

UNITED STATES RECEIVING STATION
NAVY YARD
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

4/23/43

Dear Friends:

Just a note to let you know that I still think of you all. I am station here in Philadelphia waiting for my ship to be completed. Thirteen of the fellow from the second division are still together here.

It is real nice here and the weather is just like summer time. I don't have much to do but in my spare time here at the base I write to my many friends everywhere. yesterday I wrote nineteen letters and am writing as many today.

So I can't stay on one to love

The liberty in New York was the best I have had, so many places to go and so much to see. But the base there is no good.

I hope you are well and that more of the boys at Mochead are coming out for church & young peoples.

Drop me a note when you have time.

Sincerely,

Bill Maxwell
