AT THE CAPITOL, D. C.

The sensation of the week and even greater sensation than the Harriman letter exposure or the reported $5,000,000 conspiracy has been the Presidents reply to the persistent questioning of the labor agitators. It is quite probable that these gentlemen overrate their political influence and their importance. They are no doubt and in sense great and powerful in their respective localities. They have successfully bullied and browbeaten their employers and it is not unusual for men of like experience to imagine that they are what Speaker Cannon told a labor delegation they were not—"the whole shooting match." They evidently knew little of the character and temperament of the President when they persistently asked him if he had said something which they and all the world knew that he had said. He made a reply remarkable for its iteration and emphasis as well as its effectiveness for it stopped a whole procession of delegations that were on the way to the White House, for what purpose Heaven only knows, unless it was to dare him to say it again.

Secretary Taft has again Ohio and interest is on tip toe with reference to what he may say in reply to Senator Foraker. Judge Taft is very popular in Washington where he is known and loved. With the newspaper fraternity he is on the best of terms and there is great confidence that he will not blunder but say and do the correct thing and this in spite of his inexperience on the hearings. It is suspected, in fact known, that there is a strong predilection for him through the country, not perhaps on his own account but because he is believed he is the choice of the President. There are doubtless millions of people who if they cannot have their preference and vote for Roosevelt for another term will solace themselves by the next best thing in voting for the man in whom he has faith and whom he recommends. The friends of the President are loth to give up the idea that he himself may still be induced to run and are trying to harmonize the third term and anti-third term movements by calling the proposed term "second elective term." It is argued that as the President has been elected to the office but once he has served but one elective term and is eligible for the office again. It seems comparatively easy to convince the country that this fully covers the situation but the difficulty seems to be persuade the President. It is thoroughly apparent that he does not want the toffice again probably mainly because he thinks it is opposed to the spirit of the traditional limitation of the Presidential term and also because he would like a rest after his seven years of onerous, nerve racking work. He is reported to have said when spoken to on the subject that he was not tired of his "job" and that he did not think that another term would kill him but that it probably would shorten his life by ten years and he could not spare that much.

More for the Treasury.

$1,000 Given Away.

Would you accept a $1,000 accident insurance policy, fully paid for one year, free? Well, that is what we are offering to do. We have only a limited number of these at nothing to those who will patronize us. The company is insured with a large deposit in the Treasury to secure its policy holders. The average accident cost you $5 fee and from $10 to $2.50 per month dues. Starting from $16 to $32.50 for the first year. Our offer is that you send us $1.50 for one year's subscription to the Olive Hill Times and the American Farmer and we will make you a present of the policy with all dues paid for one year. ### WOMAN CURED AFTER TWENTY YEARS OF TORTURE.

More than twenty years Mr. J. Casey, of 3322 Clinton St., Minneapolis, Minn., was tormented by sciatica and suffering which he endured during this time is beyond comparison. Nothing gave him any moment relief until he used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. One application of the liniment relieved the pain and sleep and rest possible, less than one bottle has affected a permanent cure. If you are troubled with sciatica or rheumatism why not try a bottle of Pain Balm and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain. For sale by C. B. Waring, the reliable druggist, at Olive Hill, Ky.

Opening of the Jamestown Exposition.

The opening of the exposition will be attended by practically all the world at the capital. The President of the Cabinet, practically all of the foreign Ambassadors and Ministers at Washington, a Congressional delegation and scores of people in private life will be in Washington on Thursday night. No little to do will be observed by those accompanying the President. The naval yacht, Mayflower will be the first vessel of the official flotilla, so to speak, which will leave Washington about 4 p. m. Thursday, and will convey the President to Norfolk. Immediately following the Mayflower will be the Dolphin another gunboat bearing the Secretary of the Navy and his party of naval guests and members of Congress. A revenue cutter will take Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Edwards and his party, and the ambassadors Ministers to foreign countries will go on the Newport News, one of the steamers on the Norfolk and Washington line. The entire party will go ashore at 9.30 on Friday morning and be driven to the grounds in carriages. Thirty five civilized countries of the world will be represented at the opening of the exposition by their Ambassadors and Ministers at Washington, who will all be present.

Though the exposition opens Friday, it is by no means complete, the buildings and grounds and many of the exhibits are far from finished. It will probably be at least a month before the exposition will be running smoothly and everything is in a state of readiness. One of the things that will probably be missed at the opening is the magnificent electrical display, some of the machinery not having arrived. But the naval display, which will probably be one of the greatest of its kind ever seen in this country or any other, is already forming, the English, German, Australian fleets, and the Argentine trading ship having already arrived and others being expected every hour. Detachments of the United States army and navy, with detachments of naval representatives from the fleets of foreign nations in the harbor will pass in review before the President on the opening day. Thousands of people are in Norfolk and thousands more are pouring in on every train and boat.

Clyde Heflin is employed as night clerk at the Stamper Inn.

NOT AS RICH AS ROCKEFELLER.

If you had all the wealth of Rockefeller, the standard oil magnate, you could not buy a better medicine for bowel complaints than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The most eminent physician cannot prescribe a better preparation for colic and diarrhoea, both for children and adults. The uniform success of this remedy has shown it to be superior to all others. It never fails, and when reduced with water and sweetened is pleasant to take. Every family should be supplied with it. Sold by C. B. Waring, the Olive Hill druggist.

New Rate for C. & O.

A new rate for Kentucky railroading will be introduced on May 21 when the Chesapeake & Ohio will declare a two and one half cent mail fare.

The statement issued to Agents by the General Passenger Agent of the system is to the effect that the reduced rate will go into effect throughout Kentucky on the C. & O. line.

The C. & O. is one of the few roads not a member of the South Eastern Railway Association, and consequently it has the right to make new rates at will. It is believed that the reduced rate is made for the benefit of the public who will visit Jamestown Exposition during the coming summer in vast numbers.

Whether or not the new rate is declared in other states or whether or not it is permanent is not known.

Ladies "Hats off" At Church.

A Kansas editor, who contracted the habit of going to church, has this to say: Ladies should take off their hats in church. No preacher can inspire a man who is looking into a lap-sided aggregation of dead birds, stuffed weasels, chamelon skins, ribbons, beads, sticks, straws, corn tassels and thistle down. It makes a sinner feel lost in a wilderness.

IT IS DANGEROUS TO NEGLECT A COLD.

How often do you hear it remarked: "It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough remedy counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia, and has gained it's great popularity and extensive sale by it's prompt cures of this most common ailment. It always cures and is pleasant to take. For sale by C. B. Waring, Olive Hill's druggist.

As they were crossing Jackson river on their way back Miss Pendleton jumped into the river; Mr. Gay followed at once, and both were drowned.—Mt. Stealing Advocate.—

AT THE CAPITOL, D. C.

The unveiling of the McClellan statue was a picturesque and brilliant spectacle and a fine, sunny day added to its impressiveness and permitted an immense crowd to view it in the proper spirit of appreciation. The statue is by MacMonnies the celebrated sculptor and is supposed to be a fine work of art. There are many things to whom it is far from satisfying, and even those without any critical artistic taste are questioning the judgement of placing another equestrian statue in this city which already contains more of that sort than any other city on the globe. General McClellan in bronze now sits on his horse on the top of a high pedestal at the summit of a high hill. To see it one must throw his head well back between his shoulders and it is possible that he may get the impression that the General is either going to fly, Pegasus like, or that if his horse should make a move forward he will probably take a series of somersaults to the foot of the hill. There is nothing either active or composed about it. The horse is ready to plunge forward and the tips of the Generals boots resting lightly in the stirrups and his knees loosely touching the horses sides suggest that in such an event he might not go in the same direction. The likeness is said to be good and even if it is not the height of the statue makes it unlikely that many will unjoint their necks to critically examine it.

The attitude of the French Government in declining to accept as sufficient for import purposes the tag of the Agricultural Department affixed to fresh meats has convinced the State Department that an effort must be made at once to reach a general agreement with France to govern the trade relation between the two governments. Conferences are being held between Secretary Root and the French Ambassador, looking to this end and it is suggested that a tariff commission similar to that which was sent to Germany to avert a trade war with that country should now be sent to France for the same purpose.

Our trade with France is large and many industries are threatened. Consul General Mason at Paris has called the attention of the State Department to a measure before the French Chamber of Deputies to increase by four hundred per cent the tariff duties on American cotton seed oil which would, of course be prohibitive. There is also a proposition to wipe out our flourishing shoe trade in that country by imposing an increase of sixty percent in the duties. It may be also that American grains, flours and other agricultural products will receive a similar increase in the tariff duties, so it may easily be seen that a serious situation confronts many branches of our trade.

NEW RAILROAD

Will Penetrate Coal Deposits in Eastern Kentucky.

It is reported that a new branch railroad to tap the Louisville and Atlantic railroad at a point near the mouth of Sturgeon creek, five miles west of Beattyville, will be built at once the contract having been let to H. B. Hanger and Co., the contractors of Richmond Ky. The new railroad will span the Kentucky river and will penetrate the rich coal deposits along Sturgeon creek, which are the most valuable in that section. It is understood that Lexington capital is behind the enterprise.—Ky. Observer.

Glasgow Woman Assaulted.

The report of a criminal assault from Jennie in the northwestern part of the county, has reached here. Although the assault occurred several days ago, the matter has been kept quiet in order to catch the perpetrator. While Mrs. Will Buster was in her orchard gathering twigs for kindling a negro of that locality sprang from behind a tree with a knife in his hand, telling the frightened woman he would kill her if she made an outcry. He dealt her a blow which rendered her prostrate on the ground, grasping the fallen woman he started towards the woods nearby dragging her along the ground. When Mrs. Buster had partially recovered from the blow she began to scream, and Turner Sturgeon, a neighbor ran to her assistance. When he appeared on the scene the negro released his victim and fled. Mrs. Buster was badly hurt and is still in a serious condition from her injuries and fright. A posse has been scouring the woods in that section, but no trace of the negro has been found.

RAILWAY

May Pierce the Big Sandy Coal Fields.

There has just been organized in the office of Hager and Stuart of this city, a railroad company and a charter is to be at once obtained from the state of Virginia for building a standard gauge railroad, known as the Russell Fork Railway company, of which E. C. Means, C. M. Crawford and others are incorporators are to be officers.

The purpose is to build a standard gauge railroad into Dickenson and Buchanan counties, Virginia, coming to the border line of Kentucky, and will promote the development of the timber and mineral resources of that section. Rights of way will be forthwith procured, or in cases where these may not be procured by voluntary agreement or contract condemnation proceedings will be undertaken, and the work of constructing the road and bringing it into early operation will be prosecuted with all diligence.

This begins the railroad development in the Breaks of the Big Sandy, in which the people of this section have, long been interested. As an independent proposition, it means much, and as a beginning of railroad development in the vicinity of the Breaks, it foreshadows still greater development.—Ashland Independent.

The Strenuous Life

The soldier, miner, rough rider, or any follower of the strenuous life are "easy on shoes" compared to the average girl or boy. Try "Eternity" on them.

Attempt to Wreck C. & O.

At Ashland early Sunday Morning of last week an attempt was made to wreck C. & O. through passenger train No. 1. Parties had obstructed the road by placing cross-ties on the track but a conductor on a street car happened to see and removed them and notified the officials.

Work of the Night Riders.

Night riders are again at work in Caldwell county, in the Lamason neighborhood, where they have recently done considerable damage.

The home of a farmer by the name of Hollowell in that section was visited Thursday night by 25 masked men who began to shoot up the house. Every window in the building was broken, and Mrs. Hollowell was struck in the face by some stray shots, but not seriously injured.

Hollowell, during the investigation of the burning of the Princeton warehouse testified against some of the men suspected of being implicated, and since that time has received a number of warnings. He had paid no heed to these, however, and last night was the first time he had been made a victim of any assaults.

Victory for Saloon Keepers.

The Mt. Sterling City Council, at a special meeting last December, increased the saloon license from $500 to $600. Suit was brought against the town last March by J. P. King who had taken out license at this figure, for $100 on the grounds that the ordinance was passed at a special meeting, therefore void. Circuit Judge W. A. Young on hearing sustained King's contention and the town will have to refund $100 to each of the saloons.

HOW TO AVOID APPENDICITIS.

Most victims of appendicitis who are most habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or grip and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. C. B. Waring, the Olive Hill druggist.

Local Option Election Ordered.

An Ashland report says Judge S. G. Kinner, of the Boyd county Circuit Court, Wednesday morning issued a mandamus against Judge R. D. Davis in the local option matter, compelling him to order an election in the Fifth Magisterial district as petitioned for by the temperance element, which he refused on the grounds that the legal percentage of signers to the petition had not been secured in one precinct. Judge Davis has asked for an appeal to the Court of Appeals.

Was the Oldest Odd Fellow.

Henry Gregory, who died a few days ago at his home in Canton, Washington county, Ind., at the age of eighty-seven years, was the oldest Odd Fellow in the United States. At the time of his death, he was a member of the Louisville Lodge No. 1.

Mr. Gregory was a native of Pasquotank county, N. C. and was a charter member of the Odd Fellows lodge at Norfolk, Va., the second lodge of that order that was instituted in that country.

DISTURBED THE CONGREGATION.

The person who disturbed the congregation last Sunday by continually coughing is requested to buy a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. Sold by C. B. Waring, the Olive Hill druggist.

STATE ENCAMPMENT.

Kentucky Department of the G. A. R. Will Hold Annual Meeting in Louisville on May 15 and 16.

The State encampment of the Kentucky Department of the Grand Army of the Republic will be held in Louisville on May 15 and 16. The sessions will be held in Geasman Hall, First and Jefferson streets beginning at 9:30 o'clock, May 15. The business meetings will be presided over by George T. Grinstead, and general headquarters will be established at the Enterprise Hotel.

Considerable interest is centered in the race for Department Commander for the ensuing years. Col. Thos. Sheehan, of the George H. Thomas Post, of Louisville, is mentioned prominent for the place, as is also Col. F. A. Tabor, of the William Perkins Post, of Albany, Ky. It is generally conceded that Col. Sheehan will be elected.

The chairman of the local committees on arrangements are as follows: General arrangements, M. Minton; Hall and Decoration, D. W. Capito; Music, L. W. Lindley; Transportation, M. Minton; Hotels, A. G. Moore; Program, Americus Whedon; Treasurer, J. H. Browning.

The ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic and the ladies of the Relief Corps will also meet in Louisville during the State encampment.

Peace for Central America.

Salvador and Nicaragua have signed articles of Peace Awlpa and another petty war has ended. But President Bonilla of Honduras is in Mexico, said to be preparing to renew hostilities at an early day, although it is doubtful if he can command enough support to carry on better than guerrilla warfare. And it is more than likely that he will find himself placed where he cannot stir up agitation among his countrymen. The recent bloody struggle was unwarranted and if any benefits have been achieved, they must come from a more perfect understanding among the Central American Republics.

As has been the recent practice, this country was largely instrumental in bringing about a peaceful solution. Our gunboats were in the zone of disturbance to protect our citizens and foreigners and compel neutrality where interference would not be justified, and when the principles went into conference, it was under the Stars and Stripes.

Following up the declaration of peace between Nicaragua and Salvador, steps should be taken with the co-operation of these countries to curb the animosity of President Zelaya toward Guatemala. Every fresh outbreak disturbs the tranquility of Central America and if the good offices of the United States can be employed to secure universal peace in that quarter they should and probably will be exercised.

A physician says that everybody in Pittsburg has pneumonia. We sincerely trust that this dreadful disease, whatever it is, will not reach Olive Hill for we are not prepared to receive it.

Shooting Affray.

The report reached here Monday, from Stark, Elliott county, of the probably fatal shooting of Ed Porter, son of J. A. Porter, deceased. The trouble occurred Saturday evening in the store of J. W. Green at Stark. Porter, who unarmed, was shot twice by John Holebrook, and cut severely on the neck with a knife in the hands of Henry Skeens. Two others were concerned in the fight. Porters condition is extremely delicate.

IBEX.

Farming is all the rage in our vicinity at present.

Nervous Indigestion

The action of digestion is controlled by nerves leading to the stomach. When they are weak, the stomach is deprived of its energy. It has no power to do its work. If you want permanent relief, you must restore this energy. Dr. Miles' Nervine restores nervous energy, and gives the organs power to perform their functions.

"For many years I was an acute sufferer from nervous indigestion; at times I was so dependent upon stimulants almost a burden. I tried all kinds of remedies and various physicians with little or no relief, until one night last summer I saw Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure advertised. I resolved to make one more trial, which I did in the purchase of one bottle of Nervine and one of Heart Cure. In a few days I began to feel better, which encouraged me so much that I continued the medicine until I had taken more than a dozen bottles. I am now completely improved in every way. In body, mind and spirits alike. I am especially glad to recommend the medicine, and I feel a sincere pleasure in knowing that several persons have been benefited through my recommendations."
A. S. MILLER, Ashland, Ky.

It seems a strange thing that other our ladies of high social position, have in the past continually met with rebuff at the hands of English aristocracy repeatedly, that they would scorn the very idea of subjecting themselves to the very people who have caused sorrow and misery to their shadow. The question might be asked; what do they gain in return for the wealth which they bestow upon the English titled husbands? Well in the first place, they have a title conferred upon them by their husband, such as the Duke of Marlborough gave to Miss Vanderbilt when he married her. But does that title belong to her by the English laws? No it was conferred upon her by her husband as a favor and can be taken away from her at any time. Take for instance the Countess, Fo di. The Courts at the request of her husband who was a Count by birth and the courts gave him the right to deprive her of the very privilege to use the name, so in this respect the lady who leaves the American shores to become the wife of one of England's Noblemen simply submits herself unreservedly to the mastery of her husbands will. That is a beautiful picture for a woman who is born in great free America. Next, does she gain prestige in English society? No for only a short time ago one of America's foremost ladies was insulted by an English woman in her own drawing room by one of her guests, who remarked; "was not the Baroness—a pork butcher's daughter in America?" Yet, years roll by and marriages in high society take place between our noble four hundred and the English aristocracy every year and divorce suits very seldom fail to follow. Our next divorcee, as announced by the city papers, is the Dutchess of Marlborough. Why is she suing for a divorce? Because her husband, who was a pauper when he married her, who simply married her to raise money to pay off his debts made by his wild reckless expenditure of his father's money, a man who had lost the very principles of manhood, dare to have the audacity to tell a beautiful American girl one whose life was pure, whose records for kindness and love to all, stand unequalled, that because she was not a boy, a titled family, she is not a lady. Think of it. An English degenerate telling a true American born lady this after spending millions of dollars of her money to pay off his debts, caused by his midnight debaucheries. What is our American society coming to? Are we going to be the nation that shall open our homes and hearts to receive the scapegraces of all other nations? No, a thousand times No! We believe that every American born woman is a lady and the queen of the world at that.

I wish to express my thanks to the people of Olive Hill for their kind and courteous treatment to me during my stay here. I have taught two school terms in Olive Hill and have received the best of treatment. I have tried and will continue to try to show them the respects. I have tried to the best of my ability to elevate the thoughts and minds of the boys and girls entrusted to my care. I know I will not attempt to teach the coming school year but if I ever teach school again I want it to be in Olive Hill. My desire is that I will receive the same treatment in the future that I have in the past.
