Know the Condition of Your Business.

Everyone-whether in busi-ess or not-should be ever ready to know their dondition. That is what we must be able to do, and we cannot so long as we have such a large number of sub-scriptions 'way behind on their subscriptions.' We are almost positive a mighty few dollars will be lost on our subscribers, for we think we have given them value received for their money value received for at least. But the thing is now, owing to the fact that we must further enlarge and complete our office, by buying more type, etc., we need the money. About May I we will mail all who owe us, a plain notice of how much you are debted to us, with a request that you come in and pay us the amount. We do not do this with any offensive purse but it takes money to car-on business.
