VIKINGS SHOW FINE FORM TO WIN GAME 27-6

Love Me Tonight At Cozy Theatre

Wow! what a game! And what a football team those Vikings turned out to be! 27 to 6, and that doesn't begin to tell the story. It was football with Capitals from the opening whistle to the last minute of play. And the fourth quarter was literally packed with thrills. Cannonburg came to Morehead occupying second place in the Little Eight Conference and top-heavy favorites to retain that place by defeating Morehead, but the Vikings had other ideas and proceeded to demonstrate that the chief purpose of dope buckets is to have them upset. And did they upset it? And how?

The Kings were not the same team that met Russell the week before. In fact, as Deb Allie is reported to have said "If the Vikings had played that kind of ball against Russell, they would now be champions of the Little Eight." But that story was told last week without alibi.

It was, by the way, the first game in which the Kings have been able to put their full strength on the field, and even then they could not be said to be full strength as Russell Barber is still suffering from an arm injury sustained in the Russell game. Injuries have been and continue to be the Viking jinx. Roy Turner suffered a sprain in the game, it is certain to keep him out for the balance of the season.

If the Friday game proved anything at all, it proved the value of an eleven man team. The Kings had eleven men, led by Captain Peck Robinson, who played like a machine in perfect condition. Every play clicked and in spite of a number of bad breaks, the Kings gave more than they got, and ranged through and around and over the Boyd Countians in championship style. And don't imagine that Boyd County High has a weak team. They haven't. Deb Allie has the best team he has ever put out and they were at their best Saturday. They were well coached and dangerous at all times. The Vikings however turned on in the final stanza and tore their defense to shreds: And outside of one third period rally, they stopped their offense before it got places.

A number of the Vikings deserve special mention for their work and this applies both to the linemen and the back field. However, we are reserving comment until the last of the season.

The Kings kicked off and Boyd took the ball on their thirty yard line. Two plays netted them three yards and they punted on the third down. The Kings registered a touchdown after driving down the field from their own forty yard line, the ball going over an end run by Roy Turner. The try for point failed. Score, Vikings 6; Boyd 0.

Boyd received the ball on two beautiful end runs that caught the Kings napping, carried the ball to the Kings' eight yard line, where the stone wall held and the ball went over. A punt took it out of danger, once more. Boyd made one more drive as the quarter ended and lost the ball on the ten yard line.

The second quarter saw the Kings maintain their margin of 6 points and also saw one of the prettiest plays of the game when the Kings completed a pass Honaker to Tuttle. The Boyd line, twisted, squirmed and for a forty-five yard gain only to lose it by three successive penalties. They punted out of danger.

A fumble by Turner gave Boyd their opportunity on the thirty yard and Miller, Boyd's back field ace, used a spinner took the pigskin to the one yard line and over for a Chevalier's plea, "Love Me Tonight" was made a little over ten years ago. The French actor was a "comique" at Paris music hall, and had a large following. But he was not the tuxedoed, straw hatted figure that movie audiences now know. He appeared on the stage in what appeared like the makeup used by American burlesque-show comedians—a huge red putty nose, a battered hat, and baggy, checkered trousers.

One night, in his dressing room, he was making up. Suddenly he stopped. He was sick of his costume, sick of his makeup—and he was through with them, for good, he hoped. He wiped off the makeup, put on his tuxedo, picked up his straw hat and strode out into the wings.

At his cue, he pranced out onto the stage, addressing a silent prayer to the audience to "Love Me Tonight!" And the audience after a few puzzled moments during which they tried to figure out who this unusual looking person was, answered the prayer with a storm of applause. The moment they recognized their Maurice, they loved him in his new makeup. And he has retained it ever since.

"Love Me Tonight" will appear at the Cozy Theatre Friday and Saturday of this week.

AVALANCHE OF VOTES SMASHES ALL RECORDS AND CATAPULTS DEMOCRATS INTO WHITE HOUSE

Kentucky, Late With Count Leaps To Prominence By Size Of Majorities Piling Up; NaCon Gives Roosevelt 42 State And 472 Electoral Votes; To 6 States And 59 Electoral Votes For Hoover; Majority Greatest

Franklin D. Roosevelt was literally catapulted into the White House as the result of the election Tuesday with a record vote of over forty millions. While complete returns are not yet available, it is apparent that his total popular majority will probably exceed ten million setting a record for majorities up to the present. With President-elect Roosevelt headed on the avalanche of votes, were Vice President John Garner and control of both branches of the congress. According to

Morehead Student Is Fatally Injured

Elmer Bolling, a sophomore student of the Morehead State Teachers College and a native of Eolia, Kentucky, was fatally injured in an automobile accident near Morehead Saturday, November 5, and died while being rushed to a hospital in Lexington.

Mays McKee, of South Point, Ohio, was also fatally injured. Randall Bertram, Tony Hackney and Clifton Maynard, other occupants of the car, escaped without serious injury. The accident occurred when the automobile in which the men were returning to Morehead from Farmington, Ohio, on Morehead game, rounded a curve, crashed into a bus and careened into a ditch. Bolling was riding on the outside of the front seat, McKee was driving and Maynard was in the middle. Bertram and Hackney were in the rumble seat of the car.

Bolling was a son of Owen Bolling of near Jenkins. He was doing his second year's work here and was very well known on the campus. He entered college here September, 1931. His parents were notified by President John Howard Payne. The body, which was taken to Jenkins, Kentucky, was accompanied home. The students held a special memorial service for Elmer Bolling at 10:00 a. m. Wednesday, November 9. Each class selected a representative to speak in Bolling's memory. Those chosen were: for the Senior Class, Charles Clark; Junior Class, T. U. Fann; Sophomore, George Kitson; and Freshman Class, William Winters.

HAS SURPRISE BIRTHDAY DINNER

Rev. T. F. Lyons enjoyed a surprise birthday dinner at his home on Sunday of this week. Dinner was furnished by his children and grandchildren. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hunt of Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hunt of Salt Lick, and Mrs. Susan Hall of Morehead, Indiana. He received many gifts from his church members.

Teachers To Get Full Salary Now

The following letter from the office of the State Superintendent explains to the teachers just how they are to receive their salary for the time being. They are by this means able to collect the face value for their salary vouchers without discounting them.

TO SCHOOL ADMINISTRATORS:

I am happy to advise you that arrangements have been made with the Citizens Union National Bank, of Louisville, through its Vice-president, Mr. Arch B. Davis, whereby warrants issued to treasurers of school districts against the Common School Fund may be disposed of at par with no commission of discount whatsoever.

Within the next few days the treasurers of school districts which have thus far qualified to receive the monthly installments of the Common School Fund will receive same. Under no condition should these warrants be disposed of at less than par, nor should any discount or commission of any kind be paid on same.

In other words, each school district treasurer should dispose of warrants issued to him for the second installment of the Common School Fund for one hundred per cent on the dollar.

Eagles And Union Play To Scoreless Tie

A homecoming crowd of 2,500 watched the Eagles battle a strong Union eleven through four scoreless quarters to a 0 to 0 deadlock here last Saturday.

The game was a contest between the Morehead line and the spectacular punting of Simpson for Union. Three times the Eagles, backed under the shadows of their goal posts, held off Union drives, while the long, accurate kicks of Simpson kept the Eagles out of scoring distance during most of the game.

It was the breaks of the game that cost Morehead a victory. On the first play after the opening kickoff a fumble gave Union the ball deep in the Eagles' territory, and they carried the ball to the one-yard line where a stubborn defender refused them a score.

Late in the first quarter the Eagles swept down the field toward the visitors goal. The line drive plays halted on the ten yard line, the Eagles attempted a forward pass over the goal line for a touchdown. The pass, Mocabee to Hackney, was completed for what appeared to be a touchdown, only to be ruled incomplete by the referee because Hackney had stepped beyond the end zone just as he received the pass.

Latest figures, Roosevelt will have 42 of the 48 states with a total of 59 electoral votes for Hoover and Roosevelt 472 electoral votes. A majority of 266 electoral votes are required to elect.

Early returns gave the trend and set the fashion and the result was never in doubt from the time the New York vote tabulations began to come in. New York gave their governor a total majority of over six hundred thousand. Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut followed to throw their votes into the Roosevelt column. New Jersey was also overwhelmingly for Roosevelt. Holding staunch to the last Vermont, Maine, New Hampshire, Delaware, Pennsylvania, and Connecticut cast their electoral ballots for Hoover.

Republican majority was cut to the smallest margin in history. Pennsylvania, for example with a normal majority of almost a million, was running a little better than one hundred thousand.

All other states were definitely in the Roosevelt hand wagon, headed for Washington March 5.

Due to our Kentucky voting law which prevents the counting of the ballots before 10:00 a. m. the day following the election, this state was unable to join the procession at the start. However, as soon as the returns began to come in, it became evident the Kentucky would be well up in the lead, so far as majorities were concerned, with the prospect of far exceeding the Hoover majority of 1928. Meager returns from this section of the state gave Roosevelt Elliott and Rowan, Boyd, and Laursing. Carter for the first time in history was said to be in the Democratic column, with a majority of 350.

Locally in spite of the fact that Rowan was expected to be found in the Rooster's column, even the Democrats were stunned when the returns came in. As precinct after precinct was counted the Democratic majority grew. Hoover carried but one precinct in the county, Farmers No. 2, and that by but 9 votes. Rowan as a county as a whole went wholeheartedly into the Roosevelt fold by the unprecedented majority of 1,222. Not even local candidates in the past have ever piled up any such lead. Marvin Wilson won it by a bit over 700 three years ago.

In 1928, Hoover carried Rowan by 687. If the vote in the state may be judged by the votes in Rowan county it should go for Roosevelt by upward of 400,000. Hoover carried Kentucky before by approximately 176,000 votes.

Wagner Precinct remains the banner Democratic precinct in a county that must be admittedly Democratic after Tuesday. Wagner gave Roosevelt 126 votes and Hoover 19. Next in line came Morehead. Incidentally Rowan county together with the rest of the United States cast the largest vote in history in this election. Up to the present this county has cast approximately 8,200 votes. In this election the total vote cast was 4,466.

BLUESTONE SCHOOL MAKING GOOD RECORD

With the school year half done, the Bluestone School is justly proud of its record they have made. The principal of the school, they are then far, according to Herbert Tack, particularly proud of the attendance record. Their daily attendance record has reached an average of 84, and during the third month, fifty pupils have made perfect attendance records.

Citizens of Bluestone are particularly appreciative of the additional school room and teacher, and are showing it by cooperating in every way. Water is scarce but the parents are furnishing it.

The first, second, third and fourth grades enjoyed a picnic in the vicinity of the Preston quarry last Friday afternoon, leaving school at noon and returning about 3.30. The upper grades had their regular classes, but took time out for a game of ball. They played to Bluestone team and were beaten but were not disheartened.

The first, second, third and fourth grades have finished their readers and now are reading supplementary books. Prizes will be awarded to the ones reading the most books to help to develop an appreciation for good reading.

Bluestone pupils are rather proud of the record they made in the fair held in Morehead in October. They carried off a number of prizes. They were as follows:

Joyce Flannery $1.00 for best salt map.
Rufus Flannery, book for best bird book.
Otis Black, first prize for best book.

The following pupils have perfect attendance record:

First grade: W. H. Basford; Ruben Bragg; Elwood Warren; Fred Gilkerson; Lloyd Flannery; Wilford Flannery; Forest Tackett; Junior Elam; Naomi Sorrell; Traxie Black; Lillian Black; Katherine Swim; Hazel McClurg; Edith Heilman; Flora Ingie.

Intermediate grades: Mattion Jones; Otis Black; Noah Warren; Desney Swim; Tommy Dehart; Lan-Clay Flannery; Gilbert men's club; Mary Flannery; Doris Nethers; Irene Stagg; Madeline Sorrell; Gemma Dehart; Edna Gilkerson; Gladys Swim; Beulah Flannery;

Joyce Flannery; Cloma Black; Naomi Barnardoll.
Upper Grades: Thelma Flannery; Roxie May Gilkerson; Ruth Barnardoll; Betty Lou Bradburn; Zora Johnson; Ernest Nethery; Rollie McClurg; Lanford Kissick; Clayton Dehart; Chester Warren; Fred Stagg; Elmo Dehart.

MOREHEAD HIGH SCHOOL

A straw vote was taken in the high school covering the presidential election. It looks like, if it were left to the students, the democrats would have the majority. In the Freshman class the vote was Hoover 22, Roosevelt 20, Sophomore Class, Hoover 14, Roosevelt 27, Junior Class Hoover 14, Roosevelt 12, Senior Class Hoover 10, Roosevelt 10. The totals were 60 votes for Hoover and 75 vote for Roosevelt.

Wilma Lee Gooden, a former student of the high school, visited Morehead over the week-end. Billy Ramey, a former student, had his credits transferred to Soldier, where he is now in school.

The faculty of the high school is to hold a meeting Thursday night to discuss the installation of a catalogue in the school library. Mrs. Bess Allen Hurst, a teacher in the Morehead High School and president of the Alumni Association of the college is to represent Morehead at the E. K. E. A. in Ashland. The Association is sponsoring a banquet at the Henry Clay Hotel and Mrs. Hurst and other members are to speak on the program.

Chapel will be held next Wednesday morning with the program in charge of Miss Grace O'Connell. Miss O'Connell has secured Prof. Pearl as the organist for the occasion. The school was honored Tuesday with a visit from Mr. A. J. Jones, State High School Inspector.

PARENT TEACHER ASSOCIATION DOING GOOD WORK

The Carlisle Parent Teachers Association has equipped a room to serve lunch to the children. A penny sandwich is served and a lunch is served for eleven cents. The women have put on a drive for clothing for dependent children. The Lion's club last year paid for one hundred twelve children. This year they are buying food. Carlisle has no organized women's club but Mrs. B. F. Reynolds says, "We do not trust Shakespeare and Browning, but our interest is in Gemma Dehart; Edna Gilkerson; voted to the children." The Mt. Sterling Parent Teacher Association has also furnished a lunch room. When they started out last year they had no room and no equipment. When their parents began to think of the needs of their school and work, drives were put on in various ways. One of the things they did, the dramatic club gave a play, they gave a picture show to raise funds, and a room was found and equipped. A food and clothing drive was sponsored and they began to take care of the undernourished children. At Meyer's Ky. the P. T. A. held a clinic and had the children treated for their ailments.

One of the Associations at Ashland and had an old clothes drive in addition to furnishing food. The mothers made up forty dresses and forty bloomers from the discarded garments. Some of the Ashland Associations, have asked for, and received bolt material to be made for dependent children.

Some of the Rowan County Schools have organized, and are organizing parent teacher associations. Pine Grove has recently organized and the parents are donating vegetables and milk. Mrs. Georgia Evans teacher, serves the children hot soup at noon along with their lunch.

Clearfield P. T. A. was organized and has placed a library in the school.

CONTEST AT MINOR

The children at Minor have been divided, the blues and reds, and a contest is being sponsored. Items considered in the contest are brushing teeth, combing hair, keeping desk in order, playing fair on the playground etc. When one of the items is disobeyed or neglected the person so doing receives a mark against his side. At the end of the month, the side showing the fewest points will be given a supper by the teacher.

Mrs. N. L. Wells and Mrs. Joe Caudill aided by Miss Kegley, the nurse at Haldeman and Mrs. Leabetter, visited the Haldeman school and distributed clothing to the children. Mrs. Caudill, the County Superintendent, was present and addressed the parents and children stressing the importance of regular attendance.

Mrs. Caudill is requiring all teachers of the county to report the absent children of the county and why they are absent so that the needs can be met, if they are sick, need clothing or why they are absent.

PARENT TEACHERS MEET

A parent teachers association was organized at Pine Grove, Friday afternoon at the school. Mrs. Allard Hall was elected president. Mrs. John White, Secretary and Trustor, Mrs. Milton Evans, chairman of the program committee. The first meeting was held on Saturday night, November 5.

ATTEND STATE RURAL SCHOOL TOURNAMENT

Rowan county was represented in the Kentucky State Rural School meet again this year. The children were a little more fortunate this year than last, having carried away one blue ribbon, one red ribbon and two white ribbons. Opal Conn won first place in the standing broad jump, jumping 8 feet and five in. This year he jumped 5 inches further than any other boy present and he broke the record for the standing broad jump in the state for any other year by jumping further than any one had jumped in the Tournament. He will be awarded a gold pin. Opal also jumped second to the furthest number of feet in the running broad jump but after his age and weight were considered in counting the number of jumps, he was not given a place. Teddy Moore won second place in the baseball throw, throwing the ball seventy-nine feet and a few inches. Flora Egan won third place in the 75 yard dash for girls, 13 yrs. and under. ## FACULTY HOLD DINNER AND DANCE

An informal dinner and dance for the faculty took place Wednesday evening, November 2. The dinner was held in the faculty dining room at 6 o'clock. Following the dinner the guests adjourned to the gymnasium, where an enjoyable evening was spent in dancing. The music for the dance was furnished by the piano-ophed, which has been recently installed.

Relieves Women's Pains

Here is an example of how Cardui has helped thousands of women: "I was very this and sore," writes Mrs. F. H. Scott, of "Reno, Va. I suffered from weakness and a severe pain in my back. This pain increased, and I did not feel like doing my work. I did not get any sleep, and felt worn, tired, day after day. My mother had taken Cardui, and on seeing my condition she advised me to try it. I have never regretted doing so. I took three bottles and it built me up. I gained weight, my color was better and the pain left my back. I am stronger than I have been in some time. Cardui is sold by local druggists."

Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Allain, Hazard, were week-end visitors of their son, Carleton Allain.

ELECTION

In another column of this issue will be found the complete tabulated vote of Rowan county by precincts. It may be noted in passing that our local congressman, Fred M. Vinson, ran just a little ahead of the ticket in the county.

No. 1, with a Roosevelt majority of 251 votes. Morehead No. 10, which has always been considered a Republican stronghold leaped into the Democratic column with a majority of 141. Even Little Peary, No. 3, almost as rock-ribbed as Farmers No. 2, or as Vermont or Pennsylvania, will be found the complete tabulated by a good majority.

THE VIKINGS

touchdown. The try for point failed and left the score tied.

Then things began to happen. Roy Turner was hurt and taken from the game, Croswright going in the Vikings punted and Tatum recovered a fumble as it bounced from Miller's hands. The Kings made a beautiful drive down the field with Honaker and Robinson alternating at carrying the ball, to the one yard line. Robinson took it over for the second marker.

A few seconds later Robinson on an off tackle play drove through side-stepped clear and raced 52 yards for the third marker. This play, undoubtedly the thrill of the game, full of thrill, was marked by some of the prettiest blocking of the game. In fact the outstanding feature of the Vikings work was the superior interference and blocking displayed throughout the game.

The Kings met Olive Hill at that place Friday afternoon. They will be without the services of Turner. And while Olive Hill is apparently weaker this year than they were last, they are never too weak to give the Vikings a good tussle. So fans are expecting a good game.

Home Electric Service Costs 33% LESS Today Than It Did In 1913

The average cost of residential electric service is today 33 per cent lower than it was in 1913, the year before the world war began. But the average cost of living (prices of food, clothing, shelter, fuel, medical service, etc.), according to the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics, is 40 per cent higher now than it was in 1913. And the average cost of government (federal, state and local), which was $135 a year per family in 1913, has gone up to $450 per family in 1932—an increase of 233 per cent. Thus, while the average living cost has advanced 40 per cent and the cost of government has jumped 233 per cent, in the last nineteen years, the cost of residential electric service has come down 33 per cent. Loaded with the same tax burden everyone else has, the electric power companies have so improved operating efficiency as to be able to reduce home electric rates an average of 5½ cents a kilowatt-hour.

HOMECOMING IS GREAT DAY

Morehead State Teachers College entertained last Saturday with one of the most successful and enjoyable homecomings ever staged at this institution. From all over the country and from every walk of life, it came pouring in, anxious to visit their old alma mater, to see the new buildings and to saunter across the beautiful campus again, mingling with friends, classmates, and former and present students.

It was estimated that approximately two thousand visitors were present to take part in the entertainment. And what an entertainment! From early in the morning until the late hours of the evening Morehead was alive with romance, tradition, and action.

Saturday morning was spent in visiting the buildings and classrooms and talking with friends and faculty members, reviewing old times and discussing every known subject pertaining to Morehead from the time it emerged from a small normal school to the great, beautiful institution that it has now become.

At 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon the students, faculty members and graduates, young and old, gathered in the large Jayne Memorial Stadium to witness the classic event of the day, the Union-Morehead football game. The stands were a riot of color, flags were flying, the band was playing, and under the direction of the three cheer leaders, more than a thousand voices rose in one accord, urging the Flying Eagles on to greater effort, or pleading with them to hold back a bunch of determined, fighting Union Bulldogs.

After the game the old grads trooped up to the lobby of Allie Young Hall, where they registered and spent the next hour in enjoying the social life of the dormitories.

At six o'clock, all went down to the new cafeteria, which had been beautifully decorated with blue and gold streamers, to partake of the alumni banquet. An excellent menu had been prepared, followed by a delightful program. After Vincent Simons had led the songfest, President J. Howard Payne made an address welcoming the old graduates and former students. This was responded to on behalf of the alumni by Mrs. Marshall Hurst, president of the Alumni Association, and on behalf of the undergraduates by Paul Sparks, member of this year's senior class. The College Men's Glee Club rendered three very delightful numbers. Dr. R. E. Graves acted as

At eight o'clock, in the college gymnasium, the climax of the day's entertainment was given — the alumni dance. Under the lovely coming Day, was the largest that has witnessed a game at Jayne Memorial stadium this season.

The Eagles made 11 first downs to Union's nine. They made 154 yards from scrimmage to Union's 130 and both teams completed two passes, Union gaining 42 yards to Morehead's 37 via the aerial route. The Eagles were penalized 10 yards during the game.

The feature of the game was the defensive playing of the Morehead line. It rose like a stone wall to check every goalkick attack of the Bulldogs. Sheridan, Clayton and J. Evans carried the brunt of the attack for the Eagles.

Mother of 7—Still Young

The woman who gives her organs the right stimulus need not worry about growing old. Her system doesn't stagnate; her face doesn't age. She has the health and "pep" that come from a lively liver and strong, active bowels.

When you're sluggish and the system needs help, don't take a lot of "patent medicines." There's a famous doctor's prescription for just such cases, and every druggist keeps this standard preparation. It is made from fresh laxative herbs, active warm, and pure 1-1/2 grain. Just ask for Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin. Take a little every day or so, until every organ in your body feels the big improvement.

The next time you have a bilious headache, or feel all bound-up, take the delicious syrup instead of the usual cathartic. You'll be rid of all that poisonous waste, and you haven't weakened the bowels. You'll have a better appetite, and feel better in every way. The constant use of cathartics is often the cause of a sallow complexion and lines in the face. And so unnecessary!

Would you like to break yourself of the cathartic habit? At the same time building health and vigor that protects you from frequent sick spells, headaches, and colds? Get a big bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin today. Use often enough to avoid those attacks of constipation. When you feel weak and run-down or a coated tongue or bad breath warns you the bowels need to be stimulated. Give it to children instead of strong laxatives that sap their strength. It isn't expensive.

KENTUCKY ASSOCIATION OF MUSIC TEACHERS

Professor Lewis Henry Horton, head of the Department of Music at Morehead State Teachers College, was elected president of the Kentucky Music Teachers Association for the coming year, at the regular meeting of the association, held at Hamilton College, Lexington, last Friday and Saturday. Professor Horton, who was second vice-president and editor of the Kentucky Music Teachers Journal last year, succeeds Professor James E. Van Peursem, head of the Department of Music, Eastern Teachers College, Richmond.

At the Friday morning session the general theme of the program was "Music in the Home," the main address being made by Burnett C. Tut-hill, Cincinnati. An appropriate demonstration of this phase of music was given by the gifted Delcamp family. Professor Delcamp is head of the Department of Music, Transylvania College.

Professor Horton presided at the Friday afternoon session, at which the leading speakers were Professor Bertram P. Ramsey, Physic Department, University of Kentucky, and Mr. Tut-hill. The Asbury College String Quartet, appearing on this program, were enthusiastically received.

The Saturday morning program opened with a group of old English and folk songs sung by the Morehead Madrigal Quartet. Their program of 30 minutes' duration was repeated later in the same session because of popular demand. Members of the quartet are Mr. Horjhi, tenor; Mr. George, baritone; Miss Waters, soprano; and Mrs. George, contralto.

This program was largely given over to the consideration of public school music. A topic stressed especially was the use of class lessons in both voice and instruments. Dr. Charles Norman Granville, Chicago, an authority on the adolescent voice, spoke on the subject, "Voice Class Training."

The group of songs presented at this session by the Girls' Glee Club of the Berea College Academy was another highly appreciated number. The piano recital, given by Jacques Jolas, dean of the Department of Music, University of Louisville, was one of the highlights of the two-day convention. This program took place at Memorial Hall, University of Kentucky, Friday evening and was open to the public.

Dean Jolas is of Alsatian descent and has had training in both Europe and America. He is a concert pianist of international renown. Securing his services by the Louisville institution was made possible by the Juillard Foundation, New York, and, according to Professor Horton, his coming to a Kentucky university is of very great interest to music lovers and music teachers in the state.
