VIKINGS WIN

a rule and carry the ball. If the game is won they get the credit.
Saturday every lineman received the credit to which he was entitled for, for once the crowd was forced to see where the lineman did his full share in winning the game.

It is difficult to give proper credit to every man on the team when all are doing their duty and their best. For that reason the News does not pick individuals for mention. Any one who saw the game knows that every man in the line from end to end and every man in the back field contributed his share to win.
The Kings have a breathing spell this week with no game. Next week they meet Russell in what is again their chance to upset the Cope and win what they have narrowly missed for the past two years, the championship of the Little Eight.

Tomatoes in Varied Forms

By Jane Rogers

TOMATOES lend themselves to preparation in so many delicious forms that it is easy to avoid any chance that the appearance on the merit of this inexpensive vegetable, or fruit if you are a stickler for exactness, will become monotonous.

Aside from a wise selection of different recipes, the most important point to remember is that for a careful use of seasonings to develop the flavor to the full and blend it with those of the other ingredients of the dish.

Sugar, used like the salt and pepper, and frequently in combination with them, is invaluable as a seasoning for all tomato dishes. In some subtle manner it, better than any other seasoning, points up the flavor of the tomatoes themselves and harmonizes all the other flavors present.

Stuffed Baked Tomatoes
Take large ripe tomatoes, cut off stem ends and take out centers. Fill with a stuffing made of one cup of bread crumbs, one-third teaspoonful of salt, dash of pepper, onion and parsley to taste, two tablespoonfuls of melted butter, one tablespoonful of sugar. Place the tomatoes in a pan without water and bake in hot oven 30 minutes.

Crabbe Tomatoes
Select large, firm tomatoes and cut them in halves, crosswise. Allow one onion pepper, one onion and a sprig of parsley to three tomatoes. Chop these all fine, spread over the cut surface of the tomatoes, dot with bits of butter, season with salt, pepper and a sprinkling of sugar. Place in a greased pan to bake in a hot oven about 20 minutes. Remove the tomatoes to a hot dish, add a cupful of milk to the liquid in the pan, stir till heated, then thicken with a teaspoonful of butter rubbed to a paste with a teaspoonful of flour. Season with one-half teaspoonful of salt, one-quarter teaspoonful of pepper and one over the tomatoes.

Tomato Melange
Scald and peel six medium-sized tomatoes. Cut in pieces and add to one finely chopped green pepper, which has been fried lightly in butter. Cook together for five minutes, add two cupfuls of corn, either fresh or canned, three tablespoonfuls of butter, four tablespoonfuls of sugar and one teaspoonful of salt. Cook together for ten minutes.
