

VOL. 1.

Terms of this Paper.

The terms of this paper will be published in an appendix to the next issue. From this date until the next election in November 1850, the terms of this paper will be as follows:—The paper is published weekly, except on Sundays and public holidays. The price is $1.00 per annum in advance, or $1.25 per annum in arrears. The paper is published at the office of the printer, in the city of Maysville, Kentucky. The printer is J. H. B. [Name].

Democratic Meeting in Fleming.

According to appointment, a large and respectable meeting of the democracy of this county convened on Saturday, June 17, for the purpose of holding a convention in relation to having one or more democratic candidates to represent this county in the next Legislature. On motion of Henry D. Burgess, Maj. James Stitt was called to the chair, and Dr. P. G. Hopkins appointed secretary; after which Mr. Burgess explained the object of the meeting, stating in a brief but concise manner the best course for the party to pursue in order to stand firm and undivided; and in order to consummate that object, offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That it is expedient that the democratic party run an old fashioned democrat for a seat in the next Legislature—one who is a convention man, a man of sound principles, and a true democrat in action and deed. And in order to consummate that object, it is the duty of the democratic party to select the strongest candidate, and to give him the largest number of votes in this precinct.

Resolved, That it is expedient that the democratic party run an old fashioned democrat for a seat in the next Legislature—one who is a convention man, a man of sound principles, and a true democrat in action and deed. And in order to consummate that object, it is the duty of the democratic party to select the strongest candidate, and to give him the largest number of votes in this precinct.

Resolved, That it is expedient that the democratic party run an old fashioned democrat for a seat in the next Legislature—one who is a convention man, a man of sound principles, and a true democrat in action and deed. And in order to consummate that object, it is the duty of the democratic party to select the strongest candidate, and to give him the largest number of votes in this precinct.

Resolved, That it is expedient that the democratic party run an old fashioned democrat for a seat in the next Legislature—one who is a convention man, a man of sound principles, and a true democrat in action and deed. And in order to consummate that object, it is the duty of the democratic party to select the strongest candidate, and to give him the largest number of votes in this precinct.

Resolved, That it is expedient that the democratic party run an old fashioned democrat for a seat in the next Legislature—one who is a convention man, a man of sound principles, and a true democrat in action and deed. And in order to consummate that object, it is the duty of the democratic party to select the strongest candidate, and to give him the largest number of votes in this precinct.

every principle of tyranny blasted, and government of equal rights established upon its ruins.

Resolved, That all officers of this government should be elected by the people, and we can only accomplish that great and glorious object by a reformation of our State constitution, and by the accomplishment of that end, we pledge our lives and fortunes, our lives and our sacred honor.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be forwarded to the editor of the Kentucky Flag, with a request that he publish the same. On motion of Capt. E. D. Cord, the meeting adjourned.

JAMES STITT, Ch'n. P. G. HOPKINS, Sec'y. Democratic Meetings. At a large and respectable meeting of the Democracy of Carter County, held in Grayson, on Monday the 1st day of June, ROBERT HENDERSON, Esq., was appointed chairman and H. S. BOOTER, secretary.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolutions of the Baltimore Convention.

Below will be found the resolutions passed by the Baltimore Democratic Convention, as we find them in that excellent sheet, the Baltimore Star.

Resolved, That the American democracy place their trust in the intelligence, the patriotism, and the discriminating justice of the American people.

Resolved, That we regard this as a distinctive feature of our political creed, which we are proud to maintain before the world, as the great moral element in the form of government, springing from and upheld by the popular will; and we contrast it with the creed and practice of federalism, under whatever name or form, which seeks to pay the will of the constituents, and which conceives no inordinate too inordinate for the popular creature.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolutions of the Baltimore Convention.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolutions of the Baltimore Convention.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolutions of the Baltimore Convention.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Carter county give their hearty and united support to the Democratic nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

The Campaign Flag.

EDITED BY SAMUEL PIKE.

SAMUEL PIKE AND JOHN M. HELMS, PROPRIETORS AND PUBLISHERS.

FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 1848.

For President, GEN. LEWIS CASS, Of Michigan.

For Vice-President, GEN. W. O. BUTLER, Of Kentucky.

Electors for the State at Large, ELIJAH HISE, of Logan, ROBERT N. WICKLIFFE, of Fayette, District Electors.

- 1st District—ISAAC BURNETT. 2d District—H. J. STITES. 3d District—JAMES P. BATES. 4th District—JAMES S. CHRISTMAN. 5th District—JAMES W. STONE. 6th District—JOHN P. MARTIN. 7th District—JAMES GUTHRIE. 8th District—J. K. MARSHALL. 9th District—JAMES W. MOORE. 10th District—W. T. REID.

For Governor of Kentucky, LAZ. W. POWELL, Of Henderson County.

For Lieutenant Governor, JOHN P. MARTIN, Of Floyd County.

Gen. Taylor's Letters. Owing to the great demand for these precious letters which reach us in full in the Campaign Flag, on Friday the 7th day of July, we have already received orders for several hundred extra copies, and shall publish only for those who may forward orders previous to that time. Those desiring to possess copies are requested to send in their orders immediately.—Price—$2.00 per hundred, or five cents per copy, single. These letters are decidedly rich.

Put the Ball in motion! The Democracy of this city, and vicinity, are requested to meet, en masse, in the Court House, on Wednesday evening, the 5th of July, at 7 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of organizing a Democratic Association. Let all attend!

Hon. JOHN P. MARTIN, the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor, will meet Mr. HELM at Richmond, on the 3d day of July, where they will address the people. From that place they will travel together, and speak at different points, until they reach the county of Clay where they separate. Mr. Martin is doing good service in the cause, and the people will remember him on the first Monday in August.

R. H. STANTON, Esq., of this city, will be present with Mr. Wickliffe at Flemingsburg on the 3d and Esclapius on the 4th of July, and address the people. Turn out, friends, and hear these champions in a good cause!

Mr. J. M. HELMS, of this office, will attend the meetings at Flemingsburg and Esclapius, for the purpose of receiving subscribers to this paper and the Kentucky Flag. As our own health is so precarious to permit us to visit our old friends, we would bespeak for Mr. H. their kind attention and aid in the accomplishment of his object.

The Kentucky Revivle, a whig paper published somewhere in this State, heads an article "Bad news for TAYLORS." The editor might as well add—"for Taylor's supporters too!"

Twenty Dollars Reward. The above reward will be paid by the universal whig party, for any Fugitive who will not say that he is opposed to General Taylor, but because he is a Military Chivalry.—[Kentucky Revivle.]

Wonder if this is the same "universal whig party" that promised that "two dollars a day and roast beef," in 1840? If so, we can't trust them; but at the same time we'll give a small reward to any who can tell what the man of the Revivle tries to say, in the above paragraph.

Candidates in Fleming. Messrs. J. C. Souley and Joseph M. Alexander (as may be seen from the proceedings of a meeting, in another column) have been put in nomination as candidates for Representative in the county of Fleming. They are both gentlemen of high standing, and discharge the duties pertaining to the office, and we hope to see them elected.

Too blind to see, or, too base to tell the truth.

There are two dough-faced whig editors in Kentucky who formerly resided in Ohio—Lindsay of the Mt. Sterling Whig, and Atkinson of the Glasgow Revivle—both claiming to know all about the political affairs of that State, and boasting, alike, that all a well for General Taylor there. Neither of them, (if their own words could be taken) have seen any signs of disaffection there; but, on the contrary, all the whig papers are rallying to the support of the nominees, with a cordiality and enthusiasm which bids defiance to all opposition, and it may be, that some of their readers are silly enough to believe their blarney on the subject, as editors are not expected to lie about things where the truth can be so readily established, as in this instance.

We cannot believe that these recent converts to Taylorism have not seen the disaffection and confusion which exists amongst the whig editors of that State, as well as amongst the people—every mail must bring them evidence of the fact; that there is a breach in the once powerful party of Ohio, which is past the power of Dough-faces to heal, and that Gen. Taylor's friends have more hope of carrying the State than they have of being able to elect the old Hero and his horse to the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States. It follows then, that they have not the honesty to tell the truth, in relation to the subject, but are striving to deceive their readers, by representing everything as being harmonious and united, when, at the same time, discord stalks abroad undisguised, as may be seen from the article which follows, to which we invite the attention of every honest whig editor in Kentucky.

The list below is not complete; but we shall extend it, as we may be enabled to do so. It exhibits a beautiful picture for these Ohio Solons (who have undertaken to teach politics to the friends of Mr. Clay) to contemplate.

Bolting in Ohio—Whig Papers backing out from the support of Gen. Taylor.

We put on record, for the very special benefit of our enthusiastic friend of the Taylor organ of this city, some of the responses of the whig press in Ohio, to the action of the great "National Slaughter House," as Greeley of the N. Y. Tribune, very properly calls the Philadelphia Convention. If he is weak enough to believe that Gen. Taylor can carry Ohio, with these evidences of the disaffection in that State, he can be made to believe any thing.

No. 1. The Clinton Republican, the organ of the Clinton county whiggy, and edited by David Fisher, a whig member of Congress, refuses to support Gen. Taylor, and declares the paper "absolved from any obligations to support him." No. 2. The Ashland Sentinel, edited by J. R. Giddings, son of the member of Congress, and a furious whig paper, says they "cannot sustain a man whose hands are red with the blood of innocence." No. 3. The Medina Whig, refuses to hoist the name of Taylor and Fillmore to the head of its columns, and says, "the whigs of Medina county pledged themselves not to vote for a slave holder, and they stick to it!" No. 4. The Cleveland True Democrat, edited by the Hon. E. S. Hamlin, a member of Congress, and a thorough whig paper, repudiates Gen. Taylor, and says: "This is the cup offered by the slave-holders for us to drink. We loathe it; we will neither touch, taste, nor handle the unclean thing."

No. 5. The Hamilton Intelligencer refuses to approve the nominations, and denounces the action of the Convention as "another melancholy instance of the irresistible power of Southern rule and dictation." The editor says, his paper is for sale, but he is not. No. 6. The Lebanon Star, published in the town of the Hon. Thomas Corwin, is the most furious of the papers which it denounces the nomination of Gen. Taylor. It says: "We have no hesitation in declaring, that the representatives of the whig party at Philadelphia have proved unworthy of their trusts, and shamefully and unaccountably abandoned the just and permanent principles of the whig party."

No. 7. The Mt. Vernon Times, the organ of whiggy in Knox county, has abandoned Gen. Taylor, and refuses to support his nomination. No. 8. The Editor of the Xenia Torch Light also refuses to support Gen. Taylor, and has abandoned the tripod. No. 9. The Western Reserve Chronicle, published in Warren, Trumbull county, will not support the nomination of Gen. Taylor, and applauds the firmness of the people!

Ohio delegates who refused to concur at the Philadelphia Convention.

No. 10. The Painesville Telegraph, another whig paper, indignantly spurns the nomination of Gen. Taylor and refuses to support him.

No. 11. The Elgria Courier, also refuses to support him.

No. 12. The Ravenna Star, refuses to support him.

No. 13. The Summit Beacon, does the same.

No. 14. The Massillon Telegraph, does the same.

Col. L. W. Powell. A letter from a friend in Frankfort, assures us that Col. Powell will visit his friends in this county on the 25th of July. His appointments for the different counties in this region, will be published in the next Flag. Let all be ready to turn out and hear him.

The Ninth District. We have glorious news from all parts of this (ninth) congressional district. The nomination of Taylor and Fillmore is received with great joy, and the whig party that the district will give the ticket fifteen hundred majority. We don't look for anything else.

Kentucky Whig. We have heard of the "rejoicings" amongst the whigs of that district before; but it came in the shape of open denunciations of the nominees and renunciations of the whig party; and if this is a source of consolation to the dough-faces, they are welcome to "more of the same sort." "The whigs" said last year, the district should give "fifteen hundred majority," but it turned out a majority of 370 on the other side, and so it will be again—only more so, Bobby!

The district was thoroughly democratic, before Lindsey moved his tri-colored press into it; and it will be more democratic than ever now, because his boasting falsehoods are too glaring to escape detection.

Mr. Crittenden. "If a democrat asks you whether Mr. Crittenden our candidate for Governor is in favor of a convention, or not, tell him yes, and refer him to Mr. C's letter in a paper."—[Ky. Revivle.]

But if a whig should ask you whether Mr. Crittenden is OPPOSED to a Convention, just read him the following certificate, and challenge him to deny its truth: FRANKLIN COUNTY COURT OFFICE, &c. I, ALEXANDER H. RENNICK, Clerk of the County Court for the county aforesaid, do certify that I have examined the Poll Book for this county at the August election last, and that John J. Crittenden was elected against a new convention. Given under my hand, this 23d June, 1848.

A. H. RENNICK, C. J. C. C. Charge upon the Licensees of Gen. Cass is opposed to all the great interests of the west, and that the voters voted against improving their rivers and harbors. Kentucky Whig. When you charge that home, you charge a falsehood so glaring that no honest man will, for a moment, believe it.—You cannot even show that Gen. Cass ever voted against the improvement of our rivers and harbors.

"Truth is mighty and will prevail!" Every one acknowledges the importance of circulating truthful papers and documents amongst the people at a time like this; and to give all an opportunity of possessing a valuable publication at a low price, we have reduced the terms of the CAMPAIGN FLAG to FIFTY CENTS, from this time until after the Presidential election.

On the next page will be found a Prospectus, which we hope every Agent, and friend to the cause of Democracy, will cut out and circulate freely for signatures. It is important for us to have home to canvass the country, for the purpose of seeing every man in person.—We must depend upon our friends in the different neighborhoods, to attend to this matter for us, and hence, we wish every Democrat to consider himself an especial agent, for this paper, and to exert himself accordingly. It is published for the good of the great cause and for no pecuniary benefit to the proprietors. Therefore let its circulation be so extensive with the whole west! Let there be a club at every Post office, and its influence will be felt and acknowledged in due time. Our friends in Kentucky should exert themselves in an especial manner, to promote the circulation of this paper, and we hope they will do so, for the State can and must be redeemed at the ensuing elections.—"Truth is mighty and will prevail!" Up and at them, boys! Huzza for Cass and Butler!

Charge, and keep charging, that Gen. Cass declared in the Senate of the United States, a few months ago, that "the object of the administration was to send many troops to Mexico, to be FRIGHTENED into peace!"—Kentucky Whig.

And there charge again, that the federal whig party had so much sympathy for their poor Mexican breakers, that they could not bear the idea of having them either whipped or FRIGHTENED into peace!

"That Same Old Coss" at his Dirty Tricks Again.

Mark the Demagogue!! Extract of a letter to the editor, from a highly respectable gentleman of Lawrence county, dated, LOUISIA, June 24, 1848. DEAR PIERE—On yesterday, in this place, the Hon. J. J. Crittenden made a speech to us. He led off by first explaining his position on the Convention question. He admitted that in 1850, perhaps, as a representative in the Legislature, he voted AGAINST a Convention, but since that 1847, (last August) he DID NOT VOTE AGAINST A CONVENTION, but left it to the people to settle—HE NOT VOTING AT ALL.

Reader, when you hear this Junius-faced politician—this betrayer of the confidence reposed in him by his friends, denying that he voted against the Convention in 1847, (last August), just read to him the following certificate from the Clerk of the Franklin County Court, which most clearly establishes the fact that HE DID VOTE AGAINST IT, and places him in a position altogether unpleasant and unenviable. We have no room for further comment now, but shall allow it to again hereafter. Here is the certificate: FRANKLIN COUNTY COURT OFFICE, &c. I, ALEXANDER H. RENNICK, Clerk of the County Court for the county aforesaid, do certify that I have examined the Poll Book for this county at the August election last, and that John J. Crittenden voted against a new Convention. Given under my hand, this 23d June, 1848.

A. H. RENNICK, C. J. C. C. THE RANT OF FEDERALISM.—We have heard much ranting and raving, upon the part of certain dough-faced editors, on account of the State of South Carolina having been represented by a single delegate, only, in the Democratic National Convention; and from the tenor of their remarks, we could suppose that they are entirely ignorant of the fact, that in the Dough-faced Convention which nominated Gen. Taylor, the State of Texas was no delegate, at all, in attendance. That State was represented by the delegates from Louisiana. Poor drivellers! What next?

We have the most gratifying news from Ohio in regard to the whig candidates for president. Ohio is just as certain for Taylor as any State in the Union, and that too by thousands.—Kentucky Whig. We copy the above that the whigs of the Ohio district may see, after the election, what a sagacious and truthful editor they are patronizing. Lindsey now more believes what he has asserted, than we do. It is possible for him to tell the truth. Ohio go for Taylor! Why the greatest number of all that State does not pretend to claim it for Gen. Taylor; and if Bob would be honest with his Kentucky friends, he would tell them so.

A MAGNIFICENT HALL.—Some evenings ago, I accepted the kind invitation of a friend to visit the Odd Fellows Hall in this city, and was highly delighted with what we saw. The main hall is about 80 feet deep and 30 feet wide, richly carpeted and furnished with the most elegant sofas, tables, chairs, &c., which added to the magnificent lamps and chandeliers, give it an appearance altogether brilliant and fascinating; and it may be set down as one of the most beautiful ornaments to our city.

We are told that it is excelled in beauty and costliness, by no other Hall in the State, and we believe it. Hon. A. G. Brown, M. C., from Mississippi, has our thanks for a copy of his able speech upon the Government of the Territories.

Mr. McClung's Speech on Saturday Evening. JOHN A. McCLUNG, Esq., of this city, was the sole delegate for the State at large, to the late National Whig Convention, and voted for General Taylor against Mr. Clay, first, last and all the time. The state of public opinion at this place makes it necessary for Mr. McClung to make a public explanation of the part taken by him in that body, and accordingly a meeting is called for that purpose at the Court House on Saturday evening.

We hope Mr. McClung will not confine himself to mere personal explanations, but will give to the public a full and complete history of all the operations of the "Sinner House," together with the undercurrents and secret movements, by which whiggy was entrapped and slaughtered. He has the descriptive powers to enable him to give a very graphic account of the whole process—how the poor beast was lassoed, drawn up to the bull-ring, its bellows and struggles, the blow upon the head, the stab in the neck, the gurgling blood, its death throes and stiffened limbs—how its hide was taken off by Southern bow-knives, and its carcass burned upon the altar of availability.

The audience would no doubt be greatly entertained, if Mr. McClung would describe the proceedings which took place in secret session, and the enthusiasm which prevailed when the Convention refused to declare that the sentence must be a Whig, pledged to Whig principles! The Whig Ratification meeting.—The course to be pursued. We feel some curiosity to know what course will be pursued at the ratification—or rather reconstitution, meeting of the Whigs, to come off at the Court house on County Court day. Will the Slaughter House at the great "National Whig" meeting, remaining silent upon the subject of Whig principles and Whig measures, be pursued, and Gen. Taylor taken in a spirit of "generous confidence" by both Taylor and Clay Whigs? or will the great landmarks of the party be adhered to, and the ticket sustained with a declaration of Whig principles? Can the Taylor men, with the action of the National Convention before them, and the fifty-times-repeated declaration of Gen. Taylor, that he will not be the candidate of a party, or the exponent of party principles, starting them in the face, now pledge him to Whig principles, and place him in an attitude not only hostile to the convention which nominated him, but most glaringly inconsistent with the position he has assumed in every letter he has ever written? Without a declaration of Whig principles and an avowal that he is sustained because the exponent of the views of the party, who will carry out its principles and measures in the administration of the Government, if successful, can the "Old Guard" of the staunch Clay Whigs give in their adhesion to the nomination of Gen. Taylor, while we feel some curiosity to have these questions answered by the result of the meeting, we have but little faith that any difficulty will occur. The friends of Mr. Clay, in all probability, will knock under and fraternize with the Taylorites.—They will swallow the dose prepared for them and take Gen. Taylor, without pledges, promises or principles!

New mode of arriving at General Taylor's views.—Profound logic of the Herald. We asked our neighbor of the Herald for Gen. Taylor's views on the subject of Harbor and River improvement. Here they are: "We answer that Gen. Taylor's views, in reference to the former, forbid him to exercise in preventing the execution of the people's will on this subject. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation of Congress, and the exercise of 'clear' authority. 'The Constitution' or 'manifest fate,' &c., on the 'this answer does not satisfy Mr. Pike, we will not, of course, expect him to vote for Gen. Taylor. We will try to get as much power as has been more clearly established by the practice of our Government under various administrations, than has that for the improvement of the Harbors and River Navigation, and Gen. Taylor has expressly pledged himself to interfere with the legislation

The Campaign Flag.

The star-spangled Banner—long may it wave, O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave!

Wednesday, June 23, 1849.

Travelling Agent.

Mr. J. C. WALZER is duly authorized to receive subscribers and money on our account, wherever he may travel, and is now on a tour through the 9th district, where we hope our friends will be prepared to meet him.

FRANCIS SPAHRING—We call attention to the appointments of R. N. Wickliffe, Esq., in today's paper. He will be in Flemingsburg on Monday next, where we hope he will have a full turn out of the pure and unadulterated Democracy of that county.

MARTIN VAN BUREN.—The report that Martin Van Buren and Esq. George Dodge had been nominated for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, by the Union Convention, is no doubt a hoax. We learn that the Convention only recommended them as suitable candidates for nomination by the Buffalo Convention.

Col. Powell and the Convention.

The Louisville Courier says Leonard W. Powell voted, in 1838, against a convention. Col. Powell (himself) says: When a member of the Legislature of Kentucky, in 1838, I voted for the Bill to take the sense of the people of the State as to the propriety of calling a convention, and voted in favor of calling a convention, and voted in favor of calling a convention.

A Significant Superscription.

A letter passed through the Post office in this city a few days ago, bearing upon its back the following very significant direction: "If Clay, Lexington, Kentucky, is not to be known in Ky., of which a doubt may be raised, by the vote in the election of 1848, I voted for the Bill to take the sense of the people of the State as to the propriety of calling a convention, and voted in favor of calling a convention."

Mr. Taylor never surrenders.

say the Doug-faces; but they seem to forget that the surrendered fully, at the time he encountered Gen. Whiggery at the siege of Philadelphia, on the 7th of June, A. D., 1848, and will have to surrender again, on the 7th day of November next.

These evidences.

are these evidences? to be found in the enthusiasm of your own head and heart, or in the firing of that cannon which didn't go off? Or, is it to be found in the act of postponing the Taylor meeting from Saturday last, until county court day, for the purpose of getting a crowd? O. Spring; the Lantatic Asylum will catch you yet, we fear!

We have no room to devote to the Herald this week.

but will rub down the editor hereafter. Once a month is sufficient either to dress him of Nature's Wardrobe, and we feel no disposition to exercise cruelty—not even towards a Doug-face.

FROPPED AGAIN.

Our co-temperaries announce the stoppage of Schulz & Co's Bagging Factory again; but we presume the suspension is only temporary, and that all will soon be ready for operations again. The Eagle, we are glad to see, does not attribute it to the operation of the Tariff of 1846, this time.

A number of persons have recently died.

in Massachusetts, from eating clams.—Engle. And we expect to hear of great mortality among whig editors soon, from eating crabs.

The ass-tute editor of the Eagle seems to think the Doug-faces will be able to elect Gen. Taylor into the Presidency.

and we expect soon to see him at the head of a "Glee Club" in this city, sending out in melodious strains— "Will ye go for Taylor, therefore, Without a wish or a whiff of care?" Alas, poor Richard! He does not feel comfortable under his new neck muscles, and we pity him.

Crittenden and the convention.—The proof, positive, that he voted against it.

Since Mr. Crittenden has deserted his old friends, and thrown himself into the embrace of the Doug-faces, he has been vainly endeavoring to create the impression amongst the people that he is now willing to support and vote for a convention to remodel the constitution of this State; but we presume few, if any, of those who are really in favor of constitutional reform, will be silly enough to believe him sincere in his professions, when he himself has admitted that he VOTED AGAINST IT at the last August election.

We charged him with being opposed to the measure, sometimes ago; and, although none of the whig presses denied the charge, there were those to be found who did, and we have, therefore, felt it to a duty which we owe the public, and ourselves, to establish the truth of said charge, upon such evidence as cannot be controverted; and this we now do, by submitting the following certificate from the Clerk of the County Court of Franklin, which no one dare dispute. Read, convention men, read: Oscar Orren, esq., FRANKLIN COUNTY, Clerk of the County Court for the county aforesaid, do hereby certify that I have examined the Poll Book for the election at the August election last, and that John J. Crittenden voted against a new Convention to revise our laws, this 23d inst. 1848.

War, Pestilence and Famine!

For the especial edification of the numerous friends of Henry Clay, and more particularly, for that portion of them who believe that all wars are wrong, we copy below a short extract from a speech delivered by that gentleman, in 1811—followed by any man who wishes to be a follower of that great apostle of whiggery, and governed by the principles which actuate his breast, can support Gen. Taylor, is more than we can understand. If there is no sacrifice of principle on the part of those who believed the orator spoke truthfully then, and that it is their duty to vote for Gen. Taylor now, we confess that we have never known what constitutes PRINCIPLES, or the difference between consistency and vacillation.—If the words contained truth at the time they were delivered, that truth is yet unchanged, and as Gen. Taylor is said to possess no other qualification for the Presidency, apart from his military glory, we cannot see how it will be possible for those who have cherished Mr. Clay's sentiments, to vote for Gen. Taylor, under the circumstances.

Extract of a speech delivered in 1811, by Mr. Clay, at Lexington, Kentucky.

"Regimes of all impositions, and proud of the opportunity of free and unstrained intercourse with all my fellow citizens, I was politically free, and compatible with my official duties, I would visit every State, to every town and hamlet, and, as I have no objection to be carried by their love of country, by their love of liberty, for the sake of knowledge, and to be a cabinet officer, for those to be charged with having deserted his old and true friend. It is a matter among themselves, however.

Another serv' Looser.

T. A. Clinton (Ohio) Republican, edited by Hon. David Fisher, member of Congress from that district, refuses to support Taylor and Fillmore, and thus avoid being looked upon as an inconsistent Whig. The editor has a sensible article on the late nominations, commencing thus:

"We have therefore said, that we should feel bound to support the nominee of the Whig National Convention provided he was 'a Whig, a whole Whig, and nothing but a Whig.' We do not see that Gen. Taylor fits that measure, and therefore feel ourselves obliged by our obligation to support him, under that promise."

We regret that we have not room for the whole article.

Well may it be said that the whig party is dissolved! The people are going for a convention en masse, and the Locofoco will find that they cannot make a question of it in the county court. True; "the people are going for a Convention, en masse, but against Mr. Crittenden, who VOTED AGAINST IT LAST YEAR, as we have shown by a certificate in today's paper." It is "the colors" cannot make a question of it," the people will, and thus reward Mr. Crittenden for his Doug-face treachery to Mr. Clay.

All the war spirits of our country have a candidate to be killed in Gen. Taylor.

He is the very thimble of war.—Whig. The above is from the columns of a Federal Whig paper, and that party has, hitherto, professed to be the "peace party," and opposed to the elevation of military chiefs into the Presidency. Does the editor expect the real friends of peace to support Gen. Taylor now, merely because he is the very thimble of war? O. ye do; his faced demagogues, what is there ye will not do to obtain office!

Wonder if our neighbor of the Herald will vote for Old Whiggery?

For Vice President, in case Mr. Fillmore shall be ruled off, on account of his Abolitionism? If the old horse is not a slave holder, his master is, and that is all sufficient for our neighbor, and would look a little more consistent than his present course.

More crumbs of comfort for the Doug-faces.

Never, since the organization of parties in this government, has there been witnessed such an universal dissatisfaction towards any candidates, as is now existing towards the nominees of the latly whig convention; and such is the hostility manifested by the whig party proper, against them, and the action of the convention, that there remains no sort of probability that a reunion can ever take place. Honest whigs prefer the preservation of their former cherished principles, to temporary success, under the lead of a man whose opinions (if he has any), are unknown, and altogether uncertain.

More "Traditions."

Aside from our friend of the Herald, there are a few other conspicuous Taylor men in this county about whom tradition has something to say. One of these is a remarkably prominent gentleman, whom we are told goes it blind for Old Zach, from the fact, that when he was a little boy, the old General let him ride behind him on the same horse! O, hush! We can tell no more of that "tradition," at present; but may give the sequel hereafter.

Taylorism at the Capitol.

A letter from a highly respectable gentleman in Frankfort, to the Junior of the Flag, says: "I assure you there is a good deal of dissatisfaction here, amongst the whigs. Some of them will not be driven from their principles, and swear they never will vote for Taylor. The grand whig ratification meeting, which was held last Monday, and to which many of the great whig centers of the State, and all the citizens of Franklin and the adjoining counties, had been invited, was a most equal FAILURE.—There was not a 'corporal's guard' upon the ground."

Henry Clay, whose name, alone, could rally and unite this whig party, has been shamefully cheated out of the nomination, and now the party must dissolve.

This is another "crumb of comfort" for our neighbor of the Herald and the man who rode behind Gen. Taylor.

Also for the Doug-faces! Crittenden vs. Clay. The Herald of last week, was anxious to know where we found the evidence that Mr. Clay lost his nomination in the Whig National Convention, through the intrigue and management of John J. Crittenden, the editor of which fact is as abundant as blackberries in July, and in the Herald man has not seen anything which looks like it, we pity his stupidity more than ever, because the fact is almost self-evident.

Read the following extract from the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer.

Mr. Clay's friends from Kentucky, who are here at this time, are particularly incensed at the portion of the Kentucky delegation that voted for General Taylor on the first ballot, and the Kentucky delegation cast its entire vote for Mr. Clay on the first ballot, as it should have done. If for no other reason than as a compliment to the vote would have been for Clay 104 for Taylor 94. Mr. Crittenden goes to the extent of charging the Kentucky delegation against Mr. Clay. The motives attributed to him are, to have the nomination of an old man in his old and stained coat, and to be a cabinet officer. For those to be charged with having deserted his old and true friend. It is a matter among themselves, however.

Another serv' Looser.

T. A. Clinton (Ohio) Republican, edited by Hon. David Fisher, member of Congress from that district, refuses to support Taylor and Fillmore, and thus avoid being looked upon as an inconsistent Whig. The editor has a sensible article on the late nominations, commencing thus:

"We have therefore said, that we should feel bound to support the nominee of the Whig National Convention provided he was 'a Whig, a whole Whig, and nothing but a Whig.' We do not see that Gen. Taylor fits that measure, and therefore feel ourselves obliged by our obligation to support him, under that promise."

We regret that we have not room for the whole article.

Well may it be said that the whig party is dissolved! The people are going for a convention en masse, and the Locofoco will find that they cannot make a question of it in the county court. True; "the people are going for a Convention, en masse, but against Mr. Crittenden, who VOTED AGAINST IT LAST YEAR, as we have shown by a certificate in today's paper." It is "the colors" cannot make a question of it," the people will, and thus reward Mr. Crittenden for his Doug-face treachery to Mr. Clay.

All the war spirits of our country have a candidate to be killed in Gen. Taylor.

He is the very thimble of war.—Whig. The above is from the columns of a Federal Whig paper, and that party has, hitherto, professed to be the "peace party," and opposed to the elevation of military chiefs into the Presidency. Does the editor expect the real friends of peace to support Gen. Taylor now, merely because he is the very thimble of war? O. ye do; his faced demagogues, what is there ye will not do to obtain office!

Wonder if our neighbor of the Herald will vote for Old Whiggery?

For Vice President, in case Mr. Fillmore shall be ruled off, on account of his Abolitionism? If the old horse is not a slave holder, his master is, and that is all sufficient for our neighbor, and would look a little more consistent than his present course.

More crumbs of comfort for the Doug-faces.

Never, since the organization of parties in this government, has there been witnessed such an universal dissatisfaction towards any candidates, as is now existing towards the nominees of the latly whig convention; and such is the hostility manifested by the whig party proper, against them, and the action of the convention, that there remains no sort of probability that a reunion can ever take place. Honest whigs prefer the preservation of their former cherished principles, to temporary success, under the lead of a man whose opinions (if he has any), are unknown, and altogether uncertain.

More "Traditions."

Aside from our friend of the Herald, there are a few other conspicuous Taylor men in this county about whom tradition has something to say. One of these is a remarkably prominent gentleman, whom we are told goes it blind for Old Zach, from the fact, that when he was a little boy, the old General let him ride behind him on the same horse! O, hush! We can tell no more of that "tradition," at present; but may give the sequel hereafter.

Taylorism at the Capitol.

A letter from a highly respectable gentleman in Frankfort, to the Junior of the Flag, says: "I assure you there is a good deal of dissatisfaction here, amongst the whigs. Some of them will not be driven from their principles, and swear they never will vote for Taylor. The grand whig ratification meeting, which was held last Monday, and to which many of the great whig centers of the State, and all the citizens of Franklin and the adjoining counties, had been invited, was a most equal FAILURE.—There was not a 'corporal's guard' upon the ground."

Henry Clay, whose name, alone, could rally and unite this whig party, has been shamefully cheated out of the nomination, and now the party must dissolve.

This is another "crumb of comfort" for our neighbor of the Herald and the man who rode behind Gen. Taylor.

Also for the Doug-faces! Crittenden vs. Clay. The Herald of last week, was anxious to know where we found the evidence that Mr. Clay lost his nomination in the Whig National Convention, through the intrigue and management of John J. Crittenden, the editor of which fact is as abundant as blackberries in July, and in the Herald man has not seen anything which looks like it, we pity his stupidity more than ever, because the fact is almost self-evident.

Read the following extract from the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer.

Mr. Clay's friends from Kentucky, who are here at this time, are particularly incensed at the portion of the Kentucky delegation that voted for General Taylor on the first ballot, and the Kentucky delegation cast its entire vote for Mr. Clay on the first ballot, as it should have done. If for no other reason than as a compliment to the vote would have been for Clay 104 for Taylor 94. Mr. Crittenden goes to the extent of charging the Kentucky delegation against Mr. Clay. The motives attributed to him are, to have the nomination of an old man in his old and stained coat, and to be a cabinet officer. For those to be charged with having deserted his old and true friend. It is a matter among themselves, however.

Another serv' Looser.

T. A. Clinton (Ohio) Republican, edited by Hon. David Fisher, member of Congress from that district, refuses to support Taylor and Fillmore, and thus avoid being looked upon as an inconsistent Whig. The editor has a sensible article on the late nominations, commencing thus:

"We have therefore said, that we should feel bound to support the nominee of the Whig National Convention provided he was 'a Whig, a whole Whig, and nothing but a Whig.' We do not see that Gen. Taylor fits that measure, and therefore feel ourselves obliged by our obligation to support him, under that promise."

We regret that we have not room for the whole article.

Well may it be said that the whig party is dissolved! The people are going for a convention en masse, and the Locofoco will find that they cannot make a question of it in the county court. True; "the people are going for a Convention, en masse, but against Mr. Crittenden, who VOTED AGAINST IT LAST YEAR, as we have shown by a certificate in today's paper." It is "the colors" cannot make a question of it," the people will, and thus reward Mr. Crittenden for his Doug-face treachery to Mr. Clay.

All the war spirits of our country have a candidate to be killed in Gen. Taylor.

He is the very thimble of war.—Whig. The above is from the columns of a Federal Whig paper, and that party has, hitherto, professed to be the "peace party," and opposed to the elevation of military chiefs into the Presidency. Does the editor expect the real friends of peace to support Gen. Taylor now, merely because he is the very thimble of war? O. ye do; his faced demagogues, what is there ye will not do to obtain office!

Wonder if our neighbor of the Herald will vote for Old Whiggery?

For Vice President, in case Mr. Fillmore shall be ruled off, on account of his Abolitionism? If the old horse is not a slave holder, his master is, and that is all sufficient for our neighbor, and would look a little more consistent than his present course.

whig in Indiana, to the editor of the Cincinnati Herald.

"FAIRFIELD, Ind. June 15, 1849. "FRIEND STRAZ: I herewith send you twenty subscribers to your paper. Many of them are new subscribers, and some of the names of General Taylor, have become dignified in the Southern intrigue of its leaders. I have now sent you twenty more copies of my paper, for a subscriber. I anticipate much good from the circulation of your paper. May you prosper in your enterprise. I hope to be able to send you twenty more subscribers. S. H. Y."

To all this we would add, that the New York Day Book, another whig paper, puts up the following grand and truthful flourish:

The Great Result. ZACHARY TAYLOR NOMINATED! THIS WHIG PARTY DISSOLVED BY MUTUAL CONSENT.

TO YOUR TENT, O ISRAEL!

"The news in another column puts an end to much needless conjecture and speculation. The convention has nominated a man, pledged to no measure or proposition of the kind, and who has uncommitted in regard to any and every measure of the locofoco party."

Truly may it be said that the whig party is DISSOLVED—not annihilated, but dispersed in such a manner, that nothing can be accomplished by them, until after a new and more efficient organization shall be effected. There is no doubt that the whig party, and longer a WHIG PARTY, but a party of Doug-faces, endeavoring to supplant the old and faithful soldiers in the whig cause—drive them from power, and riot upon the spoils.

"A cloud no larger than a man's hand."

An "enthusiastic" Clay meeting was held in New York, on Monday night, the 13th inst. The meeting was organized by the Whig appointments of Matthew L. Davis, as chairman, who stated its objects to be the reorganization of the whig party, as it stood before the Philadelphia convention. Mr. Davis, in his address, pledged himself to support the nomination of Greely, pledged themselves in opposition to the nominee. The Herald says—

"At an early stage of the meeting so great was the crowd, more than two thousand persons having assembled, that they were obliged to adjourn to the street, but at a later stage returned to the room, when a committee of five from each ward was appointed to get signatures to the Clay name meeting."

The meeting was most enthusiastically denounced and Clay applauded. It will be made known, in a few days, the names of those who were the most energetic in the meeting. The utmost harmony prevailed during the whole proceedings."

The Tribune says that the ratification meeting which was called by the Whig Convention, and which was postponed until Monday, and closes with the following ominous sentence:

"We believe the prevailing sentiment of the committee to be that it will be time enough to hold the meeting when Gen. Taylor shall have accepted the nomination as a whig, and consented to run as the whig candidate."

All these things mean something, and they mean that the Doug-faces are endeavoring to keep them posted up. The "harmonious union" party is in a dreadful snarl, and none but the most experienced politicians are able to unravel it, without snapping its thread of life. Let the results of these disaffections be what they may, the democracy have but one thing to do, which will be done, and that is to get the Doug-faces out of the "Doug-faces" one grand and tremendous licking.

From this, and what we shall hereafter give, it is to be hoped that our contemporaries of this city will be satisfied that there is a little more dissatisfaction in their own ranks, than there has ever been in the Democratic party; and that they will no longer feel disposed to chuckle over the good natured little quarrel which we have had in Kentucky, about the candidates for Governor. "Look at home," gentlemen, and you will see where you have trouble in the camp!

"Old Whiggery."

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer writes from Washington City thus: "The Ohio whigs are exceedingly mortified at one of the Ohio delegations in the convention, who, pledging Ohio to support Gen. Taylor, would elect Taylor President, and Old Whiggery Vice President. It is looked upon as an insult to the whigs of Ohio. The idea, that the whigs of Ohio, should be so degraded, that they would, should the convention have nominated Taylor for President and his old white horse for Vice President, and give the State to such a tickle, is truly mortifying to not only party, but state pride. One of the Congress thought his horse good enough for a consul, and so honored him; this Ohio whig delegate thinks the whigs of Ohio would have as high an opinion of Gen. TAYLOR's horse, if the whig convention only endorsed him as fit for Vice President, or, has his meaning been mistaken, and did he intend to nominate Taylor for President, and his old white horse for Vice President, and the whigs of Ohio would vote for one as soon as the other."

If we are to judge the Doug-face degeneracy by their acts, we should say that they would be as willing to vote for old whiggery for his master, provided they could be made sensible that he is "available." They are not particular as to the President, whether he be half or a whole horse, so that they can get the office. A horse or a coon is as good a President as they want, and as good as one as they deserve.

Two wise prophets.—Crittenden and Gaines!

John J. Crittenden at a Taylor ratification meeting at Washington City, pledged himself that Kentucky would give 25,000 votes majority for Gen. Taylor!

John P. Gaines at a similar meeting in Boston, told the people that Kentucky would give Gen. Taylor 20,000 majority!

A distinguished Whig from Kentucky who had more integrity of heart than thousands of spoils, being in Washington city immediately after Gen. Taylor's nomination, and knowing the zeal of Major Gaines, to defeat Mr. Clay, told him that he had been at once appointed an executor to administer upon his political estate in Kentucky, for as to future prospects he was, practically dead. If he had included Mr. Crittenden a commission of larceny, there could not be found twelve men in Kentucky, who after such insane calculations, would not have found them both non compos mentis.

A COON VOY.—Mr. Garrett Davis, in his speech at Carlisle, on the 19th inst, spoke in terms of condemnation of the expedition to the Dead Sea, and seemed to be totally at a loss to know what had induced Government to send vessels on an exploring voyage there. Mr. Reid enlightened him upon the subject by stating that the whig party had lost their principles, and these vessels had probably been sent out to fish them up from among the ruins of Sodom and Gomorrah. This was followed by such cheering and shouts from the crowd, that our friend of the Herald left for home immediately.

Garrett Davis, and other Doug-faces, are prating about a law to elect our western lakes and rivers, and seem to think Gen. Taylor will have such a law passed; but we should like to know what evidence they have that he is in favor of such a law, or that he will approve it if passed by Congress! Has given any pledge of the sort? Let the Herald answer.

Our feathered friend of the Tribune and Clipper, at Portsmouth, Ohio, would do much better for himself by attending to the duckings in his own puddles, than by crossing the river in quest of birds and fishes which may prove too much for him.

We are altogether Savage over this war-drake; and may not only give you a good pickin', but make mine more of you as well; you keep your bill out of our partridge. He need not flatter himself that because there are two democratic candidates in old Iron Greenup, the coons can call a Doug-face. Mr. Savage and Col. Davis are both a little too smart for that!

WHIG ALLEGORISTS.—Last year we had to defend Gen. Taylor against the gross and unprincipled attacks of the Whig press. This year we have to take up the charge—iron hurled at him, by his enemies, to floor the slave men, who are professing to be his best friends.

INDIANA.—We have an Extra from the office of the Lafayette Express, containing the proceedings of the great Boat-race meeting which was held in that city on the 15th inst., but we have no room to notice them in detail. The State of Indiana is safe for Cass and Butler.

THE KENTON.—This splendid new park on steamer arrived at our wharf, for the first time, on Saturday evening. On Monday morning we went on board, and were kindly welcomed by Capt. McLean, and invited to inspect his fine craft. We did so with pleasure, and have no hesitancy in pronouncing the Kenton one of the very best boats on the river. There is a story told of the Kenton, which is a sad one, and is peculiarly fascinating, and cannot fail to please every one who may visit her. Mayville may well be proud of this new accession to her Packet Line.

L. C. J., at Aaron's Run, is a highly esteemed friend, and we differ with him upon the anxious of his note. Let us hear from you more fully, old friend!

We are rejoiced to learn that the great good is being accomplished in the State of Ohio, by the Whig and the Serravallo Pills. We have no hesitation in saying (being composed as they are of vegetables) they are a salutary and best family medicine, and we would say to the sick of both sexes, and all ages, do not fail to get a box. You run no risk in using them, and half a pill can be administered to a small child with safety.

B. CLARK, &c.