The 2000 Powder Puff football game was like no other. Never before has RCSHS seen so much competition and desire to win between two teams. The seniors managed to pull off the victory, 18-0. Scoring for the seniors were Amber Miller and Kristi McClurg. "We could never have done it without our cheerleaders," says senior Erica Swanson.

Despite their shutout, the juniors remain hopeful for next year's game. Junior Mary Beth Pecco says, "We've gained a lot of experience for next year. We know what to expect and the team will be a lot better prepared."

SENIOR TRIP

The Class of 2001 took a very memorable senior trip to Blue Licks Battlefield in Maysville, KY. About 80 members of the senior class attended and all agreed it was a great experience. The students took snapshots of friends, played ball, and had a good time enjoying each others company. The memories made this day are the kind that won't soon be forgotten.

Movie Madness

With thousands of movies to choose from which one would you consider to be your favorite? Are you the type who likes a good romance or do you like the adrenaline rush that you get from an action packed film? Of course, there are the unforgettable comedies that star Jim Carey, Adam Sandler, Chris Rock, and many more talented actors. Many people would consider a classic like, Gone With the Wind and The Wizard of Oz as their favorite. With a new generation of movies out like, Hannibal and Save the Last Dance it is hard for people to choose their favorite. So we asked some students, "What is your favorite movie?"

HOME "SWEET" HOME

Story and Layout By: Kally Kappes

Let's face it, living in a small town can get boring...really BORING! Often it means being bored out of your mind because of lack of activities to do. And anyone who has grown up in Morehead, heck, even spent a weekend here, knows that things can get really dull!!

"Most of the time we all just sit around trying to think of things to do," said senior Wendy Ratliff.

"I usually just drive around looking for some excitement that I know isn't going to happen," stated junior Dustin Adams.

So to help you always remember those fun-filled weekends, we've compiled a list of the top ten things Rowan County students do for fun on the weekends.

10 - Play ball at the City Park

9 - Walk around Wal-Mart

8 - Sleep

7 - Rent movies with your pals

6 - Spend a day on the lake, when it's warm enough

5 - Go to local athletic events

4 - Watch a movie at University Cinema

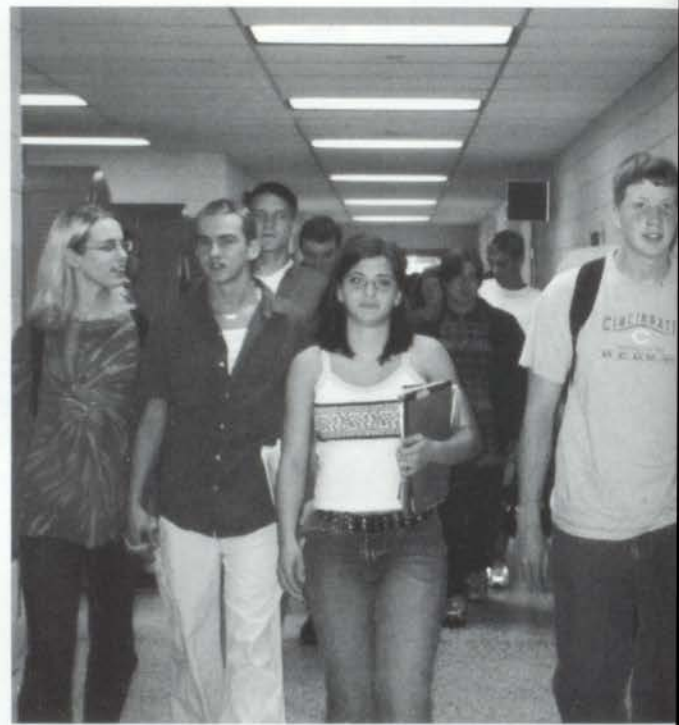

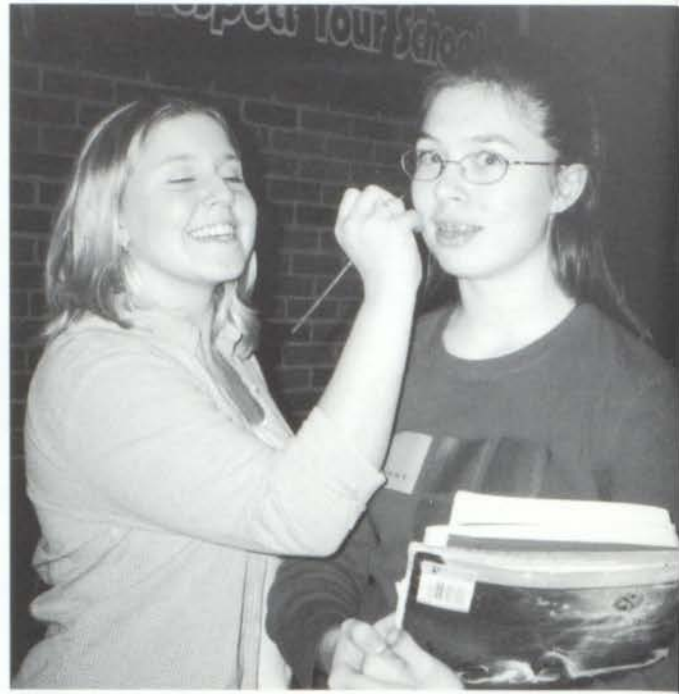

3 - Go to a party at a friend's house

2 - Cruise town

1 - Give up and go to Lexington

Life between Summer

HOW DO YOU RECOGNIZE A

How do you recognize a senior? Lets face it - they stand out! "Just look for the red marks on our faces from being asleep in class," says senior Candace Caldwell.

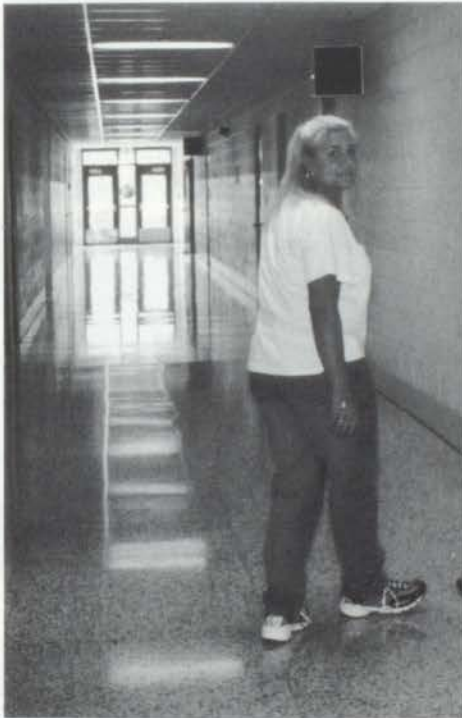

While underclassmen are scurrying around trying to turn in assignments on time, seniors have one thing on their minds: HOW AM I GOING TO GET OUT OF MY NEXT CLASS?! So we asked around. How DO you recognize a senior?

They're the ones that can't stop asking "How many more days until we're outta here?"

-Rebekah Black

They're the ones that have Mr. Hardin for three periods.

-Brett Redwine

Top left: Jessica Brown realizes she has been caught roaming the halls.

They wear their pajamas to school.

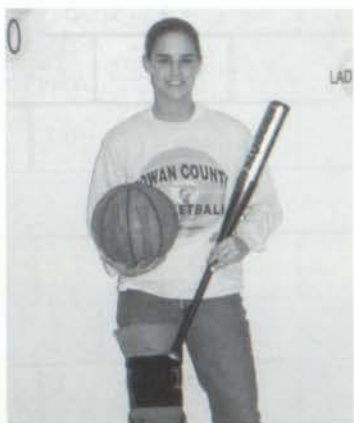

-Ms. Shannon Collins

We just don't care. We're late, roaming around the hall, and always asking to go to the bathroom.

Kally Kappes

Dear Tootse,

As early as 19 months old, we could see that independent streak wrapped up in your cuteness.

Good luck in all!

Love, Mom & Dad

Jason Hensley

Our Little Fisherman of Life's Sea

For the past 18 years, you've been fishing from the sea of life. Take all these life experience "catches" and use them to learn and grow. Let your heart be your guide. The little boy that loved to sit in front of the TV on Saturday mornings watching Papa Smurf while eating white powdered donuts has grown into a strong, handsome young man. Always know that your family loves you and will always be here to support you. God Bless and keep you in His care.

We love you! Mom, Dad, and Nikki

Courtney Law

Courtney,

You were always the little cheerleader so full of life with spirit, energy, determination, and spunk. You bring excitement, joy, and love into our lives every day. We are proud of the young lady you've become, as you are responsible, moral, honest, and trustworthy. Reach for the stars because the only limits or boundaries are those that you create. We wish you the best and brightest future. Good Luck!

Joseph Smoot

Joseph,

May great things be in store for your future. We are so very proud of you and wish you a lifetime of joy, happiness, and success.

We Love You,
Mom and Dad

Luke Swain

You are truly a blessing.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Dustin Gulley

We have watched you grow into a handsome young man who is funny, outgoing, kindhearted, and a wonderful son. I wish that there was some way to take credit for how well you have turned out, but actually you're terrific all on your own. Never doubt that you can do anything you want or become anything you want. Just look how well you have already done.

So look out world, Dustin has just begun.

We are proud of you and love you! Dad, Mom, Brad

Ryan Plank

You have always been a wonderful son! We love you and hope your future will be filled with happiness and success. It always will be if you remember Proverbs 3:5-6.

Love Mom, Dad, Josh, Andy and Eric

We are very proud of the person you have become. No matter what happens in your life, we have confidence in your ability to make the right choices. Always follow your dreams. We love you.

Mom, Dad, Amanda, Wesley, Gramma Andi, Pop-Pop & Mamaw Walker

Heather Smith

We have watched you mature into a wonderful young woman. We are so proud of what you have accomplished and that you are always your own person. Never doubt that you can do anything you want and become anything you want. This is the year that it is so hard growing up and meeting that challenging world that expects so much of your time away from us. I hope you always know that you still have us to always come home to and we're so proud to have you as a daughter.

Bo Dustin Franklin

Bo --

"Just a little boy who has been our joy." We're extremely proud of the young man you've become. Now, go out into this big world and make your dreams come true.

When we look at this picture, we remember how happy we were when you were born. Your brothers doted on you and you wrapped your Daddy around your little finger. Your Mommy loved having someone to dress in frilly dresses and to buy a Cabbage Patch doll for. As the years passed, you have developed into a person with strong beliefs and an immense capacity to love. You have gone from making unforgettable blackened chicken nuggets to elegant high teas. We could not love or admire you more! With all our love, Daddy, Mommy, Keith, and Kyle

Brett Arnett

Inch by inch, you're growing into a fine young man. You're about as tall as your Dad! We are so proud of you, Brett. In those moments when you felt alone, take comfort in knowing our hearts and God's hands were and will always be with you.

Love unconditionally, Mom, Dad, Brandy, Brooke and Blake

Taylor Bennett

It seems like it was just yesterday that you were playing in my make-up trying to be more grown up than you were.

Look at you now. What a beautiful young woman you have become. You make me so proud. I love you--Mom

You are off to a good start. You have my love, hope, and encouragement for the hurdles you have to face.

Friends Forever

PROMISE

A second grade snapshot:
Center, front row,
Hands on their knees,
pink dress and pink bow.

Three sunny faces
(with Jenni between)
Two promising cherubs--
Annie and Colleen.

Some promise is unbroken;
Some promises unkept
When joy trickles down
To oceans unwept.

Some melodies linger,
Refrains to be sung.
Some images age,
Some stay forever young.

Some lives are full albums;
Some snapshots in time,
As quick as the shutter,
But framed for all time.

So many gifts, so much promise;
So many wondering why,
Two fewer voices, too few smiles,
But two more lights in our sky.

Two more reasons why
Such promise is eternal.

-Lyric to song written by Jacob Mincey , Jason Gilliam, and Phillip Hogge

Rowan County Senior High Graduating Class of 2001

It matters not how long you live, but how.

"ALMA MATER"

In the midst of natural beauty lay

the halls so dear to me

For the minds of youth dedicated stay, our trust will always be.

For the knowledge found on this beauteous ground will grow eternally.

- Phillip Sheperd

I know we'll be friends for life, sharing our dreams together. As we walk down the road, we'll never think twice, our memories will last forever. And although we're off to different worlds, somehow we're together. And even though we're far apart, our memories are deep within our hearts. These are the times to remember, our memories will last forever.

“ QUOTABLE QUOTE ”

*A part of you has grown in me, together forever we shall be.
Never apart-maybe in distance, but never in heart.*

I hope you had the time of your life...

REMEMBER WHEN

7th period my freshman year Josh Caudill and I had IPC with a very special lady that we referred to as Marcum X.
-Andrew Zaheri

When Mr. Evans did his Lauryn Hill impression.
-Kellie Collins

The Homecoming football game my freshman year when the fans rushed the field after the game.

-Adam Sanders

The funniest thing was when Emali Walker and I snapped ourselves into the same coat during a fire drill and fell. We were rolling around trying to take the coat off while everyone formed a circle to watch.
-Heather Piccirillo

In Chemistry II, I flicked a match on Miss Hick's desk and it lit a stack of portfolio papers on fire. It left a burn mark on the folder but we got to it before any major damage was done.

-Jana Goodan

I'm supposed to remember stuff? I just want to graduate!
-Eric Biebighauser

I was "King of the Mat" my senior year during track season and I wasn't even on the track team.
-Michael Fultz

WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?

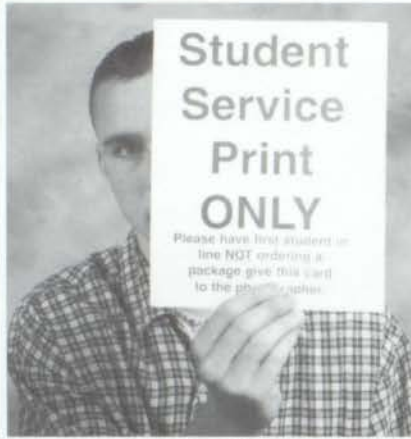

As graduation draws near, seniors are forced to ask themselves: "What do I want to do with my future?" While some are clueless, others have always known what career they want to pursue. "I have always wanted to go into graphic design," says Lindsey Bushong.

But some are still undecided on graduation day. "I have no idea what I want to be," says Wendy Ratliff. "Maybe I'll be a teacher or a psychologist or a computer programmer..."

Making Our Way Through Time

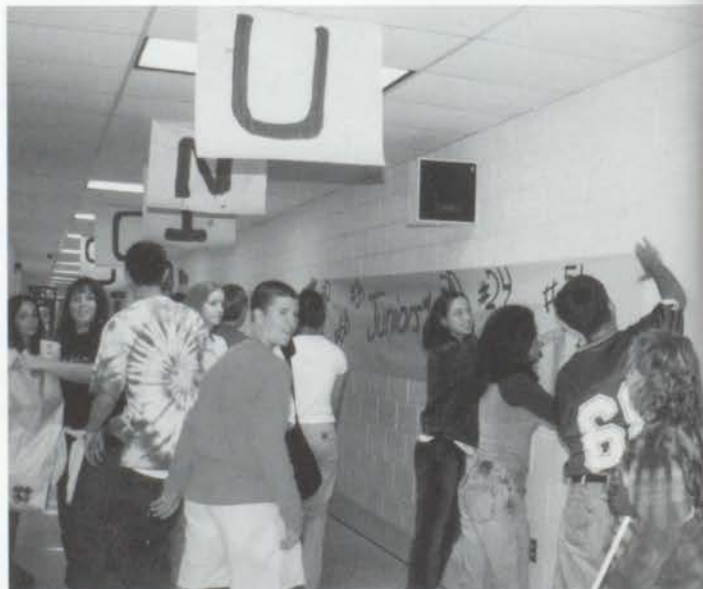

Being a Junior there are many things to look forward to throughout the year like receiving your licence, ordering class rings, participating in Junior Miss, decorating for the prom, going to our first prom. But on the other hand there are all of the things that we will not want to remember such as cramming for a test or fighting for the perfect parking spot. One day, the priceless moments of merely spending time with our friends and classmates will overshadow all other everything else.

It is my first Prom and I am soooo
excited -Ivy Oddis

“ I love being able to drive and get where I want to go when I want to go there ”
-Jenny York

Dishonesty in the classroom has always been a problem for teachers and students. In actuality the problem may be that we don't fully understand what Cheating really is.

Some may say that they would NEVER cheat. However, if you ask the same students if they ever copy work, or ask for an answer, most will say yes. So really, isn't that the same as copying a test or using a cheat sheet. Students, these days, have several different reasons for cheating. Some do it out of laziness, some because they don't know the material, others do it for the "thrill" of it, while some cheat just because they can. No matter what actions are taken, cheating will continue to be a nuisance. As long as students have the attitude of, "we'd rather cheat and get caught than fail on our own", teachers will be forced to crack down on their pupils.

NOTES ON YOUR PALM

THIS ONE IS AN ORIGINAL. STUDENTS SAY IT WORKS LIKE A CHARM, AS LONG AS YOUR PALMS DON'T SWEAT.

NOTES UNDER YOUR TEST

ONE OF THE MORE CHALLENGING METHODS. HOWEVER, IF YOU CAN PULL IT OFF, IT'S A SURE "A".

NOTES IN BACKPACK

HERE'S AN EXCELLENT METHOD FOR ALL THOSE "ACCIDENTAL" CHEATERS.

NOTES ON THE DESK

AFTER THE TEST, AN ERASER CLEARS AWAY ANY EVIDENCE.

CLASS OF
2003

The Times They Are A Changin'

Your palms sweat, your mouth is dry, and you have butterflies in your stomach. You're not about to be executed, even though you would rather be, you're a freshman in high school.

I have heard the expression little fish in a big pond but this is more like plankton in the Pacific Ocean. You are the smallest with the least power and respect. There are a lot more people than before and they all seem to have their own little groups of friends. You feel like an outsider. So freshmen stick together in their own little groups hoping to fit in.

The high school is a new place with new faces, new teachers, and new challenges for the class of 2004.

Just wait till next year!

Shwanita Long's biggest fear as a freshman was getting lost.

Matt Williams was afraid that he would not enjoy the lunches.

Nervous that his older brother, Mark, would pick on him, Shane Adkins was leary about entering high school.

Joel Hamm came from a private school setting into the high school during the third nine weeks. He was worried about being accepted.

Bastian Bischoff

Bastian Bischoff, seventeen, is from Frankfurt, Germany. Bastian enjoys playing basketball on intramural teams and listening to music. Although he says that people here in Kentucky are really cool, he misses his grandmother's cooking in Germany. Also on the subject of Kentucky, Bastian says that he enjoys the lack of violence and the abundance of space in Morehead. "My mom would love it here, but I think it is a little too quiet." Bastian's future plans include finishing school in Germany, but is still not sure where to go from there.

Sarah Schenk

Sarah Valentina Schenk, age 18 of Resia, Italy, enjoys playing soccer, dancing, and snowboarding. Although she misses her family and friends very much, she states that she will never forget the friendliness of the people here. The Rowan County Senior High School Marching Band earned two proficient and two distinguished ratings this season, a record of which they are proud. These recognitions were the reward for over three hundred sixty hours of practice, including the Morehead State University camp in which they drilled eight hours daily. They competed at Boyd, Campbell, Morgan, and Morehead State competitions in the Class AA division and hosted the Cream of the Crop competition. Jennifer Cummins and Virginia Weaver directed the band as drum majors. This year band members played African melodies.

Writing the Stories of our Life

Viking Voice

Story and Layout By: Kally Kappes

Over the past school year, the staff of the school newspaper has put a lot of time and hard work into making 8 issues of the Viking Voice. The students have had to not only learn how to write editorials, commentaries, and news stories, but they've had to find their own story ideas and edit the paper before it was printed. All of the class members have written and rewritten their stories until they were perfect. The Viking Voice featured a new Classified Ad section, an extremely funny April Fools insert, and a memory-filled Senior Salute edition. The staff, and hopefully you, feel that the Viking Voice was at its best this time around!

BEATING THE CLOCK

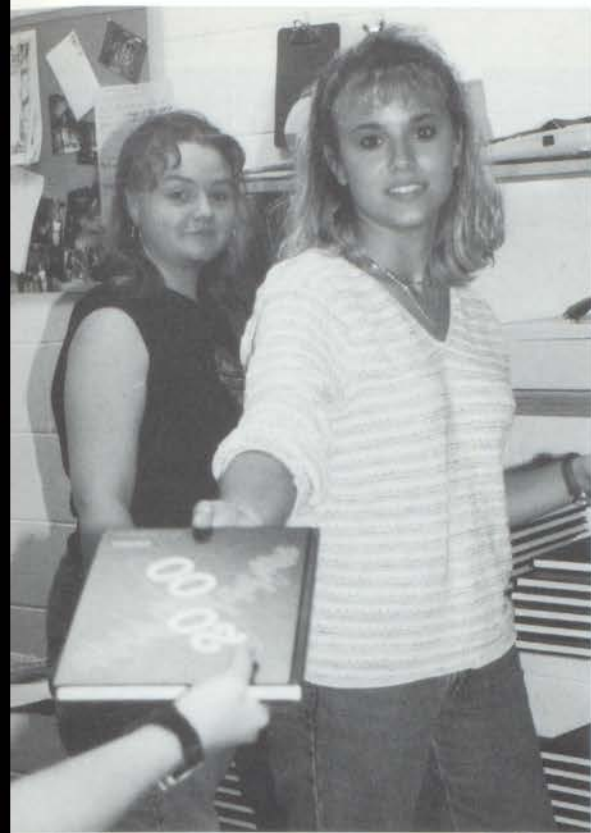

After months of searching through pictures, drawing layouts, and meeting deadlines, the yearbook staff finally finished this book. We hope that you can look back at the 2001 yearbook and remember the TIME OF YOUR LIFE. Whether your memories were funny, sad, exciting, or stressful, we all have something to cherish.

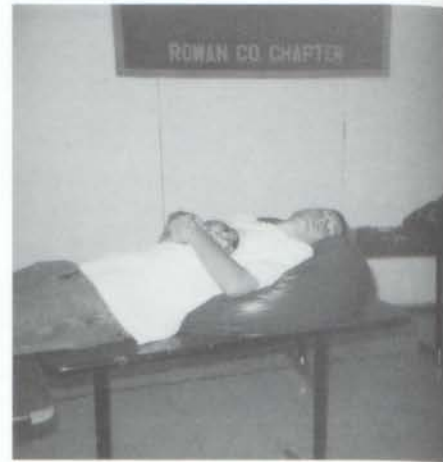

The yearbook staff began diligently working in August and didn't let up until June to make this book the best ever.

VOLLEYBALL

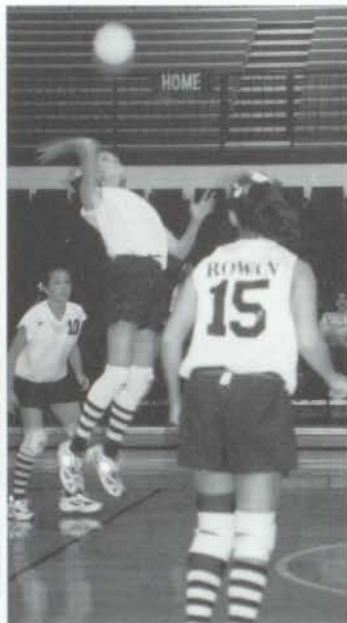

The Rowan County Lady Vikings finished the season with a varsity record of 21-17, a junior varsity record of 14-5, and a freshman record of 12-3. The junior varsity defeated several varsity teams and the freshmen defeated many junior varsity teams and even successfully faced a few varsity clubs. Injury posed a threat which benched several players at crucial points in the season. However, the Vikings still managed to come out ahead, placing second in districts, losing only to arch-rival Russell. The Lady Vikings were eliminated in the Region by Tates Creek. The freshmen attended the Tournament and placed second overall losing only to Woodford. Players that made all-tournament teams throughout the season included Kayla Messer, Ashley Markwell, Bekah Black, and Samantha Rice. Players receiving awards at the banquet included: Ashley Markwell (Best Offensive and MVP), Jennifer Hitch (Best Defensive), Jenny York (110% Award), Laura Franzini (Most Improved), Bekah Black (Leadership Award), and Amy Wright (Seventh Player Award). Several players were also recognized for their outstanding academic achievements on the first annual Varsity All-Academic Team. Great season girls!!!

The girls show a lot of talent and that only bodes well for us. We are really going to be good in the future and there will be no weak years to come if we continue to work hard.

Viking Pride

The 2000 season brought on new changes and a new tradition. Leading the Vikings on was Head Coach Ray Ginter. He brought with him some new coaches including two former players Jeremy Taylor and Gary Thomas, along with some of last year's coaches, Terry Chin, Denny Brown, Dave Morris, Bill Tackitt, and Jay Padula. The Vikings finished up the season 2-8, breaking the losing streak!

This year's Viking Football Team was led by seniors Brian Little, Tyler Brewer, Kelly Sergent, Billy Wheeler, Nick Gough, Jesse Hodges, Lloyd Oakley, David Thomas, and Adam Sanders.

Commenting on this year's season, Coach Ginter said, "I am very proud of the young men who played on the 2000 Rowan County Senior High School Football Team. I believe that the game of football provides an environment that enables its participants to endure hardships, overcome challenges, and promote cooperation and team work, much like the requirements of every day life as an adult. These young men demonstrated each of these qualities and have proven that they have what it takes to be successful."

VIKING FOOTBALL '00

Golf . . . "Fore" Life

The 2000 Girl's golf season was full of improvements and milestones. Led by senior Krista Buckler, the Vikings experienced the expected 50-50 win/loss record. Teams like Ashland and Russell were just too strong to defeat. Krista shot a career-low 32 against Ashland's #1 (the region's #2 player) this season. Right behind Krista, and improving for yet another year, was junior Amy Stevens. Amy's best performance came during the last day of the EKC Tournament, helping the team to win second place, beating rival Fleming County. Kelli Calvert was the team's other junior member, and finishing off the team were newcomers Elizabeth Maggard(senior) and Brittany Jones(freshman). The season was overall a success except for the 12-hour rain-drenched Regional Tournament where the girls finished 5th. Although the Regional Tournament was a difficult ending for Krista and Elizabeth, it served as an excellent inauguration for Brittany.

The 2000 Boy's golf team had a successful year with the outstanding play from all members. Adam Robinson, Jesse McHugh, and Jon Sanning were the juniors that held the team together, while sophomores J.P. Tranbarger and Chris Wardlow and freshman Lee Chaney rounded out the team. At the EKC Western Division, J.P. had an exceptional round winning the Qualifier with a score of 34 (2 under par). Placing 4th at the EKC finals, the team headed for Regionals with high hopes. After an exhausting day the team finished 4th at the Regional Tournament, and with a fabulous round score of 75, Lee Chaney qualified for State. Good job Vikings!

The Rowan County boy's cross country team enjoyed great success this season. Finishing fourth in the region and eleventh in the state, the team surpassed Coach Wright's expectations. "The team's finish was a very pleasant surprise and all of our members will be returning next year," commented Wright. The team placed third in the EKC championship and third in the KYOVC.

Beulah McKinney pulls ahead of the pack at the state meet.

"Our main focus this year was to build our team and work on the basic training to become good runners", Coach Sergent reported. The girl's team faced an uphill battle this year with only one returning runner and only five runners total. The team ran well at every meet, and exhibited Viking spirit no matter how formidable the challenge.

The Best Season

This year the basketball Vikings had their best season ever. This season could have been predicted by their December win over the defending 61st district champs, Morgan County. The Vikings continued on to finish the season with an amazing record of 28-5. Along the way they captured the EKC championship and the 61st district championship. Our Vikings battled on to the 16th regional championship, but suffered a narrow defeat, losing only by two points to Ashland.

Senior night marked Chris Sparks' 1,000th career point. "Coach told us we still had to come out and handle it like it was any other game, and he wanted us to mostly work on our defense," Sparks said.

Coach Daniel described this as a "Great season," and said, "I'm proud of these boys, and the community should be proud too."

We're proud of you, Vikings!

This year the Viking and Lady Viking tennis teams had a very successful season. The teams did have their fair share of both wins and losses, but one thing is for certain; both the teams had many new faces show up this year which will lead to very strong teams in the future.

Led by Coach Collins, all the Lady Vikings made it through the first round of the regional tournament and all players except Senior Christy Parr will be returning next year. This only shows how bright the future is for the girls tennis team. The Vikings, led by Coach Brown had a very successful season, only to have bad luck at the end of the year at the regional tournament in Ashland. Next year the Vikings will have to cope with losing their No. 1 and No. 4 assets but with all the new faces, the team should bounce back quickly.
