ARTHUR COX KILLED BY FREIGHT TRAIN

Goes to Sleep on Railroad Track Near Enterprise, Sustaining Fatal Injuries. Taken Hospital at Huntington, But Life Coincided Not Saved

DIED TUESDAY IN HUNTINGTON

A distressing accident occurred Sunday afternoon when Arthur Cox, 17, a son of Ode Cox, went to sleep on the railroad track near Enterprise and was hit by a freight train sustaining injuries which resulted in his death Tuesday afternoon at the Mt. Hope hospital in Huntington.

The unfortunate youth had gone in a wagon with a crowd of men and boys to Enterprise to witness a ball game. Parties who were in the crowd claim that when they reached their destination young Cox complained of being sleepy, having been up with a crowd of boys in Ashland the night before and stayed in the wagon.

It is supposed that after sleeping for a while in the wagon he awoke and probably with the intention of catching a freight train to return to Olive Hill he sat down on the track and went to sleep. When the train hit him he was lying by the track with part of his body on the ties.

An east bound freight, with Engineer Knoeger on the engine, was rushing along at high speed trying to make up some lost time, the trainmen were unable to see the boy on the track, and with the train running at full speed the boy was hit and hauled into a ditch beside the track. When

ATTENDED CAMPMEETING

'Lige Jackson, Will Barker, Everett Sparkman, A. B. Wells, Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fouch attended the Holiness Camp Meeting at Ashland.

The train hit him the fireman saw what had happened and the train was brought to a stop, tender hands carried him to the caboose where hasty examination revealed that he was severely bruised about the face and head and that his leg was broken in several places. He was conscious at all times after the accident, and immediately after he was hurt he asked Ab Womack, who was among the persons who picked him up, how they intended to get him home. The train made a hasty run to Olive Hill, where sad faced relatives met the train and he was taken home. The grief of the parents when their son was carried by them on a stretcher was pitiful in the extreme.

Monday morning he was taken to the Mt. Hope Hospital in Huntington, where an operation was performed, two pieces of silver plate being placed in his leg and for a while it seemed that his chances for recovery were very good. However, Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock he died and was brought back home Wednesday morning on the early train. The deceased was a very bright young man and very popular among his associates. He leaves besides his parents, four brothers—Noah, Arlie, Dempsie, and Otis and three sisters—Rosie, Susan and Thelma. The funeral was held Thursday at 1 o'clock, Rev. E. T. Hall, officiating. Interment was at the Eagle cemetery.

THIS HOME COMING WILL BE BEST-EVER

The big Home Coming to be held in Island Park September 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 promises to eclipse anything in the amusement line that has ever been held in the beautiful little park.

Arrangements have been made to provide amusements and refreshments that are bound to make this event a success and one that will go down in annals of Carter county history as one of the most pleasing celebrations that has ever been held in this city.

Electric lights throughout the park make it as attractive by night as it is by day, and doubtless thousands of people will take advantage of the feast of good things that will be provided for their edification and amusement.—Adv. 11

JOLLY PIC-NIC

A very enjoyable social event was the picnic at the hanging rock last Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Mary Hayes' guests the Misses Lydia Weldon and Sadie Freeman of Irvin, Ohio. A delightful luncheon was served, and numerous merry games were played, after which the crowd sojourned to the Hayes home, where delicious ice cream and cake were dispensed. Those present were: the Misses Johnny and Kate King, Nina Durham; Lura Woods, Alma and Mary Hayes, Carrie Cobern and Ruth Boggs, and the Messrs. Roy Pennington and Fred Hudgins, with Mrs. James Hayes as chaperon. Saturday night the entire crowd were the guests of the Misses Weldon and Freeman at a theatre party at the Lyric.

Students Galore

There will be no less than fourteen of our boys and girls to go away to school this winter, which is, we think, a very creditable showing for our town. The following is a list of students and the schools they will attend:

Misses Peasie and Daisy Jordan, Althea Scott, and Carrie Cobern will go to Sayre at Lexington.

Miss Ethel Hillman will go to Richmond.

Miss Lura Woods will return to Oxford College at Oxford, Ohio, and continue her study of music.

Mrs. Tina Hinton, at the conclusion of her school here, will attend the Portsmouth College of Business.

Clyde and Fred Evans will go to Berea.

Matt Cobern will burn the midnight oil at the Louisville College of Pharmacy.

Park and Roger Hitchins will return to the Tome School for Boys at Frostburg, Md.

Oscar Sewell will study at Randolph-Macon in old Virginia.

GIANTS WINNERS IN TWO HOT GAMES

Both Mt. Sterling and the Bloomer Girls Go Down in Defeat Before the Local, Yaden Brings Home the Bacon by Sensational Homer in 11th Inning

GIANTS PILE UP VICTORIES

Wednesday afternoon at Hitchins Field one of the prettiest ball games—in many ways—that has been pulled off on the local diamond was played between the Star Bloomer Girls and the Olive Hill Giants, the local boys carrying the day—4 to 3.

The little lady who started the game off in the pitcher's box for the Bloomers, was there with the goods, making several of our boys nap at the ambient atmosphere, and Miller, the lanky wonder, who pitched the last five innings for the ladies, was there with bells on, and put up a beautiful exhibition of the pitcher's art, having speed, curves, control—and a long head. He had 'em all knocking holes in the air allowing only three hits—one to Nichols and two to Doc Carr. That long armed boy is a comer—his work watching. And Nichols, Old Nick pitched like a demon, having the maidens at his mercy all the time. The ladies play some fifty game, one of them went to the dirt for a peach of a slide, and the stately blond who occupied first stopped everything (that came in her direction—even the Umps!).

Captain Tackett was in the game at all times and played to win, Buck Osenton played short like a veteran, and Sparks, Hall and Shelton battled nobly in the field.

The game was a beauty from beginning to end and the locals have good reason to feel elated over the result for the ladies know the National Game all through the book—and what's more, they're able to play it. A large crowd was on hand to witness the battle.

The Olive Hill Giants journeyed to Mt. Sterling last Sunday and put the blinkers on the Matilee Midgets in an eleven inning battle with a score of 7 to 5. Nickels, the boy with the educated arm, played like a fiend, and Yaden, the Looeyville slugger sent the Olive Hill rooters to the seventh heaven of delight when he knocked the ball to the fence for a homer and brought in the winnins runs. The game was tight all the time and the bunch of local fans who took in the game say they got their mon-

Mr. Bridwell in Town

Chas. C. Bridwell, president of the Portsmouth College of Business, of Portsmouth, Ohio, was in the city Friday and Saturday in the interest of his school. Mr. Bridwell had been to Grayson attending the Teachers' Institute. The Portsmouth College of Business enjoys the distinction of being one of the best business schools in this section of the country. They have had a very successful year and for some time have been unable to supply the demand for young men and women who have been trained in their business courses, there being an especially great demand at the present time for young men stenographers.

Mr. Bridwell is a very pleasant gentleman, and is a cousin of Al Bridwell, the famous shortstop.

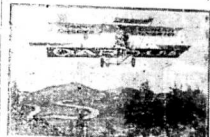

He says that the Mt. Sterling players are princes of good fellows and that they were shown true Kentucky hospitality.

The Bloomer Girls played at Mt. Sterling Thursday and were beaten by a score of 7 to 6. Also a battle of fisticuffs was indulged in between the Bloomers and the Mt. Sterling gentlemen, in which we are informed the Mt. Sterling gallants were able to give some of the girls a severe drubbing. Doubtless those Mt. Sterling fellows feel quite proud of their ability to beat up a crowd of women. We take off our hats to them.

Here's chivalry—Harry Stulting says the Giants ought to be ashamed at having beaten the ladies, but then, Harry's from Virginia.

The Giants will amble over to Morehead Sunday to put a crimp in the Rowan county lads. Will the mountaineers get their goat? We should worry!

JOHNNY GREEN WILL FLY AGAIN AT CHATTANOOGA

Green's Cardui Flyer

Chattanooga, Aug. 27—(Special)—The Chairman of the Grand Army Entertainment Committee, has closed a contract with Johnny Green, famous Cardui birdman and water-fowl, to make three flights in Chattanooga during the G. A. R. Reunion, to be held in Chattanooga Sept. 15-20.

Green is the man who made the Record flight in Cardui Flyer No. 1 over Lookout Mountain during the U. C. V. Reunion last May. He was the first man to attempt that dangerous flight, refused by so many other prominent aviators. A feature of his exhibition next month will be a flight in his Cardui Flyer No. 2 equipped with hydroplanes, up the Tennessee River. This will be the first hydroplane flight ever made by any Southern aviator.

Visitors to the G. A. R. Reunion will do well not to miss these flights by the famous aviator. Free to all, and should look out for the dollar bills, which he drops among the crowds below, as he goes hurtling through the air.

FACIE BROKE OUT IN PIMPLES

Falls City, Neb.—"My trouble began when I was about sixteen. My face broke out in little pimples at first. They were red and sore and then became little boils. I picked at my face continually and it made my face red and sore looking and then I would wake up at night and scratch it. It was a source of continual annoyance to me, as my face was always red and spotted and burned all the time."

MOTHER SO POORLY

Could Hardly Care for Children—Finds Health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Bovina Center, N. Y.—"For six years I have not had as good health as I have now. I was very young when my first baby was born and my health was very bad after that. I was not regular and I had pains in my back and was so poorly that I could hardly take care of my children. I was doctored with several doctors but got no better. They told me there was no help without an operation. I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has helped me wonderfully. I do most of my own work now and take the care of my children. I recommend your remedies to all suffering women."—Mrs. WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, Care of ELIZABETH TUTTLE, Bovina Center, N. Y.

WORLD'S EVENTS TERSELY and BRIEFLY TOLD

Washington

Supporters of the administration currency bill scored an important victory in the House Democratic caucus when they brought to their aid an unexpected endorsement of the measure from Secretary of State Bryan and defeated proposed "insurgent" amendments that would have prohibited introducing resolutions in national or state banks incorporated under the present law.

Owing to the objection of Representative Mann of Illinois to resolution granting President Wilson the right to accept and place in the White House a bust of William Pitt, as a gift from American women now in England, the house at Washington failed to pass the measure.

The U. S. senate confirmed the nomination of Francis Burton Harrison of New York as governor general of the Philippines.

President Wilson will either send or read a message to congress on Monday advising it that negotiations with President Huerta are temporarily at an end, and transmitting to it the details of our proposals to President Huerta and his reply rejecting them.

First deposits of the government's $50,000,000 crop-moving fund were made in reserve cities in the southern states, amounting to a total of $1,000,000 in Richmond, Atlanta and Memphis.

Secretary Daniels of the navy has authorized each of the members of the Pacific reserve fleet who are temporarily at sea as having taken part in the riots in Seattle July 18 be punished.

House elections committee No. 1 at Washington voted to seat William McDonald, Progressive, of the Twelfth Michigan district, in place of Olin Young, Republican, who resigned from the house, but whose resignation was not accepted because of Mr. McDonald's contest.

By a vote of 39 to 33 the U. S. senate defeated an amendment proposed by Senator Lippitt providing that cotton apportionment should be based on increased rate in some cases to 2 1/2% per cent.

The United States treasury department announced that it would insist that contractors on public buildings hereafter look after the financial wants of their sub-contractors as work progresses. The department is also proposing that contractors in their monthly requisitions for funds failed to make proper payments to sub-contractors.

The Democratic congressional committee in Washington, D. C., will send speakers into the First congressional district of West Virginia, where there is a vacancy in congress to be filled by reason of John W. Davis' appointment to be solicitor general of the United States.

Bankers in conference at Chicago on plans to correct what they considered the objectionable features of the Owen-Glass currency bill heard George M. Reynolds, president of the Continental and Commercial National bank, deliver a message of hope and consolation.

Patrolman Fred Howelwood was shot through the head by one of several robbers he arrested in an attempt to attempt to enter a business building in Detroit. He died while being taken to a hospital. The robbers escaped.

Bankers from 47 states, representing more than 15 billions of dollars, met in Chicago to confer with the currency commission of the American Bankers' association to formulate an official present against the Owen-Glass currency bill pending before congress.

Two small sons of Joseph Lowell, a rancher in S. D., ate salami, cold chicken and a few minutes later consumed nearly a quart of milk. Both died a short time after.

At the closing session of the convention of the International Association of Rotary clubs at Buffalo, N. Y., all of the old officers were re-elected, including President Russell F. Greiner of Kansas City and Treasurer R. F. Chapin of Chicago.

Blame for immorality among young girls of Wisconsin was placed principally on their parents by Dr. C. A. Harper, secretary of the state board of health, at a conference with the special legislative committee at its first session at Madison.

Until Wednesday of this week, barring unforeseen developments, Harry Kendall Thaw will remain in the Sherbrooke, Ore., jail. On that day he is to be arraigned in the superior court on a writ of habeas corpus.

Revised figures of the excavation remaining to be done to complete the Panama canal show an increase of 20,126,000 cubic yards over the estimate of July 1, 1912. More than 9,000,000 yards of this increase is due to slides in Cutler's cut.

Children perished in two accidents at Grand Rapids, Wis., when Lucien Herand, five years old, was buried to death in mud by matches in the pocket of his night gown, and Eva Brander was killed by a pitchfork. The girl was killed when she followed her brother and a pitchfork falling from the load pierced her heart.

Sixty workmen were trapped 440 feet under ground in a section of the Catskill aqueduct being constructed under Washington Heights, New York, by the state engineers at the powerhouse overhead. All were found unharmed two hours later when the fire was controlled.

Governor McGovern of Wisconsin appointed Dr. C. W. Morter of Milwaukee, Walter H. Liginger of Milwaukee and William H. Egan of Chicago as members of the new state boxing commission created by a law passed at the recent session of the legislature. No boxing exhibitions can lawfully be held in Wisconsin without the promoters holding a license from the commission.

In a message to the governor of Pennsylvania the Central Labor union threatened to call a general strike at Erie, Pa., if the state constabulary is sent there.

Poured guilty of violating the Mann act which forbids the transportation of a woman from one state to another for immoral purposes, Marray L. Diggs, former state architect of California, faces a maximum penalty of five years in the penitentiary for a minimum of one year, at the discretion of the court at San Francisco.

Aroused by the new spirit of road building in Missouri, thousands of volunteers marched forth from nearly every county in the state to become a part of Governor McDaniel's campaign to promote, which in response to his proclamation, began a two days' campaign that was expected to add $1,000,000 to the state's highway fund.

Mexican Revolt

The bodies of Pascual Orozco and other peace commissioners were found riddled with bullets in the streets of Toluca, Mexico, last week. The revolutionists with his own hand. Zapata was later killed.

The proposals of the Washington government which Mexico rejected in toto, are now known to be, in brief: first, complete cessation of hostilities; second, that President Huerta resign in favor of a president ad interim; third, the fixing of an early date for the presidential elections; fourth, that General Huerta should not be a candidate for the presidency. General Huerta's flat refusal to accede to the four demands would appear to be sufficient to consider that the negotiations between the two governments were definitely concluded.

Foreign

"Gentleman Roger" Thompson, held under the Denaturalization laws as having aided Thaw to cross the Canadian frontier, announced he was "up against it." and that if the Thaw family did not come to his rescue he would be forced to tell all he knew about Thaw's escape from Mattawan.

While maneuvering the Swedish fleet were in progress an armored ship collided with and sank a gunboat.

Two automobile bandits visited the Commercial Savings bank at Wilhelmsburg, Germany, murdered the cashier and escaped with a satchel full of bank notes and cash.

Militant suffragettes caused $60,000 damage at Crutwell, England, by burning down a theater.

Bandits made sensational raids on the Oestrogade Savings bank at Denmark and the Bank of the West and silver coins, including up in a motor car, one man stood guard, another leveled two revolvers on the officials of the bank while the third rifled the vaults and counters.

Mount Nunkum, 22,000 feet high and one of the loftiest peaks of the Himalaya mountains, has been scaled. Word was received here from Mario Ploenza, an Italian explorer and mountaineer, that he had reached the summit of the mountain.

Personal

Representative Francis Burton Harrison of New York has been selected for governor general of the Philippines. President Woodrow Wilson nominated to the United States senate.

Don Gasque, absent president of the English Brotherhood, and Pope Plus X, in 1907 appointed chairman of a commission to undertake the revision of the Latin Bible, or Vulgate, which arrived in Rome August 30 to give a series of lectures in the United States for the work of the commission.

Cole Younger, the former bandit, was arrested by the Chicago police at a revival meeting at La's Summit, Mo.

G. A. R. VETERANS ENCAMPMENT

47TH NATIONAL GATHERING TO BE HELD AT CHATTANOOGA IN SEPTEMBER. MANY VETERANS WILL ATTEND

Encampment Association Will Provide Ample Accommodations and Entertainment for the 200,000 Visitors Expected.

Western Newspaper Union News Service, Chattanooga, Tenn.—Preparations for the entertainment of the 47th national encampment of G. A. R. in September are going ahead at satisfactory speed. Nearly all of the committees have pushed their work to a point where it may be said that all plans will be carried through without so much as a serious hitch. The finance committee, which has been at work securing funds necessary to finance the big undertaking, reports that the month is in hand or in sight; that there will be no trouble over payment of the bills of the encampment association. The committee on assignments to homes has met with success in the matter of securing lodging for a very large crowd of visitors during the encampment. The people of Chattanooga are opening their homes to veterans and their families in the same hospitality that marked their action when the confederate survivors met in annual reunion here in May. The same rates that prevailed during the Confederate reunion will prevail during the encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. These rates are in all instances reasonable. There will be no effort to increase rates for lodging or meals anywhere in the city. In other words, the regular rates for meals and entertainments will be maintained. Included in the same category are restaurants and boarding houses. The best homes of Chattanooga have opened their doors to entertain visitors and veterans at rates that will not be objected to by any.

Amusement Features. The committee on entertainment has perfected a number of plans to amuse and entertain the visitors. As already announced, a number of battlefield reunions have been arranged for the veterans who fought in the various battles around Chattanooga. These reunions include a cavalcade of Chattanooga, Lookout mountain and Missionary ridge, on which the survivors will gather in reunion and hear the facts of each battle recounted by participants.

The Tennessee river will furnish part of the entertainment. One of the best features will also be hydro-aerial exhibitions on the Tennessee. These will be supplemented by steamboat rides to the large hydro-electric development below the city that was financed by the late Anthony N. Brady, of New York. This is the largest hydro-electric development south of Niagara Falls. There will also be automobile trips to large hydro-electric developments by the East Tennessee Power Co. on the Ocoee river, thirty miles below the city.

Military features by regular troops will add much to the entertainment of the encampment visitors. These will be furnished at Fort Oglethorpe, by the Eleventh cavalry regiment, and the Seventeenth infantry, the latter regiment coming up from Atlanta for the encampment week.

Autropean flights will be given every day of the encampment, and many other interesting features will be added from time to time. The indications are that there will be no disappointment during the entire encampment because Chattanooga has already decided to give the Union veterans the time of their lives.

SOME OIL WELL.

Orange, Texas.—What is regarded as the most important event that has transpired in Texas oil circles for several years was the bringing in of a prodigious well of the Fisher variety on the Big Bend farm, about eight miles west of here. The significance of this well is that the flow was estimated at a depth of 3,000 feet, and is well in this state. The well produced a flow of approximately 1,000 barrels a day.

SPEED TO DEATH

LET 'ER OUT! BEAT THAT TRAIN! SHOUTED AN AUTO PARTY IN ILLINOIS.

Minute Train Five Persons Are Killed—Engine and Machine Hit at a Grade Crossing.

Western Newspaper Union News Service, Chicago, Ill.—"Let 'er beat that train" cried women members of a Chicago automobile party when they heard a Monon passenger train approaching the crossing, 12 miles from Hammond, Ind.

Train and automobile met on the crossing. The big Monon engine cut the car nearly in half and tossed its passengers into the road way of the train, including two children, so sudden death. The machine was carried 500 yards on the locomotive pilot. The occupants were scattered among the weeds. When W. S. Balinger, engineer; Charles B. Quinn, fireman; Robert B. Strong, conductor; Michael Galagher, baggageman; and R. J. Hedrick, brakeman, with a score of passengers, began their search for victims, they first found Schiller, moaning for his sweetheart. The dead were placed in a continuation of the train and the injured Schiller and Miss Kahn were separated. Schiller begged for his fiancee until opiates were administered. The train continued to Chicago from an outing at Cedar Lake, Ind. The automobile was owned and driven by Schiller.

Hurricane Hits Famous City—Americans Among the Victims.

Rome.—American and other dwellings erected at Messina after the 1908 earthquake were devastated by a hurricane of terrific violence. The number of persons drowned is unknown as yet, but the death list may be large. The city was suddenly flooded, hundreds of shelters collapsing. Thousands are homeless and there is widespread panic among the survivors.

BABY ELEPHANT BREAKS LOOSE.

Aurora, Ind.—A baby elephant, belonging to a circus exhibiting in this city, attacked a large red touring car, occupied by Messrs. John Conway, James Kennitt, Smiley Sasmann and Joseph Iord. They drove out of the show lot. The elephant, breaking away from its keeper, made a rush for the machine and when John Conway, the chauffeur, attempted to get away from the animal the machine rebounded over an embankment and struck a tree, turning turtle. The elephant fought the car for several minutes before it was captured.

HE CARRIED AN UMBRELLA.

A dear old lady who was very "cot" in her prejudices was asked just why she didn't like a certain man. She had no particular reason, she said, she thought of the instant, but she had been so sympathetic in her expression of dislike that she knew she must have had some excuse—at once. Just at that moment she happened to glance out of the window and saw him passing. He carried a neatly rolled umbrella though it hardly threatened rain.

Quick as a flash she asked her question: "He carries an umbrella whether it's raining or not—he is a 'cot'."

"But," said her friend, also looking out of the window, "here comes your son William, and he is carrying an umbrella."

"This did not stump the old lady. 'But that is another matter,' she said, 'anyhow—and besides, it all depends on who carries the umbrella,' she replied triumphantly.

"That is the position some people have taken regarding that wholesome and refreshing beverage Coca-Cola. They have said a good many unkind things about it and in each instance have had it proved to them that their tales were not true.

Finally they seized upon the fact that Coca-Cola gets its life refreshing deliciousness from the small bit of caffeine that it contains. They looked upon this as a scientific argument against it. Then, like the old lady, they were reminded of son William, they were reminded that it is the caffeine in their favorite beverages, tea and coffee, even more than in Coca-Cola that gives them that refreshing and sustaining quality.

But does that stop their criticism of Coca-Cola for containing caffeine? No—their answer is simply that it is not harmful in one it can't be harmful in another. We all know that it is not harmful in tea or coffee—that it is really helpful in whatever it is—this is bound to include Coca-Cola.

Of course, the truth is, that having started an attack on false premises and having had what they thought were good reasons for criticism proved to be no reasons at all, they are grasping at a straw which does not exist, to explain a prejudice. So you see, after all, it all depends on who carries the umbrella to prove that the tale is untrue.

Egged Off.

De Wolf Hooper, at a luncheon in New York, said of a bad actor: "He's had hints enough to quit the stage, dear knows. He's had more hints than Phatt."

"Phatt, after a brief experience on the road as 'Hamlet,' returned to his job in Canal street.

"How did you come to leave the stage?" asked him one night.

"I had hints that I wasn't suited to it," he replied.

"Thinking he meant the critics," I said.

"'Ala, the little birds told you, eh?' Well," said he, "they'd have become birds, I suppose, if they'd been allowed to hatch."

Anecdotal.

Meneaus was king of ancient Lacia, and being such, he deemed it only his duty to be as laconic as possible, so, in a manner of speaking, to set the pace for the people.

"Now, his wife was none other than the beautiful Helen, and, of course, the day came at last when she wanted a new hat. Could she have it?"

"No," replied Meneaus.

"Just because 'no' is a letter shorter than 'yes,'" protested Helen, and burst into tears, and at the first chance ran away with Paris—Back.

Teaching Safety in Schools.

Instruction in methods for the prevention of accidents must be given by the teachers of the public schools of New Jersey 30 minutes during each month hereafter, according to a bill passed by the legislature of 1913.

AMERICANS on the STAIRS BY E. W. PICKARD

HOME OF ZONE AMERICANS

Colon, C. Z.—For the American resident of the Canal Zone life is not all boisterous and blustering. There is plenty of beer, but I have not seen a skittler here. Perhaps I would not have recognized one if I had seen it.

The American foreign land is not so touchy of his home customs as is the Englishman, and in Panama he finds himself not only in a tropic climate but in the midst of a civilization much older than his own. Consequently he yields in many particulars to the customs of that climate and that civilization.

The mid-day siesta of the tropics, which they mean is "being prejudiced against Coca-Cola and hitting tea or coffee, it all depends on what carries the caffeine."

But does that stop their criticism of Coca-Cola for containing caffeine? No—their answer is simply that it is not harmful in one it can't be harmful in another. We all know that it is not harmful in tea or coffee—that it is really helpful in whatever it is—this is bound to include Coca-Cola.

Of course, the truth is, that having started an attack on false premises and having had what they thought were good reasons for criticism proved to be no reasons at all, they are grasping at a straw which does not exist, to explain a prejudice.

So you see, after all, it all depends on who carries the umbrella to prove that the tale is untrue.

It is the American woman on whom the changed conditions of life here, hardest, for housekeeping on the isthmus is attended by many annoyances. A good many people here have the idea that a woman in the tropics lives in a hammock all day and at meal times picks her feet from the floor.

WORK THE FARMS GOVERNMENT EXPERT WILL AID THE FARMERS IN STATE OF KENTUCKY.

Prof. Fred Mutchler Engaged for the Propagation of Agricultural Improvement.

Western Newspaper Union News Service. Frankfort.—The announcement was made from State university at Lexington that Prof. Fred Mutchler, who has been engaged in the promotion of agricultural improvement in Western Kentucky, will be the director of the Western Kentucky Normal school in Paducah, Ky., which is to be selected by the United States department of agriculture to take charge of similar work for the entire state, with headquarters in this city.

The department of agriculture, through the extension bureau, in charge of Dr. Bradford Knapp, has appropriated $20,000 a year for Kentucky to be used in the extension and demonstration work.

The appropriation is to be expended under the direction of a board of trustees composed of Dr. Knapp, president; H. H. Cherry, of Western Kentucky State Normal school; President J. C. Galbreath, of Eastern Kentucky State Normal school; J. W. Newman, state commissioner of agriculture, and President H. S. Barker, of State university. Prof. Fred Mutchler is expected to encourage better farming in every county of the state by applying the means most available for each county either by the establishment of local demonstration farms by carrying on demonstrations on the farmer's own land, and with his co-operation, by further enlightening the interest and confidence of the farmer by carrying on, dairy testing and similar means by sending skilled and enthusiastic men to various sections to direct work on the farms. Plans have already been made for work to begin in Boone, Woodford, Muhlenberg, Madison, Hopkins, Jefferson, Christian, Henderson and Washington.

Gov. McCreary Will Speak. The urgent request of Messrs. K. T. and J. W. Newman, Kentucky Centennial Commission, Gov. McCreary has consented to speak at the banquet at the Breckers' Hotel, Paducah, Ky., on the occasion of the Kentucky in the War of 1812. Gov. McCreary was on the verge of declining the invitation, as he said circumstantially, on account of his engagement to make an address at Richmond on that date on the occasion of the centennial celebration of Richard Nelson, D. D., Free and Accepted Mason.

New Colored Normal Students. President Russell of the Kentucky Normal and Industrial Institute, has been quite busy during the summer vacation making a vigorous campaign for new students. He has visited all of the large gatherings of his people that have been held in the state, making addresses and distributing literature in the interest of the institution. Last week he attended the Baptist General Association at Louisville and the United Brothers Grand Lodge at Bowling Green, where he presented the school to hundreds of the leading members of his race. He is seeking to interest the colored youth of Kentucky in normal instruction and in industrial training.

Save Corn Crop in Kentucky. Good news for the hot winds have devastated their fields, the Corn Club boys will have a good yield of corn in spite of the drought, is the opinion of Dr. Fred Mutchler of Bowling Green, Ky., who has been in the fields. "Corn fields and tobacco fields prepared and cultivated according to farm demonstration methods are standing as well as ever, and the state to the fore and husbandry of their own crops," declared Dr. Mutchler, who visited the Department of Agriculture. "You do not have to inquire; you can tell when you look at a properly cultivated field," he said.

He spoke particularly of one field of tobacco he had seen on the farm of Mr. J. C. Young, near Paducah, Warren county. He said the tobacco, while barely, is shouder high, and Mr. Young is cutting for exhibition at the State Fair.

Vips On Kentucky Agriculture. An innovation at the Teachers' Institute Henderson county, which opened Monday, was a school of instruction in agriculture. This was conducted by Dr. Fred Mutchler, agricultural adviser for Henderson county. Agriculture is now one of the required subjects in the county schools, and this is the first step toward preparing the teachers to teach this subject. Fred R. P. Green, of the State Normal School at Bowling Green, also has a place on the program.

OLD ADAM STRONG IN HIM. Sad Time for Mother When She Realized Her Pet Had Passed Beyond the Angelic Period.

Mother's darling, age four, was not to be like other boys and learn to use naughty and slangy words. He was not allowed to play with the leading members of his race. He is seeking to interest the colored youth of Kentucky in normal instruction and in industrial training.

"Where has my precious been?" "You should worry and get a wrinkle," he cheerfully replied.

"Dearest, tell mother where you learned such horrible language!" mother exclaimed.

"A good night, shirt," came sweetly from the Cupid bow mouth.

Then mother commenced to weep, for she realized that her angel child was just a boy after all.

HUSBAND RESCUED

DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Calron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its trying me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.
