 26, 1987, at the home of Barbara Tackett.

Grace Cassity, vice president, presided. There was no treasurer's report; however, there is about $3,000 in the CWF bank account. A certificate of deposit for approximately $1,600 is to be renewed for 90 days.

The Nominating Committee reported the following slate of officers for 1987/88: president, Edith Conyers; vice president, Di Walke; secretary, Marjorie Thomas; treasurer, Linda Bryant (if she will accept). The other positions--worship, program/study, service, and telephone are to be filled by the CWF Executive Board.

There was discussion on having a "Tour of Homes" this fall. A misunderstanding arose over the committee lists which appeared in The Echo.

Mary Jane Bowne, of the Bazaar Committee, showed the quilt which May Williams pieced. Tickets will be sold on the quilt for the Bazaar.

Mary Jane Bowne raised the question of investing a portion of the balance of $3,000 currently in the bank account. Discussion followed, but no action was voted upon.

Two projects for the CWF to undertake were discussed: recovering of the pew pads and the need for a filmstrip/slide projector. May Williams made the motion that the Executive Committee look into these projects. Eva Johnston seconded the motion which passed.

May Williams read a letter from Pat Yates, CWF coordinator for District I of the Christian Churches in Kentucky (Disciples of Christ).

It was announced that a CWF fall retreat will be held at Jenny Wiley State Resort Park. Registration is due by mid-August.

Elizabeth Anderson suggested a project, a potluck to recognize the firemen, the policemen, and their families. After discussion, Mary Jane Bowne moved that this project be undertaken. Chlo Calvert seconded the motion which passed. A committee was appointed for this project: chairman, Elizabeth Anderson; members--Mary Jane Bowne, Chlo Calvert, Evie Teater, Betty Walke, Mabel Reynolds, and Stella Caudill.

Marjorie Thomas made the motion that the meeting adjourn. Eva Johnston seconded the motion which passed.
