

CONTRACTS ARE LET FOR ROWAN COUNTY ROADS

Three Suits are Filed in Rowan

With the opening of work on the Wagner stone-bridge road within a few days, and with work in the Sandy Hook Louisa Highway getting under way, as well as the contract for surfacing the Rodburn-Sandy Hook road as far as Wagoner's store, highway work in this county has reached the peak of operations.

The Flemingburg Highway which has been under construction since last fall is making marvelous headway and is expected to be completed, so far as the grade and drain is concerned, some time this winter. This road is undoubtedly one of the most important, if not the most important for this county, outside of the Midland trail, since it opens a vast section of Kentucky to a direct route to the Ohio River. The Flemingburg road will cut approximately 50 miles from the distance to Mayeville and other points. It will easily bring Morehead and Rowan county at least an hour's travel closer to Cincinnati and will open up a short route to Elliott county farmers to a market for their products.

From the viewpoint of the Morehead State Teachers College it will bring new students who heretofore have been at close to other schools as they have to Morehead, in spite of the fact that they have resided at least fifty miles closer to this city.

There is a strong light at the intersection of these two streets and some controversy whether Smith or Williams wasjaywalking against the signal. Smith did not stop after the accident, but continued on to the fire it is charged.

When the Louisa Sandy Hook road is completed it will also be a short cut to students and travelers from the Big Sandy country to this city.

W. Harlan Powers, Morehead and J. C. Hamilton, Mt. Sterling are representing the defense counsel in the suit and Clay and Hogge the plaintiffs.

The Wrigley road which is intended to eventually connect West Liberty and Morgan county with this county, will also prove to be of great benefit. At present, residents of West Liberty and Morgan county have but one highway outlet, the Garrett High-

The Morehead and North Fork Railway Company was sued for $50,000 by Ruth Howard through her next friend, Denny Howard. Miss Howard's leg was severed on July 27 by one of the railway cars. M. L. Wilson is the attorney for the plaintiff in this proceeding.

Probably the most noticeable improvement being made in the highways of the county at present are those being made on the Midland Trail from Morehead to Farmers.

Suit has been filed for Creed Norman against W. C. Wingfield for $2,500 personal injuries $100 medical fees and $200 damages to automobile. The plaintiff alleges that Wingfield smashed into his car at Farmers bridge on Rowan side, demolishing the automobile and inflicting serious injuries upon him.

The entire stretch is being resurfaced. The road is being widened to 18 feet. Every bridge and culvert along the stretch is also being widened to conform to the new width of the highway.

Howe alleges that Wingfield was driving at the time of the accident.

Only a small part of the highway has been actually completed but this

HAS ORIGINAL PAPER PRINTED IN YEAR 1800

Elmer R. Collins, who is employed at the Sanitary Barber Shop is the owner of one of the really old newspapers of the United States, having in his possession a copy of the Ulster County Gazette, published on January 1, 1800. The paper belonged originally to his great grand father. The paper must be seen to be appreciated. News in those days was of a different nature, with foreign news at a premium.

Peratts Return From Year in N. Y.

Prof. and Mrs. C. S. Peratt and daughter, Frances returned to Morehead Tuesday night after having spent the past year in New York City, where Prof. Peratt has just completed the residence work on his Ph. D. degree. They were accompanied by Mrs. Peratt's sister, Mrs. Thos. M. Smith of New York, by Mr. Smith and their nephew, Fisher Griffin of Caryville, who is a former student of Morehead State Teachers College, now attending the University of New York.

Vikings Begin Football Practice

Well it won't be long now! All ye football fans can begin to get ready to commence to talk about prospects for the coming season, so far as the Vikings are concerned, for the first go round of practice took place on Monday of this week. It wasn't much of a practice but it helped to get the boys up and coming. Naturally real practice will not begin until after school opens on Monday, September 5. Most of the squad are working and will work up until the time school opens, so it will be impossible to do more than are able to take part in the practices.

On Wednesday the party went to Caryville to visit relatives and will return here to make their home. Mr. Griffin will return to New York for the senior year's work. This year Prof. Peratt is head of the History department of the Morehead State Teachers College.

Miss O'Rear is Bride of Mr. Hoffman

The marriage of Miss Louise Coleman Orear to Thomas Grubbs Hoffman was solemnized at 8 o'clock Thursday, evening at the First Baptist Church in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

The Rev. Olus Hamilton officiated with the impressive ring ceremony. The chancel was hanked with ferns and greenery, combined with sprays of white hydrangea and white gladioli and was lighted with tall cathedral candles. The pews set aside for relatives and closest friends were marked with white drangena blooms and bows of white tulle.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Jack Burbridge, the bridal party entering the church to the Wedding March from Lohengrin.

The bridesmaids, Misses Laura Gill Hoffman, Lucille Catlett and Anne Wade Brown, entering the right door, advanced singly down the aisle, followed by the matron of honor, Mrs. John G. McCormick. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Bettie DeGoller, of Cambridge, Ohio, followed by the tiny flower girl, Adelaide McCormick, wearing a dainty frock of pink organdie and carrying an old fashioned rose gay in a paper frill.

Prominent Man Dies Suddenly

John B. Denues, 60, prominent Olive Hill resident and former merchant, died there at his home Monday morning at 11 o'clock from a heart attack.

Mr. Denues was one of the best known men in that city and had long been identified with the business life of the community and his death came as a distinct shock to his relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held from the M. E. Church Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock with Rev. Logan in charge. Burial was made in the Olive Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Denues was the father of Mrs. Walker Miller formerly of Morehead, now of Cynthia, and a brother of Mrs. Allen of Lexington, Mrs. Allen and her daughter, Mrs. Festus Hall were in Morehead Wednesday on their way to the funeral.

To Open Furniture Store on Saturday

Morehead's newest place of business will be open to the public on Saturday of this week, according to an announcement in this issue of the News, when the new furniture store under the management and ownership of J. Flood and Sons will be open to receive visitors.

The new store is located in the A. B. McKinney Building on Fairbanks Street, in the room formerly occupied by the Grocery Department of the A. B. McKinney Store.

Mr. Flood is placing a complete line of furniture and household equipment on the floor and will be pleased to discuss home furnishings with anyone interested. He is an experienced furniture dealer, having been connected with one of the leading furniture stores of Ashland for a number of years.

ENTERTAIN AT SHOWER FOR MRS. RIDDELL

Mrs. Hartley Battsion and Mrs. M. C. Crowley entertained the ladies of the Christian church at the Friday night of last week at a party in honor of Mrs. R. L. Riddell, who leaves soon with her husband Dr. Riddell for their new home in Lexington.

Following a social hour, the hostesses served a delightful lunch of angel food cake and home made ice cream.

Entertains Friends At a Lawn Party

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Meadows and Miss Edna McDaniels entertained a number of friends at a lawn party at the home of Mrs. Meadows parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Caudill last Friday night. Music was furnished by the Little Orchestra, while the guests danced on the porch.

Punch was served through out the evening to more than sixty-five guests. Those from out of town attending were Miss Alberta Bohm of Louisville, Miss Katherine Daniels of Ashland, Miss Olga Fleming of Salt Lick and Tom Bill Riley of Greennup.

Writes Letter From California

The following letter was received by Mrs. Loda Messer Caudill from George Williams, a former Rowan County boy who is now employed in the petrified forests of California. Mr. Williams is studying geology at the same time. His letter is of particular interest to those who have not been fortunate enough to visit California.

Dear Mrs. Caudill: The point of interest in Southern California are many; one of the most interesting is Roaring Ridge Petrified Forest.

This forest is located in Kern county, only one hundred and forty miles from Louisiana. While most forest are nothing more than flat as this one shows the trees just as they grew.

A large variety of wood is found, white oak mahogany, orange orange, maple, cedar and palm. One of the most unusual sites in petrified wood is the beautiful color annual rings, bark, cell structure and tiny cells which retain their shape after petrification.

This petrification is a glacier formation and the trees were completely covered with sediment. Erosion has uncovered hundreds of trees and there are many more in the formation. In the trees which are now being uncovered we find some wonderful opals of a high grade with all colors of the rainbow. There are seventeen grades of opals found in this wood. One is called the 'cat's paw opal,' pin point, amber, black and semi-black, jade like, Jasper, rock and moss, moss and moss agate is also found here. The trees as well as old fossils are found in successive strata. These data back twenty five to thirty million of years. Quite old, are they not?

More than forty complete fossils of old pre-historic animals have been taken out and several are on display at Smithsonian Institution.

Some of the animals were Trias ophodons, four tusked mastodons perocerus camel, Great Bear Dog and Osteoporus; the last being the little three toed horse.

Precious metal was the magnet which first settled the west and California has great mineral resources.

I have specimens of the following minerals and will be glad to send you some. They are, lapidolite, iron ore, malachite, chalcopyrite, silica, galena, obsidian, cinabar, mica, borax zinc bonite, aurifer, petrified wood, and gold quartz.

In the distance I see the volcanic deposits. In the lava one finds the moonstone, crystal quartz, lapus lazuli, smoky topaz and fluorite.

This place is beautiful-more beautiful than words can express. When the setting sun casts shadows over the many many colored rock formations of granates and lava the country resembles a painted paradise. Whenever the moon peeps over the horizon shadowing the canyons everything looks so weird. Then I climb to some shelf of rock on the canyon and meditate upon what Zane Grey said, "This is God's Country!"

The descriptive picture I am endeavoring to give is getting worse so here's wishing you success, Will try getting the mineral specimen mailed soon. Sincerely your friend George T. Williams Jr.

BIG CROWD AT DISTRICT MEET AT SLATY POINT

The district meeting of the parent teachers and pupils of the Slaty Point district was held last Friday. In the headline of the paper it was stated that the meeting was to be held at Cranston. However, that meeting will be held this week, Friday, August 19.

Probably the largest crowd that has ever assembled for a similar meeting gathered at Slaty Point School last Friday. While it was impossible to actually count those present, 900 were actually counted, while these were undoubtedly several hundred more who were not included.

The morning was taken up with the declamatory contest and talks by Dr. T. A. E. Evans, county health officer and county Agent Chas. L. Goff, who discussed the coming county fair.

The feature of any such gathering was the wonderful dinner served on the grounds by the women who brought great baskets of food. It was a most enjoyable affair and served as a common meeting ground for every age present.

The afternoon was taken up first with the spelling contest following which the program of athletic events was carried out.

Winners in the various contests follow: Declamatory contest: Velma Flannery, Razor school; Second, Geneva Hall; third, Ival Ciek, Threes Lick School; fourth, Joe Malbrain, Sharkey school.

Spelling contest: James Ediger first; Elmer Moore, second; Ted Moore, third. Sack race, boys: Kenneth Clay first; Harry McClurg, second.

Running High Jump: Fred Swim, first; Chester Warren second. Running High Jump: (Boys 14 and over) Ted Moore, first Earl Ramsey second, Ben W. Y. at a over.

100 Yard dash: Ted Moore first Jim Ramsey second; Arlie Reynolds third. Boys 13 and under 50 Yard dash. Ward second; Kenneth Robinson third. Girls 50 Yard dash. Dorothy Ediger, first; Estele Kattiff second; Anna Lee Black third. 50 Yard dash, 13 yrs. and over. Olive Reynolds first; Hazel McClurg second Thelma Flannery third.

100 Yard dash Girls 14 and over. Olive Reynolds first Hazel McClurg second. Three Legged Race. Opal Stone first; Olive Reynolds, second; Ruth Bardollard third.

Other meetings are being arranged to be carried out in the various districts of the county. Judging from the interest being taken by the parents in the meetings, they are undoubtedly a great success and are doing more than their share in keeping up both the interest and the attendance in the schools of the county.

MISS ALLEN ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB AT PARTY

Miss Thelma Allen entertained the members of the Bridge Club Monday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Allen with four tables of bridge. The members of the club also entertained the men. Refreshments were served after a delightful evening of play.

The convention lasts for annual association beginning Friday morning. The convention lasts for three days and will be held at the Primitive Baptist Church one mile from Morehead near the Caudill Cemetery.

This is the first time the association has met in Morehead and one of the largest crowds of the year is expected to attend. It is expected that far over one thousand will attend. They will be entertained locally by members of the Primitive Baptist Church.

Among the leading ministers who will take part, in the association are Elder B. F. Robinson of West Virginia, Elder Cash of Jackson Ky., and Elder Kiser of Carter county. Elder Kiser will also hold a preaching service at the court house on Saturday night.

Elliotville to Open Monday
The Elliotville Junior High School and graded school will open on Monday August 22, according to an announcement issued from the county superintendent's office. This will mark the second year of the Junior High School at Elliotville and according to plans two years of standard high school work will be offered this year instead of one as last year.

The school is expecting a larger enrollment in the high school and graded school. What is considered one of the best moves of the year for the benefit of the children of the Fabor Hill School is the fact that it has been consolidated with the Elliotville school.

The teachers of the Elliotville school are John H. Bailey principal, Mabel Hackney, Irene Turner, and Mrs. Beulah Williams.

The pupils of the Gayhart school are making a collection of last year's bird nests. They are trying to find nests of most all of our native birds. After the nests are all collected they plan to study each bird individually to find out just where it builds its nest, and to learn the habits of each kind of bird in the community. They are also making a collection of butterflies.

The primary children have learned thirty six wards in the three weeks they have been in school. Miss Gehart is using flash cards to teach these words.

The pupils and patron of Sharkey school have made a sand table for use in the school room. The tools with which to work were furnished by W. O. Saunders, the material by Clarence Eldridge and the boys from the school who did the work are as follows: Woodford Black, Clarence Eldridge, Willis Hicks, Ernest Skaggs and Virgil Eldridge.

SEE HEALTH OFFICER WATER TESTS
Persons desiring to have drinking water tested should cooperate with local health officers, who will either take samples for them or furnish containers and tell them how to obtain water in the proper manner.
Many samples of water are received at the Public Service Laboratory, at the Experiment Station of the University of Kentucky in miscellaneous containers. This means that the analysis may not show the true condition of the water, since the containers may not have been sterilized or the sample properly taken.
It is important, points out Dr. L. A. Brown, head of the Laboratory, that sterile containers be used, and that the water be taken in the proper way. It is essential that equal care be exercised in collecting samples as is used in making the examination, he declared. Persons wishing to have water tested should confer with their local health authorities. Public health nurses and sanitary inspectors are equipped to take samples.

BASEBALL GAME AT ROBBURN
The pupils from Bradley school and the pupils from Robburn school played a baseball game at Robburn Friday. Many patrons from both districts were present. The first game was between the boys, with the Robburn boys winning with a score of 14 to 6. The second game between the girls ended with the score at 12 to 2 with the Bradley girls in the lead. After these two games the patrons played with a tie score result. Each school has a well selected group of yell and a splendid cooperation was shown on the part of both schools.

Under Frozen Skies
Far to the north of the lake of the sandy beaches in the heart of the unmaped Kewadin wilderness, lay a land of lake and forest and musk. From this country for years before the advent of LeBlond, had come the best fur trade at Lake Expanso. To the men from Sunset House it was strange country, and often, as their canoe pushed north beyond the Hebe-land in search of the summer fishing camps of the Ojibwa, Jim wondered how he was to win over those superstitious hunters, who, since the building of the little post, had traded only with the North-West Company.
At last, one windless evening, the smoke of supper fires, rising from the islands, announced that the west coast had reached the first of the fish camps they sought.
"At last!" exclaimed Omar, twirling his paddle while he wiped his forehead. "Tomorrow we mak talk wid dese people."
"But its going to be a job to get them to listen to us," said Jim.

Estep, Peyton Estep, and Mrs. Milton Evans, teachers. There seems to be a good deal of interest among the people of the community in this particular undertaking. I grew nervous over my condition—this was unusual for me for I am very cheerful when I am well and don't easily get nervous. At last I decided to take something. My aunt told me I ought to take Cardui. I bought a bottle and I had taken three or four bottles. My side quit hurting and I was soon feeling strong and well. Cardui is sold at drug stores here."
