THE KENTUCKY VENDETTA

July Events

The Kentucky Vendetta, which annually occurred in July, was examined on June 6, 1856, near the head, Harrods County, Kentucky, during a massacre. The events were described in detail by a witness who was present at the time.

The attack was carried out by a group of men, including John Martin, who was leading the assault. The victim, Joshua fish, was killed in the attack. Martin and his gang then fled the scene, leaving the body behind.

The attack was part of a vendetta feud between opposing groups in the area. The feud began over a dispute about land ownership.

The attack was widely reported in the press, and caused a stir in the region. Martin was later convicted of murder and was sentenced to life in prison.
