Living

"There is always one moment in childhood when the door opens and lets the future in."

—Graham Greene

"May you live everyday of your life."

—Jonathan Swift

In the Moment

"We must not allow the clock and the calendar to blind us to the fact that each moment of life is a miracle and mystery."

—H.G. Wells

DARE

TO BE DIFFERENT

Homecoming week is a very special time for students here at Rowan County Senior High. It gives everyone a chance to change their everyday attire to something a little more interesting. The Pep club decides the theme for each day: Monday- camo, Tuesday- hippie, Wednesday- patriotic, Thursday- Hawaiian, and Friday- spirit.

Below: Emily Walker has Viking spirit.

Right: Patricia Bowling, Candace Fitzpatrick, and Lindsey Kelly bring out their groovy side on hippie day.

Lady

The "Girls" from LAR: Brian Scott, Ross Wallen, John Cornett, Chris Carew, Frank White.

Powder Puff Court has been a tradition at RCSHS for many years. How many times do you see guys dress like girls just to see if they can win the affection of the students? Not very often, which is why "The Court" is so much fun. Continuing the tradition, we crowned the 2002-2003 Powder Puff Queen, Frank "Debbie" White. "Debbie" commented after the game, "I feel honored the student body would choose me over the other sexy chicks to represent RCSHS as the new Powder Puff Queen. Although, c'mon look at me, I am one sexy beast."

Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?

Have you ever thought about what it would be like to be Joe Millionaire, having anything you wanted? How would you feel if you won a million dollars? What would you buy? Would you head right over to Tiffany's or out to buy one of those cars they call Ferraris? After surveying RCHS students and staff, well, we decided that a million dollars doesn't really go that far after all.

Buy a Bentley - Tim Staton

I would buy a life time supply of crazy straw - Chase Price

I would buy a Hummer and a house - Brice Gulley

A million dollars worth of trees - Mr. Goldsmith

I would buy as much of Southern Florida as I could - Sarah Quillen

Mercedes Benz with a sound system - Jimmy Justice

Living It Up

Homecoming 2002

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

The 2002 Sadie Hawkins Show returned to its traditional roots thanks to the new Anchor club sponsor Mrs. Penny Alderman. This was her first year working with the Sadie Show. The Daisy Mae and Li'l Abner Skits turned out to be very successful: Freshmen Kayla Blanton and Sean Plank; Sophomores: Emily Eversole and Adam Butler; Juniors: M'Shae Alderman, Megan Sloan, and Matt Williams; Seniors: Robbie Ginter and Joy White. The junior skit won for best Daisy Mae and Li'l Abner. In addition to the student participants in the show were the 80's Ladies: Mrs. Whalen, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Sergent, Mrs. Daniel, Mrs. Burton, Mrs. Howes, and Mrs. Guy.

Mrs. Alderman said, "I was really concerned about the rumors of 2:00 a.m. practices but my goal was to finish practice at 10:00 p.m. We made the goal and the show flowed without many glitches. I could not have done this show without the help of so many students. They were so helpful and kept the show running smoothly. Chris Wilson was, a God-sent with his past experience, as was Stephen Rasche. I was surprised that we had so much time left. I was directed to plan 15 acts. We could have had more, but I believe the time element was due to the students being so well organized themselves. I worried needlessly. Considering it was a first, things went well."

BACK

Livin' on Love

"A relationship is like a rose, How long it lasts, no one knows; Love can erase an awful past, Love can be yours, you'll see at last; To feel that love, it makes you sigh, To have it leave, you'd rather die; You hope you've found that special rose, 'Cause you love and care for the one you chose."

2003

Vinicius Souza

Above: Vinicius is 16 years old. He came here from Brazil, and he likes surfing and soccer. He misses his friends and his family back home. After high school he plans on going to college to become a lawyer. He likes the American girls.

Coming to America

Alexa Madariaga

Above: Alexa is 17. She is from Cucuta, Colombia. Her favorite sports include swimming, running track and cross-country, as well as golf. The things she misses from home are her family, the food, the clothes, and the people there. After graduating high school, she plans on attending medical school. Alexa says that the things she likes about America are the snow because she likes to play in it, the changes of seasons, the teachers, and the family she lives with.

Silvester Milucky

Left: Silvester is 17 years old, from Slovakia. He likes to play soccer. What he misses about home is his friends and family. When asked what he likes about America he says "It has been an adventure." When he gets out of high school, he is going to go back home.

Right: Juliette is from the West Coast of France. She is 16 years old. When asked what she missed about France she said, "The food and the bread." After she gets out of high school, she wants to go to college and become a pharmacist. Juliette says, "America is good." She also likes the schooling. The schools are so much different from the ones in France. Her favorite sport is soccer.

The students in Mrs. Greer's 5th and 6th period art classes and Mr.Hargis' Applied Business Math classes held a Japanese tea ceremony for their classes. Some Japanese students that are currently enrolled at Morehead State University helped with the tea ceremony.

The students were required to learn three phrases and two greetings. "It was much more successful than I had anticipated it would be because of all the days we missed for snow and ice," Greer stated. "I was also surprised by how much we all learned."

The students learned how to make Raku rice bowls and Kimonos. Hargis said that, "Since RCSHS tested 10% below national average in fine arts, I agreed to do the Kimonos," He also wanted to do something that would involve students in fine arts.

Hargis and Greer look forward to planning this again next year.

What Life Has in Store for Us....

Everyone wonders what the future holds in store for them. As we get older and progress through school, we really start to ponder where we will be and what we will be doing when we begin our own lives. Then finally when we become the "Top Dog" we begin to realize time is getting short. When asking the Seniors of 2003 where they thought they would be in ten years, the answers received were shocking, yet funny.

Matt Duff - With the one I love. Awwwwwwwww

Todd Butler - In Hawaii on the porch, watching my steak cook.

Sara Stone - Out of Morehead, skinny and a Victoria's Secret Model. Eat your heart out!

Brenna Ramsey - Married, with a great job and one child.

Joe Griefenstine - Alive and well.

Tori Brown - Making major money, married, and raising beautiful children.

Amy Brewer - Working as an accountant, married, and with children.

Jason Stamm - At the envy of my peers.

Nicki Lowe - A politician who will probably be assassinated because of my beliefs.

Brianna Swetnam - Drowning in debt from my student loans.

Robbie Criswell - A professional cheerleader with Mr. Hart (then it will be a sport).

English IV: Scott Nettleton, Stan Ingold, Lauren Abner, Joy White, Jason Stamm, Byron Mabry, Nicki Lowe, Alisha Trenalone, Emily Brown.

Making It Happen!

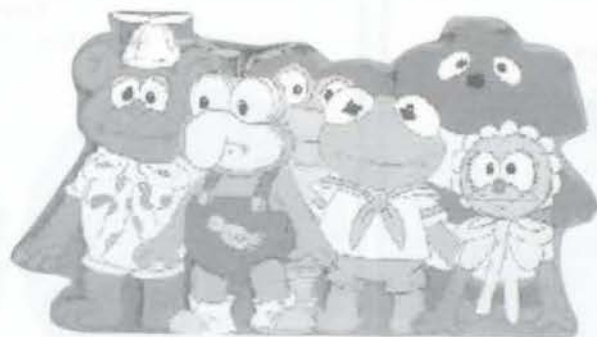

Youth Service Center

The Youth Service Center offers quite a variety of services for the students here at RCSHS. They also sponsor many activities like the No Drug Club, Health Fair, and Project Prom. Mrs. Carol Turner has also been thinking about ideas for new activities all year long. Right now she says that she is interested in trying out a new exercise program for students after school which might include yoga.

"80s Babies"

James, you are one of our greatest blessings and you have grown up so fast. (Phillipians 1:13: I can do all things through Christ Who gives me strength.) We believe in you. We know you can do anything. Congratulations, We love you!

James Hanson

You were our very special child, always curious about everything and giving us such joy watching you learn and grow. Now you're eighteen and graduating from high school and becoming a young adult. We have high hopes for your bright future and new beginnings.

Love You Todd,
Mom & Dad

Todd Butler

Who would believe that you have made it this far? You have the love of everyone from near and far away. One of you dreams of being a rock star; the other, a famous athlete. Whatever you may choose, we will love and support you always because you are two very special people. Good luck in whatever you do; make us proud!

Love, Mom and Dad-Mamaw and Papaw

Stephanie Chesshire

Jonathan Cornett

Seems like only yesterday that you were born.
A sweet little angel, so cuddly, soft and warm.
Many times I think to myself where did all the time go?
The precious little baby I held in my arms is now eighteen years old.
A blessing sent from God-when He gave you to me.
Tiffany wherever you go there my love for you will always be,
You are of age now-to be on your own, always remember there's no place like home.

Tiffany Jent

Your dad and I want only what's best for you.

I pray that God will bless you and keep you in everything that you do.

Many things in your life will change, as you begin to face the world.

To your dad and I you will always be our precious baby girl.

So much more that I could say. Just know you will always be loved as you are today.

Love always, Mom and Daddy

Congratulations,

We think you are so cool and a wonderful son.

We love you with all our hearts.
Mom, Dad, Jason, and little brother C.J.

B.J. Branham

Bear, you have made us very proud. Words can not describe what you mean to us. When you become an actor with your name up in lights, keep your heart true to the "Keeper of the Stars." P.S. Keep all of your acceptance speeches short!

Love You Son!

HITTING THE BOOKS

There's no doubt about it, if you want the grade, you have to study. If there was a way around it, I'm sure we would have already tried. But the fact of the matter is, it has to be done and it's not fun. Here at RCSHS our students have come up with very interesting ways of studying. Some people think that the halls are the perfect place to study. Then there are others who prefer the traditional desk. Some like to study in the comfort of their own homes. And still there are some who think it is possible to "dream" about studying.

WORDS

are not enough

?? How do you learn ??

Have you ever had a class that you just could not get no matter how hard you studied? It might be that you are not that kind of thinker. There are eight multiple intelligences. Interested in what kind of learner you are? Check these out below:

Interpersonal

BODILY-KINESTHETIC:
The capacity to use the whole body to express oneself.

INTERPERSONAL:
The ability to understand, engage, empathize, and deal with other people.

NATURALIST:
The ability to recognize and classify elements in the living world.

INTRAPERSONAL:
Being able to understand your own abilities and feelings and to act on them.

LINGUISTIC:
The ability to use oral or written languages efficiently.

LOGICAL/MATHEMATICAL:
The ability to reason and manipulate numbers.

SPATIAL OR VISUAL:
The ability to perceive the visual world and accurately reinterpret it.

MUSICAL:
The ability to perceive, create, and express music through composing and performing.

In Loving Memory
Samuel Edward Gregory

1983-2002

WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

When tomorrow starts without me, And I'm not there to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, All filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry, The way you did today
While thinking of the many things, We didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, As much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too,

But when tomorrow starts without me, Please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name, And took me by the hand.

And said my place was ready, In heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind, All those I dearly love.

But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home,
When God looked down and smiled at me, From His great golden throne.

He said, "This is eternity, And all I've promised you
Today for life on earth is past, But here it starts anew."

I promise no tomorrow, For today will always last,
And since each day's the same way, There's no longing for the past.

So when tomorrow starts without me, Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.

The RCSHS Science Club participated in their annual Earth Day cleanup. They picked up trash along Highway 519, recently adopted by fundraising last year. Then afterward, the club went to Cave Run Lake where garbage was gathered as well. Earth Day is April 22 and the Science Club cleans our lake to honor this day. Not only is this experience educational, but it is fun as well. Taking care of the environment has never been done in a better and more exciting way. RCSHS should be extremely honored to have such a community based club in the school.

Win With Wood

The Industrial Communications and Construction Technology classes participated in the statewide woods competition held at Hazard Community College. They competed in events such as: compass and pacing, wood identification, and construction projects. Matt Duff was the overall winner in woodworking and Chris Hogg placed 3rd. RCSHS also had many individual winners as well.

This year marked a new and improved personality for the Viking Voice. Along with filling its pages with the usual, expected news stories and articles, the staff included other entertaining and sometimes controversial pieces of work. Editorials were common inside, covering anything from the school's no piercing rule to whether reciting the Pledge of Allegiance at school is constitutional. Teachers even got in on the fun with Mr. Hart and Mr. Walters sounding off on personalized top 10 lists. The staff reverted to once a month, larger publications this year. Students and teachers alike took an interest in the contents of each issue and looked forward to what they would read next.

This year's staff has worked extremely hard to compile a book full of your high school memories. We are very proud of our accomplishments this year and we are pleased with what we have created. Even though many stressful days were at hand, we made it through it in one piece. Isn't that right Robbie? We hope you look back upon this book with an abundance of lively memories and nostalgic feelings.

GOT SPORTS?

Another Moment In The Spotlight

This year the ladies started the season with some very tough teams, such as Paul Dunbar, and Lafayette. They had an overall record of twenty-three wins and thirteen losses. This year's Vikings became the first ever EKC champions winning against West Carter, Fairview, and Morgan Co. They took on the title of the 24th District Champions once again. The ladies competed in their tenth straight Regional Tournament.

Coach's Corner

As always I enjoyed coaching these ladies in the past years. In many ways watching them become strong young women dwarves the winning and losing. I always try my best to help them toward this end. I would like to thank all of you that supported me this year and I certainly hope that I can continue to coach and mentor the players for many years to come.

For a Great Season!

The Girl's season had a rough start with only one returning golfer to an already short-handed team. The team captain, Brittany Jones, still managed to pull out a 6th place finish in the region.

Struggling at the beginning of the season, the Rowan County Boy's Golf Team took great steps in improving an inexperienced golf team. Led by J.P. Tranbarger, a returning senior, the Vikings took a victory at Paintsville Country Club and, with outstanding play, won the EKC Tournament at Fleming County. Lee Chaney advanced to the state tournament.

The Lady Vikings cross country team was a little smaller than usual this year, with only four runners. This factor made it impossible for them to compete as a team. However, they were still successful. Each runner worked hard to attain their own individual goals.

The girls competed in various meets throughout the year. On weekdays, they had small meets at surrounding counties and on weekends they attended larger meets. The Lady Vikings also competed in Regionals at Grant County. Senior Jessica Parish finished 40th, senior Tamara Parish finished 42nd, and sophomore Alex Hunley finished 20th, earning her a spot in the state competition. At the State meet in Lexington, Alex finished 76th.

According to Senior Tamara Parish, this cross country season was full of fun, leaving many memories for the girls to take with them.

This season's edition of the Boy's Cross Country Team began with a loss before the first race was run. The potential number one runner moved to another district shortly after school had commenced. The rest of the team, which was dominated by freshmen and middle school runners, worked hard to overcome this early setback.

"The most satisfying aspect of this past season was the steady improvement of all the guys as the season progressed", reflected Coach Wright. "We seemed to reach our peak in the last two meets, the regional and the state championships. That is exactly what we strive for every year."

The Viking Harriers finished fourth in the Region 6, Class AA Championship and took the last spot for team qualifiers to advance to the State Championship.

The Viking runners including the lone senior, Chris Carew, saved their best for last. Chris led the team to a tenth place finish in the State Championship Meet. Chris had the most outstanding race of his high school career and finished in 51st place in the field of 233 runners.

The Varsity cheerleading squad began their season in May of 2002, when they held summer practices to prepare to head off to UCA cheerleading camp. The squad received three superior ribbons at camp. Two girls from the squad were named to the UCA All-Stars, Valerie Wallace and Kim Alderman. During the basketball season, the squad placed first in the District and KAPOS (Regional) competition. This qualified them for the state competition.

The Lady Vikings ended the year with a 19-10 record. They were crowned District champs for the fourth year in a row. Named to the All-Tournament team were Joy White, Amanda Alderman, and Suzanne Brown. MVP was Melanie Cornett. The ladies then extended their post-season play to the semi-finals of regionals. Suzanne Brown was named to the All-Region team. Throughout the regular season play, the Lady Vikings were ranked #1 in rebounding in the state, averaging about 49.3 per game. The difference in this year's crew was that they were very team oriented, making them all-around stronger than their competition. With a season like this, Coach Collins has many years of great basketball in the future.

Welcome To The Jungle

Brian Scott has played basketball for eleven years. His most memorable moment is going to regional finals his sophomore year.

J.P. Tranbarger has played basketball for four years. His most memorable moment was going to the Regional Finals his sophomore year.

Matt Jones most memorable moment was his enjoyable Senior season.

Steven Kidd has played basketball for nine years. His most memorable moment was winning the District Tournament his Junior year.

The Rowan County Vikings 2002-2003 basketball season was filled with ups and downs. The vikings started their season with a big loss to Morgan County and a 12 point win over Bath County. During the season, our Vikings played Mason County, the state champions, and Spring Valley, who was rated number one in West Virginia. They continued to play hard even in the face of tough competition. The four seniors on the team: Matt Jones, Brian Scott, J.P. Tranbarger and Steven Kidd, helped lead us to the first round of the Regional Tournament. Steven Kidd, a new addition to the Vikings, made a great contribution to the team and scored about 25.4 points per game. The Vikings closed the season with a 12- 16 record.

The track team went to UK for the Finals on Friday, May 30. The boy's track team placed 3rd in state. Senior Brian Scott placed first in the state in the long jump. Junior Sam Mincey won state in the 110 and 300 meter hurdles. The girls were ranked 23rd in the state. The seniors on the team are Brian Scott, Daniel Fultz, Jessica Parish, Joy White, Frank White, Alexandra Madariaga, and Kim Alderman. They did a good job during the season. Freshman Sarah Barr says, "This was my first year of running and it went really well. I really enjoyed the coaching from coach Wright. I think he did a wonderful job. I really enjoyed the team mates. The team did really well this season." Freshman Maegan Gilvin, "This was my first year running and the team was really patient with their new teammates. We as a team did really well."

This year's team defeated arch rival Morgan County in the District tournament 9-1 and brought the trophy back home where it belongs. At press time the Vikings were battling rain delays in anticipation of a wide-open regional tournament this year. The team was led by a close group of seven seniors: Chase Armstrong, Todd Butler, Chris Carew, Matt Duff, Aaron Eldridge, Robbie Ginter and J.P. Tranbarger.

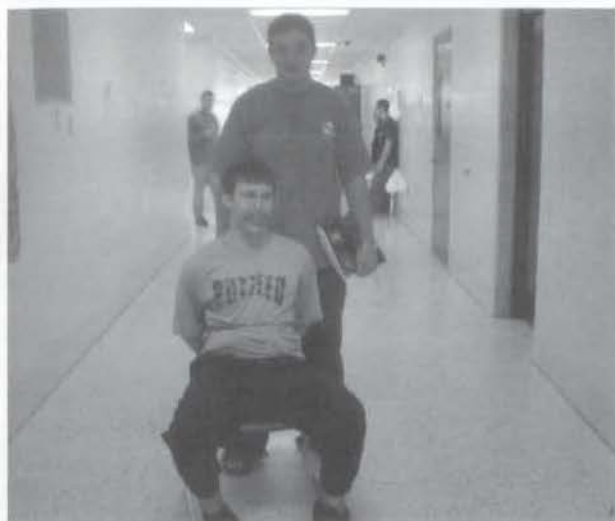

Wanna Go For A Swim?

Guess what's new here at RCSHS? Just two weeks before the end of the 2002-2003 high school swim season, it became official. We now have our very own swim team. While eight students participated; three students swam in high school sanctioned meets and two students swam in regional competition. The RCSHS swim team placed 17th of 21 teams competing in the Region V championship. Go Vikings! Who knows maybe we'll be getting our own swimming pool soon.

THE CLUMSY CUSTARD HORROR SHOW

The stage performance class entertained us again this year with the play "The Clumsy Custard Horror Show." This play is a hilarious comedy. The King Dumb, John Lambertson, is ready for his daughter to select a husband and all the Knights are anxious to claim her hand. But the sweet Princess Prince, Paula Prince, has fallen for a gentle yet courageous lad, James Hansen, whom she assumes to be a pauper. Little does she know that he is a Swashbuck Valpariso, bearer of the magic sword and Master of Fast Feet.
