The Battle of Shakespeare
Police Details of the Disturbance of the Tailor Gang

World's, Jr., June 14.—The arrest of James E. Moore, a member of the Free Union Gang, has caused much comment in the town. Moore has been identified as a leader of the Free Union Gang, and is known to be associated with theTailor Gang.

Moore, a tailor by trade, has been identified as one of the chief organizers of the Tailor Gang. He is reported to have been involved in several disturbances in the town, and is suspected of being responsible for several robberies.

The Free Union Gang, on the other hand, is known to be involved in several robberies and other criminal activities. The two gangs have been fighting for control of the town for several years, and the recent arrest of Moore has caused much concern among residents.

The Police Department is currently investigating the incident, and is working to establish the exact nature of Moore's involvement with the Tailor Gang. They are also trying to determine the extent of the gang's activities in the town.

The situation is expected to remain tense for some time, as the two gangs continue to fight for control.
